High Point University Athletic Director Dan Hauser announced the hiring of Joey Hammond as the head coach of High Point's baseball program on June 17, 2021.

Hammond becomes the fourth head coach in HPU's Division I era and the eighth skipper in program history.

Hammond spent the last seven seasons in the Triad as a volunteer assistant coach at Wake Forest where he worked with hitting and the outfielders. He guided 17 Demon Deacon hitters to All-ACC honors during his tenure and saw eight players recognized as All-Americans in his seven years.

Hammond developed the Wake Forest offense into one of the nation's best, culminating in a 43-20 season in 2017 where the Demon Deacons finished one game away from advancing to the College World Series. That season, Wake Forest ranked in the top 20 in the country in batting average, on base percentage, doubles, runs, runs per game, walks, hits, slugging percentage, and home runs after becoming the first Division I school in the country to hit 100 home runs in the BBCOR bat era with a nation-leading 106 homers.

Prior to joining Wake Forest, Hammond was the head coach at Westchester Country Day School here in High Point for five seasons. He led the Wildcats to the NCISAA 2A Final Four all five years and won three state championships. He compiled a 104-31-1 record at Westchester Country Day and had 14 graduates go on to play collegiate baseball.

Hammond played 11 years professionally before getting into coaching and was drafted in the 25th round of the 1998 MLB Draft by the Baltimore Orioles, spending eight seasons with the O's organization and three in the Philadelphia Phillies farm system. His final eight seasons of his playing career were spent at the AA and AAA levels and he played at least 100 games at each infield position and over 150 games in the outfield. Hammond ended his career with a .274 batting average with over 1,100 hits and was named to the Reading Phillies (AA) 2000s All-Decade Team.

No stranger to the Tar Heel State, Hammond earned a bachelor's degree in communications from Charlotte, where he was a short-stop on the 49ers from 1996-98. He was a two-time All-Conference USA All-Tournament Team member and was named First Team All-Conference USA in 1998 after batting .398 with 100 hits.

A native of Frederick, Maryland, he was inducted into the YMCA of Frederick County Hall of Fame in 2019. Hammond currently resides in Greensboro with his wife Rebecca and three sons, Caleb, Josh, and Mason.

+ Wins during the 2008 and 2010 season were forfeited by the Big South Conference due to the use of a player that was declared ineligible in 2011 and are reflected in the Big South record for those years.

The remainder of the 2020 season was canceled after March 11, 2020 due to the COVID-19 Pandemic.

* Due to inaccurate records, the team records from seasons played prior to joining NCAA Division I (2000) may be incorrect. Conference championships prior to Division I play are listed where known.
