HEAD COACH G.G. SMITH

Georgia '99 • First Full Season at HPU: 2022-23

G.G. Smith was named HPU's 13th men's basketball head coach last season on February 13, 2022. Prior to taking over at the helm, Smith was the associate head coach for the past five seasons under former head coach Tubby Smith. Smith came to High Point after serving five years as the head, coach at Loyola University Maryland. He was an assistant coach for six seasons under Jimmy Patsos before taking over the helm of the Greyhounds program.

As a member of the Loyola coaching staff, Smith helped guide the Greyhounds to their first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1994 when Loyola won the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference title in 2012. That season, the Greyhounds won a school Division I record 24 games and also were successful in a school-best 13 conference games. Smith guided the Greyhounds to the College Basketball Invitational in 2016-17 and picked up the upset over host George Mason in the first round.

Prior to joining the staff at Loyola prior to the 2007-08 season, Smith was an assistant at nearby Johns Hopkins University in 2006-07, helping the Blue Jays to a 24-5 record and berth in the NCAA Division III Tournament.

He spent two seasons, 2004-06, at Armstrong Atlantic State University. The Pirates finished 23-8 in 2005-06 and earned a No. 2 seed in that season's NCAA Division II Tournament. Smith was an assistant at Tennessee Tech University in 2002-2003 when the Eagles went 21-10 and were the runners-up in the Ohio Valley Conference Tournament.

After graduating from Georgia, Smith was an assistant coach for a year at Lexington (Ky.) Catholic High School before spending two years, 2000-02, as a graduate assistant coach at the Kentucky under Tubby Smith. The Wildcats advanced to a Sweet Sixteen and won a Southeastern Conference regular-season title in his time at Rupp Arena.

Smith graduated from Georgia in 1999 with a degree in health and physical education. He was a three-year starter and earned All-SEC Third-Team honors and aided Georgia in advancing to the NCAA Tournament twice, including the 1996 Sweet Sixteen. He holds the Georgia records for wins in a season (24) and 3-pointers in a game (9). Smith then earned his master's degree in education in sports management from Kentucky in 2002. Smith, and his wife, Lorie, have a daughter, Jayna, and a son, Ross.

ACROSS THE COURT

OPPONENT PREVIEW - TENNESSEE STATE

Across the Bench

Tennessee State has an overall record of 4-1 after defeating CSun in the first day of the SoCal Challenge Sand Division, 74-73. The one-point win in the final seconds of play was led by Marcus Fitzgerald Jr. who tabbed 17 points, five assists and four rebounds. Jr. Clay and Adong Makuoi added double digits in scoring with 11 and 10 points, respectively. Fitzgerald Jr. leads the team in scoring, averaging 19.3 points per game, shooting 51.0% from the field and 43.3% from the three. Zion Griffin leads the team in rebounding, averaging 7.0 per game, one of three players to collect four rebounds in the game against CSun.

As a team, Tennessee State is shooting 44.4% from the field, 35.4% from behind the arc and 68.1% from the free throw line, averaging 73.8 points per game. The team averages 37 rebounds, 6.4 steals and 4.4 blocks. The Tigers have also been averaging 13.6 turnovers per game but collect 11.8 points off turnovers.

Tennessee State is coached by Brian "Penny" Collins, a graduate of Belmont, who enters his fifth season with the Tigers. During the 2021-22 season, Collins led Tennessee State to an overall record of 14-18 with a conference record of 8-10 in the OVC. Making it to the OVC Tournament, the team lost out in the Quarterfinals to SEMO, 55-79.

HIGH POINT PLAYER & TEAM NOTES

Last Time Out

High Point defeated Central Michigan on Monday night taking it down to the wire in the final seconds to win 68-67. Four of the Panthers five starters finished the game with double digits, led by Jaden House with 26. Emmanuel Izunabor got it done for the Panthers on the boards, leading the team with 12, tabbing a new career-high. High Points 18-0 between the first and second half put the team back in the game, gaining 14 points off turnovers, 15 points off second chance rebounds and 23 points in fastbreaks. The Panthers out rebounded the Chipewas, 47-35.

First Mid-American Conference Win

For the first time in program history, HPU defeated a team from the MAC conference. The only other MAC team that High Point has competed against was Western Michigan twice.

House remains in the top 20 in scoring

Averaging 22.8 points per game, Jaden House slides in at 16th overall in the country in scoring.

House's 30-Piece Records New Career-High

After recording a career-high 23 against the Falcons, House blew that out the water with a 33 point game on Saturday. House shot 66.7% from the field and 91.7% from the line. After Saturday's performance, House stated "We have a lot of guys that can come in and score points, and I guess tonight was just my night."

Back-to-Back Double Digits for House

For the second consecutive game, Jaden House dropped another 20+ point game. He shot 8-for-10 from the field and 2-for-4 from behind the arc to tab 23 points. Adding to his stats, he collected one offensive rebound, one assist and one steal.

Special Guest Harry Giles III

Winston-Salem native, Harry Giles III made a guest appearance at Monday nights game. The former Duke Blue Devil and NBA 1st round draft pick cheered on the Panthers in their 109-71 victory and mingled with the team after the game.

Thiam Drops 23 in Debut

Abdoulaye Thiam kicked off his High Point career with a bang, dropping 23 points, two rebounds and one assist. The sharp shooter went 8-for-15 from and field and knocked down 3-of-6 shots from behind the arc. The Minnesota transfer wowed the crowd with his high-flying windmill dunk early in the first half. After Saturday's performance Thiam stated " It felt really great because I did not have this opportunity where I was at so having a team that trust in me, that knows what I can do, and just come in and play and allows me to be me, made it a good experience."

Mr. Austin

Zack Austin was named to the Big South Preseason First Team. Following the 2021-22 season, Austin was named the Big South Freshman of the year while also being named to the second team all-conference selection. A key player for the Panthers, Austin started all 32 games and averaged 14.4 points per game, shooting 41.4% from the field. He contributed on the defensive end by averaging 8.0 rebounds per game (1st in Big South) and collecting a team-high 69 blocks (3rd in Big South), averaging just over two per game. Along with blocks, Austin also led the team in steals, picking up 43 for the season (10th in Big South). Within the conference, Austin made the top 10 in seven different statistical categories, including scoring, rebounding, field goal percentage, steals, 3-point field goals made, blocked shots and minutes played.

Non-Conference Play

High Point will play 13 non-conference games in total, seven of them taking place inside the beautiful Qubein Center and the other six occurring on the road. The Panther's farthest trip is to the west coast for the SoCal Challenge in San Juan Capistrano, California.

It's G.G. Time

Coach Smith enters his first full season as the head coach for High Point. G.G. took over the program on February 16th of 2022, finishing out the final games with a 3-3 record.
