THIS IS WEST LIBERTY

West Liberty University (WLU), a public coeducational school and West Virginia's oldest institution of higher education was established in 1837 and is situated on 290 hilltop acres in a rural setting just an hour from Pittsburgh.

Elementary education and secondary education are the most selected majors but WLU offers more than 70 academic majors in its five Colleges: the Gary E. West College of Business, the College of Liberal Arts, the College of Arts and Communication, the College of Education, and the College of Sciences. West Liberty also offers numerous graduate programs in a variety of disciplines along with degree completion programs for nontraditional students. In the fall of 2023, the university began offering its first doctorate program, the Doctor of Education in Instructional Leadership, Management, and Innovation degree. WLU is the first public college or university of its size in the state to offer a doctorate in education degree. Students both commute and live in residence halls on campus.

One of the more recent additions to the campus infrastructure is the Campbell Hall of Health Sciences. The 72,000 square-foot multistory building united the university's science and health care majors – Dental Hygiene, Physician Assistant Studies, Nursing, Medical Laboratory Science, Speech Pathology/Audiology, and Chemistry – under one roof.

There is a strong athletic tradition at West Liberty. The men's basketball team has won 14 national scoring titles, earned 14 consecutive NCAA Division II Tournament bids and advanced to seven NCAA Division II Elite Eights – including runs to the 2014 and 2023 national championship games! Hilltopper football made history in 2009 and 2010 as the only NCAA Division II team ever to lead the nation in scoring and total offense in consecutive seasons and the West Liberty baseball team won the 1964 NAIA national championship!

Grammy Award-winning country music singer-songwriter Brad Paisley is one of many distinguished Hilltopper alumni. The WLU website is www.westliberty.edu, X (formerly Twitter) feed is @westlibertyu and Facebook account is www.facebook.com/WestLibertyUniversity.

ATHLETIC FACILITIES

ASRC
(Academic, Sports and Recreation Complex)

The 145,000-square foot Academic, Sports and Recreation Complex celebrated its 20th anniversary during the 2019-20 academic year and remains one of the nation's top NCAA Division II multi-purpose athletic facilities.

The 1,200-seat arena serves as the home of West Liberty's men's and women's basketball, volleyball, wrestling, and acrobatics & tumbling teams and has been selected to host multiple NCAA Division II regional championship events for wrestling and men's basketball over the past two decades.

With three Mondo surface basketball courts, a 160-meter indoor track, a well-equipped fitness center, a conference center, full athletic training facilities, administrative offices and numerous classrooms, the facility is a hub of campus activity throughout the year.

WEST FAMILY ATHLETIC COMPLEX

Fueled by another generous gift from Gary and Flip West, the West Family Athletic Complex made a smashing debut in 2019 as the state-of-the-art home for WLU's men's and women's soccer, track and cross-country squads.

Featuring a fully-lighted artificial turf soccer field surrounded by a full 8-lane all-weather track built to NCAA specifications, the sparkling green jewel immediately took its place among the top multi-purpose facilities in the region.

With the addition of the West Family Athletic Complex, the Hilltopper track teams can now practice and host meets on campus for the first time in school history. It also allowed the soccer teams to give their student-athletes more time in the classroom by scheduling select contests at night.

WLU SOFTBALL COMPLEX

The WLU Softball Complex has been hailed as one of the premier NCAA Division II softball facilities in the region ever since its 2010 debut and was chosen as the host site for the 2019 NCAA D2 Atlantic Region I Tournament.

Located adjacent to West Family Stadium, the softball complex is completely enclosed and affords fans a great view of the action from the elevated bleachers.

Other features include modern dugouts, a pro-style backstop, large electronic scoreboard, full-size dual batting cages and an independent irrigation system.

KOVALICK FIELD

Honoring the memory of WLU Hall of Famer George Kovalick, Kovalick Field is home to one of the region's most tradition-laden baseball programs.

Situated in a natural amphitheater with raised bleacher seating, the stadium features a natural grass playing surface with a large electronic scoreboard located in right field.

Modern dugouts complete with safety railings and a new press box are recent additions, making Kovalick Field one of the MEC's top baseball venues.

BELMONT SAVINGS BANK PRACTICE FACILITY

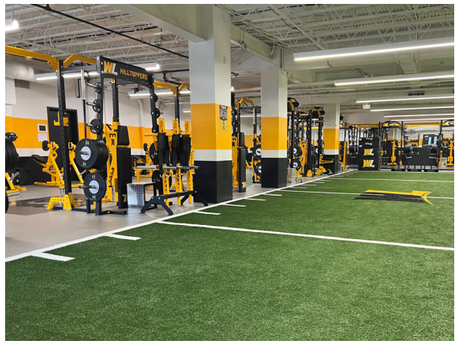

Fueled by a generous lead gift from Belmont Savings Bank, this massive 14,400-square foot vinyl covered steel frame structure is one of the most eye-catching recent additions to the university's facility lineup.

Located adjacent to the WLU Softball Complex, the BSB Practice Facility measures 120 x 120 feet. It is fully heated and insulated so that its artificial turf playing surface can provide an upgraded practice experience for all WLU athletic teams throughout the year.

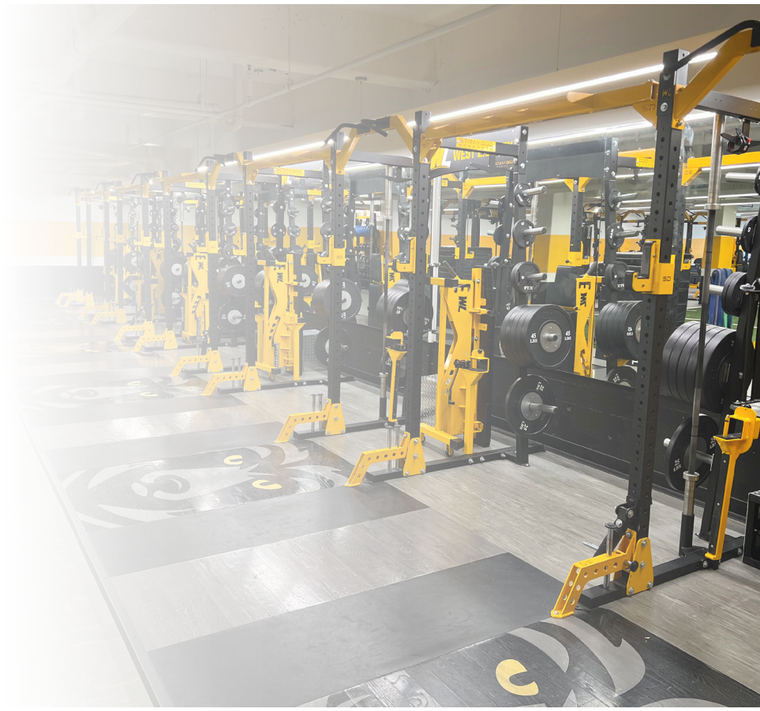

The BSB Practice Facility was a boon to all WLU students as it allowed the baseball and softball teams to remove their practice gear from the Blatnik Hall gym, freeing that facility up for intramural competition.

PANHANDLE PERFORMANCE ZONE

The latest addition to West Liberty's athletic facilities is a true game-changer. Kick-started by leadership gifts from Gary E. West and Herman "Bucky" Kopf and driven by in-kind construction se vices from Panhandle Cleaning and Re toration, the Panhandle Performance Zone takes WLU's strength and cond tioning to the next level.

A significant upgrade and expansion of the university's aging weight room, the Panhandle Performance Zone is anchored by a 20-yard SporTurf training section for advanced speed, agility and plyometric training.

An 18mm Mondo reflex/hybrid response flooring system supports more than six tons of brand-new Troy weight plates, 18 Mondo Deck lifting platforms, 16 Stray Dog posterior chain machines and two full sets of Iron Grip dumbbells ranging from 5-130 pounds. The ultra-modern facility can accommodate as many as 60 student-athletes at the same time.

PRESIDENT
DR. TIM BORCHERS

DR. TIM BORCHERS was selected as the 38th president of West Liberty University by the WLU Board of Governors on May 12, 2023 and officially assumed the responsibilities of his office on July 1, 2023. He succeeded Dr. Cathy Monteroso who had served as interim president since January 1, 2023.

Dr. Borchers provided leadership so that Peru State received continuing accreditation status with the Higher Learning Commission in 2022. He also led the assessment of academic and general education programs while providing support to co-curricular assessment efforts.

Prior to assuming the role of Vice President for Academic Affairs at Peru State College, Dr. Borchers served as the Dean of the College of Arts, Media, and Communication at Minnesota State University Moorhead (MSUM) in Moorhead, Minn., from May 2008 to June 2015. In this role, he fostered partnerships with Forum Communications to develop applied learning opportunities with the Fargo Forum newspaper and with the James Sewell Ballet to provide performance opportunities for dance students.

Before serving as the Dean of the College of Arts, Media, and Communication, he was the founding chair of the Communication Studies Department at MSUM and served as Associate Dean of the College of Arts and Humanities and the College of Social and Natural Sciences. As a faculty member at MSUM, Dr. Borchers taught more than 20 courses in communication and rhetorical theory, coached the university's speech team, and supported student research.

Dr. Borchers holds both a doctoral and master's degree in communication from Wayne State University in Detroit, and a bachelor's degree in speech communication from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, where he was inducted into the Phi Beta Kappa Honor Society.

He is the author of the book Persuasion in the Media Age, which is in its fourth edition and co-author of Rhetorical Theory: An Introduction, now in its second edition.

Dr. Borchers and his wife, Dr. Susanne Williams, enjoy cooking and participating in outdoor activities. He is a passionate runner, having most recently completed the New York City Marathon in November. They are the parents of one adult son, Oliver. Borchers and his wife reside on campus in the president's home, Colonial Heights.

2023-24 SEASON PREVIEW

Fresh off a spectacular run to the NCAA Division II national championship game, head coach Ben Howlett is reloading the West Liberty arsenal with an eye toward hanging up a few more championship banners inside the ASRC.

"Last year was the most fun I've had as a head coach," said Howlett, who brings the highest winning percentage in NCAA basketball (161-25, .866) into his seventh year at the Hilltopper helm. "It might have been the best season in school history.

"We were playing our best basketball at the end of the year, won the (Mountain East) conference regular season championship, swept the MEC Tournament, swept the Atlantic Region Tournament and played for the national title. I'll never forget the guys on that team. They made it fun to come to practice every day. Just a special, special group."

The late-season 18-game winning streak ended in a 111-101 shootout to unbeaten and No. 1-ranked Nova Southeastern (Fla.) in the highest-scoring national final in NCAA D2 history but that setback did little to dim the luster of a 33-4 season that added another layer to the winning tradition on the hilltop.

Since 2010, the Hilltoppers have compiled the best winning percentage (407-50, .891) in NCAA basketball, including an NCAA-best 219-10 (.956) inside the ASRC.

They've won or shared conference titles in 12 of the last 13 seasons and earned 14 straight NCAA Tournament bids. West Liberty has a 34-14 (.708) record in NCAA Tournament play and has advanced to 10 of the last 13 Sweet 16s, 7 Elite Eights and 5 national semifinals.

Consensus All-American Bryce Butler has transferred to NCAA Division I for his final season while 1,000-point scorers Malik McKinney and Steve Cannady departed via graduation, leaving Howlett with some big holes to fill. But in the era of the transfer portal, the reigning W.Va. College Coach of the Year has been there before. And as he points out, the cupboard is far from bare.

"We did lose three really good players," Howlett said, "but we also return 7 of the top 10 guys from a rotation that took us to the national championship game. We've brought in some very talented transfers who've all had success at the collegiate level and will help right away. I've also been impressed by our three high school recruits. They've picked things up a little faster than anticipated and I wouldn't be surprised to see one or two of them earn major minutes."

Christian Montague, a 6-1 All-MEC senior guard from Dayton, Ohio, heads into his third season on the hilltop – and fifth collegiate campaign – with 1,277 career points. Montague (12.1 ppg., 78 3FGs) led the team in assists last year and hit double-figures 30 times while shooting 45 percent from the 3-point arc.

"We're really going to lean on Christian," Howlett said. "He's by far our best on-ball defender and I have complete trust in him offensively. He's a terrific leader and one of the best guards in the region."

Ben Sarson, a 6-6 junior forward from Pittsburgh, also returns. Sarson (10.3 ppg., 4.3 rpg., 63 3FGs) had 19 double-figure scoring games while shooting 48 percent from the floor and 40 percent from the 3-point arc a year ago.

"Ben's a very athletic defense and hustle guy who can also stretch the floor with threes," Howlett said. "You'll see him playing a lot of minutes again."

Alek West, a 6-4 senior guard from Sylvania, Ohio who transferred in from Ohio Dominican last year, has posted 900 career points. West (6.3 ppg., 3.2 rpg.) played in all 37 games and hit double-figures 7 times.

"Alek probably had the best preseason of anybody," Howlett said. "His shooting percentage is way up and his basketball IQ has always been off the charts. He'll be a big part of what we do."

Chaz Hinds, a 6-8 senior post who transferred in from Olney Central CC last season, played in all 37 games. Hinds (6.4 ppg., 3.2 rpg.) had 9 double-figure scoring games.

"Chaz has always been a good 3-point shooter and he's really been working on rebounding and interior defense. If we can get him healthy, he'll be a big factor for us."

Zach Rasile, a 6-1 junior guard from McDonald, Ohio, played in all 37 games. Rasile (9.3 ppg., 86 3FGs) shot 45 percent from the 3-point arc with a team-high 86 bonus bombs and hit double-figures 17 times.

"An elite 3-point shooter, Zach added another piece to his game with the ability to get to the rim and score," Howlett said. "He's really good in our press and a tough, hard-nosed defender."

Finley Woodward, a 6-7 sophomore forward from Bristol, England, played in 36 games as a true freshman and contributed quality minutes down the stretch.

"Fin worked hard on his shooting and made a big jump during the off-season," Howlett said. "Like a lot of European guys, he understands how to play the game."

Dante Spadafora, a 6-0 guard from Pittsburgh, played in 34 games as a redshirt freshman. A perpetual-motion machine, Spadafora is a crowd favorite inside the ASRC.

"Dante was right behind Alek in terms of having a good preseason," Howlett said. "He got up a lot of shots and improved his perimeter game plus he's a great energy guy."

Grant Barnhart, a 6-3 sophomore guard from St. Marys, W.Va., played in 21 games as a true freshman.

"Grant's a hard-working guy who gives us great energy every day as he keeps working on his game," Howlett said. "He's a great teammate and an outstanding shooter."

Howlett's four transfers bring some impressive resumes to the hilltop.

John Korte, a 6-6 graduate transfer forward, was a first-team All-MEC pick at Wheeling after ranking among the league's Top 5 in scoring (19.6 ppg.) and rebounding (7.3 rpg.). He scored 1,049 points at WU – including a career-high 40 in a 114-107 upset win over the Hilltoppers.

"John can score the basketball, guard multiple positions and rebound at a high level," Howlett said.

Darren Fergus, a 6-1 junior guard, earned NCAA D2 All-East Region and ECC Player of the Year honors at Molloy (N.Y.). Fergus (20.6 ppg., 7.6 rpg.) has already tallied 1,148 points.

"Darren's a shifty, speedy guard who can score in a variety of ways," Howlett said.

Laync Shuler, a 6-1 junior guard, was a two-year starter at Erskine (S.C.) who ranked among Conference Carolinas Top 5 scorers (16.8 ppg.). He hit double-figures 21 times with two 34-point nights and has scored 599 career points.

"Laync knows how to play the game," Howlett said. "He's going to play a lot."

Ryan Reasbeck, a 6-3 sophomore guard, was a teammate of Korte's at Wheeling. He hit double-figures 7 times, including a combined 41 points and 9 3FGs in two games against WLU.

"Ryan is an elite shooter, a great kid and a terrific competitor," Howlett said. "He'll be a good player for us."

All three freshmen are coming off outstanding high school careers.

Kyler D'Augustino, a 6-1 southpaw guard from Albany, Ohio, was an All-Ohio Division II guard who ranked among the state's top scorers (27.9 ppg.) at Alexander High School. Kyler was the leading scorer and Team MVP for the victorious South team in the Ohio North-South Game.

"Kyler's been pushing for playing time as a true freshman," Howlett said. "That doesn't happen here very often but he may force our hand."

Terrance Pankey Jr., a 6-2 guard from Youngstown, Ohio, is another All-Ohio Division II guard. He averaged a double-double (18.5 ppg., 10.2 rpg.) at Ursuline High School and was also picked to play in the Ohio North-South Game.

"Terrance is Youngstown tough," Howlett said. "He'll get up in your face and guard you. We think he's going to be really good."

Garrison Kisner, a 6-7 forward from Morgantown, W.Va., is an All-OVAC frontliner who helped lead Morgantown High School to its second straight state title. West Virginia's leading scorer in the OVAC All-Star Game, Kisner also won the Slam-Dunk Contest.

"Garrison definitely plays above the rim," Howlett said. "He'll make some noise at WLU before he's through."

Howlett likes what he's seen to this point in the preseason but says the 2023-24 Hilltoppers are still a work in progress.

"It's like any other year," Howlett said. "With so many new guys, some days I think we're going to be really good and other days not so much. I do think we have talent. It's just a matter of finding combinations that work well together and getting guys on the same page."

There's a bit of a new look to Howlett's staff as former assistant Mike Lamberti is now head coach at Coker (S.C.) University. After three years as a student assistant, Connor Harr stepped up to fill Lamberti's role. Veteran assistant Dr. Aaron Huffman returns for his 13th season and the staff welcomed back former WLU All-American Dan Monteroso as a part-time assistant coach.

COACHING STAFF

BEN HOWLETT
HEAD COACH

HHeading into his seventh season in charge of West Liberty University's nationally-ranked men's basketball program, Ben Howlett just keeps adding to his legend.

The former Hilltopper scoring machine is coming off his most spectacular coaching season yet as his 2022-23 squad came up one win shy of a national championship following a magical post-season run, falling to unbeaten and No. 1-ranked Nova Southeastern, 111-101, in the highest-scoring national championship game in NCAA Division II history.
That loss did little to dim the luster of yet another remarkable season on the hilltop as WLU's 33-4 record pushed Howlett's career mark to an impressive 161-25 (.866) – the highest winning percentage among all NCAA men's basketball coaches.

Howlett's Hilltoppers did it in style, winning their sixth straight MEC regular season title and third MEC Tournament crown in the last four seasons. They earned their NCAA Division II-best 14th consecutive NCAA Tournament bid and swept the Atlantic Region Tournament with three straight double-digit victories. Along the way, the Black and Gold stretched their run of consecutive games with a 3-point field goal to 792 – a streak that dates all the way back to 1999.

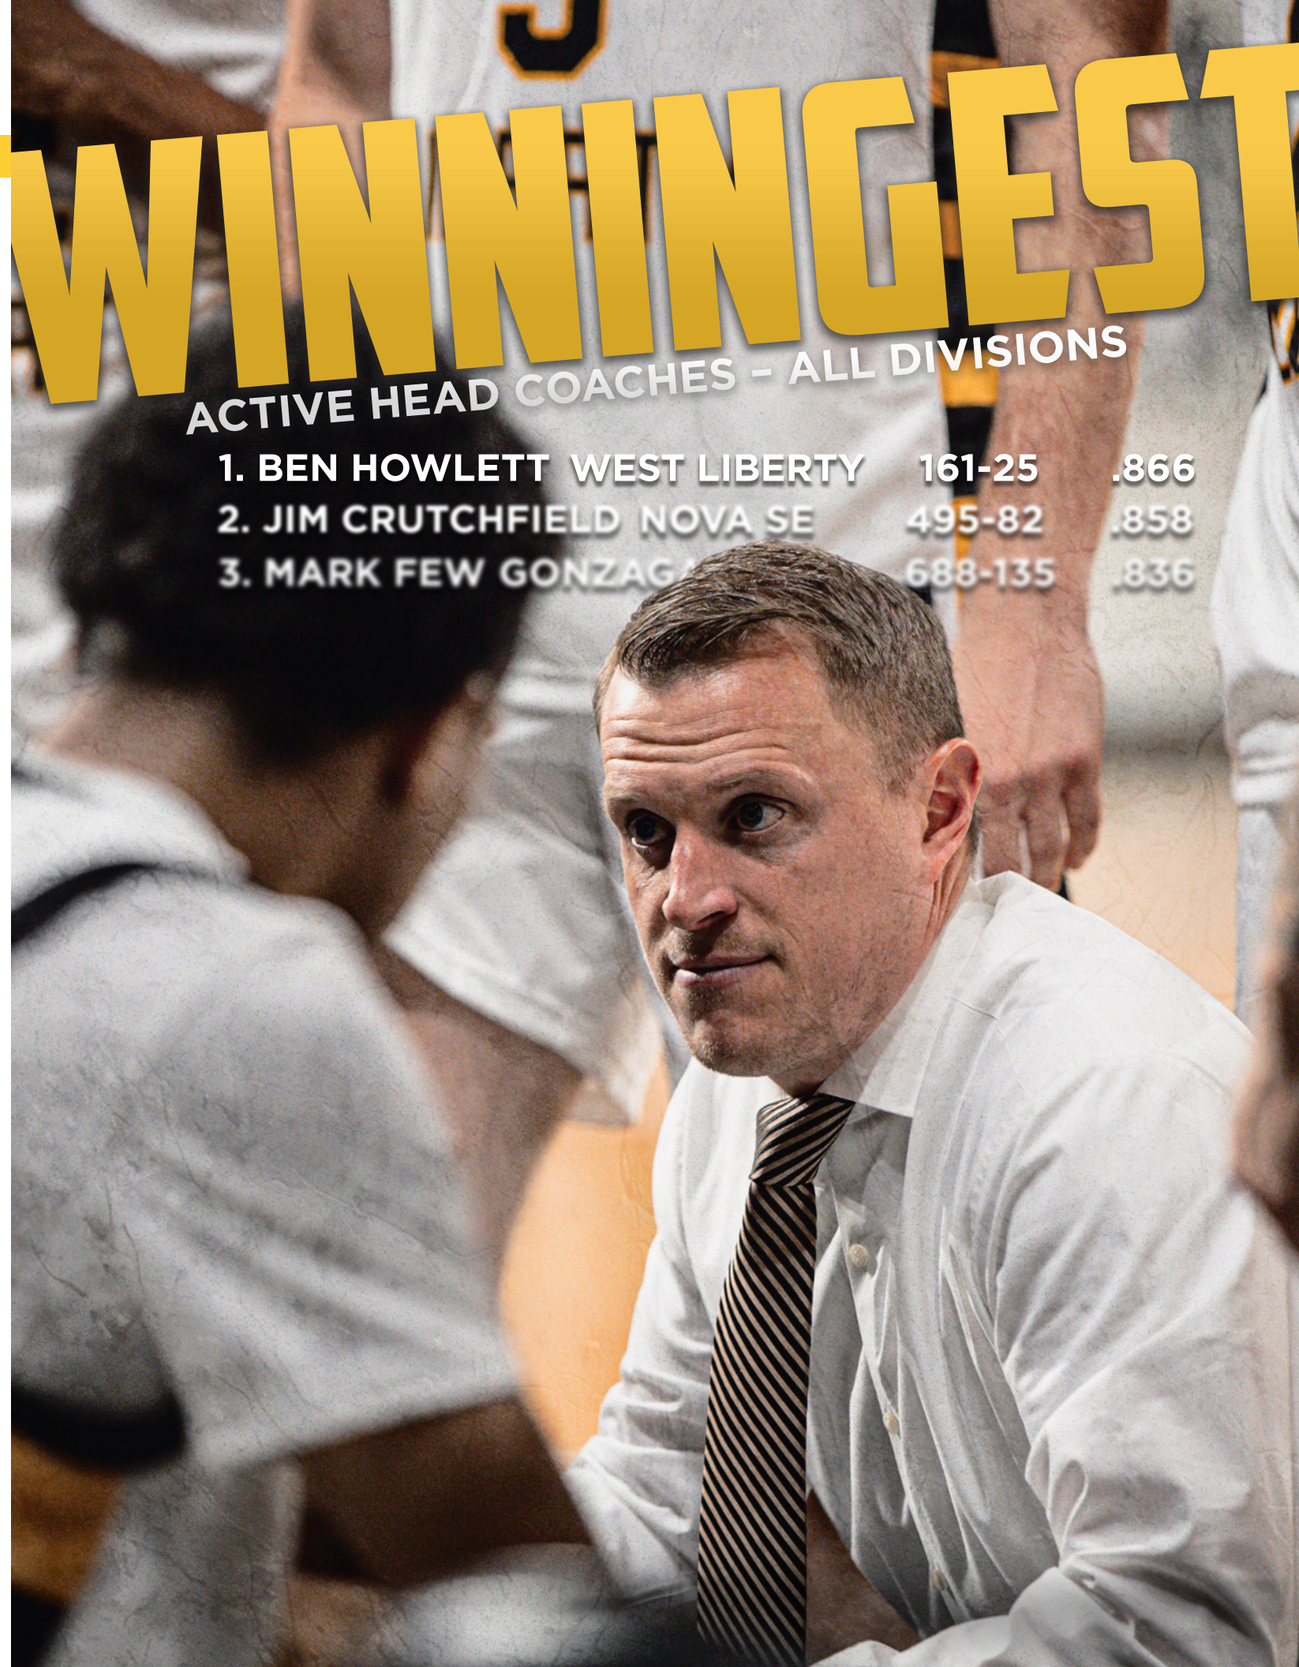

Not surprisingly, Howlett picked up plenty of post-season plaudits. Along with his third MEC Men's Basketball Coach of the Year Award, the former West Liberty shooting guard was voted MEC Men's All-Sports Coach of the Year Award. In May, he received the Mickey Furfari Award as the West Virginia College Coach of the Year from the West Virginia Sportswriters Association. The winning tradition runs deep at West Liberty and Howlett has been a big part of it. Malik McKinney became the 55th 1,000-point scorers in nearly a century of Hilltopper basketball during the 2022-23 season. Howlett, now tied for No. 18 on that list with 1,663 points, has played with or coached 26 of those 55 players.

West Liberty has the highest home winning percentage of any NCAA men's basketball program over the past 15 seasons at an eye-popping 219-10 (.956) and Howlett has kept that ball rolling on multiple fronts. His Hilltoppers have gone 112-14 (.889) in MEC play, 79-6 (.915) at home and 60-10 (.857) in road games during his first six years.

West Liberty players have racked up multiple individual honors at the conference, regional and national levels during Howlett's tenure. A pair of WLU All-Americans – Dan Monteroso and Dalton Bolon – were honored as the NCAA Division II Men's Basketball Academic All-Americans of the Year. Bolon, in fact, is the only player in conference history to sweep the MEC Male Athlete of the Year and the MEC Male Scholar-Athlete of the Year awards. West Liberty has produced at least one NCAA Division II All-American in each of the past 11 seasons.

The 36-year-old Howlett brought an incredible track record to the position when he became the 16th head basketball coach at WLU prior to the 2017-18 season. He had served as lead assistant coach under former head man Jim Crutchfield for the previous six years, helping guide the Hilltoppers to six NCAA Division II Tournaments, five Sweet 16s, four Elite Eights, two Final Fours and the 2014 national championship game. Howlett was a standout guard on four consecutive 20-win teams under Crutchfield from 2005-09. He was the nation's fourth-leading scorer (23.0 ppg.) as a senior while shooting nearly 60 percent from the floor. He stayed on campus as a student assistant for the 2009-10 season, helping lead the Black and Gold to a Top 10 national ranking and their first WVIAC title in 50 years. He spent 2010-11 as an assistant coach at Ohio Valley University before accepting Crutchfield's offer to return to his alma mater as an assistant coach.

Howlett resides in Wheeling with his wife, Jessica. The couple welcomed their first child, Maddy, earlier this year.

COACHING STAFF

CONNOR HARR
ASSISTANT COACH
4TH SEASON

After taking on increasing responsibilities over the past three seasons as a student assistant coach with the West Liberty men's basketball program, Connor Harr has stepped up into the role of full-time assistant coach for the 2023-24 season.

Harr replaces former Hilltopper standout and assistant coach Mike Lamberti, who accepted the head coaching position at Coker (S.C.) University over the summer.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Harr came to the hilltop after a season as a student assistant coach at Great Lakes Christian College in Lansing, Mich. Harr had spent the previous two years at Columbus (Ohio) State Community College as a student manager with the CSCC men's basketball program.

Harr also gained valuable experience working for 270 Hoops, an NCAA-certified scouting service in Columbus, and has worked as a credentialed NBA Draft writer/ consultant for several basketball websites.

A 2017 graduate of Austintown (Ohio) Fitch High School, he was an outstanding student and also earned multiple letters in track and cross country. Connor has a twin sister, Anna, and is the son of Ann Marie and the grandson of Agnes Snitzer.

DAN MONTEROSO
PART-TIME ASSISTANT COACH
1ST SEASON

Former West Liberty All-American Dan Monteroso has joined Coach Ben Howlett's coaching staff for the 2023-24 season as a part-time assistant coach.

Monteroso played only two seasons of basketball on the hilltop after beginning his collegiate career as a Big Ten wide receiver with the Purdue football team but it didn't take long for the St. Clairsville, Ohio native to make his mark at West Liberty.

The silky-smooth southpaw poured in 1,134 points in those two years on the WLU hardwood, leading the nation's highest-scoring team in scoring while reeling in boatloads of post-season awards for his athletic and academic accomplishments. Not only did he earn first-team All-MEC and NCAA Division II All-Atlantic Region honors during his debut campaign on the hilltop, Monteroso was chosen as one of only five NCAA Division II Academic All-America first-team selections out of more than 300 NCAA Division II men's basketball programs but the talented scorer saved the best for last the following year.

That's when he was chosen as the 2018 NCAA Division II National Academic All-American of the Year for men's basketball after leading West Liberty to a 26-4 season capped by another MEC championship and a ninth consecutive NCAA Division II Tournament bid. In addition, he once again earned All-MEC and All-Region honors along with being named to the Basketball Times' NCAA Division II All-America Team

Monteroso averaged 20.2 ppg. while hitting double-figures in every game for the Black and Gold that year. He had 14 games of 20 or more points, two 30+ point games and knocked down a season-high 40 points in an MEC Tournament quarterfinal rout of West Virginia State. Monteroso even set an MEC Tournament record by going 18-of-19 from the foul line in that win against the Yellow Jackets.

The West Liberty roots run deep in the Monteroso family. Dan's mother, Dr. Cathy Monteroso, has held multiple positions in the university administration and is currently serving as interim provost. His father, Jeff Monteroso, is the long-time defensive coordinator for the West Liberty football team. Dan and his wife, Brooke, are the proud parents of a daughter named May.

AARON HUFFMAN
ASSISTANT COACH

A highly-successful head coach in his own right, Dr. Aaron Huffman brings more than two decades of successful coaching experience to the West Liberty men's basketball staff for the 13th consecutive season.

Over the past 12 years working with head coaches Ben Howlett and Jim Crutchfield, Huffman has helped guide West Liberty to 11 conference championships, six conference tournament championships and eight NCAA Division II "Sweet 16s" to go along with six NCAA Division II Atlantic Region titles and "Elite Eight" National Tournament berths. During Huffman's dozen seasons on the WLU bench, the team has posted an incredible 345-46 (.882) record – tops among all NCAA men's basketball programs, regardless of division. Huffman was named to the "50 Impactful Division II Assistants" by Silver Waves Media following the 2019-20 season.

A 3-time PAC Coach of the Year as head men's basketball coach from 2002-08 at Bethany (W.Va.) College, Huffman went 112-53 (.679) with the Bison, leading them to three PAC regular-season titles and tournament crowns along with a trio of NCAA Division III tournament bids and an ECAC tournament berth.

Huffman began his coaching career at West Liberty as a women's basketball assistant under Hilltopper Hall of Famer Lynn Ullom from 1999-01, helping the WLU women reel off back-to-back WVIAC regular season and tournament titles. He spent the 2001-02 season as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator with West Liberty men's coach Dan Petri before accepting the head coaching job at Bethany in 2002.

Huffman rejoined Ullom with the Hilltopper women's team in 2008-09 and helped lead the Black and Gold to three 20-win seasons and two NCAA Division II tournament bids before joining Coach Crutchfield's men's basketball staff.

A Professor of Education in the WLU College of Education and Human Performance, Huffman is a graduate of Waynesburg (Pa.) Central High School. He graduated from West Virginia University in 1997 with a bachelor's degree in Secondary Education and a Mathematics minor. He earned his master's in Athletic Coaching Education from WVU in 2000 and went on to earn his doctorate in Higher Education Administration from WVU in 2013, minoring in Higher Education Technology and Physical Education Teacher Education.

Huffman served as West Liberty's Director of Athletics for the 2015-16 academic year and was WLU's NCAA Compliance Coordinator and Athletic Facilities Building Supervisor from 2000-02. He served two separate stints as NCAA Compliance Coordinator at Bethany from 2002-04 and was Bethany's Summer Athletic Facilities Supervisor from 2003-08. He is nationally licensed as a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

Huffman and his wife, Courtney, a Professor of Dental Hygiene at WLU, reside in West Liberty with their three children, Jacob, Jillian and Joshua.

CULLEN GALLAGHER
STUDENT MANAGER
1ST SEASON

Cullen Gallagher is tipping off his first season as student manager with West Liberty University's nationally-ranked men's basketball program.

The Powell, Ohio native played his high school basketball at Olentangy Liberty High School. Cullen is pursuing an Exercise Physiology major at West Liberty.

CONFERENCE HISTORY

West Liberty was a charter member of the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference when it formed in 1924 and won or shared 6 WVIAC men's basketball championships during a lengthy affiliation stretching over nine decades.

When the league dissolved following the 2012-13 season, West Liberty joined 11 other schools in forming the Mountain East Conference, which began operation as the NCAA's newest Division II all-sports league in the summer of 2013. Reid Amos was appointed as the MEC's first commissioner and the conference offices were centrally located in Bridgeport, W.Va.

The 2019-20 academic year saw the first changes to the MEC lineup. Charter members UVa-Wise and Shepherd left the conference with Frostburg State (Md.) and Davis & Elkins (W.Va.) coming into the fold. Alderson Broaddus made its MEC debut during the 2020 season. North Carolina-Pembroke competes as an affiliate member in football.

The MEC now crowns conference champions in a total of 23 sports: men's/women's basketball, men's/women's cross country, men's/women's indoor track & field, men's/women's outdoor track & field, men's/women's golf, men's/women's soccer, men's/women's swimming, men's/women's tennis, women's lacrosse, women's acrobatics & tumbling, baseball, football, softball, volleyball, and wrestling.
