ABOUT YOUR HOST:

Jim Sheehan is in his 29th year in the sports public relations profession and in his 21st year in charge of Hofstra University's athletic publicity. In November 1999 he was promoted to Associate Director of Athletics at the University. Sheehan came to Hofstra in 1988 after serving as Assistant Commissioner of the Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference in St. Louis, Missouri, from 1985 through 1988. Prior to his Gateway stint, he served as Coordinator of Media Relations for the Houston Gamblers of the United States Football League in 1984-85. Sheehan has also served as Director of Sports Information at the University of Tampa from 1982 through 1984; Assistant to the Commissioner/Information Director of the Sunshine State Conference from 1980 through 1984 and Director of Sports Information at his alma mater, Biscayne College in 1981-82. Jim and his wife, Maureen, have a daughter, Jillian (16). The Sheehan family resides in Middle Village, New York.

PRESS BOX:

The James M. Shuart Stadium press box, located on the fourth floor of the Shuart Stadium Building, is intended for working media and scouts. All media members, including radio and television stations, will be seated on the fourth floor while video and television camera locations are on the roof. All press box guests must have a pass, issued by the Hofstra Office of Athletic Communications, to gain entrance. Spouses, dates and non-workers are not permitted in the press box.

CREDENTIALS:

All members of the press should contact the Office of Athletic Communications at least 48 hours before each game for press box space and credentials. Press passes will be left at the media entrance on the west side of the stadium.

PHOTOGRAPHERS:

Photographers who intend to shoot from the field should request a sideline photo pass. Only press and staff photographers will be allowed on the sidelines. All members of the press photo corps are reminded to stay out of the bench areas during the course of the game. Photo sideline passes should always be visible when on the field. Freelance photographers are not allowed on the James M. Shuart Stadium field.

PRESS PARKING:

Media parking passes should be requested at the same time press box/sideline passes are requested. The Reserved-Media parking lot is located across the street from the Stadium Building, which houses the press box, on the corner of Belmont Place and Meadowbrook Place. To enter the lot off of Hempstead Turnpike, go south (turn left if coming from the east) on California Avenue. Go 20 yards on California Avenue to Belmont Place and turn left. Go down the block to the last lot on the left, which is on the corner of Meadowbrook Place. Parking is limited and on a first-come, first-served basis in the Reserved-Media lot. Once that lot is filled, media will be directed to the general public parking areas around Shuart Stadium.

GAME SERVICES:

Game information packets consisting of media guides, programs, releases and notes will be placed at each media member's seat. A quickie statistics sheet will be distributed quarterly. Complete game statistical books will be available in the press box 30 minutes after each game.

TELEPHONES:

Hofstra University provides numerous telephones for use by the media in the press box. Please indicate your telephone need when you request your credentials.

RADIO:

The Hofstra Office of Athletic Communications will provide a touch-tone digital phone line for the opponent's commercial and student radio stations. Visiting teams will need to give the Athletic Communications Office two weeks notice of their intention to broadcast. An ISDN line is also available for a rental charge of $200.00. All calls must be made collect or direct dial from the radio station to James M. Shuart Stadium.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS:

Hofstra Head Football Coach Dave Cohen, Pride players, the opposing head coach and opposing players will be available for post-game interviews in the theater on the lower level of Margiotta Hall. Media with credentials should enter Margiotta Hall through the west side door facing the plaza.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS:

All requests for player interviews during the week should be made at least one day in advance through the Office of Athletic Communications. If you are requesting a phone interview, we will either put you through to the player requested or have the player return your call at a mutually convenient time. The best time to reach players is from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. depending upon class schedule, or following practice (approximately 6 p.m.). Player home phone numbers will not be distributed. In-person interviews may be conducted in a number of locations in and around Margiotta Hall. However, interviews may not be conducted in the locker room or the athletic training room.

WEEKLY RELEASE FAX AND E-MAIL:

The Hofstra University weekly football release will be available, in PDF form, on Wednesdays by noon on the Hofstra Athletic Web Site (www.Hofstra.edu). The Hofstra Office of Athletic Communications has ceased mailing weekly press releases. However, we will E-mail releases to those media members who wish to get football release during the season.

CAA FOOTBALL ON THE WEB -- CAASPORTS.COM:

CAASports.com features the latest news and stories on all of the happenings around the conference, including the 12 football schools. Standings along with team-by-team and composite results are updated after each game. National polls, weekly award winners and team notebooks are updated each Monday. The site also contains schedules, championship information, television listings, past conference records and much more. Be sure to check out the new CAA Media Center for video and audio highlights of action from around the league.

CAA WEEKLY RELEASE & STATISTICS:

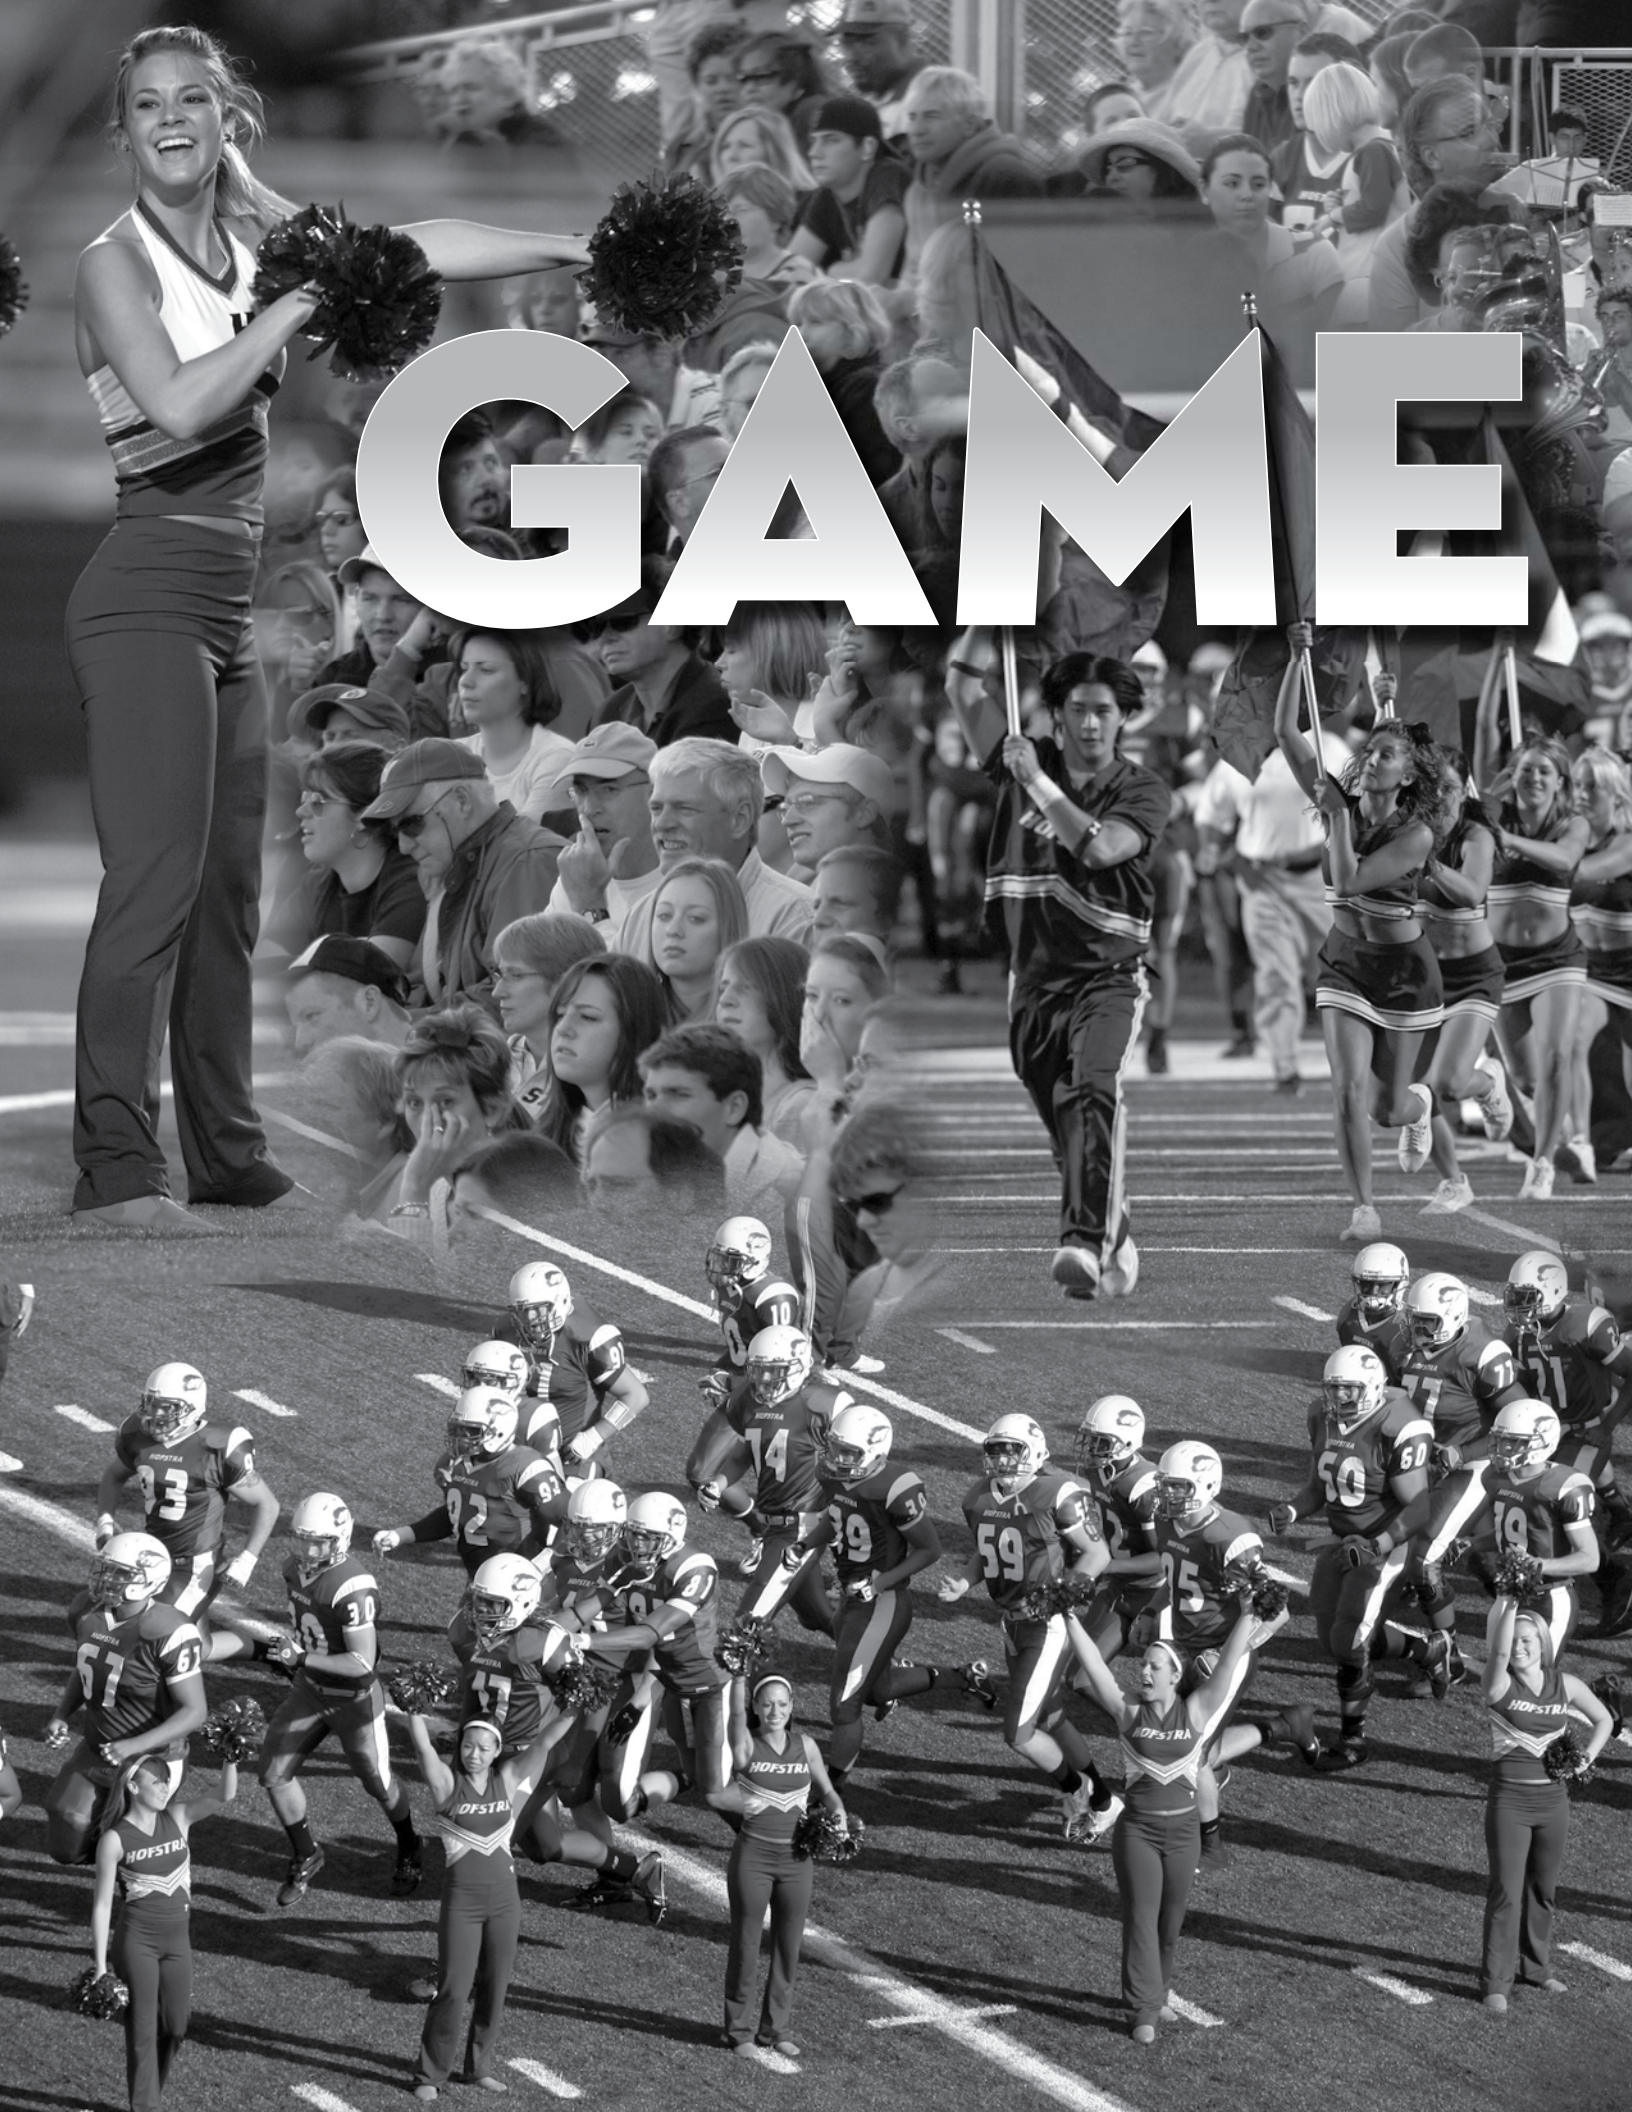

Media can access PDF files of the complete CAA weekly release, including conference and team-by-team statistics, by logging on to www.CAASports.com. Weekly releases will also be sent via E-mail to a number of accredited media outlets around the league. Media members should contact Director of Football Communications Scott Meyer (804-754-1616, x20) at the CAA office to be added to the CAA Football E-mail list.

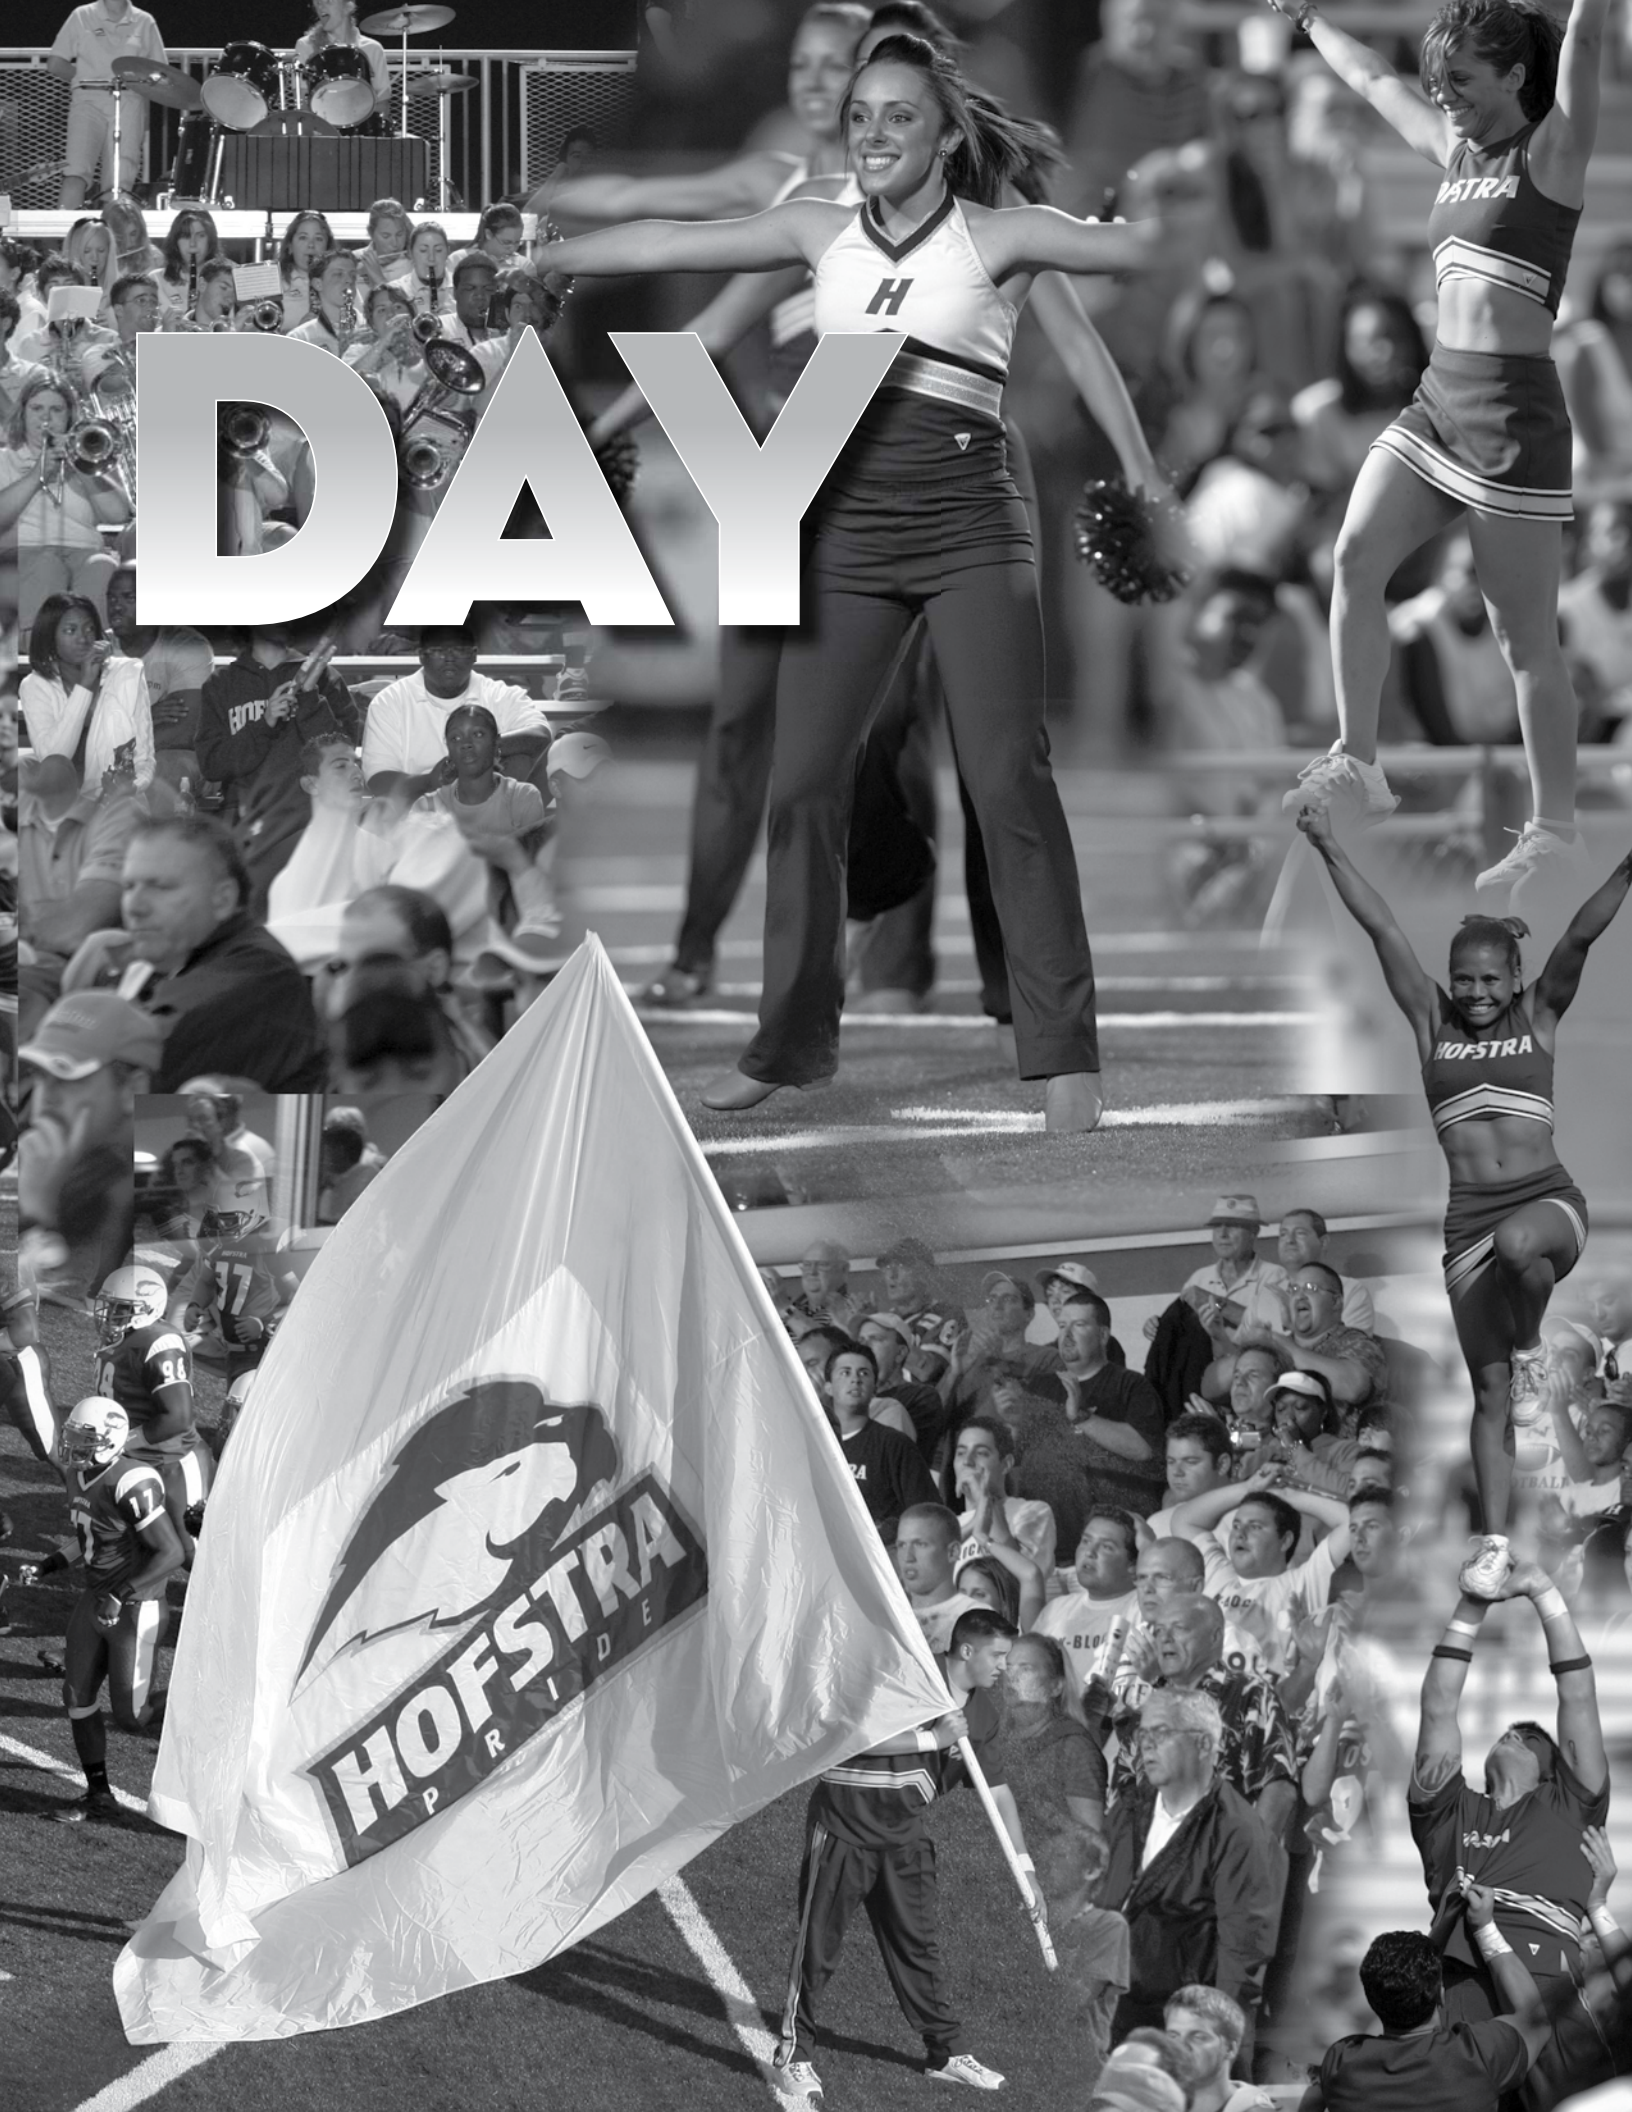

CAA WEEKLY MEDIA TELECONFERENCE:

The CAA Football coaches will hold a weekly teleconference for the media beginning Monday, Aug. 25. The call will take place each Monday during the season, concluding Nov. 24 with only those coaches who will represent CAA Football in the Division I Football Championships. The teleconference will open with the release of the four selected player of the week winners, a recap of the weekend and a preview of the following week. CAA Football coaches will be available to answer questions beginning at 10:10 a.m. The weekly lineup is listed below. The phone number to take part in the call is 888-289-3996. Members of the media should contact Scott Meyer (804-754-1616, x20) at the CAA office for the password to access the call. Comments from the call will also be available on the web at www.CAASports.com.

THIS IS HOFSTRA UNIVERSITY

Hofstra University provides a dynamic college experience tailored for innately ambitious, outcome-oriented individuals. Students find their edge at Hofstra, through small classes, a faculty whose primary concern is teaching, cutting edge technology, extensive library resources, internships, and special educational programs that appeal to their interests and abilities. The Hofstra community is driven, dynamic and energetic, helping students find and focus their strengths to prepare them for a successful future.

In its relatively short history, Hofstra has established itself as a world-class institution of higher education and cultural enterprise. Each academic year, the Hofstra campus and the programs offered grow and change to meet the demands of our students and our community.

Hofstra opened in 1935 as a commuter school with all classes and offices housed in one building. Since those early days, Hofstra has evolved into an international institution with a student body hailing from 46 states and territories, and 65 countries around the world. The beautiful campus is an accredited arboretum with 113 buildings on 240 acres. There are approximately 4,200 students living on campus, and Hofstra offers them and all students an extensive array of academic and social activities. Additionally, Hofstra's close proximity to Manhattan means that students have easy access to the wondrous cultural, social and career offerings of the city.

What has remained consistent throughout the years, however, is the sense of community on campus, the eagerness of our students to learn and the commitment of the Hofstra faculty and administration to provide a challenging education that encourages the pursuit of lifelong learning.

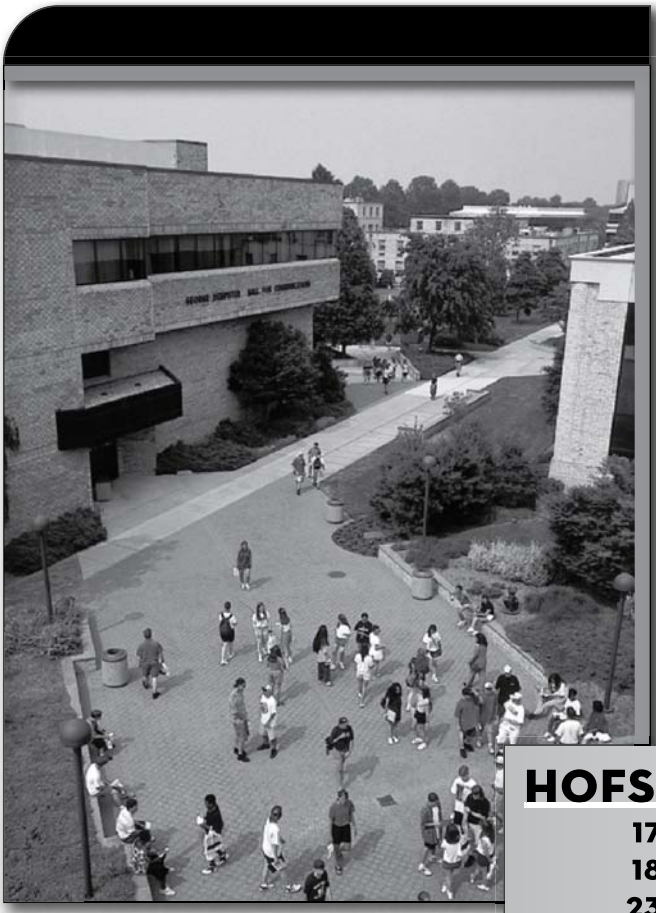

The Colleges and Schools of the University are: Hofstra College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, Frank G. Zarb School of Business, New College of Hofstra, School of Communication, School of Education and Allied Human Services, School of Law, School for University Studies, University College for Continuing Education, Honors College and Saturday College. Bachelor's degrees are offered in 140 areas of study. Graduate degrees are offered, including Ph.D., Ed.D., Psy.D., Au.D. and J.D. degrees, advanced certificates and professional diplomas, in more than 150 programs of study.

The University celebrated the opening of Hagedorn Hall, the new home of our School of Education and Allied Human Services, in October 2003. In 2001 Hofstra University Honors College welcomed its first class. This new division of the University proved to be an immediate success, not only with University faculty and administrators, but among the 93 inaugural students. Every fall since, the number of entering freshmen has increased substantially.

Hofstra's School of Communication is one of the largest, most advanced non-commercial television facilities in the East. Students take classes and work in Dempster Hall, a sophisticated television production/post-production facility with two broadcast-quality studios and control rooms; two advanced online video edit suites; two Avid non-linear digital editing systems and several cuts-only video work stations. Two satellite dishes are available with one dish providing special news feeds for the broadcast journalism room, which also has access to Associated Press, Lexis-Nexis and Dow Jones services. In addition, the facility is capable of broadcasting student-produced programming to the entire campus on our own cable channels. Also located here is the University's radio station (WRHU/88.7-FM), audio production studios, a film/video screening room, film editing rooms, a computer laboratory, a speech performance studio and a large dance studio.

Hofstra's C.V. Starr Hall offers academic facilities that are among the most technologically advanced in the nation. Every seat in every classroom allows students direct access to the Internet and Hofstra network, including the resources of Hofstra's Axinn Library.

Hofstra's growing computer facilities offer extensive high-tech training opportunities. There are computer terminals throughout the

The Hofstra Museum, which houses one of the largest art collections in the metropolitan area, coordinates approximately 12 exhibitions annually and offers exhibition areas and an extensive outdoor sculpture collection, with more than 65 pieces. The Hofstra Museum is accredited by the American Association of Museums – one of only 94 universities in the nation and one of six in New York to hold that distinction.

Hofstra also has seven theaters, a student newspaper, a lively student center, a recreation center and numerous athletic facilities, including the 13,000-seat James M. Shuart Stadium and the 5,046-seat David S. Mack Sports and Exhibition Complex. Hofstra also has an indoor, Olympic-sized (eight lane, 50-meter) swimming pool, one of the largest such facilities in the New York metropolitan area.

The Hofstra athletic program competes on the NCAA Division I level and is a member of the Colonial Athletic Association. The University sponsors 18 intercollegiate programs – nine men's sports and nine women's sports. Hofstra has men's teams in basketball, football, baseball, lacrosse, golf, tennis, wrestling, soccer and cross country. Women's sports include basketball, volleyball, softball, tennis, soccer, field hockey, lacrosse, cross country and golf. The 18 men's and women's intercollegiate athletic teams compete in more than 150 home contests annually.

campus for student and faculty use, with more than 750 PC, Macintosh and UNIX workstations available in labs and classrooms. The University was ranked 14th in Forbes' list of Most Connected Campuses in 2004, up from 18 in 2003.

Hofstra hosts more than 500 cultural events annually, bringing thousands of scholars, dignitaries and other participants to campus. More than 200 musical and dramatic performances take place on campus each year.

Hofstra's academic programs are accredited by numerous national agencies and the University is one of only 270 schools, out of more than 3,600 colleges and universities nationwide, with a chapter of the national honor society Phi Beta Kappa. Of Hofstra's 1,206 faculty members, 532 are full time and 90 percent hold the highest degree in their fields. The average undergraduate class size is 23 students, while student-faculty ratio is 14-to-1.

Hofstra University is 100-percent program accessible to persons with disabilities, and has been cited as a national model for this achievement.

DAVE COHEN

HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 21ST YEAR
HOFSTRA YEAR: THIRD

Long Island native Dave Cohen is entering his third season as the Hofstra University head football coach in 2008. Only the seventh head football coach in the Pride's 67-season history, Cohen is widely regarded as one of the top defensive coaches in the country. His first two seasons as head coach have resulted in improved play on both sides of the line of scrimmage. In 2006 the Pride posted their best total defense average since 1996, and ranked in the top half in the conference in rushing defense, pass defense, scoring defense and total defense. Last season Hofstra recorded the fifth-most improved record in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS), improving from 2-9 to 7-4. For his efforts, Cohen was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award, which is presented annually to the top FCS Coach in the country. The Pride led the CAA in rushing defense in 2007, allowing just 113.9 yards per game, which ranked as the best average since the 1996 campaign. The Pride also ranked second in total defense, allowing just 312.2 yards per game. That mark was the second-lowest total since 1996. While the Pride was in the middle of the CAA in total offense, they did improve by an average of 122 yards per game from 2006 to a mark of 388.5 last season. Hofstra also led the CAA in punt return average (14.7 ypr) thanks mostly to sophomore current Anthony Nelson, who led the conference with a 15.6 yards per return average.

Cohen came to Hofstra after a four-year stint at the University of Delaware – his second tenure at UD – from 2002 through the 2005 season. During that time his defensive schemes played a large part in Delaware posting a 15-1 record and capturing the NCAA I-AA national title in 2003. Led by All-American defensive end and Oakland Raider draftee Shawn Johnson and current San Francisco 49ers starting safety Mike Adams, the Blue Hens posted the first shutout in I-AA championship game history with a 40-0 win over previously unbeaten Colgate. Delaware's defense, which held all four I-AA playoff opponents to under 10 points to set an NCAA I-AA record, led the Atlantic 10 in rushing defense (114.3 - 17th in I-AA), pass efficiency defense (113.36), and scoring defense (15.4 - 4th in I-AA), and ranked second in total defense (303.0 - 16th in I-AA). For his efforts, Cohen was honored in July 2004 as the NCAA I-AA Defensive Coordinator of the Year by American Football Monthly magazine.

In 2004 Cohen led a Blue Hen defense that ranked among the top 25 in the nation in rushing defense, total defense, and turnover margin as Delaware went 9-4 and advanced to the I-AA quarterfinals. Injuries and youth played a big part in Delaware posting a 6-5 record in 2005 but the Blue Hens finished the season with two road wins. The squad ranked fourth in the Atlantic 10 in rushing defense (119.6) and sacks (30), and sixth in total defense (364.5) and scoring defense (24.0).

Born in Huntington, New York, Cohen was a three-time league champion, all-county and All-Long Island selection at Commack North High School, where he played under Bill Edwards, who is the highly successful, long-time Pride softball coach. A 1988 business management graduate of Long Island University-C.W. Post, Cohen earned his master's degree in education administration from SUNY-Albany in 1990. While at C.W. Post, he was a two-year starter at defensive tackle and earned CoSIDA Academic All-Region honors as a senior.

He began his coaching career as linebackers coach and strength coach at Albany in 1988-89 before moving on to Lafayette College where he served four seasons from 1990 through 1993 as linebackers and defensive line coach.

Cohen joined the University of Delaware staff in May 1994 and served five successful seasons, two as defensive line coach and three as linebackers coach. During his five years at Delaware, he helped lead the Blue Hens to three consecutive NCAA I-AA tournament appearances in 1995, 1996 and 1997, and the 1995 Yankee Conference title. Delaware advanced to the national semifinals with a 12-2 mark in 1997 behind all-conference linebackers Brian Smith, Ralph D'Angelo, and Denis Hulme.

While defensive line coach at UD, his team recorded 38 sacks in 1995. He also coached the punt block team in 1997 and the unit recorded a school record five blocks, returning three for touchdowns.

Following his first stint at Delaware, Cohen moved on to Fordham University where he served three seasons (1999-2001) as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach, including the last two seasons as associate head coach under then Head Coach Dave Clawson.

Cohen helped build Fordham from the bottom of the league standings into a Patriot League contender. After going 0-11 in 1999 and 3-8 in 2000, the Rams posted a record of 7-4 in 2001 and placed third in the league standings with a 5-2 mark. The Rams won the league title in 2002.

Cohen and his wife, Denise, have two sons, Charlie (8) and Brian (5).

ASSISTANT COACHES

MIKE ELKO

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/LINEBACKERS COACH

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 10TH YEAR
HOFSTRA YEAR: THIRD

Mike Elko enters his third season as defensive coordinator at Hofstra University, his second directing the Pride linebackers and his first as assistant head coach. Last year the Pride defense ranked first in the CAA and 11th in the FCS in rushing defense, second in the conference and 15th in the country in total defense, and fourth in the CAA and 37th in the FCS in scoring defense.

In 2006 Elko directed the Pride defensive backs in addition to his defensive coordinator duties with the Pride defense ranked in the top half of the conference in total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense and pass defense.

Elko came to Hofstra after two seasons as linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at the University of Richmond. His first recruiting class at Richmond was a large part of the Spiders' 9-4 record, including a 7-1 slate in the Atlantic 10 in 2005. Richmond defeated Hampton, 38-10, in the first round of the I-AA playoffs before dropping a 24-20 decision at Furman. The Spiders ranked 12th in I-AA in scoring defense, allowing just 17.7 points per game, and 22nd in rushing defense, allowing just 120.1 yards per contest.

Before coaching at Richmond, Elko worked with former Spiders Head Football Coach Dave Clawson at Fordham University as his linebackers coach and co-defensive coordinator in 2002 and 2003. While at Fordham, Elko coached a defense that led the Patriot League in scoring defense (14th nationally in 2002) and sacks, as well as ranking third with 25 turnovers caused in 2002. In 2003 the Rams led the league in pass defense.

Elko's coaching experience also includes time at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy, where he served as defensive coordinator. He also coached at his alma mater, the University of Pennsylvania, directing the secondary. He began his coaching career at Stony Brook in 1999 where he guided the linebackers in the fall and the defensive backs in the spring.

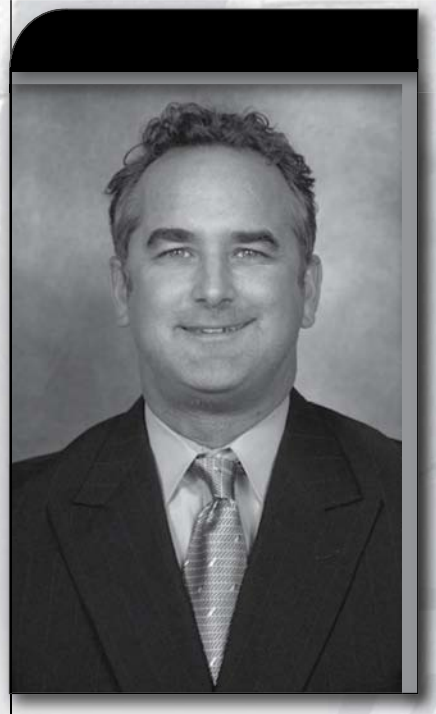

A member of the Penn football team for four years, Elko helped the Quakers win the Ivy League title in 1998. He received a bachelor's degree in history in 1999.

Mike and his wife Michelle, have two children, Michael (4) and Andrew (1).

DAVID PATENAUDE

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ QUARTERBACKS COACH

COLLEGE EXPERIENCE: 17TH YEAR
HOFSTRA YEAR: SECOND

David Patenaude is in his second season on the Hofstra Football coaching staff and his first year as the Pride's offensive coordinator in 2008. A former head football coach at Division II University of New Haven, he served as the Pride's quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator in 2007. Hofstra ranked fifth in the conference and 26th in the nation in passing offense last year. Under Patenaude's guidance Pride quarterback Bryan Savage ranked fourth in the CAA and 15th in the FCS in total offense in 2007.

Patenaude came to Hofstra after three seasons at the College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, Massachusetts. He served as running backs coach for the Crusaders in 2004 and 2005 before becoming the special teams coordinator and wide receivers coach in 2006. While at Holy Cross he coached two-time All-America tailback Steve Silva, who also led the nation in all-purpose yards in 2005.

A 1990 graduate of Central Connecticut State University, Patenaude was a three-year starting quarterback and free safety. He began his collegiate coaching career in 1991 as running backs coach at the United States Coast Guard Academy. After one season at the Coast Guard Academy in New London, Connecticut, he moved on to Springfield College in Massachusetts, where he served as wide receivers and running backs coach in 1991 and 1993. While at Springfield he completed a master's degree in physical education and sports management.

In 1994 Patenaude began a four-year tenure at Fordham University, serving as tight ends coach his first season, special teams coordinator and wide receivers from 1995 through 1997, and adding quarterbacks coach to his double-duty during his final two seasons. He moved south in New York City in 1998 to begin a four-year tenure at Columbia University. He served as wide receivers coach for the Lions from 1998 through 2000, adding the quarterback coach's responsibilities in 2000 and 2001, and became Columbia's offensive coordinator in 2001.

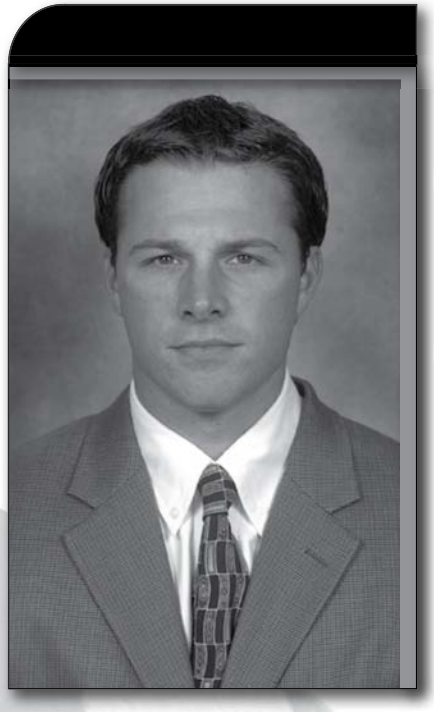

In 2002 Patenaude was named the head football coach at the University of New Haven (CT) where he served for two seasons. During his tenure, two New Haven standouts went on to the National Football League before the Chargers gridiron program was dropped following the 2003 season.

Dave and his wife, Christine, have a daughter, Eva (5).

LYLE HEMPHILL

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/ DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH

COLLEGE EXPERIENCE: SEVENTH YEAR
HOFSTRA YEAR: THIRD

Lyle Hemphill is in his third season on the Hofstra Football coaching staff, his second as defensive backs coach and first as special teams coordinator. Under Hemphill's tutelage the Pride defensive backs recorded nine of the team's 13 interceptions, which ranked second in the CAA last season.

Hemphill began his coaching career in 2002 when he served as special team coordinator and defensive backs coach at Delaware Valley College. After two seasons with the Aggies, he accepted the graduate assistantship with the Blue Hens of Delaware. While at Delaware in 2004 and 2005 he worked on the defensive side of the ball and also assisted with punt team protection and punt block.

In 2006 Hemphill joined Dave Cohen's Hofstra coaching staff as defensive backs assistant. He was promoted to defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator following the 2006 season.

Hemphill, who earned a bachelor's degree in politics and international relations from Ursinus College, also earned a master's degree in education administration from the University of Delaware.

ASSISTANT COACHES

BILL DURKIN

OFFENSIVE RUN GAME COORDINATOR/OFFENSIVE LINE

COLLEGE EXPERIENCE: 12TH YEAR
HOFSTRA YEAR: FIRST

Bill Durkin, a 12-year veteran coach in the CAA/ Atlantic 10/Yankee Conference, is in his first season as the Pride's offensive run game coordinator and offensive line coach.

Durkin came to Hofstra last spring after 11 seasons as the University of Richmond, where he was part of four conference championship teams. He joined the Spiders' program in 1997 as tight ends and offensive tackles coach, and coached two all-conference selections and one All-American during his three seasons in that capacity. Durkin coached Richmond running backs from 2000 through the 2003 season before assuming the role of offensive line coach from 2004 through 2007. He added the run game coordinator title last year as well. The Spiders broke school records for rushing offense, total offense, total points scored, and single-game total offense and rushing offense marks in 2007 as Richmond advanced to the NCAA FCS Championship semifinals. In posting their third consecutive winning season for the first time in 52 years, the Spiders set a school-record with 11 wins.

Durkin, who began his coaching career as a strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater, the University of Massachusetts in 1995 and 1996, was a four-year letterman, a two-year team captain and first team all-conference selection in 1992 and 1993, and a consensus first team All-American in 1993 at UMass. He was named to the Yankee Conference 50th anniversary All-Time Team. Following graduation, he played with the New England Patriots and the Rhein Fire of NFL Europe, as well as the Shreveport Pirates and the Baltimore Stallions of the Canadian Football League.

Bill and his wife, Victoria, have two children, Ryan (4) and Rachel (2).

KEVIN BAUMANN

TIGHT ENDS COACH/ RECRUITING COORDINATOR

COLLEGE EXPERIENCE: FIFTH YEAR
HOFSTRA YEAR: THIRD

Kevin Baumann is entering his third season on the Pride football coaching staff, the second year as tight ends coach and his first as recruiting coordinator. After serving as a defensive assistant for the Pride in 2006, he was promoted to tight ends coach for the 2007 season and then added the title of recruiting coordinator in 2008.

Baumann came to Hofstra after one season at Fordham University, where he served as assistant offensive line coach in 2005. In addition to his coaching duties and recruiting responsibilities in Delaware and North Florida, he also served as the Rams video coordinator.

Baumann began his coaching career as a graduate assistant football coach at Widener University in Chester, Pennsylvania. While at Widener he worked with the offensive line and recruited extensively in the Pocono Mountains, the Reading/Lancaster area and in the Philadelphia suburbs.

ASSISTANT COACHES

The Flushing, Michigan, native had an outstanding four-year career at Defiance College in Defiance, Ohio, from 1999 through 2002 and served as the team captain as a senior. A three-time All-Heartland Conference selection on the offensive line, Baumann was also a two-time Verizon Academic All-District selection. He was also named to Don Hansen's Football Gazette All-North Region team in 2001 and 2002.

Baumann earned a bachelor's degree in sports management from Defiance College in 2003.

ANTONIO SMIKLE

RUNNING BACKS COACH
COLLEGE EXPERIENCE: FOURTH YEAR
HOFSTRA YEAR: SECOND

Antonio Smikle is in his fourth season of college coaching and his second on the Hofstra Football coaching staff in 2008. Under his direction last season the Pride had a running back, Kareem Huggins, rush for the most yards in a season since 2000 and the team rush for the most yards in a season since 2001.

Smikle came to Hofstra after two successful seasons at Rutgers University, where he served as player development and quality control coach, as well as preparing scouting reports. During his time at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights received post-season Bowl game invitations to the Insight Bowl in 2005 and the Texas Bowl in 2006.

A four-year letterman at the University of Cincinnati, where he earned a bachelor's degree in information technology, Smikle led the Bearcats in receptions with 45 catches for 429 yards and three touchdowns. In 2001 he earned the Bearcat Scholar-Athlete award.

After two years in the business sector in Tampa, Florida, Smikle began his coaching career in 2004 as receivers coach working with receivers, tight ends, running backs and quarterbacks at Durant High School in Plant City, Florida. Durant posted a 7-3 record that season. He remained a teacher and coach in the Hillsborough County School District until June 2005 whereupon he began his college coaching career at Rutgers.

Smikle has two children, Antonio Jr. (8) and Jordan (4).

MALIK HALL

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH
COLLEGE EXPERIENCE: FIFTH YEAR
HOFSTRA YEAR: SECOND

Malik Hall is in his fifth year of college coaching and his second on the Pride football coaching staff in 2008. Last year the Pride ranked first in the CAA and 11th in the FCS in rushing defense and second in the conference and 15th in the nation in total defense.

Hall came to Hofstra after serving as defensive line coach and assistant special teams coordinator at Fordham University from November 2005 through the 2006 season. During his time at Rose Hill, the Detroit, Michigan, native helped develop a I-AA All-America selection and two All-Patriot League picks. He was also responsible for recruiting in Michigan, Illinois, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Ohio.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Prior to his tenure at Fordham, Hall served as defensive line coach at Central Connecticut State University in New Britain, Connecticut, during the 2004 and 2005 seasons. He added the special teams coordinators' duties to his list of responsibilities in 2005. Hall also served a National Football League summer internship with the Detroit Lions in 2005.

A December 2003 graduate of the University of Massachusetts with a degree in sociology and education, Hall was a three-year letterman, and started as a senior in 2003. He recorded 46 tackles, five tackles for losses and two sacks, as the Minutemen captured the Atlantic 10 championship that year. He also played in 10 games for UMass in 2002 as a junior. Hall began his college career at Vermillion Community College in Ely, Minnesota, and served as the team captain in his one season on the football team.

Hall, who is engaged to Ayesha Owens, resides in the Bronx, New York.

KAHMAL ROY

WIDE RECEIVERS COACH
COLLEGE EXPERIENCE: SECOND YEAR
HOFSTRA YEAR: SECOND

Former Hofstra All-America receiver Kahmal Roy is in his second season on the Pride football coaching staff and his first year as wide receivers coach. After serving as an assistant defensive backs coach last year, the Hofstra single season receiving yards record holder will utilize his receiving knowledge to direct the Pride receivers in 2008.

Roy, a four-year letterman at Hofstra from 1998 through 2001, still holds the school mark for receiving yards in a season with 1,221 on 70 receptions and fell one touchdown short of tying the school record with 15 touchdowns during the Pride's 2001 Atlantic 10 championship season. For his efforts he was named to the Walter Camp I-AA All-America team, The Associated Press I-AA All-America first team, and All-America second teams by The Sports Network and The Football Gazette. He concluded his career with 152 receptions, then fourth on the all-time list, for 2,442 yards, then third all-time, and 25 touchdowns. Roy is currently eighth on the career receiving list and is fifth in receiving yards.

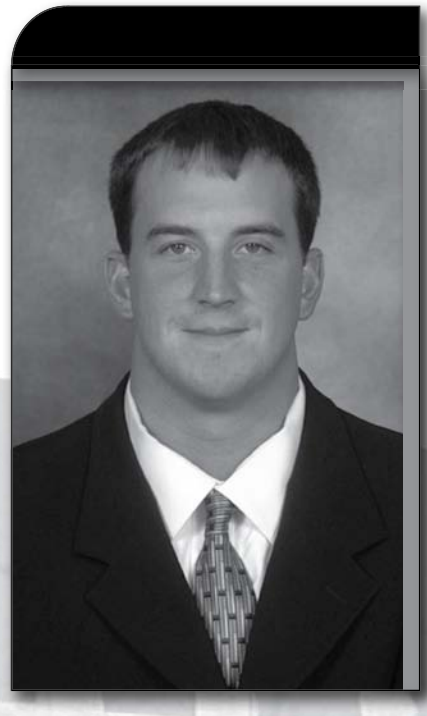

Roy, who was in professional training camps with the New York Jets in 2002 and the Saskatchewan Roughriders in 2003, comes back to Hofstra after five years as a coach at Holy Trinity High School in Hicksville, New York. He served as assistant offensive coordinator, wide receivers and defensive backs coach, as well as an assistant basketball coach at Holy Trinity.

Roy holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Hofstra.

ASSISTANT COACHES

KEVIN MAPP

DEFENSIVE ENDS COACH
COLLEGE EXPERIENCE: SIXTH YEAR
HOFSTRA YEAR: SECOND

Kevin Mapp is in his sixth year of college coaching and his second season on the Pride coaching staff. He was promoted to defensive ends coach last spring after serving as defensive assistant in 2007.

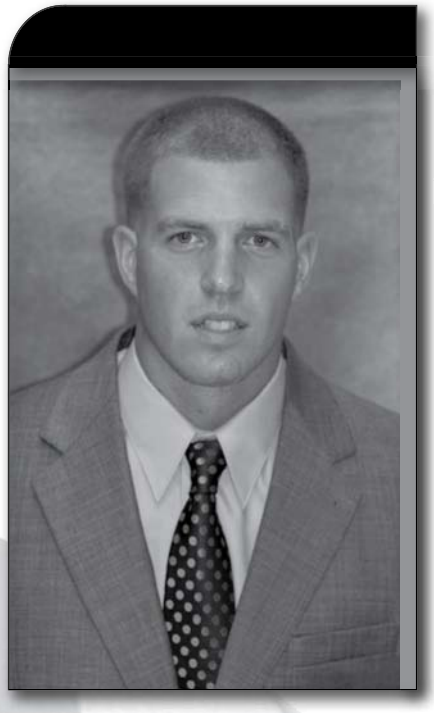

Mapp came to Hofstra from Marshall University where he served as defensive graduate-assistant from January 2007 to July 2007. He also served as a defensive assistant at Missouri Southern State University in Joplin, Missouri, during the 2006 season and defensive line coach at Hampden-Sydney College in Virginia during the 2005 season.

A 2005 graduate of James Madison University where he started at right tackle as a sophomore, Mapp began coaching after a neck injury ended his playing career following the 2002 season. He served as JMU's assistant offensive line coach during the 2003 season before becoming assistant defensive line coach from August 2004 through July 2005.

Kevin and his wife, Lindsay, reside in Malverne, New York.

KYLE SMITH

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH
COLLEGE EXPERIENCE: FIRST YEAR
HOFSTRA YEAR: FIRST

Kyle Smith is in his first year on the Hofstra Football staff. He will assist defensive backs coach Lyle Hemphill in the Pride secondary.

Smith, who is in his first year of college coaching, was a three-year letterman and a two-year starter at free safety for the Big 10 Boilermakers of Purdue University from 2001 through 2005. He joined the Boilermakers as a walk-on and, after receiving Purdue's Verle Campbell Scout Team Award in 2001, was awarded a scholarship by Coach Joe Tiller as a sophomore. Smith also received the Boilermaker's Leonard Wilson Award in 2004.

Following graduation from Purdue, Smith served as an assistant football coach, working with defensive backs, wide receivers and special teams, at Deer Park High School on Long Island from January 2006 through January 2007. Prior to joining the Pride coaching staff Smith served as a technical recruiter for TEKsystems from February 2007 through February 2008.

Smith, who holds a bachelor's degree in law and society from Purdue, resides in West Babylon, New York.

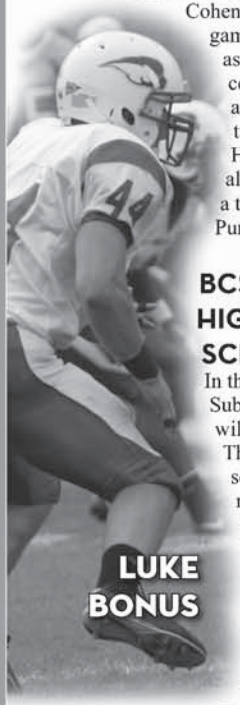

2008 HOFSTRA FOOTBALL NOTEBOOK

68TH SEASON OF HOFSTRA FOOTBALL

The 2008 season marks the 68th season of Hofstra Football and the third season for Pride Head Football Coach Dave Cohen. Hofstra, coming off a 7-4 season in 2007, has an all-time record of 395-254-11. The Pride has posted 42 winning seasons and three .500 seasons. 2008 also marks the second season of Colonial Athletic Association Football, which sent a record five conference members to the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Playoffs last season. The CAA absorbed the Atlantic 10 Football Conference, which Hofstra was a member from 2001 through 2006, capturing the 2001 league title and advancing to the FCS (then-called I-AA) Playoffs. Prior to that the Pride played as FCS Independents from 1994 through the 2000 season, making four trips to the national playoffs. Hofstra was also a successful Division III program, making six NCAA Division III Championship Playoff appearances from 1983 through 1990, including a national semifinal appearance in the Pride's final season in Division III (1990).

THE PRIDE COACHING STAFF

Pride Head Football Coach Dave Cohen added two new members and made several promotions to its 2008 football coaching staff this past off-season. After the departure of assistant head coach/offensive coordinator/offensive line coach Ed Foley to a BCS position and wide receiver/special teams coach Jaime Elizondo to the Canadian Football League, Cohen promoted: defensive coordinator Mike Elko to assistant head coach/defensive coordinator; passing game coordinator/quarterbacks coach Dave Patenaude to offensive coordinator/passing game coordinator; defensive backs coach Lyle Hemphill to special teams coordinator/defensive backs coach; defensive backs assistant Kahmal Roy to Receivers Coach; and defensive line assistant Kevin Mapp to defensive ends coach. In addition Cohen added Bill Durkin from the University of Richmond as run game coordinator/offensive line, and newcomer Kyle Smith as defensive backs assistant. Durkin, who brings 11 years of college coaching experience to Hofstra, was an All-American, a two-time All-Yankee Conference first team selection and a two-time captain at Massachusetts from 1989 through 1993. He was also named to the Yankee Conference 50th anniversary all-time team. Smith, a newcomer to college coaching, was a three-year letterman and a two-year starter at free safety at Purdue University from 2001 through 2005.

LUKE BONUS

BCS OPPONENT CONNECTICUT HIGHLIGHTS TOUGHEST PRIDE SCHEDULE EVER

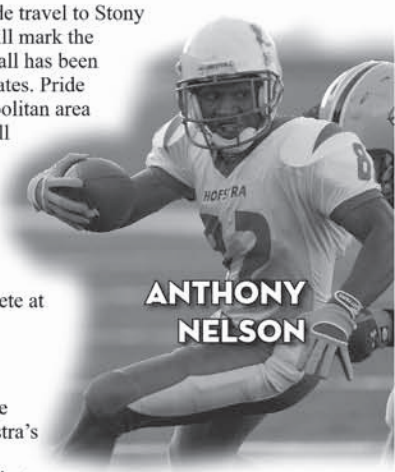

In the first of several games against Bowl Championship Subdivision (BCS) opponents over the next four years, the Pride will open the 2008 season at the University of Connecticut on Thursday, August 28. The Pride's schedule, the most difficult in school history, features eight teams that posted better than .500 records, UConn a 2007 BCS Bowl team, and five FCS playoff opponents. Hofstra will play five home games this season with FCS national finalist Delaware, FCS semifinalist Richmond, CAA-rivals Rhode Island and Northeastern, and state-rival Albany coming to James M. Shuart Stadium. The Rams of Rhode Island will serve as Hofstra's Homecoming opponent on Saturday, September 20 at 1 p.m.

The Pride road schedule is even tougher beginning with BCS-Bowl team Connecticut, FCS playoff teams James Madison, New Hampshire, and Massachusetts, CAA-foe Maine, Long Island-rival Stony Brook and Bucknell. The Huskies of Connecticut posted a 9-4 record in 2007 and went to the Meineke Car Care Bowl game, their second Bowl game in the last four seasons.

The Pride and Huskies, who met four times during the late 1990s as FCS-members, faced each other last in the 1999 season opener with Hofstra recording a 56-17 victory at Shuart Stadium. UConn is the first of several BCS foes, including Boston College and Army, on Hofstra's future schedules.

HOFSTRA TO BE TELEVISED TWICE IN 2008

Two Pride football games will be televised during the 2008 season. Madison Square Garden Network will televise the Battle of Long Island on Saturday, September 27 when the Pride travel to Stony Brook University at 6 p.m. That game will mark the 11th consecutive year that Hofstra Football has been aired on MSG Network or its sister affiliates. Pride Football has been televised in the metropolitan area for 22 consecutive seasons. The CAA will also televise Hofstra's regular season finale at Massachusetts as part of its 2008 television package. CN8 will produce the Hofstra-UMass clash from McGuirk Alumni Stadium in Amherst. Local television clearance in the New York market of that game was not complete at press time.

ANTHONY NELSON

BUILDING ON 2007

The Pride led the CAA in rushing defense allowing just 113.9 yards per game, Hofstra's best average since 1996. The Pride also ranked second in total defense, allowing just 312.2 ypg, which is the second-best mark since 1996. While the Pride was in the middle of the CAA in total offense, they did improve by an average of 122 ypg over 2006 to a mark of 388.5 last season. Hofstra also led the CAA in punt return average (14.7 ypr) thanks mostly to current sophomore Anthony Nelson (20-312-15.6), who led the conference with a 15.6 yards per return mark.

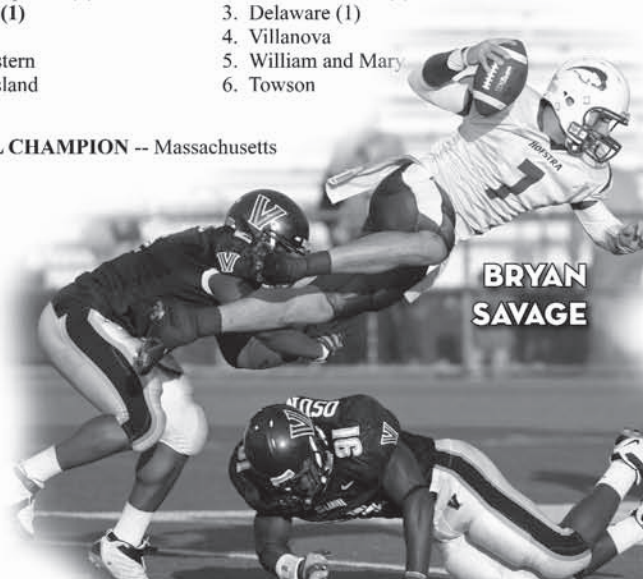

PRIDE PICKED THIRD IN THE COLONIAL ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION PRESEASON COACHES POLL

The Pride is picked to finish third in the CAA North Division in the 2008 CAA Preseason Poll of conference coaches and select media. FCS Playoff participants Massachusetts was selected to win the North Division and Richmond was picked to win the South Division. In the North, Massachusetts, again gets the top preseason nod after winning the division last season. New Hampshire, a FCS Playoff participant, was second in this year's poll followed by the Pride, who surprised many by finishing tied for second last year after being picked fifth in the preseason poll. Maine, Northeastern and Rhode Island round out the North Division poll.
In the South Division, the Spiders of Richmond, who captured the South Division and the conference title before advancing to the FCS Playoff semifinals, are picked to win in 2008. Richmond was selected to finish fourth last season in the preseason poll. James Madison, who dropped a one-point decision to eventual national champion Appalachian State in the first round of the FCS Playoffs last year, is picked second while FCS Playoff finalist Delaware is third. Villanova, William and Mary and Towson round out the South Division preseason poll.

HOFSTRA RELOADS AFTER 7-4 SEASON IN 2007

Coming into the 2007 season Hofstra Pride Head Football Coach Dave Cohen believed, despite a rough first season, that he had the players and a schedule for a successful campaign. After all he had 58 players, including 35 lettermen and 17 starters, returning from a team that showed tenacity and perseverance during a 2006 season that resulted in nine of the 11 contests being decided by nine points or less. He was right

Coming out of the gate with six consecutive victories, Hofstra was looking at its first playoff bid since 2001. But in the Colonial Athletic Association that would send a record five members to the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Playoffs, including one that made the finals and two that reached the semifinals, it's not how you start the season, but how you finish. While the Pride had to accept coming so-close to a playoff bid with a 7-4 mark, including two four-point losses that would seal their postseason fate, Cohen and company had to be pleased with posting the second-most improved record in the FCS, and a tie for second place in the CAA North Division after being picked fifth in the preseason poll

The conclusion of the 2007 season and the enthusiasm for 2008 was somewhat tempered by the loss of 24 seniors, including 14 starters, to graduation. But Cohen and staff are quickly showing their prowess in the recruiting arena and recorded quite possibly the biggest and best newcomer class in school history to complement 55 returnees, 35 lettermen and 10 starters. Unfortunately, the Pride will also be facing, arguably, their toughest schedule ever that begins with BCS-bowl team Connecticut on August 28 and concludes with FCS playoff team and CAA North Division champion Massachusetts. In between are four more FCS playoff teams including finalist Delaware, semifinalist Richmond, James Madison and New Hampshire. "I believe we will be better overall as a team," Cohen states. "But, with our schedule, how that equates in the win column remains to be seen."

OFFENSE

When head coach Dave Cohen took over the position he said it was a priority to balance the offensive attack between run and pass after years of utilizing the run and shoot offense. Last season the Pride ran the ball 53 percent of the time and passed 47. While the Pride running attack was the best since winning the then-Atlantic 10 title in 2001, the double-threat of the run and the pass was the one of the major factors in Hofstra's 7-4 season. On offense, the Pride return 24 players, including 16 lettermen and seven starters.

QUARTERBACKS

5	Cory	Christopher	Jr.	6-1	230	Miami, FL/American/Nassau CC
16	Steve	Probst	Fr.	6-4	200	North Massapequa, NY/ Farmingdale
7	Bryan	Savage	Sr.	6-2	223	Springfield, PA/The Haverford School/Coffeyville CC
14	Joe	Sidaras	Fr.	6-3	218	Mastic Beach, NY/William Floyd

The top two quarterbacks from last season, starting senior Bryan Savage and red-shirt junior Cory Christopher – who both arrived in January 2007 – return to lead Hofstra's new offensive coordinator Dave Patenaude's aerial attack. Patenaude, who directed Savage last year as the Pride's passing game coordinator, guided the fifth-best passing game in the CAA and the 26th in the FCS with a 242.6 yards per game average last year. Savage, who was fourth in the league in passing yards per game, completed 232-of-367 passes for 2,668 yards and 13 touchdowns. Included were six games over 250 yards and three over 300 in Cohen's balanced run-pass offense. Savage, who came to Hofstra in 2007 from Coffeyville Community College in Kansas after two seasons at the University of Wisconsin, was also dangerous with his feet, finishing as the Pride's second leading ground-gainer on the season with 302 yards on 118 rushes and a team-high 10 touchdowns.

BRYAN SAVAGE

Christopher, who transferred from nearby Nassau Community College in 2007, endured a planned red-shirt year and learned Patenaude's system last season but is as equally strong-armed, mobile and agile as Savage. The Miami, Florida, native was a first team all-conference selection, the league's offensive player of the year and an honorable mention NJCAA All-American pick in 2006.
Waiting in the wings are two outstanding freshmen from Long Island in Farmingdale's Steve Probst and William Floyd's Joe Sidaras.

RUNNING BACKS

31	Kwabea	Asante	RFr.	5-11	200	Westbury, NY/Hicksville
26	Everette	Benjamin	So.	6-1	211	Massapequa, NY/ Amityville Memorial
45	Ray	Bennett	Sr.	5-8	221	Uniondale, NY/Hempstead
2	Justine	Buries	Gr.	6-0	211	Mesquite, TX/West Mesquite/ New Mexico State
6	Larry	Gaskins	RFr.	5-9	205	Conshohocken, PA/ Upper Merion Area
30	Brock	Jackolski	Fr.	5-11	188	Shirley, NY/William Floyd

While the Pride only lost one running back last winter, the graduation of the multi-faceted Kareem Huggins is a huge loss. The four-year letterman, who earned second team All-CAA honors at both running back and kickoff returner last year, led the team and was fifth in the conference in rushing with 957 yards and nine touchdowns on 178 carries before an injury kept him out of two games and most of a third. Huggins, who also became the ninth Hofstra player to rush for 2,000 yards in a career, led the Pride in kickoff returns with a 24.7 average in 26 runbacks and ranked sixth in the CAA last year. He also caught 15 passes out of the backfield to boost his all-purpose contributions to 189.0 yards per game, tops in the conference

EVERETTE BENJAMIN

With Huggins gone the halfback spot should be a fierce battle during preseason camp between red-shirt freshman Larry Gaskins and graduate student newcomer Justine Buries. Gaskins, an all-league selection as a senior at Upper Merion Area High School in Pennsylvania, had an outstanding spring and emerged as the front-runner for the spot heading into preseason camp. Buries, the anticipated front-runner for the halfback job heading into spring drills before being slowed by an injury, came to Hofstra over the winter after graduating from New Mexico State University. During his three-year playing career at the BCS school, Buries rushed for 1,750 yards and 13 touchdowns in 37 games, including 779 yards on 187 rushes in 2005, and 581 yards on 153 carries in 2007. He also caught 48 passes for 229 yards at New Mexico State.

Another fierce battle is expected to be waged at fullback between returning starter sophomore Everette Benjamin and senior Ray Bennett. Benjamin, who started seven games at fullback and two at halfback for Huggins, posted 260 yards on 68 carries and scored twice. He recorded a career-best 93 yards and a touchdown on 20 carries in place of Huggins at Northeastern last year. Bennett, a thick, bruising back, played in nine games and was a solid blocker.

On the offensive line the Pride lost two experienced starters in three-year starter at center Jason Goodman and two-year starter and New York Jets free agent signee Shawn McMackin but return four linemen with starting experience. The offensive line was an integral part of the Pride's success last season as Hofstra recorded its most rushing yards per game (145.9) since 2001

At the tackle spots, sophomore Brian Frederick is expected to reclaim one of the starting roles after having a solid "developmental" year on the line in 2007 after moving over from tight end. While the other spot was wide open entering spring drills, red-shirt freshman Derek Moore edged out junior Armand Poole for the front-runner spot heading into summer camp. A strong summer may decide who starts at the other tackle position.

At the guard positions, junior David Spanich returns to a starting job while classmate Mike Trice, who started six games early in the season, is the likely starter at the other spot. Spanich, who came to Hofstra in 2006 after one semester at Army, continues to be a solid performer on the offensive line for the Pride. Trice, who has outstanding size and strength, has started 12 games on the line the past two years and continues to improve. Look for sophomore Tom Ottaiano, who saw limited action last season, to push for playing time

With the graduation of Goodman, junior Jimmy Mangiero emerged as the expected starter at center in 2008. The two-year letterman started six games at center as a red-shirt freshman after Goodman was lost for the season with a knee injury in 2006. Last year he started the last half of the season at guard but is expected to be in the middle this season. Look for sophomore Jaren Harrell, who saw limited action as a red-shirt freshman last year, to serve as a back-up to Mangiero

WIDE RECEIVERS

82	Anthony	Nelson	So.	5-10	179	Wellington, FL/ Glades Day School
83	Aaron	Weaver	So.	6-2	211	Freeport, NY/Baldwin

The Pride lost just one starting wide receiver to graduation but like Huggins, what a loss it was. Charles Sullivan concluded his four-year Hofstra career in 2007 and took several school records along with him during his record-breaking senior season. The Nanuet, New York, native captured records for single season receptions (86), career receptions (238) and career receiving yards (2,869) to go with his freshman reception (68) and rookie receiving yard (938) marks.

While Sullivan will be hard to replace, the Pride be looking to returning senior starter Ottis Lewis and versatile sophomore standout Anthony Nelson and several newcomers to fill the void. Lewis, at 6-5, will be Savage's biggest target and is coming off a career-best 27-catch, 465-yard season in 2007. While the comparison may be unfair, with a similar physique, many are hoping Lewis can put together a Marques Colston-like season in his final year. Nelson, who finished second on the team in receptions with 44 for 543 yards and one touchdown, ranked 12th in the CAA in receptions and 15th in receiving yards last season. He had 100-yard receiving games against New Hampshire and Northeastern. The speedy Florida native also thrilled fans and led the conference in punt returns, running back 20 for a 15.6 average and earning first team All-CAA honors. Trying to crack the starting line-up will be sophomore Aaron Weaver, who recorded two receptions in late season, limited action after suffering an injury during summer camp, and West Virginia University junior transfer Darren Brownlee. Weaver, a Freeport, Long Island, native, has good size and could become a good target. Brownlee, a Boyds, Maryland, native, broke the Northwest High School career receptions record playing on the state championship team but saw limited action in seven games as a Mountaineer

While New Mexico State transfer Gerald Guerrier was also expected to challenge for a starting berth before a spring injury sidelined him for the 2008 season, some other newcomers could figure in this depth-rich position. Vaughn Davis, a transfer from Allan Hancock Community College (CA) who was a four-sport athlete at Campus Magnet School in Queens, New York, and freshman Kenny Munson, a transfer from Naval Academy Prep, could also challenge for playing time.

TIGHT ENDS

85	Bryant	Carpenter	Jr.	6-1	230	Orlando, FL/Edgewater/ Southern Mississippi
84	Mike	Denimarck	Sr.	6-4	253	Sound Beach, NY/Miller Place
32	Phil	Riley	Sr.	6-3	245	Prince Frederick, MD/ Huntingtown
87	David	Wilson	Fr.	6-6	210	Serone, PA/Upper Darby/ Delaware County CC

At the tight end position, three-year starter senior Phil Riley is expected to return to his starting role in 2008. Riley, who has 30 receptions the past two years, including eight last season, is a solid and mobile blocker who can open up holes for running backs and receivers. Junior Bryant Carpenter, who transferred in from the University of Southern Mississippi in 2007, senior Mike Denimarck and newcomer Dave Wilson are expected to challenge Riley for the starting nod. Carpenter played in all 11 games last season at fullback and tight end and recorded nine receptions for 92 yards. Denimarck, at 6-4, 253-pounds, should give the Pride another strong presence on the line. Wilson, a red-shirt freshman, was an All-Delco selection at Upper Darby (PA) High School after recording 31 catches for 567 yards and eight touchdowns in 2006.

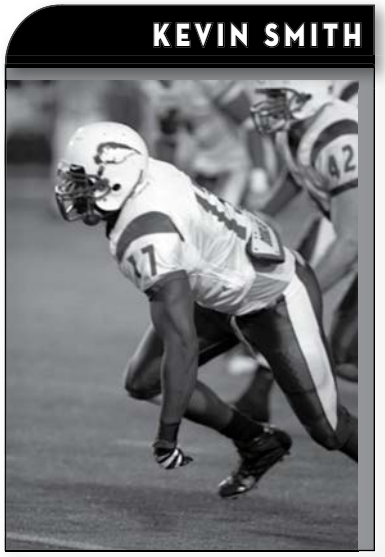

DEFENSE

With nine returning defensive starters in 2007, the Pride allowed 312.2 yards per game, their second-best defensive effort in the past 12 seasons. Included was holding opponents to just 113.9 rushing yards per outing, the best since the 1996 team held the opposition to just 94 yards per contest. The task will be tougher in 2008 as only three starters return to the defensive unit against, arguably, the toughest schedule in school history

The Pride defensive line lost both starting tackles and one of their starting ends to graduation after the 2007 season, creating an intense battle in the spring and an anticipated fiercer one during preseason camp. The graduation of Thomas Massey, who recorded 10 1/2 sacks the past two years at end, was a big loss. But juniors Kevin Smith and Al Carmody, who split starting time at one end spot last season, are the front-runners for starting roles on the ends heading into summer camp. Smith, who transferred to Hofstra from Western Michigan in 2007, got off to a slow start last year due to injury. But he still played in nine games and tallied 12 tackles and 1 1/2 sacks. Carmody, who played in all 11 games, tallied 19 tackles. Pushing the front-runners at end will be juniors Joe Akabalu, who posted 10 tackles and one sack in seven games, and Joe Garvey, a transfer from Golden West Junior College.

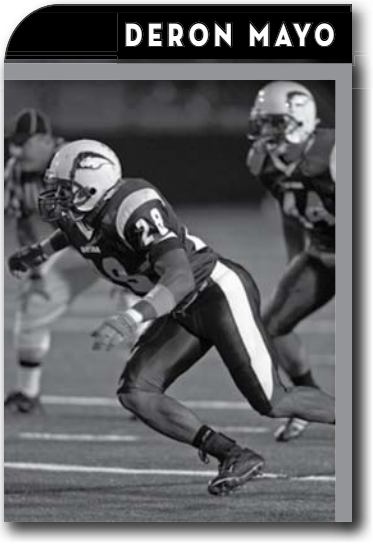

The Pride lost both starting tackles, All-CAA second team selections Shemiah LeGrande and Ken Sussman, to graduation leaving the position wide open. Sussman was sixth on the roster in tackles with 46 and led the team with 4 1/2 sacks, while LeGrande posted 38 stops and three sacks. Their departure left the door open for junior Zach Carney and sophomore Andrew Nelson to emerge from spring practice as the front-runners for the starting spots. Carney played in 10 games as a back-up last year and tallied 10 stops and two sacks, while Nelson was sidelined with an injury. Look for senior Larry Abiola, who played in eight games, including four starts, and posted six tackles, and newcomers Elliott Antoine and Luqman Abdallah, junior transfers from Army and the University of Miami, respectively, to challenge for starting jobs.

Hofstra graduated two-time All-American Gian Villante and All-CAA third team selection Stanley Gutierrez, but has several returnees and newcomers who will be battling for starting positions during preseason camp. The one constant is the return of two-year starter Luke Bonus, who will most likely be moved into the middle linebacker spot in 2008. The former conference defensive rookie of the year has started 21 of the 22 games in his first two seasons and recorded 182 tackles, including 84 last season. Look for sophomore Chris Betz, who saw limited action last season, to back-up the durable Bonus.

The front-runners for the outside linebacker spots are sophomores Said Gaida and Deron Mayo. Both played in nine games as back-up linebackers and on special teams last season. Mayo tallied 18 tackles, one sack and one interception, while Gaida recorded 10 tackles and was in on a sack. But the two returnees will be challenged in preseason camp by a couple of newcomers in graduate student Anthony Vernaglia, who played three seasons at Notre Dame, junior Rashad Swanson, a transfer from City College of San Francisco, and several freshmen including Chris Edmond. Vernaglia played in 10 of the 12 games for the Fighting Irish last season and posted 20 tackles. He played 23 career games at Notre Dame, has good size and speed and will bring experience and poise to a young linebacker corps while he pursues a master's degree. Swanson was a junior college All-American selection for CCSF's national championship team in 2007. He was also rated one of the top four safeties in the country by Rivals.com scouting service. Edmond was an all-state selection, a two-time all-county pick and the 2006 Thorpe Award winner as the top player in Nassau Country for Freeport High School.

With the loss of three of the four starters from last season, the Pride secondary will be the area with the most competitive battles for starting spots during the preseason camp. Only senior Nick Altomare, who is expected to be moved from safety to the corner this season, returns to a starting spot in 2008. Altomare, a CoSIDA Academic All-District selection, has also been an iron man during his Hofstra career, playing in all 33 games in the secondary. Last year he posted a career-best 32 tackles. At the other corner spot, junior Leslie Jackman, a transfer from Rutgers University, came to Hofstra last January and is the front-runner for that spot. The Freeport (NY) High School graduate, who played in 17 games over a three-year period for the Scarlet Knights, recorded nine tackles in seven games at Rutgers last season. Look for sophomore Garrett Heron, who played in all 11 games on special teams and as a back up in the secondary and recorded 10 tackles, and red-shirt freshman Andre Freeman, a first team all-conference selection from Penn Hills (PA) High School, to challenge for a starting berth as well

At the safety positions two "newcomers" emerged following spring drills as the front-runners for starting spots. At free safety, sophomore Jeff Aime (Ah-may), makes the move over from running back after rushing for 94 yards on 29 carries in eight games last season, and holds the advantage over classmate Garrett Heron. Aime has good speed, but could be challenged by some newcomers with more experience in the secondary. At strong safety, red-shirt freshman and Brooklyn native Gregory Melendez held the advantage for the starting role over California native, junior Ray McDonough coming out of spring drills. Melendez, who played scholastically at Canarsie High School, will be challenged by McDonough, a junior college All-American at Glendale (CA) Community College, red-shirt freshman Chris Griffin, a 2006 All-Dade Country selection out of Coral Reef High School in Miami, Florida, and several other newcomers.

KICKERS

43	Henry	Greco	Jr.	5-8	160	Franklin Square, NY/ Valley Stream North/ Nassau CC
49	Brian	Hanly	Fr.	6-1	175	Wyckoff, NJ/ Don Bosco Prep
12	Shane	Casciano	Jr.	6-0	200	Allentown, PA/ Central Catholic
47	Roger	Williams	RFr.	6-2	215	Mandeville, LA/ Yarmouth (MA) Regional

For the first time since 2005 the Pride will be opening the season with new starters at both kicker and punter. The graduation of two-time All-American kicker Rob Zarrilli, as well as punter Chris Hanly, will create a competitive summer camp for the kickers. Zarrilli, who connected on 49-of-66 field goal attempts and 79 of 85 extra points, shares the school record for most field goals in a contest with four. Hanly, who took 90 of the 120 punts over the past two seasons, averaged 37.1 yards per punt as a senior.

Fortunately, junior Shane Casciano, who filled in for Hanly the past two seasons including averaging 37.5 yards per punt in 15 kicks in 2006, returns as the front-runner for the punting job and is expected to challenge for the place-kicking job as well. While Zarrilli leaves the roster, a Hanly will remain on it as freshman Brian Hanly – Chris' younger brother – will join the team in 2008. The younger Hanly, who is picked to be the starting place kicker for the Pride, was a two-time all-county and All-New Jersey selection at Don Bosco Prep High School in New Jersey. Two walk-ons – junior Henry Greco, a transfer from Nassau Community College, and red-shirt freshman Roger Williams – are expected to challenge for playing time.

STUART RABINOWITZ

Stuart Rabinowitz was chosen by the Hofstra University Board of Trustees to serve as the eighth president of the University on December 20, 2000. Prior to his appointment, he served as dean of Hofstra University School of Law from September 1989 through June 2001. He joined the faculty of the School of Law in 1972. President Rabinowitz currently holds the Andrew M. Boas and Mark L. Claster Distinguished Professorship in Civil Procedure.

President Rabinowitz holds positions with a number of important government and community organizations, including the Judicial Advisory Council of the State of New York Unified Court System - County of Nassau, and the Nassau County Health and Welfare Council. He serves as a trustee of the Commission on Independent Colleges and Universities, and on the Board of Directors for the Fair Media Council and the Long Island Technology Network. President Rabinowitz is a former member of the Nassau County Blue Ribbon Financial Review Panel, former chair of the Nassau County Local Advisory Board, and a former member of the Board of Directors of the Long Island Association. Additionally, President Rabinowitz served as a member of the Nassau County Commission on Government Revision, which was charged with drafting a new charter and a new form of government for the County. He is the recipient of the Martin Luther King Living the Dream Award, EOC; Distinguished Service in the Cause of Justice, Legal Aid Society; UJA Federation Leadership Award; the Bar Association of Nassau County Proclamation for Outstanding Service to both the legal profession and the community; the Community Service Award from the Conference of Jewish Organizations of Nassau County; and the Alumni Association of the City College of New York 2005 Townsend Harris Medal. He has also been honored by the Long Island Software and Technology Network (LISTnet) and was the recipient of Networking magazine's David Award.

President Rabinowitz received a juris doctor, magna cum laude, from Columbia University School of Law, where he was a member of the board of editors of the Columbia Law Review and a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar. He graduated from City College of New York with honors, and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and the American Law Institute.

JACK HAYES

Jack Hayes is in his fifth year as director of athletics at Hofstra University in 2008-09. Hayes was appointed by Hofstra President Stuart Rabinowitz as the University's director of athletics on October 4, 2004. Hayes came to Hofstra after serving as an associate director of athletics at the University of Connecticut for three years.

Hayes, the eighth director of athletics at Hofstra, oversees Hofstra's 18 Division I teams, an athletic administration of more than 70 professional staff members, and 430 student-athletes.

Hayes' proven expertise in enhancing academic and athletic success of student-athletes, strategic planning, fund-raising, marketing, university relations, facility enhancement, budgetary management, and NCAA compliance complements Hofstra University's athletic department in its quest to further enhance its athletic program, and assist Hofstra's student-athletes both on and off the field.

The Hofstra Athletic program has flourished under Hayes' leadership, winning 17 CAA Championships and making 22 postseason appearances since the 2004-05 academic year. The Pride won four CAA titles and had four NCAA Tournament teams – women's soccer, wrestling, men's lacrosse and softball – in 2007-08 with the soccer team advancing to the second round for the first time in program history and the wrestling team earning a 15th place finish at the NCAA Championships.

Hayes has placed a significant emphasis on fund-raising during his tenure. Pride Club membership reached all-time highs, both in terms of the number of contributors and funds raised as the organization topped the $1 million mark for the first time in the 19-year history of the organization. Resources generated through fund-raising efforts have been used to enhance programs and facilities available to student-athletes. Recent initiatives include the construction of Hofstra's new field hockey stadium, as well as the replacement of the artificial turf in Shuart Stadium. In the last three years there have also been renovations to the study lab in Margiotta Hall and construction of a new academic study area in the Physical Fitness Center.

Active on a national level, Hayes has served on the NCAA Division I Lacrosse Committee since September 2006.

Hayes came to Hofstra with more than 14 years of athletic administration experience, including management positions at four Division I institutions. The three years prior to taking his current position were highlighted by leading the University of Connecticut Division of Athletics fund-raising efforts, where his responsibilities included managing the operations of the UConn Athletic Development Fund, implementing policies and procedures for the annual giving program, assisting with the cultivation and solicitation of major gift prospects, coordinating capital project campaigns, overseeing special events, and managing the athletic ticketing operation. While at UConn, he served as a senior staff member for a $40 million program that supports 24 sports and 650 student-athletes.

From 1998 to 2001 Hayes served as director of athletic administration at Fordham University, where he was responsible for the comprehensive internal operations of the athletic department, including fiscal management, facilities management, staff training and development, ticket operations, and NCAA compliance initiatives.

Prior to his tenure at Fordham, Hayes served as assistant director of athletics at St. John's University, where he managed the fiscal operations of the athletic department and supervised the business office. Hayes began his professional career in college athletics at Fairfield University, where he served as assistant director of athletics. He oversaw the addition of four sports programs at Fairfield – football, women's rowing, women's lacrosse and women's golf.

Hayes received a master's degree in education in 1992 with a concentration in sport management from the University of Connecticut. He holds a bachelor's degree (1989) from Providence College, where he was a member of Providence's lacrosse team. He was also awarded a certificate of completion in 2001 from the Sports Management Institute, Consortium of the Universities of Michigan and Texas.

A native of Providence, Rhode Island, Hayes graduated from the Providence Country Day School where he lettered in football, basketball and lacrosse. He was inducted, as a member of his high school basketball team, into the Providence Country Day Athletic Hall of Fame in October 2004. He resides in East Northport, New York, with his wife Bridget, daughter Katie (6), and sons Matt (3) and Tommy, who was born in March 2008.

HOFSTRA HERITAGE

THE SHIELD LOGO

In 2005 Hofstra introduced a new logo as part of a University-wide re-imaging. Both the University's logo as well as the Pride logo were designed by advertising agency Powell New York, a full-service branding and marketing agency, noted as one of the ten firms to watch in 2005 in Advertising Age.

The new University logo features an "H" within a shield design. Hofstra University has always been known for both a tradition of academic excellence and a willingness to evolve to meet the needs of students and the greater society. This shield represents the University's commitment to our heritage and a tradition of academic excellence, while the dynamic representation of the H within the shield embodies the evolutionary, changing nature of the University. Hofstra University has both honored its traditions and heritage while embracing changing disciplines, using new technology and remaining relevant to scholarly pursuits and the demands of industry.

THE SEAL

The Hofstra seal was designed from the royal Dutch emblem by art instructor Constant Van de Wall. The seal is modeled on the coat of arms of the House of Orange-Nassau. The round seal includes the coat of arms, flanked by lions on either side. A lion also stands in the center of the coat of arms, holding a sword in its right claw and a bundle of seven arrows, which represent the seven provinces of Holland, in its left. The seal also carries the motto of the House of Orange-Nassau in Old French: "Je maintiendray" (I stand steadfast). In 1988 one of the two lions on the seal was officially replaced with a lioness. The Hofstra seal is still in use today, though not as a logo. The seal will be affixed to formal documents, and used for official purposes such as commencement, convocations, and official University functions.

THE PRIDE

Hofstra's athletic teams are officially known as the Pride, providing our teams with a strong, consistent image that resonates with the Hofstra community. The new Hofstra Athletics logo consists of a graphic mark of a male and female lion in powerful, synchronized motion with the word mark of the Hofstra Pride or the specific sports team. This logo will be the only one used by Hofstra Athletics.

HOFSTRA PRIDE™

The Hofstra Pride refers to a pack of lions, male and female, which work together towards a common goal and symbolize determination and strength. The Pride conveys both the teamwork and togetherness that is a trait of lions living in prides, who have a close bond and work together for the good of the entire group. The teamwork evident in prides is a trait of Hofstra's student-athletes, who support each other in furtherance of a common goal, while working tirelessly to represent their teams and, in turn, the University. Lions also possess speed, tenacity, and agility, and are relentless in their pursuit of a goal, which are traits our student-athletes demonstrate both on and off the field.

The first consistent use of the word "Pride" relating to athletics was in 1989 when the University's athletic booster club was founded and called itself The Pride Club, which at the time simply referred to the pride that alumni and fans had for our teams. The Pride identity has progressed over the past decade in a more specific fashion than just the expression of a feeling. After one lion on the Hofstra seal was changed into a lioness to symbolize gender equity, the University mascots -- Kate and Willie Pride, a lioness and lion – were introduced.

HOFSTRA'S DUTCH HERITAGE

Ties to Dutch heritage and the Netherlands began with William S. Hofstra, after whom the school is named and on whose property the University was started. William Hofstra died in 1932 and when his wife, Kate, died 16 months later, her will provided that their house, 15-acre estate, and bulk of her inheritance were to be used for a "public, charitable, benevolent, or scientific purpose" as a memorial to her husband.

The idea for a college came from Truesdel Peck Calkins, former Hempstead superintendent of schools, who was then with New York University. He suggested that NYU might offer extension courses on the Hofstra property. Hofstra opened in September 1935, as a two-year extension branch of NYU; its official name was "Nassau College – Hofstra Memorial of New York University at Hempstead, Long Island." When the doors opened, the sole building on campus was Hofstra's mansion, which he had affectionately named the Netherlands after his homeland, and all classes were held there. The mansion, which houses administrative offices, is now the center of Hofstra's 240-acre campus, and has been renamed Hofstra Hall.

HOFSTRA PRIDE™

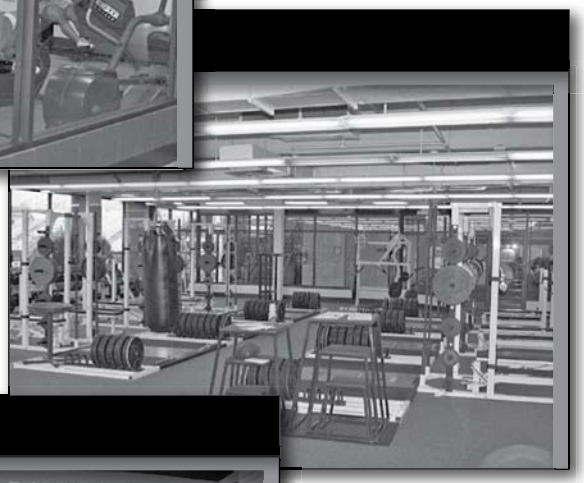

MARGIOTTA HALL

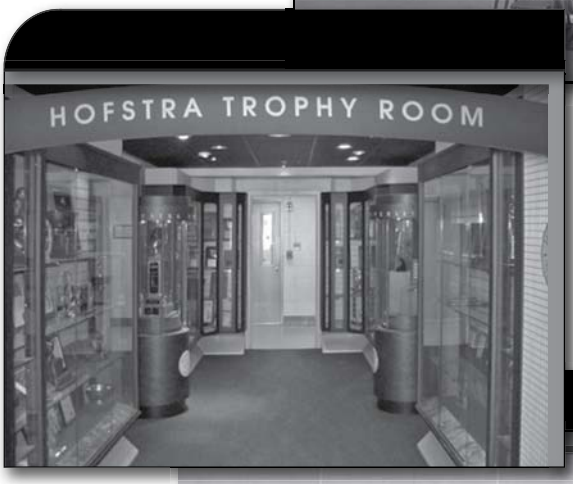

Opened in 1992, Joseph M. Margiotta Hall, a magnificent three-story, 22,500-square-foot building, is a centerpiece of the Hofstra University Football program. The state-of-the-art field house, combined with Hofstra's 13,000-seat stadium, has created one of the finest facilities in the nation.

Margiotta Hall, designed by Angelo F. Corva & Associates, features a 3,500-square-foot weight room on the first floor. The weight room, often considered the showpiece of an athletics program, is outfitted with the most advanced strength training equipment available. The first floor also contains a spacious 2,600-square-foot locker room that accommodates more than 100 student-athletes. The locker room was the recipient of a major makeover in 2008.

The state-of-the-art athletic training room, also located on the first floor, has hydrotherapy and electrotherapy areas, cardiovascular and isokinetic equipment, as well as taping areas, a rehabilitation area, an aerobics room, and athletic trainer and physician offices.

On the second floor of the building, an attractive multi-purpose room, enclosed by a glass wall, provides a panoramic view of James M. Shuart Stadium and its events. Meetings and receptions for alumni, parents and friends of the Hofstra Athletic program are held in this spacious area. This level also serves as headquarters for the Men and Women's Lacrosse coaching staffs, housing head coaches' and assistant coaches' offices, as well as meeting rooms.

In 1999 an academic lab opened on the second floor of Margiotta Hall. The computer room and learning center features a projection system and 18 workstations, which are connected to the University network for easy access to the Internet. Locker rooms for game officials and coaches are also located on this level. One of the newer additions to the second floor of Margiotta Hall is the Hofstra Trophy Room, which commemorates the achievements of Hofstra's Men's Lacrosse, Women's Lacrosse and Field Hockey teams. Photos, trophies, plaques and other awards are on display in this area. A memorial wall containing the framed jerseys and plaques of the three Hofstra Football players killed on September 11, 2001, is also on the second floor.

The lower level of Margiotta Hall contains spacious locker rooms for Hofstra's Men's and Women's Lacrosse teams. The recently dedicated Harry Royle-Vincent Sombrotto men's locker room was completely renovated in the off-season, thanks to a gift from lacrosse alumnus James Metzger, and features new carpeting, oak lockers, and a lounge area. The lounge area is outfitted with a 50-inch flat screen television, the latest video game systems and state-of-the-art video equipment.

Additional equipment, laundry and storage space can be found in the lower level of Margiotta Hall. A 178-seat theater and additional meeting rooms are also located there.

The lobby of Margiotta Hall contains an elegant commemorative plaque honoring donors who have contributed to this important addition to the Hofstra University campus. Those endowing scholarships and those who have dedicated a room in Margiotta Hall are also honored on the plaque.

FOOTBALL LOCKER ROOM

The Hofstra Football Locker Room, located on the main floor of Margiotta Hall, was the recipient of a major renovation this past off-season. The 2,600-square foot, state-of-the-art room features two levels and provides ample space for players and coaches to prepare for practice and games, or to study and relax.

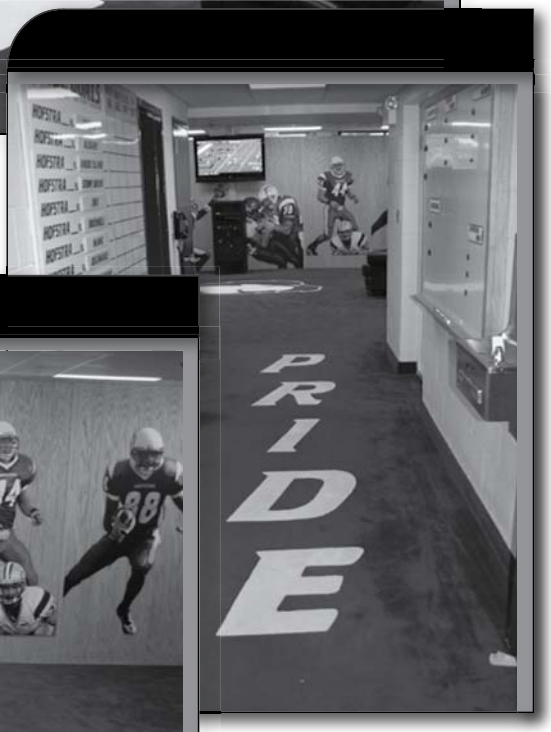

The lower level was outfitted with new oak lockers, new carpeting and a remodeled shower area. The sit-in lockers are spacious enough for equipment and features shelves for shoes and shoulder pads, as well as a cabinet for personal items. Each locker has a personalized nameplate with a players name and number. The main locker area also features four 52-inch flat screen televisions, while a fifth television is in the player's lounge area.

The player's lounge, which is on the second level of the locker room, features a top-of-the-line stereo system, as well as a Nintendo Wii and Sony PlayStation 3 game system. The entire locker room was also equipped with Dolby Surround Sound to enhance the viewing and listening experience.

The locker room also features six FatHead wall posters of Hofstra players, while other poster size photographs hang from the ceiling in the main locker room area.

The room is furnished with four leather couches and three leather recliners.

JAMES M. SHUART STADIUM

In February 2002 Hofstra's 13,000-seat stadium, home to the Pride football and lacrosse teams, was renamed James M. Shuart Stadium at Hofstra University. On August 29, 2002, the Stadium was officially dedicated.

"During Dr. James M. Shuart's 25 remarkable years as president of Hofstra we grew from a fine regional institution to an internationally recognized university. Although every aspect of this University has benefited immeasurably from Jim Shuart's leadership, we believe that his roots as a student athlete and his support of our fine athletic program makes the naming of the stadium particularly appropriate. By doing this we convey our admiration and respect for James Shuart to the thousands of individuals who use the James M. Shuart Stadium at Hofstra University each year," said Hofstra President Stuart Rabinowitz.

In 2007 the artificial turf at Shuart Stadium was replaced with FieldTurf. The FieldTurf system, which was installed by Landtek of Amityville, New York, replicates a natural grass surface, but offers the durability and cost benefits of synthetic fields. FieldTurf is a safe alternative, resulting in a documented reduction of sports injuries. The sand and rubber infill system is the biggest technical development that the sport surfacing industry has seen in the last 25 years. This patented technology sets FieldTurf apart from all other sports surfaces.

Shuart Stadium, then known as Hofstra Stadium, was also the benefit of a major renovation and expansion plan that was completed in the fall of 1996, and made James M. Shuart Stadium into one of the premier facilities in the Northeast.

The multi- million dollar project included the expansion of the seating capacity from 7,000 to 13,000; the installation of a network-quality lighting system for television broadcasts; an Athletic Department office building, which houses the football coaching staff, and includes a press level and a club suite level; two entrance plazas on the south and west sides of the Stadium; a facade around the outside of the Stadium; additional parking and landscaping; a pavilion in the southeast corner of the Stadium; concession and souvenir areas; two locker rooms; the installation of a scoreboard in the south end zone; and the reinstallation of a scoreboard in the north end zone. James M. Shuart Stadium is the largest outdoor sports and entertainment complex on Long Island.

Opened in 1963, Shuart Stadium has served as the site for NCAA Championships, Nassau County and New York State High School Championships in football and lacrosse, world championships in men's and women's lacrosse, professional soccer, commencement exercises and cultural events. In 1968 Hofstra Stadium became the third college facility in the nation to install an artificial playing surface, following the University of Houston (The Astrodome) and Indiana State University (Memorial Stadium).

Shuart Stadium has become a focal point of the Long Island sports scene in recent years, serving as the home of the NCAA Division I Men's Lacrosse Championship Quarterfinals, a first round game in the NCAA Women's Lacrosse Championship, numerous conference championships, the Outback Steakhouse Long Island All-Star Football Game, the Hero's Bowl, the Long Island Lizards of Major League Lacrosse, and various Long Island high school and New York state championship games. The Stadium also served as a home for the Long Island Rough Riders of professional soccer's A-League.

The two largest crowds in Hofstra Stadium history occurred during the hosting of the NCAA Lacrosse Quarterfinals. A crowd of 12,292, an NCAA men's lacrosse championship quarterfinal record and the largest-ever lacrosse crowd on Long Island, witnessed the 1999 NCAA quarterfinals featuring Hofstra versus Johns Hopkins and Duke versus Georgetown, and 10,510 fans attended the 2001 quarterfinals that featured Hofstra against Syracuse.

THE HOWDY MYERS PAVILION

In October 1998 Hofstra University President Emeritus Dr. James M. Shuart presided over the dedication ceremony for the Howdy Myers Pavilion in the south end zone of James M. Shuart Stadium. Howdy Myers served as Hofstra University's director of athletics, head men's lacrosse coach and head football coach for a quarter of a century. His extraordinary coaching talents in both lacrosse and football from 1950 to 1975 made Howdy Myers a legend in both sports.

Myers was personally credited with the tremendous growth of lacrosse on Long Island, through the creation of scholastic clinics and demonstrations in the 1950s, and leading the Hofstra Lacrosse program to national prominence. He was years ahead of the intercollegiate athletic world with his use of many coaching innovations in both lacrosse and football.

Dr. Shuart, who served as a team captain under Coach Myers in both football and lacrosse in the early 1950s, praised the coaching legend. "Howdy Myers had a huge impact on intercollegiate and scholastic sports," Shuart said. "Renowned for his coaching abilities throughout collegiate sports, Coach Myers will always be a Hofstra legend."

Howard "Howdy" Myers passed away in 1980. In 2006 he was among the inaugural class inducted into the Hofstra University Athletics Hall of Fame. Hofstra's connection to the Myers family includes his son, Howard Myers III, his daughter, Dorsey Donnelly, and his son-in-law, William Donnelly, who are all Hofstra alumni.

A portrait sculpture of Howdy Myers, created by artist Peter Homestead, stands in front of the Pavilion facing the Shuart Stadium field. In creating the sculpture, Mr. Homestead worked from photographs and consultations with Coach Myers' family and friends. The completed sculpture captures the spirit and strength of Howdy Myers. Alumni and friends of Coach Myers have joined together to establish the Howard M. Myers Jr. Endowed Athletic Scholarship in his honor. In 2002 Hofstra created the Howard "Howdy" Myers Award, which is presented to a male student-athlete in recognition of outstanding leadership and athletic performance.

As Hofstra lacrosse coach, Howdy Myers coached 26 seasons (1950-75) and recorded a 214-139-4 record. He coached Flying Dutchmen teams that captured eight divisional championships and made four NCAA Division I Championship Tournament appearances. In 1970 he received the F. Morris Touchstone Award as the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) Division I Coach of the Year. In 1971 Howdy Myers received the Governor's Trophy for providing continuous and meaningful contributions to lacrosse. That same year he received lacrosse's highest honor when he was inducted into the United States Lacrosse Hall of Fame.

As Hofstra's football coach for 25 years (1950-74), Coach Myers recorded 15 winning seasons and a 141-98-4 record. In 1959 he led the Flying Dutchmen to the first undefeated (9-0-0) season in Hofstra Football history.

ATHLETIC TRAINING

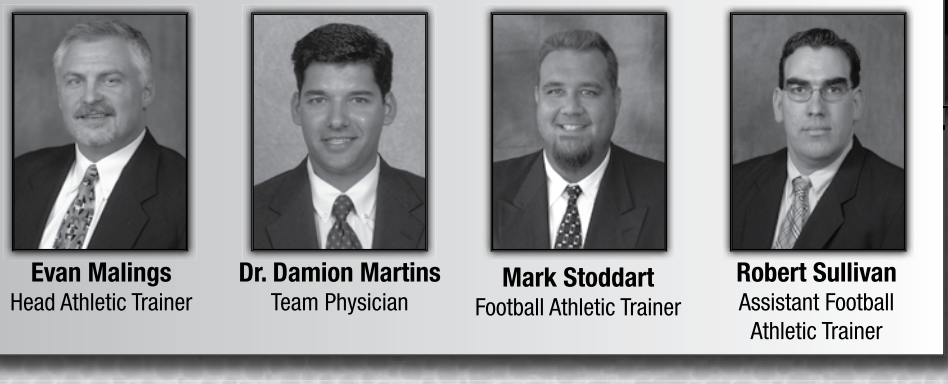

Through a comprehensive athletic training program, Hofstra University student-athletes are provided excellent health care during their attendance at the University. A coordinated effort between the University Health and Wellness Center, the Athletic Department and outside health care providers ensures every student-athlete the best medical attention possible.

University student-athletes have direct access to a myriad of health care services. Managing the coverage of every practice and competition event is Hofstra University's athletic training staff, which is led by sixth-year Head Athletic Trainer Evan Malings and features eight full-time athletic trainers and numerous student athletic trainers. The athletic trainers provide injury management, rehabilitation and treatment to the entire Athletic program. Utilizing three state-of-the-art athletic training rooms, these professionals work tirelessly to ensure the safe participation of Hofstra's student-athletes and to return injured athletes to play quickly and safely.

Supporting the athletic trainers is team physician Dr. Damion Martins. Dr. Martins, a physician with Pro Health Care, Inc. in Lake Success, New York, is in his sixth year on Hofstra's medical team. Martins experience in the sports medicine field includes serving as team physician for the University of Maryland, University of Maryland-Baltimore County and Coppin State University athletic departments. He was also on the medical staff of the National Football League's Baltimore Ravens.

Hofstra University sponsors a fully accredited, highly competitive undergraduate degree program for athletic training majors, in which Hofstra student athletic trainers participate in all aspects of the health care system.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT

Hofstra University is committed to the pursuit of academic and athletic excellence. The University views participation in intercollegiate athletics as benefiting the student-athlete in an educationally enhancing experience beyond any other opportunity available. Hofstra also realizes the time commitment made by student-athletes and has committed the facilities and resources to support all students.

The University Tutorial Program (UTP) provides free tutoring in every subject area to any Hofstra student. Students are able to obtain up to 1 1/2 hours of individual tutorial assistance per week for each subject. They are also able to utilize the various help labs on campus, which specialize in providing assistance in writing, business and QM, and biology and chemistry. In addition to this service, student-athletes are assigned an academic advisor who helps address the various needs of student-athletes. The academic advisor emphasizes four areas in their efforts to ensure the academic success of Hofstra's student-athletes.

Area one is academic counseling. Services are provided in the areas of academic planning, career planning, personal counseling, and campus and community referrals. The counselor also meets with prospective student-athletes, at the coach's request, to share the many benefits of a Hofstra University education.

Area two is academic advising. In an effort to ease the demand on the Office of Advisement, the academic advisor also advises first-year and undecided student-athletes.

Area three is academic monitoring. The UTP counselor monitors the academic progress of student-athletes to ensure compliance with Hofstra University, NCAA and conference regulations. The counselor's regular communication with the faculty and coaches provide an opportunity for early intervention should academic difficulties arise.

Area four is study halls. The University Tutorial Program provides all athletic study halls with tutors in various subjects and assesses the needs of individual student-athletes to provide the most effective study environment. The assessment tool administered by the UTP is also used to provide various enrichment seminars for the student-athletes such as time management, writing skills, campus resources, and surviving the college transition.

In the fall of 1999 a computer lab opened on the second floor of Margiotta Hall. Funded in part by proceeds from the Joe Gardi Golf Open, the state-of-the-art computer lab and learning center features a projection system and 18 computer workstations, which are connected to the University network for easy research access to the Internet. The room was refurbished in 2005 with new furniture and computers. In addition to the Margiotta Hall computer lab, a new study area was constructed in 2006, located in the Physical Fitness Center, which features numerous computer workstations and office space for University academic advisement personnel.

ABOUT LONG ISLAND...

Long Island has a rich history as an active, vibrant community, a summer playground, and home to some of New York's most prominent families.

Five distinct regions make up Long Island:

- North Shore, otherwise known as the Gold Coast, with dozens of historic sites dating back to colonial days and Gatsby-era mansions.
- South Shore, the Island's spectator sports and entertainment center, with world-famous Jones and Fire Island Beaches, and home to the New York Islanders.
- Central Suffolk, with beautiful forests and natural inlets, the world's largest factory outlet center and a huge water park.
- North Fork, with an array of vineyards, waterfront ports and farm stands.
- South Fork, widely known as "The Hamptons," with its pristine beaches and exclusive villages.

You can catch a Hofstra shuttle bus to Jones Beach – a state park with six miles of gorgeous coastline, a boardwalk, swimming pools, golf and outdoor concerts.

With everything from museums, historical sites and lighthouses, to sophisticated malls, designer outlets and shopping villages, to wineries and farm stands, to family fun parks, aquariums and zoos, there is plenty to do on Long Island.

ABOUT NEW YORK CITY...

Hofstra is located only 30 miles from New York City – the capital of culture and finance. You can visit Carnegie Hall, South Street Seaport, Hard Rock Café, Grand Central Station, Central Park, NBC Studios in Rockefeller Center, Little Italy or Chinatown.

Study the world's finest sculptures and paintings at the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

Go and cheer along with capacity crowds at a Yankees, Mets, Rangers or Knicks game.

Wave at the TV cameras in the street-level studios of FOX, CNN, NBC or ABC's "Good Morning America."

Walk through the financial capital of the world at the New York Stock Exchange on Wall Street.

Take the subway to Coney Island for a Nathan's hot dog and a ride on the Cyclone, the last of the great wooden rollercoaster's.

Get half-priced tickets to Broadway's finest shows at the TKTS booth in a new, glittering Times Square.

HOFSTRA IN THE COMMUNITY

The Hofstra University Football program believes it has a special responsibility to the Long Island community. Thus, whether it's during the season or during those "slow" off-season months, the Hofstra Football staff and student-athletes attempt to be highly visible in the area.

Several times each year, the Pride conduct clinics for youth and high school teams and coaches. These player clinics reinforce the fundamentals of the game taught by their own coaches. Hofstra players have also been involved with the Special Olympics, which have taken place on the Hofstra campus, volunteering at several events and participating in the Opening Ceremonies. The Pride also sponsor canned food drives in conjunction with Long Island Harvest to assist needy families in the area.

On the educational side, Hofstra Football and the Walnut Street School in Uniondale, New York, have instituted the Book Buddies program. Throughout the school year Hofstra players go to the school and work with the elementary school students in the areas of academics and life skills. Hofstra's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) also takes part in visits to local elementary schools for reading programs.

MAYOR'S TROPHY

Since 1966, the Mayor of the Village of Hempstead, in conjunction with Hofstra University, has presented the Mayor's Trophy award to one or two senior football players, whose play and actions typify the spirit of intercollegiate athletics. The Mayor's Trophy is symbolic of good sportsmanship and fair play both on and off the field of competition. The awards are presented annually at halftime of Hofstra's final home football game.

IRON MIKE AWARD

Iron Mike is a 19-inch, 50-pound bronze sculpture that was presented to the Most Valuable Player in both the National and American Football Leagues f rom 1967 through 1975. The trophy, awarded to the NFL recipients by the Long Island Athletic Club, was presented at their annual gala dinner. In 1982, the L.I.A.C. gave the Iron Mike a new focus and officially passed the impressive 50-pound trophy to then-Hofstra University President Dr. James M. Shuart to be awarded annually to the Hofstra University Football Most Valuable Player.

Former professional winners include Bart Starr (Green Bay Packers), Johnny Unitas (Baltimore Colts), Joe Namath (New York Jets), Roman Gabriel (Los Angeles Rams), John Brodie (San Francisco 49ers), George Blanda (Oakland Raiders), O.J. Simpson (Buffalo Bills), John Hadl (San Diego Chargers), Ken Stabler (Oakland Raiders) and Terry Bradshaw (Pittsburgh Steelers).

The Iron Mike Award, which is presented annually to the Hofstra Football Most Valuable Player at the postseason banquet, is on permanent display in Margiotta Hall.

2007 IRON MIKE AWARD RECIPIENT
KAREEM HUGGINS – RUNNING BACK

Running back Kareem Huggins was named the 27th recipient of the Iron Mike Award as the 2007 Hofstra Football Most Valuable Player. Huggins is just the fourth running back to receive the award and the first since Mark Cox won the trophy in 1991.

Huggins, who became the ninth player in Pride football history to rush for 2,000 yards in a career in 2007, was named to the All-Colonial Athletic Association second team at both running back and kickoff returner as a senior. The Irvington, NJ, native, who missed two of the last three games with an ankle injury, rushed for 957 yards and nine touchdowns on 178 carries, and tied the school marks with 26 kickoff returns and two kickoff returns for touchdowns for 641 yards in 2007. He ranked fifth in the CAA and 24th in the FCS in rushing, and was sixth in kickoff returns and 35th nationally in kickoff returns. The double-all conference honors were Huggins' first all-conference honors.

Huggins posted five 100-yard rushing games as a senior including a career-high 186-yard, two touchdown performance on 24 carries at Towson. He also rushed for 141 yards against Stony Brook, 137 yards against Maine, 130 yards at Rhode Island and 116 yards against Furman. His 26 kickoff returns and two touchdowns equaled Robert Thomas' school marks of 1998 while the 641 return yards were the most in 10 years. He posted a 98-yard kickoff return for touchdown against Albany and a 92-yard return for a score against Maine.

During his four-year, 41-game Hofstra career Huggins rushed 428 times for 2,178 yards and 21 touchdowns, ranking sixth on the Pride all-time career rushing yards list. He also returned 70 kickoffs for 1,596 yards and two touchdowns, ran back 45 punts for 405 yards and caught 30 passes for 304 yards and one score.

ECAC LAMBERT AWARD

The ECAC Lambert Awards are among the oldest and historically rich prizes in all of college athletics. Established in 1936 as the "Lambert Trophy" to recognize supremacy in eastern college football, the award has since grown to recognize the best in Divisions I-A, I-AA, II, and III.

The FCS ECAC Lambert Cup

The Lambert Trophy was established by brothers Victor and Henry Lambert in memory of their father, August. The Lamberts were the principals in a distinguished Madison Avenue jewelry house and were prominent college football boosters. When the trophy was introduced, several eastern colleges were among the nation's elite, including Fordham, which much to the Lambert family's pleasure, loomed as the favorite to win the initial Trophy. The Lambert brothers were therefore somewhat shocked to find themselves making a grueling train trip to Pittsburgh in a snowstorm to present their first award to Jock Sutherland's Panthers.

After World War II, college football teams proliferated, but with increasing disparity in goals and policies. The Lambert Cup was created in 1957 to recognize non-Division I-A programs, and the Division III award was added in 1966. In 1982, the NCAA's I-AA reclassification of many eastern teams made it desirable to separate that division from Division II, and a new award was added.

In 1983, the Lambert family set out to find a sports organization with a sincere and involved interest in college athletics to sponsor and manage the awards. They decided the Meadowlands Sports Complex could best follow that tradition and, the award then became known as the Lambert-Meadowlands Awards. In 2002 the Eastern College Athletic Conference assumed administration of the Lambert Poll and Awards.

The Lambert Trophy and the Lambert Cup are rotating awards remaining in the winning schools' possession for the subsequent year. Plaques for permanent possession are presented to the four division winners.

To be eligible for the Lambert Meadowlands Awards, a school must be located in the East or play half of its schedule against eligible Lambert teams. The territory includes New York, New Jersey, New England and Pennsylvania while teams in the bordering states of Delaware, Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia and the District of Columbia qualify if half of their schedule features eligible teams.

University of West Virginia received the 2007 BCS Lambert Meadowlands Trophy presented with the ECAC. The 2007 Football Championship Subdivision National Runner-Up University of Delaware received the FCS Lambert Meadowlands Cup while California University (PA) and Wesley were awarded the Lambert Meadowlands Teams of the Year presented with the ECAC in Divisions II and III, respectively.

In 2008 39 schools are eligible for the Lambert Award in the Football Championship Subdivision.

FAREWELL SENIORS: Hofstra bid farewell to 24 graduating seniors at the conclusion of the 2007 season. The 24 student-athletes is the largest graduating class since the Pride became a member of the FCS in 1994. Prior to the start of the transition to then-I-AA in 1991, Hofstra was a Division I institution with a Division III football program. Among the 24 seniors were 13 starters, including eight on defense, three on offense, and two kickers. The graduating seniors were: SS Emanuel Anderson, CB Kyle Arrington, OT Joe Asermelly, DB Lenny Carter, WR Sam Cherilus, LB Tom Daddino, FS David Darby, QB Dennis Davis, C Jason Goodman, LB Stanley Gutierrez, P Chris Hanly, RB Kareem Huggins, DT Shemiah LeGrande, WR Chris Manno, DE Thomas Massey, OT Shawn McMackin, K Shaun McQueary, WR Charles Sullivan, DT Ken Sussman, SS Stephen Tate, LB Gian Villante, WR Julian Watts, DB DeWayne Whitaker and K Rob Zarrilli.

SECOND MOST IMPROVED TEAM OF THE YEAR: The Pride finished the 2007 season as the second Most Improved Team in the FCS in 2007. After going 2-9 in Coach Dave Cohen's first season at Hofstra in 2006 the Pride improved by five full games in 2007. The 2007 FCS Most Improved Team Award went to Dayton, which had six-game improvement from 4-6 in 2006 to 11-1.

WR CHARLES SULLIVAN: Wide receiver Charles Sullivan concluded his Hofstra career in 2007 by breaking several records. In the season opener against Furman, he posted 12 catches for 147 yards and a touchdown and became just the eighth player in school history to post 2,000 career receiving yards. The Nanuet, NY, native hauled in a record 86 passes for 991 yards and seven touchdowns in 2007. He broke the Hofstra single-season reception total of 82 set by Bryan Kish in 1997. Sullivan, who was named to the Sports Network's FCS All-America third team, the ECAC All-Star first team, and the All-CAA first team in 2007 as well as earning the Pride's Offensive Player of the Year, also broke Steve Jackson's (1997-2000) career reception record of 206, and Marques Colston's (2001-05) career receiving yards mark of 2,834. Sullivan finished with 238 catches for 2,869 yards and 18 touchdowns. In 2004 he recorded the most receptions by a freshman in school history with 68 for 938 yards and seven touchdowns. Sullivan was the first freshman receiver and only the ninth player in school history to record 60 catches in a season. He broke the Hofstra freshman receiving mark of 39 receptions for 463 yards, set in 1997 by Steve Jackson.

LB GIAN VILLANTE: Two-time All-American and three-time all-conference linebacker Gian Villante closed out his Hofstra career in 2007 by leading the Pride in tackles with 110. It was the second time in his career that he led the Pride in tackles after posting 129 stops in 2004. He was selected the Pride's Defensive

GIAN VILLANTE

Player of the Year. Villante recorded eight or more tackles in 10 of the 11 games in 2007 including 16 against Massachusetts, 12 against Furman and Albany and 11 at Villanova. He was named the CAA Defensive Player of the Week after the Furman and Towson contests and was named to the All-CAA first team as a senior. Villante was named an honorable mention FCS All-American by the Sports Network in 2007 after being named to the first team in 2004. His 55 solos and 55 assisted tackles in 2007 gave him 187 solo stops and 221 assisted for 408 total tackles in 41 contests at Hofstra. Villante also posted 7 1/2 sacks and one interception during his tenure at Hofstra. During his career he posted a 17-tackle game at Rhode Island in 2004, 16 against Massachusetts in 2007 and 15 in 2006.

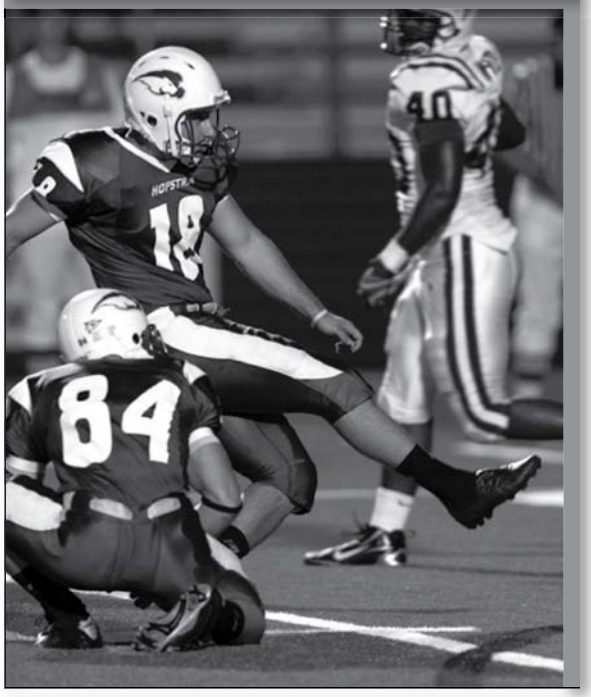

RB KAREEM HUGGINS: Running back and 2007 co-captain Kareem Huggins, who became the ninth player in school history to rush for 2,000 yards in his career, recorded a rare double, all-conference honor to conclude his college career. The 2007 Iron Mike Award winner as Hofstra's Most Valuable Player led the Pride in rushing for the second consecutive season as well as kickoff returns for the third straight season. Huggins, who missed two entire games and most of a third with an ankle injury at the end of the season, ranked fifth in the CAA and 24th in the FCS in rushing with 957 yards and nine touchdowns on 178 carries. He posted five 100-yard rushing games, including a career-high 186 yards on 24 carries and two touchdowns at Towson, and was a shoo-in to become Hofstra's sixth 1,000-yard rusher and the first since 2000 before his injury. In addition he was sixth in the CAA and 35th in the country with a 24.7 kickoff return average and two touchdowns on 26 returns and led the league and was sixth in the FCS in all-purpose yards. For his efforts Huggins was named to the All-CAA second team at BOTH running back and kickoff returner. Huggins recorded a 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown at Albany and a 92-yard return for a score against Maine. The two kickoff returns for a touchdown in a season equaled Robert Thomas' Hofstra record set in 1998. In his 41-game, four-year career at Hofstra Huggins rushed 428 times for 2,178 yards and 21 touchdowns. He ranks sixth on the Hofstra career rushing list. He also returned 70 kickoffs for 1,596 yards for a 22.8 average.

DT SHEMIAH LEGRANDE: A three-year starter and a four-year letterman, defensive tackle Shemiah LeGrande earned his first all-conference honor in 2007 after posting 38 tackles, 7 1/2 tackles for losses and three sacks. He was named to the All-CAA second team. After posting nine tackles against James Madison in 2005, he equaled his career-best tackle total with nine stops at New Hampshire in 2006. In 2007 LeGrande recorded a season-high eight tackles and added two tackles for losses of 7 yards and two quarterback hurries in the victory at Rhode Island. He received the Hofstra Football Unsung Hero Award as a senior. The Pride's Iron Man the past four years LeGrande did not miss a game, playing in all 44 contests and recording 64 solo tackles, 86 assisted stops and 11 sacks.

DT KEN SUSSMAN: Three-year letterman defensive tackle Ken Sussman earned his second all-conference honor as a senior in 2007. An All-Atlantic 10 third team selection in 2006 and an All-CAA second team pick in 2007, Sussman led the Pride in sacks (4 1/2), tackles for losses (9 1/2) and led the defensive line in tackles with 46 stops. He also posted two forced fumbles and blocked two kicks. Sussman, who posted a career-high 11 tackles against Rhode Island in 2006, played in 32 games for Hofstra after transferring from Buffalo and tallied 43 solo tackles, 79 assisted stops and nine sacks.

K ROB ZARRILLI: Two-time All-American kicker Rob Zarrilli concluded his three-year Hofstra career by finishing second in the CAA and 18th in the FCS in field goal average with a 1.27 mark. A two-time FCS All-American by the Associated Press in 2005 and 2006, as well as a Walter Camp and The Sports Network All-American in 2006, Zarrilli led the Pride with 73 points and was 14-of-26 in the field goal department and 31-of 32 in extra points in 2007. Zarrilli tied one school record and equaled his career-long field in the Pride's 32-17 victory over #9 Furman. The Orlando, FL, native made four field goals in six attempts to tie the Hofstra mark held by three others. Zarrilli's first field goal of the contest tied his career-best of 52 yards. He later hit field goals of 33, 22 and 26 yards. He also added two PATs to post a 14-point night. For his career, Zarrilli made 49-of-66 field goal attempts (.742) and 79-of-85 (.929) extra point attempts.

2007 IN REVIEW

LB STANLEY GUTIERREZ: Four-year letterman and two-year starter linebacker Stanley Gutierrez earned All-CAA third team honors in 2007. He led the CAA and was 29th in the FCS with four interceptions and was second on the team with 88 tackles this past season. Gutierrez also led the Pride in forced fumbles with three, while making seven tackles for losses. He topped his previous career-high of 12 with a 15-tackle performance against the Great Danes of Albany in 2007. Gutierrez posted a game-high 14 tackles against Stony Brook and 12 against Furman. He tallied 63 solo tackles, 84 assisted stops and six interceptions in 41 career games for the Pride.

JOE HEALY AWARD: Senior safety and co-captain David Darby was co-recipient, with wide receiver Chris Manno, of the Joe Healy Memorial Coaches Award in 2007. The four-year letterman and two-time team captain led the secondary and was fourth on the team in tackles with 26 solo stops and 27 assisted tackles. He also equaled his single-season best with three interceptions as a senior. Darby, a three-time conference all-academic selection, posted a career-high 12 tackles in 2006 at Marshall and in 2005 against Massachusetts. Darby, who missed most of 2006 with an injury, posted 93 tackles including 43 solos, and two interceptions in 2005.He played in 44 games during his Hofstra career and posted 98 solo stops, 119 assisted tackles and eight interceptions. Chris Manno walked on to the Pride practice field in 2003 and earned the scholarship the following season. The four-year letterman played in 38 contests during his Hofstra career and posted 25 receptions for 233 yards and one touchdown. His senior season was his best with 16 receptions for 138 yards and earned him a share of the Healy Award.

TIME IS ON OUR SIDE: The Pride won the time of possession battle in 10 of the 11 games in 2007. Hofstra's 36:04 possession time in its victory over William & Mary was the Pride's second-best of the season behind 36:48 against New Hampshire. Hofstra's 32:52 average time of possession was the best in the CAA.

400 YARDS OF OFFENSE STREAK ENDS AT FIVE: The Pride put together a five-game streak with 400 yards or more of offense during the 2007 season. The Pride recorded 400 yards of offense in six of the 11 contests. On October 13 at Towson the Pride recorded a season-high 482 yards on offense. That topped the previous 2007 high of 461 at Rhode Island. The Towson yardage was the most on offense since racking up 533 yards against #2 New Hampshire in a 29-26 loss at Shuart Stadium in 2005. The Pride also posted 474 yards on offense against New Hampshire on October 20.

DEFENSIVE NOTES: The Pride defense recorded six sub-300 yard games in 2007…Hofstra posted its first sub-200 yard contest of the season against Towson on October 13. Hofstra held the Tigers to 193 yards including just 70 yards rushing on 34 attempts. The Tigers' junior quarterback Sean Schaefer was also held to his career-low passing yardage with just 123 yards. Towson's 193 total yards including just 70 rushing was Hofstra's lowest opponents total since New Hampshire had 140 yards in a storm-washed contest in 2006. Linebacker Stanley Gutierrez and safety David Darby intercepted passes for Hofstra against Towson. Both interceptions led to Hofstra scores…The Pride defense picked off two passes in a game four times in 2007… Villanova's 56 yards passing was a season-best for the Pride defense. Hofstra held opponents under 140 yards passing three times in 2007.

IN NO RUSH: The Pride held Stony Brook to just 273 yards, including just 29 yards rushing on 32 attempts. In 2006 the Pride held Stony Brook to just 27 yards rushing in a 17-8 victory.

A RECORD RALLY: Hofstra's rally from a 17-point halftime deficit at URI to win the game is the biggest in Hofstra recorded history. In 2003, the Pride rallied from a 26-14 halftime deficit to down Villanova 34-32.

FIRST KOR FOR TD SINCE 1998: Kareem Huggins' 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown on September 15 at Albany was the first kickoff return for a touchdown of his career. It was also Hofstra's first KOR for a score since Robert Thomas went 97 yards for a TD against Liberty in 1998. The school record is 100 yards set by Charles Veneziano against St. John's in 1982 and Wayne Morris against Pace in 1989.

SEPTEMBER 8 VS. #9 FURMAN:

Quarterback Bryan Savage passed for 285 yards in his Hofstra debut, Charles Sullivan tied his career-high with 12 receptions, Kareem Huggins posted the second 100-yard rushing game of his career and the Pride defense held the Paladins to 313 yards as Hofstra defeated #9 Furman, 32-17, in a non-conference FCS game at James M. Shuart Stadium.

The Pride christened their new FieldTurf at Shuart Stadium with their first 400-yard game in total offense (410) since 2005. Savage, a junior college transfer making his first start for the Pride, completed 24 of 36 passes for 285 yards and a 43-yard scoring strike to Sullivan that boosted the Hofstra lead to 29-17 with 9:41 to play in the contest. Sullivan caught 12 passes for 147 yards and tied his 2004 single-game high set against Rhode Island. Huggins rushed 25 times for 116 yards, and added touchdown runs of 3 and 6 yards in the second half to erase a 17-9 halftime deficit. Kicker Rob Zarrilli, a two-time All-American, tied the school record with four field goals.

It was a battle of the kickers and the defenses early on as Furman's Scott Beckler opened the scoring with a 37-yard field goal 2:38 into the contest. But Zarrilli tied his career-long with a 52-yard kick four minutes later, and then gave the Pride a 6-3 lead with a 33-yard field goal with 3:55 to play in the first quarter. Furman quarterback Renaldo Gray (15-26-1, 161, 1 TD) mounted the first long drive of the game, leading the Paladins on an eight-play, 80-yard drive capped with an 11-yard scoring pass to tight end Chris Truss with 37 seconds to play in the first period.

Zarrilli closed the gap to 10-9 with a 22-yard field goal with 8:13 to play in the half. But the Paladins boosted the lead to 17-9 on a Jerome Felton 1-yard run with 1:08 remaining in the half. Furman posted 196 yards in the first half and held the Pride to 135.

Hofstra came out of the locker room at halftime and picked up the pace on both sides of the ball. After Zarrilli hit the upright on a 26-yard field goal attempt, the Pride defense forced Furman to a three-and-out possession and started their comeback. Savage, who played at Coffeyville Community College in Kansas last year after spending two seasons on the roster at the University of Wisconsin, led the Pride on a nine-play, 56-yard drive capped by Huggins 3-yard touchdown run. The junior signal-caller completed three of five passes for 45 yards and rushed twice for 6 more yards as the Pride cut the deficit to 17-16. Despite no more scoring in the quarter Hofstra took command of the game in the period, racking up 139 yards of offense while holding the Paladins to just 22 yards.

The Pride opened the game up in the final quarter, scoring on each of their first three possessions in the period. Hofstra got the ball back with 54 seconds to play in the third following a fumble by Felton (10-28-1). The Pride drove 38-yards in five plays with Huggins giving Hofstra a 22-17 lead on a 6-yard scoring run. It was a lead Hofstra would not relinquish.

After the Pride defense stopped the Paladins once again, Savage hooked up with Anthony Nelson for two catches for 33 yards, and two to Sullivan for 47-yards, including a 43-yard scoring grab down the middle of the field for a 29-17 lead with 9:41 to play in the game. After the Pride stopped Furman once again, Zarrilli capped a short drive with a 26-yard field goal to tie the school record with his fourth field goal of the game and close out the scoring.

Hofstra posted its first win over a top 10 opponent since the final game of the 2005 season against #7 Massachusetts (21-10). The Pride victory also snapped a seven-game losing skid.

SEPTEMBER 15 AT ALBANY:

Quarterback Bryan Savage rushed for two touchdowns and passed for a third, and the Pride defense held the Great Danes to just 225 yards of offense as 19th ranked Hofstra posted a 28-13 non-conference victory over Albany at University Field.

2007 GAME SUMMARIES

Savage completed 19 of 28 passes for 262 yards and threw a 43-yard scoring pass to Charles Sullivan in the third quarter. Savage also rushed six times for 14 yards and recorded scoring runs of 20 yards and 1 yard in the second quarter. Sullivan tallied his second consecutive 100-yard receiving game and the sixth of his career with six catches for 125 yards. Kareem Huggins led the Pride ground game with 73 yards on 26 carries and had a 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown late in the first quarter.

The Hofstra defense shutdown the Albany attack, which posted over 500 yards last week at Fordham, with four sacks, and interceptions by David Darby, his second of the season, and Stanley Gutierrez, his first of the year. Gutierrez also led the Hofstra defensive charge with 15 tackles and two tackles for losses. Linebacker Gian Villante added 12 tackles, while Darby posted eight stops.

The Great Danes got on the board first late in the first quarter. After a Hofstra punt following a long Pride possession, Albany got the ball on its own 22-yard line. Behind quarterback Vinny Esposito and tailback David McCarty, the Great Danes went on an 18-play, 64-yard drive that chewed up 7:36 only to have the Pride defense stop them on the Hofstra 14-yard line. Albany had to settle for a 31-yard field goal from Jason Fralicker for a 3-0 lead with 1:21 to play in the first quarter.

But the lead was short-lived as Huggins took the ensuing kickoff and returned it 98 yards for the first kickoff return touchdown of his career. It was also Hofstra's first kickoff return for a touchdown since Robert Thomas' 97-yard return against Liberty in 1998. Robert Zarrilli's extra-point gave the Pride a 7-3 lead with 1:08 to play in the first.

The Pride defense forced Albany to three-and-out on its next possession and got the ball back at its own 16-yard line to start the second quarter. Savage and Sullivan directed a seven-play, 84-yard drive with Savage keeping the ball on the option for a 20-yard scoring run. Savage and Sullivan hooked up twice in the drive for gains of 17 and 25 yards as the Pride took a 14-3 lead with 12:37 to play in the half.

Hofstra, which held the Great Danes to three-and-out on all three possessions in the second quarter, boosted the lead to 21-3 late in the second quarter. Starting out at the Albany 45 following a Great Dane punt, the Pride went 55 yards in eight plays with Savage calling his own number for a 1-yard touchdown run with six seconds remaining in the half. Zarrilli, who missed a 32-yards field goal attempt earlier in the period, booted the extra-point as Hofstra took an 18-point lead into the locker room at halftime. The Pride racked up 229 yards in the first half while holding Albany to 89, including just 32 rushing.

Albany scored on its first possession of the second half. Following a 39-yard run back by Dieuseul Joseph to the Hofstra 41, the Pride defense held Albany to just 17 yards in eight plays and the Great Danes had to settle for a 41-yard field goal by Fralicker with 11:16 to play in the third quarter to close the gap to 21-6.

Hofstra came right back and went on a six-play, 63-yard drive with the scrambling Savage finding Sullivan for a 43-yard touchdown with 8:24 to play in the period. Zarrilli's extra-point boosted the Pride lead to 28-6. But there was still more fight in Albany as the Great Danes went on a 66-yard drive in seven plays after the kickoff, with Esposito scoring on a 9-yard run. Fralicker booted the extra-point to close the deficit to 28-13 with 5:23 remaining in the third quarter. Neither team would score the rest of the way.

Esposito completed 15 of 29 passes for 131 yards, but was picked off twice. He rushed for 28 yards on 12 carries and scored once. Flanker Jason Smith caught four passes for 42 yards, while Daniel Bocanegra added four receptions for 20 yards. The Great Danes' running game was led by McCarty's 47 yards on 16 rushes. Linebacker Colin Disch led Albany with nine tackles.

SEPTEMBER 22 AT RHODE ISLAND:

After trailing 24-7 at halftime, the Pride offense erupted for 30 unanswered points in the second half and the defense held the Rams to 122 yards to post a 37-24 CAA victory over Rhode Island.

Hofstra junior quarterback Bryan Savage, who was picked off four times in the first half including three that bounced off receiver's hands, finished the game with 26 completions in 42 attempts for 301 yards and three touchdowns. He also rushed five times for 32 yards and scored on a 21-yard run that concluded the scoring in the Pride's 27-point third quarter.

Charles Sullivan caught eight passes for 92 yards, and had scoring grabs of 9 yards in the first quarter and 4 yards in the third. Kareem Huggins posted his second 100-yard rushing game of the season with 130 yards on 28 carries, and scored on a 5-yard run to start the second half onslaught. Freshman Anthony Nelson also contributed in a big way for the Pride with five catches for 59 yards and three punt returns for 83 yards, including a 77-yards return that set up Sullivan's 4-yard TD catch. Defensively, Gian Villante tallied his third double-digit tackle total of the season with 10 stops while Ken Sussman and Shemiah LeGrande finished with nine and eight tackles, respectively.

The Rams got on the board first on their third possession of the contest as kicker Pedro Belinchon capped a five-play, 40-yard drive with a 40-yard field goal with 6:27 to play in the first quarter. The big play in the drive was a 36-yard rush by Joe Casey on the first play of the drive that moved the ball to the Pride 27. Two possessions later, after Hofstra end Scott Szelong recovered a Casey fumble at the URI 41. Pride quarterback Bryan Savage led a four-play drive and found Charles Sullivan in the corner of the end zone. The senior receiver made a diving catch of the pass for a 9-yard touchdown. Rob Zarrilli's extra-point gave the Pride a 7-3 lead with 3:31 to play in the opening stanza.

But it was all URI the rest of the first half as the Rams took advantage of Hofstra turnovers to build a 24-7 lead at halftime. After the Sullivan touchdown, URI marched 75 yards in six plays with Jerell Jones scoring on a 9-yard run with 1:24 to play in the period. Belinchon's extra-point gave the Rams a 10-7 lead. Just nine seconds into the second quarter URI cornerback Ki'Ameer Johnson picked off Savage in the right flat and scampered 44 yards for the touchdown. Belinchon's extra-point boosted the lead to 17-7.

Later in the period, after a Savage pass bounced off the hands of a Pride receiver and was picked off by Adrian Owen, URI quarterback Derek Cassidy hit Tolbert Evans on a 52-yard scoring pass on the first play of the drive. Belinchon's point-after gave the Rams a 24-7 lead with 3:12 to play in the half.

The second half was all Hofstra. On the opening possession, the Pride marched 59 yards in six plays with Huggins closing the Hofstra deficit to 24-13 with a 5-yard run. Savage started an amazing third quarter, in which he completed 10 of 11 passes for 147 yards, by going four-for-four in the drive with a 22-yard completion to Sullivan and two completions to Chris Manno for 15 yards.

The Pride defense held URI to just 4 yards on its next possession, and Savage, once again, directed a 55-yard drive in three plays and found Ottis Lewis for a 33-yard scoring pass. It was Lewis' first TD catch of his career as Hofstra closed to 24-20 with 8:23 to play in the third quarter. The Pride defense held the Rams to three-and-out on the next possession forcing a punt. Nelson returned the punt 77 yards to the Rams' 4-yard line. One play later Savage hit Sullivan with a 4-yard scoring pass. Zarrilli's point-after gave the Pride a 27-24 lead with 6:49 remaining in the third.

The Hofstra defense stymied URI to three-and-out again and the Pride took over on their 31-yard line. Savage went three-of-four for 47 yards, including two passes to Nelson for 29 and 7 yards, and then called his own number on an option and scored on a 21-yard run with 3:44 to play in the period. Zarrilli, who would later add a 45-yard field goal with 8:10 to play in the contest to close out the scoring, booted the extra-point to boost the lead to 34-24.

The Rams posted 400 yards of offense and were led by Casey, who rushed for 130 yards on 22 carries and had one reception for 19 yards. Cassidy completed nine-of-24 passes for 172 yards. Evans had three receptions for 110 yards. Linebacker L.T. Brantley posted 10 tackles for the Rams.

SEPTEMBER 29 VS. STONY BROOK:

Kareem Huggins amassed 301 yards of total offense and two touchdowns as #14 Hofstra defeated Stony Brook, 33-28, at James M. Shuart Stadium.

Huggins racked up a career-high 141 yards rushing (20 carries) and two scores, while adding 19 receiving yards and 141 return yards on six kickoff returns. In addition, Bryan Savage completed 20 of 33 passes for 256 yards and two touchdowns. The Pride defense also played a strong game, holding the

2007 GAME SUMMARIES

Seawolves to 273 total yards including just 29 yards rushing in 32 attempts.

Stony Brook struck first after a Savage interception put the Seawolves at the Hofstra 11 to start their first possession. Two plays later, Josh Dudash connected with Kevin Halonski on an 8-yard scoring strike for a 7-0 Stony Brook lead. However, on Hofstra's ensuing possession Huggins broke a 58-yard run for a touchdown and Rob Zarrilli's extra-point tied the game at 7-7.

The Pride took the lead for good on Stony Brook's next possession when the Seawolves fumbled the snap on a punt and the ball went through the end zone for a safety. The Pride would seemingly break the game open with 10 second quarter points to take a 19-7 lead at halftime. Huggins scored on a 7-yard scamper with 12:42 on the clock and Zarrilli added a 22-yard field goal with 5:59 to go.

In the third quarter Stony Brook cut the lead to 19-14 on a 20-yard pass from Dudash to Dwayne Eley and the point after from Luke Gaddis. But with 1:59 remaining, Savage hit fullback Everette Benjamin with a dump pass over the middle and Benjamin raced 21 yards to the end zone for a 26-14 Hofstra advantage.

GIAN VILLANTE

Stony Brook again cut the deficit to five at 26-21when Conte Cuttino scored on a 1-yard run three seconds into the fourth quarter. Hofstra answered right back as Savage connected with Ottis Lewis for a 63-yard scoring pass and a 33-21 lead. The Seawolves wouldn't go quietly and with 5:47 to go, following a Huggins fumble inside Hofstra territory, Dudash found JJ Cox for a 2-yard touchdown pass to make the score 33-28. Stony Brook forced Hofstra into a three-and-out on the next possession, but Dudash was intercepted by Stephen Tate on the Hofstra 44 with 2:32 to play to stop the drive. The Seawolves held on defense and took over at their own 33 with 24 second left. But after two incompletions, Dudash was sacked by end Thomas Massey to close the game.
Dudash finished with 244 yards passing and three scores, while Lynell Suggs caught 10 passes for a game-high 132 yards. Cuttino carried 24 times for 68 yards and one score.

The Hofstra defense was paced by Stanley Gutierrez' 14 tackles, while Luke Bonus added 11 stops. Gian Villante and Tate each had 10 tackles. Milo Otis led the Stony Brook defense with 12 stops.

GAME 5
OCTOBER 6 VS. MAINE:

Kareem Huggins scored on a 92-yard kickoff return and a 71-yard run from scrimmage, and the Pride defense held the Black Bears to just one touchdown and two field goals as 12th ranked Hofstra posted a 38-13 CAA win over Maine at Shuart Stadium.

Huggins finished the game with 137 yards rushing on 18 carries, as well as 111 yards on two kickoff returns. It was his fourth 100-yard rushing game of the season and the fifth of his career. Quarterback Bryan Savage was 16-of-20 passing for 185 yards and two touchdowns, and rushed 13 times for 59 yards and a touchdown. Charles Sullivan caught nine passes for 84 yards including a 28-yard touchdown catch late in the first quarter.

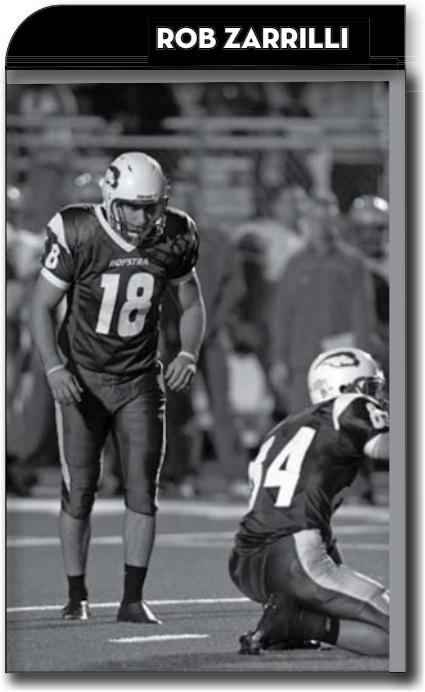

The Pride scored first, midway through the first quarter, following an interception by linebacker Stanley Gutierrez at the Maine 15-yard line. Three plays later Savage rushed up the middle for a 10-yard touchdown run and Rob Zarrilli's extra-point gave Hofstra a 7-0 lead with 7:04 to play in the quarter. After holding the Black Bears to three-and-out on their next possession, Savage engineered a six-play, 66-yard drive capped by a 28-yard scoring pass to Sullivan, his fifth TD catch of the season. Zarrilli's point-after boosted the Pride lead to 14-0 with 3:15 to play in the quarter. The Black Bears did not complete a pass in eight attempts and had just 40 yards of offense in the first period.

The score remained at 14-0 until late in the second quarter when Maine kicker Bobby Donnelly booted a 35-yard field goal with 2:10 to play in the half to put the Black Bears on the board. But on the ensuing kickoff Huggins returned the ball 92 yards for his second kickoff return for a touchdown of the season and a 21-3 lead. But Maine was able to put three more points on the board with four seconds to go in the half as Donnelly booted a 27-yarder to end a 10-play, 59-yard drive.

Hofstra boosted its lead to 28-6 on its opening possession of the second half, going 88 yards on 10 plays with Savage hitting receiver Ottis Lewis for a 33-yard touchdown. It was Lewis' third scoring grab of the year. The Black Bears tallied their only touchdown of the contest later in the period as quarterback Adam Farkes, who completed 21-of-40 passes for 194 yards, directed a six-play, 60-yard drive and hooked up with Manzi Pierre for a 10-yard touchdown with 5:36 to play in the third. Donnelly's extra-point cut the Maine deficit to 28-13.

But the Pride tacked on three more points on a Rob Zarrilli 33-yard field goal with 1:16 to play in the third quarter, and then closed out the scoring on a 71-yard touchdown run by Huggins 13 seconds into the fourth quarter. It was Huggins' longest run from scrimmage of the year. He finished with 248 all-purpose yards with 111 yards coming on two kickoff returns.

The Pride defense, which recorded their third sub-300 yard game of the season, held the Black Bears to 290 yards and was led by linebackers Gian Villante and Luke Bonus with 10 tackles each. Maine, which dropped its fourth straight contest, was led by receivers Landis Williams (64 yards) and Kenneth Fersner (48 yards) each with six receptions, while Jhamel Fluellen rushed for 55 yards on 18 carries. Antonio Walcott picked up 135 all-purpose yards on 114 yards off five kickoff returns and 21 yards on two punt returns. Linebacker John Wormuth recorded a game-high 16 tackles for the Black Bears.

OCTOBER 13 AT TOWSON:

Running back Kareem Huggins rushed for a career-high 186 yards and two touchdowns, receiver Charles Sullivan caught 12 passes for 184 yards and the Pride defense held the Tigers to just 193 yards on the day as #10 Hofstra recorded a 20-3 CAA victory over Towson at Johnny Unitas Stadium.

Huggins carried the ball 24 times for 186 yards and scored on a 4-yard run in the third quarter that broke a 3-3 tie, and a 66-yard run late in the fourth quarter that closed out the scoring. Sullivan equaled his career-best of 12 receptions, achieved against Furman earlier this season and against Rhode Island in 2004, for a season-high 184 yards. Quarterback Bryan Savage also equaled his best passing game of the season with 301 yards on 24-of-38 passing. The junior signal-caller passed for 301 yards on September 22 at URI.

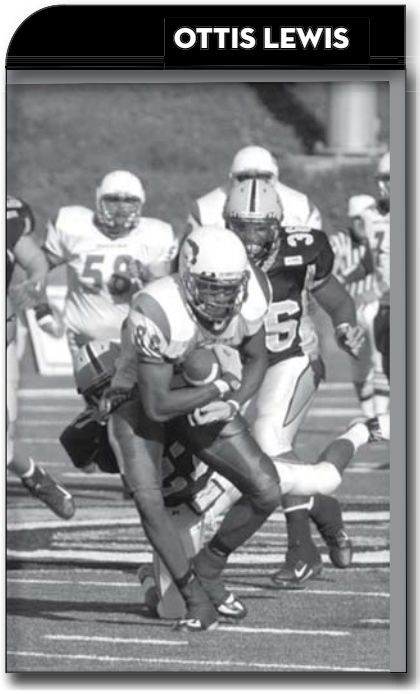

In addition to a solid offensive game that netted a season-high 482 yards, the Pride defense posted its best effort of the season holding the Tigers under 200 yards. The last time Hofstra held a team below 200 yards was October 28, 2006, in a driving rainstorm at New Hampshire as the Wildcats had 140 yards that day. Linebacker Gian Villante led six Pride players with six tackles or more against Towson with eight stops and two pass deflections, while safety David Darby had seven tackles and one interception.

The Tigers were led by quarterback Sean Schaefer, who completed 13-of-26 passes for 123 yards. It was the lowest passing total of his career. Nick Williams rushed 17 times for 69 yards and Casey Cegles (53 yards) and Marcus Lee (46 yards) each had four receptions.

Despite outgaining the Tigers by a 259-108 margin at halftime, the Pride had to settle for a 3-3 tie at the break. Hofstra had its best opportunity to score a touchdown on their second possession of the contest, driving 71 yards on 14 plays before settling for a 21-yard field goal by Rob Zarrilli with 7:19 to play in the first quarter. Savage hit Charles Sullivan down the middle for an apparent touchdown during the drive, but the play was called back by a facemask penalty on Sullivan's stiff-arm. Four plays later Zarrilli booted his eighth field goal of the season.

2007 GAME SUMMARIES

The Tigers tied the game with 7:29 to play in the half following an interception by linebacker Brian Bradford at the Hofstra 20. While the Pride held the Tigers and pushed them back three yards, Towson settled for a 37-yard field goal by Mark Bencievengo to tie the contest at 3-3. Savage completed 17-of-27 passes for 207 yards for the Pride with Sullivan hauling in eight passes for 117 yards in the first two periods.

OTTIS LEWIS

The Pride took the lead on their first possession of the third quarter after linebacker Stanley Gutierrez's third interception of the season gave Hofstra the ball on their own 39-yard line. Savage directed a nine-play, 61-yard drive with Huggins getting 27 yards on four carries in the drive including the 4-yard scoring run with 9:08 to play in the quarter that gave the Pride a 10-3 lead.

Hofstra boosted the lead to 13-3 with 9:12 remaining in the contest on a Rob Zarrilli 35-yard field goal to cap an eight-play, 39-yard drive following a Towson fumble. Defensive tackle Ken Sussman forced the fumble and cornerback DeWayne Whitaker recovered to start the drive for the Pride. The big plays in the Hofstra series were two pass completions to Sullivan of 22 and 21 yards.

The Pride held the Tigers to four and three plays on their next two possessions, including Hofstra safety David Darby's third interception of the season. Hofstra added an insurance score with 2:25 to play when Huggins ripped a 66-yard run for his eighth rushing touchdown of the year.

In addition to Villante and Darby, Whitaker, Kyle Arrington, Sussman and Gutierrez each posted six tackles. The Pride had five sacks on the day.

GAME 7
OCTOBER 20 VS. #11 NEW HAMPSHIRE:

Quarterback Ricky Santos passed for 262 yards and four touchdowns to lead the #11 Wildcats of New Hampshire to a 40-3 CAA victory over #10 Hofstra at James M. Shuart Stadium. The loss was the Pride's first of the season.

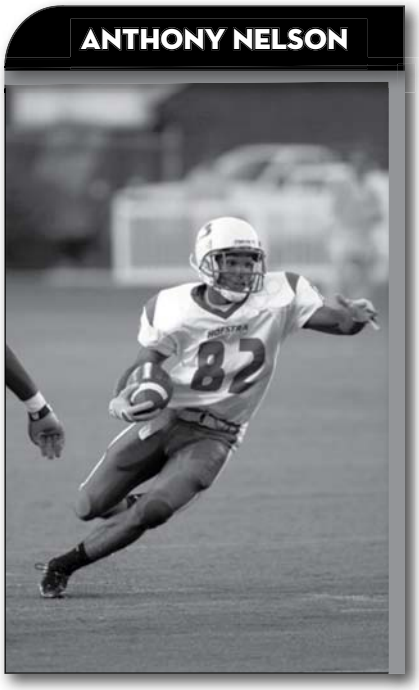

Hofstra quarterback Bryan Savage completed 31-of-50 passes for a career-high 325 yards but was picked off three times. Receiver Anthony Nelson posted his first collegiate 100-yard receiving game with 128 yards on a season high 10 receptions. Receiver Charles Sullivan hauled in nine passes for 74 yards to become the Hofstra career receptions leader with 212, passing Steven Jackson's (1997-2000) former record of 206. In addition to Santos, who returned after missing last week's contest against Iona, the Wildcats received seven receptions for 121 yards and a fourth quarter, 47-yard touchdown grab from Keith LeVan. Tight end Scott Sicko posted five catches for 79 yards and a 26-yard TD catch, while J.T. Wright had three receptions for 37 yards and touchdown catches of 31 yards and 1 yard from Santos.

New Hampshire scored on its opening possession as Santos directed a nine-play, 74-yard drive and called his own number for a 1-yard scoring run that gave the Wildcats a 7-0 lead 3:06 into the game. Santos completed five-of-six passes in the drive for 45 yards. On the ensuing Hofstra possession, the Pride, starting out at their 28-yard line, marched 71 yards to the UNH 1 before settling for a 19-yard field goal by Rob Zarrilli. It would turn out to be the Pride's only points of the day.

The floodgates opened in the second quarter as UNH scored 26 of their 33 straight points before halftime. After a Hofstra punt late in the first quarter gave the Wildcats the ball on their own 42-yard line, Santos, the 2006 Walter Payton Award winner as FCS Offensive Player of the Year, led a five-play, 58-yard drive capped by a 31-yard TD pass to Wright eight seconds into the second quarter. Tom Manning's extra-point missed and UNH was up 13-0. The big play in the drive was a 26-yard run on a fake punt by punter Tom Bishop that moved the ball to the Pride 26-yard line.

After Hofstra was held to three-and-out on its next possession, UNH took over on its own 33. Santos made quick work again, going 67-yards on five plays and hooked up with Sicko for a 26-yard touchdown. Manning's extra-point was blocked by Tom Massey as UNH boosted the lead to 19-3 with 11:53 to play in the half. Hofstra had a chance to add some points on its next possession but after an eight-play drive, Zarrilli's 35-yard field goal attempt went wide right.

UNH came right back and went on an 80-yard drive in 11 plays that took up just 2:25 with Santos hitting Wright with a 1-yard bullet for the touchdown. Manning made the extra point to boost the lead to 26-3 with 5:46 to play in the second quarter. On the Pride's next possession Hofstra marched down to the UNH 27-yard line before UNH free safety Jeff Pammer batted a Savage pass, caught it in mid-air and then rambled 66 yards for the touchdown. Manning's extra-point made it 33-3 with 2:49 to play in the half. The stat sheet at the end of the half showed the Wildcats outgaining Hofstra, 269-268, and being even in almost every other category. Yet, Hofstra had its largest halftime deficit since 1993.

UNH boosted its advantage after forcing Nelson to fumble after a 16-yard reception and recovering at the Pride 47. On the first play from scrimmage, Santos found LeVan behind the Pride defense for a 47-yard touchdown pass. Santos would be relieved midway through the third quarter. Despite moving the ball to the tune of 206 yards and holding UNH to just 109 in the second half, the Pride couldn't get anything on the board. Hofstra finished with 474 yards on the day, while New Hampshire closed out with 377.

OCTOBER 27 AT VILLANOVA:

The Wildcats scored 14 points in the first 1:44 of the second half to open a 35-21 lead and staved off a late Hofstra rally as Villanova handed the Pride its second straight loss with a 35-31 CAA decision at Villanova Stadium.

The Pride, who outgained the Wildcats, 357-201, in the contest, were led by running back Kareem Huggins, who gained 95 yards and a touchdown on 12 carries before leaving the game with an ankle injury in the third quarter. Receiver Charles Sullivan had five catches for 68 yards and receiver Anthony Nelson had four receptions for 52 yards and a touchdown. Quarterback Bryan Savage completed 16-of-36 passes for 206 yards and a touchdown, but was picked off three times. Linebacker Gian Villante led the Pride defensive charge with 11 tackles, while defensive backs Kyle Arrington and David Darby added seven stops. The Wildcats, who picked up 21 points without their offense on the field, were led by running back Matt Dicken with 55 yards on 18 carries and quarterback Chris Whitney, who completed eight-of-16 passes for 56 yards. Tight end Matthew Sherry had three catches for 26 yards. Linebacker Osayi Osunde posted 11 tackles, while free safety Martel Moody had two interceptions, two pass deflections and two tackles.

The Wildcats scored on their first possession after a Hofstra punt gave Villanova the ball on its own 44-yard line. Three plays later, thanks in large part to Matthew Seczur's 40-yard run to the Pride 2-yard line, Dicken rushed 2 yards for the touchdown. Joe Marcoux's extra-point gave the Wildcats a 7-0 lead just 2:28 into the contest. After the Pride was forced to punt on their next possession, Villanova took over on the Pride 36. Whitney engineered a six-play drive with Phil Atkinson rushing into the end zone from 10 yards out. Marcoux's extra-point made it 14-0 with 7:58 to play in the period.

But the Pride closed the gap on its next possession as Savage directed a 10-play, 74-yard drive, hitting Anthony Nelson for a 24-yard touchdown. Savage was five-for-five for 57 yards and rushed twice for 9 yards in the drive. Shaun McQueary's extra-point cut the Hofstra deficit to 14-7 with 2:50 to play in the quarter.

On the first play of Hofstra's next possession, after a penalty, Savage was picked off by Moody, who returned the ball 43 yards for a Wildcats touchdown. Marcoux's point-after made it 21-7 with 48 seconds to play in the quarter. Hofstra closed the gap once again on its next possession marching 80 yards on five plays with Huggins breaking away up the middle for a 55-yard touchdown run. McQueary's point-after closed the deficit to 21-14 just 1:58 into the second quarter.

The Pride stopped Villanova the rest of the quarter and tied the game late in the period following a Wildcat punt. Taking over on their own 31-yard line, Savage went three-for-five for 60 yards and called his own number on the draw and went airborne for a 14-yard touchdown run. McQueary's extra-point tied the game at 21 with one minute to play in the half. The Pride posted 228 yards in the first half while holding Villanova to just 119.

The second half was another flurry of activity. On the opening kickoff Villanova sophomore Angelo Babbaro scampered 95 yards to give the Wildcats a 28-21 lead just 13 seconds into the third quarter. On Hofstra's next possession, Savage was sacked by Wildcats defensive end Greg Miller and fumbled at the Pride 16-yard line. Villanova defensive end Tim Kukucka scooped up the ball and rambled 16 yards for the touchdown. Marcoux's extra point boosted the Wildcats' lead to 35-21.

But Hofstra came roaring back once again. After David Darby scooped up a Dicken fumble and the Pride moved the ball to the Villanova 22, senior kicker Rob Zarrilli booted a 44-yard field goal with 5:41 to play in the third quarter. On Villanova's possession Whitney was picked off by Pride linebacker Stanley Gutierrez at the Wildcats 17-yard line. It was Gutierrez's fourth interception of the season. Five plays later Everette Benjamin rushed into the end zone from 2 yards out with 3:05 to play in the period. Rob Zarrilli's extra-point closed the gap to 35-31.

The Pride defense was able to hold the Wildcats to just 24 yards in the fourth quarter giving the offense a late chance to win the game. Starting the drive with 7:05 to play in the fourth quarter, Hofstra marched 60 yards down to the Villanova 13-yard line. Savage had two big plays in what would end up being a 16-play drive. On a third-and-eight play from the Pride 41, Savage broke away for a 21-yard gain. Shortly after, he rushed 5 yards to the Villanova 26 on a fourth-and-three play. But on the final series from the Villanova 13, the Pride couldn't complete a pass under the Villanova pressure as the Wildcats took over with 1:04 to play and ran out the clock.

NOVEMBER 3 VS. WILLIAM AND MARY:

Quarterback Bryan Savage completed 15-of-17 passes, including two touchdown strikes, and also rushed for three touchdowns to lead the 20th ranked Pride of Hofstra to a 38-14 CAA victory over William and Mary at Shuart Stadium. Savage, who recorded the most rushing touchdowns by a Hofstra player since Terry Crenshaw rushed for four against Stony Brook in 2004, passed for 196 yards and threw scoring passes of 6 yards to receiver Charles Sullivan and 12 yards to receiver Ottis Lewis. He also rushed 13 times for 57 yards and scored on runs of 12, 1, and 11 yards. Savage's passing yards moves him up two places into 10th place on the Hofstra single-season passing yards chart. He now has 2,317 and moved past Don Gault (2,134 in 1965) and Anton Clarkson (2,239 in 2004).
The Pride, who played without senior running back Kareem Huggins (ankle sprain), received 57 yards on 15 carries from red-shirt freshman Everette Benjamin, and 81 yards on 23 carries from classmate Jeff Aime. Fullback Bryant Carpenter recorded season-highs of five catches for 57 yards. The Pride tallied 356 yards on offense while holding William and Mary to 263. Linebacker Gian Villante led the Hofstra defensive charge with nine tackles while Luke Bonus added seven stops.

William and Mary, which entered the game averaging 413.9 yards per game, was led by quarterback Jake Phillips, who completed 12-of-22 passes for 92 yards, and rushed 12 times for 54 yards. Tailback Courtland Marriner rushed 14 times for 60 yards and had two catches for 19 yards, including a 16-yard scoring grab. Linebacker Josh Rutter and safety David Caldwell posted a game-high 12 tackles.

William and Mary got on the board first thanks to a Hofstra miscue. The Tribe stopped the Pride on three plays forcing Hofstra to punt from their 38-yard line. But the snap from center was high and sailed over the head of punter Chris Hanly, who fell on the ball at the Pride 3-yard line. Two plays later Terrance Riggins rushed 2 yards for the William and Mary score. Brian Pate's extra-point gave the Tribe a 7-0 lead with 9:16 to play in the first. It would be their last score for a long time as the Pride would score the next 38 points.

Hofstra would score on its next three possessions to build a 21-7 lead after one quarter. After the Tribe scored, it took just two plays to travel 62 yards as Savage hit Lewis for a 45-yard gain, and then, after an offsides penalty on the Tribe, rushed 12 yards for the touchdown. It was Savage's sixth rushing touchdown of the year. Rob Zarrilli's extra-point tied the score with 8:25 to play in the quarter. After the Pride defense held the Tribe to three-and-out on its next possession, Savage once again went to work quickly, going 47 yards on five plays and hitting Sullivan for a 6-yard touchdown pass. It was Sullivan's 10th scoring grab of the season. Zarrilli boosted the lead to 14-7 with the point-after.

On William & Mary's next possession, Phillips was picked off by linebacker Deron Mayo, who returned his first college interception 4 yards to the Tribe 34-yard line. Several plays later, after a 19-yard completion to Anthony Nelson moved the ball to the 1-yard line, Savage called his own number for his second TD run of the game and a 21-7 advantage.

Hofstra added to the lead with 4:46 to play in the half. Savage found Lewis in the corner of the end zone for a 12-yard score that capped a 10-play, 74-yard drive and gave the Pride a 28-7 lead at the break. By halftime, Savage was already 11-for-12 and had 165 of Hofstra's 188 yards.

Hofstra boosted the lead on the opening possession of the second half as Benjamin led the Pride on a nine-play, 66-yard drive by rushing six times for 32 yards, before Savage rushed for the score from 11 yards out. Zarrilli's extra-point gave the Pride a 35-7 lead with 10:42 to play in the third quarter.

Hofstra would tack on three more points early in the fourth quarter on a 20-yard field goal from Zarrilli for a 38-7 lead. William and Mary came right back and went on a seven-play, 70-yard drive, with back-up quarterback Mike Potts hitting Courtland Marriner for a 16-yard touchdown with 6:54 to play in the game, that closed out the scoring.

NOVEMBER 10 AT NORTHEASTERN:

Running back Alex Broomfield threw a 9-yard scoring pass to tight end Brian Mandeville with 17 seconds to play to give Northeastern a 35-31 CAA victory over the 18th ranked Hofstra Pride at Parsons Field. The Huskies marched 92 yards in 12 plays in just 1:51 to regain the lead on the halfback pass play. Hofstra had taken its first lead of the game at 31-28 on a 1-yard scoring run by Bryan Savage with 2:17 to play in the fourth quarter.

Hofstra, which gave up a season-high 446 yards to the Huskies, was led by receiver Anthony Nelson, who hauled in six passes for 105 yards and added a key 67-yard punt return. Savage completed 20-of-33 passes for 222 yards and one touchdown pass, and also rushed 18 times for 27 yards with scoring runs of 9 yards and 1 yard. Everette Benjamin, filling in for the injured Kareem Huggins, rushed 20 times for a career-high 93 yards and one touchdown. Senior receiver Charles Sullivan inched closer to the school career receiving yards record with seven catches for 45 yards and a touchdown. He is now 56 yards from breaking Marques Colston's receiving yards mark of 2,834. Linebacker Luke Bonus led the Pride's defensive charge with 12 solo tackles.

The Huskies were led by quarterback Anthony Orio, who completed 19-of-23 passes for 249 yards and one touchdown, while rushing nine times for 25 yards. Running back Maurice Murray carried the ball 31 times for 147 yards and scored three times. Receiver Tony Lott had six catches for 102 yards. Phil Higgins posted 10 tackles, while linebacker Joe Mele added nine tackles, two sacks and one pass deflection.

A seesaw first half ended with the two teams tied at 21. The Huskies got on the board first midway through the first quarter following a Hofstra punt. Murray led Northeastern on an eight-play, 53-yard drive and rushed for a 1-yard touchdown to cap the 3:13 drive. Matt Johnson's extra-point gave the Huskies a 7-0 lead with 7:08 to play in the period. Murray carried the ball six times for 22 yards, but the big play was a 20-yard completion from Orio to Mandeville on a third-and-seven play from midfield.

2007 GAME SUMMARIES

The Pride came right back on the ensuing possession as Benjamin rushed 2 yards for the touchdown to cap a 14-play, 67-yard drive. The Pride picked up six first downs in the drive. Rob Zarrilli's point-after tied the score at 7-7 with 1:54 to play. But the Huskies came right back and went on an 11-play, 80-yard drive capped by a 14-yard pass from Orio to Mandeville. Johnson boosted the lead to 14-7 with the extra-point 2:41 into the second quarter.

Once again the Pride came back on its possession as Savage directed a seven-play, 67-yard drive and called his own number on a 9-yard scoring run. Zarrilli tied the game at 14 with the extra-point. The see-saw continued as Northeastern immediately went on a 10-play, 78-yard drive, behind Murray's 21 yards on six carries culminating with a 6-yard run to give the Huskies the lead again. Johnson gave Northeastern a seven-point lead with the extra-point with 6:25 to play in the half.

After both the Northeastern and Hofstra defenses made stops, Nelson gave the Pride the lift they needed before halftime. The freshman took a Huskies punt at his own 26-yard line and returned it 67 yards to the Huskies 7-yard line. Two plays later, Savage found Charles Sullivan alone for a 7-yard touchdown pass. It was Sullivan's seventh TD grab of the season. Zarrilli's point-after tied the game at 21 with 2:14 to play in the half. The Pride, who lead the CAA in total defense allowing just 281.7 yards per game, gave up 258 in the first half to the Huskies.

The Huskies took the lead 6:21 into the second half as Murray ripped off a 31-yard touchdown run to cap an eight-play, 71-yard drive on the Huskies opening possession. Johnson's point-after gave Northeastern a 28-21 lead. The Pride, after missing two field goals in the third quarter, cut the deficit to 28-24 as Zarrilli connected on a 47-yard field goal 3:38 into the fourth quarter.

The Pride took their only lead of the game late in the period as Savage directed a 15-play, 69-yard drive and scored on a 1-yard TD run with 2:16 to play in the game. Zarrilli's point-after gave Hofstra a 31-28 lead. There were two key plays in the drive as Benjamin picked up 2 yards on a fourth-and-one play at the Northeastern 24, and Savage hit Nelson for 22 yards to the Huskies 8-yard line on a second-and-18 play.

But the Huskies were not done. After the kickoff left the Huskies on their own 8-yard line with 2:08 to play, Orio crushed the Pride's hopes with his arm and his legs. He went four-for-five for 63 yards and rushed four times for 16 yards and brought the Huskies to the Pride 9-yard line. On a third-and-seven play Orio handed off to Broomfield, who threw to a wide-open Mandeville for a 9-yard TD pass with 17 seconds to play. The Pride was able to get to midfield after the kickoff but the last, desperation pass to the end zone was knocked down by the defense.

NOVEMBER 18 VS. MASSACHUSETTS:

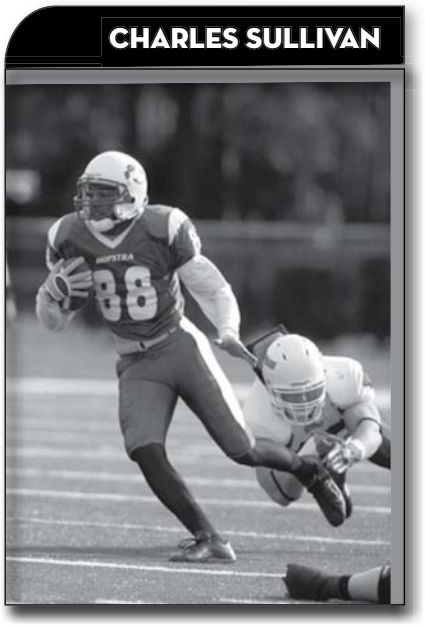

Pride receiver Charles Sullivan broke two more school receiving records, but Minutemen quarterback Liam Coen passed for 309 yards and four touchdowns and the defense stood tall as #8 Massachusetts recorded a 27-5 CAA victory over #22 Hofstra at James M. Shuart Stadium.

Sullivan, who broke the Hofstra career receptions record on October 20 against New Hampshire, recorded 11 catches for 90 yards against UMass to break current New Orleans Saints receiver Marques Colston's career receiving yards mark of 2,834 yards. Sullivan concludes his career with 238 receptions for 2,869 yards. He also broke the Pride's single season reception record, finishing the 2007 season with 86 catches for 991 yards, topping the previous mark of 82 catches by Bryan Kish in 1997. Hofstra quarterback Bryan Savage, who was sacked six times in the contest, completed 21-of-34 passes for 129 yards. The Pride was held to a season-low 168 yards, including just 39 yards rushing, by the number two defense in the CAA. Hofstra senior linebacker Gian Villante, a 2004 All-American, concluded his career by leading all players with 16 tackles in the contest.

Coen completed 22-of-34 passes for 309 yards and four touchdowns to lead the Minutemen into the FCS playoffs that begin next Saturday. Coen's favorite target was receiver J.J. Moore, who hauled in 11 passes for 155 yards with scoring grabs of 7 and 42 yards. It was his third 100-yard receiving game of the year. Massachusetts also received 101 yards on 25 carries by tailback Matt Lawrence, who posted his eighth 100-yard rushing contest of the year. The UMass defensive charge was led by linebacker Charles Walker, who posted 11 stops.

In a game that featured the top two defenses in the CAA in number one Hofstra (298.1 ypga) and number two Massachusetts (298.9 ypga), many expected a bruising defensive battle. But it was the Minutemen who bruised the Pride by holding them to their lowest yardage output of the year. The Minutemen got on the board on their opening possession after Jeromy Miles picked off a Savage pass near midfield on the first play of the game. Lawrence led the Minutemen on a 10-play, 48-yard drive before Coen hit J.J. Moore for a 7-yard touchdown pass. Chris Koepplin's extra-point gave UMass a 7-0 lead with 10:29 to play in the first quarter. Lawrence carried the ball five times for 26 yards in the drive.

The Pride had their first real shot to get on the board late in the period, driving down to the UMass 30-yard line. But Rob Zarrilli's 47-yard field goal attempt went wide left. The Minutemen held the Pride to just 21 yards in the first quarter. The Minutemen took advantage of the missed field goal into the second quarter, driving 70 yards in four plays as Coen hit Rasheed Rancher for a 35-yard scoring pass. Koepplin's point-after boosted the lead to 14-0 just 44 seconds into the second quarter.

The Pride got on the board five minutes later following a punt return fumble by J.J. Moore at the UMass 14-yard line that was recovered by Hofstra's Ottis Lewis. After the Minutemen held the Pride to just four yards, Hofstra had to settle for a 27-yard field goal by Zarrilli to close the deficit to 14-3 with 9:05 to play in the half. While UMass was picking up yardage Hofstra wasn't letting them in the end zone as the half ended with the 14-3 score. The Minutemen outgained the Pride, 247-62, in the first half.

After a scoreless third quarter, Massachusetts blew the game open with two touchdowns in the fourth. After a Hofstra punt gave the Minutemen the ball on their 28-yard line, it took Coen only three plays to go 72 yards in 1:33, capped by a 42-yard touchdown pass to Moore with 9:25 to play in the game. After the Pride went three-and-out on their next possession, UMass marched 67 yards in six plays, with Coen hitting Ian Jorgensen for a 10-yard scoring pass. The extra-point was blocked by Pride tackle Ken Sussman with senior cornerback DeWayne Whitaker scooping up the ball and going 80 yards for the defensive extra-point.

THE COLONIAL ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The inaugural season of CAA Football kicked off in 2007 with plans to take the nation's premier conference in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS, formerly I-AA) to even greater heights and the mission was accomplished. The league boasted as many as seven teams ranked among the national Top-25 during the season, logged 15 national player of the week honorees and culminated the regular season success by advancing a record five squads to the NCAA Playoffs field of 16.

The success did not stop on Selection Sunday. CAA Football came within four points of all five squads advancing to the quarterfinal round of the NCAA Championships. Both Delaware and Richmond, moved on to the final four marking the eighth time in 11 years a CAA Football squad has competed in the semifinals. Delaware logged a win in the semifinals to earn the league its fourth National Final berth in five seasons, while Richmond fell to the eventual national champions. Following the season, the league notched a total of 67 All-America honors. James Madison safety Tony LeZotte became the first player in conference history to earn All-America honors in every year of his career, while New Hampshire quarterback Ricky Santos left his name among the NCAA's career Top-3 in touchdown passes, passing yards and total offense.

The quality and depth of CAA Football is unmatched in the FCS. Ten of the league's 12 teams have participated in the NCAA playoffs over the past seven seasons and at least one team has advanced to the national semifinals in eight of the last 11 years.

In 2004, James Madison claimed the national championship with a 31-21 triumph over Montana, becoming the first team to reach the title game by winning three road playoff contests since the field expanded to 16 teams in 1986. Delaware rolled past Colgate 40-0 to capture the national championship in 2003, becoming the first team to ever post a shutout in the title game. No other conference has had two different teams win national titles in back-to-back years. Massachusetts earned a national championship in 1998, beating perennial power Georgia Southern, 55-43.

Along with the team accomplishments, the conference has accumulated numerous individual accolades. Santos (2006), William & Mary quarterback Lang Campbell (2004), Villanova running back Brian Westbrook (2001), Villanova wide receiver Brian Finneran (1997), New Hampshire running back Jerry Azumah (1998) and Towson running back Dave Meggett (1988) all have won the prestigious Walter Payton Award under the league banner. James Madison linebacker Derrick Lloyd received the Buck Buchanan Award in 2001. New Hampshire's Sean McDonnell (2005), James Madison's Mickey Matthews (1999), Villanova's Andy Talley (1997) and Boston University's Dan Allen (1993) have earned the Eddie Robinson Award as the top coach in the FCS.

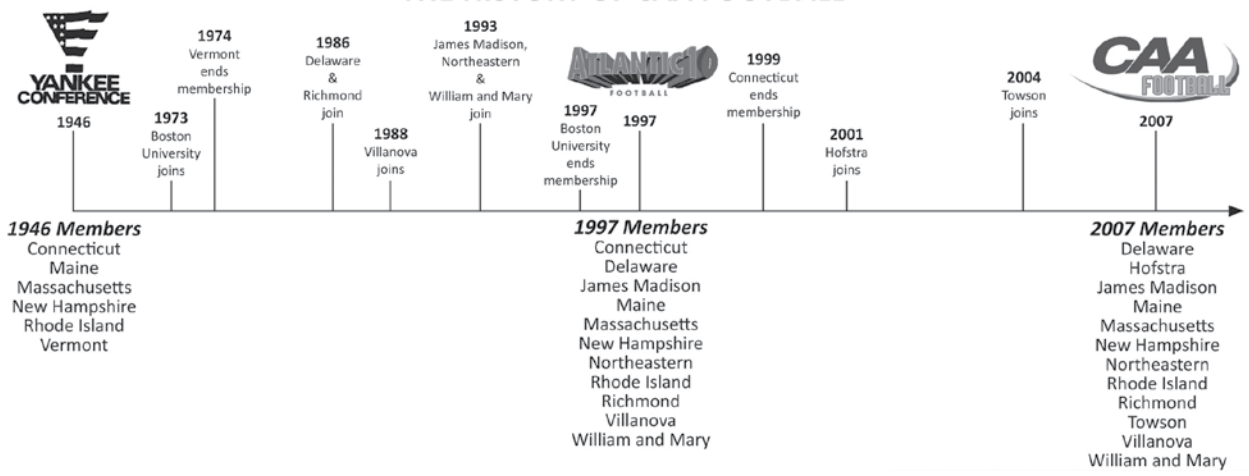

The CAA Football geographic footprint encompasses much of the East Coast with schools located from Maine to Virginia. Members include Delaware, Hofstra, James Madison, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Northeastern, Rhode Island, Richmond, Towson, Villanova and William & Mary. While CAA Football officially began March 1, 2007, its roots date back more than 60 years.

On December 3, 1946, the Code of the Yankee Conference went into effect. Established as an all-sports conference for the New England land grant colleges, the six charter members included Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Vermont. Upon the formation of Division I-AA football in 1978, the league disbanded all sports except football. Delaware and Richmond were admitted to the conference in 1986, Villanova was added in 1988 and James Madison, Northeastern and William & Mary joined the league in 1993.

The Atlantic 10 assumed operation control of the conference from 1997-2006, with Hofstra becoming part of the league in 2001 and Towson joining the group in 2004.

Since 1978, CAA Football members have accumulated 69 playoff berths, 18 Lambert Cups, 82 final top 25 rankings and 40 final top 10 rankings.

NOVEMBER 25, 1995 - FIRST ROUND - AT DELAWARE:

Three of four Hofstra turnovers resulted in Blue Hen touchdowns, including a 100-yard interception return by Paul Williams as Delaware defeated the Flying Dutchmen, 38-17 in the first round of the NCAA FCS playoffs at Delaware Stadium. In a scoreless game after Delaware's second possession, Hofstra returner Cedric Johnson fumbled a punt on the Dutchmen 11 setting up the Delaware's first score of the day. Five plays later, Kai Hebron scored the first of his two touchdowns on the day. Early in the second quarter, Dutchmen quarterback Kharon Brown's pass was intercepted by Ken Bailey, who returned the ball 54 yards to the Hofstra 32-yard line. Eight plays later, Hebron notched his second touchdown of the game on a 3-yard run. After a Delaware field goal, Hofstra got on the board with a 1-yard run by Brown. But the Blue Hens started putting the nails in the coffin when quarterback Leo Hamlet led Delaware on a seven-play, 65-yard drive resulting in a 24-yard touchdown pass to Courtney Batts just four seconds before halftime. The Dutchmen opened the second half with a nine-play drive resulting in a 5-yard scoring pass from Brown to Erik Michael to close the gap to 24-14. But Delaware answered with a four-play, 73-yard drive resulting in a 19-yard scoring run by Hamlett. Trailing 31-17 with less than two minutes to play, Kharon Brown was intercepted by Williams, who took the ball the length of the field for the touchdown. Delaware rushed for 241 yards including 59 by Hamlett and 57 by Hebron. Jimmy Jones, who rushed for 125 yards on 19 carries, and receiver Robert Grogan, who caught 10 passes for 78 yards, led Hofstra.

NOVEMBER 29, 1997 - FIRST ROUND - AT DELAWARE:

Despite being held to just 225 yards on the day, the Blue Hens of Delaware took advantage of four Hofstra miscues to score all of its points and take a 24-14 victory over the Flying Dutchmen in the first round of the FCSplayoffs at Delaware Stadium. Delaware jumped out to a 17-0 lead at halftime on a 1-yard touchdown run by Andre Thompson, a 47-yard field goal by Sean Leach, and an 8-yard blocked punt return by Jamie Belle. Thompson's score was set up after Hofstra punter Dave Ettinger let the snap go through his hands leaving the Blue Hens with the ball on the Hofstra 13-yard line. Four plays later, Delaware had a touchdown. Leach's field goal came following a Giovanni Carmazzi interception while

HOFSTRA PLAYOFF HISTORY

Belle's score came after Brian Smith blocked Ettinger's punt on the Hofstra 8-yard line. Delaware boosted the lead to 24-0 in the third quarter when Mike Pearson picked off a Carmazzi pass and went 64 yards to the Hofstra 1-yard line. Craig Cummings went up the middle for the score one play later. Hofstra did get touchdown receptions from Bryan Kish in the third and fourth quarters, but it was too little, too late. Hofstra outgained Delaware, 361-225, but couldn't overcome its own miscues.

NOVEMBER 27, 1999 - FIRST ROUND - VS. LEHIGH:

Junior receiver Steve Jackson hauled in 11 passes for 144 yards and senior running back Jimmy Jones rushed 25 times for 138 yards to lead the third-seeded Flying Dutchmen of Hofstra to a 27-15 victory over the 14th-seeded Mountain Hawks of Lehigh at Hofstra Stadium. The Mountain Hawks jumped out to a 10-0 lead on a 23-yard field goal by Jaron Taaffe after a Hofstra fumble, and a Ron Jean 2-yard scoring run. After Hofstra kicker Chad Johnson closed the gap to 10-3 with a 21-yard field goal at the end of the first quarter, Taaffe booted a 20-yard field goal three minutes into the second period to boost the Lehigh lead to 13-3. But Hofstra All-America quarterback Gio Carmazzi led the Flying Dutchmen on a nine-play, 67-yard drive capped by a 1-yard dive and then a seven-play, 62-yard drive capped by an 11-yard Carmazzi-to-Jackson scoring toss. After a scoreless third quarter, Hofstra boosted its lead to 20-13 on a 27-yard field goal by Chad Johnson. Jackson and Carmazzi put the nail in the Lehigh coffin when they hooked up on a 6-yard scoring pass. Hofstra closed out the scoring by scoring for Lehigh on a team safety with 2:33 to play. Carmazzi was 22 for 30 for 258 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions as Hofstra racked up 394 yards on offense. The Hofstra defense held Lehigh RB Ron Jean to just 52 yards on 16 carries. Quarterback Phil Stambaugh completed 30 of 44 passes for 323 yards, while Kody Fedorcha hauled in nine passes for 117 yards.

DECEMBER 4, 1999 - QUARTERFINALS - VS. ILLINOIS STATE:

Freshman quarterback Dusty Burk completed 31 of 37 passes for 350 yards and two touchdowns as the Redbirds of Illinois State ended Hofstra's season with a 37-20 victory over the Dutchmen in a FCS playoff quarterfinal game at Hofstra Stadium. The loss ended the spectacular career of Dutchmen quarterback Giovanni Carmazzi, who completed 28 of 35 passes for 291 yards and two touchdowns before leaving the game early in the fourth quarter with a knee injury. Running back Jimmy Jones, who caught nine passes for 116 yards and rushed 14 times for 51 yards in the contest, gave Hofstra the early 7-0 lead with a 4-yard scoring run late in the first quarter. But Jake Strader's 32-yard field goal with 3:15 to play started a 24-0 run for the Redbirds that gave them a commanding 24-7 lead at halftime. The second quarter was especially devastating for the Dutchmen as Illinois State ran up 217 yards of offense while holding Hofstra to 43, and scored two touchdowns off of Dutchmen fumbles. ISU running back Willie Watts scored twice in the quarter on runs of 4 and 5 yards. Hofstra seemed to get back on track in the third quarter, marching 71 yards on the first possession of the second half capped by a 35-yard scoring pass from Carmazzi to Jones. But ISU responded two possessions later with a 6-yard scoring pass from Ryan Spielman to Tom Bardwell to boost the Redbird lead to 30-13. Carmazzi then led Hofstra on an 11-play, 73-yard drive capped with a 13-yard scoring pass to Bill Morales. The touchdown closed the Hofstra gap to 30-20 with 3:42 to play in the third quarter. But ISU, once again, scored as Burk engineered a nine-play, 80-yard drive in 3:30 and hit Steve Kostro with a 34-yard scoring pass to bump the lead to 37-20. Hofstra did not want to go quietly as Carmazzi drove Hofstra from its own 20-yard line to the ISU 12-yard line. But the wind came out of Hofstra's sails when Carmazzi was sacked and knocked out of the game on the next play and Rocky Butler was picked off at the goal line two plays later. It would be the closest either team would get to the end zone the rest of the way. Bill Morales (73 yards) and Steve Jackson (47 yards) each caught seven passes for Hofstra. Rickey Garrett (90 yards) and Aveion Cason (88 yards) each caught seven passes for Illinois State. Cason led ISU's ground attack with 59 yards on 10 carries as the Redbirds tallied 540 yards on offense to Hofstra's 425.

NOVEMBER 25, 2000 - FIRST ROUND - AT FURMAN:

Rocky Butler completed 19 of 34 passes for 262 yards and a touchdown and also rushed for two scores and Trevor Dimmie posted his eighth 100-yard rushing game of the year to lead the 11th-seeded Pride of Hofstra to a 31-24 victory over the sixth-seeded Paladins of Furman in a FCS playoff opening round game at Paladin Stadium. After the two teams played to a 10-10 tie after the first 30 minutes, Hofstra took a 17-10 lead at the 9:32 mark of the third quarter on a 2-yard scoring run by Rocky Butler. But Furman's Louis Ivory, I-AA's leading rusher in 2000, tied the score three minutes later with a 3-yard scoring run before lady luck smiled on Hofstra. With just 25 seconds to play in the quarter, Butler threw a 39-yard scoring pass to Kahmal Roy that was deflected by a Furman defensive back on the goal line. Roy followed the deflection and caught the ball in the end zone for the touchdown and a 24-17 lead. Hofstra stopped Furman on its next possession and forced the Paladins to punt at the Furman 30-yard line. The punt-snap sailed over the head of Furman punter Lee Willis toward the goal line. Willis chased the ball back to the one-yard line and kicked the ball out of the end zone causing an illegal touch penalty, giving Hofstra the ball at the 1-yard line. Butler rushed the ball in for Hofstra giving the Pride a 31-17 lead. Furman came right back and went on an 11-play, 65-yard drive with Justin Hill scoring on a 5-yard run to close the gap to 31-24. Hofstra had two more possessions to put a little cushion on the scoreboard but could not move the ball and the Hofstra defense stopped the Furman offense inside of three minutes remaining twice. On Furman's final possession, taking over with 1:31 to play at their own 24-yard line, the Paladins moved the ball to the Hofstra 20-yard line. But the Hofstra defense stood tall once again, and after a first down pass for a gain of five, stopped Hill for a loss of three yards before two incompletions gave the ball back to the Pride with 16 seconds to play. Hofstra outgained Furman on the muddy field 462-400 as Dimmie rushed for 130 yards on 21 carries. Charlie Adams led the aerial attack with 8 catches for 95 yards. Ivory led Furman with 172 yards and two touchdowns on 33 carries.

DECEMBER 2, 2000 - QUARTERFINALS - AT GEORGIA SOUTHERN:

All-American Adrian Peterson led a potent Eagle ground attack with 146 yards and two touchdowns on 32 carries and quarterback J.R. Revere rushed for 94 yards and three touchdowns on 18 carries to lead top-ranked Georgia Southern to a 48-20 victory over the Pride at Paulson Stadium. The Eagles rushed for 430 yards and added another 92 through the air to outgain Hofstra, 522-394. The first nine minutes of the contest were fairly quiet as Hofstra had the first chance to score but missed a 51-yard field goal. After the Eagles and Pride went three-and-out, Revere got Georgia Southern going. On three consecutive eight-play drives Revere scored on 5, 17 and 3-yard runs to give the Eagles a 21-0 lead early in the second quarter. Hofstra kicker Chad Johnson put Hofstra on the board with a 20-yard field goal before Scott Shelton booted a 25-yard field to close out the first half scoring with the Eagles ahead 24-3. Peterson had 82 yards, Revere had 54 yards and Mark Myers added 45 ground yards for Georgia Southern in the first half alone. Any hopes for a second half Hofstra rally quickly dissipated on the first possession as Myers rushed for 45 yards and Peterson added 27 in the Eagles eight-play, 72-yard drive with Peterson scoring from one yard out. After Hofstra could not move the ball on its next possession, Georgia Southern went on a seven-play, 59-yard drive with Peterson scoring from three yards out to give the Eagles a 38-3 lead. Rocky Butler would score Hofstra's first of two touchdowns on the day on the next possession on a 13-yard run. Shelton and Johnson would exchange field goals once again before Mike Youngblood picked off a Butler pass and went 52-yards for a Georgia Southern touchdown. Hofstra back-up running back Tyree Johnson, who gained 93 yards on 13 carries in the contest, posted the Pride's last touchdown on a two-yard run early in the fourth quarter. Freshman sensation Trevor Dimmie rushed for 112 yards on 19 carries for the Pride, while Butler completed 17 of 33 passes for 169 yards.

DECEMBER 1, 2001 - FIRST ROUND - AT LEHIGH:

Lehigh kicker Brian Kelley booted a 24-yard field goal in the first overtime to cap a late Mountain Hawk rally as Lehigh, the Patriot League champions, ended Hofstra's season with a 27-24 victory in the first round of the FCS playoffs at Goodman Stadium. Hofstra jumped out to a 14-0 lead late in the first quarter as Trevor Dimmie scored on a 2-yard run and Kahmal Roy hauled in a 38-yard scoring pass from Rocky Butler. Lehigh got on the board midway through the second quarter as Sam Roberts b locked Joe Nolan's punt and then recovered the ball in the end zone. Hofstra boosted the lead to 17-7 just 50 seconds before halftime on a 33-yard field goal by Chris Onorato. But Lehigh closed the gap to 17-10 as Kelley hit a 32-yard field goal as time in the first half expired. Hofstra's advancement in the playoffs looked promising midway through the third quarter after Doug Shanahan picked off a Brant Hall pass and returned it 27 yards for a touchdown and a 24-10 lead. But Lehigh Coach Pete Lembo made a change after the next possession that would help change the Mountain Hawks' fortunes. Replacing Hall with Luke Ciannello, Lehigh immediately scored on an 86-yard scoring pass to Michael Sutton to cut the deficit to 24-17. The score remained that way until late in the fourth quarter when it appeared as if Hofstra would add an insurance score, moving the ball to the Lehigh 5-yard line on a 45-yard drive in 4:48 before Trevor Dimmie fumbled a pitch and gave the Mountain Hawks the ball on their own 8-yard line with 3:07 to play. Ciannello engineered a 14-play, 92-yard drive with Jermaine Pugh catching a 4-yard scoring pass from Ciannello with 19 seconds to play in regulation. Kelley's PAT tied the game at 24 as the contest headed into the sudden victory overtime tiebreaker. Hofstra was able to move the ball from Lehigh 25-yard line to the 8 before Abdul Byron recorded a spectacular interception near the goal line. Lehigh ran four rushing plays, one by Ciannello and three by Pugh to get the ball to the Hofstra 7-yard line before Kelley booted the game-winner on second down. Ciannello completed 13 of 19 passes for 249 yards and two touchdowns, while Michael Sutton hauled in six passes for 141 yards and a touchdown as Lehigh outgained Hofstra, 468-433. Dimmie rushed 37 times for 144 yards and a touchdown, Butler completed 19 of 35 passes for 257 yards, and Roy caught eight passes for 133 yards and a score to lead Hofstra.

HOFSTRA IN THE PROS

DRAFT SELECTIONS

In 2006, for the first time in Hofstra history, two Pride players were selected in the National Football League Draft. Offensive tackle Willie Colon was selected in the fourth round by the World Champion Pittsburgh Steelers, while wide receiver Marques Colston was picked by the New Orleans Saints in the seventh round. Hofstra quarterback Giovanni Carmazzi, who was chosen in the third round of the 2000 National Football League Draft at Madison Square Garden, is the highest NFL-drafted Hofstra player in school history. He eclipsed Lance Schulters, who was picked by San Francisco in the fourth round of the 1998 NFL Draft. In the Canadian Football League, Patrick Dorvelus is Hofstra's highest-ever draft pick. He was selected fifth in the first round of the 2002 CFL Draft.

MARQUES COLSTON TAKES NFL BY STORM

Two seasons into his NFL career with the New Orleans Saints, Marques Colston has emerged as one of the elite receivers in the NFL and owns the league record for receptions in his first two campaigns with a total of 168. Incidentally, Hofstra alum and retired New York Jet Wayne Chrebet was a previous holder of that record with 150 catches in his first two NFL seasons.

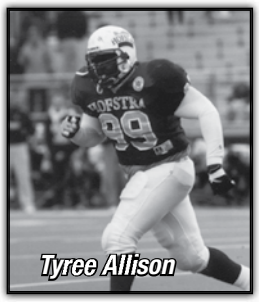

After catching 70 balls for 1,038 yards and eight scores in 2006, Colston finished third in the voting for NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year. He was even better in 2007 – posting a Saints-record 98 receptions, 1,202 yards and a team record-tying 11 touchdowns.

The following Hofstra University football players signed contracts to play professional football in the National Football League or the Canadian Football League.

GETTING TO HOFSTRA

From Southern New Jersey, Southeastern Pennsylvania, Maryland, Washington, D.C. and Virginia:

Take the New Jersey Turnpike to Exit 13. Cross the Goethals Bridge and continue on Route 278 to the Verrazano-Narrows Bridge. Stay in the left lane of the Bridge and take the Belt Parkway-East. The Belt Parkway becomes the Southern State Parkway at the Nassau County line. Take the Southern State Parkway to the Meadowbrook Parkway North (Exit 22). Exit the Meadowbrook Parkway at Exit M4 (Hempstead Turnpike Route 24). Head west to Hofstra (approximately 1 mile).

From Northwestern New Jersey, Northern Pennsylvania and the Middle States:

Take Interstate 78, Interstate 80, U.S. Route 22, New Jersey Route 4 or New Jersey Route 17 to the George Washington Bridge. Proceed over the bridge to the Cross Bronx Expressway. Take the Cross Bronx Expressway to the Throgs Neck Bridge. Follow directions from the Throgs Neck Bridge from this point.

From Upstate New York:

Take New York Thruway over the Tappan Zee Bridge to Cross Westchester Expressway (Interstate 287). Stay on the Expressway to the New England Thruway (Interstate 95). Proceed south on the Thruway to the Throgs Neck Bridge. Follow directions from the Throgs Neck Bridge from this point.

From the Throgs Neck Bridge:

Follow signs for Eastern Long Island. Take the Cross Island Parkway to the Grand Central Parkway-East. The Grand Central becomes the Northern State Parkway at the Nassau County line. Take the Northern State Parkway-East to the Meadowbrook Parkway-South (exit 31A). Take the Meadowbrook Parkway-South to Exit M4 West (Hempstead Turnpike Route 24). Follow Hempstead Turnpike West to Hofstra (approximately 1 mile).

For Team Travel Via Bus:

Commercial buses are not allowed on New York City (Belt, Grand Central or Cross Island) or Long Island (Southern State or Northern State) Parkways. Team buses should take the Brooklyn-Queens Expressway from the south, and the Clearview Expressway from the north, to get to the Long Island Expressway for the trip to Hofstra. Once on the Long Island Expressway (I-495), buses should proceed to Glen Cove Road-South (exit 39). Head south on Glen Cove Road for approximately eight miles to Hempstead Turnpike/ Fulton Avenue and turn left (east). Hofstra University is approximately two miles east on Hempstead Turnpike.

Public Transportation from Airport:

If a visitor arrives at either La Guardia or Kennedy Airport, the most direct means of reaching the University is by one of three limousine companies that service both airports and the Hofstra University area. Larry's Taxi Service (516) 483-3333; Transport Limousine Service (800) 654-1164 (out of state) (800) 832-5466 (in New York state); Winston Limousine Service (800) 4-AIRPORT.

Railroads:

AMTRAK services Pennsylvania Station in Manhattan, approximately 30 miles from the Hofstra campus. To get to Hofstra from Penn Station, take the Long Island Rail Road to the Hempstead station. The Hofstra University Courtesy Bus and taxi services are available there. Hofstra is approximately 1.5 miles from the station.
