HOFSTRA VS. UMASS LAST YEAR

CAA SEMIFINAL – MAY 4, 2017: Towson, MD – Senior Dan Muller scored his fourth goal of the game on a 35-yard shot as time expired to give the third-seed Minutemen of Massachusetts a 13-12 victory over the second-seed Hofstra Pride in a Colonial Athletic Association Championship semifinal contest at Johnny Unitas Stadium.

The UMass victory negated a Hofstra rally from six goals down in the third quarter and a five goal, one assist performance by Hofstra senior Josh Byrne and four goals by freshman Ryan Tierney.

In addition to Byrne's six-point night that gives him 41 goals and 25 assists on the season, Tierney's four goals give him 31 on the year. Junior Brendan Kavanagh tallied two goals and two assists.

UMass was led by Muller with four goals and one assist, freshman Jesse Leung and sophomore Ben Spencer with two goals each and classmate Dom St. Laurent and senior Grant Consoletti with one goal and two assists each. UMass goalie D.J. Smith made just five saves for the victory.

Hofstra struck first just 1:46 into the contest as Tierney took a pass from Brendan Kavanagh behind the goal and fired a bullet past Towson goalie D.J. Smith for his 28th goal of the year. But UMass answered with two goals by Dan Muller before the end of the period to take a 2-1 lead. Muller tallied the Minutemen's first goal just 1:11 after the Pride goal to tie the contest and then notched his second of the game and 19th of the year with 5:37 to play in the period for the 2-1 lead after one quarter.

The Pride evened the game at 2-2 with 10:37 to play in the half when Byrne fired a shot from 15 yards out for his 37th goal of the season.

But UMass replied with four unanswered goals to open up a 5-2 lead. Ben Spencer started the run with his 14th goal of the year off a pass from Dom St. Laurent just 45 seconds after the Hofstra goal. Just 24 seconds after that, Jesse Leung tallied his 10th goal of the season on the crease off a pass from Grant Consoletti for a 4-2 lead. Just 45 seconds after Leung's goal, Jeff Trainor scored his 10th of the season for a 5-2 advantage with 8:43 to play in the half. UMass bumped the lead to 6-2 with 2:57 to play in the half as Leung scored his second of the game from Tyler Bogart.

Hofstra stopped the run with 1:47 to play when Byrne scored his second of the game and 38th of the year, off a pass from Dylan Alderman, to close the gap to 6-3. But Muller scored his third of the game, on the man-up, for UMass with 1:14 to play in the half and Consoletti added his ninth of the year from Trainor with 0:10 remaining for an 8-3 halftime lead. The Minutemen outshot the Pride, 24-10 in the half including 14-5 in the six-goal, second quarter. UMass also won 10 of 13 face-offs in the half. Hofstra was also 0-4 on the man-up.

UMass extended their run in the third quarter as Dom St. Laurent scored his sixth of the year at the 9:22 mark to boost the lead to 9-3. But Ryan Tierney ended the run for Hofstra with his second of the game and 29th of the year with 7:31 to play in the third. The Minutemen got the goal back at the 6:11 mark when Tyler Bogart notched his 25th goal of the season off a pass from St. Laurent to bump the lead to 10-4.

The Pride responded with three unanswered goals beginning with a man-up goal by Brendan Kavanagh, off a pass from Dale Stasco with 4:03 to play in the third. Kavanagh scored his second of the game and 23rd of the season off a short pass from Byrne just 25 seconds later. Then, defender Michael Diener scooped up the ensuing face-off, charged the UMass zone and fired a bullet past Smith for his second goal of the season to close the deficit to 10-7 with 3:28 to play in the period.

UMass ended the Pride run just 23 seconds into the fourth quarter while on the man-up as Ben Spencer got the hat-trick in the game and his ninth of the season off a pass from Muller for an 11-7 advantage.

But Hofstra replied with three goals in a 1:59 span as part of a four goal run to tie the game at 11-11. Byrne scored his third of the game at the 12:44 mark, and Tierney scored his third and fourth of the game at the 11:52 and 10:45 marks to close within one at 11-10. Byrne then tied the game with his fourth of the contest at the 5:24 mark.

UMass took a 12-11 lead just 18 seconds later as Dylan

Grader scored off a pass from Mike McDonough while on the man-down. But Byrne came up big for Hofstra with his fifth of the contest with 4:14 to play in the fourth to tie the game at 12-all.

On the winning UMass goal, there was a stoppage of play after an over and back violation on the Pride with one second remaining and Hofstra on the man-up. Muller then scooped up the ball and fired a 35-yard bullet past Hofstra junior goalie Jack Concannon (11 saves) for the winner.

UMASS AT HOFSTRA – CAA REGULAR SEASON - APRIL 22, 2017

Hempstead, NY – Senior Josh Byrne recorded five goals and three assists and junior Dylan Alderman added a career-high four goals to lead the seventh-ranked Hofstra Pride to a 15-8 Colonial Athletic Association victory over the Massachusetts Minutemen at James M. Shuart Stadium.

He also topped the 100-point mark in his short two-season career on a second quarter assist on junior Brendan Kavanagh's man-up goal. Byrne now has career-highs of 35 goals and 24 assists in 2017 and 65 goals and 39 assists for 104 points in his Hof career

Alderman topped his previous best of three goals set at UNC in March with his four-goal outburst. Freshman Ryan Tierney added a goal and two assists to give him 26 goals and 15 assists this year. Hofstra jumped out to a 9-1 lead in the second quarter on the way to a 10-3 halftime lead. The Pride opened up with goals by Kavanagh and Tierney before Trainor cut the Hofstra lead in half at the 6:16 mark of the first quarter at 2-1. But the Pride answered with seven consecutive goals including four by Byrne and two by Kavanagh to build the 9-1 advantage with 4:03 to play in the second quarter. Lisauskas and Leung sandwiched a Jimmy Yanes goal for Hofstra to close out the first half scoring.

UMass would open the third quarter with back-to-back goals by Spencer to close to 10-5 at the 9:33 mark of the period but junior Alex Moeser and Alderman responded in kind for the Pride to boost the lead to 12-5 with 2:18 to play in the third. The two teams would exchange goals, including Hofstra's final two by Alderman, over the next 17 minutes as the Pride clinched their second consecutive CAA playoff spot.

PRIDE COACH SETH TIERNEY

GETS WIN 100: Seth Tierney became the fifth head coach in the 60-year history of the Hofstra Men's Lacrosse program in August, 2006. Now in his 12th season, Tierney has led the Pride to 105 victories, the 2008 Colonial Athletic Association championship, the 2009, 2011 2013 and 2014 CAA regular season titles, and berths in the 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2011 NCAA Championship

Tournaments. He was named the 2014 CAA Coach of the Year for the second time in his career after receiving the honor in 2008.

Tierney served as an assistant coach at Hofstra from 1995 through 2000 before leaving for a similar position at his alma mater Johns Hopkins University. During his six-year tenure as an assistant with the Pride, Hofstra recorded six consecutive winning seasons with a combined overall record of 61-28 and a conference mark of 29-2, captured five league titles, received five top 15 final national rankings, and played in four NCAA Championship tournaments.

Tierney also coached seven All-Americans and nearly two-dozen all-conference players during his first tenure at Hofstra. Among them was midfielder Doug Shanahan, who would receive the inaugural Tewaaraton Trophy as College Lacrosse Player of the Year, the Lt. Ray Enners Award as the Division I Player of the Year, and the Lt. Donald McLaughlin Award as the Division I Midfielder of the Year in 2001.

Tierney returned to Hofstra after a six-year tenure at John Hopkins, with the final two seasons as associate head coach. As the Blue Jays offensive coordinator, he was the architect of one of the most potent and explosive offenses in the nation in recent years. Tierney directed the Blue Jays attack that finished second in the nation in scoring margin, sixth in scoring offense and 16th in man-up offense during Hopkins' NCAA title run in 2005. The Blue Jays led the nation in scoring offense and man-up offense in 2003 and finished fifth in both categories in 2004.

CAA TITLES UNDER TIERNEY: Hofstra has captured three CAA regular season titles under Coach Seth Tierney. Hofstra won the regular season title in 2009, 2011 and 2014. The Pride captured the CAA Championship Tournament title in 2008.

TIERNEY SECOND FASTEST TO 50 WINS: Pride coach Seth Tierney recorded his 50th victory as head coach of the Pride in his 76th contest. He is the second-fastest to reach 50 wins in Pride men's lacrosse history, behind the legendary Howdy Myers who did it in 73 games.

NCAA TOURNAMENT STREAK: Under Coach Seth Tierney, the Pride made four consecutive NCAA Championship appearances, from 2008 through 2011, for the first time in school history. That feat broke the previous mark of three straight from 1973-75 and 1999-2001.

The Hofstra Men's Lacrosse team will have a "B" on the back of their helmets this week in remembrance of Bianca Red Arrow, the 19-year old daughter of Hofstra alumnus Mikko Red Arrow and his wife, Frances. Bianca, a sophomore at Loyola Marymount University, passed away on November 6, 2017.

CROWD NOTES: The April 10, 2010 crowd of 25,710 at the New Meadowlands Stadium was the largest to see a Hofstra lacrosse game in school history...The April 18, 2009 crowd of 6,661 for the North Carolina game at Shuart Stadium was the most fans to see a Hofstra lacrosse contest at Shuart Stadium since 10,510 fans watched the Pride and Syracuse in the 2001 NCAA Championship Quarterfinals. The UNC crowd is also the largest regular season crowd to see a Pride game at Shuart Stadium since 7,476 saw Hofstra defeat Johns Hopkins, 9-8 in overtime, on May 8, 1999.

THE 500 CLUB - ALL-TIME RECORD: The Pride became the 14th Division I member to record 500 victories in its history on March 30, 2011 against Army. Hofstra is in its 70th season of men's lacrosse in 2018.

THE FIRST AND THE LAST: With their victories over Delaware at Giants Stadium in 2009 and at the New Meadowlands Stadium on April 10, 2010, Hofstra and Delaware played the first college lacrosse game at the New Meadowlands Stadium (Met Life Stadium) and the last lacrosse game at Giants Stadium.

FOWLER FAMILY-HOFSTRA HEAD MEN'S LACROSSE OFFICE

On April 9, 2016, a ceremony was held to dedicate the Fowler Family-Hofstra Head Men's Lacrosse Office in Margiotta Hall. Arguably the first family of Hofstra Men's Lacrosse, three Fowlers, Bill, '74, Michael, '79, and Joe '83, all played lacrosse for the Pride and graduated from the University. Their parents, William, Sr. and Patricia, are longtime supporters of the program.

HOFSTRA DEDICATED JAMES C. METZGER HALL IN 2015

Hofstra University and the Department of Athletics officially dedicated James C. Metzger Hall at James M. Shuart Stadium, in honor of Hofstra alumnus and former lacrosse standout James C. Metzger '83, during pregame ceremonies of the Marist contest in 2015. Metzger Hall is located on the west side of Shuart Stadium and includes The Fried Center (second floor), suites (third floor) and the press box (fourth floor).

ON THE WALL OF MARGIOTTA HALL: On April 18, 2009, Hofstra Athletics retired the jersey numbers of two all-time lacrosse greats, Doug Shanahan and Jerry Simandl. They are the first two Pride lacrosse players to have their numbers retired and jersey numbers are displayed on the wall of Margiotta Hall in the south end zone of James M. Shuart Stadium.

Simandl (#10) lettered in lacrosse at Hofstra from 1952 through 1955 under legendary coach Howard "Howdy" Myers. He earned All-America second team honors as a senior in 1955 after leading the nation in scoring with 102 points and assists with 58 while placing second with 44 goals. He was also an all-conference Laurie Cox Division selection as a senior and was named to the USILA North-South Senior All-Star Game.

Singled out as one of the top ten players that he ever coached by Myers, Simandl still holds the Hofstra records for most points and most assists in a single season, most assists and points in a career, and is third in goals scored in a career in Pride history. He finished his Hofstra career with 119 goals and 119 assists for 238 points. All four of his Hofstra teams were nationally-ranked, including the 1955 team that was ranked third.

Shanahan (#26), who played at Hofstra from 1998 through 2001, was a two-sport All-American athlete in both football and lacrosse. While a standout as a defensive back in football and leading the Pride in interceptions as a junior and senior, he excelled in lacrosse over his four year career at Hofstra. As Hofstra's most honored lacrosse player, Shanahan was a three-time All-America selection earning honorable mention in 1999, second team honors in 2000, and first team accolades as a senior. In addition to his first team honors in 2001, he also earned: the Lt. Donald McLaughlin Award from the USILA as Division I Midfielder of the Year; the Lt. Ray Enners Award as USILA Division I Player of the Year; and the inaugural Tewaaron Trophy as college lacrosse's Player of the Year.

Shanahan also earned All-America East honors four times, picking up first team honors as a freshman, as well as Rookie of the Year honors in 1998, as a sophomore in 1999 and as a senior in 2001 when he was also voted Most Valuable Player honors. He was named to the 2001 USILA North-South Senior All-Star Game where he captured the Most Valuable Player award. During his Hofstra career, he tallied 95 goals and 44 assists for 139 points, a school-record 450 ground balls while winning 528 of 868 face-offs for a .608 winning percentage. In 2002 Shanahan was named to the United States National Team for the ILF World Championships and earned the ILF's Most Valuable Player Award. He was also voted to the All-World Team.

ROYLE-SOMBROTTO LOCKER ROOM: The Hofstra Men's Lacrosse Locker Room was officially dedicated before the Pride's game against Delaware on April 12, 2008. The Harry Royle-Vincent Sombrotto Pride Locker Room, named in honor of former Hofstra Lacrosse Coach Harry Royle and former Pride All-American and National Lacrosse Hall of Fame member Vincent Sombrotto, was made possible by a generous gift from James Metzger, a former teammate of Sombrotto and a standout player under Coach Royle.
