SCOUTING THE PRIDE

Hempstead, NY – The Hofstra Field Hockey team will head to New Jersey for the Labor Day weekend as the Pride hit the road for games at Rutgers University at the Bauer Track and Field Complex on Friday, August 31 at 1 p.m. and at Monmouth University at So Sweet A Cat Field on Sunday, September 2 at 1 p.m.

Rutgers will provide live video via the Big Ten Network \(BTN\). Plus as well as live stats through Sidearm. Monmouth will only provide live stats which can be accessed through HofstraStats.com.

Hofstra is coming off a 1-1 weekend at the UMass Lowell River Hawk Classic last weekend. The Pride defeated VCU in the semifinals, 3-2 in a shootout after 70 minutes of regulation and two 10-minute overtime periods. Sophomore Hannah Zemaitis and freshman Cami Larsson scored the regulation goals for Hofstra-both in the second half-and Larsson tallied the deciding goal in the seventh round of the shootout. Freshman goalie Betty Bosma recorded 16 saves in the game and allowed only two goals in the seven rounds of the shootout.

In the tournament championship contest last Sunday, the host River Hawks topped the Pride, 6-0 for the title. Bosma stopped eight shots in the Hofstra goal.

Rutgers enters the Hofstra game with a 1-0 record following their 3-0 win over Richmond last Sunday. The Pride and the Scarlet Knights will be meeting for the 17th time on Friday with Rutgers holding a 14-2 series advantage. This is the first meeting between the two programs since 2003 when the Pride recorded a 2-0 win.

Monmouth is 1-1 on the season with a 5-1 loss at 18th-ranked Saint Joseph's last Friday and a 3-2 overtime victory over Ohio last Sunday. Hofstra and Monmouth will be meeting for the eighth time on Sunday with the Pride holding a 6-1 series lead. The two teams met last year on Long Island with the 25th-ranked Hawks posting a 3-0 victory.

2018 PRESEASON ALL-CAA FIELD HOCKEY TEAM

Hofstra senior Madison Sauve was named to the 2018 Preseason All-Colonial Athletic Association Field Hockey Team.

Sauve, a forward from Boiling Springs, Pennsylvania, is a two-year starter after earning starting roles in 2016 and 2017. Last year, she played in all 19 games and led the team with 10 goals and 24 points. Sauve scored twice in games against Quinnipiac, Siena and Towson and tallied the game-winning goal against Sacred Heart and Rider. She was a National Field Hockey Coaches Association National Academic Squad member and a CAA Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll recipient.

2018 PRESEASON CAA COACHES POLL

The CAA also announced the 2018 CAA Field Hockey Preseason Poll, as voted upon by the league's seven head coaches. The five-time defending champion, Blue Hens of Delaware were the coaches' top pick to repeat in 2018. Delaware received 33 points including four first-place votes. The Dukes of James Madison were on the heels of UD with 31 points and two first-place votes. The Tribe of William and Mary were on the heels of JMU in third-place with 29 points and one first-place vote.

The Huskies of Northeastern were selected to place fourth with 18 points with the Dragons of Drexel placing fifth with 17 points, the Pride of Hofstra sixth with 12 points and the Tigers of Towson with seven points rounding out the poll in seventh.

2.	James Madison (2)	31
3.	William & Mary (1)	29
4.	Northeastern	18
5.	Drexel	17
6.	Hofstra	12
7.	Towson	7

LET'S GO DUTCH

Hofstra has three Dutchwomen on the field hockey roster this season. Graduate-student Valerie Vogels and freshmen Djuna Slort and Betty Bosma are representing the home country of the founders of Hofstra University.

ON THE CORNER OF MADISON AND HOFSTRA

The Pride have four student-athletes with the first name of Madison on the 2018 roster. Seniors Madison Sauve and Madison Reed, and juniors Madison Georgiana and Madison Warfel make for a confusing line-up for Hofstra.

2018 HOFSTRA CAPTAINS

Hofstra Head Coach Kathy De Angelis announced the Pride's three captains for the 2018 season earlier this week. Senior Madison Reed returns for her second year as tri-captain after serving in the same position in 2017. Classmate Madison Sauve and junior Madison Warfel round out the trio of captains.
