Coach Smith: Shannon Smith, a three-time first-team lacrosse All-American who is among the most decorated players in the sport, is in her ninth season as the head women's lacrosse coach at Hofstra University. Smith became the ninth head coach in the history of the Hofstra Women's Lacrosse program in July 2012. Smith has coached the Pride to 71 wins in her eight-plus seasons and led her squad to the Colonial Athletic Association Championship Tournament four times. During the shortened 2020 season, Smith led Hofstra to a 4-3 record facing one of the nation's most difficult schedules. In 2019, Smith guided the team to a 12-win campaign and a spot in the Colonial Athletic Association Championship Game. The 12 wins were the most since 2010 and the appearance in the championship game was the first for Hofstra since 2013. It was a banner year individually for the Pride as six Smith-coached players earned postseason awards including Alyssa Parrella who was the CAA Player of the Year and became the ninth Intercollegiate Women's Lacrosse Coaches Association All-American in program history. The 2018 campaign saw Hofstra win eight games for the second consecutive season against a schedule that featured seven teams that advanced to the NCAA Tournament. The future was on display for Hofstra in 2018 as well as all four of the Pride's postseason honorees from the CAA were either sophomores or freshmen. In 2017, Smith led Hofstra to eight victories as the program took a major step forward and upped its overall win total by five victories and increased its CAA wins as well. Individually she oversaw the development of several standouts, as Alyssa Parrella, Drew Shapiro, Alexa Mattera and Darcie Smith all earned awards from the CAA. Parrella arguably had one of the best freshman seasons in the nation as she picked up CAA and ECAC Rookie of the Year accolades. A key player on three teams that captured NCAA titles at Northwestern (2009, 2011, 2012), Smith was the Most Outstanding Player of the 2011 and 2012 Championships. During her career, she scored 58 points in the NCAA Tournament to rank second all-time in that category. Smith is not defined solely by her postseason honors and awards, though, as she totaled 254 goals, 108 assists and 362 points during her career. She closed her playing career ranked first in program history in goals, second in points and third in assists. Her 86 goals in 2011 are a single-season record for the Northwestern program. In addition, she ranked eighth all-time in NCAA Division I women's lacrosse in points and ninth in goals at the conclusion of her career. She played in 91 games during her career at Northwestern, adding 118 draw controls, 85 ground balls and 28 caused turnovers. Smith had 19 game-winning goals during her career and her 2011 season was her most prolific with 86 goals, 42 assists, 128 points, 39 draw controls, 25 ground balls and eight caused turnovers. Smith has done charitable work in the Long Island community as well. She is actively involved with the Friends of Jaclyn Foundation and Our Lady of Grace Garden. She also helped lead a group of counselors at the South Bay Elementary School (West Babylon, New York) Lacrosse Camp to raise $6,500 towards the reconstruction of the school after a fire. At Hofstra, she has continued the women's lacrosse programs involvement with the HEADstrong Foundation as well as the Stephen Siller Tunnel To Towers Foundation. A native of West Babylon, New York, Smith attended West Babylon High School where she was a six-time letter-winner and was a member of the varsity squad starting in seventh grade. Smith was one of the top scholastic lacrosse players to ever come out of Long Island as she had 729 points on 505 goals and 224 assists during her career. Both the points and goals totals are New York state records as is her 129 goals in 2006. Smith received her bachelor of science in liberal arts, with a major in economics and minor in business institutions program, from Northwestern.
