► FIRST PITCH

The 2024 season of Hofstra softball begins in the Sunshine State at the Fonseca Memorial Tournament at USF. Head Coach and Hofstra alumna Adrienne Clark enters her third year in the dugout after leading the Pride to its 13th CAA title and 18th NCAA Tournament appearance with a dramatic, walk-off victory in the CAA Championship game. The Pride opens its time in Tampa against UIC and Boston College, before taking on hosts USF, and finishing off against Purdue, where Coach Clark was formerly an assistant coach before becoming Hofstra's

► ABOUT THE HOFSTRA PRIDE

Hofstra earned its 13th CAA title and 18th trip to the NCAA Tournament with a thrilling, walk-off victory over Towson in the final game of the 2023 CAA Softball Championship on an Angelina Ioppolo two-run single. The Pride returns a pair of NFCA All-Northeast Region selections in Chelsea Manto (second team) and Becca Vaillancourt (third team), while CAA All-Rookie Team honoree Alanna Morse returns for her sophomore season. Head coach Adrienne Clark and the program welcomed seven newcomers to the roster for the 2024 season as Hofstra looks to lift a CAA championship trophy for the 14th time in program history.

► ALL-REGION RECOGNITION

Hofstra had three NFCA All-Northeast Region players last season including Chelsea Manto (second team, outfield), Meghan Giordano (third team, infield), and Becca Vaillancourt (third team, catcher).

► SHE'S BACK!

Hofstra softball welcomes the addition of Meghan Giordano to its coaching staff for the 2024 season. A five-year member of the Pride from 2018-23, Giordano concluded her playing career as one of the best power hitters in Hofstra softball history, ranking fourth in home runs (37) and third in RBI (162) while drawing 111 career walks and compiling a career batting average of .323. Giordano was named NFCA All-Northeast Region Third Team in three times in her Hofstra career (2019, 2022, 2023), she earned All-CAA First Team honors twice (2019, 2022), and she was an All-CAA Second Team honoree in 2023.

► CHASING THE RECORD BOOKS

For her five-year career at Hofstra, Chelsea Manto has swiped 82 bases in . She currently stands second in program history, and is two stolen bases shy of passing Kristin Hallam (83, 2017-21) for the school record.

► WALK THIS WAY

Hofstra set a new CAA Championship record for walks in a game with 13 in its 9-5 win over UNCW. The Pride's 13 walks topped the previous mark of 10 set by Hofstra in the 2002 CAA Championship against Delaware. In addition, Aliya Catanzarita set a new CAA Championship record with four walks in the game.

► PLAYING LATE

Hofstra's 9-5 win over UNCW in the CAA Championship lasted three hours and 12 minutes, making it the fourth-longest game in CAA Championship history.

► KEEPING IT IN THE FAMILY

Adrienne Clark was an exceptional two-way player during her playing career at Hofstra, Clark's name is littered throughout the Hofstra record books as she is seventh in pitching appearances (97), eighth in earned run average (1.77), eighth in innings pitched (407.2), ninth in wins (39), and ninth in strikeouts (260). Clark also totaled 71 hits during her stellar career, including a 2004 campaign in which she ranked second on the team with a .305 batting average.

► COACH SANDBERG'S INCREDIBLE CAREER

Kristyn Sandberg was named an assistant coach for the Pride in September and brings a wealth of softball experience across all levels to Hofstra, having coached at the high school and college levels while also playing professionally in the National Pro Fastpitch (NPF) league. Selected fifth overall in the 2012 NPF Draft by the USSSA Pride, Sandberg played for the Pride from 2012-14, Pennsylvania Rebellion from 2015-16, Texas Charge in 2017, and Chicago Bandits from 2018-19. Sandberg is a two-time NPF Champion and appeared in 300 professional games, recorded over 45 career home runs and 150 RPI. She collected several awards from the league including NPF/Miken Rookie of the Year accolades in 2012, All-NPF honors in 2015 and 2018, was a Rawlings Gold Glove Finalist in 2017, and most recently, earned an NPF All-Decade Team distinction. Sandberg was also a four-year standout at the University of Georgia and was named to the 2012 NFCA All-America second team.

► ACADEMIC SUCCESS

Four members of the Hofstra softball program were honored by the College Sports Communicators (CSC) as Academic All-District honorees. Kasey Collins, Meghan Giordano, Angelina Ioppolo, and Nikki Mullin were all recipients of the national academic honor. In addition, the Pride finished with the 11th-highest team GPA in the country at 3.69 for the Spring 2023 semester, and Aliya Catanzarita, Kasey Collins, Meghan Giordano, Gianna Iaquinto, Angelina Ioppolo, Amanda Maffucci, Olivia Malinowski, Abby Meehan, Alanna Morse, Brianna Morse, Nikki Mullin, Annabella Pisapia, Becca Vaillancourt, Haley Venturini, and Kayla Wilson all received All-America Scholar Athlete honors from the National Fastpitch Coaches Association.

ADRIENNE CLARK

Adrienne Clark '05 was named the head coach of the Hofstra Softball program in July 2021.

Hofstra returned to the top of the CAA in Clark's second season in charge in 2023, guiding the Pride to the CAA Softball Championship title and an NCAA Tournament appearance for the first time since 2018. Four Hofstra student-athletes received All-CAA honors during Clark's sophomore season in the dugout, including Kasey Collins (first team), Chelsea Manto (first team), Meghan Giordano (second team), and Alanna Morse (all-rookie). Additionally, Manto was named NFCA All-Northeast Region Second Team, while Giordano and Becca Vaillancourt collected All-Northeast Region Third Team honors, and Manto was named All-ECAC. In the classroom, the Pride finished the 2022-23 academic year with the 11th-highest team grade-point average in Division I, while Collins, Giordano, Angelina Ioppolo, and Nikki Mullin all received CSC Academic All-District® recognition.

Clark impressed during her first head coaching stint in 2022, as she posted a 13-6 Colonial Athletic Association record and clinched the No. 2 seed in the CAA Championship, marking the best CAA mark for the Pride since 2018. Four Hofstra student-athletes earned All-CAA recognition during Clark's rookie season, including Chelsea Manto (first team), Meghan Giordano (first team), Amanda Maffucci (second team), and Julia Apffel (all-rookie team). In addition, Manto (first team), Giordano (third team) and Maffucci (third team) all went on to collect NFCA All-Northeast Region honors. In addition, Giordano and Devyn Losco collected CoSIDA Academic All-District® honors.

Clark has extensive coaching experience having coached at five different NCAA Division I institutions during her 19-year coaching career.

Most recently, Clark was an assistant coach at Purdue University for the last two seasons. Clark helped the Boilermakers to 33 wins while on staff in West Lafayette, Indiana. She oversaw and directed the team's defensive strategies and helped facilitate all operations of the program.

Prior to that, Clark spent five seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Connecticut. With Clark on staff with the Huskies, UConn increased its win total from the previous year in four of her five seasons and had nine different honorees on postseason American Athletic Conference teams. Clark served as Connecticut's head pitching and catching coach during her tenure in Storrs.

Clark previously spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Hofstra from 2012 to 2014. During that time, the Pride advanced to the NCAA Tournament in all three seasons, including as Colonial Athletic Association Champions in 2012 and 2013. The 2012 team is most remembered for its remarkable run to the NCAA Super Regionals, winning 42 games and capturing the NCAA Los Angeles Regional along the way.

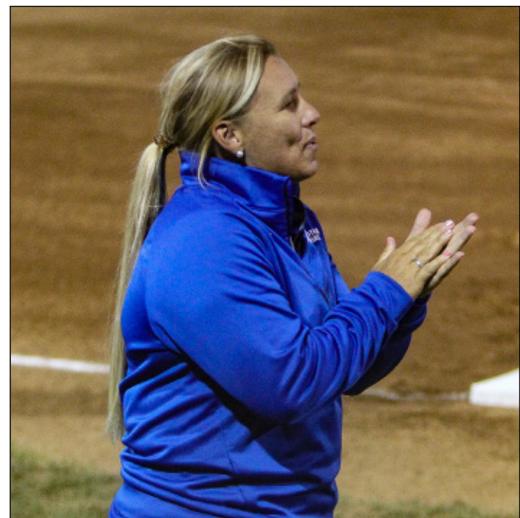

Clark got her coaching career started at the University of Delaware, where she spent four seasons (2006 to 2009). She oversaw all pitching development and helped guide three players to All-CAA honors and the staff to the lowest earned run average in the league in 2006. She then made the move to Columbia University in New York, New York, where she spent two seasons. Nine players under her tutelage garnered All-Ivy League accolades and she also served as an associate professor of physical education.

An exceptional two-way player during her playing career, Clark's name is littered throughout the Hofstra record books as she is seventh in pitching appearances (97), eighth in earned run average (1.77), eighth in innings pitched (407.2), ninth in wins (39), and ninth in strikeouts (260). Clark also totaled 71 hits during her stellar career, including a 2004 campaign in which she ranked second on the team with a .305 batting average.

The 2003 Hofstra softball team captured a pair of wins in the NCAA Tournament, marking the first time that the Pride had ever picked up two wins in NCAA Tournament play. The exceptional 2004 season would see Hofstra win four games in NCAA Tournament play and fall one win shy of advancing to the WCWS. The Pride won games against #12 Auburn and #7 Stanford at the NCAA Regional, with the win over Stanford marking the second-highest ranked opponent the program had ever defeated to that point.

Clark also trained with the United States Bobsled & Skeleton Federation for three years (2011-14) as she attempted to qualify for the Olympic Games as a skeleton athlete.

Clark earned her Bachelor of Business Administration, majoring in marketing, from Hofstra in 2005. She received her Master of Science in sports management from Columbia.
