Post-Game Quotes

Sacramento State Head Coach Mike Clemons

(When he felt secure about the lead)

"17-0. I felt like we had 'em. However, a good team has got to come back to put the nail in the coffin (after half)."

(Overall)

"The thing I was pleased about was that I thought we would have more mistakes than we did.

The freshmen played well. I played the All-American Bannan late to test his leg, and I gave Lamanno (Dave) some time as well. They both reacted well."

(Is the shutout deceptive)

"Sure, it gives them (future opponents) a false sense of security. It is the first game, first scrimmage to see where we need work."

Sacramento State Tailback Troy Gassaway

(Overall impression of his performance)

"Sluggish. Primarily because of first game jitters. If you want a comment, the one thing I liked most about the overall aspect of the team was the complete team effort. Me the fullback over the middle...Hollie (Jermaine) deep over coverage. It was a complete team effort."

(What he would have liked to have done)

"I wanted to punish a bit more. I wasn't feeling that I was punishing them enough."

Sacramento State Quarterback Joe Garofalo

(Overall Impression of his game)

"I felt good, but there were a couple of plays I'd like to have back. But, it was the first game."

(About his receivers)

"They had some good catches and our offensive line did a hell of a job. The backups did a hell of a job as well."

(About next week vs. Stephen F. Austin)

"I know they're a tough team, but I don't know much about them. We just need to perfect all of our plays and go in with a good attitude."
