A BRIEF PREVIEW

- The 2023 Sacramento State football season will start on Thursday, Aug. 31, when the Hornets travel to Nicholls State for a 4 p.m. PT kickoff. The game will be the first under head coach Andy Thompson and will mark the first time the Hornets have played a game in Louisiana since 1977.
- Sacramento State is coming off a historic 2022 campaign which saw the team finish the year with a 12-1 overall record and earn the second seed in the NCAA FCS Playoffs. The Hornets ended the regular season with an undefeated 11-0 mark, including going unbeaten (8-0) in the Big Sky Conference for the second consecutive season.
- The team returns 17 starters from last year's team, including eight each on offense and defense. That group is part of 63 total letterwinners returning to the team from 2022.
- Hornet fans can tune in to ESPN 1320 AM to hear the radio call of Jason Ross, Steve McElroy and Danny Sullivan. Live audio streaming is also available via www.hornetsports.com and the Audacy app.
- The game will also be streamed on ESPN+. Jack Benjamin will handle the play-by-play and will be joined by Wayne Keiser for analysis.

OPPONENT PREVIEW: NICHOLLS

- Nicholls finished last season with a 3-8 overall record and went 3-3 in the Southland Conference. The Colonels and Sacramento State had one common opponent in 2022 as both faced UIW. Nicholls lost 49-14 at home while the Hornets suffered a 66-63 heart-breaker in the quarterfinals of the FCS Playoffs.
- Ten NSU players were named to the preseason all-Southland Conference team, including eight on the first team. Running back Collin Guggenheim (543 yards, 2 TD) was joined on offense by linemen Evan Roussel and Mark Barthelemy. Defensive lineman Perry Ganci (7.5 TFLs), linebacker Eli Ennis (45 tackles) and defensive backs Jordan Jackson (36 tackles, 5 PBU) and Tyler Morton (71 tackles, 2 INT) earned spots on the preseason defensive team. Rounding out the first team selections was kick returner Jaylon Spears (23.6 ypr).
- The Nicholls roster features six quarterbacks with only Leonard Kelly seeing action for the team last season. Kelly started three games and finished the year completing 38-of-73 passes.
- Tim Rebowe is in his ninth season as the head coach at Nicholls where he has a 47-43 overall record. Rebowe has led the Colonels to Southland Conference titles in 2018 and 2019 and three consecutive FCS Playoff appearances from 2017-19.

BY THE NUMBERS

- 0 Career touchdowns thrown for Sacramento State by quarterbacks on the 2023 roster. Carson Camp does own 24 career touchdown passes from his time at South Dakota.
- 19 Consecutive regular season games won by Sacramento State. The team's last loss in the regular season came at Cal on Sept. 18, 2021.

IN THE BEGINNING

- Sacramento State is 30-37-1 all-time in season openers and 12-28-1 when opening on the road.
- This weekend's game marks the third consecutive season the Hornets have opened the year against a fellow FCS opponent but just the fourth time in the last 20 years. The Hornets are 3-0 in the previous meetings, winning at Incarnate Word, 49-13, in 2014, at Utah Tech, 19-7, in 2021 and at home against Utah Tech, 56-33, last season. Thirteen of those non-FCS contests have come against FBS teams while the other four were against Div. II and NAIA opponents.
- Sacramento State will open the year on the road for just the third time since 2015. The Hornets started the 2017 season at Idaho with a 28-6 loss and began the 2021 season at Utah Tech.
- Surprisingly, the Hornets have played five season openers in the Central time zone. The team's only trip to Louisiana came on Sept. 10, 1977 when La Tech handed Sacramento State a 56-0 loss to begin the year. The Hornets have also had season debuts at West Texas A&M in 1989 (W, 35-22), at Texas State in 1997 (L, 26-14), at UTEP (L, 42-12) and at Incarnate Word in 2014 (W, 49-13).
- Sacramento State has been explosive in its most recent season openers. The Hornets have scored at least 55 points in three of the past four debuts, including a school record 77 against Southern Oregon in 2019. However, all three of those games have come at home. Sacramento State has averaged just 12.5 points in its last two season openers on the road, scoring six at Idaho (2017) and 19 at Utah Tech (2021).

COACHING DEBUTS

- Andy Thompson will make his first appearance as a head coach against Nicholls. Thompson has served as the team's defensive coordinator and linebackers coach since arriving in 2019.
- Prior to coming to the Hornets, Thompson had been an assistant coach at Northern Arizona for 13 years, including 10 as the defensive coordinator.

- Thompson is the 12th head coach in Sacramento State football history. The previous coaches were 5-6 in their first game. Most recently, Jody Sears (2014) and Troy Taylor (2019) were victorious in their first games with the Hornets.

RANKINGS REHASH

- For just the third time in school history, Sacramento State will begin the season ranked among the top 25 in the FCS preseason polls. The Hornets were picked 10th in the Stats Perform media poll and eighth in the AFCA Coaches poll.
- The only other times the Hornets started the season in the top 25 came in 2011 when the team was 24th in the Stats poll and last season where the team debuted at seventh.
- This week marks the 26th time since the start of the 2019 season that the team has been ranked in the top 25. Prior to that season, the team only played seven games as a ranked squad between 1993-2018.
- The Hornets were picked third by the Big Sky head coaches in the preseason poll and fourth by the media. Montana State was selected to finish first in both the coaches and media polls.
- Preseason polls have not been an accurate prediction of how the team will finish. In 2019, Sacramento State was unranked until the seventh week of the season and ended up cresting at No. 3 in both the coaches and media poll. That same year, the team was selected to finish 11th in the Big Sky Coaches poll and 12th by the media.
- In 2021, the Hornets were picked fifth by both the coaches and the media. That year the team went undefeated to win the league title and entered the playoffs as the No. 4 national seed.
- Last season, Sacramento State was picked second by the coaches and third by the media before finishing the year undefeated in Big Sky play.

MAKING UP FOR LOST TIME

- Prior to meeting UIW in the quarterfinals of the NCAA FCS Playoffs last season, Sacramento State had only played five games against schools which were members of the Southland Conference at the time of the game. The Hornets played at Louisiana Tech in 1977 and then played a home-and-home with Texas State (then known as Southwest Texas) in 1995 and 1997. All three of those games resulted with Sacramento State on the short side of the scoreboard.
- Sacramento State earned its first wins over a Southland Conference team with a 49-13 victory at UIW to start the 2014 season. The Hornets then downed the Cardinals, 56-22, in 2017.
- Counting last year's final game as well as matchups against Nicholls and Texas A&M-Commerce to start this season, Sacramento State will play three consecutive games against Southland Conference teams.
- Going forward, the team has one additional game against both of this year's opponents and have also signed to play a home-and-home series with Lamar in future seasons.

LET'S GO STREAKING

- Sacramento State has won its last 19 regular season games — the longest streak in school history. The Hornets were 11-0 during the 2022 regular season and won its final eight games of 2021. The team's last loss in the regular season came on Sept. 18, 2021 at Cal (42-30). The last regular-season loss against an FCS team was on Sept. 11, 2021 at home against UNI (36-14).
- Last year's team is the first in school history to win 12 games. The previous school record of 10 came in 1988 where the Hornets were 8-2 in the regular season and then won a pair of NCAA Div. II playoff games.
- The Hornets, Holy Cross and Jackson State were the only FCS teams to go undefeated in the regular season last year. The only undefeated FBS teams last season were Georgia and Michigan.

- The Hornets have won 19 consecutive Big Sky Conference games. The team's last loss came against Weber State (36-17) at home on Nov. 2, 2019.
- Sacramento State has won its last 14 road games against FCS teams and its last 10 road games against all opponents. The overall road win streak is the longest active in the FCS and is tied with Georgia for the longest in all of NCAA Div. I. The team's last road loss came at Cal on Sept. 18, 2021. Its last road loss against an FCS team was against UC Davis on Nov. 17, 2018 in a game played in Reno, Nev., due to poor air quality.

IT STARTS UP FRONT

- With five players returning who have started multiple games during their career on the offensive line, the Hornet front should once again lead the way in 2023. The five have combined for 77 starts including three players who started all 13 games a year ago.
- Junior Jackson Slater is the most decorated of the unit. Slater was named first team all-Big Sky a year ago and also garnered sophomore All-America honors. This summer, he was named second team All-America by multiple publications and was also a member of the preseason all-Big Sky team. Slater has started the last 22 games for the team on the left side of the line. He started all 11 regular season games at left guard before moving to left tackle for the two FCS Playoff games.
- Troy Stiefel is the veteran of the group as he enters his seventh collegiate season. Stiefel redshirted in 2017 before playing in five games the following year. He started all 13 games at left tackle in 2019 and then sat out the 2020 season with the rest of the team. Stiefel returned to start the first two games of 2021 before missing the remainder of the year with a torn biceps. Last season, he was named second team all-Big Sky after starting the 11 regular season games. He has graduated with a degree in economics and will complete his MBA this year.
- Nathan Mejia anchors the line as the center. Mejia was a freshman All-American and second team all-Big Sky selection in 2022. That year, he started all 13 games at center.
- Ivan Garza enters 2023 having started 23 straight games for the Hornets. Garza's streak began in 2021 where he ended the year, starting the final 10 games at left tackle. He moved to right tackle last season.
- Kennel Riley completes the group. Riley was a key reserve last season and then took over at right guard when Stiefel's injury forced a reshuffling of the line for the two FCS Playoffs game.

NEW ARM, WHO'S THIS

- The duo of Asher O'Hara and Jake Duniway captured national media attention over the last two seasons as the pair seamlessly shared time at quarterback which resulted in unprecedented results. In 2022, the seniors combined to throw for 3,290 yards and 30 touchdowns and rush for 930 yards and 19 scores.
- With both O'Hara and Duniway gone, the Hornets will turn to a new quarterback for the first time since 2019. The leading candidates throughout fall camp have been juniors Kaiden Bennett and Carson Camp.

• Bennett has appeared in 11 games as a reserve over the last two seasons, completing 6-of-9 passes for 44 yards and also rushing for 100. In his final two years at Folsom HS, he was a three-star recruit after throwing for over 8,500 yards and rushing for 2,000 yards. Bennett was named the Sacramento Bee Player of the Year as a senior and began his collegiate career at Boise State and Nevada before coming to the Hornets.

• Camp arrived on campus during the spring of 2023 following three seasons at South Dakota. With the Coyotes, he compiled 4,123 passing yards and 24 touchdowns. Camp became a viral sensation in 2021 with a 57-yard Hail Mary to beat South Dakota State.

• Along with the pair, the Hornet roster also features true freshmen Carson Conklin and Joey Cook.

BUT WAIT, THERE'S MORE

• Following a school record-breaking season which saw the Hornets rush for 3,163 yards (243.3 ypg) in 2022, this year's team will have a tough act to follow. Sacramento State finished the year ranked seventh in the FCS in total rushing yards and easily shattered the previous school record of 2,584 yards from 1999.

• The top two rushers from a year ago are no longer with the team but that does not mean the cupboard is empty. Senior Marcus Fulcher leads the returners and was a preseason all-Big Sky selection. Fulcher rushed for 464 yards and eight touchdowns last season while averaging an impressive 6.3 yards per carry. He had a breakout performance against UIW where he amassed 108 rushing yards on nine attempts, including a 35-yard touchdown. The Fresno, Calif., also shined in the pass game and on special teams. He caught 36 passes for 252 yards and two scores a year ago and also averaged 9.3 yards per punt return.

• Elijah Tau-Tolliver will see an increased role in the run game. The redshirt sophomore totaled 192 yards a year ago on just 24 carries (8.0 ypc). Tau-Tolliver also established himself as one of the top kick returners in the conference highlighted by a 95-yard touchdown return against Richmond in the FCS Playoffs.

• Newcomer Ezra Moleni will also see time in the rotation at running back. Moleni was a first team Junior College All-American last season at San Mateo JC. That year, he set the school record with 1,400 rushing yards and 18 touchdowns while guiding the Bulldogs to the California state title.

• The unit also returns EJ Gable and Michael Johnson as well as redshirt freshmen Zeke Burnett and Nova Kebeli and true freshman Curron Borders.

A RELIABLE TARGET

• No matter who the quarterback will be, they will have arguably the best tight end in the FCS as their top target. Marshel Martin has landed on every preseason FCS All-America team this offseason after being named to the second team by The Associated Press, Stats Perform and the AFCA in 2022. Martin led the team with 879 receiving yards, 65 receptions and 12 receiving touchdowns.

• Martin ended the 2022 season with two dynamic performances in the FCS Playoffs. He caught 10 passes for 148 yards and two touchdowns in the victory over Richmond and then hauled in 12 catches for 144 yards and two scores and also rushed for a touchdown against UIW.

• Martin had never caught more than seven passes in a game and his previous yardage high was 117 at NAU in 2021. His 12 receptions against UIW are the most by a tight end in school history and tied for the fifth most in the Hornet record book regardless of position.

• Martin had his streak of 31 consecutive games — every game of his career — with at least one reception come to an end when he played just one snap in the home win against Idaho last season. He has now caught a pass in 36 of 37 career games.

• The Vallejo, Calif., native had at least 75 receiving yards in six games last season. His second touchdown at Weber State broke his own school record for receiving touchdowns by a tight end. Martin ranks first with 12 scores last season, second with seven in 2019 and is third with six in 2021.

• The junior has now accumulated more receptions (157), receiving yards (2,078) and receiving touchdowns (25) than any other non-wide receiver in school history.

• Martin was named first team all-Big Sky in 2021 and was a second team All-American by the AFCA. He was recognized by HERO Sports as a Freshman All-American in 2019 and a Sophomore All-American in 2021. Martin was also a preseason all-Big Sky choice and preseason All-American heading into 2022.

IT STATS UP FRONT (PART II)

• Much like its offensive counterparts, the Hornet defensive front is loaded with experience. The strength of the line lies in the interior where seniors Jett Stanley and Tyler Hardeman return after starting every game in 2022.

• Stanley was named second team all-Big Sky after tallying 40 total tackles, including two for loss. Nearly half of his tackles came in wins against ranked Montana (10) and Weber State (7) where he helped stifle both team's running attack.

• Hardeman finished the season with 43 tackles, including two for loss and a sack. He had at least one tackle in the final 12 games of the season and had three or more in nine games. He also had a strong effort against Montana, recording seven tackles.

• Behind the pair is junior Brandon Knott who has been part of the rotation the last two years. Knott had a career high 32 tackles in 2022 with a sack.

• Leke Fashola and DeSean Lynch are the leading candidates to take over as starters at defensive end. Fashola has appeared in 23 games over the last two seasons where he has combined for 28 total tackles. Lynch was a highly-touted three-star recruit out of Folsom High School and was credited with 10 tackles last year, including two for loss.

HORNET NOTES

READY FOR AN ENCORE

- Linebacker Armon Bailey led the team in tackles, tackles-for-loss and sacks a year ago en route to being named first team all-Big Sky. That effort led to Bailey earning a spot on the 2023 Buck Buchanan Watch List as well as being named a preseason All-American by Stats Perform and Phil Steele.
- Bailey recorded 88 tackles last season, including 12.5 for loss and six sacks. He was model of consistency throughout the season, recording at least four tackles in all 13 games and having eight or more in six contests.
- The Vallejo, Calif., native had a season-high nine tackles in consecutive games against Eastern Washington, Montana and Idaho. He played a large role in the team's win over the Vandals, recording three sacks, including a strip sack late in the game to seal the victory.
- Bailey earned two Big Sky Defensive Player of the Week awards during the season. His first came after totaling eight tackles, including two for loss, in the dominant win at Colorado State. He repeated a week later with eight tackles at Cal Poly.
- Bailey debuted for the Hornets in 2018 where he played in seven games. The next year he was in the lineup for eight of the first nine before missing the last three contests of the season. After having the 2020 season canceled, he returned in 2021 and started the year with three TFLs at Dixie State. However, he would play in just two more games during the season after suffering another injury.
- Joining Bailey at linebacker are fellow seniors Brock Mather and Jeremy Harris. Mather started every game in 2022 after transferring from Bakersfield JC. He recorded 68 total tackles with the Hornets and highlighted his year with a 22-yard interception return for a score at Eastern Washington.
- Harris has played in 38 games during his career where he has 148 tackles — the highest total among returners on the team. He has twice recorded 10 tackles in a game during his career.

PUT ANOTHER RING ON IT

- Sacramento State clinched a share of the 2022 Big Sky Conference title with its win over UC Davis in the 68th Causeway Classic on Nov. 19. The championship is the third in as many seasons for the Hornets dating back to the fall of 2019 (Sacramento State opted out of the 2021 spring season).
- The Hornets became the eighth school to win at least a share of three consecutive Big Sky titles. Weber State was the most recent winning in 2017, 2018, 2019 and in the spring of 2021. The longest consecutive streak belong to Montana which finished in at least a tie for first place from 1998-2009 (12 seasons).
- Sacramento State is the first Big Sky program to produce back-to-back 8-0 league seasons since Montana in 2006 and 2007. Since 1963, only 12 teams have gone 8-0 in a year comprised of Idaho (1989), Nevada (1991), Montana (1996, '00, '06, '07, '09), EWU (2013, '16), North Dakota (2016) and Sacramento State (2021, '22).
- The Hornets and Montana State became just the second pair of schools to each go 8-0 in Big Sky action in the same season. The previous instance came in 2016 where Eastern Washington and North Dakota both finished unbeaten in league action.

A GROUP OF OVERACHEIVERS

- Throughout the final 10 games of last season, Sacramento State surpassed the rushing yards against average of its opponent in nine contests. The team's most notable performances came in the home wins over Montana and Idaho and the playoff loss to UIW. In those games, the Hornets more than doubled the average allowed by those teams entering the game.
- The only game in which the Hornets did not outperform the opposing rush defense came in the team's first playoff game against Richmond. The Spiders entered the game allowing 120.5 rushing yards per game but held the Hornets to a season-low 72.

Opponent	Average Before Game	Hornet Rush Yds	Percent Over Avg.
Cal Poly	160.0	227	+41.9%
Northern Colo.	192.5	332	+70.1%
Eastern Wash.	281.0	385	+37.0%
Montana	76.2	180	+136.2%
Idaho	107.1	294	+174.5%
Weber State	116.0	204	+75.9%
Portland State	174.8	237	+35.6%
UC Davis	152.2	190	+24.8%
Richmond	120.5	72	-40.3%
UIW	140.6	333	+136.8%

60 IS JUST A NUMBER

- Sacramento State's 15-game streak of holding the opponent to under a 60 percent completion percentage came to a close in the season finale as UIW connected on 20-of-32 passes (.625). The Hornets were 14-1 during that stretch with the only loss coming against South Dakota State in the second round of the FCS Playoffs in 2021.
- The last team to eclipse 60 percent before UIW was Cal Poly in 2021 which completed 22-of-31 attempts (.709).

DOING WHAT THEY CAME FOR

CITY OF SACRAMENTO FACTS

- Sacramento is home to over 500,000 residents in the official city of Sacramento, along with 2.1 million in the surrounding towns, cities and counties. That total makes it the second largest among Big Sky Conference schools.
- The Sacramento television market spans from Modesto (south), Chico (north), Tahoe (east) and Fairfield (west). The market is currently the 20th largest in the United States.
- Sacramento is home to three professional sports team. The Sacramento Kings moved to the area prior to the 1985-86 NBA season and began playing in the Golden 1 Center in 2016. The Sacramento River Cats are the Triple-A affiliate of the San Francisco Giants and routinely ranked among the top drawing franchises in Minor League Baseball since its inception in 2000. The Sacramento Republic FC is part of the USL. The city is currently in the process of earning an MLS expansion franchise.
- Sacramento is actually California's sixth capital since 1854. It was the state capital in the past, was then dropped, and then of course is now the reigning city once again. Prior capitals include Monterey, Vallejo, Benicia and San Jose.
- TIME Magazine named Sacramento as the most diverse city in America.

SACRAMENTO STATE FACTS

- The official name of the University is California State University, Sacramento. However, for athletics purposes, please use Sacramento State.
- The campus is part of the 23-campus CSU system. With an enrollment of 30,095 in the fall of 2022 Sacramento State ranked sixth in the system.
- Sacramento State is located on a 300-acre campus which features over 3,500 trees. The campus is adjacent to the American River.
- Sacramento State is one of only a few institutions in the nation honored with the Carnegie Community Engagement Classification, which the University earned in 2010 and 2015 as a testament to its deep commitment to serving the region.
- The College of Business has been AACSB-accredited since 1963, one of just 5 percent of the world's 13,000 higher education institutions to have earned this designation.
- Sacramento State's Air Force ROTC detachment, the Mighty Blue Dragons, is the second-largest in California.
- Notable alumni from Sacramento State include:

Tom Hanks (Academy Award winning actor)
Lester Holt (Host of NBC Nightly News)
Ryan Coogler (film director, "Creed", "Black Panther")
Joan Lunden (former co-host of Good Morning America)
Creed Bratton (actor, "The Office")
Bobby McFerrin (singer, "Don't Worry Be Happy")
Carlos Alazraqui (actor, "Reno 911")
Wayne Thiebaud (artist)
Rene Syler (former co-host of CBS' The Early Show)
Joe Carnahan (film director, "The A-Team")
Mike Lange (NHL broadcaster, Pittsburgh Penguins)
Dale Carlson (founder of Sleep Train/Mattress Firm)

SACRAMENTO STATE ATHLETICS

- Sacramento State sponsors 21 NCAA Div. I sports. Hornet teams primarily compete in the Big Sky Conference with others in the Big West, the American Athletic Association, the Western Athletic Conference and the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation.
- Sacramento State teams have combined to win 47 conference titles in the last 13 years.
- Four former Hornets have appeared on Major League Baseball rosters this season. Rhys Hoskins made his Major League Baseball debut in August of 2017 with the Philadelphia Phillies and became the first Hornet to play in an MLB game in 20 years. James Outman was the everyday center fielder for the Los Angeles Dodgers as a rookie. Sam Long pitched in relief for the Oakland A's and Nathan Lukes made his MLB debut with the Toronto Blue Jays.
- Sacramento State has become a home of NCAA Championships. The University has served as the host to five NCAA Div. I Outdoor Track & Field Championships, the NCAA Women's Volleyball Final Four and three NCAA Rowing Championships. Sacramento State served as one of eight hosts for the first and second rounds of the NCAA Men's Basketball Championships in 2016 and 2023.
- Former Hornet wide receiver Ryan Coogler has achieved stardom after his playing career ended. Coogler, who played at Sacramento State from 2004-07, first wrote and directed "Fruitvale Station". He then followed by writing and directing "Creed" the latest installment in the "Rocky" franchise. Coogler recently directed Disney/Marvel's "Black Panther" which set numerous box office records.

LAST WEEK'S HIGHLIGHTS

- Women's soccer started its season with two games at home last week. The team opened the year with a 1-1 draw against CSU Bakersfield and then dropped a 3-0 decision to rival UC Davis on Sunday. The team then played two games in Hawaii, falling 3-1 to the Rainbow Wahine before defeating Hawaii Pacific, 1-0, for its first win of the year.
- Volleyball hosted the Sacramento State Invitational where it defeated Nevada (3-1) and Iowa (3-0) in its first two matches. The team hosted Cal Poly on Sunday, falling in straight sets.
- Men's soccer made its 2023 debut at Portland. The short-handed Hornets fell to the Pilots, 3-0.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

- Women's soccer returns home to host UC Riverside on Thursday, Aug. 31.
- Volleyball hosts a second tournament with matches against Cal State Fullerton, San Jose State and Portland over Friday and Saturday.
- Men's soccer continues its road trip to the Pacific Northwest with a match at Gonzaga on Sunday, Aug. 27. The team hosts Utah Tech on Aug. 31 in part of a doubleheader with the women's program.
- Cross country starts its season on Friday, Sept. 1, at the USF Invite in San Francisco.

HEAD COACH ANDY THOMPSON

- Andy Thompson was named the 12th head coach in Sacramento State history on Dec. 13, 2022. Thompson had served as the Hornets' defensive coordinator and linebackers since January of 2019.
- In his first season with the Hornets, Thompson saw the defense make significant improvements from the prior year as the team allowed 132 less yards per game, led the Big Sky in defensive pass efficiency and red zone defense and the team recorded 44 sacks for the second most in program history.
- The 2021 season proved to be just as successful as the team went undefeated in conference play and earned a second FCS Playoffs appearance.
- In 2022, Marte Mapu became just the second player to earn Big Sky Defensive Player of the Year in school history and earned first team All-America honors from the Associated Press. Mapu also became the highest drafted player in school history as he was selected by the New England Patriots in the third round of the NFL Draft.
- The Hornet defense allowed 21.8 points per game through the regular season and helped the team to an undefeated record through its first 12 games by recording stops on potential game-winning or tying drives in the final two minutes of four contests.
- Thompson spent 13 seasons at Northern Arizona. He started his coaching career with the Lumberjacks directing the running backs for two years. He then coached linebackers for two seasons before becoming the defensive coordinator for 10 years.
- Thompson coached more than 60 all-Big Sky selections during his time in Flagstaff, Ariz.
- In 2018, NAU ranked third in the Big Sky in total defense after allowing a Big Sky best 1,797 passing yards along with 17 interceptions.
- The Lumberjacks also ranked first in the Big Sky in pass defense in 2014 (177.2) and opponents third down percentage (.333), second in scoring defense (25.7), pass defense efficiency (122.2) and opponent first downs (19.2).
- A native of Walla Walla, Wash., Thompson played for Montana for four seasons (1999, 2001-03). He helped the Grizzlies to five Big Sky championships and one national championship (2001) during his five-year career in Missoula.
- He and his wife, Mikal, have three sons: Mac, Austin and Teague.
