QUICK GLANCE

THE GAME: This is the sixth game in series history between Idaho and Sacramento State, it will serve as the final game between the two opponents as Big Sky Conference foes with the Hornets set to leave the conference in 2026. This is the first meeting between the two sides since 2023-a 36-27 Vandal victory.

ABOUT IDAHO: The Vandals look to reset and respond this week after a competitive outing against UC Davis. Idaho continues to show a strong offensive identity, led by quarterback Joshua Wood and running back Elisha Cummings, who help drive Idaho's pace and balance. Wide receiver Michael Graves also delivered a career performance against the Aggies, recording 112 receiving yards and two touchdowns to spark the passing attack. With the UC Davis game now behind them, the Vandals turn their attention forward with confidence, focus, and a renewed commitment to executing at a high level this upcoming week against Sacramento State.

ABOUT SACRAMENTO STATE: Sacramento State rolls into this week coming off a statement win, with Head Coach Brennan Marion's squad playing with confidence and edge. The Hornets' offense showed its firepower, spreading the ball and controlling the pace, while the defense came up big in key moments to seal the victory. With momentum behind them, Sacramento State looks ready to keep the intensity high and continue its push in Big Sky play.

PICK SIX

1. P1FCU KIBBIE DOME 50TH ANNIVERSARY: All season long, the Idaho Vandals will be celebrating the 50th anniversary of one of the most unique facilities in the United States-the P1FCU Kibbie Dome. Idaho Athletics released a Kibbie Dome figurine that is currently on sale, and will be releasing memories and some of the top moments in the history of the building all throughout the year. Idaho went 6-0 in the Kibbie Dome last season, and hosts another six regular season games at home in 2025. With Idaho's victories against St. Thomas and Utah Tech, the Vandal home win streak extended to eight games -Idaho's third longest winning streak in the Dome since 1975.

2. BUILDING THE BRAND: With the Vandals' success on the field over the years and increased ratings and exposure, it's no wonder the Vandal football team will be on national tv three times this season. Idaho opened the season against Washington State on The CW, and was selected to be on the ESPN Networks for its game against Montana, as well as ESPN 2 for its game against Northern Arizona. The Vandals will also be the only team in the northwest, and one of two FCS teams to have a Spanish radio broadcast this season. The Vandals will be broadcasting its home games against St. Thomas, N. Colorado, Portland State, UC Davis, and Idaho State in Spanish on 100.7 FM, on GoVandals.com, and on the Varsity Network app.

3. OPPONENTS IN THE POLLS: The Idaho Vandals did not shy away from having a tough schedule this season. In addition to scheduling two FBS opponents in the non-conference schedule, the Vandals have to go through the gauntlet that is the Big Sky Conference. Sacramento State was in the polls to start the season, and is currently receiving votes in the top 25.

4. VANDAL QB ROOM: Joshua Wood joins the team after having spent the prior two seasons with Fresno State. Wood, who is electric with the ball in his hands, led the Vandals in rushing in the season opener against Washington State, becoming the first Vandal since 2021 to rush for over 100 yards in a game. Wood, per PFSN, is the highest graded quarterback in the Big Sky Conference and was ranked sixth in FCS prior to missing Idaho's game against Northern Colorado. Jack Wagner is the most experienced of the returning players. In his start against the Northern Colorado Bears, Wagner threw for 237 yards and a touchdown. The Vandals are also returning Nick Josifek who appeared in six games for Idaho in 2024, throwing for 282 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Josifek also saw acton in Idaho's game against EWU, and threw for a 40-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter. Rocco Koch, one of the best runners on the team, comes back to the team and has led the team in rushing twice this season - setting his career high in rushing yards in a game with 81 against Northern Colorado, then broke it the following week against EWU with 84 yards.

5. STRONG SCHEDULE IN 2025: To start the season, Idaho's schedule was ranked the 11th strongest in the nation. After having played FBS opponents Washington State and San Jose State on the road, as well at No. 4 Montana on the road, the Vandals currently have the 15th strongest schedule in the nation per Massey Ratings. Idaho has also had games against Northern Arizona on the road as well as UC Davis, both of which are currently ranked in the top 25. Sacramento State, which Idaho will play on the road later this year, was also ranked in the top 25 to start the season.

6. FRESHMEN WIDE RECEIVERS: One of the most exciting things about the Vandal receiving corps is their youth. Of the players who have made contributions in the Idaho aerial attack, five of them are freshmen. Ryan Jezioro (RFr.) leads the team in receptions, yards, and receiving touchdowns. Daveon Superales (Fr.) was playing quarterback up until spring ball and has made big plays in the receiving game and has been a returner as well. Marquawn McCraney (RFr.) had a breakout game with a team season high of 105 yards against Eastern Washington, and had another touchdown against PSU.

STATS AND NOTES

HIGH-OCTANE OFFENSE
In Idaho's win against PSU, the Vandal offense was showcased and scored 45 points - the most Idaho has scored since Nov. 2023. In Idaho's last two games, Elisha Cummings has totaled more than 350 yards of total offense and four touchdowns.

NEW TRANSFERS
The Vandals added 19 transfers this offseason. Lonyatta Alexander Jr. (WR), Will Cornelson (LB), Hysan Dalton (DB), Kaden Haeckel (OL), Maurice Heims (DL), Garrison Hickle (OL), Gabe Hoffmann (TE), Tim Jackson (S), Frederick Lujan III (DL), Hikifo'Ou Maile (DL) Jahman McNeil (LB), Donovan Parham (DE), Nathan Pritchard (OL), Khaled Rawls (DB), Kai Richardson (DE), Zakhari Spears (DB), Howard Stedford (OL), Joshua Wood (QB), and Zach Wusstig (S) are the new faces from the transfer portal on this season's team.

QB1
Joshua Wood was named the starting quarterback during fall camp. Wood, who scored seven total touchdowns at Fresno State last season, was mostly used as a running quarterback, finding the end zone six times with his legs. Wood leads the Vandals with 448 rushing yards, 6.8 yards per carry, and six touchdowns this season. He is the highest-graded quarterback in the Big Sky Conference per PFSN.

KEY DEFENSIVE RETURNERS
Isiah King is the Vandals' top-returning tackler from last season (48.0) and was voted as a Preseason All-Conference selection by Big Sky coaches and media. King had the best game of his career at Washington State, recording career highs in tackles, tackles for loss, solo tackles, and sacks. Spokane native, Zach Krotzer, was also named to the Preseason All-Conference team after recording 40 tackles, three tackles for loss, a sack and a pick last season.

KEY OFFENSIVE RETURNERS
The Vandal offense returns three explosive running backs in Elisha Cummings, Nate Thomas, and Art Williams. Tight end Jake Cox is back for his final season, and UI is bringing back five offensive linemen who started games last season. The wide receiver room also returns talented players in Emmerson Cortez-Menjivar, Tony Harste, and Ryan Jezioro.

TIME OF POSSESSION
Idaho has controlled the clock better than many teams across the nation this season, holding it for over 31 minutes a game this season.

NEW LOOK FOR THE PASS CATCHERS
The wide receiver group is highlighted by the returns of Michael Graves, Tony Harste, and Emmerson Cortez-Menjivar. Ryan Jezioro, a redshirt-freshman from Peoria, Ariz., has led the team in receiving through the first seven games this year.

For the tight ends, Idaho brings back Jake Cox who has caught six touchdowns over the last two seasons. Gabe Hoffmann also transferred home to the PNW after spending the last two seasons at Eastern Michigan.

RETURN OF TURB
Elisha Cummings, known as "Turb" or "Turbo" by his teammates and coaches, is back for his final season in 2025. He has rushed for over 1,500 and eight touchdowns in his three years as a Vandal.

NEW LOOK COACHING STAFF
With the appointment of Thomas Ford Jr. as head coach, he brought along a lot of new faces with him. Vandal legend Matt Linehan returns to the staff as offensive coordinator for the 2025 squad. Cort Dennison, who has had previous stops at Missouri State, Louisville, Utah, and Oregon, is the team's defensive coordinator. Coaches Lance Dunbar (RBs), Loren Endsley (OL), and Tevita Finau (DL) all have experience playing in the NFL. He also brought in coaches Neil Fendall (ST/S), Sheldon Cross (TEs), Treston Decoud (CBs), Tyler Paopao (WRs), and Avery Roberts (Edge).

TRUE FRESHMEN BREAK OUT
Sawyer Teeney, of Silverton, Ore., was awarded a scholarship on Aug. 20 after an impressive showing in fall camp.

Cornerback Caleb Ricks - who grew up in Rancho Cucamonga, Calif. and later moved to Gonzales, La. - has tremendous size for his position and great intuition, especially considering his age. He is one of two true freshmen in the nation to start every game for his team at cornerback.

Daveon Superales, a wide receiver who was born in Guam and later moved to Graham, Wash., had never played wide receiver prior to this season. He was Joshua Wood's backup quarterback in high school. After playing receiver in spring camp, Superales hopes to make an impact for the Vandals this season, and caught three receptions for 56 yards against San Jose State. He also had 98 receiving yards in Idaho's game against Montana.

ALL-BIG SKY HONORS
Idaho returns two players from last year's team that were named to all-conference teams in offensive lineman Nate Azzopardi and linebacker Isiah King.

Heading into this year, Azzopardi, King, and defensive lineman Zach Krotzer were all named to the Preseason All-Conference team as named by the coaches and media.

Azzopardi has appeared in over 40 games for the Vandals over his career and was unanimously voted a team captain prior to the 2023 season. In 2024, he had an 87.7 pass block grade from Pro Football Focus.

King, Idaho's top-returning tackler from a season ago, was a big-time defensive playmaker last season. With 48 tackles, 2.5 tackles for loss, and a pair of interceptions, King looks to build on his success from a year ago.

Returning for his fifth year of action with the Vandals, Krotzer has become a leader on the defense. Over the course of his career he has appeared in over 40 games and has recorded 55 tackles, two sacks, and a pick over that same time frame.

NEW LEADERS AT LINEBACKER
Although he's not new to Idaho, Isiah King's role for the Vandals looks different this season. King, a proven playmaker on Idaho's defense, is the Vandals' top-returning tackler and has taken a leadership role this season. He is currently second on the team with 58.0 total tackles and has recorded 6.5 TFL.

Another returner who looks to have a different role in this season's defense is Dylan Layne. When asked about who has stood out on defense throughout fall camp, wide receiver Tony Harste responded by saying, "Dylan Layne. He is the guy on defense." Layne is Idaho's leading tackler with 66.0 tackles in the first nine games of the season.

Idaho also brought in JUCO superstar Will Cornelson to the linebacker room. Last season at Tyler Junior College, Cornelson recorded 126 tackles and 21.5 tackles for loss - both of which led the NJCAA. He was given All-American honors following his unbelievable season, and was named one of three finalists for the JUCO Weekly Trophy - the annual award given to the top individual player of any position at the JUCO level.

THE HOME TEAM
Idaho is proud of its home in the Pacific Northwest. 71 Idaho football players (64% of the team) come Idaho, Oregon, or Washington.

STATS AND NOTES

AZZOPARDI NAMED TO NATIONAL WATCHLIST
In late July, offensive lineman Nate Azzopardi was named to the Shrine Bowl 1,000 Watchlist. The list recognizes the top 1,000 players who are eligible for an all-star game in college football. Azzopardi was one of eight players from the Big Sky to be named to the watchlist, and was one of 50 players from an FCS school to appear on it. He has played in 26 games for the Vandals over the past two seasons and has been named a captain for each of the last two seasons as well.

DOME FIELD ADVANTAGE
With Idaho's wins against St. Thomas, Utah Tech, and Portland State, the Vandals are now 166-98-1 in the Dome. The Vandals are 28-12 at home since returning to the Big Sky Conference in 2018. The Dome has been a finalist in the College Campus Tour Best FCS Stadium Bracket in back-to-back years and was picked as the 26th-best stadium in all of college football by a panel of 14 ESPN writers, the highest-ranked FCS stadium, one spot ahead of the Cotton Bowl, three spots ahead of Boise State's Stadium, and 12 spots ahead of WSU's Gesa Field.

2025 TEAM CAPTAINS
The 2025 team captains were voted on by the team. The Vandals have six captains this season and they will rotate who is captain on a game-by-game basis. Nate Azzopardi, Dylan Layne, Joshua Wood, Sam Brown, Jake Cox, and Zach Krotzer are this year's captains.

McLAIN HAS CAREER YEAR
R-So. and Priest River, Idaho native, Matyus McLain is having a career year. McLain currently leads the Vandals with 11.0 tackles for loss, and is the team's leader in sacks with 3.5.

OFFENSIVE LINE CONTINUATION
Idaho returns plenty of experience and has five offensive linemen who started games for the Vandals last season (Layton Vining, Kiegan Henson, Tyler Skinner, Charlie Vliem and Nate Azzopardi). In addition, Leon Evans, a projected starter for UI, saw action in four games last year. The Vandals also brought in several offensive linemen with high-level FBS experience (Garrison Hickle - Indiana, Nathan Pritchard - Washington State, Kaden Haeckel - Arizona State).

IDAHO VS RANKED TEAMS
In addition to having two games scheduled against FBS teams, Idaho is slated to play against four teams that were ranked in the the Stats Perform Preseason Top 25. The Vandals will square off against Montana, UC Davis, Northern Arizona, and Sacramento State. Idaho played five teams ranked in the top 25 last season, notching a 3-2 record.

IDAHO ALUMNI IN THE NFL
Idaho legend and current Atlanta Falcon Kaden Elliss was recently listed as the No. 68 best player in the NFL by PFSN, and was named a team captain. Vandal corner back Marcus Harris was drafted in the fifth round of the 2025 NFL Draft by the Tennesee Titans. Long snapper Hogan Hatten is currently with the Detroit Lions, and Christian Elliss (Patriots) is also playing in the NFL.

KICKER BATTLE
In what has proven to be an intense kicker battle, Owen Adams was recently named the starting kicker. He made a 42-yard field goal as time expired against NAU to force overtime.

STABLE OF RUNNING BACKS
Idaho's ground attack of Elisha Cummings, Nate Thomas, Art Williams, and Joshua Wood has been one of the strongest rushing groups in the nation. With nearly 200 yards per game, Idaho's ground game has been one of the most exciting in the nation. Quarterback Joshua Wood is one of the best in the Big Sky with 346 rushing yards.

In addition to having one of the most talented running-back rooms in FCS, Thomas Ford - a former running back and running backs coach - brought in former Dallas Cowboy and Los Angeles Ram, Lance Dunbar to lead them. In college, Dunbar became a North Texas Mean Green legend and rewrote the UNT record book.

DOME FIELD ADVANTAGE
Idaho has won 17 games in the P1FCU Kibbie Dome over the last three seasons, and has ranked in the top 20 in the nation in attendance in back-to-back years

STATS AND NOTES

IDAHO FCS VS FBS WINS

Idaho Football's Wyoming was the 10th Vandal FCS vs FBS win since the 1978 division split. It was the second in as many years, with Idaho rolling Nevada 33-6 in 2023. Before the Nevada win, the last came in 1994 against UNLV, two seasons before the Vandals jumped into the FBS. It was the first FBS win since returning to FCS in 2018.

WINS AGAINST FBS TEAMS

Sept. 8, 2024	at Wyoming - W, 17-13
Sept. 9, 2023	at Nevada - W, 33-6
Sept. 17, 1994	at UNLV - W, 48-38
Oct. 2, 1993	at Utah - W, 28-17
Sept. 12, 1994	at Colorado St. - W, 17-14
Sept. 17, 1988	at Pacific - W, 36-26
Sept. 13, 1986	Cal St Fullerton - W, 25-17
Sept. 29, 1984	Oregon State - W, 41-22
Oct. 29, 1983	at Pacific - W, 31-19
Sept. 18, 1982	Pacific - W, 36-17

PLAYOFF SUCCESS

From 2022-24, Idaho made back-to-back-to-back trips for the first time since the return to FCS football in 2018. In 2023-24, the Vandals set the standard by going to back-to-back quarterfinal appearances for the first time in school history. The Vandals played 22 years in FBS football and won three Bowl games, the last coming in 2016 Famous Idaho Potato Bowls. Last season, the Vandals played the first playoff games in the P1FCU Kibbie Dome since 1993.

NUSSMEIER NAMED TO HALL OF FAME

At Big Sky Kickoff, Vandal legend and Walter Payton Award winning quarterback Doug Nussmeier was inducted to the Big Sky Conference Hall of Fame. He was with the Vandals from 1990-93 and rewrote Idaho's record book, appearing in 39 games for the silver and gold. He is one of only five quarterbacks in NCAA history to throw for at lease 10,000 yards and rush for at least 1,000 yards. He is one of two Idaho quarterbacks (John Friesz) to be inducted to the Hall of Fame.

¡VAMOS VANDALS!

In 2024, Idaho was the first FCS team, and the only team in the northwest, to have a Spanish radio broadcast. With Seattle Mariners play-by-play Steve Guasch and former Vandals All-American Ricardo Chavez on the call, Idaho has expanded its Spanish-language broadcast to cover five home games this season, building on the success the broadcast had in 2024.

Idaho's games against St. Thomas, Northern Colorado, Portland State, UC Davis, and Idaho State can be heard over the airwaves on La Poderosa 100.7 FM, on GoVandals.com, and on the Varsity Network app. La Poderosa covers all of Treasure Valley and can also be heard in Twin Falls.

La Poderosa reaches over 50% of Idaho's Hispanic population of over 270,000, which makes up about 14% of Idaho's total population. It is the fastest growing demographic in the Gem State.

NOTES

- The Vandals were in the playoffs for the 14th time in program history and are making the third-consecutive appearance and the second consecutive appearance in the quarterfinals.

- Idaho has played Montana State twice in the IAA/FCS Playoffs, but this will be the first playoff game played by Idaho in the Treasure State.

- Last year's game will be the sixth game against a Big Sky opponent for Idaho in the FCS/IAA playoffs. The winner of the regular-season match up lost the playoff game in four of five of the previous playoff appearances.

- Idaho received a first-round bye for the second time in as many years.

-In 2023, Idaho hosted a second round and a quarterfinal game at the P1FCU Kibbie Dome for the first time since 1993.

- Idaho has played 11 playoff games in the P1FCU Kibbie Dome, racking up a 6-5 record.

- In 2022, the Vandals returned to the playoffs after a 27-year drought, but Idaho was in the FBS from 1996 to 2018 (22 years). During that time, Idaho played in and won three bowl championships. (1998, 2009, 2016).

- In 2021, Idaho went 3-7 against Division I teams, and since then Idaho has made back-to-back-to-back appearances in the FCS playoffs for the first time since 1993-1995.

- The 2022 playoff team mirrored the 1982 team that went 3-8 in 1981 before going 9-4 under first-year coach Dennis Erickson and making the field in the FCS Playoffs.

- The Vandals have made five appearances in the quarterfinals and made two semifinal appearances (1988, 1993).

- Coach Ford and company look to build on the success of the past three seasons. Ford was an assistant coach on the 2022 and 2023 squads, both of which made the FCS Playoffs. Ford hasn't shied away from the fact that he came to Idaho to be competitive and take the Vandals back to the playoffs.

50TH ANNIVERSARY UNIFORMS

In celebration of the 50th Anniversary of the P1FCU Kibbie Dome, the Idaho Vandals football program decided to bring back its iconic gold jerseys that the team wore during the 1975 season.

Former Idaho offensive lineman, John Yarno, whose jersey (#56) is retired in the Dome, wore the jerseys during his playing days in Moscow. Yarno was Big Sky Conference MVP and ended up going on to get drafted in the NFL. Yarno was present for the game against Utah Tech when these uniforms were first unveiled, and went out with the captains for the coin toss.

The timeless gold jerseys garnered enough attention that they were featured on ESPN gear up prior to College Gameday that Saturday. They also caught the eyes of the College Football Hall of Fame in Atlanta, Ga., which saw the jerseys and requested them for display in the museum which pays homage to the best alternate uniforms in the sport.

2025 GAME-BY-GAME NOTES

WASHINGTON STATE (Aug. 30)

-. Idaho's defense was stifling all day, holding Washington State's run-first offense to a pedestrian 3 rushing yards for the entire game, ranking second in all of Division I

- Linebacker Isiah King led the team and set career highs in tackles (10.0), solo tackles (6.0), tackles for loss (2.5), and tied his career high in sacks (1.0) en route to being named Battle Axe winner for the game

- Quarterback Joshua Wood played his first game in the black and gold, and led the team in rushing with 101 yards on the ground. Wood's effort on the ground is the most rushing yards by a Vandal quarterback since Zach Borisch's 108 against Montana State on Nov. 13, 2021

- This was the second-consecutive game against an FBS opponent in which Idaho held them to 13 points or less and less than 300 yards of total offense.

-Idaho outgained Washington State 188-3 on the ground, gained more first downs (16-13), and had more total offense (221-211) than WSU. The Vandals also won the time of possession battle 35:11-24:46.

- Punter LJ Harm had five punts on the day, all five were downed at or inside the WSU 10-yard line.

ST. THOMAS (Sept. 6)

-The Idaho offense awoke from its slumber and scored 37 points in the first win of the season.

-Quarterback Joshua Wood had a Big Sky Conference Player of the Week type performance, throwing for 281 yards and three touchdowns, in addition to 96 rushing yards and an additional touchdown.

- The Vandal receiving corps had an excellent game, with three receivers notching career days. Tony Harste, Ryan Jezioro, and Emmerson Cortez-Menjivar each recorded career highs in receiving yards (92, 83, and 78 yards, respectively)

- Linebacker Dylan Layne recorded a career high 12 tackles, while safety Hayden John notched 10 tackles to set a new personal record.

- Down the stretch of the fourth quarter, Wood rushed for a game-sealing 59-yard touchdown to close things out, and the Vandals locked up the 37-30 victory.

UTAH TECH (Sept. 13)

-Idaho ran for nearly 300 yards in its 20-6 win over Utah Tech - a team that had nearly upset top 10 UC Davis and top 20 NAU in the previous two weeks.

-The Idaho offensive line and run attack controlled the game from the start. Running back Art Williams rushed for a career-high 144 yards, while quarterback Joshua Wood chipped in an additional 92 yards and the game-sealing touchdown on the ground.

- The stifling UI defense to just 247 total yards, 98 yards on the ground, and didn't allow a single trip in the red zone. The only points for the Trailblazers scored were on field goals of 50+ yards.

- Dylan Layne led the team with 9.0 tackles, recorded 0.5 TFL and had his first pass break up of the season.

- Kicker Owen Forsman had the first two field goal attempts of his career, recording makes from 24 and 49 yards

-This was Idaho's eighth consecutive win in the P1FCU Kibbie Dome, making it the third-longest streak in Dome history.

SAN JOSE STATE (Sept. 20)

-The Vandals held the ball for nearly 40 minutes of game time and out gained SJSU's air raid offense 232-222, surrendering a field goal in the last few seconds to nearly upset the Spartans in California.

-Idaho's offense was led by quarterback Joshua Wood who gained 273 total yards and scored three touchdowns.

-Eight Vandals caught a pass, led by Emmerson Cortez-Menjivar who had eight catches for 84 yards. Freshman Daveon Superales had a breakout game with three receptions for 56 yards.

- Dylan Layne recorded 6.0 tackles to lead the team once again. He also recovered a fumble early in the the game.

MONTANA (Sept. 27)

-Quarterback Joshua Wood had his three longest passes of the season, making completions of 62 yards to Ryan Jezioro, 47 yards to Emmerson Cortez-Menjivar, and 45 yards to Daveon Superales.

-The Vandals became the first team of the year to hold Montana's passing game to less than 250 yards

- Idaho was the first team to score 30 or more points against Montana this season.

- Wood rushed for three touchdowns against Montana, and the Vandals became the first team to rush for three touchdowns against the Griz this season

-With 102 receiving yards, Jezioro became the first Vandal to surpass 100 receiving yards this season.

-Cruz Hepburn led the team and recorded a career high 10 tackles on the game.

-Idaho's 86-yard touchdown drive in the third quarter was the team's longest drive of the year.

NORTHERN COLORADO (Oct. 11)

-In his first game back from injury, running back Elisha Cummings set a new career high with 67 receiving yards and notched his first touchdown of the season.

-Quarterback Rocco Koch rushed for a career high 81 yards on a career high 10 carries. He also recorded a new personal best with two touchdown runs.

-With 33 points, the Vandals offense put up their second highest output of the season.

-In his first start of the season, quarterback Jack Wagner threw for 237 yards and a touchdown.

EASTERN WASHINGTON. (Oct. 18)

- Cornerback Jhamell Blenman recorded his first career interception.

-RFr. wide receiver Marquawn McCraney had a breakout game in which he tallied 105 receiving yards and the first touchdown of his career. His 105 receiving yards are the most by any Vandal this season.

-Quarterback Rocco Koch tied his career high in rushing with 81 yards. His previous career high was set the week prior against Northern Colorado.

-With a 40-yard touchdown near the end of regulation, wide receiver Michael Graves notched his first score of the season.

-Matyus McLain recorded a sack and led the team with 3.5 TFL to set a new career high for the sophomore defensive end.

PORTLAND STATE (Oct. 25)

- Quarterback Joshua Wood returned from injury to throw for 259 yards and four touchdowns.

-Elisha Cummings led the team in rushing (65 yards, one touchdown) and receiving (100 yards, one touchdown), with a highlight reel 64-yard touchdown reception

-Jhamell Blenman recorded his second career interception

-Head Coach Thomas Ford Jr. tallied his first Big Sky Conference win as head coach of the Vandals.

NORTHERN ARIZONA (Oct. 31)

- Idaho recorded its first win of the season over a ranked team

- This was Idaho's first overtime game of the 2025 season

- Following a Freddy Lujan strip sack, Cruz Hepburn scooped the ball up and sprinted 63 yards for Idaho's first defensive touchdown of the year

- Running back Elisha Cummings totaled 184 yards of offense and two touchdowns

UC DAVIS (Nov. 8)

- Joshua Wood set a new career high for passing yards with 297 yards, also throwing for two touchdowns. He also had the longest pass of his career - a 68-yard bomb to Michael Graves for a score.

- Michael Graves set a pair of new career highs with 112 receiving yards and two touchdowns.

- Isiah King had a standout day with eight tackles, 2.0 TFL and a sack.

- Running back Elisha Cummings totaled 184 yards of offense and two touchdowns.

HEAD COACH THOMAS FORD

Thomas Ford Jr. was named the 37th head football coach on Dec. 18, 2024, making his return to Moscow where he was the running backs coach from 2022-23.

Ford spent the 2024 season as the running backs coach at Oregon State University. In 2024, the Oregon State rushing attack racked up 2,270 yards, led by Anthony Hankerson who had 1,082 yards and 15 touchdowns.

He spent the 2022 and 2023 seasons as Idaho's special teams coordinator and running backs coach. Under Ford, Idaho's special teams and running back units were among the best in the FCS.

In 2023, Anthony Woods ran for 1,155 yards and 16 touchdowns, leading an effort that saw Idaho rush for 2,077 total yards and 22 TDs and 2,057 yards and 22 TD in 2022.

Two players who played special teams under Ford, long snapper Hogan Hatten and returner Jermaine Jackson, earned NFL Roster spots in 2024.

Ford leveraged his connections in the Pacific Northwest to establish Idaho as a go-to destination for recruits in the I5 corridor. Dozens of players have come to Idaho from Western Washington and the Portland area from connections to the Idaho staff established by Ford.

In his first season, the Vandal rushing attack gained 2,057 yards on the ground and averaged 4.4 yards per carry. Roshaun Johnson tallied 12 touchdowns on the year while Anthony Woods added three and Elisha Cummings scored four. Woods, a freshman, earned Big Sky All-Conference Second-Team honors and Hero Sports Freshman All-American honors after racking up 872 yards on the ground with an average of 5.9 yards per carry.

On special teams, Idaho blocked a punt and a field goal on the season, while not allowing a single blocked kick all year. First-year kicker and punter Ricardo Chavez was ranked in the top-30 in the FCS in both field goal percentage and field goals per game. Jermaine Jackson was one of a handful of FCS players to return both a punt and a kickoff for a touchdown.

He was key in recruiting in his native Western Washington and in Arizona during the 2023 cycle.

Prior to coming to Idaho, Ford served as a quality control analyst for the University of Washington for two years. He was the Head Coach at Simon Fraser in 2018-19. In just his first season at the lead at Simon Fraser, he led SFU to its first win in four seasons and was named the 2018 GNAC Coach of the Year.

Before his time at SFU, he was the head coach at Stadium High in Tacoma from 2014-2017. He took an 0-10 team that had not seen a winning season in over two decades and to the playoffs in 2016 and 2017.

He was the Defensive Coordinator at the University of Puget Sound during the 2013 season. Ford's defense improved in almost every statistical category and finished second in the Northwest Conference and ranked 35th nationally in fumble recoveries.

He served as the Wide Receivers Coach and Special Teams Coordinator at SE Oklahoma State from 2009-2012. He coached Running Backs at Linfield from 2007-2008.

He played running back and ran track at Linfield College in Oregon. Ford set the Wildcats' single-game rushing record (237 yards against Redlands) in 2003. Linfield was 41-4 during Ford's playing career. He ranks still ranks fifth all-time on the career rushing list with 2,333 yards. Ford was a two-time Northwest Conference all-star, a member of four straight Northwest Conference championship teams, and team captain of Linfield's 2004 NCAA Division III national title team that was inducted into the Linfield Athletics Hall of Fame in 2016.

He played four years of professional indoor football, winning a National Indoor Football League championship with Tri-Cities Fever in 2005.

Ford's brother Tracy Ford played for the Vandals in the 2000s.

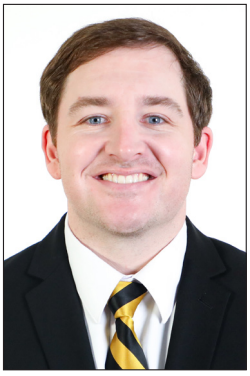

He earned his B.A. from Linfield and his master's degree at SE Oklahoma State.

Ford and his wife Shannon have two children, a daughter Zoey and son Kingston.

FIGHTIN' TATERS

In celebration of Ag Appreciation Week in Idaho's Sept. 6 game against St. Thomas, the University of Idaho Athletics has partnered with The Field Rush to create an alternate helmet for the Sept. 6 game against St. Thomas. Idaho will be sporting black helmets with Pride Gold "Fightin' Taters" decals this weekend.

The original idea came from Idaho's friends, The Field Rush, who posted a meme suggesting the alternate branding. Upon further discussions, Idaho and The Field Rush decided to pursue the opportunity together.

"The University of Idaho already has one of the most unique mascots and brands in all of college athletics," Assistant Athletic Director for Brand Engagement and Digital Strategy Jerek Wolcott said. "This was an opportunity to celebrate our state and our tremendous agricultural history while partnering with the creative minds at Field Rush for a game sponsored by the Idaho Potato Commission. Everything came together for this week for something truly unique, and we couldn't be more excited to see this alternate brand on the field."

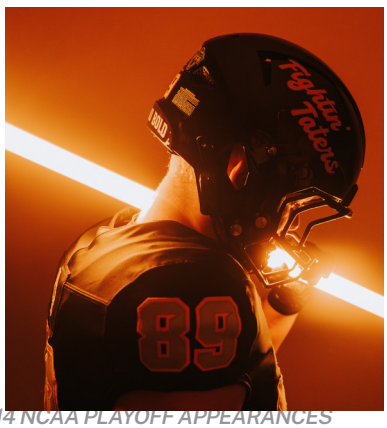

The most unique helmets in the game have been heralded as "the best helmets in college football" by many, including Homefield Apparel, and have been featured on news outlets and social media platforms such as College Gameday, ESPN, Sports Illustrated, Barstool Sports, On3, FanDuel, UniSwag, Unnecessary Roughness, Athlon Sports, The Bobby Bones Show, etc.

Upon their debut, they were ranked in Uniswag's top ten uniforms of the week, and were rated as FCS Untapped's best uniforms of the week. Upon release, Idaho's Fightin' Taters apparel launched Idaho to be the No. 1 selling school in the nation on Homefield Apparel's website.

As a state, Idaho is globally known for the quality and quantity of its potatoes. They are a $4 billion inudstry in the Gem State and provide over 30,000 jobs. Although most potato fields within Idaho are in southern and eastern Idaho, University of Idaho potato research and extension offices have proven to be crucial to the industry, proving to be a unifying element to both institutions.

BIG SKY PEDIGREE

Idaho made its return to the Big Sky Conference in 2018. The Vandals were charter members of the Big Sky in 1963, competing in the league through 1995. Idaho won eight conference titles during that time and advanced to the FCS (then Division I-AA) Playoffs 11 of its final 14 years in the league. Idaho's first conference game as a member of the Big Sky since 1995 was Sept. 22, 2018, at UC Davis. The first home conference game was a 20-7 win against Portland State (Sept. 29).

THE P1FCU KIBBIE DOME

The P1FCU Kibbie Dome is one of the most unique facilities in all of the NCAA.

The P1FCU Kibbie Dome has been the home of Vandal athletics since 1975, when the barrel-arch roof was completed. In 1976, the building earned the award for America's Outstanding Structural Engineering Achievement. In 2023, Northwest-based credit Union P1FCU, partnered with UI as part of a 10-year naming rights deal that also includes financial education opportunities for student-athletes and through Idaho's extension offices around the state.

It took nearly seven years to complete the 14-story-tall structure, which is tall enough that Idaho's Theophilus Tower dormitory would fit inside. Construction began in 1969 on the site of the former Neale Stadium, which had been partially destroyed by fire. The field and stands were completed in 1971, but it took four more years to finish the unique roof. The east end addition, which includes the athletic department offices, locker rooms, training rooms and a weight room, was completed in 1982.

In 2004, the facility began its next phase of improvement, as enhanced academic and athletic support facilities were added for student-athletes. The Norm and Becky Iverson Speed and Strength Center was added to more than double the size of the previous weight room to 7,000 square feet. Locker rooms were also expanded to more than 14,000 square feet.

Team meeting rooms, two student-athlete computer labs and study rooms and expanded academic support areas have also been added. In 2010, the athletic training and equipment rooms were expanded and upgraded to nearly double their respective work areas.

In 2010 and 2011, the old plywood end walls were replaced with state-of-the-art KalWall translucent panels as part of a major renovation to bring the building up to code. In conjunction with the end-wall replacement and fire-safety measures, the Litehouse Center, Bud and June Ford Club and expanded premium seating, suites and loge boxes were added and the Bob Curtis Press Box was completely rebuilt on the North side of the facility. Those improvements were privately funded.

The Kibbie Dome serves as both a training and competition facility for many of Idaho's 16 varsity athletic teams, including football, basketball, track & field, tennis and starting in 2017 soccer. The facility has a capacity of more than 16,000. When the fans get excited, the Kibbie Dome crowd noise can be deafening and intimidating to opposing teams.

Beneath the football field, which is rolled up and stored at season's end, is a premier indoor track & field facility, as well as a full indoor tennis facility. The Cowan Spectrum, where Idaho men's and women's basketball play their home games, is also a part of the Kibbie Dome floor. With 93,000 square feet of floor, there is plenty of room for each team to practice at the same time.

Vandal track & field athletes can practice year-round in the facility. The track is a 290-meter flat circular with eight lanes in the straightaway. It also has two long jump pits, two pole vault pits and two throwing circles. The spacious floor area also gives the Kibbie Dome enough space to host indoor discus and javelin competitions, a boast few other indoor facilities in the nation can make.

The Idaho men's and women's tennis programs use the facility to train and compete during the winter and in times of inclement weather conditions. The floor can be cleared for action on up to nine courts at once.

The Kibbie Dome is for more than just Vandal Athletics, too. The facility has been used to host a multitude of different events, including Idaho high school football playoffs, concerts, student activities, intramural sports, community events and graduations. The facility is also used by students and staff as a workout venue.

The internationally-renowned Lionel Hampton International Jazz Festival also calls the Kibbie Dome its home. One of the banner accomplishments of the University of Idaho, the festival was recently awarded the National Medal of Arts, the nation's most prestigious arts honor. The festival dates back to 1967 and during its history, it has featured some of the best jazz musicians to ever play, including Ella Fitzgerald, Gerry Mulligan, Dizzy Gillespie, Dianne Reeves, Stan Getz, Carmen McRae, Diana Krall, Wynton Marsalis and Sarah Vaughan and of course, Lionel Hampton and his New York Big Band.

Every year, thousands of high-school, middle-school and elementary-school students from hundreds of schools all around the United States and Canada make the pilgrimage to Moscow to take part in adjudicated performances, workshops and concerts.
