NOTE

Volleyball records are as of 1985 to the present due to the lack of substantive record keeping by the Sports Information Office prior to 1985. Sacramento State's first year of Div. I play came during the 1991 season. Prior to that, the Hornets were a Div. II squad and the program's first season of volleyball came in 1965. The 2024 season marked the team's 29th in the Big Sky Conference after Sacramento State joined the league in 1996. Previously, the Hornets were an independent squad (1985-95), and members of the Northern California Athletic Conference (1982-84) and the Golden State Conference (1976-81).

DEBBY COLBERG

Sacramento State Head Coach (1976-2007) • 828-292 Record • .739 Winning Percentage

After 32 years at Sacramento State which included 828 victories, two national titles, 20 NCAA Tournament appearances, 18 conference championships and 17 coach of the year awards, head coach Debby Colberg retired at the conclusion of the 2007 season. A graduate of Sacramento State, Colberg coached just two losing squads during her tenure and her teams averaged 25.9 wins per season over that span.

Colberg was inducted into three Hall of Fames - Sacramento State, American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) and Big Sky Conference. In addition, in honor of Colberg, the Sacramento State volleyball and basketball teams play their home games on Colberg Court.

The coach with the best career winning percentage in any sport in Sacramento State history (.739, 828-292), Colberg led the Hornets to winning seasons in 16 of the 17 Division I years, and compiled a 408-174 (.701) record over that span. That included 10 NCAA Tournament appearances over an 11-year span (1997-00, 2002-07). The Hornets also rattled off 13 consecutive 20-win seasons and 27 overall years with at least 20 victories.

The recipient of 17 coach of the year awards (one national, five regional and 11 conference), Colberg also had the added responsibility of serving as Sacramento State's Athletics Director, a position she held from February of 1999 until June of 2002.

The program joined the Big Sky Conference in 1996, and Colberg promptly led the Hornets to eight regular season titles (1997-01, 2005-07) and nine conference tournament crowns (1997-98, 2000, 2002-07).

No matter what division the Hornets had been a part of over the years, the team consistently reached the NCAA Tournament under Colberg. In fact, during the Div. II era (1981-90), the team had five top five finishes while reaching the Final Four on four occasions. That included a national championship in 1981 and a national runner-up finish in 1989. The 1981 championship was the second national crown in as many years for Sacramento State as the team won the AIAW Div. III national crown in 1980 (the NCAA did not sanction women's sports until 1981).

In 1981, Sacramento State won the NCAA's inaugural Div. II national championship. The Hornets swept Lewis (Ill.) University, 15-10, 15-6, 15-7. Despite a starting lineup that featured three freshmen and two sophomores, the team finished the season 27-6 and won its second straight national title. Three Hornets were named to the all-tournament team, comprised of senior outside hitter Kris Jacobsen, sophomore outside hitter Marcia Collier and freshman middle hitter Terri Nicholas. Jacobsen, who served as the team captain, was also named to the Div. II All-America team.
