HEAD COACH TED WHITE

In January 2026, Dr. Wayne A. I. Frederick, interim president and president emeritus of Howard University, and Kery Davis, vice president and director of athletics, appointed Ted White (B.A.'98) as the university's 38th football head coach.

One of the most decorated student-athletes in Howard University and Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) history, White returns to The Mecca with two decades of collegiate and professional coaching experience and a deep understanding of what it means to lead at Howard. White arrives in Washington, D.C., with a reputation as a strong recruiter, culture builder, and mentor. He is known for emphasizing accountability, academic achievement, and competitive excellence while preparing student athletes for life beyond football.

In 2025, he was an offensive assistant at the University of Maryland and quarterbacks coach at UCLA during the 2024 campaign.

Before a stint as an offensive assistant and quarterbacks coach with the NFL's Houston Texans (2022), White was an offensive quality control coach at Maryland during the 2021 season.

White also spent 2020 in the Washington metropolitan area, coaching quarterbacks for the XFL's D.C. Defenders during their pandemic-shortened campaign.

During the first of White's two seasons as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Prairie View A&M.

White was associate head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Arkansas at Pine Bluff for two seasons (2016 & 2017), moving to interim head coach during the latter part of that tenure.

White was associate head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Howard (2011-15). In 2012, Howard's 7-4 record represented its first winning season since 2004.

White got his start in coaching when he headed up the quarterbacks and wide receivers rooms at Texas Southern (2006-08). He also interned for the NFL's Oakland Raiders (2015), Minnesota Vikings (2012 & 2014) and Atlanta Falcons (2007 & 2008) and was a guest coach for the CFL's Edmonton Eskimos (2010), Saskatchewan Roughriders (2010) and Winnipeg Bluebombers (2008).

White finished his playing career with the CFL's Montreal Alouettes, passing for 2,568 yards and 20 touchdowns (2003-05). His also had stints with NFL Europe's Barcelona Dragons (2002) and Frankfurt Galaxy (2000). White's NFL experience consisted of stops with the Jacksonville Jaguars, Kansas City Chiefs and Tampa Bay Buccaneers organizations.
