Henderson State and Ouachita Baptist have met in the Battle of the Ravine 95 times in the oldest rivalry in all of NCAA DII football. OBU currently leads the all-time series 46-43-6 as of 2022 in what has always been a tightly contested affair. The rivalry is known as "The Shortest Road Trip in College Football" due to the two schools proximity to one another across U.S. Highway 67.

Outside of Ouachita Baptist, there is no school Henderson State has played more than Arkansas Tech. The Reddies and Wonder Boys have met 92 times as of 2022 and all-time series is tied 45-45-2. The teams met twice in both 1941 and 1945 and spent time as AIC rivals for more than 60 years. HSU has won nine of the last ten meetings in the series.

Henderson shares long playing histories with both Southern Arkansas and Arkansas-Monticello. The Reddies have played the Muleriders 85 times and the Weevils 84 times. HSU leads the series with SAU 47-36-2 and the series with UAM 51-31-2. Henderson has dominated both matchups in recent times. The Reddies have won 12 of the last 16 against SAU and 20 of the last 25 versus UAM.

SPORTY CARPENTER (above) is the second winningest football coach in Henderson State history. From 1971-1989, Carpenter won a previous school-record 119 games and five Arkansas-Intercollegiate Conference (AIC) titles, including three consecutive in 1973, 1974 and 1975. A coaching legend in the state, his name is forever enshrined at Carpenter-Haygood Stadium and GeoSurfaces Field. The Reddies' annual spring game is nicknamed the "Sporty Bowl" in Carpenter's honor, and each season Henderson presents the Sporty Carpenter Award, which is given to a Reddie Football alum who went on to a coaching career.
