STORYLINES: SETTING THE SCENE

► No. 17 Henderson State looks to successfully defend its home turf for a second consecutive week after defeating Southeastern Oklahoma State 34-17. The Reddies have won 10 of their 11 GAC meetings with the Wonder Boys, including the last five straight.

► Arkansas Tech looks to stay undefeated after recording its first 2-0 start since 2017. That season, the Wonder Boys recorded their first and, thus far, only GAC win over HSU in a 26-3 victory at Carpenter-Haygood Stadium.

REDDIES REPORT: OFFENSE

► Quarterback Andrew Edwards threw for over 400 yards for the first time in his career last week against Southeastern. He completed 34 of his 43 pass attempts for 443 yards and three touchdowns.

► Timieone Jackson posted the Reddies' first 100-yard receiving game by hauling in 10 catches for 112 yards. He leads the team in both receptions (16) and receiving yards (163) after two weeks. The Pflugerville, Texas, native is also first in the conference in receptions and third in receiving yards.

► Jody Easter and Jalen Abraham both hauled in touchdown receptions of 50 or more yards in week two.

► Jeremiah Davis stepped into a larger role against the Savage Storm after Frederick O'Donald made an early exit. Davis led the team with 75 yards and two rushing touchdowns in the home opener.

► Though two games, Henderson State's offensive line has allowed a single sack. The unit successfully prevented Edwards from suffering a single sack in last week's game. HSU's front line continues to pave the way for an offense ranked No. 5 in the nation in total yards.

► Bryson Corbin recorded his first touchdown as Reddie on a 13-yard score against Southeastern.
