ATLANTIC HOCKEY OPENER

- The Lakers completed their non-conference slate last weekend with a pair of games against No. 7 Clarkson. It was the second straight ranked opponent for Mercyhurst to open the year.
- Wednesday will be the first of four contests between the Lakers and Purple Eagles as a part of Atlantic Hockey's western pod.
- It will be the first Atlantic Hockey game of the year for the Lakers. Niagara is 0-1-1 in the AHA after a two-game set with RIT.

LAST TIME OUT

- The Lakers dropped a pair of games against No. 7 Clarkson Saturday and Sunday at the Mercyhurst Ice Center.
- On Saturday, the Lakers held a 3-2 lead with less than two minutes to play, but the Golden Knights scored with the net empty and then tallied a power play goal in OT to steal a 4-3 victory.
- On Sunday, the Lakers dug an early hole and fought back with a pair of third period goals from Dante Sheriff and Justin Cmunt but fell 6-2.

HONOR ROLL

- Goalie Hank Johnson was named the Atlantic Hockey Goalie of the Week after stopping 86-of-90 shots against No. 16 Bowling Green.

PENALTY KILL

- The Mercyhurst penalty kill is off to a strong start killing 16-of-18 power players on the year.
- The Lakers did not surrender a power play goal against Bowling Green killing all 12 penalties in two games.
- Clarkson scored on the power play once each night in the two games at the Ice Center.

SCOUTING THE PURPLE EAGLES

- Niagara comes into Wednesday night's contest with a 1-1-1 mark overall after a 4-1 upset of No. 7 Clarkson last Wednesday.
- The Purple Eagles are 0-1-1 in Atlantic Hockey play after opening the season with a two-game series with RIT to open the season.
- Niagara is averaging 2.7 goals per contest while allowing 3.0 goals per game.
- The Purple Eagles power play is 0-for-5 on the year while the penalty kill is 7-for-9.
- Eight different Niagara players have scored their eight goals on the season.
- Ludwig Stenlund paces the Purple Eagle offense with three points on a goal and two assists.
- Chad Veltri has made two starts in net making 58 saves and allowing seven goals. Mike Corson is 1-0 on the year between the pipes allowing one goal and making 23 stops.

COLLEGIATE FIRSTS

- The young Laker team looks to add many collegiate firsts with several freshman playing key roles for the Lakers early on.
- Austin Heidemann was the first newcomer to get on the board with his assist on the first goal of the Laker season. He added his first goal of the season on Dec. 12 against Clarkson
- Noah Kane tallied the first goal of his collegiate career on Dec. 6 against Bowling Green.
- Dante Sheriff didn't waste time getting on the board picking up a two point night, one goal and one assist, against Clarkson on Dec. 12.
- Carson Briere tallied his first collegiate points with a pair of assists on Dec. 12 against Clarkson.
- Also picking up his first point on Dec. 12 was Marko Reifenberger getting a helper on the Noah Kane tally.

POWER PLAY

- Mercyhurst has made the most of their power play opportunities netting four goals on 11 tries for a .364 percentage.
- Four different Lakers have scored on the power play with Cade Townend, Justin Cmunt, Dante Sheriff and Austin Heidemann recording extra man tallies.

SCORING BALANCE

- In four games, Mercyhurst has six different goal scorers and 15 players that have recorded a point.
- Dante Sheriff and Josh McDougall lead the offensive effort with three points each.
- Sheriff and Justin Cmunt pace the goal scorers with a pair of goals each.

HEAD COACH RICK GOTKIN

Rick Gotkin enters his 33rd season as head coach of the Mercyhurst University men's hockey team. Since coming to Erie in 1988, Gotkin has spent more than two decades instilling a winning tradition in the men's hockey program.

Gotkin, the only coach in NCAA history to take a team to the NCAA Tournament at all three levels, has guided the Lakers to over 500 wins, six NCAA tournament appearances and five league championships. Overall, he has accumulated a 565-449-95 record. His teams have averaged 18 wins a season and have made the postseason in 29 of the 31 years he has been at Mercyhurst.

In August of 2017, Gotkin was appointed as a member of the NCAA Men's and Women's Ice Hockey Rules Committee. He will serve a four-year appointment which began on Sept. 1, 2017.

In June of 2015, Gotkin was inducted into the Erie Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame.

Gotkin coached the Lakers to the Atlantic Hockey regular-season championship in 2017-18. Mercyhurst finished the season with a 21-12-4 record and had non-conference wins over No. 17 Penn State and No. 9 Wisconsin.

In 2016-17, the Lakers won 15 games and defeated out-of-conference opponent Alabama-Huntsville. They made it to the Atlantic Hockey quarterfinals before falling to Army in game three.

In 2015-16, the Lakers had an overall record of 17-15-4 and a conference record of 15-9-4. They defeated out-of-conference Colgate and Ohio State in the process. The Lakers reached the AHA Quarterfinals, before falling to RIT. Gotkin recorded his 500th win during Atlantic Hockey play against Air Force on Saturday November 7. After the season end, three of Gotkin's players signed professional contracts, one being with the Washington Capitals of the NHL.

In 2014-15, the Lakers won 19 games and defeated out-of-conference opponents Merrimack and Colgate in the process. Mercyhurst also played to a 2-2 overtime tie against Ohio State in early January at the Erie Insurance Arena. The Lakers reached the championship game of the Atlantic Hockey Conference playoffs before bowing to RIT. After the season, eight of Gotkin's players signed professional contracts while 18 were named to the Atlantic Hockey conference All-Academic Team.

In 2013-14, the Lakers won their first Atlantic Hockey Association (AHA) regular season title since joining the conference in 2003. The season ended when the Lakers bowed 5-4 in double overtime to Canisius in the conference semifinals.

Junior goaltender Jimmy Sarjeant was named the AHA's Player of the Year and earned the Goaltender of the Year honors. It marked the first time since the league's inception in 2003-04 that a Mercyhurst player garnered the Player of the Year award. Gotkin himself was named the league's Coach of the Year for the first time. It was his first Coach-of-the-Year honors since 2001 when Mercyhurst was a member of the MAAC Hockey League.

During the 2012-13 season, Gotkin became the 26th coach in NCAA history, at any division, to record 450 career wins when the Lakers defeated Army in game two of the first round of the Atlantic Hockey Association (AHA) playoffs. He guided the Lakers to a 19-17-5 overall record and helped Mercyhurst to the AHA title game for the first time since 2009.

During his tenure, Gotkin has produced seven All Americans, four ECAC Players of the Year, three ECAC Rookies of the Year, five MAAC First-Team selections, an AHA Player-of-the-Year, 24 AHA All-Conference selections, three AHA Rookies of the Year and one AHA Defenseman of the Year. In 2001, Gotkin was also a finalist for the Spencer Penrose Award.

Additionally, many of his players who have been honored have gone on to have successful professional careers, including Jamie Hunt (2003-06), who played in the National Hockey League (NHL) with the Washington Capitals. Adam Carlson (2015) signed an entry-level contract with the Capitals. A number of Mercyhurst alums have played in the American Hockey League, while numerous have spent time in the East Coast Hockey League (ECHL) and the United Hockey League (UHL).

Outside of Mercyhurst, Gotkin spends a great deal of time helping others in the sport. Gotkin is very active with USA Hockey, having coached several "USA Select" National Festival Teams throughout the years. He has been involved with the NCAA Youth Education Through Sports (YES) Program.

Gotkin has also been a featured speaker at many USA Hockey coaching clinics and symposiums. He has served on the Hobey Baker Award Committee and currently serves on four other national committees: the American Hockey Coaches Association Division I Committee, the US College Hockey Online.com National Poll Committee, the Division I East region advisory committee, and the USA Today/American Hockey Magazine College Hockey Poll.

Along with their coach, the Lakers have been very active outside of school as well. Under Gotkin's direction, players have volunteered their time each year with the Edmund L. Thomas Adolescent Center, the Shriners Hospitals for Children, the annual college food drive and the Skating Club of Erie. The Lakers also perform at the annual Gliding Stars of Erie show - an organization that helps disabled kids learn how to skate.

In 1995, the varsity hockey team won the Sister Rita Panciera Award given annually to the Mercyhurst College group that "best exemplifies the values of mercy". In March of 1998, the team was honored again, this time by the Erie Achievement Center for its work with the disabled.

Meanwhile, during Gotkin's stay at Mercyhurst, the team's cumulative QPA has been consistently good with his players majoring in such fields as Criminal Justice, Accounting, Pre-Dental, History, and Business Administration. Last season, defenseman Jones was named the conference's student-athlete of the year while 17 of his players made the AHA All-Academic team.

Gotkin is married to the former Diane Kaminski of Erie, Pa. They are the parents of two children: Lindsey Ann was born September 2, 1991, and Brandon Reed arrived April 1, 1995. Lindsey, a Mercyhurst alum and four-year member of the Laker golf team, earned her law degree at DePaul and is now an attorney in Washington, D.C., while Brandon, a former member of the Laker men's ice hockey team, is now a Mercyhurst alum while coaching with the Maryland Black Bears of the North American Hockey League.
