AT A GLANCE

Tough Task

Mercyhurst is tasked with the reigning champions Ferris State in their season opener. The Bulldogs come off a great year in 2022 in which they finished 14-1, winning nine straight on their way to the NCAA DII championship. If the Lakers hope to steal one on the road to begin the season, they'll need to put their best effort on the line against a team that outscored opponents 537-193 in 2022.

Top Returners

The Lakers bring back some of their top talent on offense from a season ago. Captain Dustin Shoaf looks to lead the way for Mercyhurst after a solid effort last year, helping him earn PSAC West Offensive Second Team Honors. He's joined by Cameron Barmore and Trevon Tate who combined for 58 catches, nine touchdowns, and over 800 yards.

New Faces

Mercyhurst welcomes plenty of new talent to the roster with 38 newcomers on the roster. Of that group, 10 have prior experience playing in college and look to make their presence known right away.

Nonconference Competition

Coach Riemedio and company has fared well against their nonconference opponent here of late, going 6-5 in such games since the beginning of the 2018 season. They found plenty of success a season ago when they defeated Anderson Broadbuss on the road to begin the year 45-28 followed by a shellacking of Lock Haven by a final of 49-7. The Lakers look for similar success this time around as they venture out of the PSAC West.

Next Game

After seeing the Bulldogs, Mercyhurst is set to come back to Erie for their first home game of the new season. Mercyhurst plays host to Lock Haven on Saturday, September 9th, with the two teams set to square off inside Saxon Stadium starting at 8:00 p.m.

2023-24 ROSTER OVERVIEW

Talent Incoming

Mercyhurst welcomes plenty of new talent to the roster with 38 newcomers on the roster. Of that group, 10 have prior experience playing in college and look to make their presence known right away.

Key Returners

The Lakers bring back some of their top talent on offense from a season ago. Captain running back Dustin Shoaf looks to lead the way for Mercyhurst after a solid effort last year. Shoaf finished first on the team in rushing touchdowns with seven while David Alize proved big in the backfield as well. The now junior from Florida led the team in rushing yards with 449, giving the Lakers a dynamic duo on the ground. Mercyhurst's standout receiver from a season ago, Cameron Barmore, returns once more hoping to have an even bigger season. After racking up 497 yards on 29 receptions to go along with a team-high six TDs, Barmore looks to further cement himself as one of the better wideouts in Laker history.

Second Year's the Charm

Along with 2023 being Head Coach Ryan Riemedio's second season at his current position, it is also the second year at Mercyhurst for several other coaches. Offensive Coordinator and Quarterbacks Coach Eric Acciani, Recruiting Coordinator and Offensive Line Coach Michael Waring, and Graduate Assistant and Defensive Line Coach Kalleigh Burke all rejoin Mercyhurst for their second campaigns. The experiences of year one are those the group now looks back on, hoping to use to build success in the future.

A Look at the Coaching Staff

Mercyhurst Football added several new coaches to the mix for the 2023 season with two full-time members and one graduate assistant. Frederick Gladney and Zach Conowal join the Lakers as the two full-time assistants with Gladney leading the cornerbacks while Conowal takes charge of the linebackers. McNair, a former Alderson Broaddus and Glenville State quarterback, takes over as the runningback coach.

ABOUT THE PSAC

Originating in 1951 to administer and promote intercollegiate athletics, the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference has evolved into one of the NCAA's most heralded conferences.

The first major advancement came in 1977, when based on a growing interest, the league reorganized to provide a structure for its women's programs. Only three years later, lacking a standard competitive division, the league voted to reclassify the entire conference to NCAA Division II.

In a groundbreaking move for the league, Shepherd University joined the PSAC in 2019-20, expanding its membership to 18 institutions. Located in northeast West Virginia, Shepherd became the PSAC's first full-time member outside of the Commonwealth. Now with 18 members, the PSAC is the largest conference in Division II and offers championship opportunities in 23 sports, which ranks fourth among Division II Conferences.

Highly competitive on a regional and national level, PSAC schools annually combine to send nearly one-third of its teams into NCAA postseason play. Ultimately, the membership's success has yielded 58 NCAA team and 305 individual title winners.

While proud of its athletic accomplishments, the league also has evolved into one of Division II's finest from an academic standpoint. In 2022-23, 3,838 of the league's student-athletes were honored as "Scholar-Athletes" for maintaining a grade-point average of 3.25 or better. That total represents a number that is four times higher than when PSAC Scholar-Athletes were first recognized in the mid-1990s.

PSAC membership has undergone significant changes over the last 20 years. In addition to adding Shepherd, the conference experienced expansion on two other recent occasions. Gannon and Mercyhurst Universities joined the league in 2008 while the University of Pittsburgh-Johnstown and Seton Hill University became members in 2013.

Although all 18 current institutions are members of Division II, five league schools also compete at the Division I level in select sports. PSAC schools enroll over 110,000 students and claim approximately one million alumni, including over 560,000 who reside in Pennsylvania.

The PSAC is governed by the presidents of the 18 member institutions. It employs a commissioner, two associate commissioners, and a director of communications at its headquarters in Lock Haven, Pa.

COACH RYAN RIEMEDIO

Ryan Riemedio mans the helm for the second year as the Head Coach at Mercyhurst University. He was named the Head Coach in waiting at the beginning of the 2021 season taking on the head coaching duties in January 2022 after the retirement of 20-Year Head Coach Marty Schaeztle.

In Riemedio's first season, the Lakers finished 2-9, going 0-6 in the PSAC. The sixth coach in program history won each of his first two games, defeating Alderson Broaddus 45-28 and Lock Haven 49-7, for a margin of 94-35 in his first to career games. The team had two All-PSAC team members in Dustin Shoaf and Jacob Holl with Holl being named to D2Football.com Top 100.

The 2022 season marks 11 years for Riemedio at Mercyhurst. He led a defense this past season that ranked in the top 50 in all of Division II in Total Defense, Rushing Defense, Passing Yards Allowed, and 4th Down Conversions. The Defense had four PSAC West All-Conference Defensive Players (Keith Brickman (DB), Jehrod Gregory (DL), Jacob Holl (LB) and Tommy Zacharyasz (LB)). Along with his Defensive Coordinating duties, Riemedio will continue his role as the Assistant Head Coach and Coordinate Social Media, Diversity/Equity/Inclusion, & Community Engagement opportunities for the football program.

In 2020, Riemedio was named the Defensive Coordinator and Linebackers Coach. The Lakers had an abbreviated COVID season in the Spring 2021. Even without a full season, Coach Riemedio was busy off the field. He was selected for the NCAA Leadership Collective in January of 2021. The Collective serves as a tool to progress towards an environment of diverse representation in collegiate coaching and athletics administration. After the Spring Season, Riemedio was one of 36 participants selected to participate in the NCAA | NFL Coaches Academy. The NCAA and NFL Coaches Academy provides current, full-time intercollegiate football coaches at NCAA member institutions an educational opportunity to build connections and develop leadership acumen to pursue their career aspirations, expand their knowledge and insight into the world of intercollegiate and NFL coaching. Riemedio also holds seats on multiple committees across the Mercyhurst campus. He served on the Presidential Search Committee, the Equity, Inclusion and Justice Initiative Committee, and Mercyhurst BEYOND Scholarships Committee. He is also a member of the Staff Senate and chairs the AthL.E.A.D. (Learn, Educate & Advocate for Diversity) Student-Athlete committee. In his eighth season, Riemedio lead the defensive line in 2019 that ranked 13th Nationally vs the Rush giving up 96.2 yards per game. Under his tutelage, Bradley Burrows and Ayrton Thompson were named PSAC West All-Conference Players.

In 2018, he helped the defense that ranked 2nd in the PSAC / 35th in NCAA in Scoring Defense which allowed only 20.4 points per game. The defense also ranked 3rd in the PSAC / 44th in NCAA for total yards allowed with 331.7 yards per game. Following the season, Riemedio was selected by the PSAC to participate in the Minority Opportunities in Athletic Administration (MOAA) / D2 Governance Academy at the annual the National Association of College Directors of Athletics (NACDA) Conference. The MOAA/D2 Governance Academy provides intense training on Division II governance issues and strategic initiatives, introduce attendees to NCAA committee work and prepare young minority administrators for Division II committee service.

In his sixth season, Riemedio was a part of the Defensive Unit turnaround with first year Defensive Coordinator - David Kotulski. The 2017 defensive unit vastly improved giving up 14.2 less Points per Game and 40 less 1st Downs from 2016. In Rushing Defense, Mercyhurst gave up 12 less rushing touchdowns, 25.3 Less Rushing Yard Averaged per Game, and -1.2 Yards per carry compared to the 2016 season. Following the season, Riemedio was elevated to the Assistant Head Coaching Position by Head Coach Marty Schaeztle.

The 2016 season started a few weeks earlier for Riemedio as he had the opportunity to be an NFL Coaching Intern through the Bill Walsh Minority Fellowship Program with Super Bowl LI Champion Philadelphia Eagles. During his coaching fellowship, Riemedio gained valuable knowledge and experience while assisting with the Defensive Line and Special Teams. During the 2016 season, Riemedio help guide Defensive Linemen Ryan Carroll to an All-PSAC West Second Team Selection.

Riemedio resides in Erie with his fiancé Morgan, 10-year-old daughter, Amelia (Boogie), and 2-year-old Bernese Mountain Dog, Kona.
