• The Matchup

Mercyhurst continues its Chicago road trip with a matchup against Loyola Chicago, marking the first-ever meeting between the two programs. Tip-off is set for 9:00 p.m. (ET) on ESPN+.

• The Opponent

Loyola Chicago opened its 2025-26 season in dramatic fashion, snagging a 91-88 victory over Cleveland State on a buzzer-beating three from junior guard Deywilk Tavarez. The Ramblers showed impressive offensive balance in their opener, with three players finishing with 16 points apiece — sophomore guard Kade Dodson, junior forward Miles Rubin, and Tavarez himself. Rubin also anchored the defense with four blocks and key rebounds down the stretch. Five ramblers logged double-digit points.

Last season, the Ramblers put together a strong campaign in the Atlantic 10. They finished 25-12 overall and 12-6 in conference play, displaying steady growth under head coach Drew Valentine. Loyola advanced past the opening round of the A-10 Tournament before bowing out against top-seeded VCU, 62-55. Their postseason run continued into the National Invitational Tournament (NIT), where they reached the semifinal round, ultimately falling to Chattanooga, 80-73.

The Ramblers were named fifth in the

2025-26 A10 preseason poll while receiving two first place votes. Junior center Miles Rubin was selected to the A10 preseason first team as well as a nod on the all-defensive team.

The Intro

Mercyhurst kicked off their second season as a DI program against B1G 10 opponent Northwestern, falling 70-47. Sophomore Guard Jake Lemelman paved the way for the Lakers after posting 14 points and shooting 6-for-13 from the field and 2-for-2 from the charity stripe. Behind him was Graduate Guard Bernie Blunt who posted eight points and three rebounds. Mykolas Ivanauskas returned to his native land and posted eight rebounds, leading the team.

As a team, the Lakers shot 30.0% from the field and 76.9% from the free-throw line. Grabbing 20 points in the paint and 15 off of turnovers.

Let's Dance

Mercyhurst enters the 2025-26 season with an added milestone: for the first time since beginning its Division I transition, the Lakers are eligible for the NEC postseason tournament. This eligibility marks a significant step in the program's evolution, giving the team a tangible goal beyond the regular-season schedule.

Last season, Mercyhurst competed in the NEC during the regular season but had no opportunity to extend their campaign into March, regardless of their conference record. Now, with a chance to qualify for the NEC Tournament, every conference game carries extra weight.

Conference play will begin after the new year and Mercyhurst kicks off their slate against FDU on January 2 in Erie, Pa.

Hurst is Home

At home last season, Mercyhurst went 11-2 only dropping two matches in the MAC, one to a non-conference opponent LaFayette and one to a conference opponent: Central Connecticut State.

The Lakers were battle tested on the road in 2024-25 facing powerhouse programs like WVU in the Coliseum and a road stretch in California where they played the Univ. of California (55-81 L), Sacramento State (66-60 W), and the University of San Francisco (59-87 L).

Recapping Year One

Mercyhurst finished last season with a 15-16 overall record (3rd in NEC), averaging 67.9 points per game and allowing 69.9 points per game in their inaugural season.

Fresh Looks

Mercyhurst has lost two key scorers, but will rely on vetted returners, including graduate guard Bernie Blunt III who was named to the NEC All-Preseason Team. Jake Lemelman who looks to take a big sophomore leap after an established freshman season where he averaged 5.4 ppg. Amongst other key additions are Vladimir Pavlovic, Kaden Fuhrmann, Emilis Butkus and Cameron Johnson who all transferred in. The freshman class consists of guard Brady Conner, forward Chris Leman, and guard Or Faran.

COACH GARY MANCHEL

Gary Manchel, the eighth head coach in the history of the men's basketball program, enters his 23rd season as the Lakers' head man.

Manchel has revitalized the Laker program and continues to build on his impressive resume that includes 518 career wins.

Mercyhurst wrapped up their inaugural Division I season with a strong showing, finishing 3rd in the Northeast Conference (NEC) with an overall record of 15-16 and a 9-7 mark in conference play. Head Coach Gary Manchel once again led a formidable defensive unit, ranking top-5 in the NEC by allowing just 69.9 points per game—highlighted by a dominant 98-45 victory over Mount Aloysius, marking a 53-point margin of victory. With NEC Tournament eligibility on the horizon, Manchel and the Lakers aim to build on their impressive Division I debut as they head into year two.

The Lakers have been a fixture at the NCAA tournament in recent memory making appearances in 2014-15, 2015-16, 2018-19, 2019-20, 2020-21, 2021-22, and 2022-23.

Mercyhurst won 25 or more games for the first time in the program's history in back-to-back years under Manchel's direction with 25 in both 2021-22 and 2022-23, going 25-6 in his 20th season. The Lakers won nine of their first 10 games, with the average margin of victory being 21.7 points per game. Their efficiency from deep was some of the best in the PSAC with a mark of 38.1 while their defense was once again dominant, allowing only 62.5 points for the 10th fewest in the country.

In 2021-22 the Lakers once again made the NCAA Tournament. The Lakers went 25-7 while also going 4-0 vs Gannon and Edinboro. After earning a first round bye, the Lakers defeated UPJ at home in the second round of the PSAC Tournament. Despite falling in the PSAC semifinals to Millersville, the Lakers got their revenge as they knocked Millersville out the NCAA Tournament a week later. The Lakers run came to an end against IUP in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

In 2014-15, the Lakers finished 20-7 overall, and advanced to its first NCAA Tournament in school history.

Mercyhurst also went on to defeat national runner-up Indiana (Pa.) twice during the regular season, once at the Kovalchick Center when the Crimson Hawks were ranked fifth in the country. Mercyhurst was the only team in the country to beat IUP in each of the last six seasons. (Includes win at home during 2015-16 season.)

Manchel was honored as the PSAC Western Division Coach of the Year for the second time in 14-15. He was awarded the honor first back in the 2010-11.

Manchel also spent nine years as head coach at the University of Massachusetts Lowell, compiling a 131-125 record during his stay. He enjoyed three 20-win seasons over his last five years, including a 45-17 mark during the 1999-2000 and 2000-01 seasons combined. Manchel was named Northeast-10 Coach of the Year after leading the 2000-01 River Hawks to a 24-7 record that included an appearance in the league's championship game and a berth in the NCAA Division II Tournament where the squad advanced into the second round.

Two times during his stay at UMass Lowell his squads reached the finals of the ECAC Division II Championships. His 1999-00 team posted a 21-10 record and finished as the runner-up, and in 1996-97, he led UMass Lowell to a 20-10 mark and an ECAC Division II Championship.

Before UMass Lowell, Manchel served as an assistant coach at Yale from 1987-92. During his time at Yale, he was a part of three teams that finished in the top ten in scoring defense in all of Division I. In 1989-90 the Bulldogs finished seventh nationally, while the following year they finished third. In 1991-92, coach Manchel was part of a staff that finished 10th in the country.

Manchel began his coaching career at Slippery Rock, where he served as a graduate assistant for two seasons.

A native of Burlington, Vt., Manchel is a 1985 graduate of the University of Vermont, where he lettered three years for the Catamounts.
