WELCOME TO ILLINOIS COLLEGE

On behalf of the entire Illinois College community, it is my pleasure to welcome the student-athletes, coaches, parents and fans attending today's contest. We truly appreciate your support of Illinois College, the Midwest Conference and NCAA Division III athletics.

We are extremely proud of our student-athletes at Illinois College. The Blueboys and Lady Blues strive for excellence on the playing field, as well as in the classroom and in the community. As a result, IC has continued to climb the ranks in the Midwest Conference's All-Sports Standings, while increasing its number of academic all-conference awards and contributing to the vitality of the Jacksonville community.

We are also very proud of the athletic facilities at Illinois College. Through the College's dedication to fostering competitive athletic programs, and the financial investment of generous supporters, IC boasts some of the finest athletic facilities in Division III sports.

Thank you for your enthusiastic and respectful support of all the student-athletes competing today. Please join me in wishing them the very best of luck. Go Blueboys and Lady Blues!

Barbara A. Farley, Ph.D.

President

Illinois College

Welcome to Illinois College for today's athletic contest. We are happy to have you here today for this exciting athletic competition.

Illinois College is dedicated to providing an environment which offers student-athletes the opportunity to participate in a competitive Division III athletics program while receiving a first-class academic experience, allowing student-athletes to achieve success both on the playing field and in the classroom.

Illinois College student-athletes have achieved great successes in recent years and we hope to continue that trend this year as we enter yet another exciting athletic campaign.

Thank you for supporting Illinois College athletics. We hope you enjoy today's competition!

FOOTBALL COACHING 2013

Garrett Campbell

Head Football Coach

217.245.3378 | garrett.campbell@mail.ic.edu

Garrett Campbell enters his sixth season as head coach of the Illinois College football team.

Campbell, a native of southern California, earned his bachelor's degree at California State University, Fullerton in 1998, and his master's degree at Northern State University in 2002. Campbell got his start in coaching at Fullerton College in 1997, and has since coached at Northern State, Willamette University, Menlo College and Carthage College. He has posted an overall record of 30-20 in his first five seasons at Illinois College, and his 2011 team made Illinois College's first-ever appearance in the NCAA Division III football playoffs. Campbell has coached 37 all-conference selections and 136 academic all-conference selections over his first five years at Illinois College, while guiding an offense that has consistently ranked among the best in Division III.

Campbell and his wife, Melissa, reside in Jacksonville with their daughters, Olivia and Hayden.

Ray DeFrisco

Assistant Football Coach/Defensive Coordinator

217.245.3182 | rdefrisco@mail.ic.edu

Ray DeFrisco enters his eighth year as an assistant football coach and sixth as defensive coordinator at Illinois College. DeFrisco has previously served as the team's strength and conditioning coordinator, special teams coordinator and defensive line coach. He also serves as the head men's golf coach at Illinois College, a post he has held for the past six years.

DeFrisco earned his bachelor's degree from North Park University, where he was a standout defensive lineman, in 2002. He earned his master's degree from Ashford University in 2010. Before coming to Illinois College, DeFrisco served as an assistant director of admissions and taught physical education and health, while also getting his start in coaching, at St. Patrick High School in Chicago. DeFrisco served as head coach of the sophomore football team and an assistant coach for the varsity team.

DeFrisco and his wife, Krista, reside in Jacksonville with their children: Aiden, Peyton and Gemma.

Wade Lytal

Assistant Football Coach/Run Game Coordinator

217.245.3345 | wade.lytal@mail.ic.edu

Wade Lytal enters his third season as an assistant football coach at Illinois College. Lytal, who works primarily with offensive linemen, serves as the team's run game coordinator.

Lytal earned his bachelor's degree from Trinity University in 2009 and his master's degree at the University of Texas at San Antonio in 2012. Lytal was a two-time all-conference and all-region selection at Trinity, helping the school to a 34-5 record and a pair of national tournament appearances during his playing career. Lytal was on the field for what has been called the "Mississippi Miracle," a memorable play that came at the end of a game against Millsaps College. On the last play of the game, Trinity threw 15 lateral passes and scored a game-winning touchdown as time expired. The play was nominated for an ESPY Award and was named the Pontiac Game Changing Performance of the Year. Lytal served as an assistant coach at Trinity in 2009 and 2010.

Lytal resides in Jacksonville with his German shepherd, Chief.

Brian Fox

Assistant Football Coach

217.245.3155 | brian.fox@mail.ic.edu

Brian Fox enters his third season as an assistant football coach at Illinois College. Fox, a certified strength and conditioning coordinator, works primarily with receivers.

Fox earned a bachelor's degree from Baldwin-Wallace College in 2011. He served as an assistant linebackers coach at Baldwin-Wallace from 2007 to 2009. He later served as co-head coach and offensive coordinator for the Cleveland Cobras, a semi-professional team. He also served as an assistant coach at Brookside High School in Sheffield Village, Ohio, in 2010.

Fox resides in Jacksonville.

Ben Hackbart

Assistant Football Coach/Special Teams Coordinator

217.245.3183 | ben.hackbart@mail.ic.edu

Ben Hackbart enters his second season as an assistant football coach of the Illinois College football team. Hackbart returns to the team after coaching the Blueboys during the 2010 season. Hackbart, who works primarily with defensive backs, serves as the team's special teams coordinator.

Hackbart earned a bachelor's degree from St. Norbert College in 2010. He was a standout defensive back and linebacker for the Green Knights, where he was a two-time all-conference selection. Hackbart served as a graduate assistant at Wisconsin Lutheran College for the 2011 season, where he coached linebackers and defensive ends. He later served as the video coordinator at The Citadel for the 2012 season.

Hackbart resides in Jacksonville.

Tim Shields

Assistant Football Coach

217.245.3183 | tim.shields@mail.ic.edu

Tim Shields enters his first season as an assistant football coach at Illinois College. Shields works primarily with running backs.

Shields earned a bachelor's degree from Illinois College in 2008. He earned a law degree from Thomas M. Cooley Law School in 2011 and is currently a licensed attorney in the state of Missouri. Shields was a two-time all-conference selection as a member of Illinois College's football team from 2004 to 2007. Shields has previously coached at Waldorf College and Lansing (Mich.) Eastern High School. Shields served as the offensive line coach for Team Low Country in the first annual South Carolina College All-Star Bowl in 2012.

Shields resides in Jacksonville.

Dick Campbell

Assistant Football Coach

217.245.3000 | dick.campbell@mail.ic.edu

Dick Campbell enters his second season as an assistant football coach at Illinois College. Campbell is the father of Illinois College head football coach Garrett Campbell. He works primarily with linebackers.

Dick Campbell earned a bachelor's degree from California State University Long Beach and a master's degree from the University of Southern California. A retired administrator, teacher and coach, Campbell brings over 35 years of coaching experience at the high school and college levels.

Campbell and his wife, Lois, reside in Placentia, California. They have six sons: Garrett, Gregg, Gavin, Steve, Mike and Greg Scott.

John Heafner

Assistant Football Coach

217.245.3400 | john.heafner@mail.ic.edu

John Heafner enters his fourth season as an assistant football coach at Illinois College. Heafner works primarily with defensive backs.

Heafner earned his bachelor's degree from Blackburn College in 1997 and his master's degree from Quincy University in 2007. He currently serves as the guidance counselor at Virginia High School.

Prior to coaching at Illinois College, Heafner served as the defensive coordinator at Pittsfield High School and Round Valley High School in Springerville, Arizona.

Heafner and his wife, Kristi, reside in Pittsfield with their three children: Ashlee, Jack and Jaynee.

Mark Gyron

Assistant Football Coach

217.245.3400 | mark.gyron@mail.ic.edu

Mark Gyron enters his fifth season as an assistant football coach at Illinois College. Gyron is the father of former Illinois College football player Aaron Gyron, a 2013 graduate. He works primarily with offensive linemen.

Gyron is a graduate of De La Salle Institute High School and is employed at Concession Services Inc. as vice president of distribution.

Gyron and his wife, Kimberly, reside in Bridgeview. They have four children: Megan, Adam, Aaron and Ryan.

Kevin Lasley

Assistant Football Coach

217.245.3400 | kevin.lasley@mail.ic.edu

Kevin Lasley enters his second season as an assistant football coach at Illinois College. Lasley works primarily with tight ends.

Lasley earned bachelor's and master's degrees from Eastern Illinois University, where he was a four-year letterman as a member of the football team. He later earned his doctorate at the University of Arkansas. Lasley has previously served as head football coach at Earlville High School and Newman High School, and as an assistant at Northwestern (Minn.) College. He also served as a professor of sport administration at Eastern Illinois before retiring in 2003.

Lasley and his wife, Kathy, reside in Loami. They have three children: Emily, David and Scott.

James Lytal

IC FIGHT SONG

Here come the brave Blueboys from old IC
See how they thunder on to victory,
Forever adding glory to her name,
See how they fight, fight, fight
To always bring her fame!
The cherished sons of dauntless varsity
Will conquer foes opposing old IC
With voices cheering for the blue and white
Old Illinois will show her might, fight!

IC ALMA MATER

Words by Ruth Badger Pixley '18, Music by A. Boyd Pixley

Illinois, dear Alma Mater,
Ivy'd Beecher, Sturtevant.
Here we sing thy loving praises,
Here renew our covenant.

Chorus:

Hail forever, Alma Mater,
May thy children bring thee fame.
Hail forever, Illinois,
In our hearts shall live thy name.

Treasur'd hilltop, ancient grove,
Held in mem'ry ever dear,
Winding walks and cherished campus,
Old and new united here.

Chorus

May thy years increase by hundreds,
Proud as those already gone.
May the lamp thy founders lighted
Lead thee e'er to heights beyond.

MIDWEST CONFERENCE STATEMENT OF SPECTATOR BEHAVIOR

The NCAA and Midwest Conference promote courteous and respectful behavior by student-athletes, coaches and spectators. We request your cooperation by supporting the participants and officials in a positive manner. Profanity, racist or sexist comments, or other intimidating actions, will not be tolerated and are grounds for removal from the site of competition. Also, consumption or possession of alcoholic beverages is prohibited. We thank you for your cooperation.
