Tournament March 9-12, 2013 in Sioux Falls, S.D.

INJURY BUG

The injury bug has bitten IUPUI hard in the season's early going with three key players currently sidelined due to injuries. The quartet of freshman Cortell Busby (12 games), Ian Chiles (10 games), Marcellus Barksdale (6 games) and Mitchell Patton (2 games) have missed a combined 30 games in the season's early going.

Busby, a 6-foot-2 point guard, has yet to make his collegiate debut due to a foot injury while Barksdale, a sophomore swingman, has missed six straight to an injury. Patton, a junior center, has missed the past two games due to injuries and freshman forward Elijah Ray has been slowed in practice due to an injury and is expected to redshirt. Even the practice players are on the mend as Milwaukee-transfer Ja'Rob McCallum is unable to practice after having surgery in November.

GAINES ON THE GLASS

Sophomore Lyonell Gaines had a monster game on the glass in Tuesday's win over IU Northwest, grabbing an IUPUI Division I era (1998-present) record 19 boards, while his eight teammates combined to grab 18 caroms.

Gaines' 19 rebounds were one shy of tying the program's all-time single game record of 20, held by Michael Boles (vs. IU South Bend on Mar. 7, 1993) and Austris Purvlicis (vs. IPFW on Jan. 18, 1975).

Former Mid-Con Player of the Year Odell Bradley held the Division I record, having grabbed 18 vs. Ball State on Dec. 20, 2003.

INSIDE THE SERIES

IUPUI is 2-2 all-time against Indiana State with each team being a perfect 2-0 in their home cities.

12/20/00 - IUPUI 72, Indiana State 70 (The Jungle)
-Don Carlisle finishes w/ 27pts, 14reb before Lance Williams hits the eventual game-winner

12/1/01 - Indiana State 66, IUPUI 56 (Hulman)
-ISU uses a 10-0 run at the start of the 2nd half to fend off Jags

12/23/08 - IUPUI 62, Indiana State 41 (Conseco)
-Both Alex Young and Jon Avery score 15 pts each as Jags hold ISU to just 33.3 percent shooting

12/23/09 - Indiana State 72, IUPUI 59 (Hulman)
-Balanced Sycamores hold off late charging Jags, despite 20 each from Alex Young and Leroy Nobles

CHILES RETURNS; PATTON SITS

While one Jaguar (Ian Chiles) has returned to the lineup, another regular (Mitchell Patton) has been on the mend. Chiles returned last weekend at Western Kentucky and is averaging 14.0 points and 3.5 boards per game, while Patton has missed the last two games after netting 14.6 points and 5.7 rebounds per game in the season's first 10 contests.

TUBIN'

IUPUI is 0-5 this season in televised games and 0-1 in nationally televised broadcasts.

WIN THE GLASS, WIN THE GAME

IUPUI is 4-0 this season when outrebounding its opponent and 14-4 dating back to last season when Todd Howard took over as head coach.

On the flip side, the Jaguars are 0-8 when being outrebounded this year and 4-21 under Howard in his two seasons.

NEW LINEUP

Head Coach Todd Howard tweaked the starting five last Saturday, reinserting senior guard Sean Esposito in place of junior P.J. Hubert and gave sophomore forward Lyonell Gaines back-to-back starts in Patton's absence.

Howard has used four different starting units this year with Greg Rice, John Hart and Donovan Gibbs having started all 12 games thus far.

TAKING ON THE STATE

Tonight's game marks the second of five straight versus in-state opponents, three of which will be home games. IUPUI hosted IU Northwest (12/11) on Tuesday prior to tonight's meeting with Indiana State (12/15). After tonight, the Jags will hit the road to take on Valparaiso (12/20) and Ball State (12/23). The long Hoosier State stretch will conclude when the Jags host Fort Wayne at Bankers Life Fieldhouse on Dec. 27.

SHANKLIN'S HOMECOMING

Sophomore Jordan Shanklin made the most of his return to his hometown of Bowling Green, Ky., scoring a career-high 13 points and playing a career-high 30 minutes off the bench. Shanklin hit 4-of-6 from three-point range and added a free throw, while also contributing two assists.

Shanklin was playing in front of nearly 30 friends and family members and against his high school teammate, WKU's George Fant.

PAINT CREW

Similar to IUPUI's struggles on the glass, the Jaguars have also been repeatedly outscored in the paint by opponents this year. The Jaguars have been outscored in the paint in seven of 12 games by an average of 7.0 points per game.

The Jags are 4-1 when outscoring opponents in the paint and 0-7 when being outscored inside.

IUPUI scored a season-low 16 points in the paint in Saturday's loss at Western Kentucky and is averaging just 20 points in the paint per game since Patton's been sidelined.

UNPRECEDENTED GROWTH

After averaging less than four points per game a season ago, Patton's leap to 14.6 points per game is uncharted waters for an IUPUI player. The last IUPUI player to jump his scoring average by more than 10 points per game from one year to the next is Mike Archer, who jumped from 6.1 points per game as a junior in 1992-93 before netting 16.2 points per game in 1993-94.

A more unprecedented growth is Donovan Gibbs' work on the glass in the season's early going. The 6-foot-7 junior averaged just 1.9 boards per game a season ago, but is grabbing 7.3 a night as a junior, having upped his average by 5.4 per game. Only three players in IUPUI history have upped their average by 4.5 boards from one year to next, led by Brandon Cole's 4.8 improvement from 2.4 as a freshman to 7.2 as a sophomore.

Gibbs had already grabbed more rebounds this year than he did in either of his freshman or sophomore campaigns.

HELPING HANDS

IUPUI tied the single-game record with 27 assists against IU East on Nov. 26 with sophomore Jordan Shanklin leading the way with seven helpers. IUPUI last had 27 assists back on Nov. 24, 2001 in a home win over Olivet Nazarene.

HART HEALTHY

After an injury plagued career at Purdue, senior John Hart has been healthy in his first year at IUPUI and been the Jags top performer in the backcourt. The 6-foot-3 scorer is averaging 15.2 points per game and also leads the Jags in steals (19).

CHILES PLEASE

After missing five weeks, junior guard Ian Chiles finally made his 2012-13 debut on Saturday at Western Kentucky after suffering an injury in the first half of the exhibition win over Trine on Nov. 3. Chiles scored 11 points in just nine minutes, but limped to the sidelines midway through the first stanza before later missing 10 straight regular season games.

Chiles was voted Second Team All-Summit League in the preseason polls and averaged 10.5 points as a sophomore a season ago in being voted to the league's All-Newcomer Team.

DUELING DOUBLE-DUBS

Both Patton (27 pts, 13 reb) and Donovan Gibbs (10 pts, career-high 13 reb) had double-doubles earlier this season in the win over BGSU, marking the first time since Jan. 17, 2009 that two Jaguars had double-doubles in the same game. The last time it happened was a 58-56 loss to Centenary as Billy Pettiford (10 pts, 14 reb) and Robert Glenn (12 pts, 10 reb) notched double-doubles.

SHOOTING 60

IUPUI shot 60.4 percent from the field in the win over BG and was better than 70 percent in the second half. It was the third time (all wins) in the Todd Howard-era IUPUI had shot 60 percent or better from the floor and was the highest single-game effort since Nov. 29, 2010 when the Jags beat IU East, 103-80.

NO FRESH FACES

Through 12 games, IUPUI has yet to have a freshman log a single minute this season. Left-handed point guard Cortell Busby has yet to suit up due to injury, while Elijah Ray has also been slowed by a shoulder injury and will likely redshirt. Linwood Ross, Jr. has been in uniform in every game, but is also likely to redshirt the season.

JAGS SIGN ONE

IUPUI inked one future Jaguar to a National Letter of Intent on Wednesday (Nov. 14) as 6-foot-8 forward/center Justus Stanback signed on with the Jaguars, beginning in the Fall 2013. Stanback, the son of former Purdue-standout Ian Stanback, averaged 6.9 points and 5.1 rebounds per game a year ago for West Lafayette (Ind.) High School and starred for the Indiana Ice AAU program this past summer. It was Stanback's first summer on the AAU circuit, where he excelled as both a scorer and rebounder.

He is the first Division I signee in West Lafayette head coach David Wood's 19-year tenure at the school.

NEW FIVE

No Jaguar that started the season opening Utah Valley game also started the 2011-12 finale against South Dakota State. Howard used the lineup of Ian Chiles, Alex Young, Lyonell Gaines, Stephen Thomas and Christian Siakam against SDSU before rolling out Donovan Gibbs, Mitchell Patton, Greg Rice, Sean Esposito and John Hart against UVU.

NIT SEASON TIP-OFF BREAKDOWN

IUPUI's inclusion in the NIT Season Tip-Off resulted in four games against top-tier opponents in the early season. The Jaguars opened at No. 5/5 Michigan (Nov. 12) on ESPNU before playing Bowling Green in Ann Arbor on Nov. 13.

The Jags later played both North Texas and Lamar in Charlottesville, Va. in the 3rd and 4th rounds.

PRESEASON POLLS

IUPUI was picked to finish fifth in the nine-team Summit League race according to the league's preseason polls, as voted on by the coaches, media and sports information personnel. Junior guard Ian Chiles was selected Second Team All-League in the preseason polls.

Here's a look at how some of the major national publications picked IUPUI to finish this season:

Athlon Sports: 6th of 9
Blue Ribbon: 6th of 9
CBSSports.com: 6th of 9
Lindy's: 5th of 9
USA Today: 6th of 9
Yahoo! Sports: 6th of 9

All of the national publications picked South Dakota State to repeat as league champs and four of the six pegged North Dakota State second.

TEN BACK

IUPUI brings back 10 letterwinners from last year's squad, including a pair of starters (Ian Chiles and Lyonell Gaines). All total, the returners combined for 78 starts and more than 1,000 points a year ago.

In terms of percentages, the Jaguars bring back 44.7 percent of the team's scoring (1,037 of 2,319 points), 51.3 percent of the team's rebounding (491 of 957 boards) and 44.8 percent of the team's assists (168 of 375).

OLDER, BUT UNTESTED

Despite bringing back 10 letterwinners this season, the group is largely untested as a group. Coming into the season, the 10 returners had combined to start just 97 games in their collegiate careers and junior Ian Chiles entered the season as the program's active career scoring leader, having netted just more than 300 points in his only year.

NOT SINCE 2008...

...has IUPUI had to replace the team's top scorer, rebounder and assist man from a season ago, until this season. Alex Young was the program's top scorer and rebounder a year ago, while Stephen Thomas led the squad in assists. In 2007-08, George Hill led the Jaguars in all three categories before entering the 2008 NBA Draft.

CLASS BREAKDOWNS

Based on last year's stats, here are the percentage breakdowns by class in terms of points, rebounds, assists and minutes played:

	Sr.	Jr.	Soph.	Fr.
PTS:	55.3	5.0	26.0	13.7
REB:	48.7	3.4	27.0	20.9
AST:	55.2	3.7	24.5	16.5
MIN:	45.0	5.5	29.0	20.6

WHO'S GONE?

The Jaguars lost three seniors from a year ago, headlined by three-time First Team All-Summit Leaguer Alex Young. Young finished ranked 4th in league history with 2,286 career points. Young, who also finished among the top five in IUPUI history in rebounds, steals, threes made and blocked shots, played for the Sacramento Kings in the NBA Summer League before ultimately opting to begin his professional career in Italy.

Fellow senior Stephen Thomas was a two-year starter at the point guard spot for the Jaguars and averaged 11.2 points and delivered a team-high 108 assists his final season.

Lastly, fifth-year senior Christian Siakam capped his collegiate career by netting 8.8 points and 5.8 boards per game while making 55.2 percent of his field goal attempts his final season. Siakam was set to begin a professional career in Chile earlier this fall.

WHO'S NEW?

Howard and the IUPUI coaching staff inked five newcomers for the 2012-13 season, headlined by Purdue-transfer John Hart. Hart, a 6-foot-2 guard, redshirted his freshman year at Purdue before playing 63 games in three seasons for the Boiler-makers. The Beech Grove-native averaged 2.6 points per game during his Purdue career and was the Marion County Player of the Year in 2008.

IUPUI also added a trio of freshmen in 6-foot-2 guard Cortell Busby, 6-foot-5 swingman Linwood Ross, Jr. and 6-foot-6 in-state prep Elijah Ray. Busby, a left-handed lead guard, comes from Fishburne (Va.) Military School while Ross comes from Westminster (Fla.) Academy. Ray was the lone in-state incoming freshman, having helped lead Gary Bowman Academy to a state runner-up finish last winter.

IUPUI's fifth addition was Milwaukee-transfer Ja'Rob McCallum. A 6-foot sweet shooting guard, McCallum spent three seasons with the Panthers but missed all but six games a year ago due to injury. He was the 2010 Horizon League Freshman of the Year according to The Sporting News after averaging 7.8 points per game in 31 contests. He upped his output to 7.9 points per game as a sophomore and was averaging 10.0 points and 2.2 rebounds per game a year ago before suffering a season-ending wrist injury.

ON THE BENCH

Head Coach Todd Howard has a noticeable addition on the bench in 2012 along with both Matt Crenshaw and David Padgett returning. Crenshaw, the program's all-time assist leader, enters his seventh year on staff while Padgett is in year number two with the Jaguars.

In addition, former IUPUI standout Don Carlisle concluded his professional playing career in an effort to start his coaching career at his alma mater this season. Carlisle, the program's all-time rebound leader, joined the staff in June 2012 after playing 11 years overseas, primarily in France. Carlisle was a three-time All Mid-Continent Conference performer after a standout career at nearby Ben Davis High School.

DC TO THE HALL

Carlisle has been selected to be inducted into the IUPUI Hall of Fame as part of the Class of 2013. The 6-foot-6 forward was a three-time All Mid-Con performer during his career and will be part of a four-man induction class that includes Vangel Nacovski (men's soccer), Dr. Arthur Rettig (meritorious) and Brad Wheeler (men's cross country). All four will officially go into the IUPUI Hall of Fame on Friday, Feb. 1.

SCHEDULE NOTES

The Jaguars will play a deep and talented slate this year, including at least 12 teams that reached the postseason a year ago. Four IUPUI opponents (Lamar, Michigan, South Dakota State and Western Kentucky) played in the NCAA Tournament while another (Valparaiso) played in the postseason NIT. Three others played in the CBI (Butler, North Dakota State and Western Illinois) and four more played in the CIT (Bowling Green, Indiana State, Oakland and Utah Valley).

HOME BOYS

IUPUI will get to play 14 games in front of the home fans this year, including non-conference home games against Utah Valley (Nov. 9), Bradley (Nov. 17) and Indiana State (Dec. 15). Additionally, the Jaguars will host the program's first-ever Sears ESPN BracketBuster game (Feb. 23) this season in The Jungle, after having gone on the road a year ago to knock off Nicholls State, 84-80 on Feb. 18, 2012.

INSIDE THE FIELDHOUSE

The Jaguars will host three Summit League games inside Bankers Life Fieldhouse this year, home of the NBA's Indiana Pacers. IUPUI will host Fort Wayne on Dec. 27 at The Fieldhouse, followed by hosting Oakland on the Pacers' home floor two days later.

This year's Bankers Life Fieldhouse slate will wrap up on Jan. 17, 2013 when the Jaguars host North Dakota State.

IUPUI swept a pair of opponents in Bankers Life Fieldhouse a year ago and has won four straight at the downtown facility dating back to 2011. IUPUI is 7-4 all-time at The Fieldhouse and 7-3 when serving as the host institution.

MORE SCHEDULE TIDBITS

This year will be the first-ever meetings with Utah Valley (Nov. 9) and Maryland (Jan. 1) while every other team on the slate, minus Summit League newcomer Omaha, is a repeat foe. Here's a quick note on each of non-conference opponents (sorted by '12-13 game date):

IUPUI ON THE TUBE

Preliminarily, IUPUI is likely to have at least nine televised games in 2012-13. The Michigan (Nov. 12) game will be on ESPNU and the game at Maryland (Jan. 1) will be aired on ESPN3.

In addition, the game at South Dakota State (Feb. 14) will be broadcast on Fox College Sports while the Jaguars will also get some air time in the Indianapolis-market. The game at Butler (Dec. 5) will be televised on MyINDY-TV 23 while three IUPUI home games are scheduled to be televised on Home-Town Sports (RTV6.2). Those games will likely be Indiana State (Dec. 15), South Dakota State (Jan. 19) and Western Illinois (Feb. 2).

JAGS ON THE DIAL

Every IUPUI basketball game this year will be broadcast on WNDE 1260 AM as Scott McCauley (pxp) returns as the Voice of the Jaguars. This marks the second straight year IUPUI games can be heard on 1260 AM in the Indianapolis-area.

In addition, all IUPUI games can be heard on WNDE.com and via mobile devices through the iHeartRadio app.

PROFESSIONAL RANKS

While current Indiana Pacer George Hill headlines IUPUI's group of former players in the professional ranks, there's at least seven former Jags currently continuing their playing careers. Among them:

- Jon Avery - Liceo Mixto / Chile
- James Booyer - Rockingham / Australia
- Robert Glenn - Indios SF / Dominican Republic
- George Hill - Indiana Pacers / NBA
- Leroy Nobles - Huracanes de Tampico / Mexico
- Stephen Thomas - free agent
- Alex Young - Orlandina / Italy

GIMMIE THOSE DIGITS

Junior center Mitchell Patton switched jersey numbers from 50 to 42 entering this season. The 6-foot-9 lefty wore the number 42 at South Knox High School before opting to wear 50 his first two seasons at IUPUI.

In addition, John Hart will wear No. 25 in his lone season with the Jaguars. Hart, who wore No. 32 while at Purdue, opted to wear No. 25 this season as a tribute to his late cousin Larretha "Lala" Draughon. Draughon was a standout basketball player at both Northwest High School and more recently Vincennes University, but was slain in an Indianapolis shooting this past summer.

Freshman Cortell Busby will be the first-ever IUPUI player to wear the No. 0 in the program's 40+ year history.

Nos. 51 and 53 are the only 'eligible' numbers to have never been worn by IUPUI players.

THE OLD AND THE YOUNG

IUPUI has three 23-year olds on this year's roster, with John Hart being the oldest of the bunch. Hart turned 23 in June while Cameron Loepker turned 23 in August and Sean Esposito turned 23 near the start of the season.

Freshman Elijah Ray is the youngest of the 16 Jaguars and won't celebrate his 19th birthday until Dec. 14 of this year.

FRESH STARTS

Lyonell Gaines' 27 starts last year were the most by an IUPUI freshman during the program's Division I era. Both Alex

TODD HOWARD

Head Coach | Second Season

Todd Howard took over as the seventh head coach in the history of the IUPUI Men's Basketball Program on April 21, 2011. He is entering his 18th season on the Jaguars sidelines and his second season as head coach. Prior to that, he served 10 years as the Associate Head Coach to longtime leader Ron Hunter and was an assistant on Hunter's staff for six years prior.

In his first year at the helm of the Jags, Howard guided IUPUI to a 14-18 record with both Alex Young and newcomer Ian Chiles earning postseason accolades. Young earned his third consecutive First Team All-League ballot and participated in the Sacramento Kings Summer Camp before becoming the most recent in a long list of IUPUI players to continue playing overseas. Young inked a deal to play in Italy while fellow 2012 senior Stephen Thomas signed to play in England.

Chiles, Howard's first signee as head coach, earned a spot on the league's All-Newcomer Team in 2012.

While under Hunter, he surpassed Greg Mingus as the longest tenured assistant/associate coach in the program's history and was also the longest tenured assistant/associate coach in The Summit League. Before being promoted to the head spot, he was recognized by numerous publications, including Hoop Scoop and Fox Sports, among the top assistant/associate coaches in the nation among mid-majors.

Howard has been instrumental in the program's successes - on the court, in the classroom, on the recruiting trail and within the community. The Jaguars won a school record 26 games during the 2007-08 season and nearly equaled that number with 25 wins in 2009-10. In 2010, IUPUI also claimed its first-ever postseason victory at the NCAA Division I level, bettering Hofstra in the opening round of the College Basketball Invitational (CBI) in Hempstead, N.Y.. IUPUI later hosted its first-ever Division I postseason game before falling to Princeton in a double overtime thriller.

Both Robert Glenn and Alex Young were both pegged First Team All-Summit and Mid-Major All-Americans by assorted publications.

The 2008 calendar year was a banner campaign for Howard as he traveled to Peru as part of the program's work with Samaritan's Feet to deliver shoes to those less fortunate. That was after he had coached an Athletes in Action team to an 8-1 record during a 10-day tour of East Asia. Later that same offseason, reigning Summit League Player of the Year George Hill was selected by the San Antonio Spurs in the first round of the NBA Draft. He became the first early entrant to be chosen in Summit League history and was just the second-ever first rounder in the league's near 30 year history.

Collectively, IUPUI was coming off its most successful season in program history, having won the aforementioned 26 games behind Hill and fellow guards Gary Patterson and Austin Montgomery. The Jags also won a school record 15 Summit League games and were a perfect 15-0 on their home floor.

Since being elevated to the associate post, Howard has been instrumental in IUPUI's success in the conference and on a national level. In six of the past 10 years, IUPUI has either played for or captured a league title. Plus, IUPUI has produced two league Players of the Year, two Newcomers of the Year, a Sixth Man of the Year and a Defensive Player of the Year.

Howard's work with the Jaguars' guards has been evidenced by the program being ranked among the nation's leaders in fewest turnovers per game the past five seasons. In 2008, the Jaguars were the only team in the country to rank among the top five in field goal, free throw and three-point shooting percentages, leading the nation in the three-point shooting. In 2010, the Jaguars ranked second to only Syracuse in field goal shooting and led The Summit in field goal and three-point percentage and steals. In 2011, IUPUI led The Summit and ranked top five nationally in free throw shooting.

In his role as recruiting coordinator, Howard is always highly visible on the recruiting trail, having strung together numerous marquee classes for the Jags. Most recently, he scoured his home state of Kentucky for prep standouts Marcellus Barksdale, Lyonell Gaines and Jordan Shanklin. Gaines later earned a spot on the prestigious Kentucky All-Star Team, becoming IUPUI's second selection in three years. In 2007 IUPUI inked Indiana All-Stars Larry Stone and Alex Young and Kentucky All-Star Aaron Morris. The class of John Ashworth and Adrian Moss, swingman Leroy Nobles and highly touted big man Christian Siakam was rated tops in The Summit by noted insider Clark Francis, editor of The Hoop Scoop. IUPUI's class ranked No. 93 in the nation with the spring signings of Ashworth, Moss and Siakam.

He helped land Ben Davis standout point guard Greg Rice, keeping the trend going of landing top-notch talent from the city of Indianapolis. In 2010, he returned to his Louisville roots to bring talented forward Donovan Gibbs to the IUPUI program, along with in-state standouts P.J. Hubert and Mitchell Patton.

In 2004, Howard began to further earn acclaim on both the camp and recruiting scene. He spent a week as a clinician at the prestigious Pete Newell Big Man Camp in Hawaii, while also helping secure one of IUPUI's most prolific recruiting classes in recent memory.

In the early signing period, Howard helped ink Indianapolis high school products George Hill (Broad Ripple) and Craig Swoope (Carmel). Over the summer during the late signing period, Howard helped land a pair of junior college standouts in Michal Vavrek (Joliet JC) and Maushae Byles (Kennedy-King CC). Prior to that, Howard had been equally successful in landing in-state talent including 2002 Marion County Player of the Year Brandon Cole and 2003 Indiana All-Star David Barlow.

Hill later became IUPUI's second Indiana All-Star, while Vavrek was the second IUPUI recruit to receive All-America mention from the NJCAA. In all, IUPUI has signed seven former Indiana All-Stars since Howard's promotion to Associate Head Coach, after signing just one in the program's history previously.

Howard also played a vital role in landing a pair of Division I transfers for the third time in program history. Former Indiana All-Stars Gary Patterson and Austin Montgomery were both named to the league's All-Newcomer Team after sitting the previous season. Before that, former Indiana All-Star Brandon Cameron and Lawrence North's Angelo Smith made their mark on the Jags lineup. In 2002-03, the addition of Wright State's Marcus May and Ball State's Josh Murray in 2002 helped propel the Jags to its most memorable year in program history. That year, Howard was a big part in IUPUI bringing home the Mid-Con Championship and making it's first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance. Under his guidance, the Jaguars posted a 20-14 overall record and a 10-4 mark in conference play.

In 13 seasons in The Summit League (formerly Mid-Continent Conference), Howard has seen 11 players (Don Carlisle, Sylvester Allen, Antoine Lewis, Odell Bradley, Josh Murray, Akeem Clark, George Hill, Austin Montgomery, Gary Patterson, Robert Glenn and Stephen Thomas) recognized on the All-Newcomer Team in the coaches/media polls. In 2005-06, Montgomery became IUPUI's first-ever Mid-Con Newcomer of the Year in the program's history and Glenn matched the award in 2009.

In 2001-02, Howard's first year as Associate Head Coach, the Jaguars showed promise on the mid-major level as they turned in a 15-15 mark and clawed their way to the Mid-Con Tournament Championship game. The recruiting class around which that team was built, featured six talented JUCO players and 2002 Howard County Player of the Year Blair Crawford.

"Todd certainly has the pedigree, knowledge and work ethic to succeed in this profession," Francis said. "His results at IUPUI have led the Jaguars to unprecedented success. His recruiting prowess has brought quality, impact student-athletes to Indianapolis."

A native of Louisville, Ky., Howard played collegiately at the University of Louisville where he labels his experience in playing for Hall of Fame Coach Denny Crum as one that enabled him to "play for the best, with the best and against the best." While reaching the NCAA Tournament three times, the Cardinals also captured two Metro Conference titles.

Upon completion of his playing career, Howard served as a student assistant under Crum for the 1993-94 season. The Cardinals enjoyed a return trip to the NCAA Sweet 16 that season and boasted a roster that included five future NBA players.

While at IUPUI, more than 20 former Jaguars recruited by Howard have gone on to professional careers, led by George Hill's being drafted and Carlos Knox, Odell Bradley and Matt Crenshaw's stints overseas. Former IUPUI standout Don Carlisle is still among the elite players in France, while Akeem Clark has starred both in the U.S. and overseas. Howard has coached five All-Americans and 14 All-League players.

Howard graduated from Louisville Ballard High School in 1989 after capturing a state championship as a junior in 1988 and finishing as state runner-up in 1987. Ballard was nationally ranked during each of his four seasons as Howard was named All-District and All-Region each season. He was a high school teammate of current New York Knicks star Allan Houston. Throughout his high school and collegiate career, Howard played with eight future NBA players.

The Howard family is rich in basketball tradition. Todd's father, Terry, also played at Louisville while his younger brother, Nathan, played at Murray State. In 1999, Howard was listed by The Hoop Scoop as "One of the Games Top 20 Assistant Coaches" and was recently listed by Indiana Basketball News as one of the state's top assistants.

Howard values the mentorship of Hall of Fame Coach Pete Newell and has served as a camp clinician at his annual 'Big Man Camp' on two occasions. He worked with some of the game's elite post players and learning from the Hall of Fame coach. In 2002, Howard assisted FIBA and USA Basketball in hosting the World Championships in Indianapolis.

The Louisville product prides himself in the development of perimeter players. IUPUI's success has been predicated by strong backcourts and few have been stronger than the 2007-08 trio of Hill, Patterson and Montgomery. In addition, Howard helped the long-term development of Crenshaw, David Barlow, Johnny Miller, Matt Burks, Rodney Thomas, Derek Williams, Taj Hawkins and Carlos Knox, among others.

"Howard has a relationship with the players that all coaches dream about," WISH-TV's Anthony Calhoun said. "The one thing that caught my attention is how much the players love playing for him."

Howard's responsibilities range from recruiting, advance scouting, game and practice preparation, player development, compliance liaison, academic monitoring and scheduling.

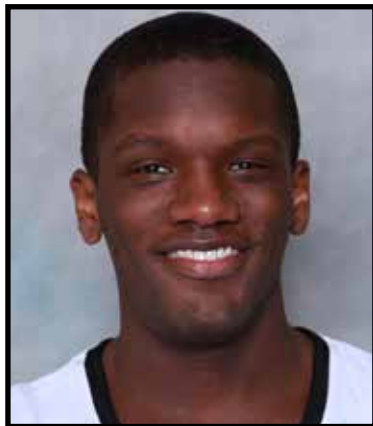

He is married to the former Patti Martin, also from Louisville.

The couple have a son, Adam, who turns 13 on Jan. 10 and a daughter, Katie, who turns 10 on March 5. The Howard family resides in Fishers, Ind..
