THE TEN COUNT

- ♦ Nathan Scheer (Jr., G/F, Washington, Mo.) is appearing in his 50th career Valley game.
- ♦ Anthony Downing (Sr., G, Atchison, Kan.) has scored 9 points in each of his last four ball games, including three road games. The Bears' only active senior has posted double figures at JQH in 19 of his last 20 home contests.
- ♦ Keith Pickens (Jr., F, St. Louis, Mo.) needs 8 points to reach 400 for his career. The Indiana State game will be his 85th career game, and he is averaging 5.6 points in 5 career games vs. the Sycamores (all starts).
- ♦ Gavin Thurman (Fr., F, Wichita, Kan.) needs 15 points to become MSU's 15th freshman to score 200 in a season.
- ♦ MSU's freshman class is 52 points away from tying the team freshman scoring record of 735. The Bears rank 13th nationally in freshman scoring percentage (45.8), 17th in freshman points (683) and 23rd in scoring avg. (27.3).
- ♦ The Bears have outshot their opponents in free throw percentage seven straight games, including an .857 effort at Wichita State on Saturday. MSU made just 58.7% of its non-conference foul shots and has made 73.2% in MVC games.
- ♦ Dorrian Williams (Rfr., G, Oklahoma City, Okla.) has made six treys over his last four games and started 7 straight.
- ♦ For the season, MSU has had five freshmen on the floor at the same time just 11 minutes, 58 seconds, most of which took place in Saturday's game at Wichita, where the Bears' pups played 7 minutes, 32 seconds together.
- ♦ Marcus Marshall (Fr., G, St. Paul, Minn.) is coming off a game-high and career-high 19 points at No. 22 WSU.
- ♦ The Bears rank 7th nationally in turnovers per game (10.5), tops in the MVC and up three spots from last week.

Head Coach Paul Lusk

Paul Lusk (Southern Illinois, 1995) is 23-34 (.404) in his second season at MSU and 25-57 (.305) in his third season overall as a head coach. He is 14-17 in the MVC (8-7 at home, 6-10 on the road), 9-16 in non-conference play (6-6 at JQH Arena, 3-6 away and 0-5 at neutral sites). He is also 14-13 in all home games, 9-16 on the road, and 0-5 at neutral sites. He is 1-2 against ISU (0-1 at JQH).

The 41-year-old Lusk took the reins as MSU's 17th head coach on April 1, 2011. He came to Springfield after seven seasons at Purdue (2004-11), including his last three as associate head coach there. Now in his 15th season in the coaching profession, Lusk has previous assistant coaching stops at Southwestern Illinois (1996-97), Missouri Southern (1999-2002) and Southern Illinois (2003-04) in addition to a one-year head coaching stint at (Div. III) Dubuque (2002-03). Lusk has played or coached in 10 NCAA Tournaments.

He returns five lettermen and six squad members from a 16-16 club that tied for third place in the Missouri Valley standings a year ago. His Bears were picked sixth in last year's preseason MVC poll, but finished three spots higher, earning him CollegeSportsMadness.com MVC Coach of the Year.

JQH Arena

With a $30-million gift from Missouri State alumnus and Springfield-based hotel developer John Q. Hammons, the long-time dream of a new home for the Missouri State Bears and Lady Bears and an iconic tribute to MSU intercollegiate athletics became a reality in 2008. JQH Arena features a seating capacity of 11,000, including 50 courtside seats, 24 suites, PRIME Overtime Club, Hall of Fame and Legacy of Competition exhibits, 114 loge seats, 1,363 reserved student bleacher seats and 9,637 chairback seats.

The Bears defeated Arkansas, 62-57, before a sellout crowd of 10,881 on November 22, 2008 in the inaugural game at JQH Arena. MSU later reeled off 22 straight non-conference home wins from Dec. 22, 2008 to Dec. 7, 2011. The Bears also won 19 straight home games overall from Feb. 6, 2010 to Jan. 30, 2011 and are now 58-24 all-time at The Q.

MSU tied for the national lead in home wins in 2009-10 with a 19-2 mark, and was 16-1 at home in 2010-11.

Bears Basketball History

The Bears have an all-time record of 1573-890 (.639) in their 101st season and are 589-373 (.612) in 31 seasons since making the move to Division I in 1982-83.

During the Division I era, MSU has made NCAA Tournament appearances in 1987, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1992, and 1999. With Tournament wins over Wisconsin and Tennessee, the 1999 Bears advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16. The Bears have appeared in the National Invitation Tournament nine times -- 1986, 1991, 1993, 1997, 2000, 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2011. The 1986, 1993 and 2006 squads all reached the NIT quarterfinals. In 2010, MSU participated in the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament for the first time and claimed the event's championship.

The Bears won NAIA national championship titles in 1952 and 1953, while making six NAIA national tournament appearances from 1939-1954. MSU also appeared in the NCAA Division II Tournament 10 times, finishing as national runners-up on four occasions -- 1959, 1967, 1969 and 1974.

MSU has won 24 regular-season conference titles, including the 2010-11 MVC championship. The Bears have recorded 28 seasons of 20 or more victories, including 15 times during the Division I era and are averaging 22.0 wins per season over the last three years.

The Bears hold the distinction of having four of the 25 best RPI ratings ever to be left out on NCAA Tournament as at-large selections. The 2005-06 squad had the 21st-best RPI on Selection Sunday, while the 2006-07 team was No. 36 the following year, both of which resulted in Tournament snubs. Likewise, the 1999-2000 squad was ranked No. 34 a year after its Sweet 16 run and was left out of the big dance.

Missouri State University

Missouri State University is a public, comprehensive university system with a mission in public affairs, whose purpose is to develop educated persons while achieving five goals: democratizing society, incubating new ideas, imagining Missouri's future, making Missouri's future, and modeling ethical and effective behavior.

With an enrollment of 23,071 (fall 2012), MSU is the second-largest institution for higher learning in Missouri, and its identity is distinguished by its statewide mission in public affairs. This mission requires a campus-wide commitment to foster competence and responsibility in the common vocation of citizenship. Missouri State University is a selective admissions, graduate-level, teaching and research institution. MSU competes at the NCAA Division I level and is a member of the Missouri Valley Conference.

Notable Missouri State alums include: Ryan Howard (2009 NLCS MVP, first baseman, Philadelphia Phillies), John Goodman (actor), Kathleen Turner (actress), David Glass (owner, Kansas City Royals), John Q. Hammons (businessman, hotel developer), Bob Holden (43rd governor of Missouri), Bill Mueller (2003 American League batting champ), and Jackie Stiles (Division I career scoring leader).

Setting the Stage

The Missouri State Bears return to JQH Arena tonight to take on the red-hot Indiana State Sycamores in a key rematch between the squads on FOX Sports Midwest and the MVC TV Network.

Coach Greg Lansing's club is the hottest team in The Valley with six wins in the Sycamores' last eight games, including two in a row.

MSU leads the all-time series between the teams, 37-22, but ISU has enjoyed the role of spoiler when it comes to the Bears in recent years. The Sycamores dashed MSU's Valley Tournament hopes in 2011 with a 60-56 win in the MVC Finals at Scottrade, and then dashed Senior Night at The Q last season, 59-46. Earlier this season in Terre Haute, Gavin Thurman (Fr., F, Wichita, Kan.) scored a game-high 18 points and Anthony Downing (Sr., G, Atchison, Kan.) added 12 points and 7 rebounds, but a 17-3 run early in the second half by ISU spoiled an MSU halftime lead in an eventual 68-60 defeat.

All-MVC standout Jake Odum (Jr., G, Terre Haute, Ind.) leads ISU with 14.2 points per game and an amazing 186 free throw attempts. Gonzaga transfer Manny Arop (Jr., F, Edmonton, Alberta) is putting up 12.6 points and 5.0 rebounds per night with 25 3-pointers.

The Marshall's In Town

Marcus Marshall (Fr., G, St. Paul, Minn.) is coming off a career-high and game-high 19-point performance at No. 22 (USA Today) Wichita State on Saturday (Feb. 9). The Valley's top freshman scorer was 6-for-10 from the field and 3-of-6 from 3-point range against the Shockers while knocking down all four free throw attempts and registering a game-high 38 minutes.

Over the weekend, Marshall moved up to 9th on MSU's freshman scoring list (see p. 6) with 244 points (10.2 ppg) and now needs just 9 more points to catch Chuck Williams (1967-68) for 8th place.

Downing's Time to Break Nine

The Bears' top scorer and lone senior Anthony Downing (G, Atchison, Kan.) is averaging 13.8 points per game and has registered a team-high 18 double-figure scoring games this season. However, over the last four games -- including three road contests -- Downing has scored exactly 9 points.

His 19-game home double-figure scoring streak was snapped against Evansville (Feb. 2). He is averaging 15.7 points per game at home this season and 13.2 for his career at JQH Arena. Only Kyle Weems (14.0 ppg, 2008-12) has a higher career scoring average at JQH Arena than Downing.

Taking Care of the Ball

Since the 2010-11 season, only six teams in Division I basketball have committed fewer turnovers per game than the Bears (10.47): Wisconsin (8.57), Michigan (10.05), Northwestern (10.17), South Dakota State (10.22), Purdue (10.32) and Notre Dame (10.46). Cal Poly (10.72), UNI (10.77) and Ohio State (10.94) round out the top 10 possession guardians over the last three seasons.

As of Monday, the Bears rank 7th in the NCAA in fewest turnovers (10.5), tops in the MVC.

Scheer's In Gear

Nathan Scheer (Jr., G/F, Washington, Mo.) will appear in his 50th career Valley game when the Bears host the Sycamores. He has been Bears first substitute 40 times in his career -- nine times this season -- and has knocked down a 3-pointer in 9-of-13 league games this season, including 6 multiple 3-point games. He has upped his season scoring average 1.5 points since the start of league play and 20-for-44 (.455) from downtown in conference action.

MEDIA NOTE

All interview requests for MSU players and coaches must be directed through Director of Athletics Communications Rick Kindhart, without exception.

At least one media availability session will be scheduled each week, pending the team's practice and travel schedule as well as other commitments.

Pregame video interviews will be posted on MissouriStateBears.com, as well as postgame player and coach press conferences for all home ball games.

The Series

The series between the Bears and Sycamores dates back to the 1951-52 season with Missouri State holding a 37-22 all-time lead in the rivalry.

MSU is 24-5 against ISU in Springfield, including a 2-2 mark at JQH Arena. Last year the Sycamores played the role of spoiler on Senior Night at The Q, scoring a 59-46 win (Feb. 22, 2012) with Dwayne Lathan leading three ISU players in double figures with 12 points. The Bears shot a season-low 31.3 percent from the field, never led and lost on Senior Night for just the third time in their Division I era.

They Sycamores also earned a 68-60 victory in Terre Haute earlier this season (Jan. 16). A 17-3 ISU run early in the second half sunk the maroon squad, despite a game-high 18 points from Gavin Thurman (Fr., F, Wichita, Kan.) and 12 points from Anthony Downing (Sr., G, Atchison, Kan.).

ISU has not won three in a row against the Bears since a six-game streak from 1970-76.

The Opponent

Greg Lansing (South Dakota, 1990) is 53-37 in his third season at Indiana State and overall. He has one starter -- All-MVC second-teamer Jake Odum (6-4, Jr., G, Terre Haute, Ind.) -- back from an 18-15 club that was 8-10 (8th) in the league last year and earned a spot in the 2012 CIT.

This winter, Odum once again leads the Sycamores with 14.2 points and 4.3 rebounds along with team-bests 106 assists and 38 steals. Manny Arop (6-6, Jr., F, Edmonton, Alberta), a transfer from Gonzaga, had pitched in 12.6 points and 5.0 rebounds per game. Returner R.J. Mahurin (6-8, Jr., F, Rockville, Ind.) is scoring 9.8 points per outing, while with Justin Gant (6-8, So., C, Terre Haute, Ind.) is scoring 9.2 points with a team-high 4.6 rebounds in Valley games.

ISU is 4-6 on the road this season, including a 2-4 away ledger in Missouri Valley Conference games.

Bad Buzzer Beaters

MSU has lost 7 games over the last two seasons as a result of an opponent's field goal in the final 5 seconds. This year, the Bears have four such losses -- South Carolina, SMU, Evansville and Bradley.

Youth Movement

The Bears boast one of the youngest and least-experienced squads in the Division I ranks. Missouri State players have just 10 years of college basketball experience (including junior college and NAIA play) among its 12 active players (0.83) and is the 7th-youngest team in the NCAA's top division and the least-experienced program in The Valley. The Bears have just 7 years of Division I experience under their collective belts (0.58).

In the season opener against Philander Smith (Nov. 9), MSU's six freshmen combined for 55 points, 31 rebounds and 116 minutes. Against Alabama A&M (Dec. 18), the Bears' freshmen scored 36 points (of the team's 47). The Super Six also dropped 43 points (of the team's 66) on Bradley on Jan. 19, collected 50 (of 77) points on Jan. 30 at No. 17/22 Creighton and produced 34 (of 50) points at Wichita state (Feb. 9).

For the season, MSU's freshman players have combined to score at least 20 points in 16-of-25 games and are averaging 27.3 points per game as a group which accounts for 45.8 percent of team's scoring. This week, MSU is 13th nationally in freshman scoring percentage and 17th in freshman total points.

Bears on the Air

Today's game can be heard on KTXR (101.3 FM) and the MSU Bears Radio Network with Art Hains and former Bears' great Mike Keltner (1971-74) on the call. Hains is in his 32nd year and second stint as the voice of the Bears, and entered the season with 955 career MSU basketball games under his belt.

Line 'Em Up

The Bears have used 12 different starting lineups this season, surpassing the club's season total (11) from last year. Anthony Downing (Sr., G, Atchison, Kan.) is the only Bear to start every game this winter, followed by Marcus Marshall (Fr., G, St. Paul, Minn.) with 20 and Christian Kirk (So., F, Springfield, Mo.) with 19. In all, nine different Missouri State players have earned the starting call, including five freshmen.

Non-Conference Grind

The Bears were 2-10 against the league's second-toughest non-conference schedule and 41st toughest in the Division I ranks (at the time). Included in the 10 non-conference losses were a pair of Top 25 clubs (San Diego State and Oklahoma State), four losses by less than 10 points, and an overtime loss to SEC foe South Carolina. As of Feb. 12, MSU's non-Valley opponents are a collective 173-114 (.603).

"Super Six" Making History

Missouri State's freshman class has now accounted for 649 of the club's 1,441 points this season, which translates to 45.8 percent of the club's total offensive production. MSU's Super Six are averaging a collective 27.3 points per game as a unit and have also produced 47.2 percent of MSU's individual rebounds and 58 percent of the Bears' 3-pointers.

As of Monday, the Bears rank 13th nationally in freshman scoring percentage, 17th in total freshman points and 23rd in freshman points per game. See charts on p. 6.

Bears Reach Season Firsts Against Aces

After trailing 24-23 at the half against Evansville on Feb. 2, the Bears overcame their first halftime deficit of the season. MSU also won for the first time when trailing with five minutes left and for the first time when being out-rebounded.

Four Freshmen in the Lineup

For the first time on record, the Bears placed four freshmen in the starting lineup for the club's 78-72 home win over Drake on Jan. 27. Dorrian Williams (RFr., G, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma), Marcus Marshall (Fr., G, St. Paul, Minn.), Gavin Thurman (Fr., F, Wichita, Kan.) and Drew Wilson (RFr., F, Tulsa, Okla.) made history as MSU secured its seventh straight victory over the Bulldogs and registered a season-best 56.3 field goal percentage. The four starters combined for 25 points in the victory.

That same starting lineup, now 2-2, produced 50 freshman points at No. 17/21 Creighton (Jan. 30).

Williams Heats Up on Big Stage

Dorrian Williams (RFr., G, Oklahoma City, Okla.) scored a career-high 14 points at No. 17/21 Creighton with 4 treys on Jan. 30. He has started 14 games this season, including six in a row, and is part of a Missouri State class that is just 86 points shy of the school freshman unit record of 735 points (1963-64).

Hometown Heroes

Gavin Thurman (Fr., F, Wichita, Kan.) scored a career-high 21 points against his hometown Wichita State Shockers on Jan. 23. Earlier this season, Drew Wilson (RFr., F, Tulsa, Okla.) tallied 11 points and 11 rebounds at Tulsa (Dec. 5) before his hometown crowd.

Tackling the Top 25

MSU's Feb. 9 game at No. 22 (USA Today) Wichita State marked the Bears' sixth Top 25 opponent this season, which surpasses the 1998-99 season (4) for most ranked opponents on Missouri State's slate. The club's three home games against ranked foes this year -- No. 23 San Diego State (Nov. 17); No. 13 Creighton (Jan. 11) and No. 20 Wichita State (Jan. 23) -- is also a high-water mark for the program.

Thurman Snags Valley Newcomer of the Week Honors on Jan. 28

After dropping a career-high 21 points on his hometown Wichita State club Jan. 23, Gavin Thurman (Fr., F, Wichita, Kan.), was named MVC Newcomer of the Week on Jan. 28. Thurman also snagged a team-high 7 rebounds in the Bears' home win over Drake (Jan. 27) and finished the week averaging 15.0 points and 5.0 rebounds with five 3-pointers and 33.0 minutes per game.

Scheer Earns MVC Scholar-Athlete of the Week on Jan. 3

Nathan Scheer (Jr., G/F, Washington, Mo.) posted back-to-back double-figure scoring games for the first time in his career and was named Missouri Valley Conference Scholar-Athlete of the Week on Jan. 3. He scored a career-high 15 points on 5-of-5 shooting from 3-point range against Southern Illinois (Dec. 30) and followed that effort with 10 points and 5 rebounds with two 3-pointers at Evansville (Jan. 2). A Construction Management major with a 3.78 GPA, Scheer was a 2012 MVC Scholar-Athlete second-teamer.

Walk This Way

Since 2000, 40-of-45 (89%) seniors who completed their playing careers at Missouri State have earned their undergraduate degrees from MSU. Last season, all four seniors completed their bachelor's degrees by December of their final season.

Anthony Downing (Sr., Atchison, Kan.), a criminology major, is the only outgoing senior in 2012-13 and is on track to graduate in May. Fellow Bears Keith Pickens (Jr., St. Louis, Mo.) and Jarmar Gulley (Sr., Beaumont, Texas) are headed toward August 2013 graduation dates, while walk-on Ryan Carmichael (Jr., Aurora, Mo.) graduated Dec. 14 (Summa Cum Laude) with a degree in accounting and will begin working on his master's degree this spring.

The Marshall Plan

MSU's two freshman Marshalls -- Bruce and Marcus (no relation) -- were both in the starting lineup for road games at Alabama A&M (Dec. 18) and New Mexico State (Dec. 22).

Bruce Marshall (C, Fayette, Mo.) averaged 3.0 rebounds in his first two career starts, while, Marcus Marshall (G, St. Paul, Minn.) produced 11.5 points and 5.5 rebounds in the same two contests.

The pair comprise two of MSU's six active freshmen on this year's roster.

Drew Doubles Up ... Twice

Bears' redshirt freshman Drew Wilson (F, Tulsa, Okla.) recorded his second double-double of the season in the Bears' Nov. 5 loss at Tulsa, collecting 11 points and matching a career high 11 boards in his hometown. He was 4-for-4 from the field in the game and 3-for-6 at the line with 2 steals and 2 dunks.

In the season opener on Nov. 9, Wilson went 6-for-6 from the field, scored 12 points and snagged a game-high 11 boards in Missouri State's victory over Philander Smith, making him the first Bears' freshman to ever post a double-double in his debut game.

Hoops for Hope Classic

The Bears had two solid efforts on their trip to Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, for the finals of the Hoops for Hope Classic at the International Convention Center, Nov. 24-25. The tournament supported the National Urea Cycle Disorders Foundation.

MSU battled SEC foe South Carolina in the semifinals and had USC down and out in the game's deciding moments before a desperation 3-pointer by Michael Carrera found its mark at the horn to force overtime. USC made 10-of-12 free throws in OT to steal a 74-67 victory from the Bears despite a 17-point performance from Marcus Marshall and 16 points by Christian Kirk and Anthony Downing. The Bears also forced 25 turnovers, 20 in the first half.

MSU then locked up with Southern Methodist in the third-place game and battled all the way back from a nine-point second half deficit to take a 61-60 lead with 16.6 seconds to go after a Marcus Marshall 3-pointer. But the Mustangs, who attempted 27 more free throws and were outgunned 10-1 from 3-point range by the Bears, scored on a jumper by Nick Russell with 8.3 ticks left to win 62-61. Downing scored 20 points and snagged a career-high and game-high 8 rebounds, while Marshall contributed 18 with four 3-pointers in the narrow loss.

Downing (18.0 ppg.) made the all-tournament team, while Marcus Marshall (17.5 ppg) also stood out.

MWC-MVC Challenge

The Bears dropped a 60-44 decision to No. 23 San Diego State at JQH Arena on Nov. 17 in the first game of the 2012 Mountain West-Missouri Valley Conference Challenge. The Bears fell to 1-2 all-time in the event after a 58-48 home win over Air Force (12/5/09) and a 76-60 road loss at New Mexico (12/3/11) on its ledger.

With a 6-3 victory this year's Challenge, the Mountain West has improved to 2-1-1 in the event. The MVC won in 2009 by a 5-4 count, while the Mountain West dominated the 2010 series, 8-1. Last year, the leagues tied, 4-4. In total games played, the MWC now leads 22-13.

Valley Preseason Poll

MSU was tabbed eighth (out of 10) in the MVC preseason poll, marking just the sixth time since joining the league in 1990-91 the Bears have been predicted to finish in the lower division of the MVC.

The five previous years MSU was picked in the MVC's lower division, the Bears finished in fourth place or better three times. The 2009-10 club was picked ninth and finished seventh, but ended the year 24-12 overall and won the CIT postseason event. The 2011-12 team was picked sixth and finished tied for third.

In Elite Company

MSU head coach Paul Lusk is one of just 62 active Division I coaches who also earned all-conference honors at the DI level as a player. Lusk is joined on the elite list by 2012-13 coaching foes Larry Brown of SMU (played at North Carolina), Bryce Drew of Valparaiso (Valparaiso), Geno Ford of Bradley (Ohio), Travis Ford of Oklahoma State (Kentucky), Danny Manning of Tulsa (Kansas), Greg McDermott of Creighton (UNI), Dan Muller of Illinois State (Illinois State), and Marty Simmons of Evansville (Evansville).

Gulley Out for Season

Senior forward Jarmar Gulley (G/F, Beaumont, Texas) suffered a torn anterior cruciate ligament (ACL) in his right knee during a summer-league game on July 11 and will miss the entire 2012-13 season.

The injury was surgically repaired in early August, and Gulley is expected to return next season.

Where Are They Now?

Former MVC Player of the Year, Kyle Weems is playing in Bonn, Germany for the Telekom Baskets, where he is averaging 12.9 points and 4.8 rebounds per game for the 11-10 squad.

Also, from the 2011 MVC championship squad, Nafis Ricks is playing in Finland for the BC Jyvaskyla squad, which is 9-13. Ricks is averaging 23.8 points* per game with 9.8 rebounds and 4.8 assists. Will Creekmore, who was the MVP of the 2010 CIT postseason tournament, is averaging 3.0 points and 2.0 rebounds in 4 games played for the Tulsa 66ers (15-13) of the NBA D League. Jermaine Mallett, who played in Poland last year, is recovering from a torn meniscus and is looking at future options.

Other MSU greats playing overseas are: Blake Ahearn (China, 23.5 ppg, 4.3 rpg), Anthony Shavies (Ukraine, 10.1 ppg, 4.5 rpg), Deven Mitchell (Romania, 17.2 ppg*, 7.0 rpg*), Monwell Randle (Belgium, 4.9 ppg, 4.2 rpg), Robert Yanders (France) and Shelton Colwell (Japan, 0.5 ppg, 4.0 rpg). *leads team (as of 2/12/13)

2012-13 MISSOURI STATE GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARY

GAME 1

Nov. 9, 2012, JQH Arena, Springfield, Mo.
Missouri State 89, Missouri Western 61

Five Missouri State players scored in double figures, including three freshman, as the Bears secured an 89-61 win over visiting Philander Smith in the season opener for MSU.

Freshman standouts Gavin Thurman, Marcus Marshall and Drew Wilson led the way for MSU which won its 10th straight home opener. Thurman scored 19, Marshall added 16, and Wilson had 12 points and a game-high 11 boards. Christian Kirk (14) and Anthony Downing (12) also posted double figures for MSU.

The Bears broke the game open late as Thurman scored MSU's final 10 points, including a pair of 3-pointers, to push the home club's 22-point lead to 27 in the final 2:19 of the contest.

The Panthers climbed within 15 points three times in the second half, including a 12-2 run that got PSC back within 59-44 with 11:26 remaining. But Kirk, who scored eight consecutive MSU points earlier in the half, ended the MSU dry spell with a layup with just over 11 minutes to go to end the threat.

At the seven-minute mark, Kirk threw down his third dunk of the night, and Nathan Scheer struck with his second 3-pointer of the contest just seconds later to put the Bears up 73-51. The lead tetered between 18 and 22 points from there until Thurman's outburst late in the game.

Redshirt freshman Dorrian Williams had a game-high 8 assists for Paul Lusk's Missouri State team, which had 23 assists to 10 turnovers on the night.

Alvin Nance scored 11 points for PSC, which shot 17-for-52 (.327) from the field, 5-for-23 (.217) from bonus distance and 22-for-26 (.846) at the line.

In the early going, the Bears used an 11-0 run to end the first half and took a commanding 45-28 lead into the intermission. Missouri State trailed by as many as five points in the first stanza. A pair of free throws by Nance put the Panthers ahead 9-4 at the 14:40 mark, but MSU tied the game just over a minute later on a 3-pointer by freshman Michael Simpson.

After a 20-20 tie at the 9:13 mark, MSU capped a 12-2 run over the next three-and-a-half minutes with Downing scoring seven points in the stretch that resulted in a 32-22 lead with just under five minutes to go.

After a four-point play by Clayton Busby brought the Panthers back within 34-28 at the 3:34 mark, the Bears closed out the first stanza with 11 straight points, including five by Thurman, to lead by 17 at the break.

GAME 2

Nov. 17, 2012, JQH Arena, Springfield, Mo.
(23) San Diego State 60, Missouri State 44

Despite holding 23rd-ranked San Diego State to 32.2 percent shooting, the Bears couldn't overcome a strong Aztec defense in a 60-44 setback at JQH.

In a back-and-forth game of offensive runs for both clubs, SDSU saved its biggest spurt for crunch time, sealing the victory with a 19-5 scoring outburst after the Bears had trimmed the margin to four points with just over seven to go.

The Aztecs (2-1) got back-to-back 3-pointers from James Rahon and Chase Tapley to start their critical scoring run that would ultimately turn a 41-37 game into an 18-point cushion in the closing minutes. Jamaal Franklin scored seven of his game-high 22 points during the late run that the Bears could not answer.

San Diego State powered its late push with a strong defensive effort that limited the Bears to just 16-of-57 shooting for the game and held the home team without a field goal for more than five minutes down the stretch. The Aztecs also gashed the Bears on the boards to the tune of a 52-34 edge in total rebounding.

The Bears showed few jitters early on against the nationally-ranked Aztecs, using 3-pointers by Dorrian Williams and Keith Pickens to build a six-point lead by the first media timeout. But San Diego State's defense would clamp down to hold MSU scoreless over a five-minute span to allow the visitors time to erase their deficit. JJ O'Brien's field goal at the 11:59 mark made it an 8-8 game, but the Bears took advantage of an administrative technical foul assessed to SDSU two minutes later to kick off a 6-0 run. Anthony Downing knocked down both free throws to put MSU back on top, and Pickens converted a reverse layup before a Nathan Scheer steal led to a Downing bucket for a 14-8 Bears lead.

The Aztecs, which hit on just 4-of-22 (.182) attempts from beyond the arc, overcame an 0-for-10 start from 3-point range to knock down a pair of crucial threes in the closing minutes of the half to take control of the scoreboard with a 10-1 run, turning a tie game into a 29-20 lead at the break.

San Diego State stretched its lead to double-digits three different times in the first three minutes of the second stanza, but the Bears had an answer each time stay within striking distance. After an O'Brien tip-in at the 17:26 mark made it a 36-26 game, MSU would answer with a Christian Kirk basket and a Downing jumper from the left corner to slice the margin to six points with just over 13 minutes to go. The Bears wouldn't get closer until Downing's running one-hander with 7:21 left on the clock made it a 41-37 affair.

GAME 3

Nov. 19, 2012, JQH Arena, Springfield, Mo.
Jacksonville 64, Missouri State 58

Jacksonville rode a red-hot second-half shooting performance to a double-digit advantage over Missouri State, then held off the Bears' frantic rally to notch a 64-58 victory at JQH Arena. JU's Keith McDougald led the way for the visitors with 17 points, including a critical bucket with 34 ticks left on the clock that helped stem the Bears' late push.

The Dolphins, who shot .520 (13-of-25) from the field after intermission, led by as many as 14 points before the Bears whittled the margin to one point with just under two-and-a-half minutes to play. After a pair of Keith Pickens free throws made it a 59-58 contest and McDougald misfired from beyond the arc, MSU would have four shots at knocking down the go-ahead field goal, but the Dolphins defense would hold. Following the Bears' third offensive rebound of the possession, McDougald finally corralled Gavin Thurman's three-point miss, then drove the lane and converted from close range to give JU some much-needed breathing room with just over a half-minute to play.

MSU failed to get a shot off on its next trip down the court, and McDougald knocked down a pair of free throws with 11 seconds left to ice the victory.

The close finish came on the heels of a torrid Jacksonville shooting effort in the middle stages of the game that saw the visitors threaten to blow the contest wide open. JU caught fire from the field midway through the opening half to turn the tide in a back-and-forth contest. The Dolphins used a 13-4 scoring run to take control of the game and build a 30-26 halftime advantage.

The visitors kept the heat on the Bears to start the second stanza by cashing in on eight of their first 12 field goal tries to stretch the margin to double figures. Five different Dolphins scored as part of a 12-2 run that turned a four-point game into a 46-32 advantage for JU--the largest lead of the night for either club.

Trailing 52-38 with just under nine minutes to play, the Bears began their comeback, as Thurman scored five straight points in a span of 37 seconds, and Anthony Downing converted 1-of-2 free-throw attempts to pull MSU to within eight. The two teams traded free throws until Keith Pickens went on a personal 7-0 run to slice the JU lead to just three points. The Bears' junior scored in the paint with 6:08 to go to start the spurt, then converted two free throws before banking home a trey from the left wing to make it a 56-53 game with 4:43 left.

GAME 4

Nov. 21 2012, JQH Arena, Springfield, Mo.
Missouri State 82, Malone 49

Behind a balanced offensive attack and a strong defensive effort, Missouri State built a commanding first-half lead and never looked back in an eventual 82-49 victory. The Bears were successful on a season-best 10-of-21 (.476) 3-point attempts and buried MU with a 36-15 run over a 15-minute stretch.

Christian Kirk's 15-point, 8-rebound effort paced the Bears' attack, while Marcus Marshall tallied 15 points on an efficient 5-of-7 shooting night to go along with four assists, and Anthony Downing knocked down 4-of-7 attempts from beyond the arc to finish with 15 points as well.

The lopsided victory was powered by a solid Bears' defense that held MU to just .340 (17-of-50) shooting from the floor, marking the third time in four games MSU has limited an opponent to 34 percent or less shooting this season. The Bears also forced 16 Pioneer turnovers, which they converted into 26 points. Conversely, MSU handed out 19 assists while committing just six turnovers.

After a slow start, the Bears heated up behind a balanced scoring front that featured nine different players in the scoring column in the first half en route to a 38-22 lead. The Bears held the Pioneers without a field goal over the first 10 minutes of the game as MU missed its first 11 shots, while the MSU offense converted on 10-of-16 shots from the field over a nine-minute span to take control with a 20-4 scoring run.

After owning the interior in the first half to the tune of a 24-12 scoring advantage in the paint, the Bears turned their attention to the perimeter in the second, burying four triples--including two more by Downing--over the first nine minutes of the half to stretch the lead to 30 points. Keith Pickens's jumper in the paint with 18:23 to play started a 24-9 run over a 10-minute stretch that would ultimately seal the win for the Bears. The Bears would coast from that point, expanding the bulge to as many as 36 points in the closing minutes.

MSU finished the night with big advantages in points in the paint (40-26), points off turnovers (26-5) and bench scoring (35-17). Pickens posted a game-high 10 rebounds for the Bears, who out-boarded the Pioneers, 42-36.

GAME 5

Nov. 24, 2012, International Convention Ctr., Puerto Vallarta South Carolina 74, Missouri State 67 (ot)

A desperation three-pointer by South Carolina's Michael Carrera found its mark as time expired in regulation, and the Gamecocks pulled away late for a 74-67 overtime win in the Hoops for Hope Classic semifinals.

Missouri State had a pair of three-point leads in the final 33 seconds of regulation but missed two critical charity shots down the stretch to open the door.

Up 55-53 with 33.2 to go, Christian Kirk was intentionally fouled on a wide-open drive to the basket. He missed the front end, but converted the second to push the MSU advantage to three. Dorrian Williams was fouled on the ensuing inbound play after the Bears retained possession, but he missed the front end of the one-and-one, and South Carolina called a timeout to set up a play for Page who scored with 23.8 to go.

The Gamecocks then fouled Marcus Marshall, who had a team-high 17 points for MSU, and the freshman knocked down both free throws with 12.2 ticks left to push the Missouri State edge to 58-55. On the final sequence of regulation, the Bears' pressure defense had South Carolina in trouble as they pushed USC point guard Eric Smith out near the timeline in the final seconds. Forty feet from the basket, Smith wheeled an off-balance pass to Carrera just right of the circle, and the freshman found all net on his shot as time expired.

In overtime, Marcus Marshall was once again the step-up player for Missouri State as he knocked down an authoritative pull-up jumper just 22 seconds into the extra period. But the Bears would go the next four minutes without a field goal, missing four shots, two free throw attempts and two turnovers in that span.

Meanwhile, the exhausted Gamecocks rallied behind the Bears' mishaps and got a floater from Brenton Williams to fall at the 1:43 mark as the shot clock expired to gain a 64-60 advantage. MSU would get no closer, as the Southeastern Conference foes made 10-of-12 free throws from there.

Williams sliced a 3-pointer through with 31.3 ticks left for the Springfield club, while Anthony Downing scored a pair of lightly-contested buckets late to account for the final seven-point margin.

Downing and Kirk each had 16 points for Missouri State, which missed out on 12 charity points, going just 16-for-28 (.571) at the line.

GAME 6

Nov. 25, 2012, International Convention Ctr., Puerto Vallarta Southern Methodist 62, Missouri State 61

A jumper by Nick Russell with 8.3 seconds to go was the difference as SMU escaped with a 62-61 win in the third-place game of the Hoops for Hope Classic.

The Bears took a 61-60 lead briefly on a 3-pointer by Marcus Marshall with 16.6 seconds left before Mustangs' coach Larry Brown called a timeout to set up the winning play. Nearly everyone in the Puerto Vallarta International Convention Center knew SMU would turn to Russell who finished with a game-high 25 points, but Marshall knocked it out of the SMU star's hands and out of bounds on his first drive to the basket. However, the Mustangs didn't misfire again, triggering the in-bounds play directly to Russell who knocked down a short jumper.

The Bears rushed down the court in the deciding moments, hoping to get the last score of the evening, but Marshall's three from the left wing was blocked. No foul call was made as time expired on Marshall's shot, and the horn sounded to dash MSU's hopes.

Anthony Downing, who was named to the all-tournament team had 20 points and a game-high 8 rebounds for Missouri State, while Marshall finished with 18, and Christian Kirk scored 8.

The comeback effort by Paul Lusk's Bears looked as gritty and determined as the one the previous night against South Carolina. Down 41-32 with just 12:49 to go and reeling from a barrage of foul calls, the Bears began stepping up against SMU. Dorrian Williams dropped in a 3-pointer just 14 seconds after the team faced its largest deficit of the night, and on its next possession Missouri State turned to Tomie Aromona who drilled a trey from the left baseline to make it a 41-38 game. Then, at the 8:27 mark, Marshall knocked down his third 3-pointer of the night to tie the game at 43.

Downing and Keith Pickens would do their part late in the game to keep the Bears in it as they converted game-tying field goals in traffic. Downing hit a pair of game-tying 3-pointers in the span of two minutes, while Pickens' tip-in was his only bucket of the night, but a huge one with just over five minutes left.

At the 3:56 mark, Downing's final trey of the night knotted the score at 51, but foul calls down the stretch caught up to MSU. The Mustangs would benefit from five charity shots during a clutch spot in the game, including a traditional 3-point play by Jones with 1:54 to go. Russell later got to the line with a whistle away from the ball to put SMU up 60-55 with 38 seconds left.

2012-13 MISSOURI STATE GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARY

GAME 7

Dec. 1, 2012, JQH Arena, Springfield, Mo.

Oral Roberts 72, Missouri State 52

Missouri State outscored visiting Oral Roberts by five in the second half, but a rough first-half performance was too much to overcome as the visiting Golden Eagles handed the Bears their worst home loss since 1980.

Warren Niles had a game-high 21 points for ORU, which snapped a three-game losing streak behind a 52-percent team shooting performance. Anthony Downing scored 18 for Missouri State, including 13 in the second half.

The Bears trailed 40-15 at the intermission as they shot just 20 percent from the field and 1-for-15 from 3-point distance in the first stanza. A Christian Kirk layup just under two minutes into the contest put MSU ahead 2-0, but Oral Roberts responded with 19 straight points over the next nine minutes to set the pace. MSU got a pair of free throws from Dorrian Williams with just under nine minutes left in the opening period before a Kirk hook shot at 8:19 marked Missouri State's first field goal in 10 minutes.

Meanwhile, ORU shot lights out on a 15-for-27 (.556) clip in the first 20 minutes and built its largest lead of the opening half on a 3-pointer at the buzzer by Niles that gained a 25-point lead for the visiting squad.

The second half started with Damen Bell-Holter scoring the first nine points of the period for Oral Roberts, the last of which pushed the visitors ahead by 30 points, 49-19. A Shawn Glover layup at the 15-minute mark gave ORU its largest lead of the night, 51-19.

After another Glover jumper at the 7:01 mark made it a 67-36 game, the Bears began a 16-5 run to cut their deficit to 20. Downing scored seven points in the span of two minutes, while Drew Wilson, Williams and Kirk helped the run with solid field goals late in the half.

Missouri State also got 10 points and 8 rebounds from Kirk, while Downing had a pair of assists and both of MSU's 3-pointers.

The team finished 20-for-66 (.303) from the field and tied the JQH Arena record for field goal attempts for the third time this season. The Bears were 2-for-26 (.077) from bonus distance and made 10-of-16 (.625) foul shots. MSU was out-rebounded 44-34 but committed just 8 turnovers.

GAME 8

Dec. 5, 2012, Reynolds Center, Tulsa, Okla.

Tulsa 61, Missouri State 42

Missouri State shot less than 30 percent from the field and committed 15 turnovers in a 61-42 loss at Tulsa University, the club's fourth straight defeat. Hometown product Drew Wilson had game highs 11 points and 11 rebounds to lead MSU.

The Bears played a near-even first half, matching TU in field goals and 3-pointers, but trailed 28-22 with Tulsa getting six more free throws. The Bears stormed out of the gates in the second half, scoring the first four points on a Christian Kirk 10-footer and a Wilson steal and dunk to make it a 28-26 game.

But back-to-back three-point plays by Tulsa pushed the home club back ahead by eight as Ray and Kauri Black converted big plays in the first three minutes of the second stanza. MSU cut its deficit to six points twice with Marcus Marshall hitting a pair of free throws and a 20-foot jumper over the next couple of minutes. But a dunk by D'Andre Wright and baseline drive by Shaquille Harrison pushed TU ahead by 10 to match its biggest lead to that point, 40-30, at the 14-minute mark.

MSU responded with a 5-0 run with Wilson hitting a layup and getting 2-of-4 free throws to fall, while Kirk converted a charity shot at the 12:14 mark to make it a 40-35 contest. But the Bears would never get any closer from there. MSU went more than five minutes without a field goal until a Dorrian Williams leaner with eight-and-a-half minutes to play.

Tulsa, meanwhile, got a pair of timely 3-pointers over a 90-second span to push its lead to 15 with just under five minutes to go, and the Bears scored just twice more -- a free throw by Marshall and a layup by Williams -- in a contest that got stretched out late.

MSU finished 15-for-51 (.294) from the field and 1-for-19 (.053) from 3-point range. The Bears were 11-for-21 (.524) at the line with Marshall making 7-of-10 and Wilson making 3-of-6 at the stripe. Missouri State was out-rebounded 33-32 but got 12 offensive boards and six second-chance points.

In the first half, Kirk pulled the Bears within 22-20 at the 3:20 mark, TU scored four of its last six points of the period at the free throw line, including two shots by James Woodard on what was ruled a flagrant foul on Keith Pickens. TU made both free throws, but was unable to take advantage of the extra possession from the controversial call, and the Bears scored the final bucket of the period on a floater by Williams.

GAME 9

Dec. 8, 2012, Gallagher-Iba Arena, Stillwater, Okla.
(22) Oklahoma State 62, Missouri State 42

A solid second-half effort for Missouri State was not enough to overcome a sizable first-half deficit as No. 22-ranked Oklahoma State got 15 points from Markel Brown to pace a 62-42 victory over the visiting Bears.

Christian Kirk had 8 points and 7 rebounds for MSU, while Anthony Downing added 8 points. Gavin Thurman, Dorrian Williams and Nathan Scheer scored 6 points apiece for the Bears, who shot 46.2 percent in the second half and outscored the Cowboys 29-28 over the final 20 minutes.

However, Missouri State was just 6-for-28 (.214) from the field in the first half to fall behind 34-13 at the break. MSU responded passionately out of the gates in the second half. Kirk hit a quick layup on the first possession of the half to spark the rally, Marcus Marshall made a free throw on a flagrant OSU foul call, and Drew Wilson hit a layup in the first minute. Then, Kirk connected on a turn-around jumper before a Scheer 3-pointer made it a 34-23 game at 16:48.

Oklahoma State went five-and-a-half minutes without a field goal before it got a Le'Bryan Nash bucket at the 15:29 mark. Over the next four minutes, the lead teetered between 13 and 11 points for the Cowboys with Kirk scoring a reverse layup, and Thurman dropping in two quick baskets for the visitors, each one bringing the Bears back within 11 points of the lead.

But after a 3-pointer by Kirby Gardner pushed OSU's advantage to 45-31 at the 11:31 mark, the Cowboys reeled off 11 straight points. The Bears went cold for a five-minute stretch, and the home club ran its advantage to 53-31.

Williams broke the cold spell with a reverse layup for Missouri State with just under seven minutes to play, and Downing capitalized on a pair of rare free throws 30 seconds later to get the Bears' deficit to 53-35. But OSU, which was ranked No. 22 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll and No. 23 by the AP, outscored the Bears 9-7 in the final six minutes to stretch the final margin to 20.

The Bears finished 18-for-54 (.333) from the field, their best shooting effort since returning from Puerto Vallarta. The difference came on the boards with OSU dominating the glass by a 46-22 margin, including 15 offensive caroms the Cowboys turned into 12 second-chance points. OSU also took advantage of its free throw chances, making 16-of-23 (.696) from the line, compared to the Bears who were 3-of-7 (.429) from the stripe in limited opportunities.

MSU defended OSU to just 4-of-23 (.174) from 3-point range, marking the fourth time in nine games MSU held its foes under 20 percent from bonus range.

GAME 10

Dec. 15, 2012, JQH Arena, Springfield, Mo.
Valparaiso 62, Missouri State 54

Valparaiso got 20 points from recently-eligible transfer Lavonte Dority and out-rebounded Missouri State by 18 to claim a 62-54 win over the Bears.

MSU trimmed a 12-point second-half deficit to four points twice in the final 62 seconds. Both times, the Bears got to the line with the potential of making it a one-possession game, but failed to convert charity shots.

The Crusaders, the preseason faves in the Horizon League, also got 15 points and 9 rebounds from Ryan Broekhoff and 10 points from Bobby Capobianco.

Valpo quickly overcame a 26-24 halftime deficit with a 4-0 run to start the second half as Broekhoff's 3-pointer less than a minute into the second period gave the Crusaders a 28-26 lead. Downing tied the game 38 seconds later with a quick jumper for the Bears, but VU got another trey from Dority on its next trip to take a three-point advantage again.

Kirk drew the home club back within 31-30 on a jumper off a designed in-bounds play at the 17:55 mark before a 6-0 run by the Crusaders over the next five-and-a-half minutes stretched the visitors' lead to 37-30. Missouri State held Valpo to just three field goals in the final 16:17 of the contest, but the Crusaders lured the Bears into a chippy physical battle to try to win the game at the line.

Valpo stretched its advantage to 12 points when Ben Boggs capped an 8-1 run with a 3-pointer from the right wing with six-and-a-half minutes to play.

But the Bears responded as Marshall hit a layup with just over five minutes to go, and Nathan Scheer reeled off five straight MSU points, capped by a long ball just shy of the three-minute mark to make it 49-42. Valparaiso would attempt 18 free throws in the final three minutes, but missed three of their first six attempts to open the door. The Bears capitalized with quick baskets by Kirk and Marshall, and then a three-ball by Marshall at the 1:18 mark made it 54-49.

With 62 seconds to go, Downing knocked down a 3-pointer to bring the Bears back within 56-52, and after a pair of free throw misses by Erik Buggs, MSU got the ball back. Kirk was then fouled on the way to the basket, but missed the front end of a one-and-one to keep the margin at four with 36 ticks to play.

Broekhoff answered with another pair of charity shots for the Crusaders, but Downing scored behind a lightning-quick slash to the rim and a foul for a chance at a traditional three-point play with 29 ticks to go. However, the Bears once again missed a key charity shot, and the margin remained 58-54. Valparaiso converted its final four free throws to make the final margin 62-54.

GAME 11

Dec. 18, 2012, T.M. Elmore Gymnasium, Huntsville, Ala.
Alabama A&M 59, Missouri State 47

A slow start to the second half by Missouri State and solid inside play by Alabama A&M was the difference in AAMU's 59-47 victory over the visiting Bears.

Marcus Marshall scored a game-high 16 points as the only MSU player in double figures. Alabama A&M got 16 points and 14 rebounds from Demarquette Tabb, while Jeremy Crutcher scored 12, and Brandon Ellis added 10 points.

After taking a 25-24 lead into the half on a 3-pointer at the buzzer by Gavin Thurman, the Bears appeared to have momentum on their side. But after the intermission, the Bulldogs (3-6) made five of their first 11 shots on a 13-2 run in the first four minutes to sprint out to a 37-27 advantage. The visitors would get no closer than eight the rest of the game, thanks in part to a 40-23 rebounding advantage by Alabama A&M and 24 Bulldog points in the paint.

The Bears limited AAMU to 23 field goals and forced 8 turnovers, but were able to convert just 8 second-half field goals en route to a .333 shooting percentage over the game's final 20 minutes.

After a put-back by Justan Banks at the 15:48 mark made it a 37-27 game, MSU came out of a timeout with a quick basket by Kirk to cut its deficit back to single figures. But A&M responded with two quick layups in less than minute to stretch the Bulldogs' lead to 12. Later in the second half, Marcus Marshall started a mini-run by the Bears, and classmate Michael Simpson responded with a power layup to get it back to 41-33. But, the Bears would convert just one field goal over the next five minutes and trailed 50-37 with 7:38 to play.

Marcus Marshall dropped in five unanswered points to get the Bears back within eight at the 6:53 mark, including his second trey of the game. But Missouri State managed just one field goal -- a bucket by Downing at the 1:46 mark -- the rest of the game to fall by 12.

The Bears' five freshmen in uniform accounted for 36 of their 47 points. For the game, MSU was 18-for-47 (.383) from the field and 3-of-10 (.300) from long range. The Bears, who dropped their seventh straight, were 8-for-12 (.667) at the line and collected 23 rebounds, including 6 by Downing, with just 3 turnovers on the night.

In the first half, Thurman's trey gave the Bears a one-point edge and helped the visiting squad shoot 41 percent from the field in the first half. MSU went on an 8-2 run to end the half after trailing 22-17 at the 4:21 mark.

GAME 12

Dec. 22, 2012, Pan American Center, Las Cruces, N.M.
New Mexico State 71, Missouri State 51

Seven-foot-five center Sim Bhullar had a career high 25 points, and New Mexico State shot 54 percent from the field to dispatch the Bears, 71-51.

Anthony Downing scored 17, and Gavin Thurman added 10 for the Bears who dropped their eighth in a row to fall to 2-10 on the young season.

The Aggies overcame 16 turnovers and tallied just five offensive rebounds, but took control of the game with a 12-0 run that started late in the first half. NMSU scored the final 10 points of the first period after the Bears had trimmed an early six-point deficit to 24-23 on a pair of Downing free throws with 5:27 to play. The Aggies then reeled off 10 straight points and extended their 34-23 halftime lead with the first bucket of the second stanza. Marcus Marshall broke the cold spell with a free throw at the 19:11 mark of the second for Missouri State.

MSU's woes extended nearly eight-and-a-half minutes without a field goal before Downing got a layup to fall at the 17:18 mark that made it a 42-27 game at the time. On New Mexico State's next trip, Tyrone Watson scored for the Aggies to push the home club's lead to 17, its largest until the final two minutes of the night.

Watson's shot was one of just three field goals New Mexico State would score over a nine-minute span, while the Bears made runs to trim their deficit to 11 three different times. Thurman scored three times in that span for the Bears, Drew Wilson had a dunk back, and Downing accounted for seven points on the run, including a key trey that made it a 58-47 contest with 5:20 remaining.

But just like the first half, the final five minutes belonged to the Aggies.

With most of its starters still on the floor late, New Mexico State stretched its advantage with three dunks in the final two-and-a-half minutes. The exhausted Bears' defense featured four freshmen on the floor most of the second period, and MSU continued to give NMSU's ball handlers a hard time until it ran out of gas late to let the final margin get away.

Missouri State also collected 30 rebounds, including 10 on the offensive end, and committed 12 turnovers.

New Mexico State got 30 points in the paint on the night, compared to just eight by the visitors.

GAME 13

Dec. 30, 2012, JQH Arena, Springfield, Mo.
Missouri State 70, Southern Illinois 59

MSU got 16 points from Anthony Downing and a career-high 15 from Nathan Scheer to turn back visiting Southern Illinois, 70-59, in the MVC opener.

The Bears shot a season-best 54.1 percent from the field and 87 percent from the free throw line to break an eight-game losing streak and improve to 20-3 in Valley home openers since joining the league in 1990-91. MSU also got double figures from Marcus Marshall who tallied 11 points and a team-high 6 rebounds.

The Salukis, who trailed 39-32 at the intermission, came out of the locker room with a purpose to start the second period. Coach Barry Hinson's squad scored 12 of the first 14 points in the second half and led 44-41 after a pair of free throws by Desmar Jackson at the 14:56 mark. The Bears, however, seized control from there and went on a 17-2 run over the game's next six minutes with four 3-pointers in that stretch, including two by Scheer. MSU matched its biggest lead of the game on a trey by Marcus Marshall at the 6:14 mark that made it a 58-46 contest.

Southern scratched back late in the contest with a layup by Jackson and put-back by Jeff Early on back-to-back trips to cut the Salukis' deficit to 62-55. But Missouri State used a strong running layup by Marshall to regain control and then made 6-of-8 free throws in the final 1:41 to seal the victory.

The Bears finished 20-for-37 from the floor and 10-of-17 (.588) from bonus distance, matching a season-high for 3-pointers. MSU was also 20-for-23 at the line and out-rebounded the visitors by a 26-20 margin. Paul Lusk's troops committed just eight turnovers on the night and got 28 points off the bench with MSU's reserves combining to shoot 9-of-11 from the field, including 5-of-5 by Scheer -- all threes.

The win was the seventh straight for Missouri State in the series with SIU, which dates to 1957.

After a warm reception for Hinson in pregame introductions, the 7,662 JQH Arena faithful saw three ties and four lead changes in the early going of the classic maroon vs. maroon rivalry. The Bears then found a groove and took over on a trey by Gavin Thurman that made it a 16-13 game at the 12:22 mark of the opening period. Just over four minutes later, the Bears went on an 11-2 run that saw the home club build its advantage to 37-25 on a 3-ball by Marshall. The Salukis ended the half with a 7-2 spurt, including treys by Brown-Surles and Jalen Pendleton in the final 3:37.

GAME 14

Jan. 2, 2013, Ford Center, Evansville, Ind.
Evansville 62, Missouri State 59 (ot)

Missouri State battled home standing Evansville to the third overtime classic between the clubs in four meetings, only to fall short, 62-59.

The Bears got 17 points and 9 rebounds from Anthony Downing, while Nathan Scheer added 10. Evansville was led Egidijus Mockevicius with 18 points, while Troy Taylor added 19 rebounds for the Purple Aces. Taylor's career total was just 3 shy of an MSU opponent record and was the most by a guard in the Missouri Valley Conference in 25 seasons.

MSU nearly pulled off a miracle comeback, overcoming a four-point deficit in the final 15 seconds with a key basket by Scheer with 7.6 seconds to go before Downing stole the inbound pass and scored the tying layup with 4.4 to go to force the extra period.

In overtime, Evansville went 5-for-8 from the field, including a key jumper by Ned Cox with 5.4 seconds left to seal the win. Downing launched a 35 footer at the horn in MSU's attempt at another miraculous tying basket, but it fell just short.

Early in the second half, MSU fell behind by double figures for the first time when a pair of free throws by Egidijus Mockevicius made it a 27-17 game just over two minutes into the period. A jumper by Colt Ryan a minute later made it 29-19 before the Bears began their run.

A put-back by Keith Pickens and a flurry of 3-pointers -- two by Scheer and one by Gavin Thurman -- over a two minute span brought MSU back within 32-30 at the 12:46 mark. Colt Ryan ended the 12-3 MSU run with a jumpshot 20 seconds later to give UE a four-point cushion.

That's when Downing took over for the Bears. The club's lone active senior reeled off the Bears' next 8 points, including two go-ahead baskets in a two-minute stretch.

After the clubs exchanged leads and broke two ties, Thurman put MSU on top again with a huge 3-pointer at the 3:49 mark. The Bears eventually built that into a 47-43 lead with a Pickens basket at the 3-minute mark. The home team got to the foul line four times in the final 2:18 and made all four shots. A pair of foul shots by Ryan capped an 8-0 run by the home team with 15.3 to go gave the Aces a 51-47 lead before MSU's impressive last-minute heroics.

2012-13 MISSOURI STATE GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARY

GAME 15

Jan. 5, 2013, Knapp Center, Des Moines, Iowa
Missouri State 77, Drake 65

Anthony Downing scored a season-high 24 points, and Missouri State shot 51 percent from the field to capture its first road win of the season, 77-65.

Gavin Thurman added 13 points for the Bears, while Marcus Marshall scored 11, and Keith Pickens added 10 as MSU claimed its sixth straight win over the Bulldogs. Nathan Scheer also pitched in with a game-high and career-high 8 rebounds for Paul Lusk's squad.

The Bears trailed for the first 97 seconds, but never fell behind again after Downing tied the game up with his first field goal of the night. MSU built its advantage to 16 points in the first half and led 36-26 at the intermission.

Drake opened the second half with a 12-4 run in the first four minutes to make it a 40-38 game after a 3-point play by Utah transfer Chris Hines. The Bears responded with a 3-pointer by Marshall to give the visitors some breathing room, 43-38. But Drake rallied again with a basket by Hines and a contested jumper by Ben Simons made it a one-point contest with 14:16 to go.

Missouri State pitched a shut out for the next four-and-a-half minutes and stretched its lead to nine with a Downing layup and three consecutive baskets by Pickens, including his first dunk of the year, to make it 51-42 with just over 10 minutes remaining.

Drake took advantage of a trio of traditional 3-point plays over the next three minutes to pull back within 55-53 just over seven minutes on the clock. But once again, the Bears had an answer. A 30-foot bomb by Downing gave the Bears a five-point cushion before he made a free throw with just under 5 minutes to play. Pickens closed out the 6-0 MSU outburst with a baseline pull-up jumper that made it a 61-53 game at the 4:05 mark.

Mark Phelps' squad put together one final rally from there, collecting layups from Jordan Clarke and Simons over the next minute to make it a four-point game. But Thurman's second trey of the night at the 2:05 mark found its mark and put the maroons ahead 64-57.

The Bears made 11-of-12 free throws from there and closed out their second double-figure victory in conference play.

The Bears bounced back from a 1-for-7 start at the charity stripe to finish 19-for-28 (.679) at the line, matching a season high for free throw attempts.

GAME 16

Jan. 8, 2013, JQH Arena, Springfield, Mo.
Missouri State 62, Illinois State 65

Missouri State got 24 points from Anthony Downing and held visiting Illinois State to a season-low scoring total in a 62-55 victory over the Redbirds here.

The Bears led by as many as 12 in the second half and held on late as Downing made 6-of-8 free throws in the final 68 seconds to secure MSU's second conference win in a row. Downing also contributed a career-high 8 assists, while Marcus Marshall added 14 points for the Bears.

MSU used a 13-0 run late in the opening period to overcome their largest deficit of the game. After a layup by Johnny Hill with just under five minutes to go in the first half gave the Redbirds a 20-17 advantage, Downing scored 9 points during a three-minute, 14-second stretch to give MSU a 30-20 lead.

ISU trimmed the double-figure deficit to 32-25 at the half and then rallied around senior Jackie Carmichael to open the second period. Carmichael, who finished with 21 points and a game-high 12 rebounds, scored Illinois State's first 9 points of the second period, including a dunk that made it a 38-34 contest.

On the dunk, Hill was whistled for a technical foul for taunting, and the Bears made one of the two technical shots. Moments later, Kaza Keane knocked down a trey for the Redbirds to bring ISU back within 39-37.

The Bears, however, had an answer and embarked on a 10-0 scamper over a four-minute stretch to increase their lead to 49-37. Nathan Scheer knocked down a pair of key 3-pointers, Marshall sliced through a 17-footer, and Downing answered Keane's trey with a driving layup. The cumulative effect of the run caused ISU coach Dan Muller to use a timeout with 10:12 to go.

The Valley's preseason No. 2 team responded quickly as Hill scored on a traditional 3-point play, Bryant Allen nailed a floater, and Carmichael had three points on the 8-0 run by the Redbirds in the span of less than three minutes.

Ahead 49-45 with 7:26 to play, Downing ended Illinois State's rally and seemed to will the Bears to victory from there. At the 7:08 mark, he drove to the basket and scored a contested layup. After ISU trimmed its deficit to 53-50 with four-and-a-half to go, Downing got to the rim again and pushed the home club ahead by five. And after Carmichael made it a 56-52 game with 71 seconds remaining, it was Downing who answered the call down the stretch, making 6-of-8 free throws in the clutch, including four in a row to seal the victory.

Downing made 7-of-10 field goals overall, and connected on 2-of-4 3-pointers.

2012-13 MISSOURI STATE GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARY

GAME 17

Jan. 11, 2013, JQH Arena, Springfield, Mo.

(13) Creighton 74, Missouri State 52

No. 13 Creighton got a JQH Arena record 39 points from Doug McDermott, including 28 in the second half, to push the visiting Bluejays past MSU, 74-52.

The Bears were led by Keith Pickens with 11 points and 4 rebounds, while Anthony Downing and Gavin Thurman scored 10 apiece.

MSU held serve in the first half to force four ties and 10 lead changes, but let the visitors go into the intermission with a 4-0 run before the break. Creighton collected a 3-pointer by Jahenns Manigat with 35 seconds left in the opening stanza to give CU a 32-27 advantage at the midway point.

Creighton let McDermott take over from there. The junior tallied Creighton's first 18 points of the second half and made his first 10 shots, pushing the visitors ahead 50-32 just over seven minutes into the second period. He made 10-of-11 field goal attempts in the second period alone and 15-of-19 for the game, to hand the Omaha club its 10th straight victory.

The Bears kept clawing and used the energy of its largest home drawing of the season to cut their deficit to 13 with just over eight minutes left to go. Back-to-back 3-pointers by Nathan Scheer and Michael Simpson made the score 57-44 at the time. But as it did all night, the visitors rallied behind McDermott who knocked down a trey and later made all three free throws from a soft shooting foul to push the Jays back ahead by 21 two-and-a-half minutes later.

MSU held CU to just one field goal in the final 3:38, and got its final shots from freshmen Simpson and Bruce Marshall to close out a frustrating second half.

The Bears were out-rebounded by a 35-22 margin on the night, but collected 10 caroms on the offensive end, including four by Pickens. Coach Paul Lusk's squad finished 22-for-58 (.379) from the field, with 11 field goals in each half, and a disappointing 5-for-23 (.217) from 3-point range. MSU got to the foul line just four times, making three, with the Jays committing just 10 fouls. MSU also had just eight turnovers and collected five steals.

Nine Missouri State players scored, including 19 collective points from the five freshman in uniform. Marcus Marshall sat out with an ankle sprain.

GAME 18

Jan. 16, 2013, Hulman Center, Terre Haute, Ind.

Indiana State 68, Missouri State 60

Missouri State's Gavin Thurman scored a game-high 18 points, and Anthony Downing added 12 points and 7 rebounds, but a series of second-half runs pushed home standing Indiana State past the Bears, 68-60.

After holding a 31-27 lead at the half, the Bears gave up a quick bucket by Justin Gant to start the second stanza, but answered with a 3-pointer by Marcus Marshall to move ahead 34-29 inside the first minute. But the Sycamores throttled control away from the visitors over the next six minutes, going on a 17-3 run and forcing five MSU turnovers to lead 46-37 with 12:45 to play.

With just over 12 minutes to go, MSU scored on back to back possessions to make it 46-42 after Downing scored, and Dorian Williams dropped in a long 3-pointer. But Dawon Cummings single-handedly carried ISU for the next six minutes with only Thurman managing points for the Bears until Pickens made one of two free throws with 7:37 on the clock. Devonte Brown extended the Indiana State lead to as many as 14, scoring six points in a 10-1 Sycamores' run that gave the home club a 60-46 advantage with three-and-a-half remaining.

Downing started a 6-0 Bears' spurt from there with a pair of free throws. Thurman then knocked down a 15-footer before a Downing runner brought the visitors back within 60-52 with just over two minutes on the clock. And, in the final 90 seconds, Indiana State missed 5-of-10 free throws to give Missouri State a chance.

Thurman pushed the deficit back to single digits with a long jumper with 79 seconds remaining, and then with 27.4 left, Nathan Scheer collected a steal and knocked down a long trey that made it 66-60. MSU then fouled Lucas Eitel who missed both free throws and opened the door even wider. But Missouri State failed to capitalize on the opportunity, and after Scheer forced a contested 30 footer, ISU snagged a critical carom to get back to the line.

With the game in the balance, Cummings made both free throws to seal the win for the Sycamores and send the Hulman Center crowd of 5,593 home happy.

The Bears also got 9 points from Christian Kirk and 7 from Keith Pickens.

In the first half, the Bears never trailed after Thurman, in his second career start, came out firing with the Bears' first 9 points in just under five minutes. A short jumper by Kirk at the 14:32 mark made it an 11-4 game to match the visitors' largest lead of the opening period.

GAME 19

Jan. 19, 2013, Carver Arena, Peoria, Ill.
Bradley 69, Missouri State 66

A banked-in 3-pointer at the buzzer lifted home standing Bradley past Missouri State, 69-66. The Bears overcame a 16-point deficit to tie the game with 4.3 seconds remaining on a drive to the bucket by Anthony Downing. MSU then applied pressure to the Braves on the in-bound play and pushed Walt Lemon, Jr., out deep on the right wing where he heaved a desperation shot toward the basket, which caromed off the glass and in for the win.

Lemon had a game-high 20 points for the Braves, while MSU was led by Gavin Thurman, Downing and Marcus Marshall with 13 apiece.

The Bears matched a season high with 15 turnovers, but out-rebounded the larger Bradley club 33-25 and used a 58.3 percent shooting clip in the second half to mount the comeback effort. The Bears also produced their highest-scoring half of the season with 46 points in the second stanza, while MSU's six freshman combined for 43 points on the afternoon.

After trailing by 15 at the break, MSU stormed out of the gates in the second half, reeling off the first six points of the period and capping an 11-2 run in the first three minutes to pull within 37-31. Bradley pushed back ahead by double figures briefly as Lemon snagged a steal and took it coast-to-coast at the 15:41 mark to make it 41-31, but the Bears kept their focus.

Keith Pickens started a Bears' 6-2 run with an offensive rebound and layup, followed by a 15-footer by Christian Kirk as the shot clock expired, and a steal and layup by Downing that made it a five-point game with just under 14:00 left.

After Bradley center Will Egolf picked up his fourth foul at the 11:46 mark, the Bears reeled off five unanswered points at the line to climb within 50-47 at the midway point. The home club then manufactured an 11-2 run from there to go up by 10 with eight-and-a-half minutes remaining.

Bradley kept a double-figure lead with 3:57 to go when a free throw by Kirk made it 63-53. But MSU got a pair of 3-pointers from Thurman, a traditional 3-point play by Marcus Marshall and a tip-in by Dorrian Williams to make it a 66-64 contest with 1:03 left. In the final minute, the Bears forced BU's Jake Eastman into a missed bonus ball from the left corner and called a timeout with 14.9 seconds on the clock. Downing found a seam from the top of the key and drove to the basket to tie the game with 3.7 seconds showing. The officials reset the clock to 4.3 after the replay review, giving Bradley time to get the ball to Lemon for the win.

GAME 20

Jan. 23, 2013, JQH Arena, Springfield, Mo.
(20) Wichita State 62, Missouri State 52

Cleanthony Early had 17 points and 11 rebounds to lead visiting Wichita State past Missouri State, 62-52. The Bears dropped their fourth straight league game despite a career-high 21 points from Wichita native Gavin Thurman and 14 from Anthony Downing.

The victory for the 20th-ranked Shockers was anything but a cake walk. MSU scored the final 7 points of the first half to trail 25-21 at the break and then opened the second stanza with a 12-0 run. Thurman sparked both surges for the home club as he scored Missouri State's last 9 points of the opening period and then added 7 in the first four minutes after halftime.

Thurman's second trey of the night gave Missouri State a 33-25 advantage with 16:17 remaining before Early got the Shockers on the board with a 3-pointer of his own. Downing then retaliated with a 20-foot jumper to put the home club ahead 35-28 with just over 15 minutes left in the contest.

The tides turned quickly from there. WSU would reel off 16 unanswered points over the span of five-and-a-half minutes to take a 44-35 lead just past the midway point of the half.

Freshman Dorrian Williams ended the six-minute dry spell for the maroon-clad Bears to make it a 44-38 game, and the Shockers' lead teetered between six and eight points until the 4:27 mark. That's when a layup by Carl Hall, who finished with 15 points off the bench, pushed Wichita's advantage back to double figures, 55-45, and a transition layup by Demetric Williams at the four-minute mark ran WSU's lead to 12.

Downing scored the Bears' last seven points in a two-minute span to keep the fight going, but the Shockers made 5-of-6 free throws in the clutch to seal the victory.

WSU made just 37.0 percent (20-for-54) of its shots, the club's second-lowest percentage of the season, and was 5-for-21 (.238) from long range. Gregg Marshall's club tallied 14 second-chance points on 14 offensive rebounds and turned the ball over just nine times to overcome its third-lowest scoring total.

MSU's freshmen accounted for 33 total points, including 2 by Drew Wilson who had a team-high 7 rebounds. Thurman finished 8-for-17 from the field and led the club in scoring for the third straight night.

GAME 21

Jan. 27, 2013, JQH Arena, Springfield, Mo.

Missouri State 78, Drake 72

For the first time on record, Missouri State had four freshmen in the starting lineup, but it was the team's upper classmen who rose to the occasion as the Bears secured the season sweep over visiting Drake, 78-72.

Anthony Downing matched a career high with 26 points, while Keith Pickens smashed his career-best scoring effort with 19 points for MSU. Ben Simons led Drake with 19 points, while Micah Mason netted 17 behind five 3-pointers.

Missouri State shot a season-best 56.3 percent (27-for-48) from the field, including a collective 15-for-21 (.714) shooting effort in the second half.

Paul Lusk's squad overcame two 11-0 runs by the visitors to snap a four-game skid. The first came late in the first half after the Bears jumped out to a 24-14 lead when Downing knocked down a runner off the glass at the 8:37 mark. Drake then collected a bucket by Seth VanDeest and three straight treys from Mason and Simons to give the visitors a 25-24 lead.

The Bears composed themselves and ended the scoring drought of more than six minutes when Nathan Scheer knocked down a 3-pointer with 92 seconds left in the half to help the Bears take a 29-28 lead at the break.

Drake scored the first 11 points of the second half and ended a 14-3 run with a 42-32 advantage. MSU started the comeback trail from there with Gavin Thurman and Marcus Marshall scoring MSU's first six points of the second stanza in the span of 68 seconds. A Marshall driving layup at the 16-minute mark made it a 42-35 game and gave the Bears needed life.

Downing rattled home a bucket with just over 13 minutes on the clock to make it a 46-43 contest as part of his 18-point second half. Pickens shouldered much of the comeback load from there as he tallied 9 points in the span of less than four minutes. His steal and dunk at the 7:40 mark put the Bears on top, 56-55.

Drake recaptured the lead briefly, but Downing knocked down a baseline jumper and critical 3-pointer over the next minute to extend MSU's lead to 61-57 with 6:19 remaining. MSU would build its lead to as many as eight after that with a pair of Marcus Marshall free throws at the 2:31 mark making it a 69-61 game.

The key blow came after a Simons bank shot made it a 70-65 game with 95 seconds left to keep Drake in the hunt. With the shot clock winding down on MSU's next possession, Downing drove right and pitched to Scheer who answered the bell with his second clutch 3-pointer of the game, giving MSU a 73-65 lead with just under a minute to go.

GAME 22

Jan. 30, 2013, CenturyLink Center, Omaha, Neb.

(21) Creighton 91, Missouri State 77

No. 21 Creighton got 29 points from junior sensation Doug McDermott and knocked down 15 3-pointers to hold off Missouri State, 91-77.

The Bears got 19 points from Gavin Thurman, 14 from Dorrian Williams and 10 apiece from Marcus Marshall and Christian Kirk. MSU also shot 54.7 percent from the field and committed just nine turnovers on the night.

The Bluejays scored the final five points of the first half to take a 44-32 lead into the locker room and needed less than five minutes in the second half to stretch its advantage to 17. Williams tallied five of the Bears' first seven points in the second half and finished with a team-high four 3-pointers.

Later in the half, CU used a flurry of 3's to stretch its advantage to 20, as it built a 67-47 lead at the midway point after McDermott's second trey of the second stanza. CU was in the double bonus over the final nine minutes and capitalized on its charity opportunities to stretch the lead to 24 with 7:45 to go, its largest of the night.

The young Bears kept clawing and retaliated with a series of 3-pointers of their own. MSU knocked down six treys in the final 7:27 -- including three by Williams and one apiece by Nathan Scheer, Michael Simpson and Marcus Marshall -- to make the final count respectable.

The Bears finished 29-for-53 (.547) from the field and 11-for-20 (.550) beyond the arc, their most 3-pointers of the season. MSU was an efficient 8-for-11 (.727) at the line, but was out-rebounded 34-21, giving up 11 offensive caroms and 15 second-chance points.

McDermott finished 5-of-7 from 3-point range and tallied a game-high 10 rebounds. Creighton also got 15 points from Ethan Wragge, 14 from Austin Chatman and 10 from Grant Gibbs.

2012-13 MISSOURI STATE GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARY

GAME 23

Feb. 2, 2013, JQH Arena, Springfield, Mo.

Missouri State 62, Evansville 61

Missouri State overcame an 11-point second-half deficit and a late charge by visiting Evansville to claim a 62-61 victory.

Marcus Marshall led three MSU players in double figures with 14 points while Christian Kirk scored 12, and Nathan Scheer contributed 11. Colt Ryan scored a game-high 24 for the Purple Aces.

A week after the Bears rallied from a 10-point deficit to beat Drake in Springfield, Paul Lusk's club found the same magic at JQH Arena. A 12-2 run by UE in the first five minutes of the second half gave Evansville a 38-27 lead, its largest of the afternoon. The Bears managed just one field goal in the first six-and-a-half minutes of the second stanza but started climbing back with a jumper by Gavin Thurman and a 3-pointer by Marshall in less than a minute to make it 38-32.

MSU would close the gap to three points twice and two points twice over the next eight minutes and began their winning surge at the most critical juncture in the contest. A reverse layup by Kirk brought the Bears back within 54-52 with just over five minutes on the clock before Ryan stepped up with a clutch trey for the Aces to extend Evansville's lead back to five with 4:41 to go.

The Bears responded with a gut-check 7-0 outburst over the next two minutes as Marshall scored a pair of free throws and a leaner off the glass before a solid 3-pointer by Scheer put the Bears on top for the first time since late in the first half. Scheer's third trifecta of the game made it a 59-57 contest with 2:42 left.

Ryan tied the game up with a couple of free throws at the 1:50 mark and then gave Evansville a 61-59 lead with a jumper with a minute to go. But the Bears called a timeout with 52.3 seconds left and got another monumental 3-pointer moments later when Anthony Downing drained a long ball from the left wing to give Missouri State a 62-61 lead.

The Bears held off three more Evansville possessions from there, forcing three UE misses in the clutch to improved to 6-6 at home.

Missouri State out-rebounded the Aces 16-15 in the second half, but lost the overall battle for the boards, 34-31. The Bears also outscored Evansville off the bench, 30-10 and held UE to just 8 second-chance points.

Downing, who led the Bears with 4 assists, scored 9 points to snap his streak of 19 straight double-figure scoring games at home.

GAME 24

Feb. 5, 2013, McLeod Center, Cedar Falls, Iowa

Northern Iowa 48, Missouri State 37

On a night when nothing seemed to fall for either team, a 14-2 run by Northern Iowa midway through the second half proved to be the difference as the Panthers held off Missouri State, 48-37.

After Christian Kirk gave MSU a 29-26 lead with 11:30 left in the game, UNI reeled off 14 of the game's next 16 points over the next seven-and-a-half minutes. The Panthers' advantage reached 40-31 on a 3-pointer by Chip Rank with 4:19 to go.

Keith Pickens' put-back at the four-minute mark kept the Bears within seven, but UNI ignited with another three-ball from Marc Sonnen -- his only trey of the night -- and a layup by Jake Koch to push the home club back ahead 47-35.

The Bears were led by Anthony Downing with 9 points as they were held to an all-time low point production in Valley play. Dorrian Williams and Kirk added 8 points apiece. Downing and Drew Wilson added 7 rebounds to the MSU ledger as the visitors out-rebounded UNI, 35-31, including 12 offensive boards.

The Bears were 15-for-55 (.273) from the field, 3-for-21 (.143) from bonus distance and 4-for-4 in limited free throw opportunities. The Bears committed just 6 turnovers on the night.

UNI was led by Anthony James with 14 points, while Koch added 11.

In the first half, Missouri State executed a near-perfect defensive game plan, but home standing Northern Iowa benefited from a pair of unusual technical fouls to push ahead 20-19 at the intermission.

MSU had an answer for every UNI rally, leading by as many as five points after Williams knocked down back-to-back 3-pointers over the span of two minutes, 25 seconds. Williams' second trey of the half gave the Bears a 17-13 lead with 3:24 to go.

UNI responded with a trey of its own with Matt Bohannon drilling a long-range shot with 2:32 on the clock to bring UNI back within one.

On its next possession, MSU ran an alley-oop play for Wilson who missed the dunk but was whistled for hanging on the rim too long in effort to protect himself. James knocked down both subsequent penalty free throws to give the Panthers their first lead of the night, 18-17.

Forty-five seconds later, the Bears got the ball to Wilson on the low blocks again. This time, he forced through a one-handed jam to give the lead back to the visitors. But, the officials whistled him for his second technical foul for taunting, sending James back to the line for two more free throws to give UNI the one-point halftime edge.

GAME 25

Feb. 9, 2013, Charles Koch Arena, Wichita, Kan.

(22) Wichita State 79, Missouri State 50

Marcus Marshall had a career-high 19 points for Missouri State, but home standing Wichita State was too much as WSU closed out a 79-50 win.

Cleanthony Early led No. 22 Wichita State with 16 points and 8 rebounds as the Shockers shot 49.2 percent from the field and dominated the boards, 47-22.

MSU cut into its 15-point halftime deficit early in the second stanza with a pair of free throws by Gavin Thurman and a layup from Keith Pickens that made it a 42-29 game with 17:49 left. More than a minute later, Dorrian Williams made it 43-30 with a free throw, but the Bears would get no closer the rest of the way.

Wichita state reeled off the next 10 points over a four-minute stretch to lead 53-30 with 12:39 on the clock. WSU later added insult to injury with three dunks over the next three minutes to push ahead by 26 and later led by as many as 28. Gregg Marshall's Shockers knocked down their ninth and final 3-pointer of the night with 38 seconds to go to take their biggest lead of the night with the final 79-50 margin.

Anthony Downing added 9 points for the maroon squad with Williams adding 4 assists. The Bears committed 10 turnovers in their worst loss of the season.

Ehimen Orupke had a game-high 10 caroms for the home team, which finished with 17 offensive rebounds and 18 second-chance points.

In the first half, Early had 11 points off the bench to pace a late-half surge by the Shockers to lead, 42-27 at the intermission.

The Shockers went to their bread-and-butter in the early going as Carl Hall notched WSU's first five points. The Bears rallied back to lead 7-5 on a Marcus Marshall 3-pointer just over three minutes into the game, but WSU dropped three treys on consecutive possessions to lead 14-9 at the first media timeout.

The Bears battled back within one twice from there with a 3-pointer by Bruce Marshall making it 18-17 at the 11:15 mark and three free throws by Marcus Marshall making it a 21-20 contest at the 10:32 mark.

But it was all Shockers the rest of the way. WSU went on a 12-1 run over the next seven-plus minutes to lead 33-21. Christian Kirk broke a nine-minute MSU field goal drought with a hook shot at the 2:49 mark to draw the visitors within 33-23. But WSU ended the half with a 9-3 outburst, including a trey by Early, the seventh of the half for the home club.

The future of Missouri State basketball continues to look bright as Paul Lusk builds the MSU program in the second year as Bears' head coach.

During his Missouri State debut season in 2011-12, he guided MSU to a third-place finish in the Missouri Valley Conference, tied a school record for most road wins and finished 16-16 overall with arguably the toughest non-conference schedule in the program's history.

His first priorities when he was announced as Missouri State's 17th men's basketball head coach on April 1, 2011 were to reaffirm commitments from the four players already signed to attend Missouri State and begin finalizing the roster for his debut season. He was successful in both ventures. The three incoming freshmen – Christian Kirk, Drew Wilson and Dorrian Williams – all honored their National Letters of Intent, along with juco transfer Jarmar Gulley. He then filled the remaining scholarships with juco standout Anthony Downing, who went on to earn a spot on the 2012 MVC All-Newcomer Team, Michael Bizoukas, a one-year senior transfer from DePaul who led The Valley in assists and assist-to-turnover ratio, and juco big man Corbin Thomas.

Likewise, Lusk helped maximize the performance of the team's six returning lettermen. Kyle Weems closed out his career with All-MVC first team honors and was a finalist for the Lou Henson Mid-Major National Player of the Year Award. Fellow senior Caleb Patterson earned MVC Most-Improved Team honors, and the team placed two veteran players – Isaiah Rhine and Nathan Scheer – on the MVC Scholar-Athlete second team. Keith Pickens established himself as one of the MVC's top defensive players in his return to the MSU rotation and finished fourth on the team in rebounding. Between, Downing, Gulley and Bizoukas, the Bears claimed MVC Newcomer of the Week honors eight times, the second-highest total by one school in league history.

Close calls and tight finishes became the team's calling card in 2011-12 with five overtime games and 17 games decided by single digits. MSU's 12 single-digit losses were the most in the MVC and program's most since 2002.

Lusk's inaugural campaign was also highlighted by a 4-0 start that included one-sided road wins at Nevada and Arkansas State. The Bears began league play with a 12-point win at No. 19 Creighton, the team's first Top 25 win since 2008 and first-ever road win over a ranked opponent. The Bears came within an eyelash of beating Big East power West Virginia in the Las Vegas Classic and also had No. 18 Creighton on the ropes in the final seconds of a home game at JQH Arena on Jan. 18 in two potential season-changing decisions.

The 41-year-old coach came to Missouri State after seven seasons as an assistant coach at Purdue. When Cuonzo Martin accepted the MSU job in 2008, Lusk was promoted to Boilermakers' associate head coach under Matt Painter, a position he held until coming to MSU.

He was named by FoxSports.com as one of the nation's top 25 high-major assistant coaches in the summer of 2010. In April 2011, Lusk was inducted into the Illinois Basketball Hall of Fame, and after his first year at MSU, CollegeSportsMadness.com named Lusk its 2012 MVC coach of the year after taking the Bears from a predicted sixth-place finish to tie for third.

During his tenure on the Purdue coaching staff, Lusk helped guide the Boilermakers to five consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances with a collective 129-45 ledger during that span. He first came to West Lafayette in 2004-05 as an assistant under then-coach Gene Keady and stayed on board at Purdue when Painter took the coaching reins in 2005-06.

Before moving to Purdue, he spent one season on Painter's staff at Southern Illinois in 2003-04, a campaign that also culminated in an NCAA Tournament berth, a No. 15 national ranking and a 25-5 overall record.

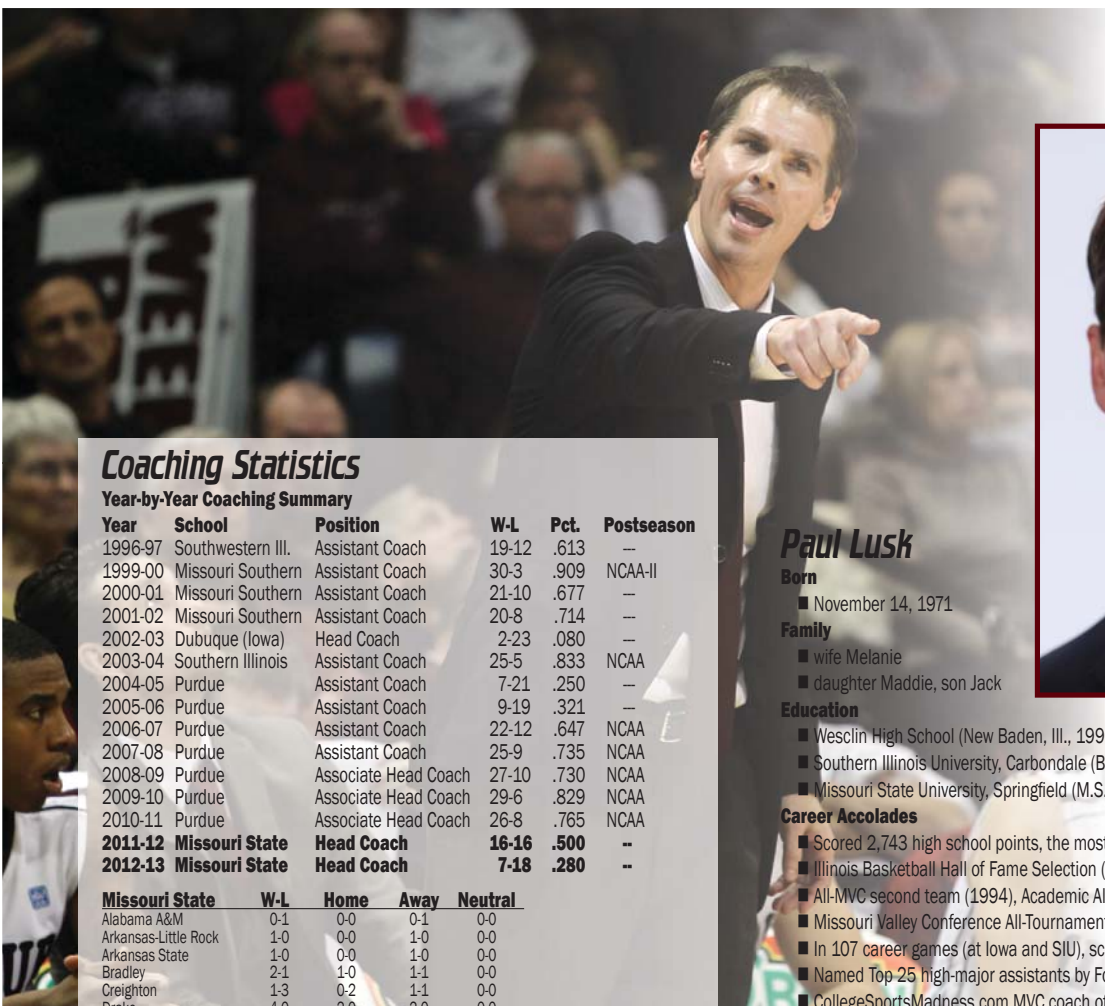

Prior to that, he spent one season as head coach at (Division III) University of Dubuque in Iowa. His head coaching debut came on the heels of three seasons at Division II Missouri Southern State in Joplin where he was an assistant under coach Robert Corn. The Lions were 71-21 in that span (1999-2002) with an NCAA Tournament appearance in 1999-2000. His coaching career started with a one-year stint as an assistant at Southwestern Illinois College in Belleville where coach Jay Harrington's Blue Storm finished 19-12.

The native of New Baden, Ill., began his playing career at Iowa in 1990 where he spent two years before he found a home at SIU under coach Rich Herrin. He helped guide the Salukis to three straight NCAA Tournament trips (1993-95), earning All-MVC second-team honors in 1994 with a 15.2 scoring average as a junior. As a senior, he earned a spot on the Valley Scholar-Athlete and All-Tournament teams and finished his career with 1,666 points.

He went on to play professionally both in the United States and Argentina and earned two different invitations to the Phoenix Suns' training camp.

A 1995 graduate of SIU-Carbondale, Lusk and his wife Melanie have a daughter, Maddie, and a son, Jack. The couple both earned their Masters of Science in Education from Missouri State in December 2000.

2012 FOREIGN TOUR OF COSTA RICA

An August to Remember

For the first time in the history of the program, the MSU men's basketball team took an international summer trip Aug. 7-13, 2012, when the Bears embarked on a seven-day foreign tour of Costa Rica. The trip combined practice and a series of exhibition games with a unique cultural experience for the student-athletes. And, thanks to a generous donor, the expenses of the trip were completely covered with private funds.

The Bears were also afforded 10 practices (as allowed by the NCAA), including a public scrimmage, before leaving the U.S. NCAA rules permit Division I schools to participate in one out-of-season trip abroad every four years, but Missouri State's journey was a once-in-a-lifetime experience.

Once they arrived in San Jose, the capital of Costa Rica, the squad took part in a number of team-building experiences -- a tour of local attractions, shopping at the San Jose Flea Market, zip lining, whitewater rafting, a youth basketball clinic, and a trip to a school and hospital for special needs children in Grecia.

On the court, the Bears were dominant, collecting four wins against Costa Rican college and professional players with an average margin of victory at nearly 45 points. Every player contributed, and nine of the 12 players who saw action scored in double figures at least once.
