INDIANA STATE FOOTBALL '83

MEMORIAL STADIUM

Indiana State plays their home football games at Memorial Stadium, which is located on the corners of Wabash and Brown Avenues in Terre Haute.

The stadium was acquired by the University in 1967 and, prior to that time, was used for both football and baseball. Since the installation of the synthetic playing surface, however, the field has been used for football and field hockey.

The first university in the world to own and make outdoor application of Astroturf was Indiana State and the Sycamores put the new field to good use in September of 1967 as ISU hosted Eastern Illinois.

The Astroturf in use at Indiana State is similar to that used in Houston's famed Astrodome. Plus factors in the use of the synthetic surface include durability (some 15 college and high school football games are played on the field each year; and in addition the ISU football team conducts all practices on the field) and a constant surface which will provide sure footing regardless of weather.

Each blade of grass is $\frac{1}{2}$ inches long and is attached to a sponge-rubber pad $\frac{1}{4}$ inches thick. This sponge pad is then set upon a fiber pad $\frac{1}{2}$ inch thick. Both the sponge pad and the fiber pad are set on a two-inch layer of asphalt.

Memorial Stadium was open to the public for the first time May 5, 1925 as the local minor league baseball team, the Terre Haute Tots, played the Peoria (IL) Tractors with an estimated crowd of 9,000 on hand for the event.

Among the honored guests at the game were major league baseball commissioner Judge Kennesaw Landis and Charles Barnard, a representative of the Cleveland Indians.

The first use of the playing field was in the fall of 1924 as local high schools, Wiley and Garfield, played their traditional Thanksgiving Day game.

Work on Memorial Stadium was begun in 1922 at a cost of $450,000.

After the University gained control of the stadium in 1967, a three-part renovation project was started which included the reorientation of the playing field from a north-south direction to an east-west line; installation of Astroturf; and a building of some 4,500 bleacher seats on the north side of the field as well as rebuilding of seats on the south side of the field.

Capacity of Memorial Stadium is now 20,500.

It would seem unlikely that the number 19 would be a favorite of Indiana State University football coach Dennis Raetz.

To Raetz, and to the numerous Sycamore faithful as well, the number 19 signifies the total number of players returning to the Indiana State fold for the 1983 season who started at least five or more games last fall.

"I feel as good about this year's team as any we've had in the time I've been at Indiana State," Raetz enthused. "We do have a few question marks for us to settle, but overall I feel pretty good about this group of players."

Indiana State will return the services of such people as sophomore quarterback Jeff Miller, sophomore receivers Terry Bell and Joe Downing, junior tight end Herbert Dawson, offensive linemen Bob Koehne, Rich Dawson, Chris Delaplaine and Steve Buxton.

Also, such defensive stalwarts as Ed Martin (DE), Kurt Bell (DE), Kevin Lynch (DT), Brad Verdun (DT), Perry Willett (DT), Quintin Mikell (LB), Jeff Campbell (LB), Wayne Davis (CB), Kevin Ramsey (CB), Keith Ward (WS) and Regis Mason (SS) also return for another season of action.

The Sycamores added junior college running backs Kevin Henderson and Kurt Theno in the off season and both should lend much to the ISU ground attack along with underclassmen Tracy Stewart, Jimmy Edwards and Willie Davis.

Senior Eric Zoph, a former junior college All-American, and sophomore transfer Scott Bridges figure to battle it out for the vacant placekicking spot while redshirt freshman Tom Woodason is slated to be the starting punter entering fall workouts.

The defensive backfield returns intact from a year ago and will feature improved depth as well. Junior Keith Ward led the Sycamores in interceptions in 1982 with five and senior cornerback Kevin Ramsey was Indiana State's top one-one-one defender for most of the year.

Senior defensive end Ed Martin is the heart of the ISU defense after topping the team in tackles a year ago with 121 stops, including 15 tackles for loss. Martin is Indiana State's candidate for conference "Defensive Player of the Year" honors in 1983.

Kurt Bell will team with Martin at defensive end. Bell, a standout in his own right, was second on the team in tackles for loss with 10.

The defensive line will undergo some changes, but with the return of veterans Brad Verdun, Perry Willett and Kevin Lynch, this position appears to be strong. Lynch was a starter at defensive end for ISU two years ago but was moved to a down position during spring drills earlier this year.

The linebackers should be strong once again as senior Quintin Mikell is back for another go-around while sophomore Jeff Campbell will be in his first full-season as a starter.

OFFENSE

QUARTERBACK—Sophomore Jeff Miller will be the man in charge of the Indiana State offense this fall after a stellar beginning a year ago. Miller, a native of Ossian, Indiana, came off the bench last fall to lead the Sycamores to victories over McNeese State, Ball State, Drake and Illinois State. The graduate of Norwell High School completed nearly 60 per cent of his passes in 1982. Junior transfer Alvin Jones, senior Keith Bonney and freshman Tom Woodason will lend backup support for Miller. The Sycamores recruited three quarterbacks from the high school ranks as well: Kevin Clancy, Steve Brown and Scott Henson.

RUNNING BACK—Junior Darrold Clardy is the returning veteran at tailback while junior Rick Dwenger is also back. Dwenger led the Sycamores in rushing against the University of Maryland and Louisville. Junior college transfers Kevin Henderson and Kurt Theno will also be key figures for the Sycamores. Redshirt Freshmen Willie Davis, Jimmy Edwards and Tracy Stewart will all see playing time as well.

RECEIVERS—Sophomores Joe Downing and Anthony Kimball appear to be the starting receivers for Indiana State entering fall workouts. Downing had an excellent freshman season, leading the Missouri Valley Conference in kickoff returns with a 23.7 yard average while also catching 12 passes for a 15.7 yard per catch average. Kimball earned first-team mention after an excellent spring session and will get the nod over another sophomore Terry Bell. Bell led the Sycamores in receiving a year ago with 27 catches for 340 yards and one touchdown.

TIGHT END—Junior Herbert Dawson returns for another season as the starting tight end. Dawson was second on the ISU team last fall in receiving with 21 catches for 211 yards. He will be backed by junior Don Hitz, a converted offensive lineman, and freshmen Bill Hayes and John Vanderbosch. Both were red-shirted last fall.

OFFENSIVE LINE—Again the strongest portion of the ISU squad with the return of veterans Bob Koehne (OT), Steve Buxton (OG), Rich Dawson (OG), Chris Delaplaine (OT) and Kelly Suehr (C). Koehne, Buxton, Dawson and Delaplaine all started for the Sycamores last fall while Suehr figures to step in to replace the graduated Sean Whiten. Reserve strength will come from Mike Simmonds, Jay Downing, Mike Zdrojewski, Mike Osborne, Carl Uccellini, Rob McIntyre, David Allen, Mark Boster and David Heuser.

DEFENSE

DEFENSIVE ENDS—Ed Martin and Kurt Bell return for another season of action. Martin and Bell should be as good a pair of defensive end in the Missouri Valley Conference. Junior Gregg Kimbrough, freshman Evan Schone, sophomore Eric Hurtt and sophomore Bobby Boyce will provide depth.

DEFENSIVE LINE—A strong group in 1983. Veterans Brad Verdun, Perry Willett, Allen Hartwig and Kevin Lynch return. Lynch, a former defensive end, will add quickness and speed to the ISU line. Sophomore Doug Arnold will step in and replace the graduated Walter Seaphus at noseguard. Junior Mark Miller, freshman Andy Kondracki, freshman Gary Potter, and freshman Jim Gordy will all provide backup support.

LINEBACKERS—Senior Quintin Mikell and sophomore Jeff Campbell will be the starters. Two youngsters, sophomore Tom Albright and freshman Tim Cunningham, will push for playing time as will junior Troy Johnson and freshman Dan Curley.

DEFENSIVE BACKS—Rivals the offensive line as the most experienced portion of the 1983 Sycamores. All four starters return, including cornerbacks Wayne Davis and Kevin Ramsey and safeties Regis Mason and Keith Ward. Sophomore Vencie Glenn and senior Mark Bryson will provide depth as will senior Sam Suggs.

DENNIS RAETZ

Head Football Coach

ISU

Indiana State head football coach Dennis Raetz is beginning his fourth year at the helm of the Sycamore football program.

One of the most respected coaches in the Missouri Valley Conference, Raetz has been known primarily for his strong defensive teams and top defensive players. Under the watchful eye of Raetz, Indiana State has produced the Conference's "Defensive Player of the Year" for two of the past four seasons—defensive end Gerry Gluscic in 1979 (ISU's only Division I All-American) and linebacker Craig Shaffer in 1981 (a sixth-round draft choice of the National Football League's St. Louis Cardinals).

A 1968 graduate of the University of Nebraska, Raetz served for two seasons (1978-79) as the Sycamores' defensive coordinator before being elevated to the head coaching position in 1980. During his two-year stint as an assistant coach, Raetz worked with the defensive ends and linebackers.

The native of North Platte, Neb., was given a new three-year contract during the winter of 1981 by Indiana State athletic director Beanie Cooper, who said, "Coach Raetz and his staff are recruiting good student-athletes to our campus. I know that Coach Raetz has had success at every level of coaching and I am confident that he will continue to do an outstanding job."

After obtaining a bachelor's degree in math and physical education from the University of Nebraska, Raetz served as an assistant coach and teacher at North Kansas City (Missouri) High School until 1973 when he took over as the head football coach at J.C. Harmon High School.

In 1977, former University of Missouri head coach Al Onofrio offered Raetz the opportunity to coach at the collegiate level. The offer was quickly accepted and Raetz worked as the head junior varsity coach as well as the defensive end coach for the Tigers.

Raetz earned his master's degree from Central Missouri State in 1971, majoring in physical education.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Inside Sports

By Jerry A. Hargis
Executive Sports Editor
Terre Haute Tribune-Star

If you happen to stumble across Indiana State University football Coach Dennis Raetz this summer and notice a broad smile on his face...don't be surprised.

He's not really thinking about a funny joke someone may have told him. Rather he's contemplating what could happen this fall when his fourth edition of the Sycamores take to the field.

"If we stay healthy and develop some added depth before the season begins... this could be the best ISU team since I've been here," Raetz said.

"... this could be the best ISU team since I've been here."

Raetz has been at ISU for five years, two as an assistant and three as head coach. His overall mark at Indiana State is an even 16-16-1 including a 5-6 campaign in 1982. He posted a 24-13 log ad J.C. Harmon High School in Kansas City, KS, before coming to Terre Haute.

"Our spring practice was probably as good as any we've had from the point of view of concentration and effort," Raetz added. "It was the first time we've started working on who we will play this fall. And that possible because of the large group of older kids we have on the squad."

Indiana State will become an official member of Division I-AA and even though Raetz admits that "this team has the chance to be the best ever here" it does not mean that the Sycamores will make the playoffs.

Division I-AA has a playoff system based on season ranking to determine a national champion.

Scholarships are limited to 75 for Division I-AA teams and 95 for Division I squads.

Raetz said, "It's premature to think of the playoffs at the start of the season, but we feel we will be able to play with anyone in the Division."

Just what makes Raetz so happy these days?

Well, the return of 19 players who started in five or more games just could be the reason. And the thought of quarterback Jeff Miller returning after a fantastic freshman campaign lights up the sly grin on the face of Raetz.

"Miller, without a doubt, is a heck of a quarterback," Raetz confesses. The Norwell high school product hit on 73 of 123 passes for 728 yards and two TDs in 1982.

He also rushed for 192 yards and was at the helm in wins over Ball State, McNeese State, Drake and Illinois State.

Miller is a proven leader. And teammates react to him positively.

Backup help for Miller will come from junior Alvin Jones and Terre Haute North product Tom Woodason, a freshman.

Running backs are a concern. "We've never had enough depth at this spot since I've been here," Raetz said.

"Miller without a doubt, is a heck of a quarterback."

Junior Darrold Clardy returns at tailback and will get help from Terre Haute North's Tracy Stewart and Willie Davis, both freshmen. Junior College transfers Kurt Theno and Kevin Henderson are expected to challenge.

Junior Rick Dwenger heads the fullback list, with freshman Jimmy Edwards and sophomore Linus Scheppers in backup roles.

"We don't have anyone who has played much at either running spot," Raetz said.

Receivers "were a pleasant surprise" in spring drills. Sophomore wide receivers Terry Bell and Anthony Kimball were impressive, as was flanker Joe Downing, a sophomore who started last fall.

Returning offensive starters include tackles Bob Koehne and Steve Buxton, guards Rich Dawson and Chris Delaplaine, and tight end Herbert Dawson.

Defense standouts returning include Ed Martin and Kurt Bell at ends, Perry Willett and Brad Verdun at tackles, Quintin Mikell and Jeff Campbell at linebacker and defensive backs Wayne Davis, Keith Ward, Kevin Ramsey and Regis Mason.

Kevin Lynch, a defense end starter in 1981, will return as a defensive tackle after a redshirt year in 1982.

Others on defense coming in for praise from Raetz were ends Gregg Kimbrough and Eric Hurlt, nose guard Doug Arnold, linebackers Bobby Boyce, Tom Albright and Tim Cunningham, and tackle Allen Hartwig.

"We have more depth than in the past on the defensive side," Raetz said.

The kicking game is one phase Raetz and his coaching staff will work on in the fall. With punter Mike Johannes and place-kicker Dennis Teegarden departed, a whole new kicking game will be required.

ISU should figure in the Missouri Valley Conference race along with Wichita State and Tulsa...schools with Division I status.

"Of course Tulsa and Wichita State are always contenders," Raetz said. "And the 20 more scholarships available for Division I makes a difference. It's like this...I'll play you poker any day if I get seven cards and you get only five."

Raetz evaluated the rest of the Valley. "I look for Southern Illinois and Drake to challenge and Illinois State will be better."

Another thing bringing a smile to Raetz' face is the 1982 schedule.

For the first time since he's been here, Raetz will send his charges on the home field more than on the road. ISU will play six home games and five on the road.

"I'd much rather play six games at home, than five," Raetz said. "Anyone would. It should be an advantage for us."

Home encounters include Northeast Louisiana, Northern Iowa, Central Missouri, Ball State, Wichita State and Southern Illinois.

ISU will face Florida, Illinois State, Eastern Illinois, West Texas State and Drake on the road.

It should be an interesting fall.

STAFF

ISU

STEVE BRICKEY Recruiting Coordinator, Quarterbacks and Receivers

The 28-year old Brickey, a native of St. Louis, is beginning his sixth year on the Indiana State University football coaching staff, serving as the Sycamores' recruiting coordinator as well as tutoring the ISU quarterbacks and wide receivers.

A former collegiate quarterback at the University of Missouri, Brickey entered the coaching profession as a result of a knee injury. After serving as a graduate assistant with the Tigers for one season, Brickey made the move to Indiana State in the summer of 1978.

A graduate of Affton High School, Brickey was a first-team All-Metro Conference selection as selected by the St. Louis Post-Dispatch as a prep senior.

A bachelor, Brickey has helped develop several top players while at Indiana State, including school record-holder Reggie Allen (quarterback) as well as receivers Eddie Ruffin and Kirk Wilson

PETE HOENER Offensive Coordinator, Offensive Line

Pete Hoener is entering his sixth year on the Indiana State football coaching staff and his fourth as the Sycamores' offensive coordinator.

The 31-year old graduate of Bradley University started at tight end for the Braves for two seasons, earning his degree in 1973. A native of Peoria, Ill., Hoener coached for one year each at Peoria Spalding High School and at Belvidere High School.

After serving as a graduate assistant at the University of Missouri for two seasons (1975-1976), Hoener became an assistant coach at Illinois State University for one year (1977).

While at Indiana State, Hoener has become one of the top young offensive line coaches in collegiate football as several of his proteges have been named to Missouri Valley honor teams.

One in particular, offensive tackle Tunch Ilkin, was a sixth-round draft choice of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1979.

Hoener and his wife Marianne have three children—Jennifer (5), Kathleen (3) and Lisa (six months).

MAX PAYNE Assistant Head Coach Offensive Backs

Beginning his fourth season with the Indiana State football program is 43-year old Max Payne, who will be the Sycamores' assistant head coach this fall as well as continuing as the team's offensive backfield coach.

A native of Arkansas City, Kansas, Payne was named as the assistant head coach in June of 1983. His duties will also include acting as academic counselor and special teams coordinator.

Payne began his coaching career in 1962 as the head coach at Bethany (MO) High School. After becoming an assistant coach at North Kansas City (MO) High School in 1968, Payne was named as the head coach at Kansas City (KS) Wyandotte High School in 1975. While at Wyandotte, Payne's teams won three Kansas City Area conference championships.

A 1962 graduate of Williams Jewell College, Payne earned his master's degree from Central Missouri State in 1974.

Payne and his wife, Carolyn, have two children—Doug (21) and Andrea (17).

JERRY LASKO Defensive Line

Jerry Lasko is beginning his second year on the Indiana State football coaching staff as the Sycamores' defensive line coach. Lasko is also in charge of coordinating all walk-ons who wish to try out for the ISU squad.

A native of Westlake, Ohio, Lasko is by no means a stranger to the Terre Haute area. After serving as a graduate assistant coach at Indiana State from 1972-1974, the 35-year old coach was named as an assistant at nearby Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology for one season (1979).

The 1970 graduate of St. Joseph's (IN) College also has experience coaching on the high school level in Indiana, working as an assistant at Ft. Wayne Central Catholic and as head coach at Sullivan High School.

Before coming to Indiana State last year, Lasko served as the defensive coordinator at his alma mater (1975-1978) as well as head coach at Manchester College from 1980-1981.

A three-year Letterwinner and co-captain in football while at St. Joseph's, Lasko and his wife Valerie reside in Terre Haute.

TIM MCGUIRE
Defensive Coordinator,
Linebackers and Defensive Ends

The newest member of the Indiana State football coaching staff is 30-year old Tim McGuire, a former collegiate player at the University of Nebraska and most recently the head football coach at Morningside College, a Division II school in Sioux City, Iowa.

McGuire will be the Sycamores' defensive coordinator as well as coaching the ISU linebackers and defensive ends.

A 1975 graduate of Nebraska, McGuire and his wife Judy have two children--Lisa (10) and Tim, Jr. (2).

A native of Omaha, McGuire is a former all-state football player at Omaha Creighton Prep High School, where he helped lead his squad to the Nebraska state championship in 1969 and 1970.

Prior to taking the position at Morningside, McGuire was the defensive line coach at the University of Nebraska-Omaha and also served as the head football coach at Omaha Bishop Ryan High School and as an assistant at Omaha Millard High School.

He received his master's degree from the University of Nebraska-Omaha in 1980.

ALVIN REYNOLDS
Defensive Backs,
Computer Analysis

Former Indiana State defensive back Alvin Reynolds was elevated from his status as the Sycamores' graduate assistant in 1982 to ISU's defensive backfield coach in 1983. Reynolds, who is single, will also be in charge of breaking down films of each opponent and putting together computerized scouting reports.

The 24-year old native of Marrero, LA, was a two-year starter at safety for Indiana State, recording five career interceptions. A former high-school All-American at West Jefferson High School in Harvey, LA, Reynolds was the main figure in the "Our Pal AL" campaign two years ago as several ISU marketing students promoted him as a candidate for the Heisman Trophy award.

As a result of the promotion, Reynolds received mention in the New York Times and the Sporting News as well as being the focus of a feature on the NBC Nightly News.

He is the only Indiana State football player to receive votes in the Heisman balloting, garnering two.

THIS IS ISU

Founded in 1865, Indiana State University is a state-supported, co-educational institution offering undergraduate, graduate and doctoral programs. The University consists of the Schools of Education; Business; Technology; Nursing; Health, Physical Education and Recreation; Graduate Studies and the College of Arts and Sciences.

Nearly 12,000 students attend classes on the main campus in Terre Haute which is located near the Illinois state line in west central Indiana. The city has a metropolitan population of 114,000. An additional 3,000 students are enrolled at the ISU Evansville campus in southern Indiana.

At Indiana State University programs not only provide students with unique learning opportunities they also uncover new information through research studies. ISU is one of only five centers in the U.S. that have a Remote Sensing Laboratory to study land use and development and which also examines the effects of pollution. The nationally recognized Small Business

Institute within the School of Business provides students with valuable opportunities to solve real world business problems while also providing area businessmen with services that otherwise would be unavailable. New information is also being discovered by ISU scientists into the causes of cancer, heart attacks and diabetes.

The reputation of Indiana State's academic programs is enhanced by the successes of many of the University's 43,000 alumni. Graduates have distinguished themselves as Pulitzer Prize-winning journalists, nationally acclaimed heart specialists and more than 30 who have become presidents of colleges or universities.

ADMINISTRATION

Richard G. Landini, President, Indiana State University

Presently in his 8th year as President, Dr. Landini is an enthusiastic supporter of athletic programs for men and women at Indiana State University. Working with representatives of the Athletic Department, he was a strong advocate of Indiana State University's membership in the Missouri Valley Conference.

He earned Bachelor of Arts (1954) and Master of Arts (1955) degrees in literature at the University of Miami and the Doctor of Philosophy degree (1959) at the University of Florida. He served on the faculty and administrative staff at Arizona State University for 11 years (1959-70), earning his professorship there in 1968. In 1970, he was appointed Academic Vice-President and Professor of English at the University of Montana. He was appointed to the presidency of Indiana State University, succeeding Dr. Alan Rankin, in 1975.

Sycamores In The Pros

ISU

St. Louis Cardinals

CRAIG SHAFFER

Craig has the distinction of being the highest drafted player in ISU history, being selected early in the sixth round by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 1982 National Football League draft. An All-Missouri Valley Conference performer for two straight seasons, the ISU linebacker was named the conference's Defensive Player of the Year in 1981.

Before coming to ISU as a walk-on, Shaffer was a four-sport athlete at Schulte High School, garnering the McMillan Award as Vigo County's top prep athlete his senior year. The former running back one returned a punt 49 yards for a TD at ISU.

Washington
Federals

ERIC ROBINSON

A prep All-American while playing at John F. Kennedy High School in Silver Springs, Maryland, Eric gained over 2,000 yards as a Sycamore. Majoring in environmental health with a 3.15 G.P.A., he was selected to the District Four All-Academic team in both his junior and senior years.

Following last December's graduation, Robinson reported to the Washington Redskins training camp in Florida. Robinson was the first player to return a USFL kickoff for a touchdown, taking one 95 yards. Robinson led the USFL in kickoff returns this past season, averaging 28.7 yards per return. He also ranked in the top ten in league punt returns.

Pittsburgh Steelers

TUNCH ILKIN

Born in Istanbul, Turkey, Tunch prepped at Highland Park High School in Chicago before coming to ISU. He quickly earned a reputation as one of the Missouri Valley's most efficient blockers, leading the way for Vincent Allen to rush for 1,000 yards in 1977, the last Sycamore back to break that mark. When the Pittsburgh Steelers took Ilkin in the sixth round of the 1980 National Football League draft they made the ISU lineman the first Turkish-born player in the league's history.

Senior linebacker Dan Maher set a school record with 16 assisted tackles and finished with 24 hits on the afternoon in a losing cause as the Sycamores dropped their opener to Central Michigan, 35-10.

Punter Mike Johannes averaged 36.8 yards for his nine tries while downing four inside the twenty.

The Sycamores initiated the scoring when kicker Dennis Teegarden split the uprights from 28 yards out with 11:06 to go in the opening period but didn't tally again until tailback Eric Robinson found the endzone with only 1:02 to go in the third quarter. In the meantime the Chippewas sandwiched 28 points between the two ISU scores.

Senior quarterback Scott Bartel hit on 12 of his 18 tosses for 79 yards and sophomore Jeff Miller made his ISU debut at that position, completing one of his four attempts. The Sycamore ground game, however, was limited to only 117 yards, with Robinson leading the way with 39 markers on 18 carries.

On defense, Quintin Mikell added to Maher's effort, contributing 14 tackles of his own.

A crowd of 10,284 turned out for "Grow Terre Haute Night" and saw the Sycamores open their home schedule by clipping New Mexico State 14-10 in one of the most exciting games of the year.

The visitors were able to build a 10-0 advantage in the first quarter and rode that edge until Eric Robinson decided to make things interesting.

Robinson, who gained 182 yards on the day and earned Missouri Valley "Player of the Week" honors for his efforts, opened the final stanza by banging into the endzone for the Sycamores' first score. Moments later he broke two tackles and raced 46 yards down the sidelines to tilt the score ISU's way, 14-10, setting the stage for the game's frantic final seconds.

Aggie quarterback Jamie McAllister was intercepted by Ed Martin with just forty seconds to go, but Martin attempted a lateral that was picked off by McAllister's intended receiver, Anthony Curtis. Safety Keith Ward made the game saving play when he pushed Curtis out of bounds at the Sycamore six yard line. Wayne Davis sealed things when he dove to tip McAllister's desperation pass away from Aggie receiver Ken Locklin as time expired.

The Sycamores squared off against some of their stiffest competition of the year and came away winners, edging the McNeese State Cowboys 13-10.

Dennis Teegarden delivered the deciding points, lofting a 42-yard field goal through the uprights with only 4:52 remaining to break a 10-10 tie. Teegarden added the effort to a 37-yard boot he registered in the second quarter to put ISU on the board.

Sophomore Jeff Miller received his first starting assignment at quarterback, hitting on 7-for-11 tosses and rushing for 44 yards, including a 25-yard fourth down dash to lock up the victory in the closing moments.

The battle of the backs was won by Cowboy standout Buford Jordan, who gained 171 yards worth of Memorial Stadium real estate but ISU fullback James Banks had his best day ever, totaling 168 yards on 22 carries while the Sycamores, as a team, out-rushed their opponents, 319-258.

For the second straight week the Sycamore defense was equal to the occasion, twice sacking up the opposition on fourth down situations to regain possession of the ball in the second half.

Jeff Miller had his best day at quarterback yet, throwing for one touchdown and sprinting 48 yards for another as the Sycamores dismissed cross-state rival Ball State, 17-0.

Miller opened the game by taking ISU 80 yards, tossing his first collegiate touchdown strike to sophomore receiver Terry Bell from five yards out. On the day Miller hit on nine of his 13 attempts, going over 100 yards for the first time in his career.

The Cardinals countered the Miller toss by driving to the ISU 17 yard line but Vencie Glenn turned the Cardinals away empty-handed by blocking a field goal attempt. Ball State never entered Sycamore territory the rest of the half.

With the score still tight at 10-0 late in the third quarter the ISU quarterback rolled right on a keeper and raced the 48-yards to paydirt unmolested. The run contributed to the 196 yards rushing the Sycamores accumulated on the day.

Safety Keith Ward hawked the home team for two interceptions while linebacker Dan Maher added 15 Cardinals to his collection, upping his tackle total to 60 hits after just four games.

The last time an ISU football team had beaten the Cardinals at Muncie was 1969, which was also the last time they had been able to blank their rivals.

Quarterback Jeff Miller connected on five consecutive passes, the last an eight-yard touchdown toss to James Banks to erase a 19-14 Bulldog advantage and lift the surging Sycamores to a 29-19 victory. After the touchdown to Banks, Miller added a two-point conversion and moments later Darrold Clardy took advantage of an intercepted pass to score on a run from eight yards out, wrapping up ISU's fourth win in a row.

All totaled, Miller completed 20 of his 27 attempts, netting 222 yards of Drake real estate and the MVC Player of the Week trophy. The win made the ISU sophomore quarterback three-for-three since taking over the starting role for the Sycamores.

ISU grabbed the lead when Clardy dove in from the three with 52 seconds remaining in the half to knot things up at 13-13 and Dennis Teegarden hit on his eighth straight PAT without a miss for the one point advantage.

Drake took the lead with only 2:15 left in the game before Miller, who was 6-for-7 in passing for 104 yards in the final quarter, took charge, hitting Banks twice and Clardy and Bell once each before the game-winner to Banks from the eight-yard line with 1:02 showing on the game clock.

Seconds later Perry Willett intercepted Bulldog Quarterback Greg Ostrowski, setting up Clardy's run and snuffing out Drake's hopes.

ISU football moved into the big time when the Sycamores traveled to College Park, to face the Maryland Terrapins of the Atlantic Coast Conference.

For the Sycamores, the awakening came quickly. Maryland rammed their opening drive 83 yards for the touchdown, in route to a 38-0 blanking of the visitors.

Junior running back Rick Dwenger was able to pace the Sycamores in the rushing department on the strength of his 50 yards on nine first half carries. Eric Robinson, suffering from chronic knee problems, was limited to only 16 markers on just five carries while fullback James Banks sat out with a pulled leg muscle.

Jeff Miller could only connect on four of his ten aerials before being forced from the contest with a broken rib. Scott Bartel came on to hit on five of eight attempts but could only account for 29 yards.

A big blow to the Sycamores was the loss of linebacker Dan Maher, who led the team after six games with 85 tackles, to a knee injury that would require surgery, taking him out of action for the remainder of the season.

On the day, the ISU squad could only manage 125 total yards, falling behind 35 points in the opening half and only crossing into Terp territory once in the second stanza.

Dennis Teegarden booted four field goals to tie an ISU and MVC record and account for all 12 of the Sycamores' points as the visiting Panthers snapped a 14-game losing streak against ISU, taking home a 16-12 win.

Quarterback Scott Bartel got his first start in five weeks and found his receivers on 16 of his 31 attempts to roll up 173 yards in his best outing of the season.

Teegarden put the Sycamores on the board first, hitting on a 29-yard field goal at the opening of the second quarter and drilling a 41-yard attempt at the gun to close out the first half, delighting the Homecoming crowd of 15,471.

Trailing 13-6, Teegarden took the offense into his own hands, bringing the Sycamores within one by hitting from distances of 34 and 44 yards before EIU's Dave Strauch put it out of field goal reach with a 34-yard boot of his own late in the fourth quarter.

The loss dropped the Sycamores to 4-3 on the year while raising the Panthers' mark to 6-0-1, en route to an 11-1-1 record and a berth in the division I-AA playoff tournament.

Sophomore receiver Terry Bell was on the end of eight Bartel completions, good for 83 yards while the ISU quarterback mixed the ball around to seven different receivers.

Dennis Teegarden connected for a 39-yard field goal, his ninth of the year in 14 attempts, early in the second quarter and Rick Dwenger crashed in late in the fourth, but the Southern Illinois Salukis posted 21 points in between to upend the Sycamores, 21-9. It was ISU's third consecutive loss after a 4-1 start.

The Sycamores, playing without their starting backfield of Eric Robinson and James Banks, both sidelined with injuries, were able to outgain their opponents, rolling up 234 yards of enemy real estate to a total of 224 for the Salukis. Darrold Clardy led the ISU ground game, stacking 63 yards on 19 carries while Dwenger notched the lone Sycamore touchdown and added 46 yards on 12 carries.

Teegarden's field goal gave ISU the halftime lead, the Sycamores holding SIU in check mostly on the strength of Mike Johannes' punting, booting three kicks for an average of 45 yards while downing two inside the three yard line.

The special teams proved to be ISU's undoing, however, when SIU, leading 7-3 in the third quarter, blocked a Johannes punt and returned it seven yards for the winning TD. The Salukis added a touchdown to open the fourth quarter before Dwenger's one-yard run for his score. Jeff Miller's try for the two-point conversion fell incomplete, ending the scoring in favor to the Salukis by the 21-9 count.

The loss evened ISU's record at 4-4 while dropping them to 2-1 in conference play.

Senior James Banks returned to the ISU lineup, moving from fullback to tailback for the first time, and responded with 159 yards and three TDs to pace the Sycamores as they rolled up a season-high 332 yards rushing, downing a young Illinois State team 24-7.

The Sycamores opened the second quarter by putting the finishing touches on a 73-yard drive with Banks popping in from the 2-yard line, putting ISU on top for the duration, 7-0. Banks also scored on runs of 21 and 30 yards.

Placekicker Dennis Teegarden continued to have an outstanding year, hitting on a 39-yard attempt and connecting on all three of his placements, making him 12-for-12 for the year on PATs.

Holding the Redbirds to only 237 yards, the Sycamores continued to lead the Missouri Valley Conference in total defense with 315 yards allowed per contest and in scoring defense, giving up only 17.3 points a game.

Jeff Miller attempted only eight passes, completing six for 52 yards, and rushed for 55 while Rick Dwenger continued to look impressive, banging out 57 yards on 16 carries. Mike Johannes continued to raise his average, punting four times for a 44.3 yard average.

Clear, 48 degrees

The Sycamores nearly pulled off their biggest upset of the year, leading the Louisville Cardinals 20-10 in the fourth quarter before the home team came roaring back with 26 points to shock ISU 35-23.

James Banks played his second game of tailback and netted 129 yards while Rick Dwenger had his best day ever at fullback, gaining 109 yards on 19 carries.

Dennis Teegarden set the school's season record for field goals when he split the uprights for the 13th time four seconds into the fourth quarter, giving the Sycamores a ten-point lead.

Linebacker Ed Martin, who finished the day with 14 tackles to his credit, played well enough in the losing effort to be named the Missouri Valley Conference's Defensive Player of the Week. Martin and the ISU defense limited the Cardinals to only 102 total yards in the first half and 331 on the day, most of it coming in the game's final quarter.

The Cardinals scored on all four of their final possessions, clicking for three touchdowns and a field goal to post the win.

The Sycamores erased a 10-0 deficit by striking for 17 points in the second quarter, highlighted by a 30-yard touchdown run by Ed Foggs to put ISU on the board two minutes into the period.

The Golden Hurricane struck for 35 first half points, a deficit the Sycamores could never recover from, as ISU closed out its campaign taking a 48-14 pounding at Tulsa.

James Banks broke the 100-yard barrier for the third straight week, netting 102 markers in 25 cracks and scoring ISU's two touchdowns, closing out the season leading the Sycamores in both categories with 846 yards gained and 8 scores.

ISU knotted the game up at seven all, completing a nine-play, 54-yard drive with Banks breaking a 13-yard run for paydirt. Tulsa countered by covering the length of the field in two plays, including a 77-yard run by Michael Gunter, to grab the lead and never look back.

The ISU defense, which finished second in the conference in total and passing defense, gave up 555 yards of real estate on the day, 421 of it going to the Hurricane's ground troops. Jeff Miller hit on only seven of his 17 attempts while being intercepted once and having it returned for 67 yards for a touchdown. On the season, Miller finished third in passing in the MVC, completing 59% of his passes for 728 yards.

Missouri Valley Conference

DICK MARTIN, COMMISSIONER

Midwestern athletic history was made at the Midland Hotel in Kansas City, Missouri on January 12, 1907, when eight faculty members representing five universities gathered to form the Missouri Valley Conference, the first intercollegiate athletic organization west of the Mississippi River.

Attending the first organizational meeting of the Missouri Valley Conference were: Prof. Clark W. Hetherington and Dr. M. J. Monilaw, University of Missouri; Mark Catlin, University of Iowa; Captain John G. Workizer, University of Nebraska; Prof. C. M. Woodward, Washington University; Prof. A. T. Walker, W. C. Landson and Dr. James Naismith, University of Kansas.

Five schools formally organized the conference at a second meeting at the Coates House in Kansas City on February 16, 1907. They were Washington University of St. Louis and the state universities of Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska.

On March 15, 1908, Drake University and Iowa State College (now Iowa State University) were voted membership and admitted on April 1, at which time the conference's official name was adopted, the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Athletic Association.

The MVC charter members are the University of Iowa, the University of Kansas, the University of Missouri, and Washington University of St. Louis. Added by election were the University of Nebraska, Iowa State College and Drake University.

Today the Missouri Valley Conference has nine members. They are Bradley University, Creighton University, Drake University, Illinois State University, Indiana State University, Southern Illinois University, The University of Tulsa, West Texas State University and Wichita State University.

MEMO TO THE MEDIA

The 1983 Indiana State Football Press Guide has been prepared to assist both the print and electronic media in covering Indiana State University football this fall. Contents of this guide and changes in personnel and travel plans will be updated before and during the season by the ISU sports information office.

For additional information concerning Indiana State football, feel free to contact Bill Goldring, Mary Ann Dunscomb, Tom James, or Lisa Gordey, Indiana State Sports Information Office, Room 102, ISU Men's Arena, Terre Haute, Indiana, 47809. The Sycamore Sports Information Office phone number is (812) 232-6311, ext. 2587.

Press Box—The Memorial Stadium press box is located on the south side of the stadium complex and is serviced by an elevator from ground level to the press box proper. Booths for visiting coaches and radio stations are provided. A large outside booth is also available for visiting camera personnel.

Credentials—Space limitations in the Memorial Stadium press box make it mandatory that only WORKING members of the media be granted credentials. Indiana State credential policy is as follows: a) local newspapers, wire services, national publications, newspapers from an opponent's area, and student newspapers representing Indiana State and opponent; b) other daily newspapers with preference to those which regularly cover Indiana State athletics; c) radio and television personnel not actually broadcasting but considered reporting; d) scouts.

Credentials will NOT be mailed. Please arrange to pick up all passes at the Memorial Stadium will-call ticket window. Please do not request credentials for non-working members of the media.

All photographers must wear a press pass while working on the sidelines. Those not wearing passes will be asked to leave.

Radio-TV—The Indiana State press box has been designated for use by radio and television broadcasting crews, both home and opponent. Each booth is enclosed and sound proof.

Services—Play-by-play, halftime and final game statistics will be provided. When possible, post-game comments from each coach will be made available. Refreshments will be available on the press deck.

Telecopier—Four telephones and one telecopier are available for media use on a first-come, first-serve basis. If you plan to use your own phone and telecopier, please contact the ISU sports information office in advance.

Telephone—Telephone and radio service should be secured directly from the General Telephone Company of Indiana in Terre Haute at (812) 238-5444. They will contact the sports information office for location. If the visiting radio station has been designated as the official station, a courtesy telephone line will be available. Other stations will have to pay a right's fee of $50 to Indiana State.

Additional Information—Programs, lineups and game background information will be made available to the media prior to each game. For player's interviews, photographs or video tape highlights, contact the Indiana State sports information office.

Interviews with Coach Raetz should be between 10 a.m. and noon Monday through Thursday. Player interviews must be set up through the sports information office due to class schedules.
