Missouri State Gameday Notes

FIRST AND TEN

❶ The Bears have allowed an average of 15.5 points in their first two MVFC games this season, marking their best defensive showing through two league games since 2000, when they gave up a combined total of 26 points to Youngstown State and Indiana State to open league play.

❷ MSU's five takeaways Saturday at South Dakota State represented the Bears' best single-game showing since the 2008 season. Additionally, the Bears' three interceptions marked their first of the 2012 season, matching the clubs' total for the entire 2011 campaign.

❻ Heaston leads all FCS freshman in rushing yards per game (75.4) and has totaled 377 yards on 64 carries through five games. The redshirt freshman has 336 all-purpose yards in his last two outings and has recorded a combined 338 yards on the ground in MSU's last three games.

❽ The Bears fell to 18-68 all-time against ranked FCS opponents with Saturday's setback.

❾ MSU brings a 16-10 overall advantage in its series with Indiana State into Saturday's game, but the Sycamores have won seven of 13 previous meetings in Terre Haute and have taken two straight from the Bears for just the second time in the 26-year history of the series.

❿ Andrew Beisel (So., ILB, Fenton, Mo.) enters Saturday's game one tackle shy of 100 for his Missouri State career. He would become the fourth active Bear to reach the century club, joining Shaffitzel, Nick Canavan and Mike Crutcher.

LAST TIME AROUND

November 12, 2011 -- Indiana State's Shakir Bell rushed 39 times for 206 yards and a pair of touchdowns to lead the No. 23 Sycamores past Missouri State, 28-20, in the two teams' last meeting in Springfield.

Bell put the Sycamores ahead 14-0 with a pair of first-half touchdowns. The leading rusher in the Division I FCS ranks scored on a 23-yard TD carry at the 3:05 mark of the opening quarter put the visitors on top 7-0 to cap a 12-play, 73-yard scoring effort. He later made it 14-0 early in the second quarter with a two-yard score at the 10:46 mark, capping an 11-play drive with his 13th touchdown carry of the year.

Missouri State converted a pair of second-quarter field goals to cut into the early deficit and make it a 14-6 game at the break. In the final 4:09 of the first half, sophomore Austin Witmer knocked through a 22-yard chip shot to cap a 60-yard drive, and then tacked on a career-long 44-yarder as time expired to bring the Bears back within eight at the intermission.

In the second half, the Bears forced a fumble on ISU's first play of the third quarter and turned it into a touchdown three plays later. Nate Davis jumped on the Bell fumble at the ISU four-yard line to give the Bears new life, and Trevor Wooden found senior Chris Douglas in the flat for a five-yard TD pass to make it a 14-13 game on the third play of the possession.

MSU forced the visitors into punts on their next two possessions, but Indiana State rallied late in the third quarter. After the Bears were forced to punt from their own 15, the Sycamores got a 28-yard punt return from Donald Spencer to set up shop at the MSU 30. Two plays later, Spencer was on the receiving end of a 36-yard touchdown pass from Ronnie Fouch to make it a 21-13 game.

Still in the game, the Bears came up with a huge opportunity early in the fourth quarter when Martin Montgomery forced another Bell fumble, which Sybhrian Berry recovered at the Indiana State 14-yard line. With a short field in front of them, the Bears had a gift on their doorstep, but could not convert a first down on third-and-one at the Sycamore five. MSU settled for a 23-yard field goal attempt by Witmer into the wind, but the kick sailed wide right.

Two possessions later, the Sycamores pulled ahead by 15 on a one-yard run by Ben Obaseki to put the exclamation point on a nine-play, 82-yard touchdown drive to make it a 28-13 game.

With 3:50 left in the game, MSU began to hustle and worked its way 69 yards to paydirt in just seven plays to keep it close. Wooden connected with Jermaine Saffold from 12 yards out to make it a 28-20 game with 99 seconds remaining. However, the ensuing on-side kick was recovered by the visitors to hand the Bears their fourth loss this season by eight points or less.

Indiana State outgained the Bears by a 339-270 margin, but MSU had one more take-away to keep things interesting. Fouch finished 8-for-18 for 90 yards for ISU.

NAIL-BITERS AT MEMORIAL STADIUM

The Bears have split the last six meetings with the Sycamores at Memorial Stadium, including three games decided in overtime. MSU claimed a 23-20 overtime win in 2002, then escaped Terre Haute with a 27-24 OT victory to close out the 2008 campaign. The Sycamores pulled out a 38-35 decision in extra time to start their current two-game win streak in the series in the two teams' last meeting at Memorial on Oct. 16, 2010. The Bears hold a 16-10 overall lead in the series, but are looking to even their all-time ledger in Terre Haute, which they trail 7-6, dating back to the 1986 season.

RYAN'S SONG

Ryan Heaston (Fr., RB, Cordova, Tenn.) MSU freshman RB Ryan Heaston is rewriting the Bears' freshman records by the week. The Cordova, Tenn., native became the first Bears' freshman since 1977 to secure back-to-back 100-yard rushing games when he tallied 148 yards on the ground at No. 25 South Dakota State on Saturday. He is just one 100-yard game away from tying the Bears' single-season freshman record and just 297 rushing yards away from breaking Kingjack Washington's single-season mark (674) set in 2007. He is also just 23 ground yards away from 400 for the season, which would make him the first MSU newbie to do so since Mikael Cooper-Falls (Jr., RB, Springfield, Mo.) in 2009.

The previous week, Heaston became the first MSU freshman to rush for 100 yards since 2007 when he notched his first career 100-yard effort against SIU (Sept. 22). Heaston finished with 22 attempts for 126 yards (5.7), making him the first Bears running back since 2010 to eclipse the century mark (QB Trevor Wooden did it twice in 2011). Heaston has racked up a total of 336 all-purpose yards in the Bears' last two contests.

DEFENSE GETTING IT DONE

The Bears' 198 yards allowed against Southern Illinois (Sept. 22) was the fewest yards gained by a Missouri State opponent since Nov. 20, 2010, when the Bears kept North Dakota State in check with just 120 total yards. Over the Bears' initial two-game homestand, the MSU defense limited the opposition to an average of 298.5 yards of total offense per game and forced 21 punts to help the Bears outgain Murray State and Southern Illinois by an average of 103 yards per game (401.5 to 298.5).

Additionally, the Bears' forced a season-high five turnovers in Saturday's 17-7 setback at South Dakota State, more than doubling their season total of four takeaways coming into the game. MSU's three interceptions versus the Jackrabbits were its first of the season and matched the 2011 club's interception total for the entire year.

BERRY'S BIG NIGHT

Sybhrian Berry (Jr., CB, Camden, Ark.) came off the bench to snag a pair of interceptions for the Bears against No. 25 South Dakota State Saturday in Brookings, including one in the endzone in the second half to dash a potential SDSU touchdown. His efforts contributed to a season-high five takeaways by the Missouri State defense which held a high-powered SDSU rushing attack to just 194 yards on the ground. Berry became just the fourth MSU player in the Terry Allen era to snag two picks in a single game (first since Jimmie Strong in 2010), and matched the fifth-best single-game interception total in program history.

CRUTCH IS CLUTCH

Bears' sophomore Mike Crutcher (So., S, Wentzville, Mo.) had an interception, a forced fumble and seven first-half tackles at South Dakota State before leaving the game late in the second quarter with a shoulder injury. Crutcher returned in the second half and added two more defensive stops to finish the game with nine total tackles, including eight solo stops.

BUFORD POWERS AERIAL ATTACK

MSU junior receiver Dorian Buford (Jr., WR, Florissant, Mo.) continued a string of standout early-season performances Sept. 29 vs. Southern Illinois, hauling in a game-high nine receptions for 65 yards. That effort marked the third time this season he has matched or exceeded his career high for receptions in a game.

Since 2004, only Buford and Jermaine Saffold (2010) have posted multiple 100-yard receiving games in their junior season. Buford posted seven receptions for 114 yards in the 2012 season opener at Kansas State in just his fourth career start with the Bears. He pulled in a 56-yard pass from Kierra Harris (So., QB, Texarkana, Ark.) in the second quarter against and became only the fourth different MSU player since 2007 to reach the century mark in receiving yards (since 2007 - Clay Harbor 5, Saffold 9, Cadarrius Dotson 1). It was also the most receiving yards by a Bear against an FBS opponent since 1997.

Buford, who enters Saturday's game tied for second in the MVC and tied for 27 nationally in receptions (6.0 rpg), topped the century mark in receiving yards for the second time Sept. 15 against Murray State with a career-best nine receptions for a game-high 112 yards. His 69-yard reception from Ashton Glaser (Jr., QB, Springdale, Ark.) in the first quarter represented the Bears' longest play from scrimmage this season.

ANOTHER LAYER TO THAYER

MSU co-captain Matt Thayer (Sr., TE, Bellevue, Neb.) posted a career effort with eight receptions for 72 yards against Southern Illinois (Sept. 29), both personal highs. The All-America candidate combined with Dorian Buford (Jr., WR, Florissant, Mo.) to collect 17 of the Bears' 26 pass receptions on the afternoon and put together 137 receiving yards between them.

DOTSON CONTINUES CLIMB

Cadarrius Dotson (Sr., WR, Memphis, Tenn.) became the 10th MSU player to reach the century mark in career pass receptions with his four-catch outing vs. Murray State (Sept. 15). He now has 102 career snags for 1,126 yards, including receptions in 32 of 36 career games. He needs 10 catches to reach Tom Hamilton (112) in the seventh spot on the Bears' career list and just 14 more to climb into the top five.

Previously, Dotson eclipsed 1,000 career receiving yards in the season opener at K-State (Sept. 1). His six receptions for 82 yards against the No. 22 Wildcats made him the 17th Bear to reach the yardage milestone. He now ranks 13th on MSU's career receiving yardage chart, just 129 yards shy of Kaya Farris (1,255) in the No. 12 position.

THAYER NETS PRESEASON LAURELS

In addition to his selection to the Missouri Valley Football Conference's preaseon team, tight end Matt Thayer (Sr., Bellevue, Neb.) picked up a couple of national honors as well over the summer. Thayer was tabbed for the Valley's second team in Phil Steele's College Football Preview, as well as the CFPA Preseason Tight End Watch List.

HEAD COACH TERRY ALLEN

Missouri State head coach Terry Allen (Northern Iowa, 1979) is 120-105 (.533) in his 20th year as a head coach and 25-46 (.352) in his seventh year at Missouri State. Allen is 40-69 in road games (9-28 at MSU), 66-66 in conference games, including a 56-38 mark in MVFC games (16-31 at MSU) and 10-4 against Indiana State (3-3 at MSU). Allen is a five-time MVFC Coach of the Year and has previous head coaching stints at UNI (1989-96) and Kansas (1997-2001).

NON-CONFERENCE TRENDS

With their loss to Murray State Sept. 15, the Bears concluded their second straight winless non-conference season and ran their losing streak in such games to eight contests dating back to 2010. MSU went winless in non-conference play (0-4) for the first time since 1973 last fall, and are now 9-16 in non-league games under Terry Allen. The Bears' best showing came in 2007, when Allen guided them to four wins in five non-conference games.

Prior to last season, the Bears had enjoyed more than their share of success during the non-conference season, going 23-14 (.622) overall in such games since the start of the 2001 season.

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE

Missouri State is one of only three FCS teams to play a pair of Top 25 FBS teams in 2012. The Bears, who trailed No. 23 Louisville 25-7 after three quarters and No. 22 Kansas state 16-9 headed into the final period, join Savannah State (Oklahoma State, Florida State) and Jacksonville State (Arkansas, Florida) on the elite list of FCS teams competing for the honor of toughest non-conference schedule.

Coupled with four FCS preseason Top 25 opponents, MSU can once again make a valid claim as having one of the toughest schedules in the Division I FCS ranks. Last year, the Bears kicked off their season with road games against nationally-ranked Arkansas and Oregon making them the only FCS school in the country to tackle two different Top 20 FBS schools in 2011.

CLEARING 100K

Through five games this season, the Bears have played before 130,965 fans after easily eclipsing the 100K mark Sept. 15 with their home-opening crowd of 10,002 -- the earliest Missouri State has ever reached the 100,000 mark for overall attendance. The Bears have played before 100,000 fans in each of the previous 23 seasons, including 234,314 spectators last season. The team's 2011 season attendance total marked the first time MSU topped 200,000 in total season attendance.

BEARS 10TH IN PRESEASON POLL

Neither the return of 14 starters or a pair of conference road wins to close the 2011 campaign could dissuade the Missouri Valley Football Conference pollsters from tabbing Missouri State for last place in the league's annual preseason poll.

After going 2-6 in league play for a seventh-place finish in the MVFC standings in 2011, the Bears were picked 10th in this year's conference preseason poll as selected by league coaches, media and sports information directors. It marks the second consecutive last-place prediction for the Bears, who had not been picked last since 1987 before last year's preseason poll.

Including eight seasons at UNI, this year marks just the second time in 14 MVFC seasons that a Terry Allen team has been picked last in the conference preseason poll. In those 14 years, his squads have never finished worse than predicted, with seven finishes higher than projected and seven as projected, including six years when UNI was picked to win the conference.

PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE

Just two MSU players picked up Preseason All-MVFC accolades in 2012. Tight end Matt Thayer (Sr., Bellevue, Neb.), who was an All-MVFC honorable mention choice last year after he caught 20 passes for 247 yards and three touchdowns, received honorable mention, as did linebacker Andrew Beisel (So., Fenton, Mo.) after garnering All-Newcomer Team recognition last year.

BEARS IN THE NFL

Consensus All-America standouts Clay Harbor (2009) and David Arkin (2010) have taken their reputations as hard workers and clutch performers to the National Football League. Harbor begins his third season as a tight end with the Philadelphia Eagles, while Arkin embarks on his second pro campaign as an offensive linemen for the Dallas Cowboys.

Originally selected by Dallas with the 13th pick of the fourth round (110th overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft, Arkin started three of the Cowboys' four exhibition games this season. In addition to his All-America and all-conference honors, Arkin was also a CoSIDA Academic All-America second-team pick in 2010 and played in the East-West Shrine Game as well as the NFLPA Texas vs. The Nation All-Star Game.

In his rookie NFL season in 2010, Harbor played in nine games for the Eagles and had nine receptions for 72 yards and a touchdown as Philadelphia's No. 2 tight end. Last year, he picked up where he left off, logging 13 catches for 163 yards and a score. Drafted by the Eagles as the 27th pick of the fourth round (125 overall) in the 2010 Draft, Harbor is off to a strong start in 2012 as well, posting three receptions, including the game-winning touchdown grab with just over a minute remaining, in the Eagles' 17-16 win over Cleveland on Sept. 9.

BEAR CAPTAINS

The Missouri State players have elected five senior co-captains to represent them throughout the 2012 season. Seniors Nate Davis (OLB, Liberal, Kan.), Cadarrius Dotson (WR, Memphis, Tenn.), Tevan Ferguson (NT, Nashville, Tenn.), Randy Richards (OT, Royal Palm Beach, Fla.) and Matt Thayer (TE, Bellevue, Neb.) will be calling the coin toss and leading the pregame handshakes for the Bears this fall.

2012 Missouri State Football Game Notes

Missouri State Game-by-Game Summaries

Game 1

Sept. 1, 2012, Bill Snyder Family Stadium, Manhattan, Kan.

Missouri State 9
(22) Kansas State.....51

MANHATTAN, Kan. - Missouri State matched 22nd-ranked Kansas State blow for blow for nearly three quarters before the Wildcats reeled off 42 unanswered points to run away with a 51-9 victory before a sellout crowd of 50,007 at Bill Snyder Family Stadium. Kansas State rushed for 324 yards–including 222 in the second half--on 40 total carries, and Collin Klein passed for 169 yards and a pair of second-half touchdowns to lead the Wildcat attack.

The Wildcat defense and special teams fueled the second-half rally as well. KSU got a lift from a pair of big punt returns that led to touchdowns, while its defensive unit held MSU scoreless after a game-tying field goal at the end of the Bears' opening drive of the second half.

The Bears' offense did enjoy success moving the football, as Ashton Glaser paced the Missouri State offense, throwing for 257 yards on 22-of-44 passing. Dorian Buford turned in a career game of 114 yards on seven catches to lead the receiving corps, and Cadarrius Dotson grabbed six receptions for 82 yards to top the 1,000 career receiving yardage mark, moving to 15th on the Bears' all-time list.

After both defenses combined to seal the goal lines over the first 38 minutes of the contest, Klein came up with the game-changing play when he found Tramaine Thompson in the corner of the end zone on a critical third-and-14 from the Missouri State 18-yard line to put the Wildcats on top for good, 16-9. That play capped a 48-yard drive over which Klein was a perfect 5-of-5 for 45 yards through the air.

Just as they did all night, special teams played a pivotal role in another KSU scoring chance that ultimately handed the Wildcats their first double-digit lead of the night late in the third quarter. MSU's Chris Sullens boomed the first of three long punts to send return man Tyler Lockett deep into his own territory, but the sophomore outran the Bears' coverage to bring the ball all the way to the MSU 32 with a 43-yard return. Five plays later, Braden Wilson took it in from four yards out to make it a two-touchdown game.

In spite of a 67-yard Sullens punt that pinned the Wildcats on the two-yard line early in the fourth period, KSU found a way once again. On the second play of the drive, John Hubert took a handoff from Klein and raced 95 yards to the end zone to put KSU up, 30-9. Hubert's dash eclipsed a Missouri State opponent record for the longest rush in program history, as well as a Bill Snyder Family Stadium record.

KSU's Nigel Malone came up with his second key defensive play of the night moments later, intercepting a Glaser pass and returning the ball 18 yards to the MSU eight yard line. The Wildcats needed just two plays to punch it in, as Klein hit Chris Harper from one yard out to stretch the lead to 37-9 with just over 10 minutes to play.

The Wildcats (1-0) piled on a pair of meaningless touchdowns late, including an 89-yard punt return by Thompson, to run the margin to a comfortable 42 points.

The lopsided finish came in the wake of a highly competitive first half that was highlighted by big plays from both offenses and a series of key red zone stops by each defensive unit. Wildcat kicker Anthony Cantele booted three field goals, while the Bears' Austin Witmer nailed a pair of kicks to account for all of the scoring in a 9-6 opening stanza.

The final yardage tally saw KSU hold a 493 to 418 advantage, thanks largely to 323 yards passing for MSU. Scott led the Bears' rushing game with 64 yards on 11 carries, while Hubert racked up a game-high 152 yards on 12 totes for the Wildcats.

Game 2

Sept. 8, 2012, Papa John's Cardinal Stadium, Louisville, Ky.

Missouri State 7
(23) Louisville 35

LOUISVILLE, Ky. - Despite another competitive performance against a Top 25 FBS opponent, the Bears fell victim to a career passing day by Louisville quarterback Terry Bridgewater in a 35-7 loss to the 23rd-ranked Cardinals at Papa John's Cardinal Stadium.

Bridgewater, who completed 30-of-39 passes for 344 yards and a pair of touchdowns, connected with 10 different receivers in surpassing previous career highs for completions and passing yardage to help keep the Cardinals in control throughout the day. Louisville racked up 475 yards of total offense and was a combined 11-of-17 converting on third and fourth downs.

The Cardinal defense did its part as well, holding the MSU offense to just 249 yards of total offense on the day. U of L was particularly effective in grounding the Bears' rushing attack, limiting MSU to 99 yards on 31 carries.

The combination of Bridgewater and a stingy Louisville defense was dominant early, as the Cardinals scored the first 18 points of the game before taking an 11-point lead into intermission. The U of L defense allowed the Bears just 111 yards of total offense and five first downs in the opening stanza, while Bridgewater completed 21-of-26 passes for 259 yards and a touchdown.

Louisville (2-0) got the ball rolling on its second offensive possession of the day, capitalizing on a 55-yard Bridgewater completion to Charles Gaines to set up the Cardinals deep in MSU territory. After Louisville converted a fourth and one opportunity at the 11, the Bears' defense stiffened, stopping Bridgewater at the three on a third-down rush attempt to force a 19-yard field goal by Matt Nakatani.

The Bears appeared to catch a break midway through the first quarter when Gaines muffed a punt return, and MSU's Anthony Lee pounced on the loose ball at the Cardinal 30 yard line. But the call was overturned after an official review concluded that the ball was untouched, giving Louisville a first down heading the other direction instead.

The Cardinals took advantage of the reprieve, marching 70 yards in 12 plays over 4:08 to reach the end zone and ultimately take an 11-0 lead. Bridgewater led the charge, coming up with a trio of third-down conversions to keep the drive alive, the biggest of which was a 21-yard hookup with Andrell Smith that gave Louisville a first-and-goal at the five yard line. Senorise Perry punched it in from three yards out two plays later, and Will Stein connected with Marcus Smith on a two-point conversion with 0:36 to play in the period.

Following another three-and-out for the Bears' offense, Bridgewater powered the Cardinals on another long scoring drive to increase the margin to 18 points. The sophomore punctuated the 13-play, 83-yard drive with a 14-yard touchdown strike to Nate Nord with 8:39 left in the half.

Missouri State, which wouldn't register a first down until midway through the second period, finally got its offense in gear in the closing minutes of the half to find the end zone for the first time in 2012 and narrow the halftime gap to 11 points. Ashton Glaser engineered the Bears' late push, completing all five of his pass attempts for 63 yards on the drive. The junior signal-caller found Cadarrius Dotson on a six-yard scoring toss with just 0:51 to go in the half, capping a 73-yard drive that covered eight plays in just 2:27.

But that would be as close as the Bears would get, as Bridgewater led the Cardinals on an 11-play drive covering 75 yards on their opening possession of the second half to push the lead to 25-7. Ryan Hubbell was the recipient of a Bridgewater touchdown pass on a third-and-goal call from the two yard line. Louisville tacked on a 45-yard field goal by Nakatani on its next drive, then salted the game away in the closing seconds when Corvin Lamb plunged in from one yard out following a 74-yard fumble return by Jordon Paschal.

Sophomore Caleb Schaffitzel and junior Ryan Callender posted career best days for the MSU defense, finishing with 17 and 10 tackles, respectively.

Game 3

Sept. 15, 2012, Plaster Field, Springfield, Mo.

Murray State 28
Missouri State 23

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. - Despite outgaining Murray State in total offense, the Bears came up short on the scoreboard against the visiting Racers in a back-and-forth 28-23 contest to open their 2012 home slate. Murray State quarterback Casey Brockman helped stake the Racers (1-2) to a 14-point lead in the first half, then put them on top for good early in the fourth quarter with a 15-yard touchdown pass to Jaamal Berry that ultimately sealed the Bears' third loss in as many games.

Murray State, which trailed the Bears on two different occasions in the second half, delivered its first win of 2012 in dramatic fashion. The two clubs traded leads throughout a competitive third quarter before Brockman's second touchdown pass of the night with 14:20 left in the game settled the score for good.

Brockman, who broke a Missouri State opponent record for passing yards (520) in the two clubs' last meeting, established Bear opponent records for pass completions (41) and attempts (59) Saturday. The senior found 11 different receivers in racking up 313 passing yards in the victory.

The Bears mounted the only serious scoring threat in the game's first 15 minutes, as quarterback Ashton Glaser hooked up with Dorian Buford on a 69-yard completion from deep in MSU territory to give the Bears a first down at the Murray State 28-yard line. However, the Racers' Jarius Williams stepped in front of Glaser's second-down pass for an interception and returned the ball 33 yards to the Missouri State 45 with just three seconds left in the period. Murray State moved the ball to the Bears' 36, before a personal foul on the offense and a Ryan Callender sack on third down stalled the Racers' best scoring opportunity early in the second.

The visitors seized control of the contest over a seven-minute stretch, using a 12-play, 72-yard drive capped by a three-yard Duane Brady run to put the game's first points on the board. Murray State, which covered the final 25 yards of its first scoring drive on the ground, took to the air for its second touchdown—a 16-yard strike from Brockman to Nevar Griffin to push its lead to 14-0 with just over three minutes left in the half.

Missouri State finally got into the scoring act on its final possession of the half, moving the ball 75 yards in just 1:10 to cut its deficit to 14-7. Glaser completed 3-of-4 passes for 29 yards on the drive, while Scott ran for 17 yards, including the final two for the touchdown with 2:04 left on the clock.

The two offenses heated things up in the third quarter, combining for 23 points and 321 yards of total offense. The Bears continued their comeback by driving the ball 71 yards to pay dirt on their first possession of the second half. Glaser, who completed all seven of his pass attempts for 59 yards on the drive, found a wide-open Julian Burton over the middle for a 32-yard scoring strike to pull the Bears even at 14-14 at the 11:43 mark in the third period.

Murray State wasted little time in answering the Bears, moving the ball 63 yards in just 2:29 to reclaim the lead at 21-17 on a one-yard touchdown run by Brockman.

But Glaser scored on a six-yard run to punctuate a 75-yard drive for the Bears, putting the home team back in the lead. The Racers came up with a key block on Austin Witmer's PAT try, keeping the margin at 23-21 with 1:22 left in the third.

Not to be outdone by Missouri State, the Racers recorded a 75-yard drive of their own to vault back on top just 40 seconds into the fourth period. Brockman came up with another big completion, this time scrambling out of trouble to find Berry, who beat a pair of Bears to the pylon for the go-ahead touchdown and a five-point Murray State advantage.

Game 4

Sept. 22, 2012, Plaster Field, Springfield, Mo.

Southern Illinois..... 14
Missouri State 6

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. - Southern Illinois raced out to a 14-point lead in the first 10 minutes of the contest Missouri State, then rode a strong performance from its defense to close out a 14-6 win over the Bears at Plaster Field. The Saluki defense forced three key turnovers, including an interception return for a touchdown, to send MSU to its fourth straight loss to start the 2012 season.

Despite dominating nearly every offensive statistical category and generating several scoring opportunities, the Bears never could reach the end zone against the Saluki defense. SIU held the Bears 120 yards of offense in a scoreless second half to preserve the win, overshadowing a standout effort from the Missouri State defense, which limited the Salukis to 198 yards on the day and held the visitors without a third-down conversion in 13 tries.

Freshman running back Ryan Heaston led the MSU offense with a career-high 126 yards on 22 rushes, while junior receiver Dorian Buford reeled in nine catches to match his personal best for receptions. Additionally, Matt Thayer hauled eight receptions for 72 yards, both representing career-best totals for the senior tight end.

Missouri State outgained the Salukis by a 362 to 198 in total offense and recorded 20 first downs to just 11 for SIU, but a series of missed opportunities and 100 penalty yards, combined with a clutch defensive effort by SIU proved to be more than the Bears could overcome.

SIU broke into the scoring column first, getting a key defensive play to take an early 7-0 lead. Emmanuel Souarin stepped in front of an Ashton Glaser pass and returned the ball 44 yards for a Saluki touchdown just four minutes and 59 seconds into the game. After stopping the Bears' offense on the ensuing possession, the Salukis put together a 63-yard scoring drive to take a commanding 14-point lead. Kalokoh sparked the drive with a 36-yard run to set up SIU in the red zone, before taking a swing pass from Faulkner and trotting into the end zone with 5:54 remaining in the period.

The Bears answered with an 11-play drive to put their first points of the afternoon on the scoreboard. Heaston ripped off a 14-yard rush, and Glaser connected on all four of his pass attempts to help MSU drive 68 yards to the SIU seven before the drive stalled. Witmer then nailed a 25-yard field-goal attempt to draw the Bears to within 14-3.

Missouri State moved the ball deep into Saluki territory again on its next possession, thanks to a pair of long Glaser completions. The junior transfer connected with Eric Christophel on a key 30-yard gain on third down from the MSU 33, then hit Matt Thayer for a 14-yard completion to push the chains to the Saluki 23. SIU forced a field goal attempt, but a running into the kicker penalty gave the Bears new life at the SIU 12. Three straight Heaston rushes moved the ball to the five, but the Salukis came up big on fourth down, stopping Heaston just short of the first down marker to halt the drive.

After forcing another Southern Illinois punt deep in their own territory, the Bears regained the ball in prime position to further cut into the visitors' lead. A 26-yard punt gave MSU the ball at the SIU 30, but the Bears moved the ball just four yards before Witmer's second field goal of the game--this one from 43 yards out--made it a 14-6 contest.

The defenses took control of the game during a scoreless third period that saw both offenses struggle to move the football, combining for just 91 yards of total offenses and only four first downs in the quarter.

Mika'il McCall led the SIU rushing attack with 80 yards, 73 of which came in the second half.

Glaser finished the day 20-of-35 for 180 yards, while Harris completed 6-of-7 passes for 38 yards in a relief role.

Game 5

Sept. 29, 2012, Coughlin-Alumni Stadium, Brookings, S.D.

Missouri State 7
(25) South Dakota State..... 17

BROOKINGS, S.D. - Another gritty effort by the Missouri State defense was overshadowed by five turnovers in the Bears' 17-7 loss to 25th-ranked South Dakota State. The Bears couldn't find the endzone in the second half, despite numerous opportunities created by the defense.

For the second week in-a-row, freshman Ryan Heaston showcased his quick and flashy moves at the running back position and generated 185 all-purpose yards, including 150 rushing on 20 carries. He averaged 7.4 yards a carry. Bears' starting quarterback Ashton Glaser finished 15-for-39 with four interceptions and a fumble.

Aside from an 88-yard scamper by Jackrabbits' running back Zach Zenner in the first quarter, the Bears' defense was able to limit the nation's leading rusher to an average of 3.24 yards/carry on his other 29 rushing attempts. In addition to racking up 182 yards rushing on 30 carries, Zenner also eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark in the fifth game of the season.

It looked as if the MSU offense would respond in its third drive as well. The Bears moved the chains with back-to-back Heaston runs of 24 and 22 yards, respectively. Two plays later though, the momentum shifted in favor of SDSU with Glaser's first interception of the game.

Starting on its own 37, SDSU advanced the ball all the way down to the MSU 30 before Zenner coughed it up. Forced by safety Mike Crutcher, cornerback Howard Scarborough fell on the ball at the spot of the fumble.

The defensive back duo of Scarborough and Crutcher came up big again as the Jackrabbits looked to recover from their turnover in the previous drive. Scarborough's tip traveled right into the hands of Crutcher for SDSU's second turnover of the game. But, the Bears had just one first down and were unable to capitalize.

Before the end of the half, SDSU placekicker tapped in a 23-yard field goal to increase the Jackrabbits' lead to 10-0. With 2:25 remaining, Missouri State needed to make a move quickly.

Immediately following Heaston runs of nine and 22, the Bears were knocking on the door. Wide receiver Julian Burton pulled down a Glaser pass and tiptoed down the sideline for a 28-yard reception to the SDSU three-yard line. Heaston moved it forward ahead another two yards, before Glaser pushed it in for the score. Glaser's one-yard run capped a five-play, 1:07 drive and snapped a six-quarter drought by the MSU offense, which previously reached the end zone in the third quarter against Murray State.

The third quarter belonged to both defensive units as the two teams combined for three turnovers, three punts and a missed field goal. Lockdown defense carried into the fourth quarter as cornerback Shybrian Berry killed the Jackrabbits' drive deep in the Bears' territory. On the first play of the quarter, Berry went airborne in the endzone and pulled down his second pick of the night. He became just the fourth Bear in the Terry Allen era to record two interceptions in a game.

Eerily similar to the first half, Missouri State turned it right back over with Glaser's third interception and fourth turnover overall. SDSU benefitted from the costly turnover and capped the short four-play drive with an eight-yard TD strike from Sumner to Brandon Hubert.

In a strange sequence of events, with MSU attempting to rally back, Glaser threw a fourth interception deep in the endzone. As the Jackrabbit defender raced the other the other way, Burton caught up with him and took the ball back. The Bears were unable to muster a score out of the drive.

Nate Davis (14) and Caleb Schaffitzel (11) led the defense in tackles, while the Bears forced four turnovers of their own. Davis had an interception and forced a fumble.

Head Coach, 7th year

The 2012 season will mark Terry Allen's seventh year at the helm of the Missouri State program. Allen was named Missouri State's 19th head football coach on December 20, 2005 and has produced 41 all-conference players and 24 academic all-conference players in his first six campaigns in Springfield.

In his inaugural season at Missouri State, Allen inherited a senior-heavy team that finished 2-9. However, the Bears dropped four games by a touchdown or less that season and lost another contest by 10 points. The team landed three players on the 2006 all-conference list and set the foundation for the program's future.

Allen then took his charges to an exciting 6-5 campaign in 2007, the biggest improvement for a Missouri State team in 19 years. The Bears were 5-1 at home in year two and produced 36.3 points per game, MSU's best scoring average ever for an 11-game season. MSU also scored 49.5 points a game for the team's six home contests.

MSU also knocked off three ranked opponents in 2007 and landed three on the All-MVFC squad. Sophomore tight end Clay Harbor and freshman lineman David Arkin joined kicker Nathan Stokes for honors.

Harbor was also named to the AP Third-Team All-America squad, while senior TB Gerald Davis set a school record with 19 rushing touchdowns.

In 2008, the Bears continued to make strides under Allen's leadership. Despite a 4-7 overall record, the substance of the team's performance showed a 3-3 road mark, which matched the school's most road victories since 1996. Likewise, the team's 3-5 record in the new-look Missouri Valley Football Conference equalled the team's most league wins since 1993. MSU also lost two games by margins of eight points or less along the way.

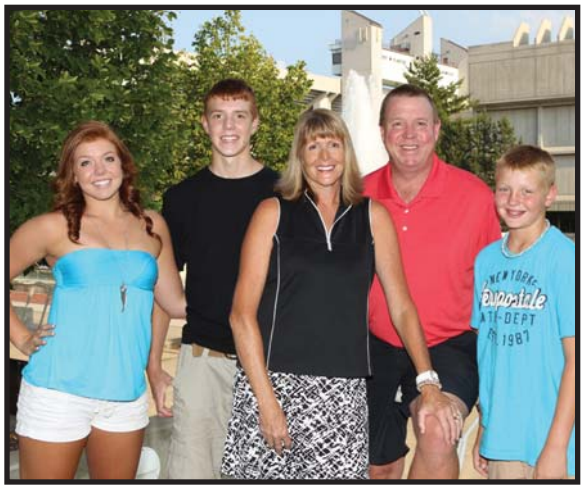
Even more impressive in 2008 was the effort put forth by the program's inventory of underclassmen. Harbor, a junior, earned All-MVFC first team honors for the second straight year, while moving up to Second Team on the AP All-America list. Joining Harbor on the all-conference squad were sophomore guard Arkin and second-year quarterback Cody Kirby.

In 2009, the Bears notched their second winning campaign in three years under Allen, once again going 6-5 and 4-4 in the MVFC. MSU was 3-2 on the road, including first-ever wins at Youngstown State and North Dakota State along with the squad's first victory at Western Illinois since 2001.

Eight players were recognized by the MVFC as all-conference performers, including first-teamers Harbor, Arkin and Newcomer of the Year Antoine Wilkinson (LB).

Harbor became Allen's first Missouri State player drafted into the NFL when he was snagged in the fourth round of the 2010 Draft by the Eagles.

The 2010 season saw the Bears go undefeated at home, marking the first time since 1992 that an MSU team had gone unbeaten at Plaster. The Bears also knocked off three Top 25 opponents -- No. 20 Youngstown State, No. 18 Western Illinois and No. 17 North Dakota State. MSU also beat two Division I playoff opponents, including eventual national quarterfinalist NDSU, en route to tying for third place in the competitive MVFC standings.



The Bears landed seven players on the 2010 All-MVFC Team, including Arkin and Wilkinson on the first team.

Arkin became the second Bear picked in the NFL Draft in as many years when the Dallas Cowboys picked him up in the 2011 fourth round, capping a consensus All-America season for the standout tackle.

One of the nation's toughest schedules saw the 2011 Bears struggle out of the gates before winning their final two road games and spoiling the playoff hopes of a solid Youngstown State team in the season finale. MSU dropped four contests by a touchdown or less in the 2-9 run, including one double overtime decision.

Running back Chris Douglas and receiver Jermaine Saffold signed NFL free agent contracts after the 2012 draft, with six MSU players earning all-conference honors -- including Saffold on the first team -- and three making the Valley All-Academic Team.

Prior to his arrival in Springfield, Allen's 75-26 record between 1989 and 1996 at UNI made him the winningest coach in MVFC history at the time. His Panther teams won or shared league titles seven straight seasons from 1990-96 and competed in the NCAA playoffs each of his last seven years, including runs to the national semifinals in 1992 and 1996. UNI was also undefeated at home in conference play during his tenure in Cedar Falls.

Allen was named MVFC Coach of the Year five times in his last six seasons at UNI and was named Kodak Regional Coach of the Year in 1992 and 1996. Starting in 1992, UNI was nationally ranked for 87 consecutive weeks.

Allen followed more than 20 years at UNI with five seasons as head coach at Kansas (1997-2001) and later four seasons as associate head coach, tight ends coach and special teams coordinator at Iowa State.

The Jayhawks were 20-33 Allen's five seasons as head coach at Kansas. Included in that tenure were wins over nationally-ranked Colorado and three victories over Missouri. He also guided KU to its 500th all-time win in 1997 and opened his final season with a 24-10 win over MSU.

Allen's KU and UNI tenures finished with a collective 95-59 overall record, including a 63-4 record when his teams led at the half. He also tutored nine future NFL players during that stint, including all-pro quarterback Kurt Warner who was the 1999 and 2001 NFL Offensive Player of the Year for the St. Louis Rams. The 1995 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, Bills' linebacker Bryce Paup, also played for Allen.

Moving to Iowa State as associate head coach in 2002, Allen renewed a lengthy relationship with Cyclones head coach Dan McCarney who was Allen's prep track coach in Iowa City. In four seasons at Iowa State, the Cyclones went to three bowl games with Allen coaching special teams.

A 1979 physical education graduate of UNI, Allen immediately joined Stan Sheriff's staff after his playing career ended. He took the role of graduate assistant coach in the fall of 1979 and then moved to a full-time position the next year and stayed on the staff when Sheriff retired and handed the reins to Darrell Mudra in 1983. During his decade as a UNI assistant, Allen had responsibility at various times for quarterbacks, offensive backs and wide receivers.

Allen was a standout prep quarterback at West High School in Iowa City and started three seasons as UNI's top QB.

In his head coaching career, he has mentored 19 AP All-America players and 199 all-conference selections.

Allen's father, Robert, played football and was an NCAA champion swimmer at Iowa. He also served as an assistant football coach and head swim coach for 16 years.

Allen and his wife, Lynn, have three children; Angie, Chase and Alex.
