The official online home of Sycamore Athletics, ISU Athletics and Sycamore Football information can be accessed online at all times. Complete statistics, notes, recaps, features, video and more are available at GoSycamores.com.

Social Media

Indiana State football information can be found on Facebook.com/SycamoreFootball as well as on Twitter (@IndStFB) and Instagram (IndStFB).

Interview Availability

ISU players are available during game week following practices at Memorial Stadium. Head Coach Curt Mallory will also be available at this time or upon prior arrangements with the ISU Athletic Communications Office. Please contact Director of Athletic Communications Ace Hunt or Assistant Director of Athletic Communications Tim McCaughan to confirm practice times or schedule an interview with Coach Mallory or Sycamore student-athletes throughout the week. All interviews are to be coordinated through the Athletic Communications office. Media are not permitted to contact student-athletes on their own at any time.

Live Weekly Press Conference

Indiana State's Digital Media Coordinator and football play-by-play announcer Luke Martin will host a weekly press conference with head coach Curt Mallory each Tuesday at 11 a.m. ET, and will air it live on Facebook (Facebook.com/SycamoreFootball) and YouTube (Indiana State Athletics). Media are welcome to attend or request b-roll. For media that are interested in either option, please contact Assistant Director of Athletic Communications Tim McCaughan for details.

Postgame Policies

Director of Athletic Communications Ace Hunt or Assistant Director of Athletic Communications Tim McCaughan will coordinate all postgame interviews for the Sycamores, as the locker room is closed to media. On the road, Coach Mallory and selected players will be made available after a brief cooling off period in an area outside the locker room or a space designated by the host school.

QUICK HITS

- Indiana State faces another tough matchup with a ranked Missouri Valley Football Conference contest at No. 8 Illinois State on Saturday. Kickoff is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. ET.
- Saturday's game will be broadcast live online on The Valley On ESPN3. On the call will be Kurt Pegler (play-by-play), Chris Highland (color) and RC McBride (sideline).
- Sycamore fans can also listen live on the radio on WIBQ 97.9 FM (1230 AM) or online at GoSycamores.com/Watch with new broadcast crew Luke Martin (play-by-play) and Brian Fritz (color).
- The Sycamores are 0-3 for the first time since the 2009 season following a heartbreaking season-opening loss vs. Eastern Illinois (22-20), a loss at No. 21/25 Tennessee (42-7) and a 42-41 loss at No. 19 Liberty during week three.
- The road does not get any easier for the Sycamores as the teams' next three opponents are ranked in the top-10. The MVFC has seven teams ranked in the top-25.
- Indiana State played in front of 99,015 fans at Neyland Stadium against Tennessee in week two, the largest crowd to ever witness a Sycamore Football game. The previous high was 96,461 at Penn State in 2011.
- The Sycamores have now played in two of the five largest college football stadiums in the past six years. Penn State's Beaver Stadium (106,572) ranks second behind Michigan's Michigan Stadium (107,601), and Tennessee's Neyland Stadium fifth behind Ohio State's Ohio Stadium (third, 104,944) and Texas A&M's Kyle Field (fourth, 102,733).
- New head coach Curt Mallory is looking for his first career victory. The last Sycamore head coach to earn his first win on the road was Tim McGuire at Southeast Missouri in 1998 (21-14).
- Indiana State and Illinois State have played 68 times in total, with the Redbirds leading the all-time series 36-30-2. Indiana State holds a 21-12-2 record over ILS in Terre Haute while the Redbirds are 24-9 in games played in Normal. The Sycamores defeated Illinois State in 2016 in Terre Haute, 34-31. The last time the Sycamores defeated Illinois State in Normal was in 1996.
- Before the season opener, ISU had not lost an FCS non-conference game since falling 38-37 at Tennessee Tech in 2013. The Sycamores would have their revenge the following season, topping TTU 49-14 in Terre Haute in 2014.
- Indiana State has recorded the second-fewest penalties in MVFC with only 15 for 147 yards or 49 yards per game. The mark is good enough for 13th nationally.
- The Sycamores finished no higher than eighth in the Valley in penalties in each of the last three seasons, finishing eighth in 2016 (55.8 YPG), 10th in 2015 (68.0 YPG) and 10th in 2014 (65.1 YPG).
- This marks the 113th season of football at Indiana State, which dates back to 1896. The University did not field teams from 1899 to 1900, 1908 or from 1910 to 1919. ISU owns an all-time record of 384-520-23 (.415) and is competing for the 32nd consecutive season as a member of the Missouri Valley Football Conference.
- All-time, the Sycamores are 61-148 in MVFC play.
- Indiana State has gone 8-10 against FCS non-conference teams in the past 10 seasons, and recently had a six-game winning streak dating back to 2013 snapped by Eastern Illinois in the season opener.

SYCAMORES IN THE NATIONAL POLLS/V.S. RANKED TEAMS

- Indiana State has ranked nationally in some variation 52 times since joining the Valley in 1986.
- ISU was ranked a school-record 20 straight weeks from Sept. 19, 2014 until Nov. 2, 2015.
- Since joining the Valley, the Sycamores have reached a high ranking of No. 14 three times: 1989 (Preseason), 1995 (Nov. 6) and 2012 (Oct. 29).
- Prior to joining the MVFC, the Sycamores reached an all-time high ranking of No. 1 in the nation during the 1984 Playoff season.
- The Sycamores have faced the No. 1 team in the nation 10 times since joining the Valley, going 1-9 in such games. ISU's one victory came at No. 1 North Dakota State on Oct. 13, 2012, winning 17-14 in the Fargodome.
- The Sycamores own a 16-90 all-time record against Top-25 teams, which includes a 12-69 mark against ranked MVFC schools.
- Indiana State's last win against a ranked team came against No. 9 Illinois State in Terre Haute on Sept. 24, 2016 (34-31).
- Since joining the Valley, Indiana State is 20-25 as a ranked team.
- While ranked, Indiana State is 3-10 all-time vs. other ranked MVFC schools, all wins coming in 2014 vs. No. 10 Northern Iowa on Oct. 4 (20-19), at No. 19 Southern Illinois on Oct. 25 (41-26) and at No. 15 Youngstown State on Nov. 15 (27-24, OT).

OFFENSIVE NOTES

• New offensive coordinator Jeff Hecklinski has installed a brand new offensive system for the Sycamores in 2017, moving away from the spread system of years past toward a pro-style, run-oriented offense.

• Senior TE Jacquet McClendon leads ISU and ranks second in the Valley with 18 receptions for 209 yards and two touchdown's through three games.

• McClendon was the second-best returning receiver for the Sycamores from 2016, when he recorded 157 yards on 14 receptions.

• Entering the 2017 season, McClendon only had 188 career receiving yards on 16 career receptions and zero touchdowns. This season, McClendon has surpassed his career total in yards at 209.

• McClendon hauled in his first career TD reception at Tennessee in the third quarter, a 23-yard catch from redshirt freshman QB Cade Sparks -- the first career passing TD of his career as well.

• ISU ranks fifth nationally with 16.97 yards per completion. Sparks ranks 14th in the country with 9.19 yards per attempt.

• Sparks lost out in a training camp position battle with returning starter Isaac Harker, but was put in the game in the second quarter vs. Eastern Illinois and earned his first career start at Tennessee.

• Sparks completed his first career pass for 43 yards to WR Bob Pugh vs. EIU.

• Sparks more than tripled his career passing totals with a lights-out passing showcase at No. 19 Liberty on Saturday night. Sparks put up the second-best passing game in school history with 405 yards through the air, falling just short of Mike Perish's 2014 record of 407 set in the FCS Playoffs at Eastern Kentucky.

• Sparks' performance (and a 31-yard TD pass by holder Jeremy Patterson on a fake FG) helped break the ISU school record for team passing yards, totaling 436 to surpass the 2013 record of 433 set vs. Quincy. Sparks' final line on the night read 22-of-36 for 405 yards, two TD, one INT and a long of 64.

• Sparks redshirted the 2016 season after leading the state of California in passing touchdowns as a high school senior with 52 TD in 2015. His senior year final line read 184-of-308 for 3,225 yards, 52 TD, 4 INT and one rushing TD.

• Through three games, Sparks is 33-of-62 for 570 yards, three touchdowns and one interceptions.

• Harker was an Honorable Mention All-MVFC member in 2016 after becoming the first Valley QB to 2,000 yards, ending with the third-best passing season in school history at 2,559 yards.

• Redshirt senior RB LeMonte Booker missed all of 2016 due to injury but returned to the field with 154 rushing yards and 158 all-purpose yards with two total touchdowns against Eastern Illinois, accounting for 53.9 percent of ISU's offense.

• Booker followed that up with 76 yards on 15 carries at Tennessee.

• Booker's first two games of 2017 constitute the first time in his Sycamore career that he has put up consecutive games of at least 68 rushing yards or more.

- Booker's 154 rushing yards vs. EIU was a career-high (previous high was 137 vs. Butler in 2015), and the 55th game in ISU history of at least 150 rushing yards.
- Booker's rushing totals were the most since Shakir Bell tallied 201 yards at Tennessee Tech in 2013. His 31 rushes also constituted the first 30-plus rush game by a Sycamore since Bell had 33 carries at Southern Illinois in 2012.
- Booker is the first ISU runningback not named Shakir Bell to rush for 150 yards in a single game since Darius Gates rushed for 160 vs. St. Joseph's in 2010.
- Booker eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark for his career in rushing yards this year, currently sitting at 1,209 career yards. Booker also ranks just 48 yards shy of the all-time top-10 in all-purpose yards at 2,565.
- Currently, Booker ranks second in the Valley and 21st in the FCS in rushing with 325 yards.
- Booker was named a Preseason Honorable Mention All-MVFC member as a running back this fall, his second preseason honor after also earning Honorable Mention as a return specialist in 2015.
- Senior WR Bob Pugh has 335 all-purpose yards this year: 35 rushing yards including 24 at Tennessee. Pugh caught two passes against Eastern Illinois for 47 yards before exploding for 260 yards on eight receptions and two touchdowns at Liberty.
- After rewriting the Indiana State record book at No. 19 Liberty, redshirt senior wide receiver Bob Pugh was named the STATS FCS National Offensive Player of the Week as well as the MVFC Offensive Player of the Week.
- Pugh recorded the second-best receiving game in school history (and fifth-best in the history of the Valley) with 260 yards and two touchdowns on eight catches against Liberty.
- Pugh is the top returning receiver from 2016, when he hauled in 17 passes for 276 yards and one TD. Pugh also had one pass attempt on the season, a 10-yard TD pass to QB Isaac Harker at Minnesota.
- RB Jaquan Keys had a productive sophomore season in 2016 as a compliment to starter Roland Genesey after missing the 2015 season due to injury. Last year, Keys rushing for 311 yards and one score.
- True freshman RB Titus McCoy had an extremely lucrative career at Center Grove High School, which he led to the state finals twice and a state title in 2015. There, McCoy recorded an incredible 3,828 career rushing yards, 645 career receiving yards and 54 total TD.
- Indiana State lost 73.8 percent of its receiving output from 2016 -- including 25.9 percent alone from Robert Tonyan Jr.
- Former walk-on and senior WR Curtis Lee has only played in one career game on special teams prior to 2017, but Lee caught two passes for 47 yards vs. EIU in the season opener.
- Senior TE Calvin Blank has started both games to open the 2017 season, matching his career totals entering the year (started one game apiece in 2015 and 2016).
- True freshman WR Michael Thomas hauled in his first career reception at Tennessee for seven yards.
- True freshman WR Rontrez Morgan has not caught a pass as a Sycamore yet, but he has rushed the ball three times for one yard on jet sweeps.

• Several new tight ends have seen the field in Hecklinski's new scheme, including converted QB and redshirt freshman Zach Larkin, converted offensive lineman and redshirt sophomore Nakia Grier, and converted linebacker and true freshman Tommy Richardson.

DEFENSIVE/SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

• New defensive coordinator Brad Wilson has installed a change from the nickel set, 3-4 base of years past into a 4-3 defensive front that puts more emphasis on the front seven attack.

• Indiana State ranks 35th in FCS in rush defense, allowing just 119.0 YPG on the ground.

• The ISU defense has held both EIU (278) and Tennessee (395) to under 400 yards to open the year. ISU has done so now for three consecutive games when 2016's season finale at No. 4 North Dakota State is included (316).

• Indiana State held Eastern Illinois to just 278 yards of total offense, the fewest allowed by a Sycamore defense since yielding 226 to Youngstown State on Nov. 21, 2015.

• Indiana State had just one game in 2016 where the defense allowed fewer than 300 yards of total offense (291, at Youngstown State).

• The Sycamores allowed just 76 yards rushing to EIU, the fewest since holding Southern Illinois to 27 yards on Oct. 25, 2014.

• ISU has recorded 21.0 TFL for a loss of 86 yards in three games this season (7.0 each game). The Sycamores had four games with 7.0 TFL or more in 2016.

• The Sycamores have recorded 8.0 sacks for a loss of 54 yards -- including 5.0 alone vs. EIU in the season opener.

• The 5.0 sacks recorded against EIU in the season opener is the most by a Sycamore team since tallying 5.0 at Tennessee Tech on Sept. 28, 2013. ISU ranks 13th in the FCS and fourth in the MVFC with 3.0 sacks per game.

• Sophomore DE Inoke Moala ranks second in the MVFC and 24th in the nation with 5.0 TFL. Moala has earned his first three career starts at defensive end to open the 2017 season. As a true freshman, Moala recorded just five tackles. Through three games, he has 17 total tackles (nine solo), 5.0 TFL (19 yards), 1.5 sacks (nine yards) and two QB hurries.

• Senior DE Evan Gill has also earned three starts as a Sycamore to open the 2017 season. Gill was one of four to transfer in from Saint Joseph's College in Indiana, which closed following the Spring 2017 semester.

• Gill has 12 tackles and 1.5 sacks on the season after two All-Conference seasons at Saint Joseph's. There, Gill was a two-time All-Conference performer and a Team Captain with 78 tackles, 12 sacks and 22.0 TFL.

• Redshirt sophomore LB Jonas Griffith has led the Sycamores in tackles in two games -- recording 13 vs. EIU and nine at Tennessee. Griffith ranks 13th in the FCS and second in the Valley with 31 total tackles, as well as 55th in the nation and third in the MVFC in solo tackles with 15.

• Griffith played in 10 games as a redshirt freshman in 2016 and returns as the third-best tackler on ISU's roster with 37 total tackles last year. Griffith helped lead ISU to a near-upset at No. 14 Youngstown State in 2016, where he led the Sycamores with a career-high nine tackles and his first career interception at a crucial juncture in the game.

• Griffith and redshirt junior LB Katrell Moss both own 1.5 TFL on the season, and both recorded 13 tackles against EIU -- the most since Jameer Thurman recorded 14 against Missouri State in 2016.

• Moss is the top returning tackler for the Sycamores with 46 total tackles in 2016 (28 solo). Moss also had two pass breakups and one fumble recovery for eight yards. Moss eclipsed the 100 tackle mark for his career vs. EIU. He currently stands at 119 career stops.

• Moss was a member of the 2015 MVFC All-Newcomer Team after recording 47 total tackles -- 11 and a forced fumble coming against then-defending national champions North Dakota State.

• Junior CB Rondell Green ranks first in the Valley with 1.7 passes defended per game -- two pass breakups vs. Eastern Illinois and an interception in the endzone to stall a redzone drive at Tennessee. On his career, Green now owns 10 pass breakups and two interceptions.

• Safety Keaaris Ardley recorded a season best 12 tackles (7 solo) at Liberty. The senior had just 18 tackles his junior season.

• DT Rex Mosley sparked a brief rally for the Sycamores at Tennessee with a forced fumble and recovery on a sack of Tennessee QB Quinten Dormady to setup a 23-yard TD reception by Jacquet McClendon. On the season, Mosley has eight tackles (three solo) for 1.5 TFL (10 yards), 1.0 sacks (seven yards), two pass breakups (vs. EIU), one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

• Senior LB Jordan Jackson recorded a career-high seven tackles vs. EIU and a career-high 1.5 TFL at Tennessee. Jackson missed the 2014 and 2015 seasons in their entirety due to injury, but was able to play in 10 games and start in four during his redshirt junior season in 2016.

• Sophomore kicker Jerry Nunez went 2-for-3 in field goals against Liberty, the 18th and 19th of his young career. Nunez connected on two field goals from 43 yards out, before the potential 23-yard game-winning FG was blocked as time expired. It was the seventh career multi-FG game for Nunez, and his 43-yarder stood as his 10th career field goal from 40 yards or longer after going 7-of-8 from there and a perfect 4-for-4 from 30-39 as a freshman.

• Nunez led the MVFC and ranked ninth nationally in 2016 with a 15-of-18 mark in field goals last season. For his efforts, Nunez earned Second-Team All-MVFC and MVFC All-Newcomer honors in 2016, and this fall was just honored as the Preseason All-MVFC selection for kicker. In 2016, Nunez was one of nine kickers in the nation to start the season 7-for-7 in field goals. His 83.3 percentage in field goals in 2016 tied a school record set by Tanner Fritschle in 2012, who also hit 15 field goals on 18 attempts.

• Senior punter Thomas Bouldin recorded the longest punt in the Valley in 2016, registering at 70 yards at Southern Illinois.

• Bouldin currently ranks 20th in the nation in punting at 43.1 yards per attempt.

• Senior kickoff specialist Andrew Lunsford has recorded 43 total touchbacks as a Sycamore and has a career kickoff average of 60.1 yards.

CURT MALLORY

Head Coach

1st season

Curt Mallory is in his first season at Indiana State in 2017 after being named the 21st head coach in the history of Indiana State Football by Director of Athletics Sherard Clinkscapes on Jan. 23, 2017.

"Curt Mallory is a grinder who has coaching in his DNA," Clinkscapes said. "His dedication to developing young men into leaders on the field and in life has been a core piece of his coaching philosophy throughout his career. He will raise the competitive bar and hold all accountable to that end. He is the right person at the right time to lead this program into becoming a nationally recognized school. I am excited to welcome Curt, his wife, Lori, and his three children into the Sycamore family."

Mallory, a 22-year veteran as an assistant coach in the college ranks, is part of one of the more prominent football families in the United States, as he is the son of Indiana University's all-time winningest head coach Bill Mallory, who coached the Hoosiers from 1984-96. Bill Mallory was also the head coach at Miami of Ohio (1969-73), Colorado (1974-78) and Northern Illinois (1980-83) over an illustrious 27-year coaching career. Mallory also has two brothers in the NFL coaching ranks: Doug, the defensive backs coach for the Atlanta Falcons, and Mike, a special teams coach with the Jacksonville Jaguars.

"I'm extremely excited to be coming back home to the state of Indiana to become part of the Indiana State University family," Mallory said. "I would like to thank President Dan Bradley, Sherard Clinkscapes and the whole administration at Indiana State for this great honor. This University and the city of Terre Haute are very intriguing to me as a coach, as there is a lot of potential to build a strong football program here. Most of all, it feels amazing to be back in this great state again and work alongside all the wonderful people I know throughout the state."

Most recently, Mallory has been the pass defense coordinator and secondary coach under former North Dakota State head coach Craig Bohl at the University of Wyoming in 2015 and 2016. There, Mallory mentored 2016 Thorpe Award semifinalist Andrew Wingard, who was a First-Team All-Conference honoree as a sophomore. The previous year in 2015, Mallory helped Wingard and Marcus Epps to nod as Honorable Mention All-Americans.

Mallory spent the previous four seasons at his alma mater, the University of Michigan, as a secondary coach under Brady Hoke. There, he worked with several superb defenses, including the seventh-best in the FBS his final year in 2014 that only allowed 311.3 YPG. That same year, Michigan ranked 15th in rushing defense (117.7 YPG), tied for 19th in passing defense (193.7 YPG) and 27th in scoring defense (22.4 PPG).

The Wolverine secondary also finished top-15 in the nation in pass defense in both 2011 and 2012. The 2011 defense was an especially impressive feat that first season, as they jumped from 107th in scoring defense in 2010 to sixth nationally in 2011.

In Ann Arbor, Mallory had the opportunity to coach current Jacksonville Jaguars safety Jarrod Wilson, as well as help recruit and coach 2016 Heisman Trophy finalist and projected top 2017 NFL Draft pick Jabrill Peppers during his freshman season in 2014.

Mallory was the defensive coordinator at Akron for the 2010 season, and before that he spent five successful seasons at the University of Illinois from 2005-09 under head coach Ron Zook (now the special teams coordinator of the Green Bay Packers). Mallory's first two seasons in 2005 and 2006 were spent as the secondary coach, and his final three years he was promoted to co-defensive coordinator.

At Illinois, Mallory was instrumental in one of the best teams in Illini history in the 2007 Rose Bowl team. That year, Mallory's Illini defense held opponents to under 20 points per game en route to a 9-4 finish. Illinois also ranked second in the Big Ten in passing defense (182.2 YPG) in 2006 and led the Big Ten in sacks and tackles for loss in 2008. Mallory's 2006 secondary only allowed 11 passing touchdowns and 6.5 yards per pass attempt all season.

At Illinois, Mallory's prized pupil was All-American Vontae Davis, who was a two-time Thorpe Award semifinalist and a 2009 First-Round NFL Draft Pick of the Miami Dolphins. Davis has been a two-time Pro Bowl selection during his NFL career and has been a member of the Indianapolis Colts since 2012.

Other notable pupils at Illinois include current Detroit Lions safety Tavon Wilson, a 2012 Second Round pick of the New England Patriots and a member of New England's Super Bowl XLIX champion team, and Jeremy "J" Leman, a 2007 All-American linebacker for the Illini Rose Bowl team and current Big Ten Network color analyst.

Mallory spent the previous three seasons at Indiana as a secondary coach from 2002-04, which was preceded by one year as the secondary coach at Central Michigan in 2001 and six seasons at Ball State from 1995-2000 in charge of both the linebackers and secondary. Mallory was on staff for Ball State's 1996 team that went to the Las Vegas Bowl.

His coaching career began as a student assistant at Michigan in 1992, followed by two years as a graduate assistant under his father at Indiana in 1993-94.

Mallory was a four-year player at the University of Michigan from 1988-91 under legendary head coach Bo Schembechler his first two seasons, followed by Gary Moeller his last two. Mallory was on four Wolverine teams that won a Big Ten title, including three teams that went to a Rose Bowl. His freshman season in 1988 he was on a Rose Bowl champion team that finished the season ranked No. 4 nationally after defeating USC. Mallory capped off his Wolverine career with an interception in Michigan's 35-3 win over Ole Miss in the 1991 Gator Bowl. Longtime Michigan head coach Lloyd Carr, who led the Wolverines to a national title in 1997, was Mallory's defensive coordinator during his playing career.

Mallory earned his bachelor's in sport management and communication from the University of Michigan in 1992, and he finished his master's in outdoor recreation at Indiana University in 1999. Mallory and his wife, Lori, have three children: sons James and Sam, and a daughter, Margo.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT CURT MALLORY

Craig Bohl

Wyoming Head Coach (2014-Present)

Former North Dakota State Head Coach (2003-13)

"We want to congratulate Curt and his wife Lori as they open a new chapter in their lives and in Curt's coaching career as he becomes the head coach at Indiana State. Curt's efforts in his two years at Wyoming were greatly appreciated and had a significant impact on our program as we benefitted both from his coaching and his recruiting abilities. Curt is a well-experienced coach, who has a great understanding of players from the Midwest. He'll be a great fit at Indiana State, and he will make them competitive in the Missouri Valley Football Conference."

Lloyd Carr

Former Michigan Head Coach (1995-2007)

"Curt Mallory is an outstanding choice as head football coach at Indiana State University. He is a man of integrity who will be a great representative of the University and a coach who will be a great role model for his players. ISU will be successful on and off the field of play."

Gerry DiNardo

Big Ten Network Analyst

Former Vanderbilt Head Coach (1991-94)

Former LSU Head Coach (1995-99)

Former Indiana Head Coach (2002-04)

"From the first time I met and worked with Curt it was clear he was destined to be a head coach. His character, knowledge, passion and love for the game make him a very special coach. Often times when picking a head coach people always talk about 'the fit.' Well, Indiana State got the perfect fit in Curt Mallory. I'd also like to congratulate the Indiana high school coaches because one of your own is coming back."

Don Fischer

Radio Voice of the Indiana Hoosiers

"The Mallory family is one of the great football families in all of the United States. I don't know of any family more involved in the sport throughout their whole lives. All the Mallory boys not only played but have coached the game and are still coaching at a high level. Bill is still the best coach in Indiana University history. His 13 years here we went to six bowl games, and IU hasn't come close since and didn't go again until 2007; the struggle has been mighty since then. We've had a couple of other great football families pass through here, like Terry Hoepfner and Bill Lynch, whose families are as engrossed as the Mallorys. Without a doubt, Bill Mallory is one of the most respected coaches in the country, and he was revered by all of us who worked with him here. His sons are all class people, and I am still very close with Bill, his wife and the entire family. Every time I went to Michigan while Curt was there it was like seeing an old friend. Curt is a terrific person and coach; the people are going to love him at ISU. I've watched Indiana State from afar since I worked there because I loved my time at WVOW; I just had a ball in Terre Haute. I still follow ISU closely, and I still believe it can take off. I'm also very close to Trent Miles, who I think started to turn this program around, and Mike Sanford kept some of that success going too. I know a little about Indiana State Football and the background of the people that live there, and I'm really excited for Curt and his family for this opportunity."

Brady Hoke

Former Michigan Head Coach (2011-14)

"Curt Mallory is a man of unbelievable character and integrity. He is a great teacher and role model for the young men that he has had the privilege to coach. The high school coaches in the state of Indiana have a coach at Indiana State that will be passionate about the relationships Curt and his staff will have with them. The University, the alumni, the fans and the players will be proud to have Curt Mallory as their head football coach."

Jordan Kovacs – Safety, University of Michigan (2008-12)

Five-year NFL Veteran

2009 Freshman All-American

Three-time All-Big Ten

"I had the privilege of playing under Coach Mallory for two years at Michigan. He is undoubtedly one of the best guys I've come across in the football world. His enthusiasm and passion for the game is unrivaled and is why he'll make a great head coach. Good luck, Coach Mal!"

Jeremy "J" Leman – Linebacker, University of Illinois (2003-07)

Big Ten Network Analyst

2007 All-American

Four-year NFL Veteran

"Competitor and character; those are the words that come to mind when I think about Curt Mallory. He loves to compete at the highest levels and demands the same from his players, yet knows that the foundation of any program is the character and integrity of its staff and players. He will make Indiana State proud on and off the field."

Bill Lynch

DePauw Head Coach (2013-Present)

Former Butler Head Coach (1985-89)

Former Ball State Head Coach (1995-2002)

Former Indiana Head Coach (2007-10)

"Curt Mallory is an outstanding football coach and a tremendous leader of young men. His energy and passion for the game of football is contagious. Curt is a proven recruiter and will represent Indiana State University in a first-class manner."

Bill Mallory

Father, Former Indiana Head Coach (1984-96)

"My wife and I are coming up to the press conference on Wednesday and are very excited for him. Curt had called me to say a job had opened at Indiana State, and I told him I thought it's a great move for him. I've always had great respect for ISU like Curt does, and he's very excited to have the opportunity to be the head football coach. We moved to Bloomington when he was in middle school, he played football at Bloomington South, he went onto play at Michigan but then came back with me as a graduate assistant, so he has always had a warm spot for the state of Indiana and football. The key, without question, is recruiting the state of Indiana and making it a hub – which he will do. He will do a thorough job of that in the state, as he has great respect for the football in the state and the coaches, and that is so important to getting those players. Curt is a great people person and he cares about his players. He's not a person up on a pedestal or with an ego. He's very caring, and I say that with all sincerity. He's a down-to-earth and caring individual with passion for the game. Most important to him are the people involved; it's like a family to him. I know he'll make people understand that they're important, and together they'll work to make the program succeed. He has a lot of good positives there that will be good for Indiana State. He's anxious to surround himself with a good quality staff to make this program succeed."

Mike Mallory

Brother, Jacksonville Jaguars Special Teams Coach

"I'm thrilled for Curt. He is well-prepared to lead the Indiana State Football program. His passion and attention to detail will serve the Sycamores well."

Tavon Wilson – Safety, University of Illinois (2008-11)

2012 Second Round NFL Draft Pick (New England Patriots, Pick 48)

Detroit Lions Safety (2016-Present)

New England Patriots Safety (2012-15)

Super Bowl XLIX Champion (New England Patriots)

"Coach Mallory is so deserving of this opportunity to become the next head coach at Indiana State University. Ever since I stepped foot onto campus at the University of Illinois, Coach Mal took me under his wing. He taught me so much about the game of football, and I credit him for believing in me to become a versatile defensive back. He trusted me as a leader at multiple positions, which has been very beneficial throughout my NFL journey. Coach Mal also helped develop me into the man I am today. He was my father figure throughout college, and I know that he will be able to help turn ISU into the next great program of young men and student-athletes."

Ron Zook

Former Florida Head Coach (2002-04)

Former Illinois Head Coach (2005-11)

"Curt comes from a great football family. I played for his father, who was a man of integrity. Curt is a great coach, he cares about his players and will be a great ambassador for the University."
