FAST STARTS

Indiana State has dominated the first two innings this season, outscoring opponents 23-14. The Sycamores have outscored the opponent in all but two innings this season including a 21-3 advantage in the ninth.

GET ON AND SCORE

Though Luke Fegen has only started five of 11 games for the Sycamores, the junior has been one of the top run-scorers for the Trees. Fegen has 11 hits in 27 at bats for a team leading .407 batting average. He has reached base 14 times (11 H, 2 BB, HBP) and has scored 10 runs for the Sycamores. Fegen is sporting a .593 slugging percentage with a pair of doubles and a home run to his credit.

NEWCOMERS MAKING AN IMPACT

Indiana State newcomers have made an immediate impact so far for the club on the offensive side of the ball. Luke Fegen has started five game for the Trees but has seen action in all 11 contests with 27 at bats and 11 hits for a team high .407 batting average. Roberto Enriquez has manned right field in 11 starts for the Trees, coming in with a .359 batting average and 11 RBIs. Enriquez has 14 hits, including a triple and a home run. Jarrod Watkins has started every game at second base to go along with a .388 average at the plate. Watkins drove in the tying runs against Belmont with a two-RBI triple in the ninth. Romero Harris has been the boom in the lineup with four home runs in 10 starts. Harris is slugging .775 and has a .275 batting average while driving in 15 runs.

IS HE GETTING HOT?

It hasn't been the start to the season that junior Jake Means might have wanted but there may be light at the end of the tunnel. Entering the weekend Means sat at just a .133 average on the season in eight games, collecting hits in just two games. Means blasted two home runs in the series finale at Austin Peay to help the Sycamores salvage a game in the series, the first multi-hit game of the season for the Gardner, Kansas native.

WELCOME TO THE CLUB

Newcomer Romero Harris crushed his first home run in Sycamore Blue during his very first plate appearance against LMU. The Navarre, Ohio native finished the game 2-for-5 with three runs scored and three RBIs.

CAREER DAY IN VEGAS

Chris Ayers opened the 2018 season tying a career high in base hits with three against UNLV. It marked the third time in his career that he has recorded three hits with the last time coming in 2017 at Utah Valley when he did it twice during a doubleheader.

PRESEASON ALL-MVC

Redshirt senior Dane Giesler was tabbed Preseason All-MVC following a breakout season a year ago. The Jasper, Indiana native led the way for the Trees in several offensive categories. He finished with a team high 17 home runs which was fourth-best in the conference. Giesler was also fifth in the league with a .593 slugging percentage and seventh in RBIs with 49.

WHAT RETURNS FOR THE TREES

Indiana State returns six position starters and three key pitchers from last season's 29-26 team. Infielder Clay Dungan returns for ISU after starting in 55 games last season hitting .275 with 60 base hits and nine home runs. The Sycamores will also welcome back Dane Tofteland and Chris Ayers to the batting order. The duo combined for 57 base hits and 45 runs a year ago.

Indiana State will look to fill a void in the starting rotation this season after its top arm was taken in the 11th round of the MLB Draft. Junior RHP Tyler Ward will look to fill the spot after a solid year on the mound. Ward finished at 4-5 with a 4.16 ERA in 84.1 innings.

Two bullpen arms in right-hander Ethan Larrison and southpaw Triston Polley return for the Sycamores this season as well. Larrison appeared in 19 games last season and struck out 32 batters while walking only 13. Polley struck out 35 batters and walked 14 in 26.2 innings.

SYCAMORES PICKED THIRD IN PRESEASON POLL

Indiana State was picked to finish third in the Missouri Valley Conference Preseason Poll. Dallas Baptist tallied 63 points and were named the favorites over second-place pick Missouri State (57). The Sycamores collected 42 votes overall followed by Southern Illinois (35), Illinois State (31), Bradley (30), Evansville (18) and MVC newcomer Valparaiso (12).
