QUICK HITS

» Indiana State baseball hits the road as the Sycamores embark on a 10-day, seven-game road trip down to the Sunshine State.

» The Sycamores will open up the road trip in Port Charlotte, Fla. and Centennial Park this weekend games against Iowa on Friday and Quinnipiac on Saturday.

» The opening weekend marks the first of two weeks in Florida for the Sycamores as ISU will continue the season with games against Florida Gulf Coast (Feb. 21), at Miami (Fla.) (Feb. 22), and a three-game series against Northeastern (Feb. 25-26).

» The Sycamores open the 10th season under the helm of head coach Mitch Hannahs as Indiana State looks to bounce back from a tough 26-22-1 overall record in 2022 with a 10-10-1 mark in conference play.

Last Game Recap

Scouting the Opposition Iowa Hawkeyes

» The Iowa Hawkeyes were selected third overall in the preseason Big Ten baseball poll as recognized by D1Baseball.

» The Hawkeyes featured preseason Big Ten Pitcher of the Year Ty Langenberg, while Brody Brecht and two-way star Keaton Anthony both received preseason All-American recognition.

» The Hawkeyes posted a 36-19 overall record in the 2022 season and advanced to the Big Ten Semifinals before bowing out to eventual champion Michigan.

» Iowa went 2-1 against the Missouri Valley Conference in the 2022 season with the Hawkeyes lining up against both Illinois State and Bradley in midweek games.

» The Hawkeyes swept the Bradley Braves winning 9-8 (11) and 15-8, while Iowa lost their lone completed game against Illinois State, 3-2, on May 3.

Iowa Player Watch

» Ty Langenberg is the expected opening day starter for the Hawkeyes as the junior makes the shift from Sunday to Friday in the 2023 season. He posted a 7-2 record with a 3.71 ERA last season while adding 74 strikeouts.

» He was named the preseason Big Ten Pitcher of the Year by both D1Baseball and Perfect Game.

» Langenberg went at least five innings in nine different games including a season-best seven-inning start against Purdue on May 8.

Quinnipiac Bobcats

» Quinnipiac was selected seventh in the 2023 preseason All-MAAC coaches poll as announced by the conference office.

» The Bobcats lineup will feature Preseason All-MAAC selection Anthony Donofrio, while outfielder Jared Zimbaro (.307) and infielder/catcher Kyle Maeves (.275, 23 SB) also return to the roster. On the mound, Kevin Seitter is back after posting team-highs in innings pitched (76.1) and starts (13).

» The Sycamores are the lone Missouri Valley Conference team on Quinnipiac's schedule this year. The Bobcats have not lined up against an MVC opponent since the 2015 season when they fell twice to Bradley in Nashville, Tenn.

Quinnipiac Player Watch

» The Bobcat offense will go as far as senior outfielder Anthony Donofrio will take them in 2023. The SUNY Cortland transfer found his fit in the Bobcats lineup last season earning All-MAAC Second Team recognition after a stellar campaign.

» He hit .343 on the year with a team-high 61 hits while adding seven home runs and 25 RBI. He also added 15 stolen bases and saw some time on the mound as a spot reliever.

Indiana State - Quinnipiac Series History

» This is the first matchup all-time between the Sycamores and the Camden, Conn.-based Bobcats.

The Salukis jumped ahead early with a three-run top of the third, while Nick Hagedorn and J.T. Weber both homered to pace the SIU offense in the win. The Sycamores attempted to mount several rallies down the stretch, but ISU was unable to crack the SIU defense leaving the bases loaded in the sixth, while hitting into a double play in the seventh to limit the comeback attempt.

Seth Gergely connected on a pair of doubles and drove in both ISU RBI, while Aaron Beck added a two-hit game in his final game in the Sycamore Blue & White. Randall Diaz added a two-hit game and Jordan Schaffer doubled, while Keegan Watson, Parker Stinson, and Joe Kido all hit safely in the loss.

Luke Patzner took the loss after going the first four innings. The redshirt sophomore surrendered nine hits and five runs while striking out three. Connor Fenlong added 4.0 innings in relief, while Jake Ridgway worked a perfect ninth inning in his final game with the Sycamores.

HOME SWEET HOME // BOB WARN FIELD (2,000)

The base for one of the Midwest's finest Division I collegiate baseball programs, Bob Warn Field at Sycamore Stadium, has undergone a number of changes over the past several years. The installation of a FieldTurf infield, a new locker room and coaches' offices, the construction of a new seating area with both chairback and bleacher seats and a larger press box and parking lot highlight the renovation of the entire facility.

On the field, the Sycamores play on a FieldTurf infield and natural grass outfield, providing the team with an environment that allows for competition when weather conditions would force other facilities to stop play. New dugouts and bullpen mounds have also been installed.

Off the field, Indiana State provides numerous facilities to aid the baseball team in their success, including: a new locker room and coaches offices at Sycamore Stadium, a total of 2,000 chairback and bleacher seats for fans, a press box that allows for multiple radio broadcasts for Indiana State and their visitors, expanded parking and an indoor facility located two blocks from the playing field.

POTY WATCH

MATT JACHEC

» Redshirt junior pitcher Matt Jachec picked up his first collegiate All-American selection in the 2023 preseason as the Hampshire, Ill. native was honored by Collegiate Baseball Newspaper as a Third Team selection.

» Jachec was one of four Missouri Valley Players to be honored by the organization and the lone starting pitcher in the conference to get the nod.

» Jachec posted the lowest ERA by a starting pitcher in the Missouri Valley (2.88) while finishing second in the MVC with 97.0 innings pitched.

» He finished up with a Valley-leading nine wins on the mound while sitting sixth in the conference with 80 strikeouts (28 looking).

» His control on the mound was a major factor to his success as he led the Valley in only surrendering nine walks on the year to sit among the NCAA leaders in both strikeout-to-walk ratio (8.89, 4th in NCAA) and walks allowed per nine innings (0.84, 3rd in NCAA).

Tops Among Their Peers

» Matt Jachec and Randal Diaz were both recognized among the tops at their positions according to D1Baseball as the duo were honored in the organization's preseason player rankings.

» Diaz was ranked 28th among the shortstops across the country, while Jachec was 66th among starting pitchers as announced by the organization.

» Rankings will continue to update as the season progresses.

Preseason All-Conference Selections

» Matt Jachec was also recognized on the Missouri Valley Conference's preseason All-Conference team as voted on by the league's head coaches. Jachec was joined by redshirt junior catcher Grant Magill as Indiana State boasts one of the top batteries in the region.

» Jachec picked up the preseason recognition for the first time in his career after a dominant 2022 season. The redshirt junior finished with a Valley-leading nine wins and boasted the lowest ERA among the conference's starting pitchers at 2.88.

» His best start in 2022 was arguably his last as the Hampshire, Ill. native carried a perfect game into the ninth inning in an elimination game against Valparaiso needing just 83 pitches to retire the first 24 batters he faced. He added a career-high 10 strikeouts in the win.

» Magill picked up preseason honors for the first time as well as the Highlands Ranch, Colo. native was the lone catcher selected to the squad. A 2022 MVC All-Defensive selection,

» Magill recorded a conference-leading six pickoffs and threw out 12 baserunners. He was even better in conference play with six runners caught stealing. Known for his arm, Magill also hit .295 from the plate with seven extra-base hits. He finished fourth on the team with 26 RBI.

Returning All-Conference Nods

The Sycamores return three players that garnered 2022 Missouri Valley All-Conference recognition in the 2022 season as Matt Jachec (SP), Josue Urdaneta (2B), and Seth Gergely (OF) all claimed the honors.

» Jachec took home First Team recognition, while Urdaneta and Gergely were both honored on the Second Team.

» A trio of Sycamores also picked up All-Defensive honors from the conference office including Jachec, Gergely, and catcher Grant Magill.

Urdaneta finished the 2022 campaign among the MVC leaders in hits, triples, and assists. He finished third on ISU with a .321 batting average and a team-high 67 hits, while adding 18 extra-base hits including five home runs.

» He posted seven three-hit games in 2022 and added a two-home run game against Southeast Missouri State.

» Gergely lined up primarily in centerfield for the Sycamores as the Tallmadge, Ohio native finished second on the ISU roster with a .326 batting average.

» He finished fourth in the conference in triples, while adding 17 extra-base hits and 22 RBI.

Freshmen to Watch

Four Sycamores were listed among the top-31 freshmen to watch in the Missouri Valley Conference this season according to Perfect Game as announced by the organization back in September. Max McEwen (fifth), Dom Krupinski (sixth), Dom Oliverio (20th), and Jacob Pruitt (21st) were all honored by the organization prior to the year.

EYES ON RANDAL DIAZ

» Sophomore infielder Randal Diaz became just the 13th Indiana State baseball player to earn Freshman All-American status after a standout 2022 campaign.

» The Toa Alta, Puerto Rico native was honored by Collegiate Baseball Newspaper and was the first ISU player to receive the honor since Tyler Ward was recognized following the 2015 season.

Diaz was just the fourth ISU infielder to receive the recognition joining third baseman Boi Rodriguez (1984), shortstop Dan Frye (1989), and third baseman Chris Hall (2000).

» Diaz finished among the Indiana State offensive leaders in his first season posting a .304 batting average and finishing third on the team with 55 hits.

» He also led the Sycamores in doubles (17), home runs (7) and tied for the team lead with 37 RBI. He added 33 runs scored and finished second on the team with 95 total bases.

» He finished his freshman campaign hitting safely in nine of the last 10 games, while reaching base safely in all 10 contests.

Start Off the Season Strong
» Florida was friendly to the Sycamores last season as Indiana State started off the year with a 5-2 record in Port Charlotte.

» ISU topped Brigham Young, Marshall, Merrimack, and Minnesota (twice), but fell in both games against Ohio State. Returner Takeaways from Florida Last Year

» The Sycamores hit a robust .323 as a team in Florida last season with eight different players hitting above .300 on the year.

» Josue Urdaneta hit safely in all seven games on his way to starting off the year with an 18-game on-base streak and added four multi-hit games.

» Parker Stinson led the team with three multi-RBI contests, including a four-RBI game in the 14-2 win over Merrimack

» The Sycamores put up eight runs in the fifth inning in the 16-3 win against Minnesota. ISU would then add a 10-run eighth inning in the series finale to come-from-behind and beat the Golden Gophers, 14-8.

» ISU lost two players to season-ending injuries in Florida in 2022 with Mike Sears (400, 2 HR) and Miguel Rivera (six-game on-base streak, four-game hitting streak) both going down in the Sunshine State

» Matt Jachec posted a 2-0 record with a 1.35 ERA and a

TEAM NOTES

13:0 strikeout-to-walk ratio over 13.1 innings with wins over Brigham Young and Minnesota

» The Sycamore pitching staff posted a 4.94 ERA with a 68:21 strikeout-to-walk ratio as a team

» Connor Fenlong picked up a pair of saves over four appearances on the mound

» Jachec (two), Luke Patzner (two), and Jared Spencer (one) all made starts over the opening two weeks

These Guys Can Rake

» Indiana State returns the bulk of a lineup that led the Missouri Valley Conference and finished 35th in the NCAA in batting average in the 2022 season.

» The Sycamores hit .300 as a team in 2022 with four returning starters hovering around the .300 mark, while Joe Kido (.400), Mike Sears (.400), and Isaiah Thompson (.333) also hit around the mark.

» Seth Gergely is the team's leading returning hitter after posting a .326 mark in 2022. Josue Urdaneta (.321), Randal Diaz (.304), and Grant Magill (.295) also hit around the mark on the year over multiple at-bats.

» Overall, the Sycamores posted 517 hits with 162 extra-base hits (105 doubles, 12 triples, 45 home runs)

» Randall Diaz (17) led five different Sycamores to hit double-digit doubles with Gergely (14) and Urdaneta (10) returning.

» Gergely (3) and Urdaneta (3) were the team leaders in triples. Diaz (7), Keegan Watson (6), Urdaneta (5), and Luis Hernandez (4) were among the 13 Sycamores to hit home runs in 2022.

Crack That WHIP

Indiana State's pitching staff returns as the Valley's best at limiting base-runners according to the 2022 NCAA stats. The Sycamores led the conference and finished 71st in the NCAA in allowing just 1.44 walks/hits per inning pitched last year. Headlining the group was Matt Jachec as the redshirt junior finished as the conference leader and 52nd in the NCAA with a 1.08 WHIP on the year.

They Don't Walk

» Indiana State posted one of the top pitching tandems in the NCAA last season in terms of accuracy and limiting walks.

» Both Matt Jachec (0.84, 3rd) and Luke Patzner (1.76, 54th) finished among the tops in the country in walks allowed per nine innings.

» Overall, the Sycamores finished 56th in the NCAA and third in the conference allowing just 3.77 walks per nine innings.

» The ISU pitching duo also sat among the national leaders in strikeout-to-walk ratio. Jachec (8.89, 4th) and Patzner (4.92, 48th) finished 1-2 in the Missouri Valley Conference in the category last year, while the Sycamore pitching staff finished 57th in the NCAA and second in the MVC at 2.36.

Wear It

» Indiana State was one of the nation's best at getting by a pitch in the 2022 season led by former shortstop Jordan Schaffer (.23).

» The Sycamores were hit a Missouri Valley-leading 78 times on the year with 17 players getting hit by a pitch.

» Seth Gergely (11) returns as the Sycamore leader in the category as ISU looks to return to get on base by any means necessary after posting a team .383 on-base percentage last season.

Back On ESPNU

» Indiana State baseball will take on Southern Illinois in a game carried by ESPNU for the second year in a row as ESPN notified the Missouri Valley Conference of its 2023 collegiate baseball programming schedule on Wednesday morning.

» The April 23 series finale between the Sycamores and the Salukis will now be broadcast on the network with game time changed to a 3 p.m. ET first pitch. The contest will be held at Bob Warn Field in Terre Haute, Ind., the home of the 2023 MVC Baseball Tournament.

» The ISU-SIU game on ESPNU marks the second time in as many seasons the Sycamores and the Salukis have battled on the network. The Sycamores fell in the series opener last year at Itchy Jones Stadium against the Salukis, 5-3.

MITCH HANNAHS

HEAD COACH 10TH SEASON AT INS INDIANA STATE, 1989

Head coach Mitch Hannahs enters his ninth season at the helm of the Indiana State baseball program after returning to his alma mater in 2013. Hannahs, who is one of the most decorated student-athletes in program history, entered the Indiana State Hall of Fame in 2010. Overall, Hannahs has been a part of seven of the program's 11 trips to the NCAA Postseason Tournament as a player or coach.

Since taking over the program in 2013, Hannahs has led the Sycamores to 240 wins, a trio of NCAA Tournament appearances including a regional final in 2019 and six top-3 finishes in the Missouri Valley Conference. He sits second all-time in career wins behind legendary head coach and ISU Hall of Famer Bob Warn who guided the program to 1,070 wins from 1976-2006.

The Sycamores earned back-to-back trips to the NCAA Tournament after picking up an at-large bid in 2021. Hannahs led the squad to a 31-21 record, including 21 wins away from home. ISU traveled to Nashville as the No. 3 seed at the Vanderbilt Regional, picking up a victory against Presbyterian in an elimination contest. Jeremy Guerrero was named Pitcher of the Year – the first time a Sycamore has earned the award in program history – while Aaron Beck earned Newcomer of the Year accolades marking consecutive years that an Indiana State student-athlete has earned the honor. Guerrero finished the season 10-1 with a 2.08 ERA while earning five All-American honors. Hannahs also saw longtime catcher Max Wright sign a free agent deal with the San Francisco Giants following the postseason run.

2019 served as a milestone year for Hannahs and the Sycamores. ISU picked up its 10th NCAA Tournament appearance after securing the No. 2 seed at the Nashville Regional following Missouri Valley Conference Tournament Championship – the first in over 20 years for the program. After knocking off both McNeese and Ohio State, the Sycamores advanced to the regional final against No. 1 ranked Vanderbilt, falling to the eventual National Champion Commodores. Third baseman Jake Means was named the MVC Defensive Player of the Year while starting pitcher Collin Liberatore earned Newcomer of the Year honors from The Valley. Five Sycamores were tabbed MVC Scholar-Athletes while catcher Max Wright picked up CoSIDA Academic All-America accolades. Clay Dungan, Triston Polley and Jake Means were each selected in the MLB Draft.

Indiana State entered the national ranking in three different polls in 2019, coming in at No. 23 in both D1Baseball.com and Perfect Game while sitting at No. 25 in the Baseball America poll. The last time the Sycamores were nationally ranked was at the conclusion of the 1989 season when ranked 22nd by Collegiate Baseball.

He led the Sycamores to a 31-24 overall record during the 2018 campaign and an 11-10 clip in Valley play. Hannahs eclipsed the 100-career win mark at Indiana State and moved into second all-time in program history in career wins behind long time skipper Bob Warn.

Hannahs saw four players drafted in the 2017 season after the Sycamores finished the year 29-26 and 12-9 in The Valley. Four Sycamores earned MVC Postseason honors, including Tony Rosselli who was tabbed First Team All-MVC. Austin Conway, Dane Giesler and Will Kincanon earned second team honors.

Year three in Terre Haute was a standout season for the Sycamores under Hannahs. He led the squad to a 35-21 record and a 13-8 finish in the MVC and the semifinals of the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament. The 2016 season was full of memorable moments including weekend sweeps at Campbell, Butler as well as an impressive sweep at home against nationally ranked Missouri State.

The 2015 Sycamores finished 28-26 overall and 8-13 in the Valley. Key wins during the 2015 campaign include defeating NCAA runner-up and defending champion Vanderbilt, 8-1 in Port Charlotte, Fla. Indiana State swept in-state rival Indiana, taking two games from the Hoosiers.

In his first season at the helm, Hannahs led the Sycamores to a 35-18 overall record and 14-7 in the Missouri Valley while earning an at-large bid into the NCAA tournament. The Sycamores were placed in the Bloomington Regional, falling to Stanford and Youngstown State. Infielder Tyler Wampler pitcher Ryan Keaffaber earned MVC postseason honors.

Hannahs is four-year letterwinner from 1986-89. He finished his career on the diamond with a .376 batting average, 274 hits, 34 doubles, 23 triples, 11 home runs, 220 runs scored, 138 runs batted in and 77 stolen bases. An American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) and Baseball America All-American in 1989, Hannahs led the team with a .428 batting average, 101 hits and 76 runs scored in his senior season while the Sycamores claimed the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament championship.

With Hannahs on the diamond from 1986-89, Indiana State posted 172 victories and made trips to the NCAA Tournament in 1986, 1987 and 1989, including the 1986 College World Series team – the lone trip to the CWS in program history.

Following his collegiate career, Hannahs was selected by the Milwaukee Brewers in the 16th round of the 1989 Major League Baseball Draft. He went on to play three seasons in the minor leagues from 1989 to 1991 where he compiled a .306 batting average with 132 hits in 127 career games played.

He returned to Terre Haute in 1995 to serve as an assistant coach for Bob Warn. He worked as the hitting and infield coach from 1995 to 1999 and was the Sycamores' coach for pitchers and catchers from 1999 to 2001. He oversaw the development of several potential major league pitchers including Mitch Stetter, Joe Thatcher, Matt Zaleski, Alex Graman, and Aric LeClaire. Under Hannahs, the Sycamores saw the revitalizing of a pitching staff that ranked eighth in team earned run average in the Missouri Valley Conference, improving to third in the MVC.

Hannahs went on to become the head coach at Lincoln Trail College in Robinson, Illinois, for nine seasons where he led the Statesmen to Region 24 titles in 2005 and 2007, and the Great Rivers Athletic Conference championship in 2006 and 2007.

Hannahs was also inducted into the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference Hall of Fame in recognition of his accomplishments at Skyvue High School (Graysville, Ohio) where he played basketball and baseball.

Hannahs graduated from Indiana State in 1989 with a bachelor's degree in business and marketing. Hannahs and his wife, Amy, have three children: Derek, Kylee and Kaleb.
