» Indiana State opens up the 2024 season down in the Sunshine State as the Sycamores travel to the USF Baseball Stadium for a three-game set against Louisville, UConn, and South Florida.

» The Sycamores will open the weekend against Louisville, before taking on UConn on Saturday and the host Bulls on Sunday afternoon. Sunday's contest against USF will be streamed live on ESPN+.

» Indiana State was picked to repeat as the 2024 MVC Champions one season after posting a 45-17 record, 24-3 mark in MVC play, and sweeping the regular season and conference tournament championships. The Sycamores would continue the season earning the No. 14 seed in the NCAA Tournament and hosting the Terre Haute Regional, before falling to TCU in the Fort Worth Super Regional Round.

» Five Indiana State baseball players were named to the Missouri Valley Conference's preseason All-Conference team with Grant Magill (C), Josue Urdaneta (2B), Randal Diaz (SS), Mike Sears (3B), and Jared Spencer (RP), were all named to the preseason All-Conference team.

» Six Sycamores were highlighted on D1Baseball's top player positional rankings in the preseason. Jared Spencer (No. 8 relief pitcher), Grant Magill (No. 42 catcher), Josue Urdaneta (No. 44 second baseman), Randal Diaz (No. 21 shortstop), Adam Pottinger (No. 62 outfielder), and Luke Hayden (No. 149 starting pitcher) were all honored by the organization.

» After finishing up the 2023 season ranked in all six major D1Baseball polls, the Sycamores enter the 2024 year receiving votes in the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) poll.

» Spencer added Perfect Game Preseason All-American honors to his credit in early January. The Sycamore left-hander was named to the Second Team following a standout 2023 season on the mound. Spencer was the lone Missouri Valley player to receive the honors by the organization after making a team-high 25 appearances on the mound in relief in 2023 serving as the Sycamores' primary closer. He posted a 3-2 record with a 3.86 ERA over 37.1 innings while adding a team-high seven saves.

» The Sycamores return 26 players who lined up and played on the 2023 squad last season, while 14 newcomers will look to crack their way into the lineup and rotation this year.

» ISU's schedule features 18 home games at Bob Warn Field starting on March 12 against Illinois. The Sycamores will be on the road or on a neutral field 34 times on the season including trips to Southern Miss, Vanderbilt, and Xavier early in the year.

Scouting the Opposition Louisville Cardinals

Louisville enters the 2024 season coming off a 31-24 overall record with a 10-20 mark in ACC play. The Cardinals went 23-10 at home, but struggled away from the friendly confines of Jim Patterson Stadium with an 8-14 record.

The Cardinals were selected fifth overall in the ACC Atlantic Division in the preseason poll. Louisville received 48 total points in the poll as voted on by the league's head coaches.

Louisville announced five captains prior to the start of the season with Logan Beard, JT Benson, Dylan Hoy, Isaac Humphrey and Evan Webster selected for the campaign. Beard and Humphrey were named captains for the second straight season.

The Cardinals feature a familiar face on the mound for Indiana State with Wright State transfer and preseason All-American selection Sebastian Gongorra. The left-hander transferred to Louisville over the summer with his last start at WSU coming against Indiana State in the 2023 Terre Haute Regional.

Connecticut Huskies

UConn was a fellow 2023 NCAA postseason participant as the Huskies earned the No. 2 seed in the Gainesville Regional following a 44-17 regular season campaign. The Huskies finished with an 18-4 mark at home and a 26-13 record away from Elliott Ballpark on the year.

The Huskies were selected the BIG EAST preseason favorites heading into the year receiving six first-place votes and totaling 48 points to lead the conference.

Outfielder Jake Studley was named BIG EAST Preseason Player of the Year and Stephen Quigley was voted as the BIG EAST Preseason Pitcher of the Year. Lefthander and team captain Garrett Coe also landed on the Preseason All-BIG EAST team.

The game between the Sycamores and the Huskies marks the first time the two teams have lined up since the 2014 season, also down in Florida in Port Charlotte.

South Florida Bulls

South Florida is three years removed from winning the Gainesville Regional before losing to Texas in the 2021 Super Regional round, but the Bulls return plenty of talent to the field after a 21-39 record in 2023. The Bulls posted a 10-22 record at the USF Baseball Stadium last season.

South Florida had five players selected to the preseason American Athletic All-Conference team with Bobby Boser, Drew Brutchter, Jack Cebert, Ben Rozenblum and Eric Snow all garnering recognition from the league's head coaches. USF was tabbed fifth overall in the preseason coaches poll for the 10-team league.

Boser had a breakout campaign in 2023 and was named to the All-AAC First Team. As a sophomore last season, he led the Bulls with 15 home runs which tied for ninth all-time in program single-season history. Brutchter enters his senior season ranked sixth all-time in USF history for career home runs (34). The slugger lands on the Preseason All-Conference Team for the third time and was named to the 2023 All-AAC First Team at the conclusion of last season.

Cebert was named to the 2023 All-AAC Second Team after leading the staff in innings pitched (76.2). The right-hander went 4-4 with a 5.05 ERA and ranked third on the team in strikeouts (65) while issuing only 21 walks.

HOME SWEET HOME // BOB WARN FIELD (2,000)

The base for one of the Midwest's finest Division I collegiate baseball programs, Bob Warn Field at Sycamore Stadium, has undergone a number of changes over the past several years. The installation of a FieldTurf infield, a new locker room and coaches' offices, the construction of a new seating area with both chairback and bleacher seats and a larger press box and parking lot highlight the renovation of the entire facility.

On the field, the Sycamores play on a FieldTurf infield and natural grass outfield, providing the team with an environment that allows for competition when weather conditions would force other facilities to stop play. New dugouts and bullpen mounds have also been installed.

Off the field, Indiana State provides numerous facilities to aid the baseball team in their success, including: a new locker room and coaches offices at Sycamore Stadium, a total of 2,000 chairback and bleacher seats for fans, a press box that allows for multiple radio broadcasts for Indiana State and their visitors, expanded parking and an indoor facility located two blocks from the playing field.

FIREMAN

JARED SPENCER

The Centreville, Mich. native was named a preseason Perfect Game Second Team All-American and named to D1Baseball's 2024 MLB Draft: Top 100 College Prospects list in the fall.

Spencer made a team-high 25 appearances on the mound in relief in 2023 serving as the Sycamores' primary closer. He posted a 3-2 record with a 3.86 ERA over 37.1 innings while adding a team-high seven saves.

He made his 2023 debut on February 18 against Quinnipiac but hit his stride midway through the season in nonconference play. Spencer posted his first two wins of the year on back-to-back weeks against SEMO and Illinois in mid-March.

He added a season-high seven strikeouts in a relief outing against Michigan State. Additional notable relief appearances include a 3.0-inning save in ISU's 4-0 shutout of Indiana, while also going the final 2.0-innings in closing out the Sycamores' win at Vanderbilt.

Spencer shined in the postseason posting back-to-back saves in the first two games of the Terre Haute Regional against Wright State and Iowa to send the Sycamores to the regional final. He added a third postseason appearance in relief at TCU in the Super Regional finale.

D1Baseball Positional Rankings

Indiana State had six players listed among the tops in their position according to D1Baseball.com as the premier D1 Baseball website ranked every position group heading into the 2024 season. The Sycamores posted a Valley-high number on the list paced by reliever Jared Spencer earning a top-10 rating, while shortstop Randal Diaz clocked in as the No. 21 shortstop.

The Full Rankings List is below:

- Luke Hayden - No. 149 Starting Pitcher
- Jared Spencer - No. 8 Relief Pitcher
- Grant Magill - No. 42 Catcher
- Josue Urdaneta - No. 44 Second Base
- Randal Diaz - No. 21 Shortstop
- Adam Pottinger - No. 62 Outfielder

2023 ABCA/Rawlings Gold Glove Winner

Indiana State catcher Grant Magill became just the second player in ISU history to be named an ABCA/Rawlings Gold Glove winner as the rising senior catcher topped the field following a standout season behind the plate. Magill joined former Sycamore Ryan Stausborger (OF) who received the award from the ABCA back in the 2010 season.

Magill was one of three Sycamores to be named Gold Glove finalists in the 2023 season with Josue Urdaneta (2B) and Mike Sears (3B) also finishing top-three in the voting across all Division I pacing an ISU defensive effort that posted a team .983 fielding percentage (3rd in the NCAA Division I).

Magill topped Virginia's Kyle Teel and Long Beach State's Connor Burns to receive the award last season.

Magill was the third ISU player in program history to earn the MVC Defensive Player of the Year honors joining Tyler Wampler (2014) and Jake Means (2019). He led the Valley with 19 runners caught stealing, while adding five pickoffs.

Conference teams only attempted 11 stolen bases against the Sycamores in the 2023 season with Magill nabbing six of them.

Experience Across the Infield

Indiana State returns a breadth of experience across the infield in the 2024 season as the Sycamores return three everyday starters at second base, third base, and shortstop. ISU returns a combined 354 starts across the infield this season with Josue Urdaneta (160), Randal Diaz (106), and Mike Sears (88) all holding down their positions since the 2022 season. Continuing the experience behind the plate, catcher Grant Magill enters the year with 133 career starts in the Sycamore Blue & White.

The lone position expected to see change early in the season comes at first base as ISU looks to replace long-time first baseman and current first base coach Miguel Rivera. The Miami, Fla. native posted 94 career starts over his tenure with the Sycamores.

Junior Henry Brown is expected to be in the mix impressing over 22 games and 14 starts in the 2023 season, while Luis Hernandez, Carter Murphy, Riley Iffrig, and Carlos Pena have all worked out at the position leading into the year.

New Faces in the Outfield

Gone is All-Conference centerfielder Seth Gergely, as well as veteran Keegan Watson. Returning to the mix is All-Conference outfielder Adam Pottinger expected to make the shift to centerfield this season, while Parker Stinson and transfer Dominic Listi will also see time early in the corner outfield positions.

EYES ON RANDAL DIAZ

Diaz was named the 2023 Missouri Valley Baseball Championships Most Outstanding Player pacing the Sycamores with a .455 batting average over the five games at Bob Warn Field and finishing with a team-high 10 hits and six runs while driving in three RBIs. The shortstop added a .727 slugging percentage and a .520 on-base percentage as ISU's leadoff batter in the tournament.

The Toa Alta, Puerto Rico native posted multi-hit games in four of ISU's five tournament contests and scored runs in four different games to pace a Sycamore offense that outscored its opponents 39-12 in the postseason. Diaz connected on a solo home run in the top of the eighth inning to give ISU a 2-0 lead over Evansville in the championship game. He followed up in the top of the ninth with an RBI single to provide the final margin in the Sycamores' 6-0 win.

Diaz was one of three Indiana State players to line up in all 62 games in the 2023 season, earning 61 starts. He finished third on the team with a .297 batting average with a team-high 74 hits over 249 at-bats, leading the Sycamores with 15 doubles and three triples, while finishing third with 10 home runs. He scored 47 runs while driving in 36 RBIs.

Bullpen Aces

The strength of the Indiana State bullpen returns as the Sycamores pitching staff remained mostly intact on the backend heading into the 2024 season. Indiana State featured 15 relievers in 2023 that combined to post an 18-7 record, a 4.03 ERA, and a 268:103 strikeout-to-walk ratio.

Returning to lead the bullpen includes left-handed relief ace Zach Davidson (4-0, 2.01 ERA) and All-MVC right-hander Cameron Holycross (4-1, 2.16 ERA), while multiple arms remain in the mix for Indiana State at both the starting and relief spots through the opening weeks of the season.

The Sycamore bullpen was solid in the 2023 season posting nine series with a sub-4.00 ERA on the year including allowing just nine earned runs over the 10 postseason games (27.0 innings).

Returners to the Field

Twenty-four Sycamores return to the roster in the 2024 season following last year's MVC regular season and tournament championship run, as well as the NCAA Regional and NCAA Super Regional. The Sycamores return 11 pitchers that saw action last season, while 13 positional players also return to the mix in 2024.

Highlighting the Sycamore returners include 2023 starters across the field in Grant Magill (C), Josue Urdaneta (2B), Mike Sears (3B), Randal Diaz (SS), Adam Pottinger (OF), and Luis Hernandez (DH). The Sycamores also return multiple players with key moments in the 2023 season including infielders Joe Kido, Jorge Pereira, and Henry Brown, while outfielders Parker Stinson, Dom Krupinski, Connor Hicks, and catcher Alex Marx all shone in brief appearances on the field.

Returning to the mound in the 2024 season include All-Conference performers Jared Spencer (LHP) and Cameron

Holycross (RHP), while Brenny Cutts, Cam Edmonson, Simon Gregersen, Zach Davidson, and Jacob Pruitt all sat among the plethora of weapons that were utilized by ISU in the season. Additional relievers back to work for ISU this spring include Kyle Cortner, Cole Gilley, Aaron Moss, and Brayden Lybarger as the Sycamores continue to build their depth.

Newcomers to the Sycamore Way

Sixteen new faces will dot the Indiana State lineup and pitching rotation heading into the 2024 season as the Sycamores look to replace long-time stalwarts in the lineup Keegan Watson, Miguel Rivera, and Seth Gergely, as well as weekend starters Matt Jachec, Connor Fenlong, and Lane Miller.

The Sycamores blended a class of transfers and freshman to the incoming class looking to infuse youth with experience as they prepare to defend the MVC crown.

The pitching staff was bolstered by a trio of Power 5 arms with Matt Parenteau (Ole Miss), Adam Berghorst (Michigan State), and Luke Hayden (Indiana) all entering the mix for opportunities right away. The right-handed blend of power and control on the mound will be something to watch from the trio as ISU looks to replace the starting rotation that went a combined 25-6 on the mound over 37 starts in 2024. Additional familiar faces to the workload include redshirt freshman Max McEwen who was listed among the MVC's expected top freshmen arms in 2023.

The lineup brings a savvy veteran presence with the addition of Dominic Listi (North Central College) with the redshirt senior outfielder posting a career .357 batting average with 168 runs and 115 RBI over his four years with the Cardinals. Additional players to watch include Carter Murphy (IF) and Carlos Pena (IF/OF), while Keegan Garis has a year under his belt in redshirting with the Sycamores in 2023.

TEAM NOTES

Hannahs Approaching 600

Head Coach Mitch Hannahs continues to record coaching milestones as the Sycamore skipper enters the season with 581 career wins spanning his coaching career at both Lincoln Trail College and ISU. Hannahs reached 300 career wins at Indiana State this past spring (311, fourth among active Valley coaches) and 119 career Missouri Valley wins (third).

Hannahs recorded his 300th win at Indiana State this past spring against Murray State on May 13, 2023 with a 5-0 win over the Racers at Bob Warn Field. His 100th MVC win came on April 2, 2023, at UIC as a part of Indiana State's 14-game winning streak at the start of conference play.

Hannahs was voted the 2023 ABCA/ATEC NCAA Division I Midwest Region Coach of the Year as voted on by members of the All-America & Coach of the Year committees in all nine divisions.

2023 Indiana State to the Pros

All three weekend starters from the Indiana State baseball team and starting centerfielder Seth Gergely received professional opportunities following the Sycamores' run to the NCAA Super Regionals. It marked the first time in the Hannahs era the entire weekend rotation moved on with Matt Jachec being selected in the 2023 MLB Draft, while Connor Fenlong was a quick free agent signee.

2023 Indiana State Professional Opportunities

- Matt Jachec - 2023 MLB Draft - 18th Round, Pick 548 (Cleveland Guardians)
- Connor Fenlong - 2023 MLB Free Agent (Kansas City Royals)
- Lane Miller - 2023 MLB Draft League Free Agent (Trenton Thunder)
- Seth Gergely - 2023 USPBL Free Agent (Utica Unicorns)

A Highlight Reel In The Making - SportsCenter Top 10

Rising senior Adam Pottinger was a highlight reel waiting to happen in the 2023 season as the Deerfield, Ill. native was featured on ESPN SportsCenter's Top-10 plays of the Day multiple times on the year. Known for putting his body on the line, Pottinger repeatedly went into the wall several times during the season, while also providing acrobatics on the base paths in the run game.

- Terre Haute Regional - Game One vs. Iowa Over the Centerfield Wall Catch (No. 4)
- vs. Southern Illinois - Leaped over the Pitcher to land on first for the infield single (No. 1)

Fellow outfielder Keegan Watson also was on the Top-10 with an over-the-wall catch against Illinois (No. 10) in Indiana State's 5-4, 13-inning win over the Fighting Illini.

2023 Non-Conference Recap

The Sycamores went 21-14 overall in the non-conference schedule with a 14-11 record during the regular season prior to their postseason run. Indiana State went 7-3 in the postseason including 4-1 in the MVC Tournament, a perfect 3-0 against Iowa (twice) and Wright State at the Terre Haute

Regional, and 0-2 at TCU in the Fort Worth Super Regional.

Indiana State struggled out of the gates at the start of the year with a 2-8 record through their first 10 games with wins coming against Quinnipiac and Florida Gulf Coast. The Sycamores ran a gauntlet early in the year featuring 2023 NCAA Regional participants Iowa, Miami, Northeastern, and Kentucky, before catching their stride in early March. ISU bounced back from the 2-8 start to sweep Southeast Missouri State (two) and Memphis (three), and picked up a 10-inning win at Illinois, before falling in their final three nonconference games before MVC play against Michigan State (twice) and Indiana.

Once conference play started, the Sycamores went undefeated in the midweek topping Purdue (twice), Indiana, Vanderbilt, Illinois, and Ball State as the Sycamores went an impressive 43-9 over their final 52 games following the 2-8 start to the year.

Recapping the Florida Trip - 2023

Indiana State struggled in the opening Florida trip last season as the Sycamores opened the first two weekends at the Snowbird Baseball Classic against Iowa, Quinnipiac, and Northeastern, while adding midweek contests at both Florida Gulf Coast and Miami.

The Sycamores fell in extra-innings in the opener to Iowa as the Hawkeyes connected on a walk-off grand-slam in the 11th inning to take the 6-2 win. Indiana State bounced back with a 6-1 win over Quinnipiac and an 8-7 victory over Florida Gulf Coast, before dropping a 9-3 midweek decision at No. 22 Miami. ISU closed out the opening weekend struggling to keep the big bats of Northeastern at bay with the Huskies hitting a combined 12 home runs over their three-game set in Port Charlotte.

2023 Missouri Valley Recap

The Sycamores won all nine Missouri Valley Conference regular season matchups for the first time in program history as Indiana State won the conference by six games over runner-up Missouri State.

It marked the largest gap between the top-two teams in the conference standings since Wichita State won the league by eight games in the 1998 season.

Indiana State posted a league-high 10 players named to the MVC All-Conference team headlined by Connor Fenlong (Pitcher of the Year) and Grant Magill (Defensive Player of the Year), while Fenlong, Magill, Randal Diaz (SS), Matt Jachec (SP), and Jared Spencer (RP) all earned First Team recognition. Adam Pottinger (OF) and Cameron Holycross (RP) joined Lane Miller (SP) on the Second Team, while Mike Sears (3B) and Josue Urdaneta (2B) were Honorable Mention.

The five First Team selections marked the most by an Indiana State team since the 2021 season, while the eight players recognized on the First and Second Teams were the most ISU players honored since 1992.

TEAM NOTES

Head Coach Mitch Hannahs received MVC Dan Callahan Coach of the Year honors for the first time in his tenure. It marked the sixth time an ISU head coach had received the award in program history.
ESPNU Calling Indiana State baseball will have two games on ESPNU this spring marking the third consecutive season the team will appear on the network as ESPN notified the Missouri Valley Conference of its 2024 collegiate baseball programming schedule.
The April 28 series finale at Southern Illinois will now be broadcast on the network with game time set for a 7 p.m. ET first pitch. It marks the third consecutive season the Sycamores and Salukis have played on the network and second time the contest has been held at Itchy Jones Stadium. The Sycamores took home the 10-0, seven-inning win over the Salukis last season at Bob Warn Field back on April 24, 2023, to avenge a 2022 season 5-3 defeat in Carbondale.
Indiana State's final home series is a rematch of the 2023 MVC Championship Game as the Sycamores welcome Evansville to Bob Warn Field over the May 10-12 weekend. The series opener on Friday, May 10, will now be broadcast on ESPNU with game time adjusted to a 4:30 p.m. ET first pitch.
Preseason MVC Poll, All-Conference Five Indiana State baseball players were named to the Missouri Valley Conference's preseason All-Conference team, while the Sycamores were voted first in the preseason poll as announced by the league office. The team and poll are determined by a vote from each head coach.
Grant Magill (C), Josue Urdaneta (2B), Randal Diaz (SS), Mike Sears (3B), and Jared Spencer (RP), were all named to the preseason All-Conference team as a league-high five Sycamores were named to the squad. Missouri State was next with four selections, while Murray State (2), Evansville (1), Southern Illinois (1), and Valparaiso (1) all had representation on the league's preseason team.
The Sycamores received 95 total points and eight of the 10 first-place votes to claim top honors in the poll. ISU is the defending 2023 regular season and tournament championships, as well as hosting and winning the Terre Haute Regional and advancing to the Fort Worth Super Regional.
Streaking Into 2024 The Sycamores boasted four players who achieved 20-game on-base streaks in the 2023 season and there's still one streak active heading into 2024 as Randal Diaz opens the year with a current 20-game on-base streak dating back to May 5, 2023, in the series opener against Bradley.
Adam Pottinger posted a Mitch Hannahs' era record 36-game on-base streak in 2023 that ended in the Super Regionals at TCU, while Luis Hernandez (26 games) and Mike Sears (23 games) both had the longest streaks in their career come to an end midway through the season.

Grant Magill (10 games) also enters the season on a double-digit on-base streak and is one off his career-best 11-game stretch set back in 2022.
D1Baseball - 2024 MVC Top Draft Prospects Indiana State's talent has been well-scouted as the Sycamores boast seven of the top-20 players in the Missouri Valley Conference in regards to the 2024 MLB Draft. Leading the way is All-American reliever Jared Spencer (No. 1), while three more Sycamores sit inside the top-10.
The full list is below: • No. 1 - Jared Spencer (LHP) • No. 4 - Randal Diaz (SS) • No. 5 - Jacob Pruitt (RHP) • No. 6 - Luke Hayden (RHP) • No. 11 - Brennyn Cutts (RHP) • No. 12 - Adam Berghorst (RHP) • Nov. 20 - Adam Pottinger (OF)
They Got Plunked Indiana State was hit by a school-record 127 pitches in the 2023 season finishing the year fifth overall in the NCAA Division I standings. The Sycamores finished the year trailing just Campbell (146), LSU (143), UC Irvine (133), and Kentucky (132) following the end of the year.
Seven Sycamores were hit 10-plus times in the 2023 season led by MVC individual leader Adam Pottinger (22), while Randal Diaz (16), Mike Sears (15), Luis Hernandez (13), and Josue Urdaneta (12) all return after getting hit double-digit times on the season. The Sycamores had at least one player hit by a pitch in 53 of the 62 games in the 2023 season and multiple players hit in 36 games.
Headlining the season included at least four games where the Sycamores had at least five batters hit by a pitch including tying an NCAA postseason record 10 batters hit in the NCAA Regional finale against Iowa on June 4, 2023. This followed eight players getting hit in the MVC Championships winner's bracket game against Evansville on May 26, 2023.
Defense Wins Championships The Sycamores put the best defensive season in program history in 2023 as Indiana State posted a team-best 0.983 fielding percentage on the year. Six Sycamores posted at least a .970 fielding percentage on the year including Seth Gergely (1.000), Grant Magill (.995), Josue Urdaneta (.993), Miguel Rivera (.992), Adam Pottinger (.992), Keegan Watson (.978), and Luis Hernandez (.970) were all among the conference's and nation's best at their positions.
The Sycamores finished just behind Oral Roberts (0.984) and Kentucky (.984) in the team standings. ISU was also 10th in double plays turned (53), fifth in ERA (3.84), sixth in shutouts (7), and third in WHIP (1.23).

First Time Opponents

The Indiana State baseball schedule features one first-time opponent this season as the Sycamores make the trip to Tallahassee, Fla. over March 8-10 for a four-game set at Florida A&M. It marks the first time in program history the Rattlers and the Sycamores have faced each other. Last season, Indiana State took on first-time opponents Quinnipiac, Northeastern, and Murray State, posting a 3-4 record against the teams.

2024 HOME RUN TRACKER

Head coach Mitch Hannahs enters his 11th season at the helm of the Indiana State baseball program after returning to his alma mater in 2013. Hannahs, who is one of the most decorated student-athletes in program history, entered the Indiana State Hall of Fame in 2010. Overall, Hannahs has been a part of eight of the program's 12 trips to the NCAA Postseason Tournament as a player or coach.

Since taking over the program in 2013, Hannahs has led the Sycamores to 311 wins, four NCAA Tournament appearances, the first Super Regional appearance in program history, as well as hosting and winning the Terre Haute Regional. He sits second all-time in career wins behind legendary head coach and ISU Hall of Famer Bob Warn who guided the program to 1,070 wins from 1976-2006.

Hannahs was named the 2023 ABCA/ATEC NCAA Division I Midwest Region Coach of the Year as announced by the American Baseball Coaches Association and ATEC. The Sycamore skipper received the honor for the first time after guiding the Sycamores to one of the best seasons in program history. The Sycamores won the 2023 Missouri Valley Conference regular season and tournament championships, hosted their first-ever NCAA regional, won the Terre Haute Regional, and advanced the first NCAA Super Regional in program history. For his efforts, Hannahs was voted as the league's Dan Callahan Coach of the Year by his peers for the first time in his career.

In 2023, the Sycamores won 45 games; the most in the Hannahs coaching era and set a new program record for Missouri Valley wins with 24. ISU won every MVC weekend series for the first time in program history.

The Sycamores advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the 12th time in program history and third in the last four seasons in 2023. ISU was ranked in all six major NCAA baseball polls and posted a top-10 RPI heading into the postseason. With a mantra of playing anyone, any time, and any place, the Sycamores headed into the postseason as one of the nation's hottest teams, winning 30 of their final 33 regular season games, including nonconference victories over Vanderbilt, Indiana, Purdue, Ball State, and Illinois.

ISU won the 2023 MVC Tournament in front of their home fans at Bob Warn Field, clinching the program's first tournament championship since 2019 and eighth in program history. The regular season and conference tournament success led to Indiana State earning the No. 14 national seed in the 2023 NCAA Tournament and the right to host an NCAA Regional for the first time in program history.

Indiana State continued its momentum in the NCAA Tournament as ISU topped Wright State and Iowa (twice) over the June 2-4 weekend on the way to winning just the program's second NCAA Regional title in school history and first since 1986. The Sycamores advanced to the Super Regional round for the first time in program history since the NCAA Tournament format was changed back in 1999. ISU's season ended in Fort Worth after falling twice to TCU at Lupton Stadium.

The Sycamores earned back-to-back trips to the NCAA Tournament after picking up an at-large bid in 2021. Hannahs led the squad to a 31-21 record, including 21 wins away from home. ISU traveled to Nashville as the No. 3 seed at the Vanderbilt Regional, picking up a victory against Presbyterian in an elimination contest. Jeremy Guerrero was named Pitcher of the Year – the first time a Sycamore has earned the award in program history – while Aaron Beck earned Newcomer of the Year accolades marking consecutive years that an Indiana State student-athlete has earned the honor. Guerrero finished the season 10-1 with a 2.08 ERA while earning five All-American honors. Hannahs also saw longtime catcher Max Wright sign a free agent deal with the San Francisco Giants following the postseason run.

2019 served as a milestone year for Hannahs and the Sycamores. ISU picked up its 10th NCAA Tournament appearance after securing the No. 2 seed at the Nashville Regional following Missouri Valley Conference Tournament Championship – the first in over 20 years for the program. After knocking off both McNeese and Ohio State, the Sycamores advanced to the regional final against No. 1 ranked Vanderbilt, falling to the eventual National Champion Commodores. Third baseman Jake Means was named the MVC Defensive Player of the Year while starting pitcher Collin Liberatore earned Newcomer of the Year honors from The Valley. Five Sycamores were tabbed MVC Scholar-Athletes while catcher Max Wright picked up CoSIDA Academic All-America accolades. Clay Dungan, Triston Polley and Jake Means were each selected in the MLB Draft.

In his first season at the helm, Hannahs led the Sycamores to a 35-18 overall record and 14-7 in the Missouri Valley while earning an at-large bid into the NCAA tournament. The Sycamores were placed in the Bloomington Regional, falling to Stanford and Youngstown State. Infielder Tyler Wampler pitcher Ryan Keaffaber earned MVC postseason honors.

Hannahs is four-year letterwinner from 1986-89. He finished his career on the diamond with a .376 batting average, 274 hits, 34 doubles, 23 triples, 11 home runs, 220 runs scored, 138 runs batted in and 77 stolen bases. An American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) and Baseball America All-American in 1989, Hannahs led the team with a .428 batting average, 101 hits and 76 runs scored in his senior season while the Sycamores claimed the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament championship. With Hannahs on the diamond from 1986-89, Indiana State posted 172 victories and made trips to the NCAA Tournament in 1986, 1987 and 1989, including the 1986 College World Series team – the lone trip to the CWS in program history.

Following his collegiate career, Hannahs was selected by the Milwaukee Brewers in the 16th round of the 1989 Major League Baseball Draft. He went on to play three seasons in the minor leagues from 1989 to 1991 where he compiled a .306 batting average with 132 hits in 127 career games played.

He returned to Terre Haute in 1995 to serve as an assistant coach for Bob Warn. He worked as the hitting and infield coach from 1995 to 1999 and was the Sycamores' coach for pitchers and catchers from 1999 to 2001. He oversaw the development of several potential major league pitchers including Mitch Stetter, Joe Thatcher, Matt Zaleski, Alex Graman, and Aric LeClaire. Under Hannahs, the Sycamores saw the revitalizing of a pitching staff that ranked eighth in team earned run average in the Missouri Valley Conference, improving to third in the MVC.

Hannahs went on to become the head coach at Lincoln Trail College in Robinson, Illinois, for nine seasons where he led the Statesmen to Region 24 titles in 2005 and 2007, and the Great Rivers Athletic Conference championship in 2006 and 2007.

Hannahs was also inducted into the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference Hall of Fame in recognition of his accomplishments at Skyvue High School (Graysville, Ohio) where he played basketball and baseball.

Hannahs graduated from Indiana State in 1989 with a bachelor's degree in business and marketing. Hannahs and his wife, Amy, have three children: Derek, Kylee and Kaleb.

Career Notes with Michigan State Football: Three-time Academic All-Big Ten selection ... Talented, two-sport player, who also played on the Michigan State football team for three seasons (2019-21), was a tight end and defensive end, seeing action in five games, including the Spartans' Pinstripe Bowl victory in 2019, playing in Yankee Stadium ... The last Spartan to play games for both the football and baseball teams at the same time appears to be Duane Young in 1990 before the tight end went on to spend six seasons in the NFL ... Played in six games of 2021 football season to earn his second letter, before missing remainder of season with an injury.

2023: Earned Academic All-Big Ten recognition ... Made 12 appearances with eight starts, posting a 1-1 record with a 4.94 ERA, with 36 Ks and 23 BB in 31.0 IP ... Fired career-high 11 strikeouts in 6.0 IP vs. Western Carolina (March 11) in Greenville, S.C., more than doubling his previous career-best of five Ks, most recently done in his last outing on March 6 vs. Air Force, and first done on March 27, 2021 vs. Indiana ... The 11 strikeouts was the first MSU pitcher with 10 or more Ks since teammate Nick Powers rang up 10 strikeouts against the same Western Carolina and almost a year to the day on March 12, 2022
