MIKE KRAMER FILE

Career Record: 95-122 overall

Career Big Sky Record: 63-80

One of the most successful coaches in Big Sky football history is now an Idaho State Bengal. Mike Kramer was hired to be the Bengal's 25th head coach in program history on Nov. 22, 2010. Since being given the charge to rebuild the Bengal football program, ISU has made great strides on the field, in the classroom and in the community.

Kramer led the Bengals to their first winning season since 2003 in 2014. Idaho State finished with an 8-4 record and a 6-2 mark in Big Sky Conference play. The offense rewrote the record books as it finished with 6,744 total yards and 64 touchdowns. ISU tallied 2,567 rushing yards, breaking a school record that stood since 1957. Senior quarterback Justin Arias was a finalist for the Walter Payton Award and he was a third-team All-American and first-team all-conference. With the success of the 2014 season, Kramer finished seventh in the voting for the Eddie Robinson Award and he was awarded the Big Sky Conference Coach of the Year. Kramer is the second coach in Division I history to earn conference Coach of the Year honors at three different schools in the same league.

The football program recorded a perfect single-year APR score of 1,000 for the 2011-12 academic year and it reached an all-time high four-year score of 962 following the 2013-14 academic year. In the fall of 2012 and 2013 a record 20 players were named to the Big Sky All-Academic team, breaking the record of 17 that was set by Kramer's 2011 team. In five of the last six semesters the football program has boasted a 3.0 or higher.

In the fall of 2011, the team had a GPA of 3.04 and 51 out of the 80 student-athletes had a 3.0 or higher. Those numbers were topped in the spring when the football team had a team GPA of 3.16 and had 53 of 79 student-athletes earn a 3.0 or higher. Since Kramer took over as head coach he has had 58 players graduate as of December of 2013.

In Kramer's first three seasons, the Bengal offense has set numerous Big Sky and Idaho State single-season record.

The Colton, Wash., native began his coaching career at his prep alma mater as a student teacher and assistant coach in 1976, helping the team to an undefeated season and the state B-11 Championship. The next year, Kramer became teacher and assistant football coach at Helena High under eventual University of Montana head coach Mick Dennehy. In 1980, upon his mentor's departure to join the MSU staff, he was elevated to the head coaching position. His highly successful tenure - he led the Bengals to their first winning season since 1958 - was capped with a stint as the winning head coach in the East-West Shrine Game in '82.

Kramer's education credentials include a bachelor of science degree from the University of Idaho, a master's degree in physical education from Eastern Washington, and graduate studies in educational administration at Washington State University. He is an avid mountaineer with conquests of most of the tallest peaks in the Pacific Northwest including several different routes on Mt Rainier.

LONG RUN FORD

During Jakori Ford's time at Idaho State he has shown the ability to break loose for the long run. Since arriving in Pocatello he has touchdown runs of 75 (at Oregon State this season), 72 (vs. Simon Fraser in 2014), 69 (vs. Simon Fraser in 2014) and 53 (vs. Montana in 2015).

STRENGTH IN LINEBACKERS

The linebacking group of Hayden Stout, Mario Jenkins, Joe Martin and Jake Pettit are expected to lead the Bengal defense in 2016. Pettit started at linebacker in 2015 and was third on the team in tackles with 91. Stout led the defense with 113 tackles last year and with the return of Jenkins, who had 120 tackles as a redshirt freshman in 2014, the linebacking core will continue to lead the defense.

BENGALS IN THE NFL

Idaho State is one of only three institutions who have two alums as NFL head coaches. Pete Carroll (Seattle) and Hue Jackson (Cleveland) are alums of Pacific while Jeff Fisher (L.A. Rams) and Jack Del Rio (Oakland) are alums of USC. Dirk Koetter (Tampa Bay) finished playing at Idaho State in 1981. After playing at ISU, Marvin Lewis started his coaching career in Pocatello, coaching linebackers from 1981-84 and he is now the Cincinnati Bengal coach. Active players in the NFL are Evan Smith with Tampa Bay and Josh Hill with the Saints. Tyler Kuder is with the Packers but on season-ending injured reserve.

TOUGH SCHEDULE

After playing two teams in the Pac 12 Conference, ISU's conference schedule is not easy. Every team but one on the Bengals league slate finished with a winning record. Sacramento State was the only team that finished with a losing record. The combined overall record for the eight conference teams was 53-39 and the combined conference mark was 40-24.
