THE LEAD

Iowa State wrapped up the most successful season in school history with a win against Miami in the Pop-Tarts Bowl to secure its 11th victory. The Cyclones finished the season ranked No. 15 in both the final AP and coaches polls, the second-highest season-ending ranking in program history.

KEY STORYLINES

- Iowa State reached double-digit wins for the first time in the program's 133-year history ... the Cyclones won their third bowl game under head coach Matt Campbell and sixth overall ... no Big 12 school has more bowl appearances since 2017 than ISU.
- Campbell, who agreed to a contract extension through 2032 following the school's second appearance in a conference championship game, became ISU's winningest football coach earlier this season ... he surpassed Dan McCarney's previous mark ... he recently completed his ninth season leading the program, the third-longest tenured coach in ISU history and tied for the third-longest active tenure in the Big 12 Conference ... in school history, only McCarney (1995-2006) and Clay Stapleton (1958-67) enjoyed longer tenures ... Campbell owns 50.6 percent of ISU's all-time Big 12 wins (45-of-89).
- Iowa State placed five players on the All-Big 12 First and Second Teams ... senior Jaylin Noel was named Co-Special Teams Player of the year and a first-team selection at that position ... on the second team, ISU was represented by Stevo Klotz (FB), Jayden Higgins (WR), Jontez Williams (DB) and Malik Verdon (DB).
- Rocco Becht cemented himself as one of the best quarterbacks at the FBS level ... he has thrown a TD pass in 18-straight games ... he's just the fifth QB in school history to pass for 6,000 career yards ... Becht has led the Cyclones to 18 wins the last two seasons, the best twoyear stretch in school history.
- Becht tossed 25 touchdown passes, the secondmost in a single season at ISU, and now owns two of the top three single-season marks in - school history ... only Brock Purdy's 2019 season topped Becht's stats for passing touchdowns, passing yards (3,505), total offense (3,823) and TDs responsible for (33).

- Becht had one of college football's best wide receiving duos at his disposal in Higgins and Noel ... they became the first duo in school history and one of two pairs nationally with 1,000 yards each this season ... in eight of 14 games they combined for at least 10 catches, 175 yards and a score ... Higgins was an Associated Press Third-Team All-American, becoming ISU's 14th All-American since 2017 after the school had just three All-Americans from 1997-2016
- ISU's defense, under Jon Heacock's direction, battled significant injuries at the linebacker position this season but allowed just 22.9 points per contest, the eighth-straight season yielding less than 26.0 points per game ... ISU's defense is one of 11 nationally to allow fewer than 26.0 ppg the last eight seasons ... the Cyclones went 6-0 this season when giving up fewer than 20 points ... the six games was tied for the secondmost games in the Big 12 allowing fewer than 20 points.
- Iowa State won in the margins and it resulted in the Cyclones being one of just three Big 12 teams to win 11 games in 2024 ... ISU was one of the nation's least penalized teams with an average of 3.8 penalties per game (fourth nationally) ... its 28.0 penalty yards per game were the fewest nationally and the least by a Cyclone team since 1962 ... ISU had a +9 turnover margin, ranking among the nation's Top 20 ... the Cyclones picked off 15 passes and are one of just six teams nationally to intercept 15+ passes in each of the last two seasons.

MIDAMERICAN ENERGY FIELD AT JACK TRICE STADIUM / STARK PERFORMANCE CENTER

MIDAMERICAN ENERGY FIELD AT JACK TRICE STADIUM

MidAmerican Energy Field at Jack Trice Stadium has proven to be one of the nation's most outstanding football structures and celebrated its 50th season as ISU's home field in 2024. With its remarkable sight lines and numerous renovations throughout the years to enhance the game day atmosphere, the stadium ranks as one of the nation's best football venues.

The 61,500-seat stadium is the second-largest in the Big 12 Conference. Construction on the stadium started on Oct. 26, 1973, with the first game in the facility played on Sept. 20, 1975, a 17-12 Cyclone win over Air Force. In 1997, it was officially dedicated as Jack Trice Stadium in honor of Jack Trice, Iowa State's first African-American student-athlete who died tragically from injuries sustained in a football game in 1923. Iowa State is the nation's only FBS school to have a stadium name dedicated to an African-American.

WHO WAS JACK TRICE?

Jack Trice was born in Hiram, Ohio, in 1902. Trice attended East Tech High School in Cleveland, where he was a star athlete. When his football coach, Sam Willaman, was named head coach at Iowa State, Trice and six other athletes followed him west, as Trice became the first African-American student-athlete in Iowa State history. Trice majored in animal husbandry and his goal was to settle in the South after his graduation and help the black farmers of that area. He was a very studious young man and despite his participation in intercollegiate athletics, Trice managed to pass 45 college credits with a 90 percent average. Because there were no athletic scholarships granted in those days, he worked odd jobs to finance his education and support his wife and mother.

On the gridiron, Trice was a stellar performer along the interior line in 1923. His promising career abruptly ended, however. Trice played in ISU's season-opener, a 14-6 win over Simpson in Ames. He traveled to Minneapolis the following weekend to face a strong Gopher squad. It was during intermission that Trice began to complain of a sore left shoulder, but nevertheless, returned to action in the second half. Midway through the third quarter, a frustrated Minnesota team ran a play off left tackle. Trice immediately saw that he wouldn't be able to reach the ball carrier, so he threw himself in front of the Minnesota interference in a roll block. He was toppled over on his back and trampled on.

Trice wanted to continue playing but never returned to the game. Doctors at a Minneapolis hospital allowed Trice to return to Ames with the team, which lost the game 20-17. They declared his condition not so serious. Trice rode back on a pullman coach. He rested his body on a straw mattress and was immediately taken to the university hospital upon his arrival in Ames. There, doctors discovered a broken collarbone Trice had sustained during the first half of the contest. His condition worsened as he developed respiratory problems Sunday afternoon, and a stomach specialist from Des Moines was summoned. Dr. Oliver Fay decided that surgery would be too risky, so no operation was performed.

At 3 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 8, 1923, Jack Trice died of hemorrhaged lungs and internal bleeding throughout the abdomen. The following Tuesday, classes were postponed and a funeral service was held before 4,000 students and faculty members on the central grounds of campus.

A letter written by Jack Trice to himself on the eve of the Minnesota game was found in his coat pocket the day of his funeral. The contents of that letter were divulged before the 4,000 mourners. It read:

"My thoughts just before the first real college game of my life: The honor of my race, family and self is at stake. Everyone is expecting me to do big things. I will. My whole body and soul are to be thrown recklessly about the field. Every time the ball is snapped, I will be trying to do more than my part. Fight low, with your eyes open and toward the play. Watch out for crossbucks and reverse end runs. Be on your toes every minute if you expect to make good. Jack."

A memorial scholarship was created, and a memorial to Trice is located on the east concourse of the football stadium as you enter the Jack Trice Club. A statue in his honor was unveiled in 1987 and currently resides on central campus, and a second statue was installed in front of the stadium in the fall of 2022.

Iowa State unveiled its new stadium in 1975 and it was originally named Cyclone Stadium. Gradually, the Trice story started to become more prevalent.

A strong push from students and alumni to dedicate the stadium in honor of Trice gained traction in the early 1980s. Iowa State President Dr. Robert Parks announced the facility name would change to Cyclone Stadium at Jack Trice Field prior to the 1984 season.

A groundswell of support for Trice continued, however. Supporters felt Trice's name should be the primary focus of the stadium. Finally, in 1997, President Dr. Martin Jischke officially dedicated Iowa State's football venue as Jack Trice Stadium, ahead of the season-opener against Oklahoma State.

Believed to be the first school to grow its own grass for its football stadium. In October 2022, GrassMax synthetic fibers were stitched into the sand base of the field to help with grass reinforcement and root stabilization. #### STARK PERFORMANCE CENTER/BERGSTROM FOOTBALL COMPLEX

The visual landscape surrounding Jack Trice Stadium was amplified with the addition of the Stark Performance Center, a $90 million project connecting to the existing Bergstrom Football Complex and debuting in 2021. This massive upgrade created multiple spaces for use by all student-athletes, as well as the addition of the Albaugh Family Plaza north of Jack Trice Stadium for all Cyclones to enjoy.

New or upgraded amenities include: football locker room, football player's lounge, nutrition center, sports medicine center, football offices, student-athlete life skills center, student-athlete academic center and student-athlete dining hall.

Becht finished the game 22-for-36 for 270 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions ... he also had 23 yards on the ground and a rushing TD ... - In its 133rd season, ISU averaged just 4.1 wins per season prior to Matt Campbell's arrival in 2016 with 12 bowl game appearances ... under his leadership, ISU has averaged 7.1 wins per season and reached bowl games in seven of his nine seasons.
- The Cyclones reached double-digit wins in a season for the first time in school history and for just the second time ever in the regular season (1906) ISU topped nine wins in the regular season ... overall it is the fourth time ISU has ever won nine or more games in a season.
- ISU has 12 seasons in its history with at least eight wins, including just nine in the modern era (1928-pres.) ... Campbell has coached the Cyclones to four of those seasons and recently passed CFB Hall of Famer Earle Bruce for the most eight-plus win seasons at ISU.
- Iowa State matched its best start to a season in 2024, winning its first seven games before its first loss.

- The Cyclones played Houston and UCF for the first time since the schools joined the Big 12 Conference in 2023.
- Iowa State took on Iowa in Kinnick Stadium on Sept. 7 in an Iowa Corn Cy-Hawk Series showdown ... the teams have played every year since 1977 with the exception of the 2020 COVIDaffected season.
