Ryan Silverfield became the 25th head coach in Memphis football history in December 2019 and began his tenure by leading the Tigers into their first major bowl game appearance: the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic in Dallas.

In naming Silverfield, the Tigers hired from within. Silverfield served as deputy head coach and offensive line coach during the 2019 season as the Tigers won their first outright conference title in 50 years. Memphis won the 2019 American Athletic Conference championship with a 29-24 win over Cincinnati at Simmons Bank Liberty Stadium.

Silverfield also was part of Memphis staffs that led the program to three-straight American Athletic Conference West Division crowns from 2017-19 and four-straight bowl appearances from 2016-19. Behind Silverfield's contributions, Memphis won 38 games during those four seasons, including going 10-3 in 2017 and 12-1 in 2019. He is the only member of the staff to be part of both 10-plus win seasons.

Under Silverfield's leadership in 2022, Memphis defeated Utah State, 38-10, in the SERVPRO First Responder Bowl, becoming the first head coach in program history to earn back-to-back bowl titles. Silverfield's 21 wins are tied for the second-most of any Memphis head coach through three seasons and rank him fifth among the 24 coaches hired in 2020 nationally. Only he and Sam Pittman of Arkansas have won two bowl titles from that group.

Individually, six Tigers earned All-AAC accolades in 2022, led by first-team honorees defensive back Quindell Johnson and kicker Chris Howard. Tight end Caden Prieskorn and linebacker Xavier "Zay" Cullens earned second-team All-AAC accolades, while defensive lineman Jaylon Allen and defensive back Davion Ross were named Honorable-Mention All-AAC.

In 2021, Silverfield led the Tigers to the program's eighth-straight bowl game, extending the longest bowl streak of any non-Power 5 team in the country. Memphis was named EasyPost Hawai'i Bowl Champions after Hawai'i was unable to participate.

Silverfield's 14 wins in his first two seasons at the helm of the Tigers are tied for the second-most in program history and also rank him tied for fifth for most victories among all FBS second-year head coaches.

Individually, true freshman quarterback Seth Henigan had a record-breaking season, earning FWAA Freshman All-America honors. The Denton, Texas native completed 235-of-393 passes for 3,322 yards, 25 touchdowns and eight interceptions. His 3,322 passing yards shattered the school's freshman record previously held by Paxton Lynch in 2013 (2056) and rank sixth overall on the program's single-season list. His 25 touchdowns are tied for the seventh-most in school history.

Wide receiver Calvin Austin III was unanimously chosen by the AAC coaches to the first team, one of just three players to be unanimously selected. Joining Austin III on the All-AAC First Team are tight end Sean Dykes, offensive lineman Dylan Parham and linebacker JJ Russell. The four first-team honorees are the most for Memphis since the program had six in 2017. Earning second-team all-conference accolades for the Tigers are defensive lineman John Tate IV and defensive back Quindell Johnson.

In his first full season at the helm of the program in 2020, Silverfield led the Tigers to the team's first bowl victory since 2014, a 25-10 win over Florida Atlantic in the Montgomery Bowl, becoming the first head coach in school history to win a bowl game in his first year.

Silverfield guided Memphis to an 8-3 record on the season, setting the program record for winning percentage (.727) by a first-year head coach, while also matching the school mark for most wins in a debut year (Mike Norvell, 2016). For his efforts, he was named the 2020 Tennessee Sports Writers Association (TSWA) Coach of the Year.

On the field, Memphis ranked 22nd in the nation in total offense (453.1) and finished 17th in the country in both passing offense (307.9) and first down offense (260). Defensively, the Tigers were 13th in turnovers gained (20), 17th in passes intercepted (12) and 19th in red zone defense (.744).

Quarterback Brady White capped his incredible career at Memphis by winning the 31st William V. Campbell Trophy, which is presented to the college football player with the best combination of academics, community service and on-field performance. White was also a First-Team Senior CLASS Award All-American, one of nine semifinalists for the Wuerffel Trophy and a top-15 candidate for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award.

Five players earned honors from the American Athletic Conference following the season, with wide receiver Calvin Austin III and defensive lineman O'Bryan Goodson being named to the first team. Defensive back Quindell Johnson was named to the second team, while both tight end Sean Dykes and defensive lineman Morris Joseph earned All-AAC Honorable-Mention accolades.

During the 2019 season, Silverfield developed a young offensive line that returned only two starters from 2018. One of starters -- Dustin Woodard -- moved to center as a regular for the first time in his collegiate career. Silverfield molded a line that blocked for the fourth-best offense in program history (6,249 yards) and the program's third-best scoring offense (527 points).

Two of Silverfield's linemen received all-conference accolades in 2019. Woodard was named to the All-American Athletic Conference second team and Dylan Parham earned all-league honorable mention recognition. Silverfield's line blocked for Kenneth Gainwell, The American's Rookie of the Year and the program's fifth 1,000-yard rusher all-time (1,425 yards), and for all-league second team performers in quarterback Brady White, wide receivers Damonte Coxie and Antonio Gibson, and tight end Joey Magnifico. White had more than 3,000 yards passing and Coxie posted more than 1,000 yards receiving, both for a second-straight campaign. After the season, Woodard was a seventh round draft selection in the 2020 NFL Draft by the New England Patriots.

Silverfield served as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator in 2018, overseeing the team's most consistent unit with all five starters playing every game. One year after blocking for an offense that featured consensus All-American wide receiver Anthony Miller and set a school record for passing touchdowns, the offensive line spent the 2018 season in the trenches blocking for the program's first unanimous All-American in running back Darrell Henderson. During the 2018 season, Memphis set school records for total yards, points scored and rushing touchdowns. In 2017, they set the standard for passing touchdowns.

Collectively, Silverfield's 2018 unit was one of 10 semifinalists for the Joe Moore Award, given to the best offensive line in college football. For his role leading the offensive line, Silverfield was named one of six finalists for the offensive line coach of the year award sponsored by FootballScoop. Silverfield also was recognized as one of the top recruiters in his time at Memphis. In 2017, he was ranked the fourth-best recruiter in The American by 247sports.com.

A 2018 Frank Broyles Award candidate, Silverfield first came to Memphis in 2016 with more than 18 years of coaching experience at the high school, college and NFL levels. He remains the only coach to have worked with an NCAA single-season rushing leader and an NFL single-season rushing leader. At UCF, Silverfield helped tutor Kevin Smith when the junior back led college football with 2,567 yards in 2007. Five seasons later in 2012, Silverfield was at Minnesota, where the Vikings' offensive line paved the way for Adrian Peterson's 2,097-yard season.

Just prior to coming to Memphis, Silverfield spent the last half of the 2015 football campaign with the NFL's Detroit Lions. In a mid-season staff shake-up, the Lions brought in Silverfield as an assistant offensive line coach, and the hire paid immediate dividends. His tenure with the Lions was Silverfield's second stint in the NFL.

Before Silverfield's arrival, the Lions had a 2-7 record in the three games before he came on board, Detroit's offensive line allowed 15 sacks for 105 yards. In the season's final stretch, Silverfield helped mold an offensive line that propelled the Lions to a 5-2 record. The Lions' offensive line allowed just more than three sacks per game in the last seven contests, and quarterback Matthew Stafford thrived behind Silverfield's new-look offensive line. In the seven games with Silverfield on staff, Stafford threw 17 touchdowns and only one interception. Before that, Stafford had 15 touchdowns and 12 interceptions.

Preceding his 2015 mid-season jump to the NFL, Silverfield was a senior offensive analyst on head coach Todd Graham's Arizona State staff. In his short time in Tempe, Ariz., the Sun Devils posted a 5-5 record on their way to a final 6-6 regular-season mark and a Motel 6 Cactus Bowl berth.

Silverfield served as an offensive consultant at Toledo in 2014 and helped the Rockets to a 9-4 overall record and a 7-1 Mid-American Conference (MAC) mark. Toledo tied for the MAC West crown and earned a GoDaddy.com Bowl berth. The Rockets' nine wins were the most since 2001, and Toledo's 63-44 bowl victory over Arkansas State was its first postseason win since 2011.

The Rockets' offensive line helped put one of the most prolific offensive seasons in Toledo football record book. The 2014 offense set school records for total offense, total rushing yardage and first downs per game and also ranked among the program's top-five in points per game (2nd), touchdowns scored (3rd) and rushing touchdowns (3rd).

Leading the charge on Silverfield's offensive line was Greg Mancz, the 2014 Vern Smith Award/MAC Player of the Year award recipient. Mancz, also an All-America second team selection, became the first offensive lineman in MAC history to be honored as the league's Player of the Year. Fellow linemen Josh Hendershot and Jeff Myers joined Mancz in earning All-MAC recognition.

Toledo's offensive line proved fruitful for the 2014 Rockets' attack. Toledo led the MAC in scoring offense, total offense, rushing offense and first downs. Rockets running back Kareem Hunt led the MAC in rushing (1,631 yards) and was tops in the nation in yards per carry (8.0). Hunt was an All-MAC first team pick and also earned GoDaddy.com Bowl MVP honors (271 yards/5 touchdowns).

Before jumping back to the collegiate ranks, Silverfield spent six seasons on the Minnesota Vikings staff. In his time in Minnesota, Silverfield helped the Vikings to two NFC North Division crowns and three NFL playoffs appearances, including a trip to the 2009 NFC championship game. Silverfield began his Vikings' stint as an offensive quality control staffer, before moving to a defensive line staff assistant in 2009 and 2010. He moved to the offensive side from 2011-13, assisting Jeff Davidson with the offensive line.

It was in the midst of his three years working with the Minnesota offensive line that Peterson had one of the most-prolific, single-season rushing performances in NFL history. In 2012, Peterson ran for a league-best 2,097 yards, falling just eight yards shy of Eric Dickerson's NFL record of 2,105. Peterson was named the 2012 NFL MVP.

Prior to his time in the NFL, Silverfield spent the 2006 and 2007 seasons at UCF. In his two campaigns in Orlando, Fla., he served as an offensive graduate assistant his first season and moved to a defensive graduate assistant spot in 2007. Silverfield was a member of the 2007 Knights staff that led the squad to a 10-4 record, a 7-1 Conference USA mark and the C-USA East Division crown. UCF defeated Tulsa in the C-USA championship game and earned the league's AutoZone Liberty Bowl berth.

As an offensive graduate assistant, Silverfield worked with Smith in 2006. That season – Smith's sophomore campaign – he rushed for 934 yards in only nine games, setting up his explosive junior season. As a junior, Smith was the NCAA rushing champion.

In Silverfield's season working with the Knights defense, UCF ranked among the top four in C-USA in scoring defense, rushing defense, passing defense and turnovers forced. The Knights held half of their opponents to 20 or fewer points in the 2007 campaign.

In 2005, Silverfield served as the quarterbacks coach at Jacksonville University. In 2004, at the age of 23, Silverfield served as head coach at Memorial Day High School in Savannah, Ga.

A 2003 Hampden-Sydney College (Va.) graduate, Silverfield coached four seasons at his alma mater, starting as an offensive assistant in 2000. Then, at age 20, he was tapped as the Tigers defensive line coach and spent two seasons at that post (2001-02). In 2003, Silverfield moved back to offense and coached the tight ends and H-backs. That season, the Tigers went 9-1 and had the nation's No. 1 scoring offense in the country (47.0 ppg). Hampden-Sydney scored 45 or more points in seven of its 10 games in 2003.

Silverfield started coaching in 1999 at his alma mater, The Bolles School in Jacksonville, Fla. He played for the Bulldogs and was a member of two Florida state championship teams (1995 and 1998). During his playing career, Silverfield helped Bolles to a No. 1 ranking in the USA Today Super 25 national high school football poll. Immediately after his playing career, Silverfield jumped to the coaching ranks as a Bolles School assistant.

- Silverfield set the program record for winning percentage (.727) by a first-year head coach, while also matching the school mark for most wins in a debut year (Mike Norvell, 2016).
- For his efforts, he was named the 2020 Tennessee Sports Writers Association (TSWA) Coach of the Year.
- Prior to be naming named head coach in 2019 before the team's appearance in the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic in Dallas, Silverfield served as deputy head coach and offensive line coach during the 2019 season as the Tigers won their first outright conference title in 50 years.
- Silverfield also was part of Memphis staffs that led the program to three-straight American Athletic Conference West Division crowns from 2017-19 and four-straight bowl appearances from 2016-19.
- Behind Silverfield's contributions, Memphis won 38 games during those four seasons, including going 10-3 in 2017 and 12-1 in 2019. He is the only member of the staff to be part of both 10-plus win seasons.

SERVPRO FIRST RESPONDER BOWL • 2022

MEMPHIS	38
UTAH STATE	10

GERALD J. FORD STADIUM (32,000)
DECEMBER 27, 2022

DALLAS – The University of Memphis football team earned a 38-10 victory over Utah State in the SERVPRO First Responder Bowl on Tuesday at Gerald J. Ford Stadium in Dallas. With the victory, the Tigers end the season with a 7-6 record, while the Aggies finish at 6-7.

The 28-point win for Memphis is the largest in the program's bowl history. Ryan Silverfield is the first head coach in team history to earn back-to-back bowl game championships and joins Tommy West as the only head coaches in Tiger history with two total bowl titles.

Sophomore quarterback Seth Henigan was named the SERVPRO First Responder Bowl MVP after completing 20-of-29 passes for 284 yards and three touchdowns. Henigan extended his streak of consecutive games with at least one TD pass to 24.

"I am so proud of our resiliency today and leading up to today," Silverfield said. "We are going to celebrate this and be proud of the moment. I am proud of our guys and our seniors. That win was for them. Thanks to all of the great fans from the city of Memphis. I am honored to coach this team. There are bright days ahead of us."

Fifth-year defensive back Sylvonta Oliver had two interceptions to spearhead the Memphis defensive effort, matching both the team's bowl game record, as well as the SERVPRO First Responder Bowl mark. The Tigers limited Utah State to just 261 total yards, the second fewest in program bowl history.

Memphis never trailed in the game on Tuesday, running out to a 24-3 lead at halftime thanks in part to a 21-point second quarter. Wide receiver Eddie Lewis had a pair of touchdown catches in the frame, finishing the game with five receptions for a game-high 83 yards and two scores.

Tight end Caden Prieskorn capped the first half with a three-yard touchdown catch with 24 seconds remaining. Prieskorn's score capped one of the best seasons for a tight end in Memphis history. The redshirt sophomore finished the year with 48 receptions for 602 yards and seven scores. His receptions and TD receptions are tied for the most among tight ends in single-season history, while his receiving yards are the second-most.

In the fourth quarter, the Aggies cut the lead to 24-10, but running back Jevyon Ducker ended the drama, scoring from 1-yard and 48-yards out to make the score 38-10. Ducker finished with 13 rushes for a game-high 83 yards and two touchdowns.

Defensively, redshirt junior linebacker Geoffrey Cantin-Arku had a game-high 10 tackles with one tackle for loss, while defensive back Joel Williams had one tackle and an interception for the Tigers. Playing in their final games for Memphis, linebackers Tyler Murray and Xavier "Zay" Cullens finished with seven tackles each.

MONTGOMERY BOWL • 2020

MEMPHIS	25
FLORIDA ATLANTIC	10

CRAMTON BOWL (25,000)
DECEMBER 23, 2020

MONTGOMERY, Ala. – The Tigers wrapped up the hectic 2020 schedule with a dominant victory in the 2020 Montgomery Bowl. The 25-10 victory earned head coach Ryan Silverfield his eighth win of the season, which gave him the best winning percentage for a Memphis head coach in his first year at the helm of the program (.727).

Memphis dominated the first half of the contest, as the defense pitched a shutout of the Owls, while the offense had consistent success against the FAU defense.

Riley Patterson started the scoring with a 53-yard field goal midway through the opening quarter. Patterson's successful attempt marked the longest made field goal in Cramton Bowl history. The stadium, built in 1922, has hosted collegiate and high school football across its 98-year history.

In his final game with the Tigers, quarterback Brady White pushed the Memphis lead to double digits, as he capped off an eight play, 52-yard drive with a five-yard touchdown pass to Javon Ivory with 2:26 remaining in the opening frame. Ivory set career highs with seven catches and 126 receiving yards.

Memphis maintained a 10-0 advantage until late in the first half. With 22 seconds on the clock, White connected with Joseph Dorceus on a two-yard touchdown pass. Dorceus, a defensive lineman, lined up at fullback and caught the touchdown pass on third-and-goal, while a successful two-point converstion put the Tigers in front 18-0 at halftime.

The Owls didn't go away quietly, as they struck for 10 straight points out of halftime. FAU got on the board just over two minutes into the third quarter on a touchdown pass from Nick Tronti to TJ Chase, while only two minutes later, Memphis' lead shrunk to eight on a 27-yard field goal by Vladimir Rivas. Rivas' field goal ended up as the final points of the game for FAU.

White responded to FAU's consecutive scoring posessions, as he followed the Owls' field goal with a seven play, 75-yard drive. Ivory's game-long 51-yard reception on the drive set up the Tigers, who capped off the possession in the endzone. White's third touchdown pass of the day, this time to Calvin Austin III, put the Tigers up 25-10, the eventual final score, as neither side put up points in the fourth quarter.

Memphis snapped a five-game bowl losing streak with the 25-10 victory. White's 284 passing yards moved him into second place all-time in the American Athletic Conference career passing list behind only Temple's P.J. White (2013-16). White finished his Memphis career with 10,690 passing yards, a Tigers record, and ended with 90 touchdown passes, a conference and school record.

GOODYEAR COTTON BOWL • 2019

15/15 MEMPHIS	39
12/11 PENN STATE	53

AT&T STADIUM (80,000)
DECEMBER 28, 2019

DALLAS, Texas – Memphis' historic season has come to an end with a 53-39 setback to Penn State at the 84th Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic Saturday afternoon. Memphis finishes the 2019 season with a 12-2 overall record, the most wins in school history.

The 2019 Cotton Bowl will go down as one of the most exciting Cotton Bowls all-time as numerous records were shattered between the two teams. Most importantly, kicker Riley Patterson individually rewrote Cotton Bowl and NCAA bowl records at AT&T Stadium.

Patterson made six field goals and converted on three PATs to score a school and Cotton Bowl record 21 points kicking. His 51-yard field goal was also a Cotton Bowl record and the six made field goals were the most made in NCAA bowl history.

He got the Tigers on the board first with a 48-yard attempt in the first quarter. Memphis' defense forced Penn State to go three-and-out on the opening kickoff that preceded Patterson's field goal.

The two teams exchanged scores on the next two drives before the Memphis defense posted back-to-back sacks, forcing Penn State to punt. Patrick Taylor Jr. recorded his fifth rushing touchdown of the season and 36th in his career during the scoring exchange.

Patterson's second field goal of the quarter lifted Memphis to a 13-7 advantage with 2:55 on the clock.

Penn State rattled off 21 unanswered through the heart of the second quarter to shift momentum back in favor of the Nittany Lions. Memphis didn't back down and strung together a 75-yard drive culminating in a Kenneth Gainwell rushing touchdown with 3:15 before the end of the first half.

Again, Penn State had an answer, but so did the Tigers.

Trailing 35-20 with possession of the final drive of the first half, Memphis drove the ball 49 yards down the field to put Patterson in position for his third field goal attempt of the half. He converted a 44-yard attempt to put the Tigers down by just 12, 35-23, at the intermission.

Momentum started to shift back in favor of the Tigers as Memphis cut the deficit to five, 35-30, with a six-play, 75-yard drive. During the drive, Brady White contributed with a pass, a reception, the first of his career, and his third rushing touchdown of the 2019 season.

Two plays later, linebacker Austin Hall recorded his second interception of the season to give Memphis the ball back. Memphis turned the Penn State turnover into three more points by way of Patterson's fourth field goal of the game, making it a 35-33 game.

Trailing 38-36 with 38 seconds remaining in the third, momentum shifted back in favor of the Nittany Lions after a 15-yard pick six. Patterson's sixth field goal of the contest pulled the Tigers back within a score, 45-39, with 12:01 remaining, but it proved to be the final time Memphis put a tally on the board.

BIRMINGHAM BOWL • 2018

MEMPHIS	34
WAKE FOREST	37

LEGION FIELD (71,594)
DECEMBER 22, 2018

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – University of Memphis' Tony Pollard piled up a Birmingham Bowl record 318 all-purpose yards (109 rushing/209 kick returns), but it wasn't enough as the Tigers dropped a 37-34 decision to Wake Forest Saturday.

Pollard rushed for 109 yards and added 209 kick return yards, including a 97-yard return for a touchdown. With the kick return for the score, Pollard tied the NCAA/FBS record with his seventh career kick return for a touchdown. He shares the NCAA/FBS mark with three others.

Patrick Taylor Jr. joined Pollard in rushing for more than 100 yards, gaining 110 yards on 30 carries. Pollard and Taylor each ran for one score on the ground, and Taylor's touchdown put the Tigers in front 34-30 with 1:15 left.

The Tigers' offense – playing without unanimous All-America running back Darrell Henderson – was unable to get on track most of the game. Memphis, which averaged over 530 yards of total offense entering the Birmingham Bowl, managed only 378 total yards Saturday, with 138 of those yards coming in the final period.

After a high-scoring first half, the defenses took over after halftime. The Demon Deacons managed just two third-quarter field goals for a 30-28 lead.

The fourth quarter remained quiet with Wake Forest clinging to a 30-28 lead until the final six minutes.

After a Demon Deacons' punt pinned Memphis deep, the Tigers took over on their 12-yard line with 5:51 left. Memphis put together an 88-yard drive that ended with a Taylor nine-yard touchdown run to give the Tigers a 34-30 lead. The Memphis two-point conversion failed, but the Tigers took 4:36 off the clock on the drive.

Wake Forest struck quickly on its next possession and moved to the Tigers' 1-yard line in 40 seconds. Demon Deacons' quarterback Jamie Newman hit pay dirt on the next play for a 37-34 lead with :34 left.

On the ensuing drive, Memphis moved deep into Wake Forest territory, but was unable to get the go-ahead or equalizing score.

The first half was loaded with fireworks on both sides.

The Demon Deacons began the high-scoring first half with a 10-play, 75-yard drive on the game's opening possession. A Newman to Sage Surratt nine-yard pass gave Wake Forest the 7-0 lead.

Memphis had two answers. The Tigers tied the score at 7-all when Pollard burst through the line for a 41-yard scoring scamper with 10:06 left in the first quarter.

After the Tigers defense forced a Wake Forest punt, Memphis took over at its 2-yard line. The Tigers moved down the field on a season-long 16-play drive that culminated in a one-yard touchdown pass from Brady White to Taylor. The drive was 98 yards, the Tigers' longest since a 99-yard drive at Ole Miss in 2016.

The Memphis defense then got in on the scoring when, on the Demon Deacons' next possession, Chris Claybrooks picked off a Newman pass and returned it 37 yards for the score and a 21-7 Memphis lead. It was the Tigers' first pick-six since the season opener when TJ Carter returned an interception for a touchdown.

Wake Forest cut the Memphis lead to 21-10 early in the second quarter, and on the ensuing kickoff, lightning struck for the Tigers special teams. Pollard, who had limited opportunities to return kicks this season due to opponents kicking away from him, took the ball at the Memphis 3-yard line and raced 97 yards for the touchdown and a 28-10 lead.

Wake Forest closed the first half with back-to-back touchdowns runs by Newman to cut the Memphis lead to 28-24 at the break.

LIBERTY BOWL (58,318)
DECEMBER 30, 2017

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – It wasn't the way Tiger Nation wanted it to end. However, the 2017 Liberty Bowl wrapped up an incredible season in University of Memphis football history.

The Tigers dropped a narrow 21-20 decision to Iowa State before a Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium crowd of 57,266, the 10th-largest in the postseason classic's history and the third-largest since the stadium went through ADA renovations in 2009.

Riley Ferguson and Genard Avery, the Memphis Most Outstanding Offensive and Defensive Players, respectively, did their parts in helping the Tigers' cause Saturday.

Ferguson was 21-of-33 passing for 286 yards and two scores. Avery had five total tackles (four solo), two sacks (19 yards) and 2.5 TFL (28 yards). The two sacks were tied for the second-most in Liberty Bowl history, and Avery's sack yardage (19) and TFL yardage (28) were the fifth-most and second-most in the classic's history, respectively.

How It Happened

- Iowa State struck first just under two minutes into the game when Kyle Kempt hit Hakeem Butler on a 52-yard scoring strike for a 7-0 Cyclones lead.
- Seven minutes later, Memphis knotted the score at 7-all when Ferguson found Anthony Miller from 10 yards out.
- The Tigers' first score came off a short field after an Iowa State miscue on special teams gave Memphis the ball at the Cyclones 40-yard line.
- Memphis nearly came up with another big play late in the second quarter, but an interception in the end zone was overturned. Eight plays later, the Cyclones scored on a Joel Lanning two-yard TD run for a 14-7 lead.
- The Tigers answered at the halftime buzzer with a Riley Patterson 34-yard FG to cut the Iowa State lead to 14-10.
- After halftime, Memphis grabbed its first lead of the contest when Ferguson connected with Phil Mayhue on a 36-yard scoring strike for a 17-10 lead 1:38 into the third quarter.
- With five minutes remaining in the third quarter, Memphis' Curtis Akins intercepted Kyle Kempt in the end zone and returned it out to the 20-yard line. However, the pick was negated by a roughing the passer penalty.
- Two plays later, Kempt's tipped pass attempt fell into Allen Lazard's hands in the back of the end zone for a 21-17 Iowa State lead.
- On the next possession, Memphis cut the Cyclones' lead to 21-20 on a second Patterson field goal, this time from 30 yards out.
- The fourth quarter had no scoring, but a frenetic finish. With time winding out in the final period, Daniel Montgomery appeared to cross the goal line to extend the Iowa State lead to 28-20. However, Montgomery fumbled before crossing the plane, giving the Tigers one final opportunity.
- The lost fumble was Iowa State's first of the year.
- Memphis started on its own 20-yard line with 4:06 left and drove to the Iowa State 40.
- However, on a 4th-and-10, the Tigers were unable to pick up the first down to extend the drive.

BOCA RATON BOWL • 2016

WESTERN KENTUCKY	51

FAU STADIUM (30,000)
DECEMBER 20, 2016

BOCA RATON, Fla. – Tigers redshirt junior Anthony Miller posted his eighth 100-yard receiving game of the 2016 campaign, but it wasn't enough as the University of Memphis football squad dropped a 51-31 decision to Western Kentucky in the Boca Raton Bowl.

The Boca Raton Bowl, which was played at FAU Stadium on Florida Atlantic University's campus, was Memphis' third-straight postseason trip. It is the second time in program history the Tigers played in three-consecutive bowl games, with the first stretch being from 2003-05.

Miller finished Tuesday's contest with 151 yards on 11 catches and three touchdowns. Miller's receptions (11), receiving yards (151) and touchdowns (3) all were Memphis bowl records. His 18 points scored tied another Memphis bowl mark. The three scores also were a career single-game best for Miller. The 100-yard receiving game was the 10th of his career, tying Miller with Duke Calhoun for the most 100-yard performances in program history.

The Memphis, Tenn., native wrapped up his season totals with 95 receptions for 1,434 yards and 14 touchdowns. He now holds the top spot on all three single-season receiving charts.

Quarterback Riley Ferguson, who left the game for a series late in the third quarter, returned and ended the game 25-of-43 passing for 372 yards and four touchdowns. Ferguson's 372 yards is a Tigers bowl record and his four touchdowns tied a school bowl mark.

Ferguson's 372-yard passing performance was his seventh 300-yard game of 2016. He wrapped up the season with 3,698 passing yards, the second-most for a season in program history.

The Tigers jumped out to an early 7-0 lead on their second drive of the game. Ferguson tossed a pass to Tony Pollard in the right flat, and Pollard took it in from 45 yards out for the score.

After a Western Kentucky touchdown tied the game at 7-all, Memphis regained the advantage at 10-7 on a Jake Elliott 33-yard field goal. The score capped a nine-play, 59-yard drive.

That, however, was Memphis' final lead of the contest. The Hilltoppers outscored the Tigers 34-7 over the next two-plus quarters to take a 41-17 advantage and put the contest out of reach.

The Tigers managed to cut the Western Kentucky lead to 13 points at 44-31 after two Ferguson-to-Miller touchdown connections. The first was a 10-yard score near the end of the third quarter, and the second was a beautiful 45-yard strike to the back of the end zone in the fourth period.

The Hilltoppers responded with a final touchdown with just over two minutes left to secure the bowl victory.

Freshman Tony Pollard caught four passes for 81 yards, including a 45-yard touchdown reception for the game's opening score. Pollard also returned three kicks for 75 yards.

BIRMINGHAM BOWL • 2015

LEGION FIELD (71,594)
DECEMBER 30, 2015

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – In front of a Birmingham Bowl-record crowd of 59,430, the Memphis Tigers overcame a 10-point first-half deficit, but Auburn scored all of the game's 21 second-half points en route to a 31-10 win at Legion Field.

The historic record-breaking season for Memphis ended with a 9-4 overall record and the program's second-straight bowl game appearance. During the season the team set single-season records with 522 points, 64 touchdowns, 6,331 offensive yards and 322 first downs.

The record-breaking season added two more notches to its belt when Memphis recorded its 95th third-down conversion of the season, breaking the previous record set in 2007 and ended with 101 for the season. The second record came in the middle of the third quarter when the Tigers eclipsed the team single-season passing yardage mark, previously set in 2007, and now stands at 3,995.

Paxton Lynch, who set then-single-season school records for touchdown passes, passing yards and 300-yard passing games, was 17-of-38 behind center for 104 yards. The rushing attack was paced by Doroland Dorceus, who ran 10 times for 39 yards. Jarvis Cooper had five rushes for 35 yards. Mose Frazier and Phil Mayhue each hauled in four receptions, with Frazier recording a team-high 47 yards.

Memphis forced three turnovers, two on Reggis Ball interceptions, and the third on an interception from Dontrell Nelson.

Auburn used trickery on its first drive of the game, converting a fake punt for a 37-yard pass to the Memphis 3-yard line. However, the defense tightened and did not allow another positive yard, forcing the Tigers to a 20-yard field goal for a 3-0 lead.

On its second drive of the game, Auburn got a nine-yard rush from Kerryon Johnson to push Auburn's advantage to 10-0 with just under two minutes remaining in the first quarter.

With 10:03 to play in the second quarter, Memphis kicker and Lou Groza Award finalist Jake Elliott booted a 53-yard field goal — tied for the third-longest in program history — and cut the Memphis deficit to seven at 10-3. Elliott's 53-yard field goal set a Birmingham Bowl record for the longest field goal.

It was Elliott's sixth career field goal of 52 yards or more, as he owns four of the five longest field goals in program history (the other is held by current New England Patriots kicker Stephen Gostkowski). Elliott's kick also tied a school record for most field goals in a season (23), as he tied Joe Allison's total from the 1992 season.

On Memphis' next drive, Elliott was set to take sole possession of the field goal record, but his 34-yard attempt was blocked, keeping the Auburn advantage at 10-3 with 5:55 to play in the opening half.

After stopping Auburn on a third down near midfield, the visitors on the scoreboard attempted a fourth-down pass that was picked off by Ball for his second interception in the game. Ball returned this one 56 yards for his first collegiate touchdown and knotted the score at 10-all at halftime.

Memphis came out of the halftime break and drove 56 yards on 13 plays, moving the ball down to the Auburn 9-yard line before Lynch's pass attempt was tipped and intercepted in the end zone.

Two possessions later, Auburn used eight plays to drive 44 yards and scored the go-ahead touchdown when quarterback Jeremy Johnson found Jason Smith out of the backfield. Smith evaded Memphis tacklers on his way to the end zone, giving Auburn a 17-10 lead near the end of the third quarter.

Auburn extended its advantage to 24-10 on the Tigers' first play of the fourth quarter when Johnson found pay dirt from five yards out with 14:57 remaining in the contest. Following a 56-yard punt return after Memphis' next possession, Auburn's Javon Robinson scored his first touchdown of the game from four yards out, pushing Auburn's lead to 21 at 31-10 with 12:57 to play.

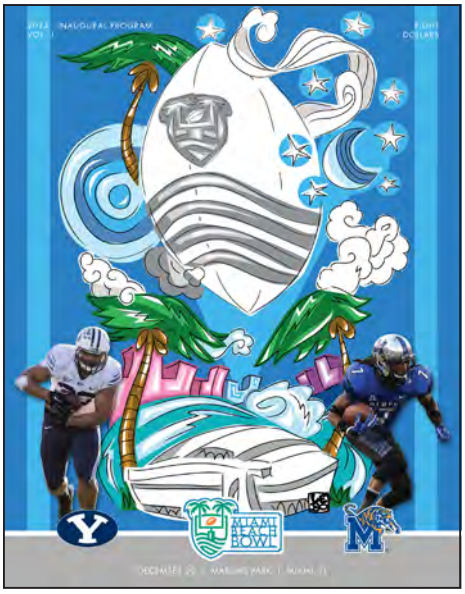
MIAMI BEACH BOWL • 2014

BYU	48
MEMPHIS	55

MARLINS PARK (20,761)
DECEMBER 22, 2014



MIAMI, Fla. — Dramatic. It's certainly one word which epitomized Memphis' 55-48, double-overtime win over BYU in the inaugural Miami Beach Bowl.

Memphis had to overcome five turnovers, including a BYU 19-yard interception return for a touchdown with 7:48 to play in regulation which gave the Cougars a 45-38 lead.

In the final minutes of the fourth quarter the Tigers converted two fourth-down plays. The second conversion resulted in a five-yard touchdown pass from Paxton Lynch to Keiwone Malone with 45 seconds to play to tie the game at 45-all.

In the first overtime period, Jake Elliott kicked a 54-yard field goal to tie the game at 48-all and send the contest to a second overtime. Elliott's 54-yarder was the longest in an overtime period in FBS bowl history and also the fourth-longest in bowl history.

And after Memphis scored in the second overtime period, DaShaughn Terry intercepted a pass on BYU's second play from scrimmage to end the game.

Quarterback Paxton Lynch equaled an NCAA bowl record for touchdowns responsible for with seven and was named the Miami Beach Bowl's Most Valuable Player.

Lynch completed 24-of-46 passes for 306 yards and four touchdowns, including the game-winning, 11-yard strike to Roderick Proctor in the end zone to cap Memphis' second overtime series. Lynch also ran for 38 yards and three scores.

In his final game as a Tiger, Malone caught six passes for 75 yards and two touchdowns. He also had a career-long, 41-yard run in the game.

The two teams combined to run an NCAA bowl record-tying 188 offensive plays, including 97 by the Tigers (tied for seventh-most in a bowl game), and accounted for a combined 905 yards of total offense.

Memphis twice led by 10 points in the game, the last coming with 3:45 to play in the third quarter, when Alan Cross hauled in a 17-yard touchdown pass from Lynch.

The Cougars took advantage of three fourth-quarter Memphis turnovers to go from 10 points down to leading 45-38 when Zac Stout returned his interception 19 yards for a score with 7:48 to play.

Late in the game and the Tigers trailing by seven, punter Nick Jacobs pinned BYU at its own 4-yard line. A 3-and-out series by the Cougars followed by a short punt and a nine-yard return by Joe Craig gave the Tigers the ball at the BYU 33 with 2:34 left in the fourth quarter.

Lynch and Malone first hooked up on a 4th-and-seven pass play for a 15-yard pickup to the Cougars 11. Four plays later and facing another fourth down, Lynch scrambled and Malone made a diving catch in the end zone to tie the game at 45-all in the final minute.

Trevor Samson kicked a 45-yard field goal to give BYU a 48-45 lead in the first overtime period. After Memphis' first offensive series in overtime lost 12 yards on three plays, Elliott booted a 54-yard field goal to extend the game to another overtime.

In the second overtime period, Malone caught a 15-yard pass on second down, and following a Brandon Hayes' four-yard run, Lynch found Proctor open in the end zone for the rookie's first career touchdown reception.

Senior receiver Keiwone Malone caught six passes for 75 yards and two touchdowns including a five-yard TD grab on a fourth-down play late in the fourth quarter to tie the game and send it to overtime.

ST. PETERSBURG BOWL • 2008

MEMPHIS	14
USF	41

TROPICANA FIELD (33,000)
DECEMBER 20, 2008

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — This was the bowl game head coach Tommy West wanted for his program. Sure, he and his Tigers enjoyed their bowl trips four of the previous five years. But, this invitation to the inaugural magicJack St. Petersburg Bowl was — in West's eyes — an opportunity to see where Memphis stood on the national scene, no matter the game's outcome.

The bowl game had Memphis playing its first BCS league foe in school postseason history, as the Tigers faced the USF Bulls. While the previous bowl trips were important in their own right, West believed this bowl would set the course for the direction of the program's future.

The Bulls won the game 41-14 before a predominantly pro-USF crowd of 25,205 at Tropicana Field, home of the MLB American League champion Tampa Bay Rays. The appearance at Tropicana Field made history for the Tigers, as it was the first time Memphis played in a Major League Baseball stadium.

As for the game, it pitted one of the nation's best rushing offenses (Memphis) against one of the country's top rushing defenses (USF), and on this day, the defense won the battle. The Tigers entered the contest averaging over 200 yards via their ground game, but the Bulls had the nation's ninth-best rushing defense and it showed. USF held Memphis to only 66 yards on 30 carries, and Tigers running back Curtis Steele, a 1,000-yard rusher, gained most of those with 48 yards on 12 rushes.

While the Bulls defense shut down the Memphis offense, the Tigers defense had no answer for USF quarterback Matt Grothe, who was named the bowl game's MVP. Grothe was 17-of-24 passing for 236 yards and three touchdowns and rushed for 83 yards on 15 carries. He also had one reception for 14 yards. Grothe did all of his damage in the first three quarters, as he sat out the final period.

The Bulls got started early and never looked back. On the game's opening kickoff, USF's Dontavia Bogan took Matt Reagan's kickoff at the 1-yard line and returned it 56 yards to the Memphis 43. Three plays later, the Bulls were on the board when Grothe hit Taurus Johnson with a 28-yard scoring strike for a 7-0 lead. The USF scoring drive only took 1:02 off the clock.

Later in the first period, USF struck again on a short six-play drive. Grothe was 3-of-3 passing for 57 yards in putting the Bulls at the Memphis 4-yard line. From there, Ben Williams gained the final four yards and increased the USF lead to 14-0.

However, West's Tigers did not go away. On the ensuing drive, Memphis marched 73 yards on six plays and cut the USF advantage in half at 14-7. The drive only took 2:19, and it ended when Tigers quarterback Arkelon Hall hit pay dirt from three yards out.

The Bulls, though, took the momentum back on their next possession. After striking quickly on its first two scoring drives, USF put together a lengthy 14-play, 63-yard possession that ended in a Maikon Bonani 23-yard field goal for a 17-7 advantage. The drive took 5:51 off the clock.

After holding the Tigers on their next possession, USF had another five-minute scoring drive — this time, 5:24 — that culminated in a Grothe-to-Ben Busbee 13-yard touchdown connection to give the Bulls a 24-7 lead with only 4:15 left before halftime.

Again, the Tigers mounted a response. With a little over four minutes before intermission, Memphis started on its own 20, and Hall led the way. The Tigers quarterback was 7-of-10 passing for 60 yards, including a two-yard touchdown pass to Duke Calhoun with 0:08 left in the second quarter. The score cut the USF lead to 24-14 at the break and pulled momentum back to the Tigers' side.

That momentum, however, swung back to the Bulls in the third quarter. The USF defense held Memphis to only 60 yards on its first two second-half drives, while the Bulls offense capitalized with 10 points to increase their lead to 34-14 by the end of the third quarter. Bonani added a 37-yard field goal midway through the third quarter, and Grothe threw his third touchdown pass near the end of the period to put the contest out of reach.

The Bulls added a final touchdown early in the fourth quarter for the 41-14 final.

NEW ORLEANS BOWL • 2007

FLORIDA ATLANTIC	44
MEMPHIS	27

LOUISIANA SUPERDOME (68,500)
DECEMBER 21, 2007

NEW ORLEANS, La. — Four out of five. Let's say it again! For the fourth time in the last five seasons, the Memphis Tigers football team earned a postseason bowl berth.

Despite their 44-27 setback to Florida Atlantic in the 2007 R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl, the Tigers and their fans had a lot to be proud of when looking at the entire 2007 campaign. The season began with a tough start, but Memphis caught its stride in late October and rode that wave to a fourth bowl game under head coach Tommy West.

Let's take a quick review:

- A bowl looked like a distant dream after a 2-4 start to the season.
- The schedule took on a major shift when the Sept. 8 game at Arkansas State was postponed due to inclement weather. The contest was moved to Sept. 27, making the Tigers play three games in 11 days.
- After losing the first two games in the rugged three-games-in-11-days stretch, the Tigers suffered an even greater loss on the night of Sept. 30 when defensive lineman Taylor Bradford was shot and later died. After two days of emotional outpouring, the Memphis players took the field arm-in-arm for its Conference USA home opener versus Marshall. The Tigers won the game 24-21.
- With a home loss to Middle Tennessee in mid-October, bowl hopes were all but lost with three of the next four C-USA games on the road.
- As was the trend in the West era, the Tigers did not fold. Memphis won all three league road games (at Rice, Tulane and Southern Miss) in that stretch and repositioned itself in the bowl picture.
- The Tigers sealed the bowl invitation with back-to-back home wins over UAB and SMU to close the regular season.

So, you ask, what did the Tigers accomplish?

- A winning record for the fourth time in the last five years (2003-07). The last time Memphis did that was from 1973-77 when the Tigers had five-straight winning seasons.
- Six conference wins, the most league victories in school history.
- A second-place C-USA East Division finish, the second in three years.
- A fourth bowl in the last five years, the first time for a stretch like that in school history.

Granted, the bowl setback to Florida Atlantic put a small bitter taste in the mouths of the Tigers, but Memphis' "never-give-up" attitude kept them in the game until the end despite several injuries that sidelined key Tigers. Kicker Matt Reagan left the game with a concussion, and receiver Maurice Jones was sidelined with a dislocated hip. In addition, T.J. Pitts broke his ankle and quarterback Martin Hankins was knocked out of the game with a knee injury in the third quarter.

Before a crowd of 25,146 at the Louisiana Superdome, seniors Joseph Doss and Hankins went out in style with solid performances. Hankins was 25-of-39 passing for 281 yards and three scores, and Doss rushed for 91 yards on 20 carries and caught a team-high five passes for 42 yards.

With his 281 yards passing, Hankins set the Memphis single-season mark with 3,220 yards. He also set season records for completions (261) and touchdowns (25). For his career, Hankins totaled 5,770 yards, 43 touchdowns and 487 completions — all second to Danny Wimprine.

In the game, Hankins' favorite targets were Carlos Singleton (4 receptions/63 yards/1 TD) and Duke Calhoun (4 catches/40 yards). With their receptions, both Singleton and Calhoun extended streaks. Singleton extended his streak to 21 games with a reception, while Calhoun has caught a pass in all 24 of his collegiate games.

After a first quarter warm-up with Florida Atlantic leading 17-7, the teams combined for 26 points in the second period. Two Joey Mack field goals kept the Tigers close, but the Owls answered with touchdowns for a 30-13 lead. However, Memphis closed the gap to 30-20 just before the half when Hankins hit Earnest Williams from 19 yards out.

Following halftime, Memphis cut further into the Florida Atlantic lead. A Hankins-to-Singleton six-yard scoring connection sliced the Owls' lead to 30-27 with 9:30 left in the third quarter. However, Florida Atlantic scored the final two touchdowns for the 44-27 final.

Punter Brent Sutherland set a New Orleans Bowl record with a 70-yard punt in the fourth quarter. He finished the game with six punts for a 45.2 average.

Clinton McDonald led the Memphis defense with eight total tackles, while Jeremy Rockette and LaKeitharun Ford each had seven hits. McDonald also had one quarterback sack and two TFL. LeRico Mathis recorded his third interception of the season, tying him for team-high honors with Brandon Patterson.

MOTOR CITY BOWL • 2005

MEMPHIS	38
AKRON	31

FORD FIELD (50,616)
DECEMBER 26, 2005

DETROIT, Mich. — It was the holiday season, and the Memphis Tigers football team gave its fans a Merry Christmas — even though it came a day later. Behind a DeAngelo Williams 238-yard rushing performance and three Stephen Gostkowski field goals, the Tigers posted their second postseason victory in three seasons with a 38-31 win over Akron in the 2005 Motor City Bowl. The game was played at Ford Field, the site of the NFL's 2006 Super Bowl in early February.

Williams, who was named the Motor City Bowl MVP, compiled his bowl record-setting 238 yards on 31 carries and scored three touchdowns. Gostkowski hit field goals of 32, 25 and 50 yards, and the 50-yard effort set a Motor City Bowl mark.

The way the game started gave no indication it would end up being a 38-31 shootout. The Memphis offense sputtered at the start, and the Tigers relied on their defense and punter Michael Gibson's foot. The Tigers defense allowed the Zips only three points, despite having two first-quarter drives deep in Memphis territory. Akron scored the field goal on its second drive, but on the first trip across the 50-yard line, the Zips' series was halted at the Memphis 25 when Tim Goodwell and Rod Smith stopped Brett Biggs on 4th-and-1. Gibson played just as important a role in the first quarter with two long punts – 51 and 49 yards – that pinned Akron inside its own 10-yard line both times.

After watching the defense keep the Tigers in the game in the first quarter, the Memphis offense got on track in the second frame. Williams, who gained only 19 yards in the first quarter, picked it up on the Tigers' first scoring drive with 34 yards on the ground. Tigers quarterback Maurice Avery also found his groove in the second quarter, hitting Ernest Williams on a 42-yard strike to the Akron 23. Four plays later, Gostkowski connected on a 32-yard field goal to tie the contest at 3-all.

The Tigers kept it going. The defense held the Zips to 3-and-out on their next series, and the Memphis offense continued to roll. On the first play of the ensuing drive, Avery found his target in Ryan Scott for a 50-yard gain to the Akron 2-yard line. Williams then pushed the ball across the goal line for the first Memphis lead of the game. After Gostkowski's PAT, the Tigers led 10-3.

With just over four minutes left before halftime, Akron got the ball with an opportunity to cut into the Tigers lead, but it didn't happen. The Tigers offense took over with 2:30 on the clock and took advantage of another scoring chance. After two rushes netted a minus-3 yards, Avery took back to the air and again hit Scott for a long gain – this time, 48 yards – to the Akron 27. From there, the Tigers moved the ball to the Zips 7, where Gostkowski hit his second field goal for a 13-3 halftime lead.

The early portion of the second half looked no different for the Akron offense. Stymied by the Tigers in the first half, the Zips were unable to get past their own 40-yard line on the first two possessions. Aided by two Akron defensive pass interference calls, the Tigers moved down to the Akron 2, where Williams scored his second touchdown for a 20-3 Memphis lead.

With only three minutes left in the third quarter and down 20-3, the Zips scored via the air on the ensuing drive. Zips quarterback Luke Getsy was 6-of-7 passing for 80 yards on the series that resulted in a 46-yard scoring strike to Jabari Arthur to cut the Tigers' lead to 20-10.

The game moved into the fourth quarter, and the shootout began. Gostkowski got it started with a 50-yard field goal for a 23-10 Tigers lead. Akron responded with a quick three-play, 80-yard drive to cut the Memphis lead to 23-17. The big play was a Getsy-to-Biggs 72-yard scoring strike.

The Tigers then answered with their own big play in the form of Williams. With the Zips closing in and also gaining momentum, Memphis' All-America running back took a handoff and raced 67 yards to the Akron 2. On the next play, Williams scored his third touchdown. Avery added the two-point conversion for a 31-17 Memphis advantage. The Tigers added another score on an Ernest Williams 5-yard run to increase the lead to 38-17 with only 6:38 left.

However, the Zips did not quit. Akron scored two touchdowns in under six minutes to pull to within seven at 38-31 with only 50 seconds left. The Zips' first drive took nearly five minutes, and ended when Getsy hit Domenik Hixon from 14 yards out. The Akron special teams then executed a perfect onside kick, and recovered the ball at midfield with 1:45 left. One minute later, Getsy connected with Arthur for a 19-yard touchdown pass to cut the Tigers lead to 38-31.

The Zips tried their magic one more time, but this time, the Tigers special teams recovered the onside kick, and Memphis ran out the clock for the win.

Goodwell, who received the UAW Lineman Award, led the Tigers defense with 12 tackles, five TFL and two sacks.

GMAC BOWL • 2004

BOWLING GREEN	52

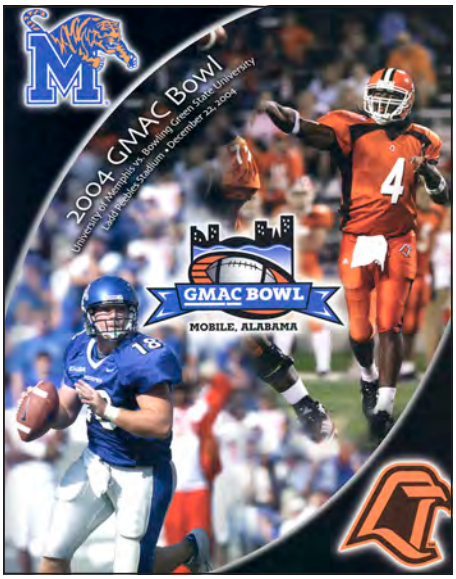
LADD PEEBLES STADIUM (40,646)
DECEMBER 22, 2004



MOBILE, Ala. — In an aerial battle before a rain-drenched 29,500 at Ladd-Peebles Stadium, Memphis' Danny Wimprine and Bowling Green's Omar Jacobs put on a show for the ESPN national television audience. In the end, Jacobs won the shootout in leading the Falcons to a high-scoring 52-35 GMAC Bowl victory over the Tigers.

Jacobs, the GMAC Bowl MVP, connected on 26-of-44 passes for 365 yards and five touchdowns. Not to be outdone, Wimprine was just as impressive. The Memphis senior quarterback was 26-of-39 passing for 324 yards and four touchdowns. Each signal-caller had one interception.

Wimprine and Jacobs received help from each team's running game. For the Tigers, DeAngelo Williams, the Conference USA Offensive Player of the Year, carried the ball 18 times for 120 yards, including an impressive 31-yard touchdown run in the second quarter. Williams missed the final quarter after breaking his right fibula in the third period. P.J. Pope aided the Falcons' cause with 151 rushing yards on 28 carries and two scores.

The offensive fireworks started almost from the opening kickoff. After Bowling Green held the Tigers on their first possession, the Falcons took over on their own 41. Nine plays later, Pope found the end zone from a yard out for a 7-0 Bowling Green lead.

However, the Falcons were not done. On the ensuing kickoff, Bowling Green pulled some trickery out of the playbook early with an onside kick. The Falcons recovered the kick, and the Bowling Green offense was back in business. Jacobs directed a four-play, 52-yard drive in only 45 seconds to give the Falcons a 14-0 lead just over five minutes into the contest. The score came when Jacobs connected with Charles Sharon from 18 yards out.

Memphis got its second possession of the game and took little time cutting the Bowling Green lead in half. The Tigers went 80 yards in seven plays, and the drive culminated in a Wimprine-to-John Doucette 42-yard touchdown toss with 6:51 left in the first quarter.

With the game taking on a back-and-forth nature, the Falcons answered immediately. Jacobs led Bowling Green on a six-play, 68-yard drive over the next 2:05 to put the Falcons ahead 21-7. Jacobs hooked up with Sharon for a 36-yard scoring toss.

In the second quarter, the Tigers scored 17 seconds into the period on a Wimprine 60-yard pass to Chris Kelley. The score began a five-touchdown quarter that ended with the Falcons holding a 35-28 halftime lead.

Memphis pulled even at 28-all on a Williams' 31-yard touchdown scamper with 3:37 left. Bowling Green, though, had one final answer before halftime. Jacobs threw his fourth touchdown pass of the first half when he found Steve Sanders in the end zone with only :37 on the clock. The score gave the Falcons a 35-28 lead and the momentum heading into the second half.

After the break, Bowling Green took control of the game. The Falcons scored the lone touchdown in the third quarter -- Jacob's fifth touchdown pass -- and added 10 points in the final quarter before Memphis' last score with under five minutes to play for the 52-35 final.

Tim Goodwell finished the game with 10 total tackles (five solo), two TFL and a quarterback sack to lead the Tigers defense. Jovon Burkes led the Bowling Green defense with 11 hits (six solo) and two TFL.

Wimprine went over 10,000 yards passing and finished his career with nearly every Memphis passing record. The Tigers quarterback topped the record book for career passing yards (10,215), completions (808), attempts (1,469) and touchdowns (81).

Before his third quarter injury, Williams went over 4,000 career rushing yards. The 100-yard GMAC Bowl performance was the 24th 100-yard rushing game of his career.

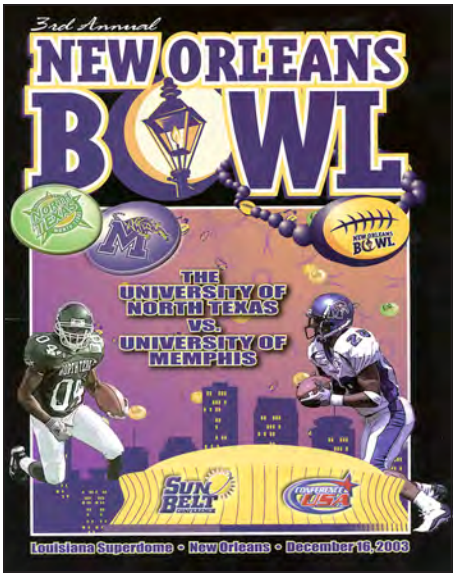
NEW ORLEANS BOWL • 2003

MEMPHIS	27
NORTH TEXAS	17

LOUISIANA SUPERDOME (69,767)
DECEMBER 16, 2003



NEW ORLEANS, La. — The nation's longest bowl drought of 32 years ended in a big way for the University of Memphis. The Tigers, which had not participated in a bowl game since 1971, received a bid to the 2003 New Orleans Bowl and faced Sun Belt Conference champion North Texas.

The city of Memphis was electrified. Excitement abounded and the Tigers faithful bought tickets and prepared for the trip to the "Big Easy."

Playing in the first bowl game of the 2003 postseason and before a national television audience on ESPN, the Tigers' biggest challenge was to stop one of college football's top running backs in North Texas' Patrick Cobbs. And, Memphis was without its top offensive weapon, tailback DeAngelo Williams, as the result of a late-season injury.

Gameday arrived Dec. 16, and Memphis won the coin toss and deferred to the second half, giving the Mean Green the ball to open the game.

On the opening drive, North Texas gave the ball to Cobbs six times, but was forced to call on kicker Nick Bazaldua when the drive stalled at the Tigers 30-yard line. Bazaldua booted a 47-yard field goal for a 3-0 lead.

But, this night belonged to the bowl-hungry Tigers, and the North Texas lead was short-lived.

After Memphis receiver Chris Kelley returned the kickoff to the Tigers 34-yard line, junior quarterback and New Orleans native Danny Wimprine took over.

When rushes by Darron White and Derron Parquet failed to gain yardage, Wimprine went up top and connected with wideout Darren Garcia for 63 yards to the North Texas 6-yard line. Three plays later, Wimprine kept the ball and raced seven yards into the end zone for the go-ahead score.

The Tigers defense, having had a taste of the North Texas offense, returned to the field determined to shut down the Mean Green. Three plays later, punter Brad Kadlubar kicked the ball back to the Tigers.

But, possible disaster struck on the Tigers' next possession as Parquet was knocked out of the game with a shoulder injury. Memphis was forced to put the ball in the hands of walk-on back LaKendus Cole.

Midway through the second quarter, North Texas punted, and the Tigers offense got the ball at the Memphis 24. Powered by the running of Cole and the passing of Wimprine, the Tigers drove the ball to the Mean Green 10-yard line, where Wimprine found Kelley in the end zone for the team's second score. Stephen Gostkowski added the PAT for a 14-3 Tigers' lead.

Lightning struck again for the Tigers. On the ensuing kickoff, Memphis' Shaka Hill stripped the ball from returner Kevin Moore, and Cato Mott recovered at the North Texas 8-yard line. After three plays, Gostkowski was connected on a 21-yard field goal for a 17-3 advantage Memphis took to the half.

The game's third stanza was a defensive battle, and both teams were unable to move the ball until the two-minute mark.

The Mean Green, starting near midfield, marched 58 yards in six plays with Cobbs going the final 35 yards for their first touchdown. Suddenly, the Memphis lead was cut to 17-10 as the third quarter ended.

Memphis regained its composure and took control of the game in the fourth quarter. And, it started early in the final period.

At the 12:28 mark of the fourth quarter, Memphis took over at its own 38-yard line. Wimprine hit White for 20 yards, and Robert Douglas gained three on his first carry of the game. After a North Texas facemask penalty, Cole had gains of two yards and 14 yards to the Mean Green 5-yard line. On 2nd-and-goal, Cole burst up the middle for the touchdown and a 24-10 lead. It was Cole's first collegiate touchdown and put the game out of reach.

North Texas scored again on Cobb's run of two yards with 2:26 on the clock, but it was too little, too late.

The Tigers scored on their next possession to ice the victory. With Cole gaining yards on the ground and Wimprine connecting with receivers Mario Pratcher and John Doucette, Memphis moved within field goal range, and Gostkowski's 42-yard field goal gave Memphis a 27-17 lead and started the celebration in both New Orleans and the Bluff City.

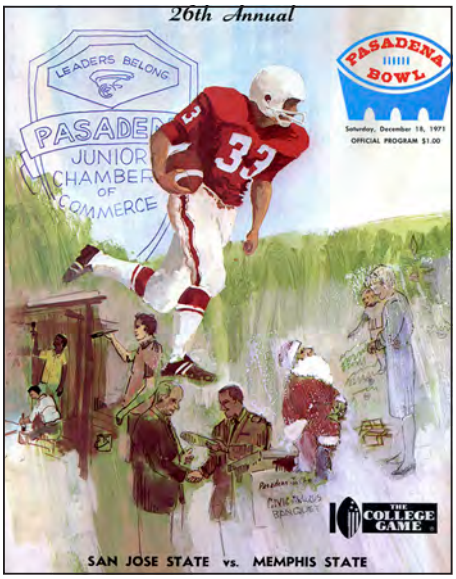
ROSE BOWL (104,091)
DECEMBER 18, 1971



PASADENA, Calif. — A hard-nosed defense that caused numerous San Jose State mistakes and an explosive offense that capitalized on those miscues led the Tigers to a 28-9 Pasadena Bowl rout over the Spartans, before a sparse crowd of 15,244 in the Rose Bowl.

Memphis State, making its first major bowl appearance, trailed 3-0 early in the opening period until a blocked punt by Tom Carlsen, who was named the bowl's Defensive Player of the Game, gave the Tigers a lead they never relinquished.

The Tigers received the opening kickoff, and after failing to move the ball, were forced to punt from their own 26-yard line. The Spartans drove the ball 19 yards and attempted a 42-yard field goal that fell short and was returned by the Tigers.

Following another failed drive, San Jose State moved the ball to the Memphis 16-yard line before kicker Larry Barnes connected on a 33-yard field goal. It was San Jose State's only lead of the contest.

With 50 seconds remaining in the first quarter, Spartans punter John McMillan stood at his own 15-yard line. Carlsen, a Tigers defensive back, blocked McMillan's punt and fell on the loose ball in the end zone for the score. Hal McGeorge added the point after, and Memphis had a 7-3 lead.

The Tigers defense gained an air of confidence and stopped San Jose State on the ensuing series. Following a short Spartans punt, the Tigers took over at midfield.

With quarterback Al Harvey leading the offensive attack, the Tigers moved into scoring position. A 13-yard pass from Harvey to Dornell Harris, who was named the bowl's Offensive Player of the Game, and runs by Harvey, Skeeter Gowen and Paul Wilson set up the Tigers at the 9-yard line. Harvey gobbled up the final nine yards on a run around right end. The 65-yard drive early in the second period gave Memphis a 14-3 lead at intermission.

The Tigers kicked off to begin the second half. San Jose State did not move the ball on its opening drive of the second half, but but got a quick second chance when Gowen fumbled on Memphis' first offensive play. Bill Brown recovered on the Tigers 24 and Memphis' 14-3 lead looked precarious. The Spartans moved to the Memphis 2-yard line, where on fourth down, the Tigers defense buckled down and stopped Spartans running back Joe Hicks at the line of scrimmage. The defensive stand ended San Jose State's only real threat of the second half.

The third period featured strong defensive play from both teams, and when the quarter ended, the score remained 14-3 in favor of the Tigers.

The final stanza opened with San Jose State with the ball, but an interception and 27-yard return by the Tigers' David Johnson, his second of the game, put the ball at the Spartans 18-yard line. Memphis' Gowen wasted no time and raced 18 yards to the end zone on the first play from scrimmage for a score. The scoreboard then read 21-3 in the Tigers' favor.

Lightning struck immediately for Memphis. On the Spartans' first play following the Tigers score, back Larry Lloyd fumbled and Memphis' Carl Taylor recovered.

Five plays later, Tigers fullback Clifton Taylor punched the ball in from the 1-yard line, and Tigers fans rejoiced a 28-3 lead and with 10 minutes remaining.

Frustration mounted for San Jose State as the Memphis defense continued its strong play. Forced to pass the ball with time running out, Tigers cornerback Walter Daggett recorded Memphis' fourth interception of the game to halt another Spartans' drive.

San Jose State's only touchdown of the game was set up when a Memphis special teams snap sailed over punter John Kidwell's head and was recovered at the Memphis 20-yard line. A Brad Metheany 1-yard quarterback keeper with 36 seconds left in the contest was the Spartans' only touchdown. The extra point attempt was wide to the left.

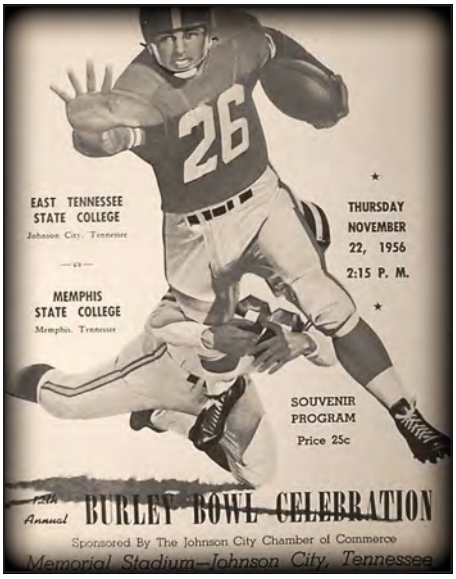
The victory over San Jose State marked the second bowl win for the Tigers in school history. The game also marked the end of an era in Tigers football history. Head coach Billy J. Murphy stepped down from his coaching position following the bowl win and dedicated his time to being the University's athletics director. The former Marine compiled a record of 91-44-1 over his 14 seasons as head coach at Memphis.

BURLEY BOWL • 1956

MEMPHIS STATE COLLEGE	32
EAST TENNESSEE STATE	12

MEMORIAL STADIUM (8,000)
NOVEMBER 22, 1956



JOHNSON CITY, Tenn. — In November of 1956, Memphis State College received its second bowl bid in school history, but this time University officials accepted the invitation and the team traveled to East Tennessee to participate in its first postseason event.

In 1938, the Tigers received an invitation to the Prune Bowl in California and asked bowl officials for a financial guarantee to help cover the cost of transporting the squad to the Golden State. When the guarantee did not come through, Memphis opted to stay home.

In 1956, the Memphis squad finished the season with a 4-4-1 record under head coach Ralph Hatley. Andy Nelson and Cotton Clifford served as team captains and helped Memphis to victories in two of the final three games.

During that three-week stretch, the Tigers had back-to-back shutouts, defeating Western Kentucky 42-0 and Arkansas State 34-0.

November 22 was a cold and blustery day in Johnson City, Tenn. Not suited for football or any other outdoor event, the day was highlighted by a light snowfall and spitting rain and sleet.

East Tennessee State College tallied the game's first points on a 14-yard pass from quarterback Howard Tippett to halfback Bob Lindsey in the first period. The point after failed, as did most that day, and the Buccaneers led 6-0.

The Tigers answered the East Tennessee State College score before the first quarter ended. Bob Schmidt blasted into the end zone from two yards out and, following the missed PAT by Memphis, the score was tied at 6-all.

Neither team could do much to defeat the weather the remainder of the first half, although the Tigers penetrated several times into Buccaneers territory in the second quarter. Memphis even moved down to the East Tennessee State College 1-yard line before a fumble halted the drive. The first half ended with the score knotted at 6-all.

In the second half, the Tigers got their offense going. After being held to only six points in the first half by a battling Buccaneers bunch, Memphis shook off the effects of the biting cold weather conditions and took charge of the Burley Bowl — which was witnessed by 700 fans on a frigid Thanksgiving afternoon — in the third quarter. The Tigers punched across three touchdowns in that third period to take control of the contest on the way to the program's first bowl victory.

The first time Memphis received the ball in the third quarter, fullback Bobby Brooks sprinted right up the middle, veered to the left and went 45 yards for a touchdown. And, before that decisive period ended, the Tigers also scored on a one-yard plunge by Eddie Gebara and a 64-yard screen pass from Bubba Leonard to Gebara.

Andy Nelson took a pitchout four yards for the final Memphis touchdown in the opening minutes of the fourth period. Leonard converted the PAT after the third and fourth touchdowns.

East Tennessee State College's last touchdown came midway in the fourth period when quarterback Joe Dixon ran in from one yard out.

The Tigers ended the season with a 5-4-1 record, while East Tennessee State College dropped to a 4-5 mark.
