THE LEAD

No. 22 Iowa State opens the 2025 season outside the United States for the first time in program history as it faces Big 12 foe and No. 17 K-State in the Aer Lingus College Football Classic at Aviva Stadium in Dublin, Ireland. ISU head coach Matt Campbell will be looking for his 100th coaching victory when the Cyclones play the Wildcats, who they have defeated in five of the last seven meetings.

KEY STORYLINES

- The 2025 season marks the 134th in program history and the 10th under Campbell, who becomes just the third football coach at ISU to coach 10 seasons at the school (Clay Stapleton, 10; Dan McCarney, 12).
- Campbell, who agreed to a contract extension through 2032 last December, became ISU's winningest football coach in 2024 ... Campbell is tied as the third-longest active tenured coach in the Big 12 Conference and owns 50.6 percent of ISU's all-time Big 12 wins (45-of-89).
- ISU posted an 11-3 record in 2024, the program's first double-digit win season ... the Cyclones reached the school's second-ever Big 12 Championship game and won the Pop-Tarts Bowl in a thriller against No. 15 Miami ... it was ISU's seventh bowl appearance in the last eight seasons.
- The Cyclones are returning 53 letterwinners and 11 starters (six offense, five defense) from last year's team ... 15 starters return from the Pop-Tarts Bowl, tied for the seventh-most among bowl-eligible teams.
- Rocco Becht has cemented himself as one of the best quarterbacks at the FBS level ... he is the FBS active leader with a TD pass in a school-record 18-straight games and is just the fifth QB in school history to pass for 6,000 career yards ... Becht has led the Cyclones to 18 wins the last two seasons, the best two-year stretch in school history.
- Becht has thrown for 3,000 yards in back-to-back seasons, the only Big 12 player to do so and one of just 12 active FBS players that can make that claim.
- The Cyclones are never out of it with Becht running the offense ... ISU has five wins in Becht's career when trailing in the fourth quarter.
- ISU had three players named to the Preseason All-Big 12 team ... all three players came from the defensive side of the ball, tying the Cyclones with Texas Tech for the most in the league ... defensive lineman Domonique Orange, cornerback Jontez Williams and safety Jeremiah Cooper were named to the team.
- Iowa State won in the margins and it resulted in the Cyclones being one of just three Big 12 teams to win 11 games in 2024 ... ISU was one of the nation's least penalized teams with an average of 3.8 penalties per game (fourth nationally) ... its 28.0 penalty yards per game were the fewest nationally and the least by a Cyclone team since 1962 ... ISU had a +9 turnover margin, ranking among the nation's Top 20 ... the Cyclones picked off 15 passes and are one of just six teams nationally to intercept 15+ passes in each of the last two seasons.

MIDAMERICAN ENERGY FIELD AT JACK TRICE STADIUM

MidAmerican Energy Field at Jack Trice Stadium has proven to be one of the nation's most outstanding football structures and celebrated its 50th season as ISU's home field in 2024. With its remarkable sight lines and numerous renovations throughout the years to enhance the game day atmosphere, the stadium ranks as one of the nation's best football venues.

The 61,500-seat stadium is the Big 12 Conference's second-largest. Construction on the stadium started on Oct. 26, 1973, with the first game in the facility played on Sept. 20, 1975, a 17-12 Cyclone win over Air Force. In 1997, it was officially dedicated as Jack Trice Stadium in honor of Jack Trice, Iowa State's first African-American student-athlete who died tragically from injuries sustained in a football game in 1923. Iowa State is the nation's only FBS school to have a stadium name dedicated to an African-American.

WHO WAS JACK TRICE?

Jack Trice was born in Hiram, Ohio, in 1902. Trice attended East Tech High School in Cleveland, where he was a star athlete. When his football coach, Sam Willaman, was named head coach at Iowa State, Trice and six other athletes followed him west, as Trice became the first African-American student-athlete in Iowa State history. Trice majored in animal husbandry and his goal was to settle in the South after his graduation and help the black farmers of that area. He was a very studious young man and despite his participation in intercollegiate athletics, Trice managed to pass 45 college credits with a 90 percent average. Because there were no athletic scholarships granted in those days, he worked odd jobs to finance his education and support his wife and mother.

On the gridiron, Trice was a stellar performer along the interior line in 1923. His promising career abruptly ended, however. Trice played in ISU's season-opener, a 14-6 win over Simpson in Ames. He traveled to Minneapolis the following weekend to face a strong Gopher squad. It was during intermission that Trice began to complain of a sore left shoulder, but nevertheless, returned to action in the second half. Midway through the third quarter, a frustrated Minnesota team ran a play off left tackle. Trice immediately saw that he wouldn't be able to reach the ball carrier, so he threw himself in front of the Minnesota interference in a roll block. He was toppled over on his back and trampled on.

Trice wanted to continue playing but never returned to the game. Doctors at a Minneapolis hospital allowed Trice to return to Ames with the team, which lost the game 20-17. They declared his condition not so serious. Trice rode back on a pullman coach. He rested his body on a straw mattress and was immediately taken to the university hospital upon his arrival in Ames. There, doctors discovered a broken collarbone Trice had sustained during the first half of the contest. His condition worsened as he developed respiratory problems Sunday afternoon, and a stomach specialist from Des Moines was summoned. Dr. Oliver Fay decided that surgery would be too risky, so no operation was performed.

At 3 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 8, 1923, Jack Trice died of hemorrhaged lungs and internal bleeding throughout the abdomen. The following Tuesday, classes were postponed and a funeral service was held before 4,000 students and faculty members on the central grounds of campus.

A letter written by Jack Trice to himself on the eve of the Minnesota game was found in his coat pocket the day of his funeral. The contents of that letter were divulged before the 4,000 mourners. It read:

"My thoughts just before the first real college game of my life: The honor of my race, family and self is at stake. Everyone is expecting me to do big things. I will. My whole body and soul are to be thrown recklessly about the field. Every time the ball is snapped, I will be trying to do more than my part. Fight low, with your eyes open and toward the play. Watch out for crossbucks and reverse end runs. Be on your toes every minute if you expect to make good. Jack."

A memorial scholarship was created, and a memorial to Trice is located on the east concourse of the football stadium as you enter the Jack Trice Club. A statue in his honor was unveiled in 1987 and currently resides on central campus, and a second statue was installed in front of the stadium in the fall of 2022.

Iowa State unveiled its new stadium in 1975 and it was originally named Cyclone Stadium. Gradually, the Trice story started to become more prevalent.

A strong push from students and alumni to dedicate the stadium in honor of Trice gained traction in the early 1980s. Iowa State President Dr. Robert Parks announced the facility name would change to Cyclone Stadium at Jack Trice Field prior to the 1984 season.

A groundswell of support for Trice continued, however. Supporters felt Trice's name should be the primary focus of the stadium. Finally, in 1997, President Dr. Martin Jischke officially dedicated Iowa State's football venue as Jack Trice Stadium, ahead of the season-opener against Oklahoma State.

- Iowa State has won five of the last seven meetings in the series after KSU won 10 straight from 2008 to 2017 ... ISU's last three-game winning streak against K-State was when it won five in a row from 1985-89.

- The 29-21 win against K-State in 2024 gave ISU its first 10-win season in program history and cemented its spot in the Big 12 Championship game when BYU lost later that evening ... the Cyclones were outgained in the game, 364-324, but took advantage of two K-State fumbles to score 14 points ... ISU also had a safety in the game.

GETTING THE 'BACKERS BACK

- In 2024, ISU's linebacker group was banged up.....to say the least!
- ISU's linebackers missed 56 games due to injuries in 2024 ... the starters in the spring of 2024 played just six games ... Caleb Bacon (leg) was injured on special teams just five snaps into the season opener and didn't return ... Will McLaughlin (back) missed the season's first nine games and Carson Willich (knee) missed the entire season ... true freshman Cael Brezina missed six games, while backup John Klosterman missed 10 games ... Zachary Lovett also missed four games.
- Kooper Ebel played and started all 14 games for the Cyclones.

- The injuries to the group allowed some young players to get extensive action: true freshman Beau Goodwin, just a year removed from eight-man football, played in 12 games and made two starts ... walk-on Rylan Barnes played in nine games and made four starts as a redshirt freshman.

- The Cyclones ranked in the top-20 nationally in turnover margin (18th, +9) and penalty yards per game (1st, 28.0).
- In six games in 2024, Iowa State committed two or fewer penalties ... in the last two seasons, ISU has the fourth-fewest penalty yards among Power-4 teams ... the Cyclones gave up just nine first downs via penalties, the nation's fewest.

BECHT'S COMMUNITY IMPACT

Florida native Rocco Becht has made an impact on the state of Iowa in just a few short years. Not just with his on-field accomplishments, but off the field as well.

In 2024, Becht hosted a camp for the Perry (Iowa) community after tragedy struck the community. He donated $7,500 to Perry Youth Football as well.

More recently, Becht donated Xbox gaming consoles to Mary Greeley Medical Center in Ames for the pediatric unit, so every room has a console for patients to use during their stay.

For his work in the community, Becht was featured on the 2025 Wuerffel Trophy Watch List and is an Allstate AFCA Good Works Team Nominee.
