Mike Collier Award

Mike Collier came to the IU diving program as a walk-on and left as one of the most distinguished divers in IU history. Some of his accomplishments include eleven school records, Big Ten Champion, Big Ten Diver of the Year, NCAA All American, US National Champion, US National Team Member, and Indiana University Athlete of the Year. Additionally, Mike gave up the majority of his scholarship each year to enable IU to recruit some of the best divers in the country in an effort to help build the best men's team in the U.S. This award is presented to divers who through their actions demonstrate like Mike the character of a champion: self-discipline, determination, dedication, sacrifice, honesty, and effort.

Marge Councilman Service Award

This award is named after Marge Councilman, the wife of legendary coach James "Doc" Councilman. A long-time supporter of the Indiana University swimming and diving program, Marge served as the surrogate mother for countless student-athletes that made their way through Bloomington. The award is presented annually to an individual who has served the IU swimming and diving program.

NCAA RECAPS

Top 16 Finishers at NCAA Championship

Note: From 1985-present, top-16 finalists are considered All-Americans. Prior to 1985, top 12 finalists are considered All-Americans, with the top six considered first team and the next six earning honorable mention. Additionally, swimmers who compete in the preliminaries for relays and help the team advance to finals, but do not swim in finals are also considered All-Americans.

Bold indicates NCAA Champion (name) in relays indicates prelim swimmer who did not swim in finals, but earned All-America recognition.

FORMER COACHES

James 'Doc' Counsilman (1957-90)

James Counsilman took a mediocre swimming program at Indiana and turned it into one of the greatest dynasties in collegiate sports. Referred to as "Doc" for his doctorate degree in physiology from the University of Iowa, Counsilman took the sport of swimming to new levels with research and contributions that are still used by today's athletes. He led the Hoosiers to 23 Big Ten Championships, including 20 straight from 1961-80, and six consecutive NCAA National Championships (1968, 1969, 1970, 1971, 1972, and 1973). His overall record was an astounding 281-36-1. In his 33-year tenure, Counsilman coached 29 individual national champions in 49 events and 10 national relay champions. His tenure also saw 177 Big Ten individual championships and more than 400 All-Americans pass through the halls of Indiana University. Doc also coached in the 1964 and 1976 Olympic games, where he coached 48 medalists (17 gold, 18 silver, 13 bronze) and five Olympic gold-medal-winning relay teams. His teams never placed lower than sixth in the Big Ten Conference.

Hobie Billingsley (Diving: 1959-89)

Hobie Billingsley carried the swimming tradition over to diving throughout his 30-year stint by coaching 15 NCAA Champions and 19 Big Ten champions. With Billingsley's guidance, IU divers aided the Hoosiers to six NCAA Championships (1968, 1969, 1970, 1971, 1972, and 1973). He was also given the honor of being the first recipient of the NCAA Coach of the Year award. In addition to his collegiate accomplishments, Billingsley also led 115 divers to U.S. Diving national championships and was named U.S. Diving Coach of the Year nine different times, including a stretch of seven consecutive honors (1964-70). Billingsley also coached the 1968 and 1972 U.S. Olympic teams to three Olympic and four Pan American gold medals. In addition, he coached on an international stage with the 1976 and 1980 Austrian teams as well as the 1980 Danish teams. Billingsley was inducted into the National Swimming Hall of Fame in 1982.
