COACHES

HC

BARRY KINGHEAD COACH
MADERA, CALIF. • FRESNO STATE (1988)

Entering his 18th season as the head coach for woman's water polo at Indiana University for the 2015 season, Head Coach Barry King has amassed an impressive record of 381-204-2 (65.1 percent). His teams have accounted for three Colligate Water Polo Association (CWPA) championships (2003, 2011, 2014) and six national championship appearances (three pre-NCAA), placing fourth, sixth and seventh, respectively. King's student-athletes have totalled many academic honors and awards from both national associations and conference affiliations. Hoosier water polo players have tallied 13 All-America, 52 All-CWPA, 14 All-Big Ten (1998-2000), 88 ACWPC Academic All-America, 95 Academic All-CWPA and 132 Academic All-Big Ten honors under the tutelage of King.

Personal

The Madera, Calif., native earned his Bachelor of Arts in athletic counseling (1988) and Master of Arts in exercise physiology (1996) from Fresno State. Before coming to Indiana to work on a doctorate in exercise physiology, King coached men's and women's water polo at Madera High School (1987-88), freshman boys basketball at Clovis High School (1986-88) and varsity swimming at San Joaquin Memorial High School. He also coached Indiana's club water polo team for three years before it earned varsity status. Barry, his wife, Mindy, and their two sons, Creighton and Aidan, reside in Bloomington.

AC

MEAGHAN POLANDASSISTANT COACH
WILDOMAR, CALIF. • SAN DIEGO STATE (2012)

Head Coach Barry King announced the addition of Meaghan Poland as an assistant coach with the program on Sept. 23, 2014. Poland was standout player at San Diego State University and graduated from SDSU in 2012.

"She was a talented player while at San Diego State and she will bring her know-how to our program," Coach King said. "I think her youth will help her make that connection with the players on the team and I'm very excited to have her on the staff."

Poland, a native of Wildomar, California, graduated from San Diego State in 2012 with a degree in criminal justice. She played four years for head coach Carin Crawford at SDSU, amassing 160 goals, 22 assists, and 103 steals in her career. In the SDSU record books, she ranks in the top 10 in career ejections drawn with 174.

In 2011 and 2012, Poland was named an Association of Collegiate Water Polo Coaches (ACWPC) All-American Team Honorable Mention. She was named Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) All-Conference Team Honorable Mention in 2011.

MEDIA RELATIONS CONTACTS

Indiana Media Relations Assistant Riley Greene is the main contact for the water polo team. Please contact him with any questions or to arrange interviews with any players or coaches.

RECEIVING INFORMATION

Individuals may receive Indiana Water Polo press releases and recaps via e-mail. To receive such press releases/recaps simply email your requests to rigreene@indiana.edu.

WATER POLO INTERVIEW REQUESTS

All interview requests for Indiana's water polo players must be directed to Riley Greene. Players will be available based on their class schedules. Cell phone numbers will not be made available to members of the media, and all Indiana student-athletes have been instructed not to conduct interviews without prior approval of the athletics media relations staff.

POSTMATCH INTERVIEW POLICY

Head Coach Barry King will be available approximately 15 minutes following each home match. The IU Water Polo locker room is closed to the media. Media members should submit all interview requests to Riley Greene.

Postmatch procedures on the road will be in line with the host school's postmatch procedures. The IU locker room is closed on the road as well.

WIRELESS INTERNET ACCESS

Wireless internet access is available at Counsilman-Billingsley Aquatic Center. Please contact Riley Greene (contact info to the right) at least 24 hours in advance of the event. A username, password and directions explaining how to use the wireless service will be provided.
