INDIANA

2011-: Head Coach

- One of the most innovative and prolific offensive minds in the country, Kevin Wilson was named Indiana University's 28th head football coach on Dec. 7, 2010.

- Sixteen IU standouts have either moved on to the NFL or received camp invites, including four in 2015.

- Wide receiver Cody Latimer was selected 56th overall by the Denver Broncos in 2014 and running back Tevin Coleman was selected 73rd overall by the Atlanta Falcons in 2015.

- With its 31-27 win at No. 18 Missouri last season, the Hoosiers earned their first win over a top 20 team since 2006 and their first on the road since 1987. It marked the first time a Big Ten team defeated a ranked SEC team on the road.

- Indiana won the Old Oaken Bucket for the second straight year, the first time since 1993-94 the program has done so.

- In Wilson's four years, the offense has set 43 school records, including points, total yardage, passing yardage and rushing yardage in a single season.

- Coleman became the 18th player in FBS history to rush for 2,000 yards (2,036), which set a school record, is 15th on the FBS all-time list and sixth in Big Ten history. He was IU's third unanimous and consensus All-American, finished seventh in the Heisman Trophy voting and was a finalist for the Doak Walker Award.

- One year after boasting nine All-Big Ten honorees, the Hoosiers produced seven more in 2013. The 16 honorees marked the most for Indiana in a two-year span since 18 combined in 2000 (6) and 2001 (12). IU added seven more in 2014 for a three-year total of 23.

- The Hoosiers nine All-Big Ten players and six on offense, including three along the offensive line, were the program's most since 2001.

- Assembled the highest-rated recruiting classes in school history over the past three seasons. The hard work on the recruiting trail has paid off, as eight Indiana freshmen earned All-Big Ten freshman recognition in 2013 and five more collected honors in 2014.

- Coached seven freshman All-Americans and 21 freshman All-Big Ten honorees overall in his tenure.

- Adam Replogle (2012) and safety Mark Murphy (2013, 2014) became the eighth and ninth IU players to collect Academic All-America honors. Murphy is just the third Hoosier to earn the honor twice.

- Murphy was one of 17 National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athletes and the runner-up for the 2014 William V. Campbell Trophy, awarded to the top scholar-athlete in college football. He received an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship.

- For the second time under Wilson, the program set a school record with 26 Academic All-Big Ten recipients in 2013.

- Along with 24 honorees in 2011, 22 in 2012 and 21 in 2014, Indiana set a four-year school mark with 93 award winners in the Wilson Era. It is the first time the program has recorded four straight years with 20-plus honorees.

THE OLD BRASS SPITTOON

The Old Brass Spittoon has been awarded to the winner of the Indiana-Michigan State football game since the trophy's inception in 1950.

The trophy was initiated by the junior and senior classes and student council at MSU and was quickly accepted by the IU Student Senate.

The spittoon came from one of Michigan's earliest trading posts and is widely believed to be nearly 200 years old. Legend holds that the spittoon was around when both institutions were founded (IU - 1820, MSU - 1855).

Indiana and Michigan State have faced each other since 1922 and the trophy became a part of the series 28 years after the first meeting.

THE OLD OAKEN BUCKET

The symbol of football supremacy between Indiana and Purdue, the Old Oaken Bucket, has become one of the nation's most recognized and famed trophies in its 90 years of spirited rivalry.

Both institutions had been meeting on the football field since 1891 when the Indiana and Purdue Alumni Clubs of Chicago held a joint meeting in 1925 to "discuss the possibility of undertaking a worthy joint enterprise on behalf of the two schools." Dr. Clarence Jones proposed the creation of a traditional football trophy to go to the winner of the annual clash. Dr. Jones and Russel Gray of Purdue were appointed to recommend a suitable trophy by J. Frank Lindsey, (Indiana, class of 1913), who was elected chairman of the joint committee.

At a later meeting they recommended "an old oaken bucket as the most typical Hoosier form of trophy, that the bucket should be taken from some well in Indiana, and that a chain to be made of bronze block 'I' and 'P' letters should be provided for the bucket. The school winning the traditional football game each year should have possession of the 'Old Oaken Bucket' until the next game and should attach the block letter representing the winning school to the bail with the score engraved on the latter link."

Fritz Ernst of Purdue and Indiana's Wiley J. Huddle were given the task of finding the bucket. They located it on the old Bruner Farm between Kent and Hanover in Southern Indiana. The region had been settled by the Bruner family in the 1840s, making today's bucket around 175 years of age.

Excellent repair work put the bucket, moss and mold-covered with some staves showing signs of decay, into good shape for its initial appearance, which ended in a 0-0 tie in 1925 in Bloomington.

GOVERNOR'S CUP

The rivalry between Indiana and Purdue continues with the 2015-16 Governor's Cup. The overall winner of the contest is awarded a trophy at the end of the season. The Hoosiers lead the all-sports competition between the two schools, 6-3-2. Each sport can earn one point toward the overall championship. A total of 20 points can be won. The winner of regular season head-to-head competition earns the point for its institution. Should the teams split or tie in regular season competition the point is split between the two institutions. If the two institutions do not compete in a head-to-head regular season competition, the team that places higher at the Big Ten Championships will be awarded the point.

BOWL HISTORY

1968 ROSE BOWL

JANUARY 1, 1968 • PASADENA, CALIF.

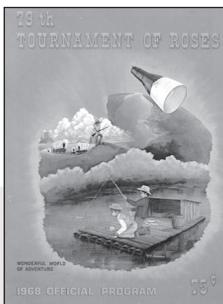

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA 14 INDIANA 3

On Nov. 25, 1967, Indiana University improved its record to 9-1 with a 19-14 upset win over Purdue in the regular-season finale. The win clinched the Big Ten title and secured the Hoosiers' initial postseason bid - a trip to the Rose Bowl and a tilt against top-ranked and O.J. Simpson-led Southern California. Remarkably, just one season earlier in 1966, Indiana had finished the season with a 1-8-1 record.

IU's only Rose Bowl appearance would not be an easy task for the Hoosiers. However, 102,946 fans watched intently as Indiana would give the Trojans everything they could handle for four quarters.

USC tallied first when All-America running back Simpson (25-128-2TDs rushing) scored on a 2-yard touchdown run in the first quarter to cap an 84-yard scoring drive. Indiana would answer just one quarter later. The Hoosiers had a first-and-goal inside the Southern California 10-yard line but could not score a touchdown. However, Indiana kicker David Kornowa did connect on a 27-yard field goal attempt that pulled the Hoosiers to within 7-3, a lead that USC would take into the locker room at halftime.

In the third quarter, the Trojans put together their final scoring drive of the day. This time it was a 45-yard drive capped by an eight-yard touchdown run by Simpson. The "Cardiac Kids," a nickname that IU had been given because of several exciting comebacks throughout the 1967 campaign, would threaten one more time but could not close the gap. IU moved to the USC 37-yard line midway through the fourth stanza but failed on two chances to gain a first down with just inches to go.

BOWL HISTORY

1979 HOLIDAY BOWL

DECEMBER 21, 1979 • SAN DIEGO, CALIF.

INDIANA 38 BRIGHAM YOUNG 37

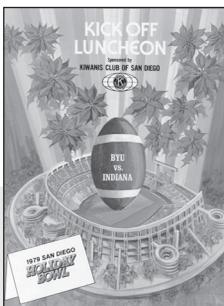

Many people described it as the most exciting game of the 1979 bowl season. The 1979 Holiday Bowl featured Indiana and Brigham Young. The two squads would combine to score 75 total points in addition to tallying 52 first downs and 874 yards of total offense. However, after eight lead changes, Indiana stood victorious, 38-37, over the previously unbeaten Cougars.

Having finished the 1979 regular season with a 7-4 record, Indiana looked to gain its initial bowl victory when it faced off against the Cougars.

It was a tight battle throughout as Brigham Young quarterback Marc Wilson completed 28-of-43 passes for 380 yards and 2 TDs. Throughout the game, he showed many reasons why he led the nation in passing and total offense during the regular season. However, IU found a way to answer every BYU score.

The Cougars would take a 24-21 lead early in the third quarter, but IU tallied right back when running back Mike Harkrader (24-71-1TD rushing) scored on a 1-yard touchdown run to give the Hoosiers a 28-24 lead. Indiana kicker Kevin Kellogg would then connect on a 26-yard field goal to increase the IU lead to 31-24. However, a 29-yard field goal by BYU and a 15-yard touchdown strike from Wilson to fullback Eric Lane, put the Cougars in front, 34-31, at the end of three quarters.

The fourth quarter did not lack for theatrics. BYU would score the quarter's first points to increase its lead to 37-31. However, Indiana's Tim Wilbur countered with a 62-yard punt return to tie the game at 37-37. Kellogg would add the extra point to give IU a one-point advantage with 6:53 remaining in the contest. Brigham Young had the opportunity to win the contest on a field goal attempt with just 11 seconds remaining. However, a 27-yard effort by Cougar kicker Brent Johnson failed, and IU held on for the thrilling 38-37 victory.

BOWL HISTORY

1986 ALL-AMERICAN BOWL

DECEMBER 31, 1986 • BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

FLORIDA STATE 27 INDIANA 13

Although he finished with an 0-11 record during his first campaign at Indiana in 1984, it would take Bill Mallory just three seasons to lead the Hoosiers to their first bowl appearance under his direction. Indiana finished with a 6-5 regular-season record in 1986 and capped its season by playing a talented Florida State team in the 1986 All-American Bowl on New Year's Eve in Birmingham, Ala.

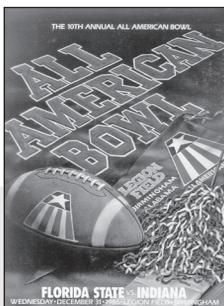

Despite losing 27-13, the Hoosiers would go on to make bowl appearances following four of the next five seasons.

Florida State used four time-consuming scoring drives that averaged 66 yards each to capture the 10th annual All-American Bowl. IU penetrated inside the Seminole 35-yard line four times without a score.

Indiana would tally first as Pete Stoyanovich connected on a 35-yard field goal to give the Hoosiers a 3-0 lead. However, Florida State running back Sammie Smith (25-205-2TDs) scored on runs of four and nine yards in the first and second quarters, respectively, to give the Seminoles a 13-3 halftime lead.

The Seminoles would score another touchdown during the third quarter that would essentially clinch the victory. IU did close the gap to within 20-13 in the fourth quarter, but FSU iced the game with a 68-yard scoring drive.

Indiana running back Anthony Thompson, who was playing in his first bowl game, finished with 127 rushing yards on 28 carries and quarterback Dave Kramme threw for 168 yards. IU dominated the time of possession and totaled more first downs (23-20) and total yards (383-342) than Florida State. However, the Seminoles rushed for 288 yards and were forced into third-down situations on just three occasions during the entire game.

BOWL HISTORY

1988 PEACH BOWL JANUARY 2, 1988 • ATLANTA, GA.

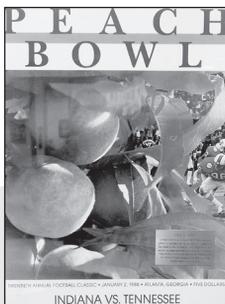

TENNESSEE 27 INDIANA 22

Tennessee drove 40 yards in nine plays and scored on a 9-yard touchdown run by running back Reggie Cobb with just 1:52 remaining in the game to clinch a 27-22 victory over Indiana in the 20th Peach Bowl. The game, which was played on Jan. 2, 1988, at Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium, was witnessed by 58,737 fans. Despite the disappointing loss, IU finished the season with an 8-4 record, which included wins over Michigan and Ohio State.

The Volunteers jumped to a quick 21-3 second-quarter lead. That same stanza, UT blocked an Indiana punt on the IU 9-yard line that gave the Volunteers an opportunity to put the game out of reach. However, IU forced a fumble and drove 91 yards for a touchdown, a 43-yard pass play from quarterback Dave Schnell (33-18-218-1TD-2INTs) to wide receiver Ernie Jones (7-150-1TD). The score narrowed IU's deficit to 21-10 prior to halftime.

The lone score of the third period was a 12-yard run by running back Anthony Thompson (18-67-1TD) that moved Indiana to within 21-16, however, the two-point conversion failed. In the fourth quarter, Indiana scored on a fake field goal attempt when tight end Tim Jordan ran 12 yards for a score that gave IU a one-point lead, 22-21. The two-point conversion attempt was unsuccessful. Tennessee, which had come from behind on four other occasions during the 1987 campaign would turn the trick again as Cobb scored his second touchdown of the game, this one a 9-yard run, to give Tennessee the 27-22 victory.

Tennessee gained 474 yards of total offense, including 146 rushing yards and two touchdowns from Cobb, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player. However, Jones was just as impressive, as he finished with 246 all-purpose yards (150 receiving, 15 rushing, 81 kickoff returns). Indiana linebacker Van Waiters was recognized as the game's Most Valuable Defensive Player.

BOWL HISTORY

1988 LIBERTY BOWL DECEMBER 28, 1988 • MEMPHIS, TENN.

INDIANA 34 SOUTH CAROLINA 10

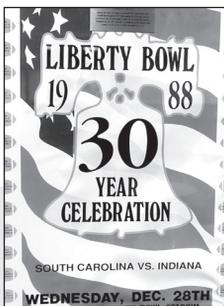

After finishing the regular season with a 7-3-1 record and a 5-3 mark in the Big Ten, Indiana earned a postseason berth for the third consecutive year and played South Carolina in the Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tenn. The Hoosiers dominated the game and cruised to a 34-10 victory before 39,210 fans.

Indiana running back Anthony Thompson (26-140-2TDs) began the scoring with a 7-yard touchdown run in the first quarter, and the Hoosiers would add 10 more second-quarter points to take a 17-0 halftime lead. The Gamecocks would close the gap to 17-7 in the third quarter when they scored on a 34-yard return of a blocked punt. The two teams would then trade third-quarter field goals and the fourth quarter began with Indiana leading, 20-10.

Although Indiana dominated throughout, the game-breaking play occurred on the first snap of the fourth quarter when Indiana quarterback Dave Schnell (31-16-378-2TDs-1INT) hooked up with wide receiver Rob Turner (5-182-1TD) on an 88-yard touchdown pass that upped IU's lead to 27-10. Thompson would cap the scoring with an 8-yard touchdown run later that quarter that earned him a tie for the Big Ten single-season touchdown record with 26 scores.

Indiana set a Liberty Bowl record with 575 yards of total offense. South Carolina, on the other hand, could muster only 153 total yards, including just 23 yards rushing. The IU defense intercepted three passes and recovered a fumble to go along with six quarterback sacks.

Schnell was the game's Most Valuable Player, and wide receiver Tony Buford caught three passes for 100 yards.

BOWL HISTORY

1990 PEACH BOWL

DECEMBER 30, 1990 • ATLANTA, GA.

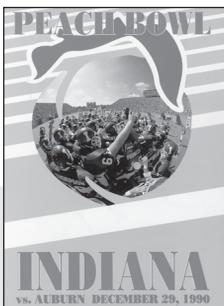

AUBURN 27 INDIANA 23

Indiana finished with a 6-4-1 regular-season record in 1990, a mark good enough to earn the Hoosiers a berth in the Peach Bowl for a date with the Auburn Tigers. The game, which was played at Fulton County Stadium in Atlanta on Dec. 30, 1990, was one of the best games played during the 1990 bowl season.

Auburn led Indiana 17-10 at half-time and increased its lead to 20-10 on a 43-yard field goal during the third quarter, but the Hoosiers returned the favor as quarterback Trent Green scored on touchdown runs of two and 11 yards to give IU a 23-20 lead.

However, Auburn quarterback Stan White (48-31-351-1TD passing and 2 TD runs) would direct the Tigers on a 13-play, 72-yard, 1:40-minute, scoring drive. He capped the drive himself when he scored on a 1-yard run with just 39 seconds remaining in the game. The touchdown gave Auburn a 27-23 victory.

Auburn dominated the game statistically, as the Tigers tallied 440 total yards to IU's 220. However, Indiana utilized a solid kicking game to keep the game close. Trent Green tied a Peach Bowl record with his three rushing touchdowns while running back Vaughn Dunbar (21-81) and free safety Mike Dumas (14 tackles, 4 passes broken up) earned offensive and defensive Most Valuable Player honors, respectively.

1991 COPPER BOWL DECEMBER 31, 1991 • TUCSON, ARIZ.

INDIANA 24 BAYLOR 0

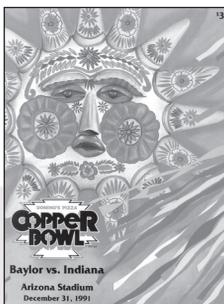

In one of the most impressive performances by any team during the 1991 bowl season, Indiana dominated a highly-regarded Baylor team in the Copper Bowl, 24-0.

Indiana wasted little time getting started as it jumped to a 17-0 halftime lead and was never threatened on its way to winning its second bowl game in four years.

Indiana quarterback Trent Green (21-11-165-0-0 passing, 2 rushing touchdowns) broke the Hoosiers into the scoring column when he tallied a 1-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. IU would increase its lead one quarter later when kicker Scott Bonnell connected on a 27-yard field goal attempt and running back Vaughn Dunbar (28-106-1TD rushing) scored on a 5-yard touchdown run to give the Hoosiers a 17-0 halftime advantage.

IU's only scary moment came in the third quarter when Baylor reached Indiana's 2-yard line. However, a muffed handoff resulted in a fumble that was recovered in the end zone by free safety Damon Watts and the game was, for all intents and purposes, over.

Dunbar won game Most Valuable Player honors on offense and linebacker Mark Hagen (11 tackles, including 2 tackles for loss, and 1 pass broken up) was the game's defensive MVP.

BOWL HISTORY

VIRGINIA TECH 45 INDIANA 20

Virginia Tech used two touchdowns in the final 23 seconds of the first half to post a 45-20 victory over Indiana in the 1993 Independence Bowl.

On the positive side of the ledger for IU, wide receiver Thomas Lewis tallied six receptions for 177 yards and two touch-downs. However, Virginia Tech quarterback Maurice DeShazo completed 19-of-33 passes for 193 yards and two touchdowns on his way to earning offensive game MVP honors.

On the other side of the ball, safety Antonio Banks was the game's defensive MVP as he tallied nine tackles, one interception and one pass broken up, in addition to a touchdown on the blocked field goal.

Indiana finished the 1993 season with an 8-4 record. Two of its three regular season losses were by seven points or less.

BOWL HISTORY

2007 INSIGHT BOWL DECEMBER 31, 2007 • TEMPE, ARIZ.

OKLAHOMA STATE 49 INDIANA 33

Indiana capped off an emotional season in achieving late head coach Terry Hoepfner's dream of "Playing 13," as the Hoosiers returned to a postseason bowl for the first time in 14 years at the 2007 Insight Bowl.

Oklahoma State's no-huddle offense took a strong first half lead, and it was too much for a spirited Hoosier squad to overcome in a 49-33 defeat. The Hoosiers rallied from a 35-10 half-time deficit to get within two scores on two separate occasions in the second half.

Kellen Lewis threw for 204 yards and a pair of touchdowns in the loss, tying IU great Antwaan Randle El for first place on the all-time list with 42 TD passes in his career. The sophomore quarterback also ran for 83 yards on 10 carries and scored a touchdown on the ground.

The Hoosiers drove 52 yards on 11 plays on their opening drive, taking a 3-0 lead on Austin Starr's 43-yard field goal at the 10:41 mark of the opening quarter. But OSU scored the next 28 points of the game before the Hoosiers made it 28-10 on a Marcus Thigpen 4-yard TD grab. Cowboy quarterback Zac Robinson tacked on a 1-yard run just before the half to give OSU a 25-point lead at the break.

IU struck with the first points of the second half on a Lewis 1-yard run that followed a 4th-and-8 conversion on a fake field goal pass from Lewis to Starr. The Cowboys rebutted with a TD of their own, and 16 fourth quarter points by the Hoosiers proved to not be enough to overcome the early deficit.

As a member of the Big Ten, IU enjoyed its best season in Horne's last season as head coach when the team achieved a 6-4 record in 1904.

ALVIN N. (BO) MCMILLIN • 1934-1947
CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 63-48-11
BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 34-34-6

One of Indiana's most successful coaches, Bo McMillin holds the honor of being the only coach to ever lead the Hoosiers to an outright Big Ten Championship. In 1945, he led IU to its only unbeaten record (9-0-1) and garnered Man of the Year and Coach of the Year honors by the Football Writers Association and the Football Coaches Association. While at Indiana, McMillin guided IU to 10 seasons of .500 or better, including a stretch of six consecutive years. His 34-34-6 Big Ten mark is the best winning percentage in Big Ten play for an Indiana coach, as is his overall winning percentage (.562).

He became the first man in Notre Dame's rich football history to win major awards at three different positions.

BOB HICKS • 1957
CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 1-8
BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 0-6

Bob Hicks served as Indiana's interim head coach for one season prior to becoming its head line coach when Phil Dickens assumed the head coach's role. Hicks served as head coach for a season as Dickens sat out for alleged recruiting violations. A 1948 graduate of Tennessee, Hicks played on the line for UT. After five years coaching at the high school level, he received his first opportunity to coach as a member of Dickens' staff at Wyoming, where he helped build highly competitive lines for the Cowboys' powerhouse clubs. Hicks would coach on the IU staff for 16 years.

2 record. His best record came in 1958 (3-2-1), when he guided the Hoosiers to a fifth-place finish in the Big Ten. Dickens earned Midwest Coach of the Year honors that season and finished third in national voting. As a player at Tennessee he was an unanimous All-SEC pick in 1936 and was selected as the Volunteers' outstanding athlete during each of his four years at the school.

JOHN PONT • 1965-1972
BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 21-36-1

John Pont holds the distinction of being the only coach to ever guide Indiana to a Rose Bowl appearance. He accomplished that feat in 1967, when he led the Hoosiers to a 9-2 record, a Big Ten co-championship and an appearance in the Rose Bowl against eventual national champion

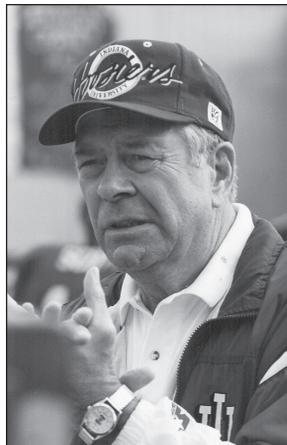

Southern California. Perhaps more remarkable than the Hoosiers' strong showing against the national champs was the fact that this same team could only muster a 1-8-1 record the previous season, thus making the 1967 Big Ten Champions a true "rags to roses" story. Pont earned unanimous national coach of the year honors that season and was selected as head coach of the East team in the 1968 Coaches' All-American game. Pont's jersey is retired at Miami (Ohio) and in 1968 he was one of six charter members inducted into the school's Hall of Fame.

LEE CORSO • 1973-1982
BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 28-52-2

Lee Corso took over as head football coach in 1973 after leading the Louisville Cardinals to two Missouri Valley Conference titles in four seasons. Indiana's victory over the Cougars propelled Corso's team to 16th in the UPI poll, the Hoosiers' first top-20 ranking since 1967. While at Indiana, Corso was active with the American Football Coaches Association. He also served on the Ethics Committee, the Rules Committee and the NCAA Public Relations Seminar. During his tenure, he coached in the All-American Bowl and the Japan Bowl. Corso is currently employed by ESPN, where he works as a studio analyst on College Gameday.

SAM WYCHE • 1983
CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 3-8
BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 2-7

Sam Wyche was Indiana's head football coach for only one season prior to leaving for the National Football League. An assistant coach on Bill Walsh's San Francisco 49ers staff that won the Super Bowl following the 1981 season, Wyche was named IU head coach in 1983 and guided the Hoosiers to a 3-8 mark that year. He then left Indiana to become the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals. He led that squad to the 1988 AFC Championship and a Super Bowl berth against the 49ers. Wyche coached the Bengals for eight seasons before becoming the head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1991. He also coached the Bucs for five seasons, worked as a color commentator on NFL broadcasts and served as the Buffalo Bills' quarterbacks coordinator.

BILL MALLORY • 1984-1996
BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 39-65-1

Bill Mallory served 13 years at the helm of the Hoosiers and compiled a record of 69-77-3. Before joining Indiana in 1984, Mallory coached three other schools to national prominence. While compiling a 165-121-4 (.576) career record at Miami (Ohio), Colorado, Northern Illinois and Indiana, Mallory became one of only seven coaches ever to guide three different programs to top-20 finishes in the national polls. In 1987, Mallory became the first Big Ten coach to be awarded back-to-back coach of the year honors. That year, he led the Hoosiers to an 8-4 record, a second-place finish in the Big Ten, and a Peach Bowl appearance. Mallory led the Hoosiers to six bowl games, including victories in the 1988 Liberty Bowl and the 1991 Copper Bowl. He also led IU to a top-20 ranking in 1988 and finished his career as IU's all-time winningest football coach with 69 wins.

CAM CAMERON • 1997-2001
CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 18-37
BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 12-28

Cam Cameron led the Hoosiers for five seasons and compiled a record of 18-37. He was the second Indiana alum (A.B. Woodford, 1887) to take over at the helm of the IU football program. Cameron played both football and basketball for Indiana in the early 1980s. Prior to joining the Indiana coaching ranks, he served as an assistant coach for the Washington Redskins in the NFL. Cameron brought an explosive offense to Memorial Stadium and a new look to Hoosier football. Indiana took the field with a new oval IU logo. Indiana averaged 23.6 points per game under Cameron's guidance. The Hoosiers enjoyed success as well in the classroom, as IU was recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its exemplary

GERRY DINARDO • 2002-2004 CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 8-27 BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 3-21

In his first season with the Hoosiers, Gerry DiNardo led Indiana to a 3-9 record and a 1-7 mark in the Big Ten, including a 3-3 mark at Memorial Stadium. Among those three wins was a come-from-behind, 32-29, upset of No. 23 Wisconsin. The Hoosiers trailed by 19 points in the third quarter before scoring the final 22 points of the game for the victory. During 2004, the Hoosiers had wins over No. 24 Oregon (30-24) and No. 23 Minnesota (30-21). DiNardo finished his IU career with an 8-27 overall record.

TERRY HOEPPNER • 2005-2006 CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 9-14 BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 4-12

Terry Hoepfner was head coach of the Hoosiers for two years before passing away following a lengthy battle with brain cancer. He will always be remembered as one of the most influential coaches in school history. In just his second season at the helm of the Hoosier program, Hoepfner brought the Hoosiers on the brink of a bowl appearance in 2006. He led the youngest team in the Big Ten (49 true or redshirt freshmen and 72 underclassmen overall), to five victories - its most since the 2001 campaign - and restored an enthusiasm in IU football. The 2006 Hoosiers picked up three Big Ten wins for the first time since 2001, including a 31-28 win over No. 13 (Coaches) Iowa. Earning its final conference victory of the season, the Hoosiers dominated Michigan State, 46-21, on Homecoming to bring the Old Brass Spittoon back to Bloomington for the first time since 2001. Hoepfner made an immediate impact in his first year at the helm of the Hoosier program. Coach Hep rejuvenated an IU fan base that enjoyed a 39-percent increase in per-game attendance, a 46-percent increase in overall season ticket sales and a 110-percent increase in student season ticket sales.

BILL LYNCH • 2007-2010 CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 19-30 BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 6-26

Bill Lynch served at the helm of the Indiana football program from 2007-10. Lynch led the Hoosiers to a 7-6 record and a trip to the Insight Bowl in his first season. He became the only head coach in Hoosier history to guide a team to a bowl game in his debut season. Lynch led Indiana to its most wins since 1993, its first bowl appearance since that same season, and its first Old Oaken Bucket victory since 2001. The team's seven victories were the second most for a first-year Indiana head coach, behind only James M. Sheldon, who went 8-1-1 in 1905. IU boasted three All-Americans, three second-round NFL Draft picks, seven overall NFL Draft picks, 10 All-Big Ten selections, one Academic All-American and 74 Academic All-Big Ten honorees in his four seasons. Lynch also went 2-2 in four Old Oaken Bucket games.

KEVIN WILSON • 2011- CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 14-34 BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 6-26

Kevin Wilson was named Indiana University's 28th head football coach on Dec. 7, 2010. Under Wilson, seventeen IU standouts have either moved on to the NFL or received camp invites, including wide receiver Cody Latimer, who was selected 56th overall by Denver in the 2014 NFL Draft, and Tevin Coleman, who was selected 73rd overall by Atlanta in the 2015 NFL Draft. With their 31-27 win at No. 18 Missouri last season, the Hoosiers earned their first win over a top 20 team since 2006 and their first on the road since 1987. It marked the first time a Big Ten team defeated a ranked SEC team on the road. Indiana won the Old Oaken Bucket for the second straight year, the first time since 1993-94 the program has done so. In Wilson's four years, the offense has set 43 school records, including points, total yardage, passing yardage and rushing yardage in a single season. IU set a four-year school mark with 93 Academic All-Big Ten award winners in the Wilson Era.

COLLEGE HALL OF FAMERS

ANTHONY THOMPSON

Running Back: 1986-89 • 2007 Inductee

Former Indiana running back Anthony Thompson, who starred for the Hoosiers from 1986-89, earned first team All-America recognition following both his junior and senior seasons. A two-time Big Ten rushing champion, he captured the NCAA rushing and scoring titles during his senior campaign and was named the Walter Camp Foundation's Player of the Year, the AFCA "Coaches Choice" Player of the Year, won the Maxwell Award as the nation's finest college football player and finished second in the 1989 Heisman Trophy voting. Thompson finished his career with 5,299 rushing yards, including 377 yards in a game at Wisconsin in 1989. The Terre Haute, Ind., native held the Division I record for career touchdowns with 65 until the 1998 season, when it was broken by Texas' Ricky Williams. Thompson was enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2007.

JOHN TAVENER

Center: 1941-44 • 1990 Inductee

A four-year letterman and a two-year captain at Indiana, John Tavener was named to six different All-America teams following his senior season in 1944. An extremely versatile player, Tavener called the offensive signals at center, excelled on defense and kicked extra points. He would earn IU Most Valuable Player honors in 1943 and 1944. Tavener was drafted by the Chicago Cardinals in 1944 and played for the Miami Seahawks in 1946 but retired after one season and pursued a banking career in Ohio. After retiring from the business in 1986 he became a volunteer assistant coach at Denison University in Granville, Ohio. Tavener was enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1990.

GEORGE TALIAFERRO

Halfback: 1945, 1947-48 • 1981 Inductee

A first-team All-America selection in 1948, George Taliaferro may best be known as the first African-American to be drafted by a National Football League team. In addition to his All-America recognition as a senior, Taliaferro was a two-time second team All-America pick and helped lead the Hoosiers to their first Big Ten championship in 1945. After a successful four-year career at Indiana, Taliaferro played in the NFL from 1948-55 for the Los Angeles Dons, New York Yankees, Dallas Cowboys, Baltimore Colts and Philadelphia Eagles. He was enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1981.

ZORA CLEVENGER

Halfback: 1900-03 • 1968 Inductee

As a member of Indiana's first Big Ten team, Zora G. Clevenger played for the Hoosiers from 1900-03 and served as team captain. He earned All-America honors at center during his senior season. Upon graduating from Indiana he took to coaching and, in 1914, brought the University of Tennessee its first undefeated season. The designer of the Straight-T formation, Clevenger built the Volunteers into a national powerhouse. After retiring from coaching, Clevenger served as athletic director at Missouri and Kansas State before returning to Indiana to work as its athletic director for 23 years. A founder of the annual East-West Shrine Game, Clevenger retired in 1946 and was enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1968.

PETE PIHOS

End/FB: 1942-43, 1945-47 • 1966 Inductee

After earning All-America honors as both an end and fullback, Pete Pihos became the second Indiana University football product to be enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame when he was inducted in 1966. After helping Indiana set national records on offense in 1943, he returned from a stint in the Army to lead the Hoosiers in scoring during their Big Ten Championship season of 1945. One year later, Pihos was named the team's Most Valuable Player while shattering previous IU records for touchdowns, total points and receptions. After college, Pihos was drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles where he played from 1947-55. An integral member of the Eagles' 1948 and 1949 championship teams, Pihos enjoyed a career that included six trips to the Pro Bowl and three straight years leading the NFL in receptions. In 1970, he was inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

2007 ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICAN

Adding to his list of postseason recognitions, Indiana junior kicker Austin Starr was named to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America First Team in 2007. A 2008 graduate with a biology degree, Starr was named Academic All-Big Ten four times. For his performance on the field, the Logansport, Ind., native was named a finalist for the Lou Groza Collegiate Place-Kicker Award, collected All-Big Ten honors and earned a spot on the Rivals.com All-Big Ten team. Starr set a new school record with 21 field goals in 2007, topping former NFL great Pete Stoyanovich's 17 in 1988. He also extended his school record by making his 15th attempt in a row in the first half of the Purdue game.

WILL MEYERS -

2005-06 ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICAN

Will Meyers joined John Hammerstein as the only Hoosiers to have earned Academic All-America recognition twice in their careers. Meyers earned first team status in both 2005 and 2006 as an accounting major. He was also named Academic All-Big Ten in each of his final three seasons. The Chesterfield, Mo., native finished his career with 278 total tackles, and he made five of his six career interceptions as a senior.

JOHN HAMMERSTEIN -

1994-95 ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICAN

The first of three two-time Academic All-America selections in the history of the Indiana University football program, John Hammerstein was so honored following both his junior and senior campaigns. Also a four-time Academic All-Big Ten selection, the Wapakoneta, Ohio, product won four letters as a defensive tackle at IU and finished his career with 15 tackles for loss. A member of a football family, John's brother, Mike, was a four-year letterman and All-America selection at Michigan, his brother, Mark, was an All-Big Ten pick for the Wolverines and his brother, Matt, played football at Yale. John majored in biology.

KEVIN SPEER -

1980 ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICAN

Kevin Speer earned Academic All-America honors as a senior in 1980 after a stellar career both on and off the playing field. Also a two-time Academic All-Big Ten pick, Speer played center for the Hoosiers and helped pave the way for running back Mike Harkrader's 807 rushing yards and six touchdowns in 1979. To conclude the 1979 campaign, the 6-foot-4, 240-pound Speer helped lead the Hoosiers to a 38-37 victory over Brigham Young in the Holiday Bowl. As a senior, he blocked for running back Lonnie Johnson and helped enable him to rush for 1,075 yards and 11 touchdowns. A product of Harrison High School in Evansville, Ind., Speer ranked first in his high school graduating class of 560 students. He majored in business at Indiana.

GLEN SCOLNIK -

1972 ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICAN

As a senior in 1972, Glenn Scolnik won Academic All-America and Academic All-Big Ten honors after finishing the season with 53 receptions for 727 yards and six touchdowns. He also received recognition for his on-the-field performance in 1972, as he was an All-Big Ten selection and IU's Most Valuable Player. The 6-foot-3, 204-pound Scolnik was IU's leading receiver through the first four games of his junior campaign but suffered a pulled hamstring muscle that caused him to miss the remainder of the year. He did, however, catch 12 passes for 141 yards that season and pulled in 14 for 291 yards as a sophomore. A product of Munster, Ind., he played in the North-South Game in 1972 and spent the 1973 season as a wide receiver for the Pittsburgh Steelers. Scolnik was a liberal arts major at IU.

HARRY GONSO -

1967 ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICAN

One of the finest quarterbacks in the history of Indiana University, Harry Gonso was an Academic All-America selection as a sophomore in 1967 and earned Academic All-Big Ten honors following his junior and senior campaigns. A product of Findlay, Ohio, Gonso was the Most Valuable Player on the IU squad that played Southern California in the Rose Bowl following the 1967 season. That year, he completed 67-of-143 passes for 931 yards and nine touchdowns and was an All-Big Ten selection. Despite missing the better portion of two games as a junior, he still finished the year with 1,109 passing yards and 12 touchdowns and won team MVP honors for the second consecutive season. The 5-foot-11, 187-pound Gonso finished his career by throwing for 1,336 yards and 11 touchdowns as a senior. Gonso was a pre-law major at Indiana.

BRAD BOMBA -

1956 ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICAN

Indiana's first Academic All-America selection in football, Brad Bomba earned such honors following his senior season. A three-time Academic All-Big Ten pick, he earned third team All-America recognition for his play at end as a senior in 1956. Widely regarded for combining vicious blocking, defensive ability, and intense competitive spirit with his offensive talents, the 6-foot-3, 214-pound Bomba caught 31 passes for 407 yards and one touchdown as a senior and won the prestigious Balfour Award for bringing honor and distinction to Indiana University in the sport of football. As a sophomore, the Chicago native caught 11 passes for 221 yards. As a junior, he followed up his first campaign by catching 13 passes for 171 yards and two touchdowns.

Mark Murphy became the third Hoosier to earn back-to-back Academic All-America honors following the 2013 and 2014 seasons.

ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION

FRED GLASS - Vice President and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics

Indiana University President Michael A. McRobbie appointed Fred Glass Vice President and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics effective January 1, 2009, after one of the most tumultuous decades in the history of IU Athletics. The fifth athletic director in eight years, Glass was hired to heal and lead a department that had been rocked by the firing of a legendary basketball coach, the untimely death of a beloved football coach, and an infamous major NCAA infractions case. Since assuming this role, Glass has worked tirelessly to return IU to its rightful place as one of the premier athletics departments in the country. His tenure has been marked by establishing Department-wide priorities, initiating groundbreaking innovations, and a deep commitment to the wellness, development, and achievement of the students under his charge.

Glass established five priorities for the department and its student-athletes that have become the hallmark of his tenure as athletic director: 1.) playing by the rules; 2.) being well in mind, body, and spirit; 3.) achieving academically and graduating; 4.) excelling athletically and winning championships; and 5.) integrating with the rest of the University. Building on these priorities and working with student-athletes, coaches, faculty and others Glass subsequently unveiled a creed that represents Indiana University Athletics' core values and describes who we are and who we want to be: The Spirit of Indiana: 24 Sports, One Team. To ensure that the department meets the promise of The Spirit of Indiana, Glass established The Indiana University Department of Intercollegiate Athletics Excellence Academy which is emerging as one of the nation's most innovative and comprehensive student-athlete development programs in the country. Glass also established the Spirit of Indiana Showcase, an annual awards gala celebrating the top athletic and academic achievements of IU student-athletes over the last year. Glass also announced the creation of The Spirit of Indiana Director's Award that honors the senior male and female student-athletes who, on the whole, best personify the tenets of The Spirit of Indiana: 24 Sports, One Team. In 2014--building on the department's priorities, Spirit of Indiana, and Excellence Academy-- Glass unveiled the Indiana University Student-Athlete Bill of Rights, a first of its kind, 10-point document that sets forth the University's commitment to student-athletes during their time at IU and beyond.

Now in his seventh year as athletic director, Glass' dynamic and passionate leadership has been the driving force behind his alma mater's return to athletic success consistent with these priorities and values. On the field since Glass's arrival, 15 IU teams and 88 individuals have won conference championships, 30 student-athletes have been named Big Ten Player of the Year in their respective sports, 337 student-athletes have earned All-American honors, eleven coaches have been named conference coach of the year, three coaches have been named national coach of the year, and the department has produced a national team championship, as well as nine NCAA individual champions. During Glass's tenure, Indiana student-athletes have also excelled in the classroom. In 2014-15 IU had: 225 Academic All-Big Ten honorees, 37 Big Ten Distinguished Scholars, 13 teams earned perfect APR scores, six teams received APR Public Recognition Awards, an average team APR score of 987, and an average GPA of 3.04.

Under Glass' stewardship, Indiana Athletics has been financially self-supporting without any special subsidy from the university, tax dollars, or student fees. In fact, the Athletic Department annually pays over $12 million to the University in tuition, room and board, books, and fees for its scholarship student-athletes and also funded half of the $53 million cost of the new Global and International Studies Building.

To help generate the financial resources necessary to pursue the department's priorities, Glass has cut administrative overhead and increased fundraising. He eliminated ten senior administrative staff positions he inherited annually freeing up nearly two million dollars. Glass has raised more money in $1 million plus gifts in the last two years than in the entire rest of the history of IU Athletics. Glass secured four of the five largest gifts in department history, including the recent $40 million gift from Cindy Simon-Skjodt, the largest in IU Athletics history. For the fourth time since becoming athletic director, IU set an annual giving record for 2014-15, raising $12.3 million to fund student-athlete scholarships.

In 2015, Glass secured a $5 million gift from IU alumnus Mark Cuban to create the Mark Cuban Center for Sports Media and Technology, a first-of-its-kind, cutting-edge, student-focused, video, broadcasting, and technology center. Among other things, this very generous gift will make IU Athletics the national leader in 3D broadcast and replay, virtual reality, and 3D virtual studio technologies. Other facilities funded and opened in Glass's tenure include: Cook Hall, North End Zone Student-Athlete Development Center, Bart Kaufman Field, Andy Mohr

Field, D. Ames Shuel Academic Center, James and Nancy Wilkinson Performance Center, Henke Hall of Champions, Cecil W. Weathers Golf Team Center, Ireland Family Field Hockey Fieldhouse, and many other improvements. A major renovation to Assembly Hall, a new rowing boathouse, and a new golf teaching facility are also underway.

As a result of Glass's relentless focus on improving the game day football experience in and around Memorial Stadium, football attendance in Glass' first year as AD increased by 32%, the third largest one year percentage increase in average attendance in the country that year and the highest IU attendance since 1992. These attendance gains have been maintained and, in fact, a new attendance record was set in 2010. Indiana led the Big Ten in increased football attendance in 2012. Again focusing on preserving and improving the game atmosphere in Assembly Hall, IU has finished in the top ten nationally in attendance in each of the last four years and boasts the nation's largest student section. In 2014-15, men's basketball attendance remained strong as IU Athletics sold more student-season tickets than any other program in the country and overall attendance ranked eighth nationally.

Glass loves supporting IU's student-athletes and often attends competitions and practices, including travelling on road trips with the teams. Glass enjoys being present with the student-athletes, whether it's wearing a kilt at a field hockey game as a result of a challenge with players, sitting on the bench with the volleyball and softball teams, riding the bus with the baseball team, or jumping in the pool with the women's swimming and diving team upon winning their third straight Big Ten title. He also enjoys interacting with IU fans and is a fixture at pregame tailgate gatherings and cheering with the fans in the stands.

In May 2012, Glass received the Distinguished Alumni Award from IU's Robert H. McKinney School of Law. In the spring of 2011, Glass had his head shaved to stand in solidarity with kids fighting cancer at a St. Baldrick's event in Indianapolis, raising over $20,000 for the cause. In April 2010, Glass was presented the Trevor R. Brown Award by the students of the Indiana Daily Student and the Arbutus for his contributions to the experiences of student journalists. Among his other honors and awards, Glass received the Brebeuf Jesuit President's Medal in 2007; The St. Thomas More Society Man for All Seasons Award in 2006; the 2006 Spirit of Service Community Service Award from the Archdiocese of Indianapolis; the 2005 Charles L. Whistler Award from The Greater Indianapolis Progress Committee; the 2004 Fred McCashband Outstanding Alumnus Award (Brebeuf Jesuit Preparatory School); and the National Catholic Education Association Distinguished Graduate Award (St. Thomas Aquinas School in Indianapolis) in 2003.

Glass is a double graduate of Indiana University and had been a well known Indianapolis lawyer and civic leader before being named a vice president and the director of intercollegiate athletics at his alma mater. Born in Indianapolis, Glass earned bachelor's and law degrees from IU in 1981 and 1984, respectively.

Glass played a central role in several major sports-related initiatives in Indianapolis, including negotiating the 30-year agreement to keep the Colts in Indianapolis, developing Lucas Oil Stadium and an expanded Indiana Convention Center, and helping to negotiate the arrangement to regularly bring Final Fours and other major NCAA events to the city. Formerly a partner in the law firm of Baker & Daniels, Glass served as chairman of the firm's management committee and as the volunteer president of the city's Capital Improvement Board. Glass also has served as Chief of Staff to then Governor Evan Bayh, Chairman of then Indianapolis Mayor Bart Peterson's transition team, and in a number of other civic, legal, and sports related positions.

Glass also served as president of the City of Indianapolis' 2011 Super Bowl Bid Committee, which although not successful for that year, has been credited with successfully laying the groundwork for the city's successful bid for 2012. At the time of Glass's appointment Tony Dungy, former head coach of the Indianapolis Colts, said, "I worked very closely with Fred on the Super Bowl effort, and I was very impressed with his vision, leadership and judgment. Indiana University has made an outstanding choice."

Upon his appointment of Glass, Indiana University President Michael McRobbie said, "In all of these major undertakings, Fred demonstrated a remarkable talent for leadership, for mastering the details of big challenges, for diplomacy, and for consensus building. He has a well-earned reputation as someone who can get the big things done. He is exactly the person we need to take on the challenges our Athletics Department will encounter in the next decade."

Glass and his wife, Barbara, who Fred met at an IU football game and graduated from IU in 1980, are the parents of four children and one grandchild. They are: Katie, 29, a 2008 IU Kelley School graduate and her husband Tom Askey, also a 2008 Kelley School graduate, and their daughter Betsy; Joe, 27 (Marquette University '10) a 2014 graduate of the Indiana University McKinney School of Law and his wife Emily a 2010 IU graduate; Connor, 23 a 2014 IU School of Journalism graduate; and George, 20 (IU '17). Fred, Barbara, Katie, Tom, Joe, Emily, and Connor are life members of the IU Alumni Association.

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

MICHAEL A. McROBBIE - Indiana University's 18th President

Michael A. McRobbie became the 18th president of Indiana University on July 1, 2007. IU is one of the largest university systems in the U.S. with eight campuses, a total budget of around $3 billion, and more than 7,000 faculty, 11,000 staff, and nearly 115,000 students.

McRobbie joined IU in 1997 as vice president for information technology and chief information officer, and was appointed vice president for research in 2003. He was named interim provost and vice president for academic affairs for IU's Bloomington campus in 2006, and became president the following year.

As president, McRobbie has refocused IU around six Principles of Excellence—an excellent education, world-class research and scholarship, an outstanding faculty, enhanced international engagement, excellence in health sciences, and in engagement. Supporting these core principles is an essential framework of excellence in the four areas of advancement, infrastructure and facilities, information technology, and administration.

Under McRobbie's leadership, IU has seen a major expansion in the size and quality of its student body, a large-scale academic restructuring with the establishment of six new schools, a reinvigoration of the global partnerships that support the university's international academic and educational programs, the construction or renovation of 56 major new facilities across all campuses with a total value of over $1.7 billion, and the completion of the $1.1 billion "Matching the Promise" endowment campaign at IU Bloomington and the $1.39 billion "IMPACT" campaign at its Indianapolis campus. These are the first two phases of a $5 billion campaign to be completed in IU's bicentennial year of 2020.

In addition to his duties as president, McRobbie serves on several outside committees and organizations. He is presently the chair of the Board of Trustees of Internet2 and chair of the Board of Directors of the Digital Preservation Network. He is also a member and former chair of the Big Ten Council of Presidents and Chancellors, and a member of the National Security Higher Education Advisory Board, and a member and former chair of University Research Associates, which is responsible for Fermi Lab.

McRobbie is a member of the board of directors of the Indiana University Health system—one of the largest and most highly regarded hospital systems in the U.S.—and the OneAmerica insurance company, based in Indianapolis.

McRobbie also holds faculty appointments in computer science, philosophy, cognitive science, informatics, library and information science, and computer technology, and has been an active researcher in information technology and logic over his career. He has been the principal investigator on several major grants, has published a number of books, many articles, and has served on numerous editorial boards and conference committees.

A native of Australia, McRobbie received a Ph.D. from the Australian National University in 1979, and has honorary doctorates from the University of Queensland (2007); Sung Kyun Kwan University in Korea (2008); the Australian National University (2010); the South East European University in Macedonia (2011), which IU helped found; and Griffith University in Australia (2014). In 2013, Thailand's National Institute for Development Administration awarded him its Prince Naradhip Bongsprabandha Plaque for services to international education.

He was elected a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in 2012 and is an honorary fellow of the Australian Academy of Humanities. In 2007, he was made a Sagamore of the Wabash, the highest honor the State of Indiana can bestow on a private individual. And, in 2010, he was made an Officer of the Order of Australia, Australia's national honors system. In 2012, he was listed as one of America's 10 most popular university presidents.

In 2014, McRobbie received the Anti-Defamation League's "Man of Achievement Award," which recognizes individuals who have demonstrated exceptional commitment to community, justice and equal opportunity for all.

COMPLIANCE

Indiana University is extremely proud of the performance of its athletics teams both in competition and in the classroom. While our student-athletes are extremely talented, they would not reach their full potential without the encouragement and support that Hoosier fans bring to every event. We thank you for your consistent display of commitment and support for our IU student-athletes, coaches, and staff.

Please be aware that many fans may meet the NCAA's definition of a representative of IU's athletics interests (commonly known as a "booster"). Although the rulebook is complex, boosters, university personnel, and student-athletes are also expected to abide by NCAA, Big Ten Conference, and institutional rules and regulations. While being a booster has certain privileges, these privileges do not extend to those duties specifically reserved for IU coaches and staff. Any violation of NCAA, Big Ten Conference, or Indiana University rules, no matter the size or scope, could affect a student-athlete's eligibility or Indiana University's status with the NCAA.

Please remember that all matters regarding the recruitment of prospective student-athletes should be left to Indiana coaching staffs and athletics department personnel. Contacting prospective student-athletes, their families, coaches, and/or other individuals associated with a prospective student-athlete about his/her recruitment or future collegiate enrollment at IU is strictly prohibited. This includes, but is not limited to, contacting prospective student-athletes in person, on the phone, through email, and via any social media site. If there is a prospective student-athlete that you would like to see wearing the cream and crimson in the future, please recommend that particular individual to the Indiana University Athletics Department.

In addition to the restrictions on contacting prospective student-athletes, NCAA rules also regulate the types of benefits student-athletes may receive. Beyond the allowable benefits provided to student-athletes by IU, the Big Ten Conference, or the NCAA, student-athletes may only receive benefits that are readily available to the general public or otherwise available to the student body. The NCAA defines "extra benefits" as any benefit that is provided based on a student-athlete's status or notoriety. Extra benefits include, but are not limited to, free or reduced price goods or services such as: meals, rent, transportation, and entertainment. Should you wish to provide a gift, item, or service to an IU student-athlete that is not available to the general public, please be sure to first check with the IU Athletics Compliance Office.

Finally, NCAA rules prohibit any member of the IU athletics staff from commenting publicly about any prospective student-athlete being recruited by our institution, other than to confirm the prospect's recruitment. Indiana is prohibited from publicizing recruiting visits made to our campus by prospects, or otherwise making those prospects available for interviews or media comments while they are meeting with our coaches and touring campus. Only after a prospective student-athlete makes an official commitment to IU by signing a National Letter of Intent (NLI) or an offer of athletics aid, may the university comment publically on the recruitment. Publicity includes verbal comments, social media posts, or any other form of public comment.

The Athletics Department would like to thank you for supporting our student-athletes. Much of our success is due to you, our friends and fans. If you have any questions about these or other NCAA rules, please contact a member of our compliance staff or visit our website at: www.iuhoosiers.com/compliance. Thank you for helping Indiana University play by the rules!

PLEASE HELP IU COMPLY WITH NCAA RULES BY NOT DISTRIBUTING OR REDISTRIBUTING THIS MEDIA GUIDE TO PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETES, THEIR FAMILIES OR THEIR COACHES.
