AMY BERBARY

HEAD COACH

3RD YEAR AT INDIANA • 11 YEARS AS COLLEGE COACH

NCAA TOURNAMENT APPEARANCES: 7 ('04, '08, '09, '10, '11, '12, '13)

ALL-AMERICANS COACHED: 1

FIRST TEAM ALL-CONFERENCE PLAYERS COACHED: 11

CONFERENCE TOURNAMENT TITLES: 2 (2004, 2011)

Amy Berbarry is in her third season as the head coach of the Hoosiers in 2015. She was named the third head coach in Indiana Women's Soccer history on Feb. 6, 2013, after spending the previous five seasons as an assistant coach at Auburn University.

Last season, the Hoosiers finished with the year with a 7-11-1 mark. The defense allowed just 25 goals, the fewest since surrendering 22 during the 2009 campaign. Indiana closed out the year with two consecutive shutouts – a 1-0 victory at Purdue and a 2-0 win against Michigan State. In addition, the shutout at Purdue marked the third straight victory against the Boilermakers. On the offensive end, Jessie Bujouves led the attack with 11 points and five goals, including two game-winners. Also netting a pair of game-winning goals was Veronica Ellis, who found the back of the net in the 49th minute to defeat Purdue. Freshman Kayla Smith, who scored the winner against Michigan State, was named Big Ten Co-Freshman of the Week for her efforts against the Spartans. Indiana's off-the-field accolades included receiving the Herbert Cup, which is given to the Indiana team with the highest GPA, after posting a 3.65 GPA in the Fall 2014 semester. Additionally, 14 Hoosiers garnered Academic All-Big Ten honors, which was tied for fourth-most amongst Big Ten schools.

In her first season in Bloomington, she guided the Hoosiers to a 15-7-1 overall record and a 6-5 mark in Big Ten play, earning appearances in the Big Ten Tournament and NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2007. The season began with a bang, as the Hoosiers opened the year 8-0-1, setting a new school record for best start to a season. The team excelled all over the field, posting school records for wins (15), goals (43), assists (46) and shutouts (9) in a single-season. Indiana also claimed its first-ever victory at Purdue and defeated DePaul at home in the First Round of the NCAA Tournament. Following the season, she signed a 5-year contract extension that goes through the 2019 season.

During her tenure at Auburn, Berbarry helped guide the Tigers to the second round of the NCAA Tournament in 2011 and 2012 while earning the program's first-ever seed in the NCAA Tournament in 2011. That came on the heels of winning the 2011 Southeastern Conference (SEC) Tournament and the Tigers made another appearance in the conference tournament title game in 2012. The Tigers claimed the SEC West Division crown in 2008 and 2011 as well. Auburn also placed at least one player on the First Team All-SEC in each of the five years that Berbarry was there.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

INDIANA: Head Coach, 2013-Present

AUBURN: Associate Head Coach, 2012

AUBURN: Assistant Coach, 2008-11

DAYTON: Assistant Coach, 2004-07

The 2011 season was a historic one for the Auburn offense under the leadership of Berbarry, as the Tigers tallied 50 goals and 61 assists, both ranking as the second-most in a single season in school history. In her five years, Auburn averaged 39 goals scored per season. She coached Katy Frierson to First Team All-SEC honors, NSCAA All-American accolades and she was a semi-finalist for the Hermann Trophy.

Berbarry came to Auburn after four years as an assistant coach at the University of Dayton, where the Flyers had a .691 winning percentage during her time. She coached a pair of Atlantic-10 Offensive Players of the Year and seven first team all-conference selections. As the recruiting coordinator at Dayton, all of her recruiting classes were regionally and nationally ranked and four times the Flyers had players land on the All-Rookie Team for A-10.

Before Dayton, Berbarry was the head coach at Gainesville High School in Gainesville, Ga., where she led the team to back-to-back regional championships and a 19-0-0 regional record. She was named the Region 7AAA Coach of the Year twice and the 2004 Women's Soccer Coach of the Year by the Gainesville Times.

In June 2015, Berbarry was named the U.S. Olympic Development Program Region II head coach of the 1999 age group. She also served as a staff coach with the program from 2005-11. She was an assistant coach for Ohio South '91, '90 and '88 girls (2005-07), the head coach for Ohio South '93 Girls in 2008, a Region II Staff Coach (2008-09) and a Region III Staff Coach (2009-11).

While earning her degree in Health Promotion and Wellness Education from the University of Georgia in 2002, Berbarry was a standout on the field for the Bulldogs. She closed her career in third place on the career goals scored list as well as the career points list. She led the team in scoring three straight years and propelled UGA to the Sweet 16 in 1998 and the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament in 2001.

A native of Alpharetta, Ga., she played for the Tophat Club program and was an assistant varsity coach at Oconee High School in Watkinsville, Ga. Berbarry is also a member of the NSCAA and holds a USSF "B" License.

SERGIO GONZALEZ

ASSISTANT COACH

3RD YEAR AT INDIANA • 8 YEARS AS DIVISION I COACH

Gonzalez is entering his third season in Bloomington during the 2015 season, working primarily with the goalkeepers and defenders.

The 2014 Indiana defense allowed just 25 goals, the fewest since surrendering 22 during the 2009 campaign. The Hoosiers held opponents to just 11.3 shots per game and 20 assists. Indiana closed out the year with two consecutive shutouts – a 1-0 victory at Purdue and a 2-0 win against Michigan State. Indiana goalkeeper Sarah Stone, who started 18 games in the net for the Hoosiers, earned four shutouts on the year.

In his first season with the Hoosiers, he helped the IU defense, anchored by goalkeeper Shannon Flower, register nine shutouts to set a new Indiana single-season record. Flower played every minute of every game in goal for Indiana, picking up all 15 wins in the process to set a new IU single-season record for goalkeepers. Flower finished her career in the top 10 in school history in goals against average, shutouts, saves and victories. Opponents managed less than 11 total shots per game against a stout Indiana defense that allowed a total of two goals in non-conference play on the way to a school record 8-0-1 start to the year.

Gonzalez came to Bloomington after spending the previous two seasons as the head coach at New Jersey Institute of Technology (NJIT). The Highlanders, who have competed at the NCAA Division I level since 2007, had 20 players named to Great West Conference All-Academic team and the team received the NSCAA Team Academic Award. Also, three players were named all-conference by College Sports Madness and they set a school record for most shutouts in a season and highest RPI as well.

Prior to his time at NJIT, Gonzalez spent five seasons at the University of Dayton and helped the Flyers to Atlantic 10 Conference titles in his final two seasons. The team also advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament in 2009 and 2010 and posted an overall record of 71-21-15 during his tenure. He coached or recruited three Atlantic 10 Defensive Players of the Year, two A-10 Offensive Players of the year, one A-10 Rookie of the Year and one A-10 Midfielder of the Year. In 2009, he helped Mandi Bäck garner UD's first-ever NSCAA First Team All-American honors and in 2010 saw Colleen Williams receive NSCAA Second-Team All-American accolades.

He was also an assistant coach at Slippery Rock University from 2000-2006 and won a pair of conference titles there. The team also advanced to the Round of 16 in the NCAA Division II Tournament in 2001 and featured a NSCAA First Team All-American.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

INDIANA UNIVERSITY: Assistant Coach, 2013-Present

NJIT: Head Coach, 2011-12

DAYTON: Assistant Coach, 2007-2010

SLIPPERY ROCK UNIVERSITY: Assistant Coach, 2000-05

His coaching experience also extends to the youth level, where he was involved with the Ohio South Youth Soccer Association as the Head ODP Goalkeeper coach as well as being part of the goalkeeping staff for the U.S. Youth Soccer Region II Girls ODP Program. His coaching experience also includes being a director for former United States Women's National Team, Olympic gold medal and World Cup-winning coach Tony DiCicco's Soccer Plus Goalkeeper Camp since 2001. He is also a member of the NSCAA National Goalkeeping Academy and has his NSCAA Premier Diploma.

While earning his Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice from Salve Regina University in Rhode Island, he was a four-year starter and three-time captain and holds all season and career goalkeeping records. Gonzalez went on to pick up a Master's Degree in Student Personnel from Slippery Rock University in 2003 while serving as an assistant coach.

Gonzalez and his wife, Megan, live in Bloomington and have two children, Aiden (4) and Lilliana (born Oct. 2014).

LIMESTONE COLLEGE: Head Coach, 2003-06

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA: Volunteer Assistant Coach, 2002-03

Walton is in his third year at Indiana in 2015, serving in his new role as director of set pieces and technical development.

Prior to his new responsibilities, Walton worked primarily with the offense where Jessie Bujouves led the 2014 attack with 11 points and five goals, including two game-winners. Also netting a pair of game-winning goals was Veronica Ellis, who found the back of the net in the 49th minute to defeat Purdue. Freshman Kayla Smith, who scored the winner against Michigan State, was named Big Ten Co-Freshman of the Week for her efforts against the Spartans. Smith netted three goals and recorded three assists on the year for Indiana.

In his first season with the Hoosiers, he certainly set the bar very high, as Indiana set new program records for goals (43), assists (46) and wins (15). He mentored Lisa Nouanesengsy in her senior year, and she went on to be named First Team All-Region and Second Team All-Big Ten while finishing her career ranked sixth in program history with 24 goals.

Walton came to the IU staff from Birmingham-Southern College (BSC) in Alabama, where he was the head coach for the six seasons. During his tenure, he led the program through the transition from NCAA Division I to NCAA Division III. He posted a record of 69-38-5 at BSC, becoming the all-time leader in wins, and won at least 10 games in each season.

The 2012 season saw BSC capture the Southern Collegiate Athletic Association (SCAC) regular season co-championship.

He has coached or recruited four NSCAA All-Region players and five NSCAA Scholar All-Region players, including two that went on to be named NSCAA Scholar All-Americans.

Before his time at BSC, Walton was the head coach at Limestone College for four seasons where he turned the program around at the Division II level. After posting a total of 11 wins his first two seasons, he went 17-16-5 over his last two years and had a pair of fifth place finishes in the Carolinas-Virginia Athletic Conference.

A native of Lawrenceville, Ga., Walton also a volunteer assistant coach at the University of Georgia for three seasons (2002-03) while earning a Master's Degree in Education with a focus on Sports Administration.

His playing career at Reinhardt College (1997-2001) saw him lead the team to the NJCAA National Championship game as sophomore, with a 21-1-1 record. His senior year he was second team all-conference and was named NCCAA All-America Honorable Mention.

He earned his Bachelor's Degree from Reinhardt College in Business Administration.

HEAD COACHING RECORDS

Joe Kelley was named the first head coach in IU women's soccer history on Dec. 21, 1992 by Indiana University Director of Athletics Clarence Doninger. Kelley had previously served as an assistant coach for the men's program at Indiana under head coach Jerry Yeagley for 15 seasons and was a member of the 1975 Indiana men's soccer team. He guided the Hoosiers to a 12-6 record his first season and finished the year on a 9-game winning streak. Kelley also helped the Hoosiers to a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances in his nine seasons at the helm of the program and won the 1996 Big Ten Tournament with three straight shutouts. Part of his first recruiting class was Wendy Dillinger, who would go on to hold the career records at IU for goals (37), points (98) and assists (24). He coached five First Team All-Big Ten honorees as well as the first All-American in IUWS history - Tracy Grose (1998).

Mick Lyon was named the head coach of the women's soccer program at Indiana on June 18, 2002. He came to Indiana after serving as head coach at the University of Evansville for nine seasons following a stellar playing career with the Purple Aces. Lyon mentored five First Team All-Big Ten players and two NSCAA All-Region players during his 11 years as head coach of the Hoosiers. His best season came in 2007, when IU posted a 13-7-3 mark and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the third time in program history. The 2009 season saw the Hoosiers set a then-school record by reeling off six straight wins to open the season, including a 2-1 overtime win against No. 6 Florida at Bill Armstrong Stadium - the highest ranked opponent the Hoosiers have ever defeated. The native of England recruited Orianica Velasquez from the South American country of Columbia. She would become the first IUWS player to compete in the World Cup (2011) and the Olympics (2012). Lyon announced his retirement following the 2012 season.

Amy Berbarry was named the third head coach in IU Women's Soccer history on Feb. 8, 2013, taking over for Mick Lyon who retired following the 2012 season. Berbarry came to Indiana after serving as an assistant coach at Auburn University for five seasons, helping the Tigers to the NCAA Tournament in each of the five years. In her first season leading the Cream and Crimson, Berbarry posted a 15-7-1 record and a berth in the Big Ten and NCAA Tournaments for the first time since 2007. The team set single-season records for wins (15), goals (43), assists (46) and shutouts (9) during the 2013 season while senior Lisa Nouanesengsy was named NSCAA All-Region First Team. In her first time coaching the Hoosiers against Purdue in West Lafayette, she was able to record a 2-1 win over the Boilermakers. It was the first time that IU had ever defeated Purdue in West Lafayette in the history of the program. Last season, the Hoosiers finished with the year with a 7-11-1 mark. The defense allowed just 25 goals, the fewest
