8 NCAA TITLES • 18 NCAA COLLEGE CUP APPEARANCES

SETTING THE SCENE

- The Hoosiers will look to rebound on Wednesday night against Evansville after falling to the Rutgers Scarlet Knights this past Sunday, 4-1.
- Last Wednesday, the Hoosiers tied at in-state foe Butler, 2-2. IU took a 2-0 lead in to halftime, but the Bulldogs answered with a pair of second-half goals in front of a crowd of 4,411 at the Butler Bowl.
- On Sept. 13, the Hoosiers opened up Big Ten play on the road at Penn State, falling to the Nittany Lions, 1-0, in a hard-fought match. The loss was just the second in Big Ten openers in program history for the Hoosiers.
- The Hoosiers added two wins to their record at the Mike Bertecelli Memorial Tournament. Indiana rallied from an early deficit for a 2-1 win over UAB, then followed that with a 2-0 shutout against No. 24 South Florida.
- Three Hoosiers were named to the Mike Bertecelli Memorial All-Tournament Team. Midfielder Tanner Thompson (1 goal, 1 assist), midfielder Francesco Moore, and defender Grant Lillard (1 goal) earned All-Tournament honors.
- Indiana's other goals from the tournament included an equalizer against UAB from Matt Foldesy and a 1-0 goal against USF from Femi Hollinger-Janzen.

NEWS AND NOTES

- Femi Hollinger-Janzen was named one of 30 candidates for the Senior CLASS Award. From the list of 30 candidates, a national media committee will select ten finalists for the 2015 Senior CLASS Award in October.
- Indiana sports one of the nation's youngest rosters in 2015 with 20 underclassmen on the team. The Hoosiers are tied for the ninth-youngest team in the country and rank as the youngest squad in the Big Ten.
- Despite the youth, Indiana returns 21 players from last year's roster, including 19 letterwinners from a year ago.
- Among those returning include junior midfielder Tanner Thompson, who was a First Team NSCAA All-American last year after leading IU in goals (6) and points (15).
- Femi Hollinger-Janzen, a senior from Goshen, Ind., also returns for his final season after scoring five goals last year on his way to First Team All-Big Ten honors.
- The team features a freshman class of nine players and a pair of transfers in forward Ben Maurey (Brown) and goalkeeper Christian Lomeli (IUPUI).
- After qualifying for the NCAA Tournament last year, the Hoosiers extended their streak to 28 straight appearances in the NCAA Tournament.

SCOUTING THE PURPLE ACES

- Evansville enters Wednesday's match with Hoosiers with an overall record of 2-3-0 on the season.
- The Purple Aces haven't played since Sept. 13, when the team beat Marshall on the road, 1-0. In comparison, the Hoosiers have played three matches in the same time span.
- Evansville's other win this season came on Sept. 6 against Belmont, 2-1.
- Prior to the start of the season, Evansville was picked to finish sixth of seven teams in the Missouri Valley Conference in a poll conducted of the league's coaches.

SERIES HISTORY

- In the overall series against Evansville, the Hoosiers lead the Purple Aces, 27-4-3.
- Entering Wednesday, Indiana has won 13-straight matches and is unbeaten 17 games against the Purple Aces.
- Indiana's last loss to Evansville came on November 25, 1990, when IU fell lost to the Purple Aces, 1-0.
- Last season, the Hoosiers traveled to Evansville and came away with a 2-0 win. Grant Lillard and Femi Hollinger-Janzen each scored first-half goals for IU in the victory.

FEMI ON FIRE

- Femi Hollinger-Janzen has come alive for the Hoosiers, scoring goals in each of the team's last two matches and in three-of-the-last four for IU.
- Hollinger-Janzen scored his first goal of the season against USF on Sept. 6 and netted a score versus both Butler (Sept. 16) and Rutgers (Sept. 20).
- Hollinger-Janzen leads the team with three goals and six points on the season. The senior is also tied for second in goals in the Big Ten.

BUCKMASTER VS. BUTLER

- Freshman Rece Buckmaster made the most of his first collegiate start at Butler on Sept. 16, scoring his first career goal.
- Scoring goals is not new to Buckmaster, who helped lead Canterbury to a pair of state titles. The Auburn, Ind., native had a goal and an assist in the 2012 IHSAA state title game.

BIG TEN DOMINATION

- The Hoosiers are 94-25-13 in regular season matches, 26 more victories than the next closest team (Penn State)
- IU has won 12 Big Ten tournament titles, sharing the 1995 crown with Wisconsin.
- Indiana has also been crowned regular season champion 14 times, including nine-straight seasons from 1996-2004. IU won back-to-back regular season titles in 2006 and 2007 and re-claimed the regular season crown in 2010.

- Todd Yeagley was named Indiana head men's soccer coach on December 18, 2009 and is entering his sixth year as the Hoosiers' leader.
- In just his third season as head coach, Yeagley led Indiana to the 2012 NCAA title, the eighth championship in IU history. The Hoosiers became the first No. 16 seed to win the championship, compiling victories over Xavier, at No. 1 Notre Dame, at No. 9 North Carolina, No. 12 Creighton and No. 3 Georgetown during their tournament run.
- Yeagley was named 2012 Soccer America Coach of the Year as he and his father Jerry become the only father-son duo to have won Division I men's soccer championships.
- Yeagley led the Hoosiers to the Big Ten Tournament title game in 2014 as Indiana posted a 12-5-5 record. The Hoosiers went on to make their 28th-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance.
- Sophomore Tanner Thompson was named an NSCAA All-American and was a semifinalist for the MAC Hermann Trophy, while Grant Lillard took home Big Ten Freshman of the Year honors, the third such honoree in Yeagley's tenure. Thompson and Femi Hollinger-Janzen were first-team All-Big Ten selections, while Lillard was named to the second team.
- Senior defender Patrick Doody was a homegrown signee with the Chicago Fire after the conclusion of the 2014 season.
- Yeagley led Indiana to the 2013 Big Ten Tournament title, the school's first Tournament crown since 2006. That title assured IU of its 27th-straight NCAA Tournament appearance.
- IU had the Big Ten Freshman of the Year (Tommy Thompson), while Thompson, A.J. Corrado, Nikita Kotlov and Jacob Bushue were second-team All-Big Ten honorees.
- Corrado (third round-San Jose Earthquakes) and Kotlov (fourth round-Portland Timbers) were selected in the 2014 Major League Soccer draft, while Tommy Thompson became Indiana's first player to sign an MLS Homegrown Contract, going to the Earthquakes.
- In 2012 seven Hoosiers earned All-Big Ten honors, led by Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year Eriq Zavaleta. A.J. Corrado joined Zavaleta on the All-Big Ten first team, while Nikita Kotlov, Jacob Bushue and Caleb Konstanski were second-team honorees. Femi Hollinger-Janzen and Richard Ballard were named to the all-freshman squad.
- Following the 2012 season the Hoosiers had a trio of Major League Soccer Draft picks. Zavaleta was selected 10th overall by the Seattle Sounders, while goalkeeper Luis Soffner was the 36th overall selection of the New England Revolution. Konstanski was taken by the Chicago Fire in the MLS Supplemental Draft.
- Since returning to his alma mater, Yeagley has produced 10 Major League Soccer Draft picks, IU's first MLS Homegrown signee, 24 All-Big Ten honorees (12 first-team selections) and three Big Ten Player of the Year selections.
- Under Yeagley's direction the Hoosiers have had 45 Academic All-Big Ten honorees (8-2010; 10-2011; 12-2012; 13-2013; 12-2014). The Hoosiers have also had a CoSIDA Academic All-District selection in four of his five seasons (2010-Tyler McCarroll; 2011-Harrison Petts; 2012-A.J. Corrado; 2013 A.J. Corrado), as well as a third-team Academic All-America selection in A.J. Corrado (2013). The Hoosiers have been honored with an APR Public Recognition Award four times (2011, 2013, 2014, 2015), and earned a perfect APR score for the 2012-13 season.
- In 2011 the Hoosiers made their fourth-straight trip to the round of 16 in the NCAA Tournament, falling to eventual national champion UNC by a 1-0 score in overtime. IU posted a 13-4-5 overall record, outscoring opponents 39-19.
- Under Yeagley's direction in 2011 Indiana produced the Big Ten Freshman of the Year (Eriq Zavaleta) and five first-team All-Big Ten honorees (Zavaleta, Tommy Meyer, Chris Estridge, Nikita Kotlov, Alec Purdie). Meyer (LA Galaxy) and Estridge (Vancouver Whitecaps) were selected in the 2012 MLS SuperDraft, while Purdie was taken by the New England Revolution in the MLS Supplemental draft.

- Yeagley's first year in 2010 was a memorable one as he led Indiana to its first Big Ten regular season title since 2007, as well as its third-consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament round of 16.

- In Yeagley's first season the Hoosiers saw marked improvement in their offensive production, with forward Will Bruin ranking among the nation's leaders in goals scored with 18. Bruin was named the Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year and was runner-up for the M.A.C. Hermann Trophy, as well as a first-team All-American. Yeagley also took home his first Big Ten Coach of the Year award.

- Following his inaugural season at the helm, three Hoosier players signed contracts with Major League Soccer. Bruin was the 11th overall pick of the Houston Dynamo, while defender Rich Balchan was taken 12th overall by the Columbus Crew. Midfielder Andy Adlard also signed a contract with the Crew.

- Yeagley returned to his Hoosier roots after one season as head coach at Wisconsin. At Wisconsin, Yeagley took the helm of a program that had won just one game in conference play the previous year.

- In Yeagley's year in Madison, the Badgers showed demonstrable improvement as the season rolled along. Wisconsin knocked off three conference opponents with wins over eventual NCAA Tournament teams in Northwestern, Ohio State and Michigan State. It also played NCAA participant UC Santa Barbara to a 1-1 tie at a neutral site. The Badgers tied Indiana for fourth place in the conference at 3-3 after finishing in last place (1-4-1) the year prior to Yeagley's arrival.

- Considered one of collegiate soccer's rising stars in the coaching ranks, College Soccer News rated Yeagley as one of the top-12 assistant coaches in the country in 2008.

- Yeagley's coaching career began at Indiana in 2003 as a volunteer assistant before taking over a full-time assistant position in 2004.

- As a player, Yeagley was a four-time All-American at Indiana (1991-94) and in 1994 was named the Missouri Athletic Club National Player of the Year. During his stint as a student-athlete in Bloomington, Yeagley was a two-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree. He led the Hoosiers to three Big Ten titles (1991, 1992, 1994) and a 79-9-5 overall record.

- He remains third on IU's career assists list with 40, and shares the Big Ten single-season assists record with the 14 he recorded in 1993.

- After his playing days at Indiana, Yeagley also enjoyed a successful seven-year professional career in Major League Soccer with the Columbus Crew. Columbus advanced to the MLS Playoffs in five of Yeagley's seven seasons with the team and won the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup in 2002.

- In 2002, Yeagley served as the Assistant General Manager for Columbus before returning to the Hoosiers.

- Yeagley is a member of the Indiana Soccer Hall of Fame and in 2013 was inducted into the Monroe County Hall of Fame and the IU Athletics Hall of Fame.

- Brian Maisonneuve joined the Indiana coaching staff in January 2010 and is in his sixth season with the Hoosiers and his third year as associate head coach. Maisonneuve returned to Bloomington after a two-year stint as assistant coach at Louisville.

- During his two seasons the Cardinals were 24-11-4 overall and 13-7-1 in Big East play with two NCAA Tournament appearances. Prior to Louisville, Maisonneuve spent four years as an assistant coach with the U.S. U-17 National Team in Florida. He also served as an assistant coach for the U.S. U-20 National Team in 2007 during the CONCACAF qualification process and coached the U-20s in the 2007 FIFA World Cup in Canada. Before joining the coaching ranks, Maisonneuve spent nine seasons with the Columbus Crew of Major League Soccer and was a member of the United States' 1998 World Cup team, appearing in all three matches. He was also a member of the 1996 U.S. Olympic team, leading the squad with a pair of goals in the tournament.

- "This is home for me," Maisonneuve said. "Being here for my college career meant a lot and the relationships I have built with Coach (Jerry) Yeagley, with Todd and Ernie and the support staff, it really became home for me. To have the opportunity to come home and coach meant a tremendous amount to me. This is arguably the best program in the country, and being part of the IU family again with the facilities, the players, to help continue to build the program is something special and it meant a lot to me and my family to return to Bloomington."

- Maisonneuve donned a Hoosier uniform from 1991-94, playing alongside Yeagley. He earned All-America honors as a junior and senior and was named the Hermann Trophy winner in 1994. A two-time Big Ten Player of the Year, Maisonneuve finished his career with 44 goals and 22 assists, and led Indiana to a pair of NCAA College Cup appearances and back-to-back Big Ten regular season titles. During his four years at Indiana the Hoosiers were 73-15-7.

- "Brian is one of the finest players to have every played at IU and we are fortunate to bring his distinguished playing and coaching experience back to Indiana University," Yeagley said. "Brian's international playing and coaching experience along with his exceptional character will help our student athletes tremendously as we strive to build champions on and off the field."

- Maisonneuve was inducted into the IU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2013.

- Maisonneuve and his wife Diania live in Bloomington with their children Jacob and Emma.

- Kevin Robson is in his second season as an assistant coach with the Hoosiers after one season as a volunteer assistant coach.
- Robson returned to Bloomington in July 2013 after stints as both a player (2003-06) and student coach (2007). Robson was a member of the Hoosiers' 2003 and 2004 NCAA title teams and won Big Ten titles in 2003, 2004 and 2006. Robson led the Hoosiers in assists with six in 2006 and finished second in that category on the 2004 title team.
- In his four-year career Robson tallied seven goals and 16 assists. Part of the strong Indiana-St. Louis soccer pipeline, Robson won the 2006 U-23 national title with Scott Gallagher Soccer Club and led Chaminade College Prep to back-to-back state titles in 2001 and 2002.
- While working in the private sector in Denver, Robson spent 2009-10 as head coach of Real Colorado U-18 Boys. In 2011, he was assistant coach for the real Colorado Foxes PDL team, and from 2011-13 was head coach of Real Colorado U-14 Boys.
- Kevin and his wife Shannon live in Bloomington.

BRAD SWENBY
VOLUNTEER COACH
SECOND SEASON

Brad Swenby joined the Indiana staff in August 2014.

Swenby came to IU from Lewis University where he was an assistant coach with the men's and women's programs. On the men's side he tutored goalkeeper Alec Pickett to All-America honors in 2013, as well as Great Lakes Valley Conference

Defensive Player of the Year and the top shutout percentage in Division II.

From 2010-12, Swenby served as an assistant coach at the University of Wisconsin under the direction of head coach and former Hoosier John Trask. At Wisconsin Swenby was charged with scouting reports and video analysis of opponents, as well as recruiting coordination, practice preparation and administrative duties, and UW camp setup.

A 2004 graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee with a degree in Journalism and Mass Communications, Swenby served as women's goalkeeper coach at his alma mater in 2005, where under his watch, freshman Erin Kane broke school and league records for GAA and shutouts and earned All-American honors second-team All-Horizon League accolades.

In 2009 he was named men's assistant coach for the Panthers where he continued to build and maintain relationships with area/regional soccer clubs and the University community.

Swenby also spent three years coaching soccer in Arizona. He served as the assistant coach at Corona del Sol High School and as the goalkeeper coach for Arizona FC. Other teams that Swenby has coached include Sereno SC, Tempe Pros and the Arizona Olympic Development Program.

Swenby competed at Wisconsin-Milwaukee from 2000-02. With the Panthers, Swenby went 15-8-1 in 27 games, making 25 starts. He spent time in the professional ranks with the Minnesota Thunder (2003), Milwaukee Wave (2006) and Arizona Sahuaros (2007-10).

Swenby holds a National "B" License from the United State Soccer Federation and has earned an NSCAA Goalkeeper Diploma, Level 2.
