IU-PENN STATE SERIES

The Hoosiers and Nittany Lions meet for the 15th time since 1970 on Sunday. Indiana seeks their first win in the series, which Penn State leads with a 13-0-1 all-time record.

BIG TEN, BIGGER BOUTS

The ten Hoosier grapplers taking the mat on Sunday will have a formidable test awaiting them. Nine of Penn State's ten starters are nationally ranked, including three of the top-ranked wrestlers in the nation (149 - #1 Zain Retherford; 174 - #1 Bo Nickal; 197 - #1 Morgan McIntosh). The dual will also feature a compelling bout at 174 lbs. between IU's #11 Nate Jackson and Penn State's #1 Bo Nickal.

TOP OF THE CLASS

Indiana redshirt junior Nate Jackson rose to the #11 national ranking (InterMat) in the 174 lbs weight class after a second-place finish at the Reno Tournament of Champions and a championship at the LHU Classic. Jackson has a 21-2 record this season with two tournament championships and wins over two ranked opponents.

UNDERCLASSMEN IMPACT

This season's underclassmen are already making noise in the early stages of their IU careers. Indiana's freshmen have achieved 17 podium finishes and four championships in tournament play. True freshman Elijah Oliver (125) is off to a flying start with a 21-4 record and two tournament championships.

The four freshman currently in IU's dual lineup have won a combined 71% of their bouts with 11 major decisions, six technical falls, and six pins.

LOCKED UP AT LOCK HAVEN

Indiana completed their regular season tournament slate with the LHU Classic (12/29). Six Hoosiers earned podium finishes, which included four tournament champions: Elijah Oliver (125), Jake Danishek (157), Bryce Martin (165) and Nate Jackson (174). Indiana took second place in the team score, finishing just behind #25 Pittsburgh.

BIG START IN THE BIG TEN

Indiana opened their Big Ten schedule with an upset win over the Minnesota Golden Gophers (12/11) on the road. The Hoosiers took the lead in the dual in the seventh bout of the night at 133 lbs, when IU's Alonzo Shepherd stunned the crowd with a pin in the second period. Luke Blanton followed in the 149 lbs. bout with a 17-10 upset win over No. 10 Jake Short. Blanton's win tied the match at 18-18, but Indiana emerged victorious in the tiebreaker.

The win, combined with their dual win over top-30 opponent Eastern Michigan, vaulted the Hoosiers into the national rankings for the first time this season.

SOCIALLY ACCEPTABLE

Hoosier wrestling is active in the social media world. Up-to-the-minute news, team notes, live match results and much more can be found by following @IUWrestling1 on Twitter. In addition, 'like' the team's official Facebook page by searching "Indiana University Wrestling" and check for news on IUHoosiers.com.

Four-time IU All-American, NCAA National Champion, and Pan-American gold medalist Angel Escobedo's pursuit for Olympic Gold in Rio (2016) can be tracked on the Twitterverse as well, follow @driven2dominate.

BTN PLUS

The Hoosier wrestlers will appear eight times on BTN Plus (formerly Big Ten Digital Network) for the 2015-16 season, which will also Sunday's dual against Penn State. Indiana's dual at Michigan State on January 22 will air live on the Big Ten Network.

BTN Plus programming includes non-televvised games and events available on BTN2Go with a purchase of a BTN Plus subscription. BTN Plus content features live games produced by students at Big Ten universities. A subscription to BTN Plus on BTN2Go does not require a Big Ten Network TV subscription with a TV provider (from BTN website).

You can subscribe for a school pass for $9.95/month ($79.95/year) or for all of BTN Plus content for $14.95/month ($119.95/year) (Note: All options automatically renew).
