WEEKEND SNAPSHOT

The Hoosiers emerged from a tough opening weekend with a 1-1 record, falling at home versus No. 12 Louisville before triumphing in a 3-2 overtime win at Ohio. The highlights included Sam Scire's first career goal in her first regular season appearance and a game-winning hat trick from senior midfielder Kate Barber, but Indiana is ready to move on to this weekend's Buckeye Invitational at Ohio State University. Awaiting Indiana in Columbus is No. 7 Wake Forest, marking coach Amanda Janney's first game against her alma mater since joining the Hoosiers in 2015. IU closes the invitational weekend on Monday when they face the UC Davis Aggies at Buckeye Varsity Field.

HOOSIER NOTABLES

BIG WEEKEND IN THE BUCKEYE STATE

After splitting results on the first weekend of the season, the Indiana Hoosiers are anxious to see who will step up and rise to the challenge at this weekend's Buckeye Invitational. Indiana will begin with No. 7 Wake Forest, who will provide an adequate litmus test after opening their season versus three Big Ten contenders. Following that, the Hoosiers will meet with their only west coast opponent of the 2016 season, the UC Davis Aggies.

OPENING OBSERVATIONS

The 2016 field hockey season kicked off across the country last weekend, and Indiana was no exception. They began with a 5-1 loss at home versus No. 12 Louisville, with Sam Scire sending home the 1-1 tying goal early in the first half.

That Sunday, senior Kate Barber lifted IU to a 3-2 overtime win at Ohio. Trailing 2-0 after 20 minutes, Barber halved the deficit with a penalty corner straight shot before halftime. Barber's tying straight shot with 30 seconds remaining forced overtime, and Barber landed a solo strike within the first 30 seconds for the sudden victory.

EARLY EXAMINATION

Indiana will meet their second top-15 team in as many weeks when they line up against No. 7 Wake Forest on Sunday afternoon. The Hoosiers seek their first program win against the Demon Deacons, who have taken the previous seven meetings. Wake Forest is off to a 1-1 start this year, dropping their home opener against Iowa before collecting a shutout win over No. 10 Michigan.

The game versus Wake Forest will be their second of four out-of-conference contests against the ACC.

ANTICIPATING THE AGGIES

The Hoosiers will have less than 24 hours to turn around from their game against Wake Forest when they take on the UC Davis Aggies on Labor Day. Indiana has won all three previous meetings versus UC Davis, most recently with a 5-1 victory at home in 2014. The Aggies began their season with a home loss against Northeastern. They'll face a common opponent, the Ohio Bobcats, before playing the Hoosiers on Monday.

OF NOTE...

- Kate Barber, Morgan Dye, and Noëlle Rother were named to the 2016 Big Ten Players to Watch List.
- Junior Maddie Latino was Indiana's top scorer last year, and she'll aim to build off of that success in the 2016 season. Latino leads the Hoosiers' assist tally after two games, notching two at Ohio.
- A pair of Hoosiers, senior Malia Fujisawa and freshman Andi Jackson, face a visit from their hometown university on Monday versus UC Davis. The two hail from Davis, California, and attended Davis Senior High School before arriving at Indiana.
- 2015 All-American Kate Barber returns to Indiana as a key playmaker in her senior season. Barber answered the bell with her first career hat trick in IU's win over Ohio, which included two penalty corner scores.
- This weekend's invitational is Morgan Dye's final opportunity to play collegiate field hockey in front of her hometown crowd. The senior from nearby Powell, Ohio will receive a warm welcome from friends and family during IU's games at Ohio State.

HEAD COACH AMANDA JANNEY

SECOND YEAR AT INDIANA

In 2015, Janney's first season with Indiana, the Hoosiers improved by four wins in the Big Ten conference, setting a new school record with five wins against Big Ten teams. Indiana improved from an eighth-place finish in 2014 to take the third seed in the 2015 Big Ten Tournament. Three Hoosiers—Kate Barber (First Team-unanimous), Sydney Supica (Second Team), and Noëlle Rother (Second Team)—earned All-Big Ten and All-NFHCA All-West Region accolades. In addition Barber received All-American honors from the NFHCA and Synapse Sports, the first All-American Hoosier since Audra Heilman (2013).

Season highlights in 2015 include the Hoosiers' weekend sweep against Iowa and Northwestern, both ranked in the national top-20; a 3-0 road win at Ohio State, the Hoosiers' first shutout over the Buckeyes in program history; a home 1-0 win over Penn State, won on a last-second penalty corner goal before halftime; a 1-0 overtime loss at Maryland, where Indiana held the sixth-ranked Terrapins scoreless for 77 minutes; and a 2-0 win against Rutgers on Senior Day to clinch the program record for single-season Big Ten wins.

Indiana University Vice President and Director of Athletics Fred Glass announced the hiring of Temple University Head Coach Amanda Janney as the new head coach of the Indiana field hockey program on Monday, Feb. 9, 2015. Janney's experience includes a pattern of great success as both a player at Wake Forest and on the U.S. Indoor National Team, and as a head and assistant coach.

Joining the Hoosiers after 10 years as the head coach at Temple, Janney has compiled a 114-94 record with 10 straight postseason appearances. Last season, Janney led the Owls to a No. 11 NCAA RPI ranking and a finish of No. 14 in the NFHCA Coaches Poll.

At Temple, Janney took over a team that had not turned in a winning record since 1992 and transformed it into a consistently successful program. In those 10 seasons, Janney coached five Atlantic 10 Players of the Year, 23 All-Conference selections, three All-Americans, three Temple Student-Athletes of the Year and 16 Regional All-Americans.

"We are thrilled to have Amanda Janney as the new leader of Indiana field hockey," Glass said. "On the field, in the classroom, and in the community, Amanda's track record as the head coach at Temple is extraordinary. Known as an elite recruiter and talent developer, we believe we have hired one of the great field hockey coaches in the country."

Janney was selected as head coach after a comprehensive national search led by Glass who worked in consultation with the Search Advisory Committee, consisting of key administrators, support staff, along with redshirt junior forward Nicole Volgraf and sophomore defender Malia Fujisawa, who served as the student-athlete representatives to the committee. Glass and the committee reviewed dozens of potential candidates, performed extensive research and reference checks on a handful or so, and had four candidates, including Amanda, on campus to interview with Glass and the committee. After a thorough review, Glass made the decision to hire Janney as head coach.

Janney is excited about opportunity to coach at Indiana and in one of the nation's elite conferences.

"I want to thank Fred Glass and the administration for this amazing opportunity," said Janney. "I am already so impressed with the team leaders, the IU field hockey alumni, and the Spirit of Indiana. I am ready to lead IU field hockey and compete in the Big Ten, one of the best conferences in the country."
