ANGELA BUZMINSKISECOND TEAM (1993)

Year	Rd	Strokes Avg	Low
1989-90	30	2,370 79.00	73
1990-91	31	2,409 77.71	71
1991-92	31	2,412 77.81	70
1992-93	36	2,729 75.81	70
Career	128	9,920 77.50	70

Angela Buzminski became just the second Hoosier in school history to earn second team All-America honors (1993). She led Indiana to its second-highest national team finish (T-8th) at the NCAA Championship that same year. The Oshawa, Ontario, Canada, native finished tied for runner-up medalist honors with a 289 at NAAs, which still remains the best individual performance by a Hoosier. For her efforts, Buzminski was a 1993 Honda Award nominee. Over her career at Indiana, Buzminski finished with a 77.50 career stroke average, was a three-time All-Big Ten honoree and an Academic All-Big Ten selection, as well. Buzminski is a former member of the LPGA tour.

ERIN CARNEYFIRST TEAM (1999)

Year	Rd	Strokes Avg	Low
1995-96	29	2,311 79.96	76
1996-97	29	2,285 78.79	73

1998-99	31	2,332 75.23	71
Career	129	9,917 76.88	71

Erin Carney earned national recognition in 1998, joining former Hoosier standouts Karen Dennison and Erika Wicoff as Indiana's only first-team All-Americans. Carney was the Big Ten medalist and Big Ten Player of the Year in 1998 and 1999, and led the 1998 team to its seventh and most recent league championship. She finished 20th at the 1998 NCAA tournament, while helping her team to 13th place. Carney was a three-time All-Big Ten and Academic All-Big Ten selection over her career. Her 74.73 average as a junior and 75.23 average as a senior are the third and fourth best on IU's all-time list. She was also named Indiana University's Female Athlete of the Year in both 1998 and 1999, becoming just the third two-time winner.

SARAH DeKRAAYHONORABLE MENTION (1985-87)

Year	Rd	Strokes Avg	Low
1983-84	27	2,188 81.04	74
1984-85	34	2,653 78.03	74

1986-87	36	2,731 75.86	68
Career	138	10,716 76.65	68

Sarah DeKraay was a three-time All-America Honorable Mention and All-Big Ten selection in 1985, 1986 and 1987. She was Indiana's first Big Ten individual champion in 1986, leading the Hoosiers to their first Big Ten Championship team title. DeKraay became the team's top finisher at the 1985 NCAA Championships, placing 18th with a 312. The following year, she set the then-Indiana school record for the lowest one-round score with a 68 at the Lady Northern Intercollegiate. DeKraay's school record stood for 11 years, until Jennifer Gray carded a 67 in 1997.

KAREN DENNISONFIRST TEAM (2003)

Year	Rd	Strokes	Avg	Low
2000-01	20	1,570	78.50	70
2001-02	34	2,609	76.74	71

2003-04	34	2,563	75.38	69
Career	120	9,108	75.90	68

Karen Dennison was the lone representative of the Big Ten to earn first-team All-America honors by the National Golf Coaches Association in 2003. Dennison was the third Hoosier All-American to earn first-team honors in the history of the program. She captured a share of the 2003 Big Ten Championship individual title, as well as winning three medalist honors throughout the year. In 2003, she recorded 10 top-10 finishes in 11 events. Her lone finish outside the top-10 was a 20th-place tie at the NCAA Central Regional. She also earned IU's 2004 Anita Aldrich Leadership Award.

Debbie Lee was named to the National Golf Coaches Association All-America team in 1989 and the Wilson Women's Golf All-America team in 1990, both as an honorable mention selection. During 1990, Lee helped lead the Hoosiers to a Big Ten Championship, while also being named Big Ten Player of the Year. A two-time All-Big Ten and three-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree, the Dundas, Ontario, Canada, native was named the Canadian Amateur Female Golfer of the Year in 1990. Lee competed in two NCAA tournaments with her best finish being a 19th-place tie in 1989. In 1987, she tied the then-school record for the best one-round score with a 68 at the Lady Boilermaker Invitational.

A successful member of the LPGA Tour, Michele Redman also found success during her career at Indiana. A four-time All-Big Ten selection, Redman earned a spot on the All-America second team in 1987, and was an All-America Honorable Mention pick in 1986. In 1987, Redman was the Big Ten Championship medalist, while helping IU to its second consecutive Big Ten title. A year earlier, coming off the 1986 Big Ten Championship, Redman and the Hoosiers competed at the NCAA Championships, where she tied for 29th place after carding a 303 total over four rounds.

Year in 1996.

Erika Wicoff became the first player in Big Ten history to win three conference individual titles (1994-96). She led the Hoosiers to Big Ten titles in 1995 and 1996, and a fifth-place NCAA finish in 1995, IU's highest ever. Wicoff's fourth-place 288 at the 1995 NCAA meet was the best 72-hole score in school history. In 1995, she became the first IU female golfer to be named first-team All-America, and then repeated in 1996. A participant in the 21st annual United States-Japan Collegiate Golf Championships, Wicoff became first golfer to be named IU's Female Athlete of the

FORMER COACHES

MARGARET CUMMINS (1967-79)

Margaret Cummins served as the women's golf coach from the fall of 1967 to the conclusion of the 1979 season. Although many of her 12 seasons at Indiana were deemed extramural instead of varsity status, Cummins was the force behind championship golf teams at Indiana.

Under her leadership, the Hoosiers captured regional honors and national recognition, while competing annually for the AIAW national championship. A top competitor and teacher, Cummins was also an area consultant for the National Golf Foundation and served on many regional and national golf committees.

Along with coaching the women's squad, Cummins also worked in the Health, Physical Education and Recreation department, where she counseled incoming students and taught psychology of sport.

Cummins graduated from the University of Arizona in 1963 and then earned her master's at Smith College in 1968.

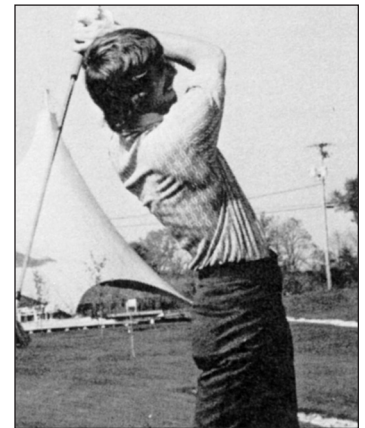

BRUCE COHEN (1979-81)

Bruce Cohen became Indiana University's second women's golf coach in the fall of 1979 and remained until the end of the 1981 season. Although Cohen was new to the coaching scene, he had been around Indiana University for some time.

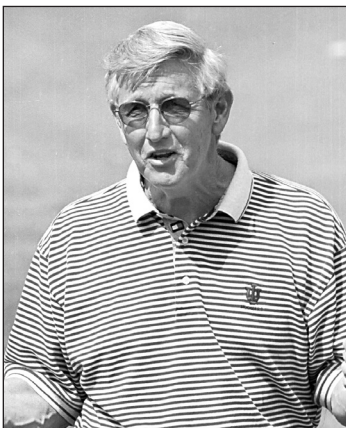

Cohen attended Ball State University for two years and was a varsity baseball team member. In 1970, he transferred to Indiana University, where he eventually became a golf professional under men's coach Bob Fitch. Seven years of professional experience, including three under Fitch, earned Cohen well-deserved respect from his peers.

A native of South Bend, Ind., Cohen also served as the Midwest AIAW Sports Committee golf representative. He directed such events as the Indiana State Open Championship and the LPGA Bicentennial Classic.

When not coaching or competing himself, Cohen spent much of his time giving lessons as a Class A assistant professional at the IU Golf Course.

SAM CARMICHAEL (1981-2004)

Sam Carmichael, eight-time Big Ten Women's Coach of the Year, finished his 23rd and final season as Indiana's women's golf coach in 2004. Before Carmichael directed his attention solely to the women's golf program in 1998, he spent nine years as IU's men's golf coach. During his time as the men's coach, Carmichael won Coach of the Year honors twice (1991 and 1998) and the 1991 and 1998 Big Ten titles.

In the fall of 1981, Carmichael assumed the position of head coach for the IU women's team, and led the women to seven Big Ten Championships: 1986, 1987, 1990, 1992, 1995, 1996 and 1998.

From 1981-2004, Carmichael's IU women's teams earned automatic berths to the NCAA Tournament eight times. The Hoosiers finished 11th in 1985, 12th in 1986, 13th in 1987, 11th in 1990, 13th in 1992, eighth in 1993, 17th in 1994, fifth in 1995 and 13th in 1998.

The honors for Carmichael's golfers did not stop on the course. A Big Ten-record 101 Academic All-Big Ten honors were awarded to IU golfers since 1985.

In addition to Carmichael's eight Big Ten Women's Coach of the Year awards, he also received NCAA Regional Coach of the Year honors four times.

His achievements culminated in his being named Indiana's PGA Player of the Year Award in 1973, and he was inducted into the Indiana Golf Hall of Fame that same year. In November of 2015, Carmichael was inducted into the the Indiana University Athletics Hall of Fame.
