WEEKEND SNAPSHOT

The Hoosiers, having weathered the test of their Big Ten opener at Maryland and their first true road game against a top-20 team at Delaware, will aim for a return to the win column this weekend. The Hoosiers' Big Ten home opener against Rutgers will be their only regular season game airing live for a national audience on the Big Ten Network. Sunday's trip to Mount Pleasant will be the first meeting between the Hoosiers and Chippewas since the 2012 season. The weekend slate versus Rutgers (9/23) and at Central Michigan (9/25) begins a three-weekend series where the Hoosiers open on Friday against the Big Ten and close their Sunday with an out-of-conference matchup.

HOOSIER NOTABLES

EAST COAST EXAMINATION

Indiana returns to Bloomington after a weekend on the east coast against formidable competition, playing two top-15 teams in a 24-hour span. The Hoosiers began with their Big Ten opener, No. 7 Maryland, who scored two late goals to put away an otherwise close battle in College Park. The next day, No. 12 Delaware hosted the Hoosiers in a high-scoring affair, with the Blue Hens winning 5-4. Delaware held a 4-0 lead at halftime before holding off a valiant comeback bid from Indiana.

TOP OF THE CHARTS

Indiana senior Kate Barber is off to a flying start after four weeks of the field hockey season. Through eight games, Barber is the nation's scoring leader with 12 goals, and ranks first in goals per game (1.50). Furthermore, Barber ranks second in the NCAA and the Big Ten in points per game (3.38), trailing only Michigan State's Kendal Anderson (3.57).

Two additional Hoosiers, Mollie Getzfread and Maddie Latino, rank in the top ten of the national assists averages. The pair are tied for sixth, having both served seven assists (0.88/game).

SCOUTING THE SCARLET KNIGHTS

For the second season in a row, Indiana will host the Rutgers Scarlet Knights for a BTN showdown at the IU Field Hockey Complex. The Scarlet Knights lead the overall series, 4-1, but the series is tied 1-1 since Rutgers joined the Big Ten in 2014. The Hoosiers earned a 2-0 shutout win in last year's senior day game, with goals from Kate Barber and 2015 senior Sydney Supica.

Rutgers brings the NCAA's second-ranked scoring offense (4.71 goals/game) to Bloomington this weekend, led by freshman Nikki Santore (6 goals, 4 assists). Friday's game at Indiana is their first Big Ten game of the 2016 season.

FIRE UP FOR THE CHIPS

The Hoosiers make their second foray into a Mid-American Conference road environment this Sunday, when they head to Mount Pleasant to face the Central Michigan Chippewas. The series lead goes to Indiana, 6-1, with the Hoosiers taking the last six matchups. The meeting is the first between the teams in four seasons.

The Chippewas are 1-6 on the year, their lone win coming in a 2-1 overtime game versus Quinnipiac. They will host Miami (Ohio) for their conference opener on Friday before playing Indiana.

HOOSIER REUNION

Awaiting the Hoosiers in their Sunday game at Central Michigan is 2015 Indiana graduate Sydney Supica, who recently joined the Chippewas' coaching staff as a graduate assistant. Supica was a two-time All-Big Ten and NFCA All-West Region honoree. In the backfield for Indiana, Supica set the top three single-season defensive save totals and IU's career defensive save record (23).

WORTH NOTING...

- Goalkeeper Noëlle Rother ranks second in the Big Ten in saves per game (4.75) and fifth in save percentage (.667).
- Kate Barber is five goals away from matching Indiana's single-season goal record (17), set by Lydia Schrott in 2005.
- Indiana's game on Friday is "Club Team Day" at the IU Field Hockey complex, inviting all of Indiana's club athletic teams to join the Crimson Guard in creating a raucous gameday atmosphere on BTN.

HEAD COACH AMANDA JANNEY

SECOND YEAR AT INDIANA

In 2015, Janney's first season with Indiana, the Hoosiers improved by four wins in the Big Ten conference, setting a new school record with five wins against Big Ten teams. Indiana improved from an eighth-place finish in 2014 to take the third seed in the 2015 Big Ten Tournament. Three Hoosiers—Kate Barber (First Team-unanimous), Sydney Supica (Second Team), and Noëlle Rother (Second Team)—earned All-Big Ten and All-NFHCA All-West Region accolades. In addition Barber received All-American honors from the NFHCA and Synapse Sports, the first All-American Hoosier since Audra Heilman (2013).

Season highlights in 2015 include the Hoosiers' weekend sweep against Iowa and Northwestern, both ranked in the national top-20; a 3-0 road win at Ohio State, the Hoosiers' first shutout over the Buckeyes in program history; a home 1-0 win over Penn State, won on a last-second penalty corner goal before halftime; a 1-0 overtime loss at Maryland, where Indiana held the sixth-ranked Terrapins scoreless for 77 minutes; and a 2-0 win against Rutgers on Senior Day to clinch the program record for single-season Big Ten wins.

Indiana University Vice President and Director of Athletics Fred Glass announced the hiring of Temple University Head Coach Amanda Janney as the new head coach of the Indiana field hockey program on Monday, Feb. 9, 2015. Janney's experience includes a pattern of great success as both a player at Wake Forest and on the U.S. Indoor National Team, and as a head and assistant coach.

Joining the Hoosiers after 10 years as the head coach at Temple, Janney has compiled a 114-94 record with 10 straight postseason appearances. Last season, Janney led the Owls to a No. 11 NCAA RPI ranking and a finish of No. 14 in the NFHCA Coaches Poll.

At Temple, Janney took over a team that had not turned in a winning record since 1992 and transformed it into a consistently successful program. In those 10 seasons, Janney coached five Atlantic 10 Players of the Year, 23 All-Conference selections, three All-Americans, three Temple Student-Athletes of the Year and 16 Regional All-Americans.

"We are thrilled to have Amanda Janney as the new leader of Indiana field hockey," Glass said. "On the field, in the classroom, and in the community, Amanda's track record as the head coach at Temple is extraordinary. Known as an elite recruiter and talent developer, we believe we have hired one of the great field hockey coaches in the country."

Janney was selected as head coach after a comprehensive national search led by Glass who worked in consultation with the Search Advisory Committee, consisting of key administrators, support staff, along with redshirt junior forward Nicole Volgraf and sophomore defender Malia Fujisawa, who served as the student-athlete representatives to the committee. Glass and the committee reviewed dozens of potential candidates, performed extensive research and reference checks on a handful or so, and had four candidates, including Amanda, on campus to interview with Glass and the committee. After a thorough review, Glass made the decision to hire Janney as head coach.

Janney is excited about opportunity to coach at Indiana and in one of the nation's elite conferences.

"I want to thank Fred Glass and the administration for this amazing opportunity," said Janney. "I am already so impressed with the team leaders, the IU field hockey alumni, and the Spirit of Indiana. I am ready to lead IU field hockey and compete in the Big Ten, one of the best conferences in the country."
