WEEKEND SNAPSHOT

Indiana field hockey fans and players have noticed tangible improvement to the Hoosiers' gameplay through their first four games. After yielding seven scores in their first two games, the Hoosiers buckled down to play one goal short of No. 7 Wake Forest, followed by a shutout over UC Davis. On the other end, the Indiana offense is running through Kate Barber (5 goals) and their creative diversity has five players with at least one assist. This weekend, Indiana will play their final full weekend before the start of Big Ten play, and they'll aim for a winning record to build momentum for their Saturday, September 17 clash at No. 7 Maryland. Sunday's game versus New Hampshire will air live on BTN2Go.com.

HOOSIER NOTABLES

BATTLE AT THE BUCKEYE INVITATIONAL

The Hoosiers return from a weekend of challenges at Ohio State's Buckeye Invitational, where they split the results in their two games. In their first contest, the Hoosiers played within one score of No. 7 Wake Forest, losing 2-1. The next day, they secured their first shutout win, 2-0, over UC Davis. Kate Barber scored a goal in both games, and Malia Fujisawa provided service to Maddie Latino on a 74-second stunner versus UC Davis.

BREAKTHROUGH IN THE BACKFIELD

The steady progression of Indiana's work on the defensive end, a group led by Elle Hempt, Malia Fujisawa, Nora Aucker, Kelsey Geise, and Noëlle Rother in goal, reached a promising milestone in last week's win versus UC Davis. The Hoosiers forced their first shutout win of the season, 2-0. They also posted their first game with zero conceded penalty corners since September 3, 2011 vs. Ball State. Furthermore, the Hoosiers only allowed one shot attempt to the Aggies, which came late in the second half.

GAMEDAY IN THE GATEWAY

Starting off this weekend's action for Indiana is a trip to St. Louis for a neutral site clash versus Missouri State at SportPort International. The Bears are 0-2 to start the year after a pair of losses to Saint Francis. Indiana leads the all-time series, 10-1, taking the last 10 contests. Last year, the Hoosiers won 5-1 over the Bears at the University of Louisville, with Maddie Latino scoring one and Kate Barber adding a goal and an assist.

BACK HOME AGAIN

Indiana will host a Patriot Day game on Sunday versus the New Hampshire Wildcats at noon on the turf at the IU Field Hockey Complex. The Wildcats, like the Hoosiers, are 2-2 after their first two weekends, winning against Boston and Harvard while losing to UMass and Drexel. Indiana is 4-0 in the all-time series, winning most recently in 2014 at Louisville, 3-2.

OF NOTE...

- Kate Barber, Morgan Dye, and Noëlle Rother were named to the 2016 Big Ten Players to Watch List.
- Junior Maddie Latino was Indiana's top scorer last year, and she'll aim to build off of that success in the 2016 season. Latino scored her first goal of the year versus UC Davis, and she leads IU's assist count with two.
- 2015 All-American Kate Barber is in flying form after the start of her senior season. Barber has scored five goals in four games, most recently in IU's 2-0 win over UC Davis.
- The trip to face Missouri State is a homecoming of sorts for St. Louis natives Claire Woods and Kate Barber, along with Abby Urbanek, who hails from nearby Edwardsville, Illinois. All three played together at the prep level for Gateway Field Hockey Club in St. Louis.
- Sunday's game versus New Hampshire will bear significant importance to Kelsey Geise. Her sister, Chandler, recently graduated after four seasons of field hockey with the Wildcats.

HEAD COACH AMANDA JANNEY

SECOND YEAR AT INDIANA

In 2015, Janney's first season with Indiana, the Hoosiers improved by four wins in the Big Ten conference, setting a new school record with five wins against Big Ten teams. Indiana improved from an eighth-place finish in 2014 to take the third seed in the 2015 Big Ten Tournament. Three Hoosiers—Kate Barber (First Team-unanimous), Sydney Supica (Second Team), and Noëlle Rother (Second Team)—earned All-Big Ten and All-NFHCA All-West Region accolades. In addition Barber received All-American honors from the NFHCA and Synapse Sports, the first All-American Hoosier since Audra Heilman (2013).

Season highlights in 2015 include the Hoosiers' weekend sweep against Iowa and Northwestern, both ranked in the national top-20; a 3-0 road win at Ohio State, the Hoosiers' first shutout over the Buckeyes in program history; a home 1-0 win over Penn State, won on a last-second penalty corner goal before halftime; a 1-0 overtime loss at Maryland, where Indiana held the sixth-ranked Terrapins scoreless for 77 minutes; and a 2-0 win against Rutgers on Senior Day to clinch the program record for single-season Big Ten wins.

Indiana University Vice President and Director of Athletics Fred Glass announced the hiring of Temple University Head Coach Amanda Janney as the new head coach of the Indiana field hockey program on Monday, Feb. 9, 2015. Janney's experience includes a pattern of great success as both a player at Wake Forest and on the U.S. Indoor National Team, and as a head and assistant coach.

Joining the Hoosiers after 10 years as the head coach at Temple, Janney has compiled a 114-94 record with 10 straight postseason appearances. Last season, Janney led the Owls to a No. 11 NCAA RPI ranking and a finish of No. 14 in the NFHCA Coaches Poll.

At Temple, Janney took over a team that had not turned in a winning record since 1992 and transformed it into a consistently successful program. In those 10 seasons, Janney coached five Atlantic 10 Players of the Year, 23 All-Conference selections, three All-Americans, three Temple Student-Athletes of the Year and 16 Regional All-Americans.

"We are thrilled to have Amanda Janney as the new leader of Indiana field hockey," Glass said. "On the field, in the classroom, and in the community, Amanda's track record as the head coach at Temple is extraordinary. Known as an elite recruiter and talent developer, we believe we have hired one of the great field hockey coaches in the country."

Janney was selected as head coach after a comprehensive national search led by Glass who worked in consultation with the Search Advisory Committee, consisting of key administrators, support staff, along with redshirt junior forward Nicole Volgraf and sophomore defender Malia Fujisawa, who served as the student-athlete representatives to the committee. Glass and the committee reviewed dozens of potential candidates, performed extensive research and reference checks on a handful or so, and had four candidates, including Amanda, on campus to interview with Glass and the committee. After a thorough review, Glass made the decision to hire Janney as head coach.

Janney is excited about opportunity to coach at Indiana and in one of the nation's elite conferences.

"I want to thank Fred Glass and the administration for this amazing opportunity," said Janney. "I am already so impressed with the team leaders, the IU field hockey alumni, and the Spirit of Indiana. I am ready to lead IU field hockey and compete in the Big Ten, one of the best conferences in the country."
