OPENING TIP

• The 118th season of Indiana basketball continues on Sunday when the Hoosiers continue Big Ten play by hosting Northwestern. IU is coming off a 74-70 home win over Penn State, while Northwestern won at home against Minnesota, 83-60.

• Sophomore center De'Ron Davis, who started the first 15 games this season, underwent surgery this week to repair a torn Achilles tendon in his right leg and will miss the remainder of the season. The Colorado native is fourth in the Big Ten in field goal percentage shooting 61.5%. He is averaging 9.6 points and 4.3 rebounds.

THE COACHES

• Archie Miller is the 29th head coach in Indiana men's basketball history. The 39-year old native of Beaver Falls, Pennsylvania, comes to IU after serving the previous six seasons as head coach at the University of Dayton, where he won Atlantic 10 Conference regular season championships in 2016 and 2017. He was Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year in 2017. He guided the Flyers to a 139-63 record (69.8) and a 68-34 mark (66.7) in the Atlantic 10. He took Dayton to the NCAA Tournament each of the last four years, with the Flyers advancing to the Elite Eight in the 2014 Tournament. UD was nationally ranked in 3 of Miller's 6 seasons (2013-14, 2014-15 and 2015-16). Miller is seeking his 150th career win on Sunday.

• Chris Collins is in his fifth year of leading the Wildcat program. He is 3-4 against the Hoosiers. IU Hall of Famer and former All-American and Big Ten Player of the Year in 2000 A.J. Guyton is in his first year on the Northwestern staff as Director of Player Development. The 1997 Big Ten Freshman of the Year is 4th on the school's all-time scoring list with 2,100 points.

NEWS & NOTES

• Junior Juwan Morgan is 3rd in the league in scoring (19.4), 5th in rebounding (9.0), 8th in steals (1.6), 9th in field goal percentage (59.4%) and 10th in blocked shots (1.4) in Big Ten play. He had his 6th double-double of the season with 21 points and 11 rebounds against Penn State. He had 20 points, 12 rebounds and a career-high 4 blocks against Minnesota. He is the most improved player in the Big Ten upping his scoring 8.3 points per game since last season overall and +12.1 points in league play.

• Senior Robert Johnson had a career-high 28 points against Minnesota and added 7 rebounds, 7 assists and 2 steals in 38 minutes. He had 10 points and 5 rebounds against Penn State. He is now in 36th place on the IU all-time scoring list with 1,206 points and fifth on the school's all-time list with 200 treys.

• Redshirt junior walk-on Zach McRoberts has moved into the starting lineup and his propensity to make winning plays is the reason why. Against Minnesota, he did not score, but had 7 rebounds (3 offensive), added 3 assists and had a career-high 4 steals. It was his offensive rebound off a Morgan missed free throw and assist in the final seconds that propelled IU to a comeback win earlier this season against Notre Dame. Tuesday against Penn State, he had 6 rebounds, 3 assists and 3 steals in 26 minutes. He has not scored in any of his three starts this season.

• Fifth-year senior Collin Hartman is battling a right shoulder injury which caused him to miss the Minnesota game, but he came off the bench to post 10 points and 5 rebounds in 27 minutes against the Nittany Lions. He had 18 points against Wisconsin and is averaging 10.8 points in Big Ten play.

• With the Hoosiers down key contributors in Davis and Hartman, freshman Justin Smith was inserted into the starting lineup at Minnesota and came through in a big way. He scored 20 points and hit the go-ahead shot in the final minutes to lead IU to a 75-71 road win against the Gophers. Smith made 7-of-10 shots, hit both of his 3-point attempts, all four free throw attempts and added 3 rebounds in 26 minutes. His 3-pointer with 2:30 remaining gave IU a 71-70 lead. He was limited by foul trouble against Penn State.

• Senior Josh Newkirk had 16 points, 4 assists and did not commit a turnover in 30 minutes against Penn State. The Hoosiers are 5-1 in his career when he scores 16 points or more in a game.

KEITH SMART NAMED TO IU ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

Keith Smart, who hit the game winning shot in the 1987 NCAA Championship game, is among six former student-athletes who were inducted to its Athletics Hall of Fame on November 3, 2017. The IU Athletics Hall of Fame, established in 1982 by the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics in conjunction with the Varsity Club and the I-Association, recognizes individuals who have made exceptional contributions to the prestige of IU both on and off the field of competition. He is the 47th member of the men's basketball program to receive this distinction. Smart played two years from 1986-88 and is best remembered for hitting the game winning basket in the closing seconds of IU's 74-73 victory in the 1987 NCAA Championship game in his home state of Louisiana (New Orleans), giving IU its fifth national title. A native of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, he overcame great odds to even play basketball at the collegiate level. Smart was only 5-7 as a senior at McKinley High School and was limited to just three games in his final prep season because of a broken arm. He began his collegiate career at Garden City Community College where he gained the attention of the IU coaching staff by earning Jayhawk Conference Player of the Year as a sophomore. He started 52 games averaging 13.2 points as a senior and 11.2 points as a junior. He was named Co-MVP of the team in 1988 and is tied for the IU single-game record with 15 assists which he recorded in an NCAA tournament game win over Auburn in 1987. He was drafted by the Golden State Warriors and was later traded to the San Antonio Spurs. He has served as a head coach in the NBA for the Cleveland Cavaliers, Golden State Warriors and Sacramento Kings and is currently on the staff of the Memphis Grizzlies.

GEORGE MCGINNIS NAMED TO NAISMITH HALL OF FAME

Former Indiana Hoosier men's basketball player George McGinnis among the 11 inductees in the 2017 Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. McGinnis, who perhaps authored the greatest single season individual effort in the history of the program, wore the Cream and Crimson during the 1970-71 season. He is the seventh member of the Indiana basketball program to be honored. The graduate of Washington High School in Indianapolis led the Big Ten in both scoring (29.9) and rebounding (14.7). His single season scoring average remains an IU record and his single season rebound mark is the fourth best in Hoosier lore. McGinnis scored 20 or more points in 21 of his 24 college games, including an Indiana record 14 times in a row. He also scored over 30 points on 12 different occasions, a Hoosier single-season record. Following his one season with IU, he began his professional career with the Indiana Pacers helping the Pacers to ABA Championships in 1972 and 1973. With the Pacers he was named the 1975 Co-MVP with future teammate Julius Erving. He was traded in 1975 to the Philadelphia 76ers where was part of a team, including Dr. J, which played in the 1977 NBA Finals. He was traded to Denver in 1978 and finished his career with two and a half more seasons as a Pacer. He was a three-time ABA and NBA All-Star and was selected to the all-time ABA Team. He played in 842 games as a professional and averaged 20.2, 11.0 rebounds and 3.7 assists.

SCOTT MAY JOINS COLLEGE BASKETBALL HALL OF FAME

Former Indiana Hoosier men's basketball player Scott May was enshrined in the College Basketball Hall of Fame this past week. He is one of just four players to earn National Player of the Year honors while wearing the Cream and Crimson and becomes the fifth former Hoosier to receive this recognition. May was another member of the Indiana dream team of 1976. An undefeated season, four Big Ten Championship rings and an NCAA title are just a few of the accomplishments under May's name. As a junior, the All-American helped lead Indiana to a perfect 18-0 conference record, only to break his arm in the final game of the regular season. Without May, the Hoosiers' tournament title dreams ended with a 92-90 Mideast Regional championship loss to Kentucky. May returned for his final season in perfect condition and proved it by helping IU to its one and only unbeaten season. The 1976 Player of the Year was the Hoosiers' leading scorer on Bob Knight's first national championship team. May also contributed to the gold medal U.S. Olympic team following his senior season. He averaged 14.2 points for the Chicago Bulls, making the NBA All-Rookie team. His NBA career spanned seven seasons. He was traded in 1975 to the Philadelphia 76ers where was part of a team that included Dr. J., which played in the 1977 NBA Finals. He was traded to Denver in 1978 and finished his career with two and a half more seasons as a Pacer. He was a three-time ABA and NBA All-Star and was selected to the all-time ABA Team.

FOUR SIGNEES COMPRISE ARCHIE MILLER'S FIRST SIGNING CLASS AT INDIANA

Indiana University men's basketball coach Archie Miller has announced the signing of four players to a national letter of intent to play basketball at and attend IU beginning in the fall of 2018. Joining the Hoosiers are forward Damezi Anderson (South Bend/Riley), forward Jake Forrester (Harrisburg, Pa./Westtown), forward Jerome Hunter (Pickerington, Ohio/North) and guard Rob Phinisee (Lafayette/McCutcheon). The quartet is ranked as the 12th-best recruiting class in the country by Scout/247 and 15th-best in the nation by Rivals.com.

Archie Miller on the Class:

"We are excited to announce our first recruiting class as coaches of the Indiana Hoosiers. This is a group of four young men who we identified right away in the spring as players who not only fit our needs on the basketball court, but also fit the IU community and culture. They are all outstanding kids who come from great families and basketball programs. They truly embody what an IU student-athlete represents."

"As I have stated many times, the players, coaches and programs of the state of Indiana are of utmost importance to our staff and program. We were able to sign two players from parts of the state that it's been several years since someone from that area became a Hoosier. We signed a player we have been watching for almost three years that we believe is the best player in the state of Ohio. We also went to the state of Pennsylvania to get a player who has tremendous upside and gets better and better by the day."

"We feel this class will lay the foundation for future Hoosiers for years to come and be building blocks for future great Indiana basketball teams."

Damezi Anderson

SF, 6-7, 205

South Bend, Indiana

Riley HS

Anderson is ranked #83 in the country by Scout/247 and #107 in the nation by Rivals ... rated as the #2 player in the state of Indiana ... was named 2017 Northern Indiana Conference MVP when he averaged 24 points and 7.6 rebounds a game his junior year to help Riley to a 19-3 record ... was named an Indiana Junior All-Star ... high school coach is Eric Brand ... played AAU basketball for MeanStreets Basketball in the EYBL ... first scholarship signee from South Bend for IU since Tom Abernethy (1973-76).

Miller on Anderson:

"Damezi is an excellent addition to our program. He is a big wing who has a knack for scoring the basketball. His ability to shoot the basketball with great range has stood out from the first time I watched him play. Damezi and his family are very excited that he is the first scholarship basketball player from South Bend that has signed with IU in almost 45 years."

Jake Forrester

PF, 6-8, 215

Miller on Forrester:

"Jake is a versatile front court player who has only scratched the surface of his basketball ability. He has a tremendous work ethic and seems to improve daily. He comes from a basketball family and is coached by Seth Berger at Westtown School which has produced many high level college basketball players. Jake can play multiple positions on offense and guard multiple positions on defense. His best basketball is ahead of him and the sky is the limit for who he can become as a player."

ARCHIE MILLER

HEAD COACH

FIRST YEAR AT INDIANA

SEVENTH YEAR AS A DIVISION I HEAD COACH

149-70 OVERALL RECORD, 10-7 AT INDIANA

• Named the 29th head coach of the Indiana Men's Basketball program on March 25, 2017, by Indiana University Vice President and Director of Athletics Fred Glass.

• Regarded as one of the top young coaches in the country, Miller is a tireless recruiter, noted developer of talent, and a gifted tactician whose teams are known for their stout defense and efficient offense. His 2018 recruiting class at IU is currently ranked 15th in the nation.

• The 38-year old native of Beaver Falls, Pennsylvania, comes to IU after serving the previous six seasons as head coach at the University of Dayton, where he won Atlantic 10 Conference regular season championships in 2016 and 2017.

• He guided the Flyers to a 139-63 record (69.8) and a 68-34 mark (66.7) in the Atlantic 10. He took Dayton to the NCAA Tournament each of the last four years with the Flyers advancing to the Elite Eight in the 2014 Tournament. UD was nationally ranked in three of Miller's six seasons (2013-14, 2014-15 and 2015-16).

• During their elite eight run, UD topped Ohio State (60-59), Syracuse (55-53) and Stanford (82-72) before falling to Florida (62-52) in the regional finals. In 2015, they defeated Boise State (56-55) and Providence (66-53) and were eliminated by Oklahoma (72-66) in the Sweet Sixteen. In 2016, they were defeated by Final Four participant Syracuse (70-51) in the second round and by Wichita State (64-58) in their first tournament game this season.

• Miller is one of five active coaches who had at least five NCAA wins in his first four seasons. The others are Mark Few, Thad Matta, Shaka Smart and Roy Williams. With three NCAA wins in 2014 and another two in 2015, Dayton was one of just six teams to have at least five NCAA tournament wins in those two years. The others were Arizona, UConn, Kentucky, Michigan State and Wisconsin.

• For his efforts this past season, he was named Atlantic 10 and NABC District Coach of the Year. He led UD to perform at a championship level despite playing a 2016-17 campaign where the team's top six scorers missed a total of 32 games during the year due to injury. He also was a finalist for the 2015 Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year Award.

• He comes from a family of coaches with his father, John, having guided Archie and his brother Sean at Blackhawk High School in Beaver Falls. His brother Sean is the current head coach at the University of Arizona and also was the head coach at Xavier University. John was one of the country's top high school coaches when he retired in 2005, with 657 wins in a 35-year coaching career. Archie, Sean and their sister Lisa all played Division I college basketball.

• Archie and Sean made NCAA Division I men's basketball history by being the first two brothers to be named Coach of the Year in their respective conference. Sean was this year's Pac-12 Coach of the Year after leading UA to a 27-5 record in the regular season.

• The Miller's are one of just four Division I head coaching brother combinations joining the Drew's -- Scott (Baylor) and Bryce (Vanderbilt); the Hurley's -- Bobby (Arizona State) and Dan (Rhode Island); and the Jones -- Joe (Boston U.) and James (Yale).

• Archie and Sean Miller are the first brothers to coach different teams in both the Sweet 16 and the Elite Eight in the same season (2014), and the first to coach their respective teams in three consecutive NCAA tournaments.

• Miller is regarded as a top recruiter -- Arizona's 2011 recruits were a Top 10 class -- and game strategist -- he was the architect of the Wildcats upset of eighth-ranked Texas to get them to the Sweet 16. He was reunited with his brother during the summer of 2015 on the coaching staff of USA Basketball's U19 World Championship. When Sean was elevated to the team's head coach, he turned to his brother to help USA basketball win the gold at the 2015 FIBA U19 World Championship that was held June 27-July 5 in Heraklion, Crete, Greece.

• He was a four-year letterwinner at North Carolina State from 1998-2002. A point guard, he is currently third at NC State in career FT% (.846, 165-195), sixth in career 3-pt. FG% (.429, 218-509), and fourth in career threes (218). As a senior, he helped lead the Wolfpack to the finals of the ACC championship game and was named to the all-tournament team. That season was coach Herb Sendek's first NCAA team at NC State.

• As an assistant, Miller coached in the Big Ten, Pac-12 and ACC, where he honed his craft under some of the most respected coaches in the country. He began his coaching career at NC State, serving as a coaching intern under Sendek in 2002-03. Miller then went to Western Kentucky as a full-time member of Darrin Horn's staff for one season. He returned to NC State, first as Director of Basketball Operations (2004-05), and then as a full-time assistant coach (2005-06). When Sendek went to Arizona State in 2006-07, Miller remained on his coaching staff before joining Thad Matta at Ohio State for two seasons (2007-09). As a coach, he has been part of 20-plus win and NCAA seasons at NC State (2005-06), Ohio State (2008-09), Arizona (2010-11), and Dayton (2013-14, 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17).

• In April, 2015, he joined his father and brother in the Beaver County Sports Hall of Fame. Other greats in the Beaver County Hall include Mike Ditka, Tony Dorsett, Terry Francona, Pete and Press Maravich, Joe Namath, Babe Parilli and Norm Van Lier.

• Miller earned his bachelor's degree in Parks, Recreation and Tourism from NC State in 2002. He was born October 30, 1978. He is married to the former Morgan Nicole Cruse and they have a 13-year old daughter, Leah.

BILL AND JUANITA BEACH INDIANA BASKETBALL MEMORIES COLLECTION

The Indiana University Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is pleased to announce the installation of five new sculptures made possible by a major gift from Bill and Juanita Beach to the "For All: The Indiana University Bicentennial Campaign" in support of IU Athletics. Their gift will create and fund the Bill and Juanita Beach Indiana Basketball Memories Collection. The Collection will be housed throughout Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall, and it is anticipated that there will be future additions to the collection. IU fans were able to see the sculptures for the first time at Hoosier Hysteria on Saturday, October 21st.

"One of our longest held passions is our love for IU Basketball," said Bill Beach. "Juanita and I are thrilled that our gift will help future generations of IU fans learn, appreciate, and love the history of IU basketball as we have. We believe that more memorable moments are on the way as the team embarks a great new era, and we hope the Memories Collection does justice to our illustrious past."

In addition to their love for Indiana Basketball, Bill also was the founder of Beach Mold & Tool, Inc. in New Albany, Indiana. Bill and Juanita exemplify what it means to be Hoosiers and have commemorated their love of basketball and Indiana University by establishing The Bill & Juanita Beach Indiana Basketball Memories Collection.

"We cannot thank Bill and Juanita Beach enough for their incredible generosity," said Indiana University Vice President and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics Fred Glass. "Every Hoosier fan has a favorite story to tell about what Indiana basketball means to them. By highlighting these five sculptures, plus the other elements of the Collection, we hope to spark the stories of Hoosiers for generations to come. The Collection will further enhance Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall, one of the world's greatest basketball venues."

The South Lobby is now home to the five new sculptures which highlight iconic moments in, and periods of, IU basketball history. Below is the story behind each of these new bronze sculptures:

The Father of Indiana Basketball

This iconic image of Everett Dean is based on a photograph found in the 1921 edition of the Arbutus. "The Father of Indiana Basketball" was the first player in Indiana basketball history to earn All-America honors in 1921, and he would later lead the Hoosiers to their first Big Ten championship as head coach in 1926. In his 14 seasons as head coach, Dean led IU to three Big Ten Titles. He is in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Two Pioneers Breaking the Unwritten Rule

Based on a 1951 Athletic Department archives photograph of Branch McCracken and Bill Garrett, with help from a 1948 photograph of McCracken, this image represents these two true pioneers, whose contributions reached far beyond the game of basketball. Bill Garrett became the first African-American to play Big Ten basketball as Indiana University through President Herman B Wells and Branch McCracken broke the longstanding unwritten rule that banned African-Americans from playing basketball in the conference. McCracken was an All-American player for the Hoosiers before guiding the program to its first two national championships in 1940 and 1953, while in between serving as a Naval officer in World War II. He is in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. Garrett became an All-American as a senior and led IU in scoring and rebounding in each of his three seasons.

Celebrating Perfection

Based on a series of photographs taken separately during arguably the greatest season in college basketball history, this arrangement brings together the starting and senior players from that historic team. Iconic players Bobby Wilkerson, Kent Benson, Scott May, Quinn Buckner, Jim Crews, and Tom Abernethy had reason to celebrate their successful quest for perfection as modeled here from the on-court presentation on March 29, 1976. The 1975-76 Hoosiers finished the season a perfect 32-0 and won the program's third national championship in the process. They were coached, of course, by Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame member Bob Knight. (Coach Knight's request not to be depicted in this sculpture has been respectfully honored.) Indiana's 1976 team remains the last undefeated NCAA men's basketball champion and was selected as the greatest March Madness team of all-time on the 75th anniversary of the NCAA Tournament in 2013.

Tournament Dominance

Modeled on one of the most identifiable photographs in IU basketball history, this image of Isiah Thomas's layup during Indiana's win over North Carolina in the 1981 national championship game was featured in the April 6, 1981, issue of Sports Illustrated. The Hoosiers were dominant that March, winning their tournament games by an average of 22.6 points. Isiah Thomas is in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

The Shooter and The Shot

The 1987 Hoosiers were defined by "the shooter" and "the shot." The image of Steve Alford taking a jumper is taken from a photograph in the Athletic Department archives, while the image of Keith Smart captures the most memorable moment in IU basketball history. Indiana's greatest shooter and the program's greatest shot propelled IU to the program's fifth national championship on March 30, 1987.

Artist Brian Hanlon, owner of Hanlon Studios, designed and fabricated the sculptures. He has produced over 300 works in both public and private collections and has a commitment to educating through his work. Hanlon has done several sports themed works including sculptures at the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. He has a BA in Art Education from Monmouth University and studied at Boston University from 1988-1990 prior to opening his studio.

GRANITE MONUMENTS ADDED TO KEN NUNN CHAMPIONS PLAZA

The Indiana University Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is pleased to announce the addition of five granite monuments to the Ken Nunn Champions Plaza outside of Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall commemorating each of the men's basketball national championship teams. The monuments are funded as part of a gift by Ken Nunn to the "For All: The Indiana University Bicentennial Campaign" in support of IU Athletics that was first announced on April 2, 2015, as part of the Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall renovation project.

The monuments will be located outside the recently renovated South Lobby of Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall, where they will always be accessible to fans: 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The name of every player and coach from each team is set forth on their respective monument. In addition, IU player and other images from each championship team are depicted on one side of the monuments while the other side features the story of each team and their unique journey to the national title.

Installation of the monuments were completed in time for Hoosier Hysteria on Saturday, October 21st. The five granite monuments in the Ken Nunn Champions Plaza and the new Bill and Juanita Beach Indiana Basketball Memories Collection (see accompanying release) are both being installed this week to coincide with Hoosier Hysteria and the 2017-2018 basketball season.

"There could be no better addition to Ken Nunn Champions Plaza than these inspiring tributes to our five national champion men's basketball teams – with room for more," said Fred Glass, IU Vice President and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics. "I'm particularly pleased that the name of every player and coach from every championship team is immortalized on these granite monuments, as Indiana Basketball always wins as a team."

The 1940 monument features depictions of standout players Curly Armstrong, Bill Menke, Jay McCreary, Bob Menke, Bob Dro, Marv Huffman and Bill Torphy along with head coach Branch McCracken. There's also a game action photo from the season and the team photo included.

For the 1953 monument, images of Dick Farley, Burke Scott, Charley Kraak, Bobby Leonard and Don Schlundt with Branch McCracken are featured in addition to a team image with each player holding their national championship plaque.

In 1976, the Hoosiers went 32-0 on their way to the national title – the last undefeated national champion in Division I men's basketball. There were numerous standouts on the team and those featured on the monument include Kent Benson, Scott May, Bobby Wilkerson, Quinn Buckner and Tom Abernethy along with the five seniors on the team and the numerous trophies they won during their career.

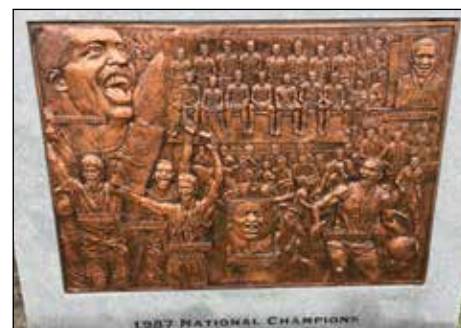

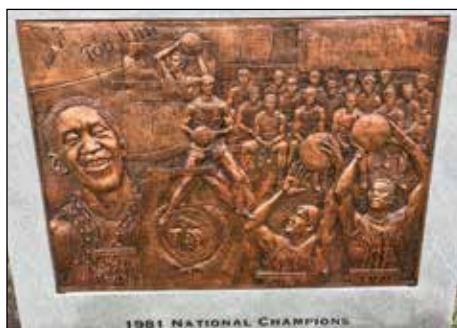

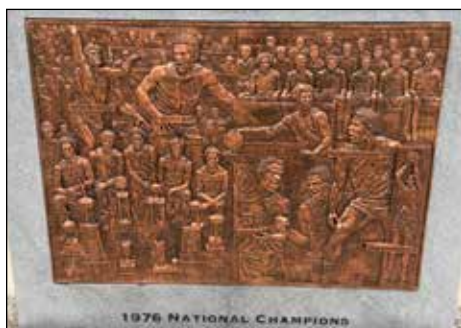

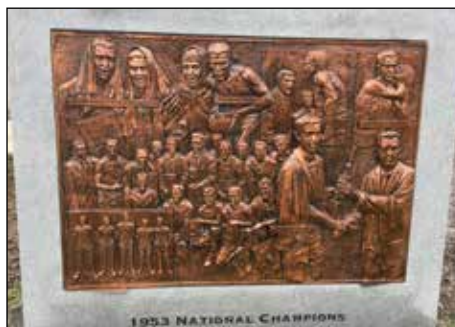

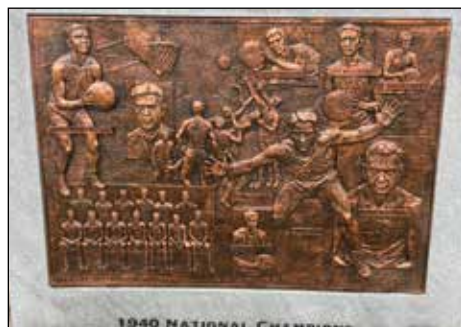

Indiana once again won the national championship in 1981 led by Isiah Thomas, Ted Kitchel, Ray Tolbert, Randy Wittman, Landon Turner each of whom is featured on the monument. It also includes a depiction of the team photo and a ticket stub from the championship game at the Spectrum in Philadelphia.

The fifth national championship came courtesy of the 1987 team that featured Dean Garrett, Todd Meier, Daryl Thomas, Steve Alford, Keith Smart, Daryl Thomas and Rick Calloway. All of those players are featured on the monument – including Thomas, Meier and Alford holding up the championship trophy after winning the title game.

Artist Brian Hanlon, owner of Hanlon Studios, designed and fabricated the five monuments. He has produced over 300 works in both public and private collections and has a commitment to educating through his work. Hanlon has done several sports themed works including sculptures at the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. He has a BA in Art Education from Monmouth University and studied at Boston University from 1988-1990 prior to opening his studio.

IU Athletics thanks Mia Williams, the University Landscape Architect, and Sherry Rouse, IU's Curator of Campus Art for coordinating this project. Hanlon was selected through a competitive campus process overseen by Williams involving proposals and interviews with multiple artists.

For All: The Indiana University Bicentennial Campaign is taking place on all IU-administered campuses including IU Bloomington, Indiana University–Purdue University Indianapolis, IU East, IU Kokomo, IU Northwest, IU South Bend, and IU Southeast. The campaign will conclude in December 2019 to coincide with IU's bicentennial year celebration in 2020.
