In recognition of Black History Month and the 70th anniversary of IU great Bill Garrett breaking the Big Ten Basketball color barrier, adidas and the IU Men's and Women's Basketball programs will unveil special uniforms during home games next week. In addition to recognizing Garrett's enormous impact on the sport, the uniforms also honor the Harlem Renaissance Movement of the early 20th Century and its impact on the African-American community and the sport of basketball.

Coach Archie Miller's men's squad wore its version Feb. 10 against Ohio State.

One of the special features of the men's uniform is a silhouette logo of Garrett on the team's cream-colored, long-sleeve shooting shirts. The legendary Hoosier starred for Coach Branch McCracken's Hoosier teams from 1948-51, and is one of the most important figures in the history of both IU and Big Ten basketball. On Dec. 4, 1948, he started the Hoosiers' season-opening game against DePauw, becoming the first African-American to start a Big Ten basketball game, shattering Big Ten basketball's color barrier.

Garrett went on to a legendary Hoosier career, earning All-America honors in 1951 and departing as IU's all-time leading scorer with 792 points. While he was the only African-American to play varsity for a Big Ten team during his college career, his success paved the way for others to follow suit soon afterwards. During the 1951-52 season, seven African-Americans played varsity for various Big Ten teams, bringing an end to the Big Ten Conference's unwritten rule prohibiting African-Americans from participation in varsity basketball contests.

In addition to celebrating Garrett, the uniforms also give a nod to one of the most influential movements in African-American history - the Harlem Renaissance, a creative movement that sparked a new cultural identity. In this era, the Renaissance ballroom became a place where local basketball teams perfected their game on the same wooden floors used for ballroom dance events and jazz shows. Together, the Harlem community infused their spirit of dance and sport within their day-to-day lives, and created an indisputable marriage between music, culture, and the game.

Similar in look and style, adidas designed both IU programs' uniforms with the traditional colors of cream and crimson. Each uniform features a unique bean stitch texture around the Indiana team name and the word "BALLROOM" on the inner waistband of each short. The collection also includes corresponding footwear silhouettes which echo the colors of the jazz ballrooms so important to the era.

Each uniform detail is meant to be an homage to the art, poetry, sounds and sport of the Renaissance, and to those driving their passion forward. Among the most famous venues of the era was Harlem's legendary Renaissance Ballroom and Casino. Located at the intersection of Seventh Avenue and 137th Street in Harlem, the Renaissance Ballroom and Casino opened in 1923 as a locally owned and operated, multi-purpose entertainment complex that featured movies, plays, assemblies, dancing, and sports - most notably, basketball. During an era when sports - like the rest of society - was largely segregated, the Ballroom was the venue where many of the best African-American players from New York City and Philadelphia came to play, converting and utilizing a second-floor ballroom as their home court.

Shortly after opening, the Renaissance Ballroom and Casino formed a competitive basketball team, the Renaissance Big Five. Under the leadership and ownership of Coach Bob Douglas, the "Rens" became the first all-black, black-owned professional basketball team. In an era that predated the NBA, the Rens barnstormed the country and were the dominant professional team of any color and from any location in the country. In 1939 they won the inaugural World Championship of Professional Basketball in Chicago, earning the label of World Champions. A year later they lost in the tournament to the eventual champion Harlem Globetrotters, and in the final World Championship competition in 1948, they lost in the final to the George Mikan-led Minneapolis Lakers. Before the Rens disbanded in 1949, they compiled a 2,318-381 record over their 27-year history.

Douglas was the first African-American inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame in 1972, and has since been joined by Rens players Charles 'Tarzan' Cooper, William 'Pop' Gates and John 'Boy Wonder' Cooper. In addition, the Rens' 1933 team was enshrined into the Hall of Fame as a group, honoring that team's 88-game winning streak during an 86-day stretch.

Indiana is among a select group of schools that has its Harlem Renaissance Collection available for purchase at Adidas.com.

ARCHIE MILLER

SECOND YEAR AT INDIANA • EIGHTH YEAR AS COLLEGE HEAD COACH

Career Record: 168-92 Overall • 81-49 Conference

Record at Indiana: 29-29 Overall

• Named the 29th head coach of the Indiana Men's Basketball program on March 25, 2017, by Indiana University Vice President and Director of Athletics Fred Glass.Care

• He won his 150th game as a head coach, January 14, 2018, when the Hoosiers beat Northwestern, 66-46.

• Miller saw the Hoosiers improve dramatically during the season. After seeing IU allow 76 points per game on 45.9 percent shooting and 41.7 percent accuracy from 3-point range in the month of November, IU limited teams to 65.4 points on 41.3 percent shooting from the floor and 33.1 percent from long distance in the month of February.

• IU posted a two-win improvement in the Big Ten from 2016-17 to 2017-18.

• He saw junior forward Juwan Morgan emerge as the most improved player in the Big Ten adding more than 10 points per game scoring in Big Ten play during the 2017-18 season. Morgan earned second-team All-Big Ten honors and was named All-District by the USBWA and NABC in 2018. Senior Rob Johnson averaged a career-best 14.0 points per game earned honorable mention All-Big-Ten honors his senior year.

• Regarded as one of the top young coaches in the country, Miller is a tireless recruiter, noted developer of talent, and a gifted tactician whose teams are known for their stout defense and efficient offense. His 2018 recruiting class at IU was ranked 7th in the nation after a successful haul of players from the Big Ten footprint. Joining IU in 2018 will be Indiana Mr. Basketball and McDonald's All-American guard Romeo Langford from New Albany, point guard Rob Phinisse from Lafayette and wing Damezi Anderson from South Bend. In addition, Ohio native and forward Jerome Hunter and Pennsylvania native and forward Jake Forrester, make up his first full recruiting class.

• The 40-year old native of Beaver Falls, Pennsylvania, came to IU after serving six seasons as head coach at the University of Dayton, where he won Atlantic 10 Conference regular season championships in 2016 and 2017.

• He guided the Flyers to a 139-63 record (69.8) and a 68-34 mark (66.7) in the Atlantic 10. He took Dayton to the NCAA Tournament each of the last four years with the Flyers advancing to the Elite Eight in the 2014 Tournament. UD was nationally ranked in three of Miller's six seasons (2013-14, 2014-15 and 2015-16).

• During their elite eight run, UD topped Ohio State (60-59), Syracuse (55-53) and Stanford (82-72) before falling to Florida (62-52) in the regional finals. In 2015, they defeated Boise State (56-55) and Providence (66-53) and were eliminated by Oklahoma (72-66) in the Sweet Sixteen. In 2016, they were defeated by Final Four participant Syracuse (70-51) in the second round and by Wichita State (64-58) in their first tournament game this season.

• Miller is one of five active coaches who had at least five NCAA wins in his first four seasons. The others are Mark Few, Thad Matta, Shaka Smart and Roy Williams. With three NCAA wins in 2014 and another two in 2015, Dayton was one of just six teams to have at least five NCAA tournament wins in those two years. The others were Arizona, UConn, Kentucky, Michigan State and Wisconsin.

• For his efforts during the 2016-17 season, he was named Atlantic 10 and NABC District Coach of the Year. He led UD to perform at a championship level despite playing a 2016-17 campaign where the team's top six scorers missed a total of 32 games during the year due to injury. He also was a finalist for the 2015 Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year Award.

• He comes from a family of coaches with his father, John, having guided Archie and his brother Sean at Blackhawk High School in Beaver Falls. His brother Sean has been the head coach at the University of Arizona and also was the head coach at Xavier University. John was one of the country's top high school coaches when he retired in 2005, with 657 wins in a 35-year coaching career. Archie, Sean and their sister Lisa all played Division I college basketball.

• Miller is regarded as a top recruiter – Arizona's 2011 recruits were a Top 10 class – and game strategist – he was the architect of the Wildcats upset of eighth-ranked Texas to get them to the Sweet 16. He was reunited with his brother during the summer of 2015 on the coaching staff of USA Basketball's U19 World Championship. When Sean was elevated to the team's head coach, he turned to his brother to help USA basketball win the gold at the 2015 FIBA U19 World Championship that was held June 27-July 5 in Heraklion, Crete, Greece.

• He was a four-year letterwinner at North Carolina State from 1998-2002. A point guard, he is currently third at NC State in career FT% (.846, 165-195), sixth in career 3-pt. FG% (.429, 218-509), and fourth in career threes (218). As a senior, he helped lead the Wolfpack to the finals of the ACC championship game and was named to the all-tournament team. That season was coach Herb Sendek's first NCAA team at NC State.

• As an assistant, Miller coached in the Big Ten, Pac-12 and ACC, where he honed his craft under some of the most respected coaches in the country. He began his coaching career at NC State, serving as a coaching intern under Sendek in 2002-03. Miller then went to Western Kentucky as a full-time member of Darrin Horn's staff for one season. He returned to NC State, first as Director of Basketball Operations (2004-05), and then as a full-time assistant coach (2005-06). When Sendek went to Arizona State in 2006-07, Miller remained on his coaching staff before joining Thad Matta at Ohio State for two seasons (2007-09). As a coach, he has been part of 20-plus win and NCAA seasons at NC State (2005-06), Ohio State (2008-09), Arizona (2010-11), and Dayton (2013-14, 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17).

• In April, 2015, he joined his father and brother in the Beaver County Sports Hall of Fame. Other greats in the Beaver County Hall include Mike Ditka, Tony Dorsett, Terry Francona, Pete and Press Maravich, Joe Namath, Babe Parilli and Norm Van Lier.

• Miller earned his bachelor's degree in Parks, Recreation and Tourism from NC State in 2002. He was born October 30, 1978. He is married to the former Morgan Nicole Cruse and they have a 14-year old daughter, Leah.
