INDIANA

- The Hoosiers are 5-4 in the Big Ten this season, coming off a loss to #19 Purdue in West Lafayette on Wednesday.
- IU's four losses in conference play have all come at the hands of ranked opponents including three of those on the road.
- Camryn Haworth leads the Big Ten in aces (50), aces per set (0.66) and assists (748); she is third in assists per set (9.84).
- Kaley Rammelsberg is hitting .360 on the season and .320 in her career as a Hoosier.
- Ramsey Gary has tallied 325 digs this season which leads the Big Ten. Her 4.28 digs per set is also tops in the conference.

OHIO STATE

- The Hoosiers and Buckeyes meet for the first of two matches this season. The teams will play in Columbus on November 4th.
- Ohio State's offense starts with star outside hitter Emily Londot who is second in the Big Ten in kills (313) and kills per set (4.67).
- All-Big Ten middle blocker Rylee Rader is hitting .356 with 140 kills on the season.
- Freshman Mia Tuman has been the primary choice as setter, one of many freshmen with a large role for the Buckeyes.
- Ohio State is 7-11 (4-5) on the season, having lost all 11 matches to ranked opponents.

THE SERIES BREAKDOWN

- Ohio State owns a heavy edge in the all-time series, leading IU 58-26.
- Steve Aird is 3-3 against the Buckeyes which included a series sweep in 2018.
- IU beat #5 Ohio State in Columbus last season, the program's first top-five road win in program history.

A WIN WOULD

- Be four wins in five matches for the Hoosiers.
- Match the most wins by Steve Aird (16) as head coach of the Hoosiers.
- Match IU's best 10-game start to Big Ten play in program history (6-4, 1985).
- Be IU's eighth home win of the season.

2022 IMPROVEMENT

The Hoosiers took a massive step forward in the 2022 season, playing to 16 total wins including nine in the conference. IU finished eighth in the conference after being picked 13th to begin the season.

IU now returns the six rotational starters, losing only libero Paula Cerame out of its seven starters. Additional returning players include Isa Lopez and Grae Gosnell.

PRESEASON PRIMER

The Indiana volleyball program officially kicked off its 2023 season with report day to Bloomington on August 7th (Monday) and the first day of practice on August 8th (Tuesday).

Coming off its best finish in the Big Ten (8th) since the conference expanded to 14 teams, IU returns 12 players from a year ago including six of seven starting rotational players and a number of key reserves.

Steve Aird enters his sixth year as head coach in Bloomington with his most veteran team to date and a roster filled with quality talent up and down the lineup.

Here are some facts to know and notes to follow ahead of the 49th season of volleyball at Indiana.

NEWCOMERS

The Hoosiers welcomed five new athletes to the roster in 2023 to replace four graduating seniors.

Natalia Hagopian | R-Fr. | S | Huntington Beach, Calif.

• Joined the roster mid-year after transferring from Northeastern University. The 5-10 setter went through spring workouts and matches with the team.

Avry Tatum | So. | OPP/MB | Solana Beach, Calif.

• Transferred to IU in May following a season at Cincinnati. The California native played high school and club volleyball under assistant coach Rachel Morris.

Ramsey Gary | Fr. | L | Pendleton, Ind.

• The second Under Armour All-American in program history joins IU as one of the most well-regarded liberos in the freshman class.

Ava Vickers | Fr. | MB | Fishers, Ind.

• A club teammate of Gary and a high school and club teammate of Camryn Haworth, Vickers possesses an electric arm and quick movement in the middle.

Luca Fickell | Fr. | S | Cincinnati, Ohio

• The daughter of Wisconsin football coach Luke Fickell, Luca is a 6-1 setter who ran the show for Tri-State Elite in her club days.

HOOSIER DUO HEADS TO ANAHEIMUSA Volleyball Collegiate National Team

Morgan Geddes and Camryn Haworth were named to the 20-woman USA Collegiate National Team in April following a strong performance at the Open Tryout in Colorado Springs.

The nation's best athletes were selected and trained with USA volleyball in Anaheim this summer over a five-day period. Geddes enjoyed a breakout season in 2022 despite dealing with lingering injuries that held her out multiple games in the non-conference. Haworth took the keys to the offense as the team's setter last season.

The pair of Hoosiers will have a valuable role for IU during the 2023 season, joining middle blockers Kaley Rammelsberg and Savannah Kjolhede and outside hitters Candela Alonso-Corcelles and Mady Saris as returning starters.

MADY TRAINS IN CANADA

Junior outside hitter Mady Saris and graduating senior defensive specialist Haley Armstrong spent five days in Canada at the end of April, training with the national team as part of the NextGen Program.

The duo went through full practices, drills and matches as the Canadian National Team begins the process of identifying the next generation of talent. Saris was named among the initial 35-person senior team roster for the Volleyball Nations League but elected not to participate as to continue training in Bloomington.

BIG TEN MEDIA DAYS

The Indiana trio of setter Camryn Haworth, outside hitter/defensive specialist Grae Gosnell and head coach Steve Aird attended the 2nd Annual Big Ten Volleyball Media Days in Chicago.

As part of the conference's continued commitment to growing the game of volleyball, the two-day event featured media interviews, tv sit-downs, social media engagement, photoshoots and a dinner for all coaches and athletes at the Big Ten Network studios.

SCHEDULE/TV NOTES

IU's full 33-match schedule was announced in accordance with the Big Ten schedule release in June.

The Hoosiers' campaign will feature 13 home matches including an opening weekend tournament against New Hampshire, Southern Indiana and Radford.

IU will play Purdue, Michigan, Rutgers, Ohio State, Illinois, Wisconsin and Maryland twice with solo home matches against Minnesota, Nebraska and Iowa and solo road games at Penn State, Northwestern and Michigan State.

The non-conference slate includes matches against 2022 NCAA Tournament teams Washington and Miami (Fla.) as well as traditional powers Long Beach State and UCLA.

IU will play on the Big Ten Network four times this season with matches against Illinois (Sept. 20), Nebraska (Sept. 30), Purdue (Oct. 11) and Illinois (Oct. 25) featured on the network's national television channel.

STAFF CHANGES

In accordance with a new NCAA byline put into effect on July 1, 2023, women's volleyball programs are now allowed three paid assistants, eliminating the previously designated volunteer role.

Head coach Steve Aird named his 2023 coaching staff shortly after including the addition of Kevin Hodge as an assistant coach.

Additional changes saw Brett Agne promoted to the third paid assistant role, Rachel Morris elevated to associated head coach and Hallie Enderle named director of operations.

2023 Staff Roles:

Steve Aird — Head Coach

Rachel Morris — Associate Head Coach/Recruiting Coordinator

Kevin Hodge — Assistant Coach

Brett Agne — Assistant Coach/Technical Coordinator

Hallie Enderle — Director of Operations

RETURNING NUMBERS

IU returns a strong core of athletes from its 2022 team including six of seven starters. Seniors Savannah Kjolhede, Kaley Rammelsberg and Morgan Geddes join juniors Mady Saris and Camryn Haworth as key contributors who have multiple years of experience.

Coming along with that includes a large majority of team statistics from last year that return for another go-around.

Stat	Returning Numbers	Key Returners
Kills	98.4% (1475/1499)	Saris (427), Geddes (266)
Blocks	96.8% (242/250)	Kjolhede (118), Rammelsberg (63)
Assists	89.4% (1211/1354)	Haworth (1111), Lopez (28)

SEASON OPENING WEEKENDS

The Hoosiers have had three perfect opening weekends during the non-conference of the Steve Aird era, including a perfect weekend at the 2023 Indiana Invitational. The 2020-21 season saw the Hoosiers play a Big Ten-only portion schedule.

Year	Record	Losses
2018	3-0	-
2019	3-1	vs. Santa Clara
2021	3-0	-
2022	2-1	vs. Jacksonville State
2023	3-0	-

FRESHMEN STARTERS IN SEASON OPENER

The Hoosiers have relied on freshmen a lot over the years to play productive roles straight away. Since the rally era began in 2008, IU has started at least one freshman in 14 of the 16 seasons.

True freshman Ramsey Gary made three starts as the libero on the opening the weekend, the first since Haley Armstrong in 2019 to do so. Middle blocker Ava Vickers also started two matches the opening weekend.

Freshmen Season Opening Starters (since 2015)

Year	Number	Freshmen Starters
2023	1	Gary
2022	2	Alonso-Corcelles, Ilter
2021	1	Saris

DOUBLE-DOUBLE MACHINE

Camryn Haworth fills up the stat sheet on a nightly basis. As a six-rotation setter, she plays valuable points in both the front row and back row, giving her the opportunity to score kills, blocks and digs to pair with her assists. She racked up 10 double-doubles in 2022 and is quickly moving up the program charts.

BUILDING ON MOMENTUM

The Hoosiers took a massive step forward in 2022, winning 16 games overall and nine games in the Big Ten Conference. With six starters back and eight of nine rotation players, IU is hoping to parlay that into one of the best two-year spans in program history.

NON-CON SUCCESS

The Hoosiers would finish the non-conference with 10 wins for the first time since going 11-2 in the preseason in 2019. Only four times this century have the Hoosiers won 10+ games in the non-conference while defeating at least one Power 5 opponent.

IU would accomplish that with a 4-0 weekend in Miami and a win over the host Hurricanes on Friday, September 15th. Steve Aird became the first coach in program history to twice win 10+ games in the non-conference with at least one of those wins in the home gym of a Power 5 team.

STACKING W'S

A strong non-conference, featuring a collection of tough contests away from home has set the Hoosiers up ahead of the Big Ten season.

IU has had just two 20-win seasons since the turn of the century and will have the chance to add a third to the collection as the season progresses.

WINNING STREAKS

The Hoosiers saw their eight-game winning streak come to an end at the hands of No. 1 Wisconsin.

IU's eight-game winning streak was the longest since 2017. Only the 2010, 2019 and 2023 streaks have featured a win at a Power 5 program.

LETHAL AT THE END LINE

The Hoosiers have one of the best serving teams in the country and have used that skill to put opponents on their heels in the preseason.

IU has recorded 126 aces across 19 matches and will continue to challenge for program records as the season continues.

Hoosiers Aces by Game

EVERYONE IN ON THE ACTION

The Hoosiers needed every available arm in a tough win at Miami (FL) on Sept. 15, 2023. Five Hoosiers went for 10+ kills, led by Avry Tatum (17) and Kaley Rammelsberg (15).

It was just the third time in the current scoring system (since 2008) that five players have gone for 10+ kills in a single match.

5 Players with 10+ Kills (since 2008)

- Sept. 14, 2012 vs. Valpo
- Sept. 8, 2022 vs. Western Carolina
- Sept. 15, 2023 at Miami (FL)

MOST SWEEPS IN NON-CON ALL TIME

The Hoosiers won 10 games in the preseason, nine of them by sweep. That matches the most by the program since 2000 (tied with the 2010 season).

DOING IT AT HIGH LEVEL

IU has no shortage of high level arms to pick from with four middles or pins entering at least their third year of college volleyball.

Mady Saris and Kaley Rammelsberg have put away balls at a high level since entering the college ranks and provide setter Camryn Haworth some good options to set to.

Sept. 14, 2019	at #15 Kentucky (W, 3-2)
Oct. 31, 2018	vs. #14 Michigan (W, 3-1)

Purdue Notes

- Indiana beat Purdue for the first time since 2012
- Broke a 21-game losing streak to the Boilers
- Captured the Monon Spike for the first time since 2007
- First ranked win in Wilkinson Hall
- Record crowd of 2,725 fans

DOMINATED THE WOLVERINES

IU played one of its most efficient games in recent years, sweeping Michigan 25-10, 25-20, 25-12 to win a third-straight Big Ten contest on Oct. 14, 2023.

Michigan Notes

- IU dominated the Wolverines from the jump, conceding just 42 total points across three sets. Under the current scoring format, in place since 2008, 42 points is joint fewest ever given up to a Big Ten opponent by the Hoosiers.

- The Hoosiers outthit Michigan by nearly 300 points (.330-.050), putting away 15 more kills and committing 13 fewer errors. IU's eight attacking errors, six of which came in set two, were the fewest in a conference match since 2010.

- IU won every statistical category defensively, blocking seven shots and digging 49 balls, led by freshman libero Ramsey Gary with 21 digs in three sets.

- Michigan was held to just .050 offensively (26-21-100), the fifth-lowest hitting percentage conceded by IU to a Big Ten opponent in the current scoring system.

PLAYING TOP TEAMS

In the span of six days, IU played both #1 Wisconsin and #2 Nebraska. Since rankings were created by the AVCA, this is how the Hoosiers have fared against the top-two ranked teams in the same season.

HOOSIER TEAM BREAKDOWN

IU is making a push for its first appearance in the NCAA Tournament since going to the Sweet 16 in 2010 behind the performance of All-American middle blocker Ashley Benson.

Since then, the Hoosiers have yet to return to the big dance, never finishing as high as 8th in the conference until going 9-11 and doing so in 2022.

Head Coach Steve Aird has revitalized the program with talented, hard-working and tough kids who play hard and play fast.

IU has gone 12-3 since a tough weekend out in Long Beach and have jumped right into Big Ten play, facing five ranked opponents in the first 10 games of conference play.

If IU goes... (final 11 games)

- 8-3: 23-10 (13-7)
- 7-4: 22-11 (12-8)
- 6-5: 21-12 (11-9)

WILKINSON HALL

Wilkinson Hall Dedication: January 16, 2019

Wilkinson Hall Capacity: 3,000

An exciting chapter began for Indiana University Athletics, as IU unveiled a new, state-of-the-art, 3,000-seat facility - Wilkinson Hall.

Wilkinson Hall is a multi-use training and performance center that is the new home venue for the Indiana Volleyball and Wrestling programs.

Consistent with the university's master plan, the facility brings these two programs' home competitions back onto the IU Athletics campus from their former University Gymnasium home at the intersection of 10th Street and the 45/46 bypass.

In addition, Wilkinson Hall will provide the entire Indiana University Athletic Department and its programs with a new top-flight facility for year-round training, and will serve as a venue to host department and university events.

Wilkinson Hall is named after IU alumnus Jay Wilkinson and his family, who have an incredible history of support for IU Athletics and its student-athletes.

Indiana Volleyball played its first official matches in Wilkinson Hall during the 2019 campaign and has played there every year since.

In 2019, the opening year of Wilkinson Hall, the Hoosiers were 15th in the NCAA in attendance, the highest the team has ever been in program history.

The 2023 season will be the fifth season for Indiana volleyball and the first with no COVID-19 restrictions since the 2019 season.

IU set a Wilkinson Hall record of 2,632 fans on September 30th, 2023 against No. 2 Nebraska and then again vs. No. 15 Purdue (2,725) on October 11th, 2023.

An average of 1,366 fans came to watch IU matches in Wilkinson Hall in 2022.

Indiana: Head Coach (2018-Present)

Indiana head coach Steve Aird recently completed his fifth season at the helm in 2022.

A two-time NCAA champion as an assistant coach at Penn State, Aird is an elite recruiter and has brought new energy into the Indiana volleyball program.

He helped land the program's first two Under Armour All-Americans in Emily Fitzner (2019) and Ramsey Gary (2022) and has proven to be an outstanding developer of talent at the collegiate level.

During the 2022 campaign, Aird helped lead the Hoosiers to a 16-16 record including a 9-11 finish in the Big Ten. The Hoosiers won nine conference matches for the first time since 2010 and finished eighth in the Big Ten, the highest team's finish since the conference expanded to 14 teams.

IU beat No. 5 Ohio State and No. 25 Michigan on the road, marking the first season in program history with multiple road victories over ranked teams. The win over the Buckeyes was the first over a top-five team on the road in program history and the second-highest ranked win in the team's history.

An average of 1,366 fans came to watch IU matches in Wilkinson Hall in 2022 and IU beat four conference teams on the road for the first time since 2009.

Under his guidance, setter Camryn Haworth earned First Team All-Big Ten Honors, the first Hoosier to do so since 2010. She was also named AVCA Northeast All-Region Honorable Mention and earned the title of AVCA National Player of the Week on Nov. 22.

Haworth and libero Paula Cerame both earned Big Ten Weekly Honors on Nov. 21 following a weekend that saw IU beat Northwestern and No. 5 Ohio State. During that weekend, Haworth also recorded the program's first triple-double since 2001.

Cerame broke the program's single season record for digs in a Big Ten season with 353. She also became the third athlete to score 500+ digs in a single season. The Hoosiers started five athletes with freshman or sophomore eligibility in the 2022 campaign and return six starters and 12 athletes from this year's roster.

During the 2021 campaign, the Hoosiers returned to a complete schedule following the shortened COVID-19 season of 2020-2021. Over the course of the 2021 calendar year, the Hoosiers played in 52 total matches. Aird helped guide IU to a season sweep of Rutgers in 2021.

The campaign also featured Breana Edwards breaking the 1,000-kill mark for her IU career and moving into 12th (1,267) on IU's all-time career list. The 2021 team featured impact performances from freshmen Camryn Haworth and Mady Saris as well as transfers Paula Cerame and Kaley Rammelsberg.

The 2020-2021 season featured a freshmen class, which ranked No. 15 in the country, the highest ranked class in program history. It included the Hoosiers second highest ranked individual recruit in program history in No. 32 Tommi Stockham and two Under Armour All-Americans. Indiana's roster in 2020-2021 featured nine total freshmen as the Hoosiers battled to a 5-15 record against the nation's best volleyball conference.

In the 2019 season, Aird guided the Hoosiers to an 11-2 start in non-conference action, including a win over No. 15 Kentucky in Lexington. The win over UK was the Hoosiers first win against Kentucky since 1996 and first ranked non-conference win since 1998.

Aird continued to build momentum for the Hoosiers as the program set an average attendance record of 1,809 fans per match, which ranked in the top-15 among all NCAA DI programs.

The 2019 campaign saw Aird help transition the Hoosiers into the $17-million-dollar, state-of-the-art Wilkinson Hall which houses the volleyball and wrestling teams.

His first season in Bloomington saw Aird led the Hoosiers to an overall record of 16-15 and 7-13 mark in Big Ten play. The Hoosiers swept Ohio State for the first time since 2008 and picked up a win over No. 14 Michigan.

Under Aird, junior middle blocker Deyshia Lofton earned All-Big Ten Second Team honors and sophomore libero Bayli Lebo set an Indiana record for single season digs with 525. The Hoosiers saw record crowds turnout for their matches and set a new average season attendance record for University Gym.

Before Indiana, Aird served as the head coach at Maryland from 2014-2017. His time at Maryland saw him inherit a program that not only went 13-19 and finished 13th in the Atlantic Coast Conference in 2013, but was also preparing the join arguably the nation's best volleyball conference - the Big Ten.

After winning just 10 matches overall and three in the Big Ten in his debut season, Aird quickly turned the Ter-rapins' fortunes around. His 18 wins in 2017 represented the program's most since 2010, while the seven conference victories were the most since joining the Big Ten.

Notable wins that fall came against eventual Elite Eight participant USC as well as NCAA qualifier Purdue.

"I am humbled and honored to accept the Head Coaching position at Indiana University. I believe Indiana Volleyball has a rightful place among the nation's elite and we will work tirelessly to make that a reality," Aird said. "I cannot thank Fred Glass and his staff enough for this opportunity and for their commitment to building an excellent program the right way. Brandy and I could not be more excited to be a part of the IU family and the Bloomington community."

Among Aird's greatest attributes is his ability to recruit. In 2016, Aird welcomed the nation's 16th ranked recruiting class to College Park, Md., and he followed that up with the program's first-ever top-10 class in 2017.

That infusion of talent not only helped elevate Maryland in the Big Ten standings, but also created a level of excitement that had been lacking. Six of the program's top-10 attendance marks came during Aird's four-year stint.

Before taking over at Maryland, Aird enjoyed highly-successful assistant coaching stints at Penn State (2007, 2012-13), Cincinnati (2005-07) and Auburn (2002-05). At Penn State, he helped the Nittany Lions to NCAA titles in both 2007 and 2013 along with a Final Four berth in 2012.

In addition to his success in the coaching ranks, Aird also served as the President and CMO of Complete Athlete Inc., from 2007-12, where he helped train and develop youth volleyball players. Many of his players went on to play at the D-I level, including programs such as Penn State, Stanford, Washington, Florida and Tennessee.

A native of London, Ontario, Canada, Aird was a four-year member of Penn State's men's volleyball program from 1997-01. He was a two-year captain and helped the Nittany Lions to three appearances in the Final Four.

Aird, who earned his bachelor's degree in Letters, Arts and Sciences from Penn State in 2001, is married to the former Brandy Wilson. The couple has two sons, Caelan and Padraic, and a daughter, Mackenzie.

ASSOCIATE COACH RACHEL MORRIS

Rachel Morris enters her second season with Indiana volleyball in 2023. She was promoted to associate coach in July of 2023 and also serves as the program's recruiting coordinator.

During the 2022 campaign, Morris helped lead the Hoosiers to a 16-16 record including a 9-11 finish in the Big Ten. The Hoosiers won nine conference matches for the first time since 2010 and finished eighth in the Big Ten, the highest team's finish since the conference expanded to 14 teams.

IU beat No. 5 Ohio State and No. 25 Michigan on the road, marking the first season in program history with multiple road victories over ranked teams. The win over the Buckeyes was the first over a top-five team on the road in program history and the second-highest ranked win in the team's history.

Morris worked directly with sophomore setter Camryn Haworth to help orchestrate an offense that saw four athletes record 200-plus digs on the season. Haworth was named First Team All-Big Ten and AVCA Northeast All-Region Honorable Mention for her contributions and also earned the nod as AVCA National Player of the Week and Big Ten Setter of the Week after a weekend that saw her score a triple-double and lead the Hoosiers to wins over No. 5 Ohio State and Northwestern.

Morris was named to the AVCA 30 Under Thirty list and was awarded with the AVCA Innovational award. She was also named AVCA Regional High School Coach of the Year.

ASSISTANT COACH KEVIN HODGE

Kevin Hodge was named an assistant coach for Indiana volleyball on July 6, 2023.

Hodge joins the IU program after working as the Director of Girls Indoor Recruiting at WAVE, California's premier club volleyball program, since 2015. He took on a variety of roles for the club, most notably being named 2019 National 17's Club Coach of the Year.

A graduate of Penn State, Hodge played four seasons Nittany Lion Men's Volleyball team from 1998-2002 where he was a teammate of Aird's. Hodge helped lead Penn State to four consecutive Final Four appearances and was named to the EIVA All-Tournament team in 2001.

Following his playing career, Hodge served three years as a volunteer assistant coach under legendary Penn State women's volleyball head coach Russ Rose. The Nittany Lions won three-straight Big Ten titles (2003-05) in those three seasons.

He would serve one year as an assistant coach in 2006 at the University of Cincinnati, overlapping with Aird once again in the Queen City. Hodge began his club coaching journey in 2007 with Team Z out of Cincinnati before moving out to Southern California.

ASSISTANT COACH BRETT AGNE

Brett Agne enters his third season with Indiana volleyball in 2023. He was promoted to Assistant Coach/Technical Coordinator on July 1, 2023 in accordance with new NCAA bylines allowing a third paid assistant for women's volleyball.

Before the 2022 campaign, Agne was elevated to the team's Director of Operations where he maintained his current on-court and off-the-court duties while continuing to play an integral role in the program's success.

In the fall 2021 season, he served as the program's Technical Coordinator. His main responsibilities included production of both staff and team scouting reports, facilitating individual and team film sessions, and the assembly of all individual and conference statistics. He also aided in multiple operational duties within the program. Agne joined the staff in the summer of 2021.

A graduate of Bowling Green in 2018, Agne got his start in the club game working extensively with Premier Volleyball Academy in Ohio. From 2019-2020, Agne served as the technical coordinator for the Toledo volleyball program.
