DISTANCE MEDLEY RELAY NCAA HISTORY

The Hoosiers have a long-standing history in the Distance Medley Relay at the NCAA level in this century, an event heavily emphasized by head coach Ron Helmer from 2008-2023.

He guided the IU men to 13 entries in the Distance Medley Relay at the national meet with 11 finishes inside the top-8. Twice runner-ups in 2011 and 2012 with Andy Bayer on anchor, the Hoosiers were a staple in the event under Helmer.

THE BOWERMAN

Derek Drouin - 2013

Olympic medalist and five-time NCAA Champion Derek Drouin became IU's first recipient of The Bowerman Award in 2013, Track and Field's most prestigious individual honor. The USTFCCA Indoor and Outdoor National Field Athlete of the Year in 2013, Drouin beat out Arizona's Lawi Lalang and UCLA's Julian Wruck for the honor at the ceremony in Orlando.

In 2013 he became the NCAA's first five-time NCAA Champion in the high jump, finishing undefeated in all nine collegiate high jump finals. He was named the Jesse Owens Big Ten Men's Athlete of the Year as the top athlete across all sports in the conference.

He was a seven-time Big Ten Champion, winning four high jump titles outdoors and three high jump titles indoors. Along the way, he became one of IU's most versatile athletes, competing in the heptathlon indoors, the javelin outdoors and open 400-meter hurdle races.

On the international level, Drouin would win a bronze medal at the 2012 London Olympics while still in school at Indiana. Four years later, he would win gold in the high jump at the 2016 Rio Olympics. He became the first Canadian male to win gold in a field event since the 1932 Summer Olympics. Additional medals came for Drouin at the 2013 World Championships in Moscow (bronze) and 2015 World Championships in Beijing (gold).

He owns personal bests of 2.40m (outdoors) and 2.35m (indoors) in the high jump while also holding world bests in the high jump portion of a heptathlon and decathlon. His mark of 2.36m/7-8.75 (outdoors) is still tied for No. 2 in NCAA history. He is No. 2 indoors in collegiate history at 2.35m/7-8.5. His jump of 2.38m/7-9.75 in August of 2013 is No. 2 on the all-dates collegiate list.

To this date, he remains the only Big Ten athlete to ever win The Bowerman. He and JuVaughn Harrison (LSU) are the only high jumpers to win the award on the men's side.
