GEORGE MASON

- The Patriots finished the 2023 season with an overall record of 36-27, including a mark of 13-10 in conference play. The 13 wins against league foes tied for second-most since the Patriots joined the league in 2014. Mason posted 16 wins in their inaugural season in the A-10 and again in 2018, and the Patriots won 13 league games in 2017 and 2022.
- The Patriots advanced to the NCAA Winston-Salem Regional Final, the first time in program history that Mason reached a regional final. The Patriots defeated Northeastern and Maryland to win two games in a regional for the first time in school history.
- Mason won 13 of its final 19 games of the regular season, with six of the victories by one run. The Patriots went on to post a 5-1 record at the Atlantic 10 Baseball Championships at The Diamond in Richmond, Va., including three elimination game victories, to claim the A-10 title for the second time in program history. Mason previously won the A-10 title in 2014, the program's first season in the conference.
- The Patriots posted a seven-game winning streak at home March 11-19 and a six game winning streak on the road May 6-16 during the season.
- Sophomore starter Chad Gartland was named Most Outstanding Performer of the A-10 tournament. Senior South Trimble, junior Kyle Menaker and sophomore Reece Woody were also selected to the A-10 All-Championship Team.
- Mason made its eighth NCAA Tournament appearance in 2023 (1985, 1988, 1992, 1993, 2004, 2009, 2014, 2023). In 2014, the Patriots won the Atlantic 10 title in their first year in the conference and advanced to the Houston Regional in the NCAA Tournament.
- The Patriots finished the season third in Division I in stolen bases (164 in 63 games), setting a new program record.
- Mason finished the year 11th nationally in hit by pitch (112 in 63 games). Catcher Connor Dykstra tied for first in the nation (hit 33 times in 59 games).

DOWN THE STRETCH

Mason won 13 of its final 19 games of the regular season, with six of the victories by one run. Including the Atlantic 10 Baseball Championship, the Patriots won 18 of their last 24 games before the NCAA Winston-Salem Regional.

ALL-CONFERENCE

George Mason sophomore starter Chad Gartland was named Atlantic 10 Pitcher of the Year and First Team All-Conference. Sophomore catcher Connor Dykstra was selected First Team All-Conference catcher, graduate student starter Ben Shields was named Second Team All-Conference pitcher and freshman outfielder James Quinn-Irons was selected to the All-Rookie Team.

A-10 BASEBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

The Patriots (35-24, 13-10 A10) went 5-1 at the 2023 Atlantic 10 Baseball Championship, including three elimination game victories to claim the title for the second time in program history.

The #6 Patriots defeated #3 Dayton, 5-4, in 11 innings in day one (May 23) and downed #2 Davidson, 15-11, on day two (May 25). After an off-day, Mason fell to #4 Saint Louis, 6-5 (May 26) and came back to beat #3 Dayton in an elimination game, 3-2 to advance to the Championship Final.

On Saturday, May 27, the Patriots beat #4 Saint Louis, 4-1 and 6-2, to win claim the tournament title at The Diamond in Richmond, Va.

Mason completed in the Atlantic 10 Championship for the fourth time in the last seven seasons and for the fifth time in program history. The Patriots won the A-10 title in their inaugural season in the conference in 2014.

NCAA TOURNAMENT

The Patriots made their eighth NCAA Tournament appearance (1985, 1988, 1992, 1993, 2004, 2009, 2014, 2023). Mason has played in the South Regional (1985), East Regional (1988, 1992), West Regional (1993), Charlottesville Regional (2004), Greenville Regional (2009), Houston Regional (2014) and Winston-Salem Regional (2023).

Mason defeated Northeastern and Maryland in the 2023 NCAA Winston-Salem Regionl, winning two games in a regional for the first time in program history.

30-SOMETHING

The Patriots reached the 30-win plateau for the first time since the 2014 season. Currently tied with the 2014 squad with 34 victories, one more win would give Mason its most wins since the 2009 season, when the Patriots went 42-14.

RUNNING WILD

The Patriots finished the season third in Division I in stolen bases (164 in 63 games), setting a new program record, eclipsing the school record that held for 21 years. The previous mark of 118 stolen bases was set during the 2002 season.

ROAD TRIPPING

The Patriots went 14-11 on the road during the regular season. The 14 victories away from home were the most since 2017 and tied for the most that Mason has won on the road since the 2006 season (done four times, in 2008, 2009, 2012, 2017).

The last time the Patriot won more than 14 road games was 2005 when the Patriots went 16-12 on the road.

This season, Mason had a six game road winning streak, May 6-16, with two wins over Fordam, a three-game sweep against George Washington and a midweek victory over Maryland Eastern Shore.

Shawn Camp enters his fifth season overall and first as head coach of George Mason baseball for the 2023 season.

In 2023, Camp guided the Patriots to a 36-27 overall record, including a mark of 13-10 against Atlantic 10 opponents in his first season as the skipper of the Patriots. Mason went 15-11 at home, 14-11 on the road and 7-5 in games played at a neutral site.

The sixth-seeded Patriots went 5-1 at the 2023 Atlantic 10 Baseball Championships held at The Diamond in Richmond, Va., including three elimination game victories to claim the league title for the second time in program history. Mason last won the A-10 title in its inaugural season in the conference in 2014.

Camp led Mason to its eighth NCAA Tournament appearance and first since 2014. The Patriots defeated Northeastern and Maryland in the Winston-Salem NCAA Regional and advanced to the Regional Final for the first time in program history. Mason won two games in one NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history.

The Patriots defeated the Huskies, 11-3, and downed the Terrapins, 11-10. The 11 runs against Maryland were the most that the Patriots have scored in a NCAA Tournament game in program history, eclipsing the previous high in the 1992 East Regional in a 10-2 win over Rider in Gainesville, Fla.

Starting pitcher Chad Gartland, reliever Owen Stewart, catcher Connor Dykstra and outfielder Alex Knapp were selected to the Winston-Salem Regional All-Tournament Team. Gartland was named Atlantic 10 Conference Pitcher of the Year and selected to the A-10 All-Championship Team.

Mason recorded 36 wins on the season, the most for the program since 2009. The Patriots also set a new program single-season records for stolen bases (164) and strikeouts (516). Starting pitcher Ben Shields finished the season tied for 31st in the nation in strikeouts (107). Among NCAA stolen base leaders, infielder/outfielder South Trimble tied for 27th (30) and outfielder Derek Wood tied for 31st (29).

The Mason pitching staff finished first in the Atlantic 10 Conference in ERA (5.02) and saves (15) while posting the lowest opponent batting average (.258) in school history. The Patriots pitching staff also set single-season program records for strikeouts (516) and strikeouts per nine innings (8.36). The team dropped the overall ERA from 6.44 in 2022 to 5.02 in 2023.

The Patriots won 13 of their final 19 games of the regular season in 2023, with six of the victories by one run. Including the NCAA Tournament, Mason won 20 of its last 26 games of the season.

Camp joined the Patriots as assistant/pitching coach for the 2020 and 2021 seasons, and was elevated to associate head coach for the 2022 season.

The Patriots finished the 2022 campaign with a 23-33 overall record and a 13-11 record in Atlantic 10 play. Mason qualified for the A-10 Baseball Championship and went on to defeat Rhode Island, 7-3, in the opening round.

Under Camp's direction, senior pitcher Jared Lyons became the 47th player in program history selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, when he was selected by the Cincinnati Reds in the 14th round of the 2022 MLB Draft.

The baseball team produced off the field as well, earning a 3.08 GPA for the 2021-22 academic year. Ten players made the Dean's List and 19 student-athletes earned the A-10 Commissioner's Award in Spring 2022.

Tyler Nelin joins the George Mason baseball staff for his first year as assistant coach for the 2024 season.

Nelin will be responsible for instructing the hitters, coaching the catchers and other defensive positions.

Nelin spent the last year and a half as an assistant coach at Lehigh University. As the hitting coach of the Mountain Hawks in 2023, Lehigh broke a school record for home runs (54) in a season and had the highest team batting average in program history (.298).

The Mountain Hawks finished the season with 504 hits, averaging 10 hits per game and scored 336 runs, averaging over six runs per game. Nelin guided three All-Patriot League selections, Casey Rother (First Team) and Dom Patrizi and Joe Gorla (Second Team).

Prior to his time at Lehigh, Nelin spent three years as a volunteer assistant (2018-21) and one year as a graduate assistant at George Mason (2022) while earning his Master's Degree in Sports Management.

Nelin was a member of the of the George Mason baseball program as a player from 2015-2018 and helped the club reach the Atlantic 10 Conference Championship Game his senior year.

In 200 games with 198 starts for the Patriots over his four-year career (2015-18) as a catcher/outfielder, Nelin finished with 211 hits, 19 home runs and 104 RBI. He recorded the 200th hit of his career against Towson on May 2, 2018 at Scherholz Park in Towson, Md.

The Virginia Beach, Va. native was selected Atlantic 10 All-Conference Second Team in 2017 and 2018.

Nelin ranks in the top-20 in program history in six categories. He is tied for second in hit by pitch (48), tied for fourth in fielding percentage (.989), ninth in starts (198), tied for 11th in games played (200), 12th in at-bats (732), 13th in plate appearances (854) and ranks 18th in hits (211).

Among program leaders, Nelin also finished his Mason career 16th in most putouts (683), 21st in doubles (40) and total bases (310), tied for 26th in home runs (19), 26th in walks (74), tied for 31st in runs scored (111) and 36th in RBI (104).

Selected to the Atlantic 10 All-Conference Second Team for the second straight year after the 2018 season, Nelin started 44 games and finished with a career-best .313 average while ranking third on the team in hits (52) and was fourth in doubles (10) his senior year.

In 2017, Nelin led the Patriots with a career-high 59 games played with 58 starts and finished the season with a .296 average, 10 home runs and 40 RBI. He posted career-highs with 64 hits, 10 home runs and 40 RBI. He led the team in hits (64), home runs (10), doubles (15), slugging percentage (.514) and total bases (111). Nelin's 15 doubles ranked second in the Atlantic 10 and he was also second in the conference in hit by pitch (15).

In 2016, Nelin played in 53 of 54 games with 53 starts and finished the season with a .254 batting average, four home runs and 20 RBI. He ranked second on the team in extra-base hits (12), walks (23) total hits (47) and total bases (67). In 2015, Nelin made 43 starts as a freshman and finished with a .291 batting average with five home runs and 27 RBI.

Evan Duhon joins the George Mason baseball staff for his first year as assistant coach for the 2024 season.

Before joining the Patriots, Duhon spent the last three seasons as an assistant coach at Queens University of Charlotte, N.C. During his time at Queens, Duhon worked with the hitters, infielders, outfielders and base running and was heavily involved in all aspects of recruiting.

While at Queens, Duhon helped the team transition from NCAA Division II to Division I for the 2023 season. The Royals won 17 games in their inaugural season in Division I.

In his second year at Queens in 2022, the Royals broke the school record for wins and made the conference tournament for the first time in program history.

Prior to Queens, Duhon spent five years on staff at the University of Virginia, serving as a student manager. He was heavily involved in the video program, which included creating scouting reports, analyzing opponent film and running video programs such as Trackman, Rapsodo, Synergy and SportsCode.

Duhon earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Classics in 2019 before completing his Masters of Education in Intercollegiate Athletic Administration in 2020.

Duhon is a New Orleans, La. native.

Kyle Darmstead, a Bristow, Va. native, joins the George Mason baseball staff for his first year as the Director of Baseball Operations for the 2024 season.

Before joining the Patriots, Darmstead gained three seasons of collegiate coaching experience at Springfield College in Massachusetts and with the Sanford Mainers in Maine. He also coached local high school baseball at Brentsville District in Virginia.

While at Springfield College, Darmstead was the graduate assistant as he earned his master's degree in Sport & Exercise Psychology. In addition, he served as the pitching coach for the Sanford Mariners in the New England Collegiate Baseball League (NECBL). During this time with the Mariners, Darmstead gained experience with TrackMan, Rapsodo, Synergy Technology, collegiate player development, recruiting, and mental skills training.

Darmstead completed his undergraduate at Christopher Newport University in Virginia in 2020 where he was a pitcher for the Captains from 2016-2020. He helped the team reach a number one national ranking and Christopher Newport hosted an NCAA Regional in 2019.
