QUICK HITS

» The Sycamores enter the game on a six-game winning streak following a 4-0 week that featured a midweek win over Purdue before taking all three MVC games this weekend against UIC. Indiana State took the 8-7 Tuesday night win over the Boilermakers, before improving to 5-1 in MVC play by sweeping the Flames.

» ISU took Friday's game, 10-6, before outlasting the Flames with a walk-off in the 11th inning to secure their 12th consecutive conference series in the 9-8 Saturday afternoon win. The Sycamores secured the weekend series sweep with a 4-1 win on Sunday afternoon at Bob Warn Field.

» Indiana State enters the Tuesday contest looking to extend their Big Ten winning streak dating back to March 28, 2023, against Purdue. ISU is 10-0 against the conference since that date with wins against Purdue (twice), Indiana (twice), Illinois (three times), Michigan State, and Iowa (twice). This season, the Sycamores are 4-0 against the Big Ten after topping Michigan State down in Port Charlotte, Fla., while defeating Illinois, Indiana, and Purdue at Bob Warn Field over the last three weeks.

» The Big Ten winning streak was extended this past Tuesday against Purdue as the Sycamores rallied back from an early 5-1 deficit with a six-run fifth inning in taking the 8-7 victory. Connor Hicks and Grant Magill both homered during the rally, while Parker Stinson added a home run in the contest to secure the win.

» Indiana State's six-game winning streak is their third streak of six-plus games in the 2024 season after winning seven in a row to start the year, while adding a seven-game streak from March 3-16 against Southern Miss, Florida A&M, Illinois, and Xavier.

» The Sycamores' success over the weekend raised Indiana State's team batting average to .285 from the plate paced by Listi (.379) and Hernandez (.376), while Randal Diaz (.308) is also hitting above the .300 mark for the season. Parker Stinson (.280), Pottinger (.278), Josue Urdaneta (.263), and Sears (.256) have all seen their batting averages rise following the start of Missouri Valley play.

» Indiana State has posted four double-digit hit games over their last five contests, while ISU has connected on 12 home runs over the last five contests. Mike Sears connected on four of those 12 home runs over this past weekend against UIC to raise his season-total to a Valley-leading 12 blasts on the year.

» Fifteen different Sycamore pitchers have combined to see time on the mound this season with Zach Davidson (1-1, 3.13 ERA) and Simon Gregersen (0-0, 3.26 ERA) both posting double-digit appearances. WP: Edmonson; LP: Risedorph; S: Davison
2B: INS - Sears;
HR: INS - Diaz, Hernandez, Stinson, Sears, Pottinger

» The Sycamores overcame an early 6-0 deficit scoring three runs in the third and fifth innings, before erupting for a seven-run sixth inning to win their second consecutive home game against the Hoosiers (11-10) dating back to last season.

» Indiana took the early lead taking advantage of a pair of Sycamore fielding miscues including a fly ball single that fell in the infield sparking a three-run second inning. Jake Stadler added a two-run single in the top of the third inning to give IU an early 6-0 lead.

» The Sycamores steadily chipped away at the IU advantage with Hernandez (two-run HR) and Stinson (solo HR) connecting on back-to-back home runs to get on the board in the bottom of the third inning. ISU tied the game up on Sears' three-run shot over the scoreboard in right center in the bottom of the fifth, before sending 10 batters to the plate in the sixth inning scoring seven runs highlighted by Sears' three-run double and Pottinger's two-run home run to go ahead 13-7.

» The run support benefited Edmonson (2-0) as the redshirt senior left-hander quelled the IU bats during the middle part of the game. Edmonson entered the game with two on, none out in the top of the third inning and gave up Stadler's two-run single before retiring the next three batters to escape the early jam.

» He retired six of seven batters at one point and ended his 4.0-inning stint on the mound retiring the final three IU hitters he faced before turning the ball over the Zach Davidson in the seventh.

» After ISU's seven-run frame in the sixth, Davidson took the mound in the top of the seventh and retired all nine batters he faced. The senior left-hander recorded a pair of strikeouts in recording his second save of the season.

» Dominic Listi, Hernandez, Stinson, and Sears all posted multi-hit games on Tuesday afternoon as the Sycamores connected on 13 hits in the win. Both Stinson and Hernandez were hit by two pitches apiece, while Sears posted his first three-hit game of 2024.

Scouting the Opposition
Indiana Hoosiers
» Indiana enters the week with a 15-14 overall record on the season after splitting the weekend series against Butler.

» IU spent several weeks ranked in the major Division I polls after playing an early challenging schedule featuring ranked contests against Duke, Coastal Carolina, Alabama, and Dallas Baptist over the first month.

» The Hoosiers picked up early wins over Coastal Carolina, a weekend sweep over Baylor, and Dallas Baptist, in addition to wins over Northern Kentucky and Troy.

» Indiana is scheduled to take on several Missouri Valley teams in the 2024 season having already competed against Illinois State, Belmont, and Indiana State.

» The Hoosiers have posted a 2-3 record overall against the MVC this year falling to both Illinois State and Indiana State in the midweek, while taking two of three from Belmont over the March 15-17 weekend.

» Devin Taylor (.382) and Nick Mitchell (.341) are Indiana's top hitters in the 2024 season with Taylor pacing the Hoosiers with 42 hits, including a team-high six home runs.

» Tyler Cerny (.333) is second on IU with 41 hits while adding 11 doubles and tying for the team lead with 32 RBIs. Carter Mathison has added six home runs on the year.

» Twenty-one different IU arms have seen time on the mound this season as the Hoosiers have posted a 7.05 ERA over 249.0 innings.

» Indiana has posted a 280:130 strikeout-to-walk ratio on the season while allowing opponents to hit .267 from the plate.

Series History
» Indiana leads the all-time series 66-49-1 dating back to the inaugural contest back in 1895.

» The Sycamores have taken each of the last two contests against the Hoosiers with both coming in Terre Haute back last season and back on March 19. Four of the last five contests dating back to 2019 have occurred at Bob Warn Field.

» The Sycamores' pair of wins snapped a six-game Indiana winning streak in the series dating back to the 2017 season.

» Indiana State's last win in Bloomington came back in the 2017 season on March 29 as ISU took the 7-3 win over the Hoosiers.

» The Sycamores jumped ahead early taking the 7-1 lead after the fourth inning and coasted to the win over the Hoosiers in ISU's last win in Bloomington. Tyler Friis, Tony Rosselli, Cody Gardner, and C.J. Huntley all posted multi-hit efforts, while Ethan Larrison struck out seven Hoosiers over a 3.1-inning relief stint in the win.

HOME SWEET HOME // BOB WARN FIELD (2,000)

The base for one of the Midwest's finest Division I collegiate baseball programs, Bob Warn Field at Sycamore Stadium, has undergone a number of changes over the past several years. The installation of a FieldTurf infield, a new locker room and coaches' offices, the construction of a new seating area with both chairback and bleacher seats and a larger press box and parking lot highlight the renovation of the entire facility.

On the field, the Sycamores play on a FieldTurf infield and natural grass outfield, providing the team with an environment that allows for competition when weather conditions would force other facilities to stop play. New dugouts and bullpen mounds have also been installed.

Off the field, Indiana State provides numerous facilities to aid the baseball team in their success, including: a new locker room and coaches offices at Sycamore Stadium, a total of 2,000 chairback and bleacher seats for fans, a press box that allows for multiple radio broadcasts for Indiana State and their visitors, expanded parking and an indoor facility located two blocks from the playing field.

Experience Across the Infield

Indiana State returns a breadth of experience across the infield in the 2024 season as the Sycamores return three everyday starters at second base, third base, and shortstop. ISU returns a combined 354 starts across the infield this season with Josue Urdaneta (160), Randal Diaz (106), and Mike Sears (88) all holding down their positions since the 2022 season. Continuing the experience behind the plate, catcher Grant Magill enters the year with 133 career starts in the Sycamore Blue & White.

Bullpen Aces

The strength of the Indiana State bullpen returns as the Sycamores pitching staff remained mostly intact on the backend heading into the 2024 season. Indiana State featured 15 relievers in 2023 that combined to post an 18-7 record, a 4.03 ERA, and a 268-103 strikeout-to-walk ratio.

Returning to lead the bullpen includes left-handed relief ace Zach Davidson (4-0, 2.01 ERA) and All-MVC right-hander Cameron Holycross (4-1, 2.16 ERA), while multiple arms remain in the mix for Indiana State at both the starting and relief spots through the opening weeks of the season.

The Sycamore bullpen was solid in the 2023 season posting nine series with a sub-4.00 ERA on the year including allowing just nine earned runs over the 10 postseason games (27.0 innings).

Returners to the Field

Twenty-four Sycamores return to the roster in the 2024 season following last year's MVC regular season and tournament championship run, as well as the NCAA Regional and NCAA Super Regional. The Sycamores return 11 pitchers that saw action last season, while 13 positional players also return to the mix in 2024.

Highlighting the Sycamore returners include 2023 starters across the field in Grant Magill (C), Josue Urdaneta (2B), Mike Sears (3B), Randal Diaz (SS), Adam Pottinger (OF), and Luis Hernandez (DH). The Sycamores also return multiple players with key moments in the 2023 season including infielders Joe Kido, Jorge Pereira, and Henry Brown, while outfielders Parker Stinson, Dom Krupinski, Connor Hicks, and catcher Alex Marx all shone in brief appearances on the field.

Returning to the mound in the 2024 season include All-Conference performers Jared Spencer (LHP) and Cameron Holycross (RHP), while Brenny Cutts, Cam Edmonson, Simon Gregersen, Zach Davidson, and Jacob Pruitt all sat among the plethora of weapons that were utilized by ISU in the season. Additional relievers back to work for ISU this spring include Kyle Cortner, Cole Gilley, Aaron Moss, and Brayden Lybarger as the Sycamores continue to build their depth.

Newcomers to the Sycamore Way

Sixteen new faces will dot the Indiana State lineup and pitching rotation heading into the 2024 season as the Sycamores look to replace long-time stalwarts in the lineup Keegan Watson, Miguel Rivera, and Seth Gergely, as well as weekend starters Matt Jachec, Connor Fenlong, and Lane Miller.

The Sycamores blended a class of transfers and freshman to the incoming class looking to infuse youth with experience as they prepare to defend the MVC crown.

The pitching staff was bolstered by a trio of Power 5 arms with Matt Parenteau (Ole Miss), Adam Berghorst (Michigan State), and Luke Hayden (Indiana) all entering the mix for opportunities right away. The right-handed blend of power and control on the mound will be something to watch from the trio as ISU looks to replace the starting rotation that went a combined 25-6 on the mound over 37 starts in 2024.

Powering Up

Mike Sears continues to be THE power hitter for the Sycamore lineup as the ISU third baseman has posted five multi-homer games over the last two seasons. He's the first player since former ISU slugger Dane Giesler posted two multi-homer games in both the 2017 and 2018 seasons.

The Sycamore slugger homered twice in three separate games in 2023 coming against Valparaiso on March 26, twice at UIC on April 2, and two more on May 9 against Ball State. He went deep for the first time in 2024 driving in six RBIs among his two home runs against FAMU on March 8.

He became the first ISU player in the Mitch Hannahs coaching era to post three multi-homer games in the same season dating to 2014.

Head coach Mitch Hannahs enters his 11th season at the helm of the Indiana State baseball program after returning to his alma mater in 2013. Hannahs, who is one of the most decorated student-athletes in program history, entered the Indiana State Hall of Fame in 2010. Overall, Hannahs has been a part of eight of the program's 12 trips to the NCAA Postseason Tournament as a player or coach.

Since taking over the program in 2013, Hannahs has led the Sycamores to 311 wins, four NCAA Tournament appearances, the first Super Regional appearance in program history, as well as hosting and winning the Terre Haute Regional. He sits second all-time in career wins behind legendary head coach and ISU Hall of Famer Bob Warn who guided the program to 1,070 wins from 1976-2006.

Hannahs was named the 2023 ABCA/ATEC NCAA Division I Midwest Region Coach of the Year as announced by the American Baseball Coaches Association and ATEC. The Sycamore skipper received the honor for the first time after guiding the Sycamores to one of the best seasons in program history. The Sycamores won the 2023 Missouri Valley Conference regular season and tournament championships, hosted their first-ever NCAA regional, won the Terre Haute Regional, and advanced the first NCAA Super Regional in program history. For his efforts, Hannahs was voted as the league's Dan Callahan Coach of the Year by his peers for the first time in his career.

In 2023, the Sycamores won 45 games; the most in the Hannahs coaching era and set a new program record for Missouri Valley wins with 24. ISU won every MVC weekend series for the first time in program history.

The Sycamores advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the 12th time in program history and third in the last four seasons in 2023. ISU was ranked in all six major NCAA baseball polls and posted a top-10 RPI heading into the postseason. With a mantra of playing anyone, any time, and any place, the Sycamores headed into the postseason as one of the nation's hottest teams, winning 30 of their final 33 regular season games, including nonconference victories over Vanderbilt, Indiana, Purdue, Ball State, and Illinois.

ISU won the 2023 MVC Tournament in front of their home fans at Bob Warn Field, clinching the program's first tournament championship since 2019 and eighth in program history. The regular season and conference tournament success led to Indiana State earning the No. 14 national seed in the 2023 NCAA Tournament and the right to host an NCAA Regional for the first time in program history.

Indiana State continued its momentum in the NCAA Tournament as ISU topped Wright State and Iowa (twice) over the June 2-4 weekend on the way to winning just the program's second NCAA Regional title in school history and first since 1986. The Sycamores advanced to the Super Regional round for the first time in program history since the NCAA Tournament format was changed back in 1999. ISU's season ended in Fort Worth after falling twice to TCU at Lupton Stadium.

The Sycamores earned back-to-back trips to the NCAA Tournament after picking up an at-large bid in 2021. Hannahs led the squad to a 31-21 record, including 21 wins away from home. ISU traveled to Nashville as the No. 3 seed at the Vanderbilt Regional, picking up a victory against Presbyterian in an elimination contest. Jeremy Guerrero was named Pitcher of the Year – the first time a Sycamore has earned the award in program history – while Aaron Beck earned Newcomer of the Year accolades marking consecutive years that an Indiana State student-athlete has earned the honor. Guerrero finished the season 10-1 with a 2.08 ERA while earning five All-American honors. Hannahs also saw longtime catcher Max Wright sign a free agent deal with the San Francisco Giants following the postseason run.

2019 served as a milestone year for Hannahs and the Sycamores. ISU picked up its 10th NCAA Tournament appearance after securing the No. 2 seed at the Nashville Regional following Missouri Valley Conference Tournament Championship – the first in over 20 years for the program. After knocking off both McNeese and Ohio State, the Sycamores advanced to the regional final against No. 1 ranked Vanderbilt, falling to the eventual National Champion Commodores. Third baseman Jake Means was named the MVC Defensive Player of the Year while starting pitcher Collin Liberatore earned Newcomer of the Year honors from The Valley. Five Sycamores were tabbed MVC Scholar-Athletes while catcher Max Wright picked up CoSIDA Academic All-America accolades. Clay Dungan, Triston Polley and Jake Means were each selected in the MLB Draft.

In his first season at the helm, Hannahs led the Sycamores to a 35-18 overall record and 14-7 in the Missouri Valley while earning an at-large bid into the NCAA tournament. The Sycamores were placed in the Bloomington Regional, falling to Stanford and Youngstown State. Infielder Tyler Wampler pitcher Ryan Keaffaber earned MVC postseason honors.

Hannahs is four-year letterwinner from 1986-89. He finished his career on the diamond with a .376 batting average, 274 hits, 34 doubles, 23 triples, 11 home runs, 220 runs scored, 138 runs batted in and 77 stolen bases. An American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) and Baseball America All-American in 1989, Hannahs led the team with a .428 batting average, 101 hits and 76 runs scored in his senior season while the Sycamores claimed the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament championship. With Hannahs on the diamond from 1986-89, Indiana State posted 172 victories and made trips to the NCAA Tournament in 1986, 1987 and 1989, including the 1986 College World Series team – the lone trip to the CWS in program history.

Following his collegiate career, Hannahs was selected by the Milwaukee Brewers in the 16th round of the 1989 Major League Baseball Draft. He went on to play three seasons in the minor leagues from 1989 to 1991 where he compiled a .306 batting average with 132 hits in 127 career games played.

He returned to Terre Haute in 1995 to serve as an assistant coach for Bob Warn. He worked as the hitting and infield coach from 1995 to 1999 and was the Sycamores' coach for pitchers and catchers from 1999 to 2001. He oversaw the development of several potential major league pitchers including Mitch Stetter, Joe Thatcher, Matt Zaleski, Alex Graman, and Aric LeClaire. Career Notes with Michigan State Football: Three-time Academic All-Big Ten selection ... Talented, two-sport player, who also played on the Michigan State football team for three seasons (2019-21), was a tight end and defensive end, seeing action in five games, including the Spartans' Pinstripe Bowl victory in 2019, playing in Yankee Stadium ... The last Spartan to play games for both the football and baseball teams at the same time appears to be Duane Young in 1990 before the tight end went on to spend six seasons in the NFL ... Played in six games of 2021 football season to earn his second letter, before missing remainder of season with an injury.

2023: Earned Academic All-Big Ten recognition ... Made 12 appearances with eight starts, posting a 1-1 record with a 4.94 ERA, with 36 Ks and 23 BB in 31.0 IP ... Fired career-high 11 strikeouts in 6.0 IP vs. Western Carolina (March 11) in Greenville, S.C., more than doubling his previous career-best of five Ks, most recently done in his last outing on March 6 vs. Air Force, and first done on March 27, 2021 vs. Indiana ... The 11 strikeouts was the first MSU pitcher with 10 or more Ks since teammate Nick Powers rang up 10 strikeouts against the same Western Carolina and almost a year to the day on March 12, 2022
