NOTES AND NUGGETS

WHERE WE ARE ...

- ▶ Maryland Baseball continues Big Ten play this weekend as they welcome the Indiana Hoosiers to Bob "Turtle" Smith Stadium. The Terrapins enter the weekend in the middle of the pack in the conference at 3-3 after taking their opening series against Michigan State and dropping their road conference tilt with Michigan. All three games of the series will be streamed on B1G+ and air the the Maryland Baseball Network.
- ▶ Maryland (21-8, 3-3 B1G) enters this weekend series after picking up a walk-off win over UMBC on Wednesday. The walk-off was the third for the Terps in the last two weeks, which also brought their record in one-run games to 8-1. The Terps got off to a 7-0 lead after the first two innings, but couldn't contain the UMBC offense who were able to tie it at eight apiece in the sixth inning. UMBC would add four runs in the top of the seventh to take a 12-8 advantage. The Terrapins scored five combined runs in the eighth and ninth innings, the biggest coming on Sam Hojnar's two-run single in the ninth to secure the win for the Terps. Alex Walsh got his first win after the senior twirled 2.2 innings of scoreless, no-hit ball and struck out three batters.
- ▶ The Terrapins and the Hoosiers have met 23 times in the series, with the Hoosiers holding the slight advantage 12-11. The two teams last met during the 2023 season, with the Terps sweeping the weekend series at Indiana.
- ▶ Indiana (16-14, 1-2 B1G) comes into the series after taking down No. 17 Indiana State in the midweek by a score of 16-7. After falling behind early 6-0, the Hoosiers stormed back with a six-run bottom of the fourth inning to tie the game. Two innings later the Hoosiers offense would go off for another six-run inning in the sixth. The Hoosiers added three in the seventh and a run in the eighth to finish off the win. Devin Taylor leads the Hoosiers with a .377 batting average, and pairs that with six home runs and 25 RBI. Carter Mathison leads the Hoosiers with seven home runs on the year, while Tyler Cerny leads the team with 36 RBI which also leads the Big Ten. The pitching staff is led in ERA by Jacob Vogel, who comes into the weekend with a 1.08 ERA. The team is led in win by Ethan Phillips who has four wins on the year.

BERRIER'S STRONG START OUT OF THE PEN

- ▶ Transfer righty Logan Berrier has been one of the most effective relievers not only on the Terps' staff, but also in the country. The Las Vegas native currently holds a 6-0 record with a 2.31 ERA, one save, and 22 strikeouts over 23.1 innings.
- ▶ Berrier's six wins early on in the 2024 season are currently tied for the second most wins in Division I. The current leader in the country is UNC right-hander Matthew Matthijs who has 11.
- ▶ Berrier's 6-0 start marks the second consecutive year a first-year transfer pitcher began their Terrapins career with a 6-0 record. Kenny Lippman, who transferred from D-III Denison University, began the 2023 season with a 6-0 record in his first year with the Terps and finished the campaign with an 8-1 record.

21-8 (.724) • 1st Season

Matt Swope '03, who has been associated with Maryland baseball for more than two decades was named head coach of the Terrapins by Damon Evans, Barry P. Gossett Director of Athletics on June 12, 2023. Swope has been a part of the Maryland baseball staff for the past 11 seasons as the Terrapins advanced to six NCAA Regionals and two Super Regionals. Maryland won back-to-back Big Ten Championships in the last two seasons and won its first Big Ten Tournament Championship this past season, with Swope serving as associate head coach. He is the ninth head coach in the 132-year history of Maryland baseball as he replaces Rob Vaughn, who was hired at the University of Alabama.

Swope is a native of New Carrollton, Maryland, and a graduate of DeMatha Catholic High School. He becomes the first Maryland baseball head coach to lead his alma mater since Tom Bradley '72 (head coach from 1991-2000), who recruited Swope to Maryland in 1998. As a player and staff member, Swope has been a part of 461 victories as a Terp.

Swope has served as associate head coach of the Terps since 2022 as Maryland has had unprecedented success on the diamond. Maryland combined to win 90 games over the last two seasons, the two winningest seasons in program history as the Terps went 48-14 in 2022 and 42-21 in 2023, in winning Big Ten Championships and qualifying for the NCAA Regionals in both seasons. Overall, Swope has been a part of the six winningest seasons in program history (2002, 2014, 2015, 2017, 2022, and 2023).

Between 2022 and 2023, the Maryland offense shattered numerous program records under Swope's direction. The Terps set records for most home runs (137), most hits (684), most runs (578), most RBIs (552), highest slugging percentage (.564), and most walks (385). Maryland became the first school in more than 30 years with outright back-to-back Big Ten Players of the Year in Chris Alleyne (2022) and Matt Shaw (2023).

In the 2023 season, Nick Lorusso set the school single-season records for home runs (26), RBI (105) and hits (100) becoming the first player in Division I baseball to drive in 100 runs in a season in 20 years. Shaw and Lorusso each broke the school records for career home runs and RBI. Luke Shliger broke Swope's 20-year record (181) for the most runs scored in a single season with 189.

Maryland enters the 2024 season having won 22 consecutive Big Ten series, dating back to the middle of the 2021 season.

During Swope's tenure on the Maryland staff since 2013, 34 Terps have been drafted, including 12 selections in the Top 10 rounds and more to come this summer in the 2023 MLB Draft.

Swope served as an assistant coach with the Terps from 2017-22 and director of operations from 2013-17. Swope helped overhaul the Maryland baseball brand in his time as director of operations, managing a number of areas including the Terps' budget, fundraising, scheduling, travel logistics, team events, compliance, social media, equipment, and apparel. He was directly involved with
