Thirty-Five Players See Action for Wolverines

This season, Michigan has a roster of 38 with 12 returners, 7 transfers and 19 freshmen and 35 have seen action this season. All 12 returners (1 Grad, 5 Seniors, 1 Junior and five freshman) have all made appearances this season led by Mitch Voit, Jacob Denner and Kurt Barr. All seven transfers (three juniors, four grad) have played with six making big impacts. Kyle Darnedde and Stephen Hurstich have played in all 53 games. 16 freshmen made their collegiate debuts. Collin Priest leads the way with 40 appearances.

Consistency in Lineup found as Conference Play Draws to Close

After a lot of shuffling and different trials, Coach Smith has found a lineup and defensive setup. Will Rogers serves as the team's starting catcher and has hit 7th when he starts. Brock Leitgeb serves as the backup and bats 9th if he starts. At first, it has been a rotation of three players with Mitch Voit, Collin Priest and Joe Longo all getting recent action at the bag, Priest and Longo have also been serving as DH along side Dylan Stanton who splits the last OF spot with Voit and Longo most days. The rest of the outfield has been Stephen Hurstich who has 44 games straight in the outfield and has hit 3rd for 41 straight. Since his return, Jonathan Kim has played CF and batted leadoff. The rest of the infield has been consistent for most of the season with Mack Timbrook playing 15 straight at 2B, Cole Caruso playing 28 straight at third and Kyle Darnedde playing every game at shortstop. The rest of the lineup has been Voit hitting second in eight straight games with Priest or Longo in cleanup. Caruso has hit fifth recently with Stanton or Longo in sixth. If Rogers starts, Timbrook and Darnedde hit eight and nine or hit seven and eight if Leitgeb starts.

Kim Returns To Lineup, Doesn't Miss A Step

After missing 24 games due to injury, Jonathan Kim returned to action in the Long Beach State series as a defensive sub and reached on a bunt single in his first at-bat back as a pinch hitter. He started in the Kent State midweek game before starting all three games in center field against MSU. Against MSU, Kim reached in all three games, tallying six hits, three runs and two RBIs. Since his return he is hitting .286 with nine runs and five RBIs. On the season, he is hitting .298 with five homers.

Timbrook Leads Team In Conference Play

Mack Timbrook is slashing .385/.443/.551 through 21 games of conference play. His .385 average ranks eighth in the conference among players with at least 50 at-bats. He had a strong week at the plate with six hits, three RBIs and one run against Toledo and OSU and continued it against MSU with three extra base hits and added two hits against the Boilermakers. This season, he has set a new career-high with five RBIs in a game against EMU. On the season, he is now leading the team hitting .320 and has raised his average by 120 points since Big Ten play (25 games).

Priest Strong Weekend vs. Purdue Earns B1G Honors

Collin Priest had a huge weekend and hit .545 with a 1.091 slugging percentage. He tallied four extra-base hits including three in the win on Saturday for a new career high. In the Saturday win, he also set new career highs in doubles (2) and hits (4) in one game. He added a home run in the midweek contest against CMU to bring his season total up to eight which is fourth all-time by a freshman in U-M history since 1960. On the season, Priest is up to a .287 batting average. Priest added three hits and two runs in the mid-week win over Akron.

Head Coach Tracy Smith
2nd Year
Miami (Ohio) '89
Career W-L: 862-664-1
Michigan W-L: 57-52

Tracy Smith enters his second year as head coach for the Wolverines. Smith led the Wolverines to a 28-28 record in his first season and finished 4th in the Big Ten Tournament. Four Wolverines earned selections to All-Big Ten teams, including Pitcher of the Year Connor O'Halloran. Smith also worked with Mitch Voit who collected multiple Freshman All-American honors.

Smith comes to Ann Arbor with 25 years of head coaching experience and 805 victories while producing 90 MLB Draft picks, including seven first-rounders and seven USA Baseball Collegiate National Team selections. One of just eight coaches all-time to bring three different Division I schools to the NCAA Tournament, Smith most recently led the Arizona State University baseball program between 2015-21 and advanced the Sun Devils to four NCAA Regional appearances in six seasons.

Smith earned National Coach of the Year and Big Ten Coach of the Year honors in 2013 after leading Indiana to the school's only Men's College World Series appearance in a 49-win campaign. The Hoosiers followed that performance with 44 victories in 2014 before Smith moved west to ASU. Before his time at Indiana, Smith led his alma mater, Miami University (Ohio), for nine seasons.

At Arizona State, Smith signed the nation's top recruiting class in 2016, including eight players drafted by the Major League out of high school. His 2017 class was also rated in the Top-5 nationally and was the No. 1 class in the West region.

Among the 90 MLB Draft selections developed under Smith, a staggering 58 of them have come over his past eight seasons, including the No. 1 overall pick of the 2020 MLB Draft, Spencer Torkelson, two first-rounders in 2019 and 2020 (Hunter Bishop and Alika Williams, respectively), and the fourth overall pick in 2014 in Kyle Schwarber. In addition, three other first-round selections played under Smith's tutelage in 2009 in Eric Arnett, Josh Phegley, and Matt Bashore.

Torkelson, already playing with the Tigers, was a two-time Golden Spikes Award semifinalist, given annually to the top player in college baseball. He was a unanimous All-America selection as both a freshman and sophomore and became the first Pac-12 player in history to be crowned the league home run champion in three consecutive seasons.

Despite the 2020 MLB Draft being shortened to five rounds from 40 due to the fallout from COVID-19, the Sun Devils made history as ASU's five draft selections through the first four rounds marked a program record. The five selections in the 2020 MLB Draft were the most of any program. In addition, it was ASU's third consecutive season with five draft picks and the fourth season in the last five years with the total.

In guiding Indiana to consecutive 40-win seasons in his final two campaigns in Bloomington, Smith secured back-to-back Big Ten championships for the first time in school history. The Hoosier's title in 2013 was the school's first since 1949 and its first outright title since 1932 en route to the No. 4 national seed, the first national seed in Big Ten history.

Smith mentored two Big Ten Players of the Year, three Big Ten Pitchers of the Year, and a pair of Big Ten Freshman of the Year in his time at Indiana.

In nine years at Miami (Ohio), Smith compiled eight consecutive 30-win seasons, two NCAA Regional appearances, and advanced to the Mid-American Conference Tournament finals six times.

He began his coaching career as head coach at Miami University-Middletown in 1990, served as an assistant coach at Miami (Ohio) from 1993-94, and was the pitching coach at Indiana from 1995-96.

Smith was a four-year letterwinner as a pitcher and infielder at Miami (Ohio) before playing three seasons in the Chicago Cubs organization.

Smith graduated from Miami (Ohio) in 1989 with a bachelor's degree in education before completing a master's degree in sport organization from the school in 1992.

A native of Kentland, Indiana, Smith and his wife, Jaime, have three sons, Casey, Ty, and Jack.
