DARIAN DEVRIES

HEAD COACH
FIRST YEAR AT IU / EIGHTH YEAR OVERALL

Darian DeVries was named Indiana Men's Basketball's 31st head coach on March 19, 2025. The Aplington, Iowa, native arrived in Bloomington with nearly 25 years of Division I coaching experience, including seven years as a head coach of Drake (2018-24) and West Virginia (2024-25). He advanced to the NCAA Tournament three of his final four seasons with Drake.

In his lone season at West Virginia the Mountaineers improved its previous season's win total by 10 games to an overall record of 19-13 and a 10-10 mark in Big XII games. WVU earned six Quad 1 victories, 13 wins over NET Top 100 programs, and four triumphs over ranked opponents.

West Virginia played the final 24 games of the season without two-time Larry Bird Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Year, Tucker DeVries, who was lost for the season with an injury. The Mountaineers held a record of 6-2 with wins over No. 3 Gonzaga and No. 24 Arizona in the Battle 4 Atlantis at the time of the injury. WVU climbed as high as No. 21 in the Associated Press Top 25 (Week 10).

Under his guidance, senior guard Javon Small became the fourth Mountaineer in program history to be named to the All-Big 12 First Team. The Fort Wayne, Ind., native tied for the league lead with 18.5 points per game, was third in free throw percentage (88.1%), third in assists per game (5.6), fourth in 3-point percentage (35.3%), fourth in 3-point field goals per game (2.5), ninth in assist-to-turnover ratio (+2.1), and 12th in steals per game (1.6).

DeVries posted a record of 150-55 (73.2 winning percentage) at Drake. His final four seasons with the Bulldogs saw the program secure 108 wins (27 wins per season) to pair with three NCAA Tournament trips. He won 70.5% (79-33) of his Missouri Valley Conference games and claimed three MVC titles. He led Drake to six of the program's 11 20-wins in program history before leaving for West Virginia.

He inherited a program that had been to one NCAA Tournament in the previous 47 years, had five 20-win seasons in its 112-year history, and was a combined 40-87 (31.5%) in the six years prior to his arrival. He immediately turned the Missouri Valley Conference program's fortunes around, going 24-10 overall in year one and tying for the Missouri Valley Conference regular season championship. He won 20-plus games in all six seasons in Des Moines, including 25-plus victories in each of his final four seasons with the Bulldogs.

In 2023-24, DeVries led Drake to a 28-7 record, capping the season with a MVC Tournament title and the Bulldogs' third NCAA Tournament appearance in the last four years. Drake's 28 victories were its most since recording 28 in 2008.

DeVries, a two-time MVC Coach of the Year (2019 and 2021), was a finalist for the 2023-24 Hugh Durham National Coach of the Year Award, given annually to the top mid-major head coach in college basketball.

He led the Bulldogs back to the NCAA Tournament in 2022-23 and finished with a 27-8 record. Drake captured the 2023 MVC Tournament title for the first time under DeVries.

In his third year, DeVries led Drake to an 18-0 start and an AP Top 25 appearance. Despite losing two of his top players to injury, he led Drake to its first NCAA Tournament bid in 13 years, and its first NCAA Tournament win in 50 years over Wichita State. He was named MVC Coach of the Year for the second time in three years. Drake finished the season with a 26-5 record.

DeVries made history in his second season at Drake, becoming the first coach to lead an eight seed to a win over the top seed in the MVC Tournament, downing Northern Iowa, 77-56. The 2020 postseason was canceled after the UNI victory due to COVID-19. His Bulldogs won 20 games, marking the first time since 1971 the program had won 20-or-more games in consecutive seasons.

In his first season as head coach at Drake, DeVries led the Bulldogs to a 24-10 record after inheriting a team with the second-fewest returning letterwinners in the nation. He led the Bulldogs to their first regular season MVC title since 2008 and the program's 12th all-time postseason appearance, despite losing a potential MVC Player of the Year candidate to a season-ending knee injury in the first game of conference play. In his first season as a head coach, he was named MVC Coach of the Year and received the Hugh Durham National Coach of the Year Award.

Prior to Drake, DeVries was an assistant coach at Creighton for 17 years under Greg McDermott and Dana Altman. He joined Creighton as a graduate manager and spent 20 years at Creighton. During his time there, he was part of 19 postseason appearances and 12 NCAA Tournament bids. Creighton was 460-211 overall and 231-129 in conference games during DeVries' tenure at Creighton.

DeVries is a 1998 graduate of Northern Iowa, where he played for coach Eldon Miller and ranks 31st all-time in career scoring with 1,084 points. He was a two-time MVC Scholar-Athlete Team selection and two-time team captain. DeVries led the Panthers in 3-point shooting for three seasons and converted on 44 percent of his attempts as a senior with 3.1 assists per game.

A native of Aplington, Iowa, DeVries attended Aplington-Parkersburg High and was inducted into the Iowa High School Athletic Association (IHSAA) Hall of Fame in 2015.

He is the oldest of five siblings. His brother, Jared, was an All-American on the Iowa football team and played for the Detroit Lions for 12 seasons. Another brother, Dusty, also played football at Iowa, while his youngest brother, Jay, played football at Wartburg College. His sister, Jodi, was an All-MVC Second-Team selection in volleyball at Northern Iowa.

DeVries and his wife, Ashley, have a son, Tucker, and a daughter, Tatum. Tucker recently became the ninth-ever player and first since Doug McDermott to win the Larry Bird MVC Player of the Year trophy in back-to-back seasons while playing at Drake. He was also named an Associated Press All-America Honorable Mention selection in 2023-24.

KENNY JOHNSON

ASSISTANT COACH
THIRD YEAR AT IU / 12TH YEAR OVERALL

Kenny Johnson was named Assistant Coach for the Hoosiers on May 27, 2025. He brings over a decade of Division I coaching experience with stops in the ACC, Big East, and Big Ten conferences to his second stint with Indiana.

BEFORE BLOOMINGTON

Johnson spent the 2024-25 season as an assistant coach for Ed Cooley at Georgetown. The Hoyas won 18 games and advanced to the semifinals of the inaugural College Basketball Crown Tournament. He helped develop 2025 NBA Draft picks Thomas Sorber and Micah Peavy. Georgetown brought in the 17th ranked recruiting class in the country in the offseason, according to 247Sports.

Prior to his stint on the Hilltop, Johnson spent two seasons (2022-24) as an assistant coach at Rhode Island under Archie Miller. He spent a pair of seasons (2020-22) as head coach and athletic director at National Christian Academy. Before jumping to the prep ranks, he spent a couple seasons (2018-20) as an assistant coach at LaSalle on the staff of head coach Ashley Howard. Johnson served as an assistant coach (2014-16) and associate head coach (2016-17) at Louisville under Hall of Fame head coach Rick Pitino. The Cardinals went 75-26 overall and 36-18 in the ACC during his three-year run. U of L reached the NCAA Tournament twice, including a run to the Elite Eight in 2015.

During his first stint with the Hoosiers (2012-14), Johnson was an assistant coach under head coach Tom Crean. Indiana went 46-22 overall and 21-15 in the Big Ten. IU won the Big Ten Championship and earned the No. 1 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament during the 2012-13 season. The Hoosiers brought in top 20 recruiting classes in each season. The Oxon Hill, Md., native began his college coaching career as an assistant coach at Towson (2011-12) under head coach Pat Skerry. Johnson helped the Tigers put together a top five Mid-Major recruiting class.

He began his coaching career in 2002 as the associate head coach at Eleanor Roosevelt High School while eventually becoming the associate head coach at St. Paul VI Catholic High School for four years (2007-11).

While a high school coach, Johnson also served more than six years as a director and head of travel and logistics for the nationally recognized Nike Team Takeover AAU organization and was the head coach of its 16 and under age group during that stint. The program produced more than 53 Division I players and four future NBA players during that time.

He has coached numerous NBA players including NBA All-Stars Victor Oladipo and Donovan Mitchell, 2019-20 Sixth Man of the Year Montrezl Harrell, All-Rookie selection Cody Zeller, and long-time NBA veterans Josh Hart, Jerami Grant, Terry Rozier, and Noah Vonleh.

Johnson attended Oxon Hill High School. His playing career was cut short due to several knee injuries in his second year of varsity. As a senior at Oxon Hill, he was named Science and Technology Student of the Year.

He earned his Bachelor of Science in cell, molecular biology and genetics in 1999 at Maryland, where he was a Benjamin Banneker Scholarship recipient. He worked as a protein chemist/molecular biologist at Human Genome Sciences in Rockville, Md., after graduation.

Johnson is married to his wife, Montoya, and has three sons, Amare, Mekai and Kash, and one daughter Akylah.

ROD CLARK

ASSISTANT COACH

FIRST YEAR AT IU / SEVENTH YEAR OVERALL

Rod Clark was named assistant for the Hoosiers on May 29, 2025. He is viewed as one of the rising stars of the coaching profession with half a decade of Division I coaching experience.

BEFORE BLOOMINGTON

Clark, a native of Kansas City, Mo., spent four seasons as an assistant coach at Tennessee under head coach Rick Barnes. The Volunteers went 109-36 in his four seasons and held a mark of 51-21 in SEC play during his tenure. Tennessee appeared in every AP Top 25 poll over his four seasons on staff, including finishing a program-best fifth three times. UT earned wins over 30 AP top 25 programs over the last four seasons, won two SEC Championships, and claimed the 2023 Battle 4 Atlantis title.

Tennessee heard their names called on Selection Sunday each of the four seasons and advanced to the second weekend on three occasions in the NCAA Tournament during his tenure. The Volunteers joined national runner-up Houston as the only programs to earn a top two seed in the NCAA Tournament in both 2024 and 2025. UT advanced to consecutive Elite Eight appearances, the second and third appearances in program history.

He helped coach nine total All-SEC honors, two SEC All-Freshman Team selections, five All-SEC Defensive Team plaudits, and the 2023-24 SEC Defensive Player of the Year. Three Vols, highlight by 2024 Consensus All-American Dalton Knecht, have been selected in the first 40 picks of the NBA Draft since 2022. Statistically, UT ranked inside the top three in adjusted defensive efficiency via KenPom in each season and never allowed more than 68.0 points per contest.

Clark spent the 2020-21 season as an assistant coach at Austin Peay. The Governors posted a winning record and led the Ohio Valley Conference in offensive rebounding while ranking second in rebounding defense, third in turnover margin, and fourth in scoring. Terry Taylor won OVC Player of the Year, finishing the season inside the top 10 of Division I men's hoops in both scoring (eighth, 21.6 ppg) and rebounding (seventh, 11.1 rpg).

Clark's first stop as a collegiate coach came as an assistant coach at the University of Illinois at Chicago in 2019-20. The Flames led the Horizon League in field-goal percentage defense, 3-point defense, and blocks per game. UIC finished the season a run to the 2020 Horizon League Tournament championship game.

From 2017-19, Clark honed his skills in player development, video breakdown, and scouting as the top assistant coach at Sunrise Christian Academy, a national prep basketball powerhouse in Bel Aire, Kan. The 2018-19 squad finished 22-5, earned a year-end No. 10 ranking, and made the program's first-ever appearance at GEICO Nationals. In 2017-18, Sunrise Christian went 24-2 and finished the season ranked second nationally according to USA TODAY and MaxPreps.

Clark also spent time as a coach with the prestigious MoKan Elite program on the Nike EYBL circuit. MoKan Elite posted a 30-7 record in 2018 and reached the semifinals at the Nike Peach Jam. He built on that experience to guide MoKan Elite to the Peach Jam championship in 2019.

As a collegiate player, Clark spent his first two seasons at the junior college level, first at Neosho Community College in Chaunte, Kan., and then Redlands Community College in El Reno, Okla. He concluded his career at Lindsey Wilson College and received a degree in communications in 2015.

Clark and his wife, Alexis, have two daughters – Zara and Zuri.

DREW ADAMS

ASSISTANT COACH
THIRD YEAR AT IU / 19TH YEAR OVERALL

Drew Adams was named Assistant Coach for the Hoosiers on May 28, 2025. He brings over a decade of Division I coaching experience with stops in the Mountain West, Missouri Valley, and Big XII conferences.

BEFORE BLOOMINGTON

Adams was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for head coach Wes Miller for two seasons at Cincinnati. During his time with the Bearcats, the program won 41 games and made a pair of postseason tournaments.

Before his Big XII stop, Adams spent seven seasons (2015-22) as an assistant coach at Bradley. He helped the Braves to a complete rebuild that resulted in consecutive Missouri Valley Conference Championships for the first time in school history. Adams earned Top 50 Most Impactful Mid Major Assistants distinction from Silver Waves Media in both 2020 and 2022 and was also named one of the top five assistant coaches in the Missouri Valley Conference in 2020. Adams played an important role in reestablishing Bradley to the peak of the Missouri Valley. He helped turn the nation's youngest team with just five wins in 2015-16 into conference champions and an appearance in the NCAA Tournament just three years later in 2018-19 – Bradley's first MVC Tournament title since 1988. BU then repeated as conference champions in 2020, marking the first time since 1954 and 1955 the Braves qualified for the NCAA Tournament in back-to-back seasons. He coached 10 all-conference players and seven MVC All-Freshman recipients.

Adams joined Bradley after four seasons at New Mexico, where he helped the Lobos to a 99-36 (.733) overall record, including a 45-21 (.682) tally in the Mountain West Conference. During his tenure in New Mexico, Adams helped the program to two regular-season league titles, three Mountain West postseason tournament crowns, and three top 7 seeds in the NCAA Tournament. He initially joined the staff in 2011-12 as Director of Operations for Steve Alford, was promoted to assistant coach for the 2012-13 season, and remained on Craig Neal's staff his final two seasons.

NICK NORTON

ASSISTANT COACH
FIRST YEAR AT IU / FIFTH YEAR OVERALL

Nick Norton was named an Assistant Coach for the Hoosiers on April 3.

BEFORE BLOOMINGTON

A native of Bloomington, Ill., Norton relocated to Bloomington, Ind., after one season as an assistant coach & director of player development at West Virginia working under current IU head coach Darian DeVries. The Mountaineers improved its previous season's win total by 10 games to an overall record of 19-13 and a 10-10 mark in Big XII games. WVU earned six Quad 1 victories, 13 wins over NET Top 100 programs, and four triumphs over ranked opponents.

West Virginia played the final 24 games of the season without two-time Larry Bird Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Year, Tucker DeVries, who was lost for the season with an injury. The Mountaineers held a record of 6-2 with wins over No. 3 Gonzaga and No. 24 Arizona in the Battle 4 Atlantis at the time of the injury. WVU climbed as high as No. 21 in the Associated Press Top 25 (Week 10).

Under the guidance of the staff, senior guard Javon Small became the fourth Mountaineer in program history to be named to the All-Big 12 First Team. The Fort Wayne, Ind., native tied for the league lead with 18.5 points per game, was third in free throw percentage (88.1%), third in assists per game (5.6), fourth in 3-point percentage (35.3%), fourth in 3-point field goals per game (2.5), ninth in assist-to-turnover ratio (+2.1), and 12th in steals per game (1.6).

Norton joined the Mountaineer basketball staff after three seasons (2021-24) on DeVries' staff at Drake, helping the Bulldogs to an 80-26 (.755) record with two NCAA Tournament appearances and two Missouri Valley Conference titles.

Norton joined the Drake staff during the 2021-22 season as assistant director of operations and was elevated to director of operations prior to the 2022-23 season. He was promoted to assistant coach/director of player development for the 2023-24 campaign.

Norton began his collegiate career at UAB (2014-18), making 97 starts for the Blazers. He was named All-Conference USA Third Team as a sophomore, averaging 8.9 points per game and leading the league in assist-to-turnover ratio. Norton was named the 2016 Conference USA Men's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year. As a freshman, he was one of 21 Kyle Macy National Freshman of the Year Award finalists and named to the Conference USA All-Freshman Team.

MIKE BARGEN

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD COACH
FIRST YEAR AT IU / 25TH YEAR OVERALL

Mike Barga was named Special Assistant to the Head Coach for the Hoosiers on April 11, 2025. He brings a decade of Division I coaching experience and an eight-year stint as a head coach at the Junior College level to Indiana.

BEFORE BLOOMINGTON

A native of Lincoln, Neb., Barga spent the previous 10 seasons as an associate head coach on the sidelines of the Bradley Braves under head coach Brian Wardle. The Braves won 196, one conference regular season championship, and two conference tournament titles in 10 seasons. Bradley played in four postseasons, including the NCAA Tournament Round of 64 in 2019. BU also qualified for the 2020 NCAA Tournament before the event was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Bradley's 2019 Missouri Valley Conference Tournament championship represented the program's first in 31 seasons. They would repeat as champions in 2020 and earn the distinction as being the first Braves program since 1954-55 to clinch back-to-back appearances in the NCAA Tournament. Barga worked directly with and helped recruit six All-MVC selections and seven All-Freshman honorees during his time on The Hilltop.

He joined the Bradley sideline after an eight-year run as head coach at Butler Community College. During his tenure on the El Dorado, Kan., campus, Barga was twice named Jayhawk Conference Coach of the Year and led the Grizzlies to a 164-93 (.683) record. He averaged more than 20 wins per season at Butler, highlighted by a 29-4 record during the 2014-15 campaign and an at-large berth into the NJCAA National Tournament.

While climbing to as high as No. 4 in the 2014-15 NJCAA Top 25, Barga's final Grizzlies team set school records for the most wins in a regular season (28), conference wins in a season (14), best winning percentage (.879), and consecutive wins (22), while enjoying a perfect 16-0 home record.

Barga began his tenure at Butler Community College as an assistant coach from 2004-07 before being promoted to head coach for the 2007-08 season. In 2009-10, he led the Grizzlies to their first Jayhawk West Conference championship since 2001. His 2009-10 squad finished with 29 wins and Butler won the Region VI championship for the first time since 1996, qualifying for the NJCAA National Tournament for the fourth time in program history.

Prior to his Junior College stint, he where he served as a graduate manager on Dana Altman's Creighton staff, which included Indiana head coach Darian DeVries, from 2001-04. In the three seasons, the Bluejays amassed a 72-23 (.758) record, won the 2002 Missouri Valley Conference regular-season title, claimed two MVC Tournament titles (2002, 2003) and played in two NCAA Tournaments (2002, 2003) with a first-round win against Florida in 2002. During that time, Barga also had an opportunity to work with a quartet of All-MVC players, including former NBA veterans Anthony Tolliver (Memphis Grizzlies) and Kyle Korver (Milwaukee Bucks).

Barga played collegiately from 1995-99 at Marquette. A two-year starter for the Golden Eagles, Barga was a team captain during his senior season. He led team in rebounds and blocks and finished second in scoring. After earning his bachelor's degree in psychology from Marquette in '99, Barga received his master's degree in business administration in '04 from Creighton. Barga is married to the former Kacy Siemsen and the couple has four children – John, Olivia, Maddox and Blake.

RYAN HORN

HEAD STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

FIRST YEAR AT IU / 18TH YEAR OVERALL

Ryan Horn, who has nearly 20 years of professional experience in sports performance, was named Head Strength and Conditioning Coach for the Hoosiers on March 26, 2025.

BEFORE BLOOMINGTON

Horn, a native of Inwood, West Virginia, spent last season with the Mountaineers under current IU head coach Darian DeVries. He oversaw the strength and conditioning program for a West Virginia program that improved its previous season's win total by 10 games to an overall record of 19-13 and a 10-10 mark in Big XII games.

Prior to WVU, Horn served as Assistant Athletic Director of Sports Performance at Drake, overseeing all aspects of sport performance programs, sport science and departmental initiatives for 16 sports and more than 400 student-athletes.

Before Drake, Horn returned to collegiate athletics in 2022 as the Head Strength and Conditioning Coach at Wichita State, where he worked directly with the men's basketball team. Before Wichita State, Horn spent two years in the private sector with KBR, and served as a strength and conditioning specialist for the Rangers of 1st Battalion, 75th Ranger Regiment, where he designed, implemented and evaluated training programs to increase performance, readiness, and resilience of personnel.

Horn spent eight years working alongside Danny Manning at Tulsa from 2012-14 and at Wake Forest from 2014-20. The Demon Deacons reached the NCAA Tournament in 2017 and had a pair of NBA players in Jaylen Hoard and John Collins. At Wake Forest under Horn's watch, the Demon Deacons were on the forefront of some of the newest technology and training techniques. His expertise in gathering and quantifying data helped the Wake Forest student-athletes maximize their on-court performance while minimizing injury risks. At Tulsa, Horn served as the Director of Athletics Performance, overseeing men's basketball and softball while assisting with football. Tulsa won the Conference USA regular season title and earned a bid to the NCAA Tournament in 2014.

ALL-AMERICANS

EVERETT DEAN - 1921

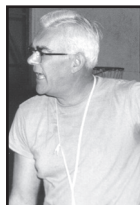

Everett Dean was the first Hoosier to earn All-America honors. The 6-0 center averaged 10.7 points as a senior in 1921. With Dean in the lineup, the Hoosiers were 10-7 in 1919, 13-8 in 1920 and 15-6 in 1921. In his final season, Dean scored 21 points against Ohio State, the first IU player to reach 20 points since Dean Barnhart recorded 21 against Rose Poly in 1911. Academics were also high on Dean's list as he won the Big Ten medal of honor for academic and athletic excellence as a senior. In 1924, Dean returned to Indiana, this time as a coach. Over his 14-year coaching stint, Dean was 162-93 overall and 96-72 in Big Ten play.

JIM STRICKLAND - 1929

During the first eight games of his sophomore season in 1928, Jim Strickland scored only 15 points. But after the loss of top player Art Beckner, Strickland scored 19 points in his first start as IU destroyed Kentucky, 48-29. He went on to net 16 points in the Hoosiers 40-37 victory over Purdue and led IU to a share of the Big Ten title. One year later, Strickland became Indiana's second All-American. He tallied 120 points in 1929, including a game-high 20 in the Hoosiers' 37-36 overtime win over Minnesota.

BRANCH MCCracken - 1930

Branch McCracken was a boost to Hoosier hoops from his arrival in 1927-28. In his first varsity year, McCracken totaled 171 points in 17 games, a 10.1 average. His presence helped Indiana to a 15-2 record and a share of the Big Ten title. Against Chicago, in his first league contest, McCracken exploded for 24 points helping IU to a 32-13 victory. His 24 points set an IU record for Big Ten play, one that would not be broken for another 10 years. In 1929, McCracken finished second in the Big Ten scoring race with 100 points. In his final season, McCracken netted 206 points and reached double figures on 11 occasions. He scored 146 points in Big Ten play, a new conference record. McCracken came back to Indiana to coach for 24 seasons, leading the Hoosiers to two national titles and four Big Ten crowns. His overall record was 364-174, 210-116 in the conference.

VERN HUFFMAN - 1936

Vern Huffman is the only Hoosier in history to be named to major All-American teams in both football and basketball. After injury kept him from the Indiana lineup in 1934-35, Huffman returned to lead the Hoosiers to an 18-2 record and their first conference crown since 1928. He contributed 95 points during his All-America season. Huffman was the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player for football and IU's Big Ten Medal winner.

ERNIE ANDRES - 1938

For the third consecutive year, a Hoosier received All-America honors. In his junior season, Ernie Andres set several records which earned him All-America status. He scored 250 points, including a school-record 162 in Big Ten play. Andres also set an IU and conference single-game record by delivering a 30-point performance in Indiana's 45-35 victory over Illinois in the season finale.

MARV HUFFMAN - 1940

The second Huffman to reach All-America status, Marv Huffman was in his junior year at the beginning of the Branch McCracken coaching era. In 1938-39, the Hoosiers went 17-3, good for second place in the Big Ten. Returning for his senior season as captain of the squad, Huffman won the first Outstanding Player Award in leading the Hoosiers to a 20-3 record and a NCAA Championship in only the second year of the NCAA Basketball Tournament.

BILL MENKE - 1940

Bill Menke was a key ingredient in the Hoosiers' 1940 NCAA Championship. Menke returned in 1941 for his final season and led Indiana to a 17-3 overall record. Indiana had a 27-game home winning streak before a loss to Wisconsin ended the streak and also the Hoosier hopes for a conference title and the possibility of a second-straight national title. Menke had a team-high 176 points that year, closing out his career with 530 total points. His three-year total broke the school record of 525 previously set by Branch McCracken. Menke was killed in World War II.

ANDY ZIMMER - 1942

Andy Zimmer was only in his first season when the Hoosiers won the National Championship. Indiana's winning ways continued throughout his three years as the Hoosiers compiled a 52-12 record from 1939-1942. Indiana finished as runner-up in the conference in each of those seasons. Zimmer was the only returning starter in 1942 but still managed to lead a young, inexperienced squad to a 15-6 overall record, including a win over defending National Champion Wisconsin and eventual Big Ten champ Illinois. Zimmer scored 268 points for his career.

JOHN WALLACE - 1946

Johnny Wallace was the Hoosiers' leading scorer in the 1945-46 season. Wallace set a school record with his 302 points, averaging almost 15 points a game. Indiana went 18-3 with a 9-3 record in the conference. IU received an NCAA Tournament bid, but turned it down because center Tom Schwartz had been inducted into the Army and would not be able to play.

LOU WATSON - 1950

Lou Watson, whose college career was delayed by four years of Navy service, was a leader for Branch McCracken's teams almost from the time he put on an IU uniform. Eight games into his freshman season, Watson came off the bench to score 10 points against Ohio State. He was a starter from then on. For the remaining three years of his career, Watson was the team leader. He was the team's Most Valuable Player and captain in his last two years, and was named All-Big Ten as a senior. He topped Ralph Hamilton's scoring record at IU, netting 757 career points. He became McCracken's successor as head coach for six seasons beginning in 1965-66.

BILL GARRETT - 1951

Bill Garrett was IU's and the Big Ten Conference's first African-American basketball player. A "Mr. Basketball" from Shelbyville, Garrett cracked the starting lineup almost immediately for the Hoosiers. Garrett led the Hoosiers in scoring and rebounding for three straight seasons and surpassed the school's career scoring record with 792 points for his career.

DON SCHLUNDT - 1953, 1954, 1955

The day Don Schlundt arrived in Indiana, he changed Hoosier Basketball forever. IU's first three-time All-American virtually rewrote the basketball record books. Building on an impressive hook shot, Schlundt went on to win three-straight Big Ten scoring titles. Among the records he held were 1,451 Big Ten points, most points in a game with 47, most career points with 2,192, highest season average at 27.1, most free throws in a game with 25, single-season field goal percentage at 50.4, career scoring average at 23.3 and most consecutive free throws in a game with 14. It took 32 years before Steve Alford would break Schlundt's point record. Schlundt helped lead the Hoosiers to a Big Ten title, an NCAA Championship, a No. 1 ranking in 1953, and a second conference title in 1954.

ARCHIE DEES - 1957, 1958

Archie Dees was the perfect successor to Indiana great Don Schlundt. After averaging 17.4 points in his first year, Dees went on to lead the Big Ten in scoring two years in a row. He guided the Hoosiers to two conference championships, a share of the title in 1957 and sole possession of the crown in 1958. Dees averaged 25.5 points in his senior season, making it the fifth time in six years that an IU player won the Big Ten scoring title. Dees became the first two-time Big Ten Most Valuable Player.

WALT BELLAMY - 1960, 1961

Walt Bellamy was the third straight All-American big man for the Hoosiers, following in the footsteps of Don Schlundt and Archie Dees. Bellamy led the team in rebounding with 15.2 per game and in scoring with 17.4 points per game as a sophomore. In his junior season, Bellamy averaged 22.4 points and 13.5 rebounds. He holds the top IU rebounding mark after averaging 17.8 boards during his final season. Indiana's three-time MVP set IU and Big Ten records in his final collegiate game with 33 rebounds and 28 points in an 82-67 win over Michigan. Bellamy also represented Indiana on the gold-medal U.S. Olympic team in 1960. He became the first Hoosier taken No. 1 in the NBA draft (Chicago) and the first Hoosier named NBA Rookie of the Year.

JIMMY RAYL - 1962, 1963

Jimmy Rayl had magical seasons for the Hoosiers as a junior and senior. After scoring 34 and 41 points in games early in his second season, Rayl exploded in a game against Minnesota. Scoring 25 points in the first half, Rayl recorded 48 points after leading a comeback from 11 points down with 10 minutes left to force overtime. His 20-foot shot with two seconds left in overtime gave IU the victory and lifted him to a Big Ten-record 56 points. He accomplished the feat once more, this time in regulation, during an IU rout of Michigan State. Rayl put up 48 shots, hit 23 field goals, and scored 56 points. All marks are still IU records. Throughout his junior and senior years, Rayl had a 43-game string of double-digit performances. Rayl was a two-time All-Big Ten team member.

DICK VAN ARSDALE - 1965

Dick Van Arsdale scored 292 points and captured 213 rebounds as a sophomore to begin a most impressive career at IU. His junior season took on a whole new level as Van Arsdale led Indiana in scoring with 535 points and in rebounding with 298. His senior season was also the last to be coached by the great Branch McCracken at Indiana. Van Arsdale finished his career with 1,240 points and 719 rebounds. He won IU's co-MVP award as a junior and senior and contributed to a gold medal performance at the World University Games. An Academic All-American, Van Arsdale went on to play 12 seasons in the NBA for New York and Phoenix.

TOM VAN ARSDALE - 1965

The only player who could have challenged Dick Van Arsdale as Indiana's top player through 1962-65 was his brother and identical twin Tom Van Arsdale. The two had almost identical stats throughout their three years and put in numerous identical performances. Tom finished his career with 1,252 points, just 12 more than his brother. Tom grabbed 723 career boards and led Indiana in scoring and rebounding during his sophomore and senior seasons. Both brothers had career scoring highs in the same game with Tom netting 34 points against Notre Dame as a junior. He received co-MVP with his brother in their final two seasons and was a member of the gold medal World University Games team. As was Dick, Tom was also an Academic All-American and played 12 seasons in the NBA, retiring with his brother from the Phoenix Suns after the 1976-77 season.

GEORGE MCGINNIS - 1971

In only one season with the Hoosiers, George McGinnis did what most college basketball players only dream about. Taking Indiana to a 17-7 record, the sophomore forward led the Big Ten in both scoring (29.9) and rebounding (14.9). He is one of just five players to do that in more than 40 years of conference records. His scoring average was also an IU record. McGinnis scored 20 or more points in 21 of his 24 college games, including an Indiana record 14 times in a row. He scored over 30 points on 12 different occasions, a Hoosier single-season record. The 1971 All-American went on to become a three-time NBA All-Star.

STEVE DOWNING - 1973

Steve Downing's totals in his first big college game were 28 points, 17 rebounds, and 10 blocked shots, Indiana's first recorded triple-double. His career continued as it started with Downing becoming the first All-American under Coach Bob Knight. Overcoming a knee injury, Downing led the Hoosiers to a Big Ten title in his final season, averaging 21.8 points in non-conference play and 14.7 during the Big Ten season. He averaged 24 points per game in the Hoosiers' last eight conference games. The conference champions were led by Downing in the quest for the NCAA title but fell short, losing 70-59 to UCLA in the Final Four. Downing was named All-Final Four, Big Ten MVP, and chosen as the Boston Celtics' No. 1 draft pick. He won an NBA Championship with the Celtics in 1974.

STEVE GREEN - 1974, 1975

Steve Green was a member of one of the greatest combination of players Hoosier fans have ever seen. He had a breakout season as a junior and was considered one of the best players in the Big Ten. IU's Most Valuable Player and an All-Big Ten selection, Green was Indiana's leading scorer with 16.7 points per game. He hit in double figures in 24 games. His senior season, Green helped lead a Hoosier team through an 18-game Big Ten schedule undefeated. The wins came by a record average winning margin of 22.8 points per game. Green went on to sign with Utah and then joined the Indiana Pacers for their first three seasons.

QUINN BUCKNER - 1975, 1976

One would think a perfect 18-0 conference record is something that only comes along once in a lifetime. Quinn Buckner and members of the Hoosier Basketball team from 1974-76 proved that history can repeat itself. Buckner's four-year career at Indiana featured four consecutive Big Ten Championships, two undefeated conference seasons, one unbeaten regular season, and an NCAA title. IU's captain as a junior and senior, Buckner was considered one of the greatest leaders the Hoosier backcourt has ever seen. Upon finishing his college career, Buckner helped lead the 1976 U.S. Olympic team to an 8-0 record and a gold medal. He went on to play 10 NBA seasons and in 1984 with the Boston Celtics, joined Jerry Lucas as the only players ever to be on championship teams in high school, college, the Olympics, and the NBA. Only Magic Johnson has since completed that feat.

SCOTT MAY - 1975, 1976

Scott May was another member of the Indiana dream team of 1976. An undefeated season, four Big Ten Championship rings, and an NCAA title are just a few of the accomplishments under May's name. As a junior, the All-American helped lead Indiana to a perfect 18-0 conference record, only to break his arm in the final game of the regular season. Without May, the Hoosiers' tournament title dreams ended with a 92-90 Mideast Regional championship loss to Kentucky. May returned for his final season in perfect condition and proved it by helping IU to its one and only unbeaten season. The 1976 Player of the Year was the Hoosiers' leading scorer on Bob Knight's first national championship team. May also contributed to the gold medal U.S. Olympic team following his senior season. He averaged 14.2 points for the Chicago Bulls, making the NBA All-Rookie team. His NBA career spanned seven seasons.

KENT BENSON - 1975, 1976, 1977

Nicknamed Big Red for his recognizable red hair, Kent Benson was part of one of the most amazing periods of Indiana Basketball. After an average 1973-74 season, the Hoosiers took the world by storm in 1974-75, posting a perfect 29-0 regular season record. After teammate Scott May broke his arm, Benson did his part against Kentucky to try to keep the NCAA Tournament dream alive. Benson netted 33 points and grabbed 23 boards but IU fell 92-90 and Benson would have to look forward to his junior season. Benson was named All-Big Ten as a sophomore and his list of honors is endless. During the 1976 championship run, Benson racked up 25 points in the final game at the Final Four and received the Most Outstanding Player Award. The dream would come true as Indiana dominated Michigan for the tournament crown. After a final year at IU, Benson was the first player taken in the NBA draft. He played eight NBA seasons for Milwaukee, Detroit, Utah and Cleveland.

MIKE WOODSON - 1979, 1980

Mike Woodson became Indiana's 11th All-American in five seasons. He averaged 21.0 points during his junior season and helped lead Indiana to an NIT Championship. Woodson captained the USA's Pan American Games team to a gold medal during the summer prior to his senior year and was all set to have a perfect season with the Hoosiers. After five games and a No. 1 ranking, Woodson suffered a herniated disc in his back and had to undergo surgery. Upon losing Woodson, the Hoosiers went 7-5 in the Big Ten until he returned to spark Indiana back into action. IU finished the conference season with six straight victories and won the Big Ten title. Woodson was the MVP after playing in only six league games that season. Following his senior year, Woodson went on to an 11-year, 10,981-point NBA career with New York, New Jersey, Kansas City, Sacramento, the Los Angeles Clippers, and Houston.

ISIAH THOMAS - 1981

The only thing disappointing about Isiah Thomas' IU career is the fact that he only played two years in a Hoosier uniform before turning pro. Before even playing a game at Indiana, Thomas played on Bob Knight's gold-medal Pan-American Games team in San Juan. Thomas helped lead the U.S. team to a 113-94 victory over Puerto Rico in the championship battle. At IU, Thomas started every game he played. He was a member and leader of two Indiana teams that won Big Ten Championships. During his second and final season at IU, Thomas led the Hoosiers in scoring and set a single-season school record for assists with 197. In the 1981 championship game, Thomas led all scorers with 23 points and was honored as the Outstanding Player. Several weeks later, he announced he was headed for the NBA. A No. 2 draft pick, Thomas was an instant success in the NBA. He received Rookie of the Year honors and was a starting All-Star from his first year on. He led the Detroit Pistons to two NBA Championships and his No. 11 was retired by the Pistons.

LANDON TURNER - 1982

The courage and strength shown by Landon Turner can be matched by few athletes around the country. Turner had an up and down basketball career during his first two years at Indiana. During his junior season in 1981, Knight gave Turner one last chance to prove he could contribute. Turner responded with a 4-of-5 performance against Northwestern, which boosted an already powerful line-up. Turner went on to reach double figures in nine of his last 11 games. The Hoosiers won their last five regular season games and earned their second straight Big Ten crown. Turner was on the rise heading into his senior season when disaster struck. On his way to Kings Island in Cincinnati, Ohio, Turner lost control of his vehicle and crashed in an accident that left him paralyzed from the chest down. Turner eventually graduated from Indiana in 1984 and went on to play wheelchair basketball. He was named an honorary All-American by the U.S. Basketball Writers Association and received the Most Courageous Athlete award in 1989.

TED KITCHEL - 1982, 1983

By his sophomore year, Ted Kitchel already had two Big Ten titles and had an NCAA Championship ring on his finger. He also set a conference record that still stands today when he hit all 18 of his free throw attempts in an Indiana victory over Illinois. Kitchel was a starter on an all-senior lineup that began the 1982-83 season 10-0 and gained a No. 1 ranking. On a weekend trip to Michigan late in the league season, Kitchel sank a three-pointer and fell to the floor. An early back problem had returned and his season was over. Despite the injury, Kitchel averaged 17.3 points and was one of the league's top scorers.

RANDY WITTMAN - 1983

Randy Wittman and Ted Kitchel experienced similar careers at Indiana. Five-year roommates, injury caused redshirt seasons for both individuals. Wittman gathered up his conference championships and NCAA title by his sophomore season. He and Kitchel were major contributors throughout their careers. After Kitchel suffered an injury late in the Big Ten 1982-83 season, Wittman and the Hoosiers were in a tie for the conference lead with three games remaining. Wittman took Indiana under his wing, helping the Hoosiers rout Purdue, Illinois, and Ohio State for yet another Big Ten Championship. Wittman shot .543 on the season and averaged a team-leading 18.9 points. He was IU's third Big Ten MVP in four years. In his IU career, Wittman played an IU-record 4,699 minutes, including the full 40 minutes 45 times. He went on to a productive nine-year NBA career and septm many seasons as an NBA coach.

STEVE ALFORD - 1986, 1987

Steve Alford may have been born dribbling a basketball. Alford was not only a talented athlete, but he had the work ethic and determination to bring out the most of his abilities. An Indiana Mr. Basketball as a high school senior, Alford averaged 37 points a game and never scored less than 20 points in a game his final two seasons. As a freshman at Indiana, Alford led the nation in free throw shooting with a 91.3 percentage and led the Hoosiers with 15.5 points a game. After just missing a Final Four appearance that year, Alford and the Hoosiers had a slow season his sophomore year. He still managed to make history, draining 58 of 62 free throws during the Big Ten season. He also averaged a team-high 18.1 points. Alford continued to improve as a junior as he averaged 22.5 points and brought his team to a 21-8 record. The team was shocked in an NCAA Tournament opening round loss but would return for Alford's senior season with a vigor never seen before. In the first season of college basketball's three-point shot, Alford hit seven treys on two different occasions. He set an NCAA record with his seven baskets from beyond the arc in the championship game, a victory over Syracuse that would secure a fifth national title for the Hoosiers. Alford was the Big Ten MVP in 1987 and went on to a brief NBA career.

JAY EDWARDS - 1989

Jay Edwards made his debut appearance in a Hoosier jersey under the fan pressure to see a repeat NCAA Championship performance in 1988. Although Indiana did not obtain back-to-back titles, Edwards gave the Hoosier faithful a sight to see. The Big Ten Freshman of the Year had an NCAA freshman record .536 three-point percentage. He broke Alford's conference record of seven threes in a game. As a sophomore, Edwards led Indiana to a Big Ten title with last second shots to knock off Purdue and Michigan. With an average of 20 points a game and All-America achievement, Edwards gave up his final two years of eligibility to enter the draft and was a second-round pick of the Los Angeles Clippers.

CALBERT CHEANEY - 1991, 1992, 1993

Calbert Cheaney was Bob Knight's first-ever left-handed player and a good choice he was. Cheaney is the only Indiana freshman to start the season opener and score 20 points. Cheaney kept the Hoosiers a national power during all four of his years at Indiana. As a freshman he led the team in scoring with a 17.1 average. Over his final three seasons, Indiana spent all but two of 53 poll weeks in the Top 10 and 38 in the top five. The Hoosiers were 87-16 during those years. In his second season, Cheaney set a school-record with a .596 shooting percentage and an average of 21.6 points per game. Cheaney took on captainship of the team following that year. Indiana was unable to come up with a championship but outscored opponents by 17.6 points to lead the nation. Cheaney led the team to a Final Four appearance as a junior. On his way, he gained control of the all-time Big Ten men's scoring record with his career total of 2,613 points, a record that still stands. Cheaney was named the National Player of the Year (Wooden Award), a unanimous All-American, Big Ten MVP, and was taken No. 6 in the NBA draft by Washington.

DAMON BAILEY - 1994

Damon Bailey could have never donned the Hoosier warmups and still been considered an Indiana legend. Bailey was featured in Sports Illustrated before ever playing a high school game. He led teams to three national AAU championships and Bedford North Lawrence High School to the state's Final Four three out of four years. As a senior, a national record crowd of 41,046 watched Bailey and his teammates top Concord for the state championship. He was named USA Today's High School Player of the Decade. At Indiana, Bailey played in 108 victories including an IU-record 11 NCAA tournament victories. Bailey's career as a Hoosier ended in the third round of NCAA Tournament play his senior year. He averaged 19.6 points per game that season and finished No. 5 on IU's career points list with 1,741. He was All-Big Ten and a third team All-American.

ALAN HENDERSON - 1995

During Henderson's sophomore season, the Hoosiers were ranked No. 1 for almost the entire season, but their championship hopes took a turn for the worse when Henderson tore a ligament in his knee in February. Indiana managed a Big Ten Championship but Kansas was victorious in the regional final of the NCAA Tournament. Henderson came back strong as a junior, building up to a 41-point performance against Michigan State at the end of the season. Indiana reached the Sweet 16 for the fourth-straight season but could not advance further. As a senior, Henderson scored 20 or more points on 24 occasions and recorded 49 double-doubles in his four years. He set IU's career rebounding record with 1,091, topping a record set 34 years before. Henderson was the Atlanta Hawks' first round draft pick, eventually becoming a starter and outstanding player for the Hawks.

BRIAN EVANS - 1996

Brian Evans just kept getting better when it came to Hoosier Basketball. He was a pleasant surprise to the Hoosiers his freshman year when he scored in double figures in eight games. He earned honorable mention All-Big Ten the following year, playing a key role in the Hoosiers' NCAA victories. He averaged 14.0 points per game and 9.0 rebounds during tournament action. As a junior, Evans was a third-team All-Big Ten selection and headed to his senior season with great potential. He led the Hoosiers to a 19-12 record, including an NCAA Tournament appearance. Evans averaged 21.2 points and 7.1 rebounds in his final season, earning him the Big Ten MVP and the conference Silver Basketball Award. He was named first team All-Big Ten and a third team All-American. His list of accomplishments culminated at Indiana with the IU Male Athlete of the Year and Balfour Award as he headed to the NBA's Orlando Magic.

A.J. GUYTON - 2000

A.J. Guyton started his career and ended it at Indiana in much the same way. As a freshman, Guyton became only the second first-year Hoosier to register 400 points, 100 rebounds and 100 assists in a season. He was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Year and was a second team All-Big Ten selection. He moved up to first team All-Big Ten status as a sophomore, averaging 16.8 points per game and netting a career-high 79 three-pointers, the third best mark in school history. Guyton's talent was recognized by fans all over the country. He was a Playboy preseason All-American for two consecutive years, the first IU player to ever receive the honor two consecutive seasons. He was voted the Big Ten Player of the Year by the media in his final season as a Hoosier as well as a first-team All-Big Ten selection. He was a finalist for both the Wooden Award and the Naismith Award and helped lead Indiana to a 20-9 record and yet another NCAA Tournament appearance.

KIRK HASTON - 2001

Kirk Haston carried the Hoosiers in Mike Davis' first season as head coach, scoring 19 points and pulling down 8.7 rebounds per game. He led the Big Ten in conference scoring and ranked second in rebounding. He had one of the greatest seasons by a Hoosier and the NBA took notice, as Haston chose to forgo his senior season and enter the NBA Draft where he was a first-round selection (16th) of the Charlotte Hornets. Haston's game came to life in 2000-2001, as he discovered the three-point shot. No 3-pointer was bigger than the one he hit at the buzzer to beat No. 1 Michigan State, the first time Indiana had posted a victory over a top-ranked team in Assembly Hall. Haston concluded his career ranked 17th in school history with 1,406 points scored and finished ninth in career rebounds with 748. He earned All-Big Ten first team honors as a junior and second team honors as a sophomore.

JARED JEFFRIES - 2002

Despite playing just two years of college basketball, Jeffries closed his career as one of the most decorated players in Indiana history. He is 39th in the IU career scoring record book (1,008 points) and just the sixth sophomore in school history to crack the 1,000 career point plateau. A consensus second team All-American, finalist for the 2002 Naismith Award and United States Basketball Writers Association Player of the Year Award, Jeffries was the only player in the Big Ten to rank among the league's top 10 in six different statistical categories: scoring (eighth, 15.1), rebounding (second, 7.8), steals (eighth, 1.50), blocked shots (eighth, 1.28), offensive rebounds (2.53) and defensive rebounds (second, 5.06). Jeffries also ranks among the Hoosiers' all-time top 20 in blocked shots (88) and rebounds (20th, 471). He was the 11th overall pick of the NBA Draft by the Washington Wizards.

ERIC GORDON - 2008

One of the most heralded recruits in Hoosier history, Eric Gordon became the first IU freshman ever to earn All-American honors after he set an IU and Big Ten record by scoring 669 points. Gordon was named first-team All-American by CBSSports.com, second team by the NABC, and third team by the Associated Press. He was the first freshman at IU to average more than 20 points per game and he led the Big Ten in scoring at 20.9. He was a first-team All-Big Ten choice and the Big Ten Freshman of the Year. He also made a team-high 231 free throws, which was the third-highest single-season total in IU lore. He also was a candidate for the Wooden Award and Naismith Award. He scored 33 points in the season opener against Chattanooga, marking the highest scoring debut of any player to wear the Cream and Crimson. He was an early entrant in the NBA Draft and was selected with the seventh pick in the first round by the Los Angeles Clippers.

D.J. WHITE - 2008

D.J. White was one of the most beloved players to wear the Indiana uniform. After battling injuries early in his career, and multiple coaching changes, White was rewarded as senior by being named second-team All-American by CBSSports.com, the Sporting News, Sports Illustrated, the USBWA and the NABC. He finished 16th in his career in scoring (1,447) and ninth in IU history in rebounds (748). He was second in the Big Ten in scoring (17.4), first in rebounds (10.3) and field goal percentage (60.5) and fourth in blocked shots (1.64). His 56.2 career field goal percentage mark ranks second all-time in IU history. He was the first player since Alan Henderson in 1994 to average a double-double for a season. His best game of the year was a 21-point, 22-rebound effort at Michigan. He was named Big Ten Player of the Year and was a candidate for the Wooden Award and Naismith Award. He could have applied for a medical hardship to regain a year of eligibility, but elected to enter the NBA Draft where he was drafted in the first round by the Detroit Pistons (29th overall) and later traded to the Seattle Supersonics who then became the Oklahoma City Thunder.

CODY ZELLER - 2012, 2013

Zeller, a native of Washington, Ind., led the Hoosiers during his sophomore campaign with 16.5 points, 8.1 rebounds and 1.3 blocks per game. He ranked among the top-five in the Big Ten in scoring, rebounds and field goal percentage (56.2). In 72 career games at Indiana, Zeller averaged 16.1 points, 7.3 rebounds, 1.3 assists, 1.2 blocks and 1.2 steals per game. He helped lead the Hoosiers to back-to-back NCAA Sweet Sixteen's for the first time since 1994 and the program's first outright Big Ten regular season championship since 1993. During his tenure at IU, the Hoosiers have led all major college conference teams in field goal percentage (48.7), three-point field goal percentage (41.6), free throws made (1327), and free throws attempted (1762). He owns 1,157 career points, and holds IU's record for career field goal percentage at 59.1. Zeller, the 2012 Big Ten Freshman of the Year and a consensus Freshman All-American, was named a Basketball Times and Sports Illustrated First Team All-American and a Capital One First Team Academic All-American. He earned a spot on the John R. Wooden All-America Team, while also being a named a Second Team All-American by the Associated Press, USBWA, and the NABC. He earned third team honors from Sporting News. He was an honorable mention AP All-American in 2012. He was selected with the fourth pick in the 2013 NBA Draft by the Charlotte Bobcats.

KEVIN "YOGI" FERRELL - 2016

Kevin "Yogi" Ferrell left Indiana as the all-time leader in games played and started with 137 and was the first player in the 21st century to win multiple Big Ten titles wearing the Cream and Crimson. He finished sixth in career scoring with 1,986 points and was the all-time IU leader in assists with 633. He was second all-time in Hoosier lore with 272 three-point field goals made, but first in Big Ten play with 159, none bigger than a trey in the final minute at Iowa to help IU clinch its second outright Big Ten title in four years. As a freshman, the Indianapolis native was instrumental on offense and on defense in the final 50 seconds at Michigan to help lead IU to a Big Ten title and a 72-71 comeback win over the Wolverines. For his career, he averaged 14.5 points and 4.6 assists and shot 39.9% from three-point range. A Wooden All-American choice as a senior, he also earned All-American honors from The Sporting News, USA Today, CBS Sports and the Associated Press. He is the only IU player to ever lead his team in assists during all four seasons that he played.

TRAYCE JACKSON-DAVIS - 2021, 2023

Trayce Jackson-Davis started all 126 games played over his sensational four-year run with the Cream and Crimson. He led the Hoosiers in scoring in all four years and became the first IU player to average 20.0 points and 10.0 rebounds in a season (2022-23) since Steve Downing in 1972-73. TJD finished his career as the program's all-time leader in rebounds (1,143) and blocks (270), while finishing third in career points (2,258) and double-doubles (50). He was named to the All-America Third Team by Sporting News, NABC, and USBWA, while AP tabbed him to the honorable mention team following his sophomore campaign. As a senior, he was named a Consensus First-Team All-American (Associated Press, NABC, Sporting News, USBWA) while also being named the Karl Malone Power Forward of the Year. The former Indiana Mr. Basketball was the first sophomore since Cody Zeller (2012-13) to earn All-America status and the first consensus All-American since Victor Oladipo and Zeller (2012-13).

BIG TEN PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

DON SCHLUNDT - 1953

Don Schlundt became Indiana's first Big Ten Most Valuable Player after leading the 1953 Hoosiers to a 23-3 overall mark and their first conference title under the direction of Branch McCracken with a 17-1 record. Schlundt was also the first sophomore in conference history to win the award. Known as "Mr. Inside," the 6-10 sophomore set conference records in points scored (459), free throws in a game (17) and free throws in a season (175). During the NCAA Tournament march, Schlundt's 49 free throws in four games set a new NCAA record. His season-high 41 points against Notre Dame in the Chicago Regional NCAA Tournament erased George Mikan's Chicago Stadium record. Chosen for the All-NCAA Tournament team and the All-Regional Tournament team in Chicago, Schlundt was also selected as the Regional MVP. A unanimous choice of all All-Big Ten teams, he won a place on All-American teams of the Helms Foundation, International News Service and ranked within the first 10 on Colliers', AP and UPI All-Americans.

ARCHIE DEES - 1957

During the 1956-57 season, junior Archie Dees led the Hoosiers to their third Big Ten crown in five years. During that 14-8 season (10-4 Big Ten), Dees was selected as the Big Ten MVP after receiving almost as many votes as all other candidates combined. Dees earned the award after putting up 356 points (25.4 avg.) and running away with the conference scoring title. He ranked as the country's most proficient free throw shooter for his size, sinking 176 of 209 attempts for an .842 percentage, 10th best in the nation. His 106 of 125 in the Big Ten for an .848 percentage was top in the league. He set IU records for a 22-game season in field goals (187), field goal attempts (440) and climbed to third place in career points (933 in two years) behind Don Schlundt (2,192) and Bob Leonard (1,098). His 14.4 rebounds per contest, along with his 25.0 points, made Dees one of the most feared competitors in the nation.

ARCHIE DEES - 1958

In 1958, Archie Dees became the first two-time Big Ten MVP after scoring 362 points and pulling down 211 rebounds in 14 games. He led the team in scoring, rebounding and field goal percentage. His overall average of 25.5 points per game is the fourth-best season average in school history. His average of 14.4 rebounds per game tied his average in 1957 for fifth place in school history. He finished his career ranked in the school's top 10 in rebounds (4th with 914), field goal attempts (10th with 1,252), free throw attempts (9th with 522) and free throw percentage (9th with a percentage of .828). Dees was also selected to the All-America and All-Big Ten teams for the second straight season.

STEVE DOWNING - 1973

The leader of the pack in 1973 was Steve Downing. Downing averaged a team-high 20.1 points and 10.6 rebounds that season, including a .520 field goal percentage. He set Assembly Hall records in field goals (18) and field goals attempted (31) against Illinois. He led the 22-6 (11-3 Big Ten) Hoosiers to a Big Ten Championship before they won the NCAA Midwest Regional and finished third in the NCAA Finals. Downing finished his career with 1,220 points, placing him 26th all-time. After posting 19.9 points and 9.9 rebounds per conference contest, Downing was honored as the Big Ten MVP. He also received first team All-Big Ten and All-America honors.

SCOTT MAY - 1975

In 1975, Sandusky, Ohio, native Scott May was a unanimous All-Big Ten selection and voted MVP in the conference. May scored in double figures in every game until suffering a broken arm at Purdue in Indiana's 26th game of the season. He totaled a season-best 29 points against Kansas after scoring Indiana's first nine overtime points, en route to a 74-70 victory. He tallied 20-plus points on 12 different occasions on a team that finished with a 31-1 record, including an 18-0 conference mark. He was the second-highest rebounder on the team with 199. May was also selected to the All-America team by the AP, UPI and Helms Foundation. He was a second team All-America selection by the NBA Coaches, Basketball Weekly and the National Association of Basketball Coaches.

BIG TEN PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

SCOTT MAY - 1976

Scott May became Indiana's second two-time Big Ten MVP in 1976 after a remarkable senior season. May's 752 points that season set a school record and brought his career total to 1,593. His career point total ranks 11th in school history and is the best by any three-year letterwinner. His 308 field goals that season still holds as the most by anyone in IU history, while his 584 field goal attempts is second most. May also set a school record with nine steals against Michigan. His 14 field goals against St. John's in the Mideast First Round ties two other Hoosiers for most field goals in an NCAA Tournament game. He led the 32-0 (18-0 Big Ten) Hoosier roster in scoring and free throw percentage (.782). Much like his junior season, May earned first team All-Big Ten and All-America honors for his outstanding efforts. He was also named the 1976 NCAA Player of the Year.

KENT BENSON - 1977

In 1977, Kent Benson returned for his senior season after winning the 1976 NCAA Championship and being named the NCAA Finals' MVP. In his final year, the 6-11 center grabbed 241 rebounds, bringing his career total to 1,031, a mark that currently ranks third in school history and 10th in Big Ten history. He also recorded 456 points for a total of 1,740 career points, eighth-best in school history. He led a 16-11 (11-7 Big Ten) Hoosier squad in rebounds and blocks (28). In addition to being selected as the Big Ten's 1977 MVP, Benson earned All-America and first-team All-Big Ten honors for the third consecutive season. He was also selected to the academic All-America and academic All-Big Ten teams for the second straight season.

MIKE WOODSON - 1980

Mike Woodson's 1980 Big Ten MVP season ranks as a great comeback story. He had back surgery in late December and returned to action just seven weeks later. His heroic return sparked the Hoosiers to emerge from the middle of a five-team race in the conference to the clear-cut champion after a six-game charge. He closed his IU career with 2,061 points, fifth-best in IU history. At year's end, Woodson earned All-America status for the second consecutive year.

RAY TOLBERT - 1981

Ray Tolbert finished 1981 as the Big Ten's shooting leader with a percentage of .626. While leading the Hoosiers to their fourth National Championship in school history, Tolbert set the pace in rebounding (224), field goal percentage (.588), and blocks (35). His four blocks against Maryland in the 1981 Mideast Second Round set a school record that has since been matched by Dean Garrett and Alan Henderson. In the National Championship game against North Carolina, he grabbed a game-high 11 rebounds, in a 63-50 IU victory. Tolbert's 428 points during his senior year placed him 18th on the all-time scoring list at IU with 1,427 points. He played in 127 games as a Hoosier, starting 123.

RANDY WITTMAN - 1983

In 1983, Indiana fifth-year senior Randy Wittman was one of the most experienced players in the Big Ten Conference. Playing like the profound leader that he was, Wittman scored 589 points for the 24-6 Hoosiers, averaging 18.9 points. In addition to leading the team in scoring, he also led in field goal percentage (.543). He ended his career with 1,549 points in 133 games and is now in 13th place on the IU career scoring list. His 133 career games played ranks No. 1 in school history, nudging the 132 games played by Damon Bailey, Calbert Cheaney, and Greg Graham. He was a first-time All-American, an academic All-American for the second straight year, and, in April 1983, was one of 10 recipients of an NCAA post-graduate scholarship.

BIG TEN PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

STEVE ALFORD - 1987

In all four of his years at Indiana, Steve Alford led the Indiana Hoosiers in scoring. He is the second Hoosier to accomplish that feat as Don Schlundt did it from 1952-1955. During his senior season, he had his most prolific effort, tallying 749 points, including a school-record 107 three-point field goals. The New Castle, Ind., native finished his career as Indiana's career scoring leader with 2,438 points and now ranks second all-time. His career point total also ranks as the fifth-best in conference history. Behind the 1987 Big Ten MVP, the Hoosiers finished the season with a record of 30-4 (15-3) and claimed the school's most recent National Championship by defeating Syracuse 74-73 in the NCAA Championship game. In his last game as a Hoosier, Alford went 8-15 from the field, including a remarkable 7-10 from three-point range, to lead all scorers with 23 points. For the second consecutive season, the 6-2 guard received both All-America and first-team All-Big Ten honors.

CALBERT CHEANEY - 1993

Calbert Cheaney was a leader in every facet of the game for the Indiana Hoosiers during the 1992-93 season. En route to winning the 1993 Big Ten MVP award, Cheaney averaged 22.4 points per contest in 35 appearances. His school-record 785 points in one season puts him high a top the leaderboard for career points in the Big Ten (2,613). He led the 31-4 Hoosiers to (17-1) their 22nd consecutive NCAA appearance after winning the 1993 Big Ten title. Cheaney completed a clean sweep of College Basketball Player of the Year Awards as he won 12 such awards. In 1993, Cheaney became one of only three Hoosiers to earn All-America honors three times. He was also named Preseason NIT MVP.

BRIAN EVANS - 1996

Not only did Brian Evans lead the Hoosiers in scoring, rebounding and steals during the 1995-96 season, he led them to a 19-12 mark overall, including a 12-6 record in the conference. Evans became the first Indiana player to win the Big Ten scoring title under the tutelage of Bob Knight and the first Hoosier since George McGinnis won the award in 1971. Hailing from Terre Haute, Ind., the 6-8 forward posted career highs in nearly every statistical category in 1996. Evans finished his career in 10th place on IU's career scoring chart with 1,701 points. He was an All-America and first-team All-Big Ten selection in 1996.

A.J. GUYTON - 2000

A.J. Guyton was named Big Ten MVP in 2000. In the 100th season of Indiana basketball, Guyton led the Hoosiers to a 20-9 season, including a 10-6 conference mark. The 6-1 shooting guard from Peoria, Ill., led the Big Ten in both conference and non-conference scoring. His .419 overall three-point shooting percentage was second best in the conference and he held the fifth-best free throw percentage in conference games with an accuracy of .825. Against North Carolina, Guyton put up seven three-pointers and tied a school record for most threes in one game. His 172 trifectas in 2000 ranks seventh-best at Indiana. Guyton finished his Indiana career as the fourth-highest scorer in school history with 2,100 points. Aside from being named the Big Ten MVP, Guyton was also an All-America and first team All-Big Ten honoree in 2000.

BIG TEN PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

JARED JEFFRIES - 2002

Jared Jeffries became the first Indiana player since Brian Evans (1996) to be named Big Ten MVP by both the coaches and the media. The 6-10 sophomore enjoyed a stellar 2001-02 campaign, ranking among the league's top 10 in scoring (eighth, 15.0), rebounding (second, 7.6), steals (eighth, 1.50), blocks (eighth, 1.28), offensive rebounds (fourth, 2.53), and defensive rebounds (second, 5.06). He also became the 36th member of the Hoosiers' 1,000 career point club. A second-team All-American selection and finalist for the Naismith and Wooden Awards, Jeffries was the 11th overall pick of the 2002 NBA Draft by the Washington Wizards.

D.J. WHITE - 2008

D.J. White was named Big Ten MVP after he was second in the Big Ten in scoring (17.4), first in rebounds (10.3) and field goal percentage (56.2) and fourth in blocked shots (1.64). He was named second-team All-America by CMSSports.com, the Sporting News, Sports Illustrated, the USBWA and the NABC. He finished 16th in career scoring (1,447) and ninth in IU history in rebounds (748). He was the first player since Alan Henderson in 1994 to average a double-double for a season. His best game of the year was a 21-point, 22-rebound effort at Michigan. He was named Big Ten Player of the Year and was a candidate for the Wooden Award and Naismith Award. He could have applied for a medical hardship to regain a year of eligibility, but elected to enter the NBA Draft where he was drafted in the first round by the Detroit Pistons (29th overall) and later traded to the Seattle SuperSonics who then became the Oklahoma City Thunder.

TRIPLE-DOUBLES

STEVE DOWNING VS. MICHIGAN - FEB. 27, 1971

Sophomore center Steve Downing recorded the first triple-double in IU men's basketball history with 27 points, 17 rebounds, and 10 blocks in an 88-79 victory over the 12th-ranked Michigan Wolverines on Feb. 23, 1971 at the New Field House in Bloomington. The the statistical feat remains the only triple-double for a Hoosier against a ranked opponent.

JUWAN MORGAN VS. JACKSONVILLE - DEC. 22, 2018

Senior forward Juwan Morgan recorded the second triple-double in team history, and first at Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall, with 10 points, 10 rebounds, and 10 assists in a 94-64 triumph over the Jacksonville Dolphins on Dec. 22, 2018. Morgan became the first Big Ten men's basketball player since Feb. 10, 2011 (Draymond Green vs. Penn State) to record a triple-double with at least three blocks and two steals.

TRAYCE JACKSON-DAVIS VS. NEBRASKA - DEC. 7, 2022

Senior forward Trayce Jackson-Davis recorded the third triple-double in program history with 12 points, 11 rebounds, and 10 assists in an 81-65 victory over the Nebraska Cornhuskers on Dec. 7, 2022 at Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall. The two-time All-American became the first player to compile a triple-double with at least three blocks and three steals since Jan. 17, 2002 (Luke Walton vs. USC).

ALL-TIME HEAD COACHES

J.H. HORNE - 1901

1-4 (.250), 0-2 (.000)

J.H. Horne was the first coach in Indiana history and coached the Hoosiers in 1901. He led the squad to a 1-4 overall record with an 0-2 record in the Big Ten Conference.

PHELPS DARBY - 1902

4-4 (.500), 0-2 (.000)

Phelps Darby coached the Hoosiers in 1902. Darby, who also served as the center on the team, led the team to a .500 record (4-4) and a 0-2 record in the Big Ten Conference.

WILLIS COVAL - 1903-04

13-8 (.619), 0-4 (.000)

Not only serving as head coach but also as a reserve guard was highly-touted football player Willis Coval. Coval led the Hoosiers to their first pair of winning seasons. The team went 8-4 in 1903 and 5-4 in 1904 under his guidance. The Big Ten Conference slump continued for Indiana after Coval's teams went a combined 0-4 in conference play.

ZORA G. CLEVINGER - 1905-06

12-21 (.364), 3-3 (.500)

The Hoosiers' fourth coach was Indiana football All-American Zora G. Clevenger who served the squad in 1905 and 1906. Clevenger led the Hoosiers to a 12-21 record, and guided the team to its first Big Ten Conference victory and .500 conference season at 3-3. Clevenger later served as the athletic director at Indiana University and is in both the College Football and the IU Athletic Hall of Fames.

JAMES SHELDON - 1907

9-5 (.643)

James Sheldon, a lawyer and one of IU's most successful football coaches, spent one season as the head coach of the Hoosiers and led them to a 9-5 record.

ED COOK - 1908

9-6 (.600), 2-4 (.333)

Ed Cook led the Hoosiers in 1908. Under his guidance, the Hoosiers finished 9-6 overall and 2-4 in the Big Ten Conference.

ROBERT HARRIS - 1909

5-9 (.357), 2-6 (.250)

Robert Harris coached the Hoosiers in 1909 and led them to a 5-9 season. The Big Ten Conference slump took hold again as for the second consecutive year Indiana finished under .500, going 2-6.

JOHN GEORGEN - 1910

5-8 (.385), 3-7 (.300)

John Georgen coached the Hoosiers in 1910 and led them to a 5-8 season including a 3-7 season in the Big Ten Conference.

OSCAR RACKLE - 1911

11-5 (.688), 5-5 (.500)

Oscar Rackle led the Hoosiers to its first .500 season in the Big Ten Conference since 1906 in 1911. Rackle coached the Hoosiers to an 11-5 overall record and finished the season 5-5 in the Big Ten.

JAMES KASE - 1912

6-11 (.353), 1-9 (.100)

James Kase coached the Hoosiers in 1912. He led Indiana to a 6-11 season and a 1-9 Big Ten Conference record.

ARTHUR POWELL - 1913

5-11 (.312), 0-10 (.000)

Arthur Powell led Indiana to an overall record of 5-11 and for the first time in its history IU finished the Big Ten regular season winless, going 0-10.

ARTHUR BERNDT - 1914-15

6-21 (.222), 2-20 (.091)

Indiana Hall of Famer Arthur "Cotton" Berndt coached the Hoosiers in 1914 and 1915. Later the Mayor of Bloomington, he finished his two-year tenure with a mark of 6-21.

ALLAN WILLISFORD - 1916

6-7 (.462), 3-5 (.375)

Allan Willisford led the Hoosiers in 1916 and finished the year with a 6-7 overall record. He also coached Indiana to a 3-5 Big Ten Conference record.

G.S. LOWMAN - 1917

13-6 (.684), 3-5 (.375)

G.S. Lowman coached Indiana in 1917 leading the team to a 13-6 overall record. In the Big Ten Conference, Lowman finished his coaching career with a 3-5 record.

DANA M. EVANS - 1918-19

20-11 (.645), 7-9 (.438)

Dana M. Evans led the Hoosiers in 1918 and 1919. He coached them to a 20-11 overall record and a Big Ten mark of 7-9.

EWALD O. STIEHM - 1920

13-8 (.619), 6-4 (.600)

Ewald O. Stiehm coached Indiana in 1920. He led them to a 13-8 overall record including a Big Ten Conference record of 6-4.

GEORGE W. LEVIS - 1921-22

25-16 (.610), 9-12 (.429)

George W. Levis, a two-time All-American at Wisconsin, spent two seasons with the Hoosiers, 1921 and 1922. He led the squad to a 25-16 overall record and a 9-12 mark in the Big Ten Conference.

LESLIE MANN - 1923-24

19-13 (.594), 12-12 (.500)

Leslie Mann, a major league outfielder who played in two World Series, coached the Hoosiers for two seasons in 1923 and 1924. The squad, under Mann's guidance, finished 19-13 in those two years with a .500 Big Ten Conference record of 12-12.

ALL-TIME HEAD COACHES

162-93 (.635), 96-72 (.571)

From being the first All-American basketball player at Indiana University to receiving the Big Ten medal for academic and athletic excellence, Everett Dean was the choice to lead the Hoosiers through the Roaring 20s. Dean led the Hoosiers to their first-ever Big Ten Conference co-championship which they clinched in a 15-point victory over Wisconsin to end the 1926 season. He led the squad to two more Big Ten titles and had an impressive overall career record of 162-93 with a Big Ten mark of 96-72 which was by far the most successful coaching career in Indiana basketball history at the time. Dean's era officially kicked off the tradition of Hoosier basketball at Indiana University that continues today. Dean was inducted into the Indiana University Athletic Hall of Fame in 1982.

364-174 (.677), 210-116 (.644)

While Dean's era dug the foundation for college basketball at Indiana, Branch McCracken's two stints as Indiana University Head Basketball Coach were the concrete needed to solidify that foundation. McCracken spent 24 years at the helm of the "Hurryin' Hoosiers" and brought two National Championships, four Big Ten Championships and IU's first four 20-win seasons to Bloomington. The first national title came in 1940 when the Hoosiers finished 20-3 overall and 9-3 in the Big Ten. NCAA Championship number two came in the 1952-53 season when the squad racked up a then-school-record 23 wins to only three losses, an unprecedented 17-1 Big Ten record and IU's first number 1 national ranking and first outright Big Ten Championship. McCracken led the squad to a 364-174 overall record and a 210-116 Big Ten record. His 450 career wins places him 76th on the NCAA's all-time victories list and 86th on the all-time winningest coaches list. McCracken served as a lieutenant in the U.S. Army in World War II from 1944-46. The legendary coach was elected to the Indiana University Athletic Hall of Fame in 1982.

HARRY C. GOOD - 1944-46

35-29 (.547), 14-22 (.389)

Harry C. Good coached the Hoosiers for three seasons from 1944-1946 while Branch McCracken served as a lieutenant in the U.S. Army. He led Indiana to a 35-29 overall mark and a Big Ten Conference mark of 14-22.

LOU WATSON - 1966-71

62-60 (.508), 31-39 (.443)

Lou Watson spent six seasons with the Hoosiers. From 1966-1971 he coached the Hoosiers to a 62-60 overall record and a 31-39 Big Ten Conference mark. Watson, in 1970, coached an IU legend who only spent one season as a Hoosier. George McGinnis led the Big Ten in scoring (29.9 ppg) and rebounding (14.5 rpg). His 29.9 points per game average is still the highest single-season average in the history of Indiana basketball.

JERRY OLIVER - 1970

7-17 (.292), 3-11 (.214)

Jerry Oliver spent one season as the acting head coach of Indiana basketball. He was named acting head coach after head coach Lou Watson had surgery to remove cancer from his back. Oliver led the Hoosiers to a 7-17 overall mark including a 3-11 record in the Big Ten Conference.

BOB KNIGHT - 1972-2000

662-239 (.735), 353-151 (.700)

From the plaid jacket to the famed red sweater the name Bob Knight became synonymous with Indiana University basketball and in his 29 seasons no one could deny him that distinction. "The General" led the Hoosiers to three national championships, 11 Big Ten championships and one National Invitation Tournament title. The greatest accomplishment in the Bob Knight era was the 1975-76 National Championship run where the Hoosiers began the year as the Associated Press' preseason number one team and carried that ranking all the way through the season to Knight's first and the school's third NCAA Championship. That squad was also the last team to finish the season perfect with a 32-0 overall record and an 18-0 Big Ten mark. Knight's second title came during the 1980-81 season when Isiah Thomas led the squad to the NCAA title over the North Carolina Tar Heels. The squad's final championship of the Knight era came in the 1986-87 season when Keith Smart hit the game-winning shot to defeat Syracuse in the national title game. Knight's career saw numerous achievements by both the coach himself and his players. He was awarded with National Coach-of-the-Year honors on four occasions in 1975, 76, 87 and 1989. He ranks sixth on the all-time coaches list for victories and is the 30th winningest coach of all-time. Under Knight's leadership, Calbert Cheaney became the all-time leading scorer in Big Ten history. He also coached nine Big Ten MVPs and had a total of 27 All-Americans play in Assembly Hall. Knight had an overall Indiana record of 662-239 and a Big Ten Conference mark of 353-151. He was inducted into the IU Athletic Hall of Fame in 2009.

MIKE DAVIS - 2000-06

115-79 (.592), 55-41 (.573)

Mike Davis served as Indiana head coach from 2000-06, and he compiled a 115-79 overall record and a 55-41 Big Ten Conference ledger. Davis was the first coach in IU history to open his tenure with three straight 20-plus win seasons and three straight NCAA Tournament appearances. Davis directed the Hoosiers to a share of the 2002 Big Ten championship and an appearance in the 2002 national championship game. Davis led IU to post-season appearances five of his six years as head coach (four NCAA and one NIT), and the Hoosiers defeated 22 nationally-ranked opponents in his tenure.

KELVIN SAMPSON - 2006-08

43-15 (.741), 20-9 (.690)

Two-time National Coach of the Year Kelvin Sampson was named the 26th head coach in Indiana University history on March 29, 2006. In his first year at IU, Sampson's squad finished 21-11 and tied a school record by going 15-0 at Assembly Hall. The Hoosiers earned their 34th NCAA Tournament bid, advanced to the second round of the West Regional after defeating Gonzaga, 70-57, in the first round, and were ranked as high as 19th in the country during the regular season. During his second year, the Hoosiers were nationally ranked for the majority of the year and were ranked as high as eighth in the country. However, prior to the start of the season, IU announced that a series of recruiting sanctions and corrective actions were being imposed on Sampson and his staff. When the NCAA announced that possible major violations had occurred during his tenure, Sampson resigned after leading IU to a 22-4 record.

ALL-TIME HEAD COACHES

DAN DAKICH - Feb. 2008-Mar. 2008

3-4 (.429), 2-2 (.500)

Longtime assistant and former player Dan Dakich served as the interim coach for the Hoosiers following the resignation of Kelvin Sampson. He guided IU to a win at Northwestern and triumphs at home against Ohio State and Minnesota. He also took the Hoosiers to their 35th NCAA Tournament appearance.

TOM CREAN - 2008-17

166-135 (.551), 71-91 (.438)

Tom Crean was named head coach on April 2, 2008. He suited up the least experienced team in Big Ten history during his first season and took his team to the EA Sports Maui Invitational and had the Hoosiers play the first-ever game in Lucas Oil Stadium against Gonzaga. His first recruiting class in 2009 was ranked tops in the Big Ten and among the top 10 in the country. In year two, the Hoosiers defeated Pitt at Madison Square Garden and Crean picked up his first conference road win at Penn State. The third year saw the Hoosiers defeat No. 20 Illinois and No. 18 Minnesota in Assembly Hall to give Crean his first two victories over ranked opponents at Indiana. He led IU to a 27-9 mark and a berth in the Sweet Sixteen in year four and defeated the No. 1, No. 2 and No. 5 squads in the country while posting a 15 1/2 game turnaround, the largest among major college programs. He was named National Coach of the Year by ESPN.com following the season. The 2012-13 season saw the Hoosiers finish 29-7 and win their first outright Big Ten Conference championship in 20 years when they won at Michigan, 72-71 on the final day of the regular season. IU made its second straight Sweet Sixteen appearance and spent 11 weeks as the No.1 team in the country. In addition, he saw Victor Oladipo and Cody Zeller earn first-team All-American honors, while Oladipo was named Sporting News Player of the Year. In 2013-14, Noah Vonleh was named Big Ten Freshman of the Year and helped Indiana win four games against Top 25 teams. The 2014-15 season saw IU advance to the NCAA Tournament while the Hoosiers set a school record by making 319 three-point field goals. Indiana also picked up four wins over top 25 teams during the season. In 2015-16, the Hoosiers finished 27-8 and won their second Big Ten outright title in four years with a 15-3 conference mark. Crean was named the consensus 2016 Big Ten Coach of the Year following the campaign. IU finished the season ranked ninth in the final USA Today Coaches Poll and defeated No. 10 Kentucky, 73-67, to advance to the Sweet Sixteen. Senior Kevin "Yogi" Ferrell was a consensus All-American. In an injury riddled 2016-17, highlights included wins over #3 Kansas in the State Farm Armed Forces Classic and over eventual national champion North Carolina in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge.

ARCHIE MILLER - 2017-21

67-58 (.536), 33-44 (.429)

Archie Miller was named as the 29th head coach of the Hoosiers storied men's basketball program on March 25, 2017. Miller and his staff landed McDonald's All-Americans in in back-to-back seasons (Romeo Langford and Trayce Jackson-Davis) and saw his team in 18-19 beat four ranked teams (Marquette, Wisconsin and Michigan State twice). Their 2018 recruiting class was ranked seventh in the country. IU was poised to earn an NCAA berth before in 2020 when COVID-19 shut down the campaign. The Hoosiers posted five wins over nationally ranked opponents that season.

MIKE WOODSON

Former All-American Mike Woodson was named the 30th coach in IU history on March 28, 2021. He led the Hoosiers to back-to-back trips to the Big Ten Tournament semifinals and consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament in his first two seasons at Indiana. In his debut year, he led IU to its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2016 and saw them make their first appearance in the Big Ten semifinals since 2013. His 2022 recruiting class was ranked 8th in the country by 247Sports.com. Woodson also brought in the second-highest ranked portal class according to 247Sports.com in the spring of 2024. The Hoosiers had three selections in the NBA Draft during Woodson's tenure, including first rounders Kel'el Ware (15th overall in '24) and Jalen Hood-Schifino (17th overall in '23).

INDIANA BASKETBALL HEAD COACH: 1971-2000

Bob Knight was born in Massillon, Ohio, and played basketball at Orrville High School. He went on to attend Ohio State University, where he was a member of the 1960 national championship team.

In 1971, Knight was named head coach at Indiana University and went on to win three national championships in his 29 years leading the Hoosiers. His overall record was 662-239.

Then in 2001, he was hired as the head coach at Texas Tech where he would spend the next six-plus seasons and compiled a 138-32 record and three trips to the NCAA Tournament.

Knight then went on to coach the JV basketball team at Cuyahoga Falls (Ohio)

High School for one season before enlisting in the U.S. Army. Then in 1965 he was named the head coach of the Army men's basketball program, where he would go on to post a record of 102-50 in six seasons.

INDIANA BASKETBALL HEAD COACH: 1971-2000

On Nov. 6, 2009, legendary IU coach Bob Knight, the winningest NCAA coach in collegiate men's basketball, was among the 2009 Indiana University Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame inductee class. Knight won three national championships, was Big Ten Coach of the Year seven times and National Coach of the Year twice.

Representing Coach Knight that evening was 2008 IU Hall of Famer and former Hoosier basketball standout Steve Downing. The class was officially inducted at the annual Hall of Fame dinner on Nov. 6, and was recognized at halftime of the football game against Wisconsin at Memorial Stadium, the following day.

The Hall of Fame was established in 1982 by the Indiana University Varsity Club National Board of Directors, in cooperation with Indiana University, its Department of Intercollegiate Athletics, the I Association, and the Indiana University Alumni Association. Its purpose is to recognize and honor individuals who have made exceptional contributions to the achievements and prestige of Indiana University in the field of athletics and who have demonstrated the values imparted by intercollegiate athletics. Each year, a subcommittee of the Indiana University Varsity Club National Board of Directors selects inductees for the Hall of Fame. With the 2010 class included, the current number of inductees to the IU Hall of Fame is 170.

GOING GLOBAL

Indiana University's Basketball program has been well represented in the U.S. National team's history and in international competition.

Among the most memorable IU connections with international play was the Games of the XXIII Olympiad in Los Angeles during the summer of 1984. Three Hoosiers participated in the games, IU coach Bob Knight as the U.S. head coach, Steve Alford as one of the 12 U.S. players and Uwe Blab on the West German squad.

A large banner of the Olympic rings and U.S.A. stitched into the rings hangs in Assembly Hall as a remembrance of the role Hoosier fans, players and coaches had in the U.S.A. gold medal effort.

Indiana hosted the team selection in April 1984 when 74 candidates worked out daily in the IU Fieldhouse. Over 34,000 turned out over two nights to watch the final trials games. A dinner with over 3,000 attending in the RCA Dome at Indianapolis saluted the U.S. team and helped raise over $131,000 for the U.S. Olympic Committee. More Olympic contributions came when 17,100 watched a June game in Assembly Hall between the U.S. team and a group of former Indiana players.

A highlight of the summer came in July when the RCA Dome had quite a debut for its first sporting event. Exceeding all expectations, 67,596 fans turned out for two exhibition games featuring the U.S. men's and women's Olympic Basketball teams.

The U.S. squad turned aside eight opponents en route to the gold medal with some of the decisions very one-sided thanks to contributions from all 12 U.S. players. Alford and Blab's respective teams met during pool play, and the U.S. won, 78-67. It was the closest margin of victory for the U.S. team.

HOOSIER HOME COURTS

OLD ASSEMBLY HALL

Indiana University Basketball has in its 100-year existence come full circle. Today, the 17,000 +plus capacity Assembly Hall is a mecca for sporting arenas, just as old Assembly Hall was in its day.

The original Assembly Hall was not a sporting arena, it was a small one-story structure with a wooden frame. The building, located near the Indiana Memorial Union, was built in 1895 and had a price tag of $12,000. When full the building could seat 600 people for a basketball game. It also was the practice site for the team and the gymnasium for physical education classes.

IU's first-ever game was on February 8, 1901 against Butler. The game was described by the Indianapolis News as a "fast" and "hard-fought" game which had Butler on top 20-17. The first game at Assembly Hall came 20 days later against Butler. In another tight game, Butler pulled it out 24-20 and left IU 0-2.

Opponents were rare and basketball was still enduring growing pains, but the 1901 total of two games doubled in 1902 and five games were played in 1903. It was a time when basketball was just taking hold, but when it did, the growth was accompanied by the need for a new building.

The final game at the original Assembly Hall was against Rose Poly on January 5, 1917 and it was the fifth-straight victory for IU and it came in dominating fashion, 35-9.

The building attracted former Presidents William Howard Taft and Teddy Roosevelt and also presidential candidate William Jennings Bryan.

The doors to Assembly Hall, which boasted an overall record of 61-43, officially closed in 1938 when it was demolished, but the tradition carried on and only grew stronger.

MEN'S GYMNASIUM

What is now an upstairs recreational gymnasium in the School of Health, Physical Education and Recreation building is the Men's Gymnasium. This facility housed the Indiana Hoosiers from 1916-1928 and was brought into existence amid controversy.

With the original Assembly Hall falling into disrepair, students and faculty alike marched for a new gymnasium for the athletes. Alumni and University personnel also lobbied for its abandonment by the athletic program. The people's wishes were granted in 1914 and with a capacity of 2,000 and a cost of $200,000, the Men's Gymnasium's era began in 1916.

The first game at the gymnasium was on Jan. 19, 1917 against Iowa. The Hoosiers pulled out one of the lowest scoring games in history, 12-7.

The building was the home court of consistent teams coached by the likes of Dana M. Evans and Everett Dean. Dean led his squad to the first two Big Ten Championships in the history of IU Basketball as the head coach. He led the final team to play in the building to the program's first unbeaten home season at Men's Gymnasium (11-0).

As a player, Dean called the Men's Gymnasium home and was named as Indiana University's first All-American in 1921 while playing in that facility.

The team's consistent success led to the growth of the fan base supporting the squad. The capacity of 2,000 was no longer sufficient, so the program had to be moved into another facility.

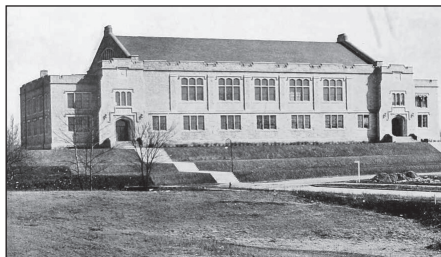

The time had come because the growth was so substantial.

OLD FIELDHOUSE

Indiana's third home, after outgrowing the Men's Gymnasium, was the Old IU Fieldhouse and it was built on East 7th Street with a price tag of $350,000. The dedication game was on December 13, 1928 when IU defeated Eastern Champion Pennsylvania, 34-26. The facility had a portable hardwood floor and a lighting system consisting of 47 electric lamps suspended from the ceiling. Seven floodlights, three above the floor and two pointing directly at the hoops, made it easier for the players to see during the game. It was not one of the luxurious buildings of today, but head coach Everett Dean and the Hoosiers made due with what they were given.

The Old Fieldhouse was where Indiana Head Coach Everett Dean led the Hoosiers into what is now a well-documented tradition. Dean coached the 1936 team to an undefeated home record (9-0) and a share of the Big Ten Conference crown.

The facility saw six perfect seasons including a 24-game unbeaten home winning streak from 1938-1941. It was the home to the "Hurryin' Hoosiers" under head coach Branch McCracken. It was also the home to McCracken as a player where in 1930, he was named an All-American.

The fieldhouse was the home court for the 1940 NCAA National Champions and it was the place where IU attained its first 20-win season going 20-3 including a 9-0 mark at home. It was also the home to the 1953 NCAA National Champion "Hurryin Hoosiers" that went 20-4 overall and an unprecedented 11-0 in the Fieldhouse. Indiana squads amassed an amazing 234-74 overall record in the Old Fieldhouse era. Besides the two national titles, it was the home of five Big Ten Conference Championships, 20 All-Americans, 17 All-Big Ten First Team selections and three Big Ten Most Valuable Players.

Today the Fieldhouse is named the Ora Wildermuth Intramural Center and it houses one of the most well-known facilities in the country. The HPER building's famed basketball courts are now residing where the tradition of Indiana University Basketball began.

NEW FIELDHOUSE

From 1960-71, Indiana played in what is known as today as Gladstein Fieldhouse, adjacent to Assembly Hall. Gladstein Fieldhouse was the fourth home of the Hoosiers

Although it was only expected to last a few seasons, it lasted 11 years. Over that time, Indiana had only two losing seasons and consistency was the name of the game for the Hoosiers.

The building still exists and it plays host to the Indiana University Indoor Track and Field squad and is utilized during graduation ceremonies. The facility has played host to four Men's Big Ten Indoor Track and Field Championships and three Women's Indoor Big Ten Championships. It is a building that is well-utilized throughout the athletic season.

The Hoosiers, under Branch McCracken for the first five years, went a combined 44-15 in those seasons. In the opening game at the Fieldhouse, Indiana defeated Butler 80-53 in front of 9,236 screaming Hoosier fans.

Players like Walt Bellamy, Tom and Dick Van Arsdale and Jimmy Rayl competed at the Fieldhouse. It was the home arena for five All-Americans, six All-Big Ten First Team selections, three Academic All-Americans and three Academic All-Big Ten selections.

The tradition of Indiana University Basketball was not altered in any way by the temporary move to the Fieldhouse, but the tradition began to escalate when the Hoosiers moved into Assembly Hall.

SIMON SKJODT ASSEMBLY HALL

The 2023-24 season marked the 52nd anniversary for the building that is the definition of tradition -- Assembly Hall. The Indiana Hoosiers have won over 82 percent of the games played at Branch McCracken Court. In 2016-17, the facility was renamed to Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall following a $40 million gift from Cindy Simon Skjodt for renovations to the facility.

The last unbeaten team in NCAA basketball, three NCAA Championships, and 11 Big Ten Conference championship-winning teams have graced Branch McCracken Memorial Court. It has been the home to seven perfect seasons including a 56-game winning streak from 1991-1995, and it is the home of the shot that gave Calbert Cheaney the title of Big Ten career scoring leader.

Assembly Hall has played host to the pre- and postseason National Invitational Tournament on six occasions and the 1981 NCAA Midwest Regional Championship won by the Isaiah Thomas-led Indiana Hoosiers. The building was also the home arena of the 1984 Olympic gold medal-winning basketball team coached by Bob Knight.

The cavernous structure was completed in 1971 and is an impressive sight. It has 15,200 fully-cushioned, theatre-style seats located on concourse and upper balcony levels and another 2,057 can be seated in the bleachers located on all four sides at court level. The north and south loge areas give disabled fans an opportunity to have a pristine vantage point for Hoosier games.

The building has a suspension roof made up of 4,500 concrete slabs each six feet long, three inches thick and 30 inches wide. Each slab weighs 500 pounds giving the roof a total weight of 1,350 tons or 2,700,000 pounds. The building holds more than 30,000 yards of concrete, six million pounds of reinforcing steel and almost 1.5 million pounds of structural steel.

Assembly Hall has played host to memorable moments such as Kirk Haston's game-winning three-point shot to knock off No. 1 Michigan State, 59-58, which marked the first time in Assembly Hall history that the Hoosiers upset a No. 1 team at the Hall.

Another memorable victory over Michigan State was the backdrop for the Hoosiers' 400th victory in the facility. IU defeated the Spartans, 78-74, in overtime on Feb. 27, 2005.

During the 2005 summer months, a $1.99-million scoreboard-video board was installed in Assembly Hall. The state-of-the-art scoreboard-video board includes four video screens, four video/scoring/statistics screens, one center-hung ProAd ring, five ProTable scorer's table units, four auxiliary portal scoreboards, as well as three-sided shot clocks and a new game timing system.

During the summers of 2010 and 2011, a new roof was installed on the structure.

The tradition can be felt the instant you walk into Assembly Hall and if you have been there before you can hear Indiana. Our Indiana and Go IU! Fight! Fight! Fight! resonate off the walls and throughout the building long after you leave.

SIMON SKJODT ASSEMBLY HALL

Construction on Assembly Hall, July 2, 1970

From the 1971-72 Men's Basketball Media Guide:

Fabulous Assembly Hall, Indiana University's fifth basketball home in the past 70 years, has become the newest show piece in the I.U. Athletic complex.

Namewise, it will bring Indiana full-circle, since tiny Assembly Hall, a one-story frame building in the center of campus built in the late 1840's, was the original home of Hoosier teams – and, incidentally, the original site of the Indiana high school state tournament. From there basketball moved to the Men's Gymnasium in 1916, to the old I.U. Fieldhouse in 1927 and in 1960, to the new I.U. Fieldhouse.

The finished structure marks the culmination of nearly four years of construction work and over two decades of planning and research. Assembly Hall will be the only enclosed structure on the Bloomington campus that can come to handling the approximately 32,000 students who attend classes here.

The main arena is what Assembly Hall is all about and it will provide the ultimate in playing and spectator facilities. There are over 15,200 theatre-back cushioned chairs located on concourse and upper balcony levels on two sides. By using the pull-out bleacher seats on the ends, total basketball capacity will reach 16,666. An overhead grid of lighting will be supplemented by side-lighting for ideal television coverage.

A unique feature of the building is a concrete roof suspended by cables. It is composed of 4,500 concrete slabs measuring three by six feet. Each weighs 600 pounds, making the total weight of the roof alone a staggering 2,700,000 pounds. If you could put the whole building on scales, it would weigh in the neighborhood of 127 million pounds. It sets on limestone bedrock and required excavation of 60,500 cubic yards of earth and 12,000 yards of rock. Assembly Hall is an engineering and architectural marvel of which Hoosiers can well be proud. It completes one of the most ambitious construction programs ever under-taken by a major university athletic department.

The new plant is a half-mile north of the old location on the main campus. Assembly Hall, I.U. Fieldhouse, Memorial Stadium and 13,300 parking spaces are on a 160-acre tract; adjacent or nearby are Sembower Field, the varsity baseball park; four football practice fields; an 18-hole championship golf course, a par-3 layout and a driving range; an Olympic-size swimming pool; and a 10-lane all-weather Grasstex running track with field event facilities.

Basketball is not the only attraction destined for the building. The arena is adaptable to host anything from a "coat-and-tie" political convention to a formal theatrical production. The basketball court, which has been renamed the "McCracken Memorial Court" in honor of the deceased Hoosier basketball coach who won two NCAA titles during his 24 years of coaching, can be removed and a full 108 x 54-foot portable stage installed all in one day.

INDIANA BASKETBALL

SIMON SKJODT ASSEMBLY HALL

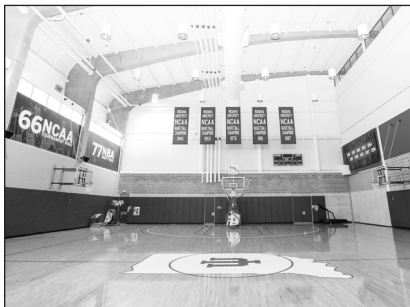

On October 14, 2016, Indiana University President Michael A. McRobbie presided over the dedication of Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall. The historic and venerable arena was renamed in honor of IU alumna Cindy Simon Skjodt, whose $40 million gift represents the largest gift in IU Athletics history. The renovation preserved the greatest home court advantage in college basketball while adding fan amenities and modern technology to the iconic venue.

COOK HALL

Thanks to a generous donation of $15 million to the “For The Glory of Old IU” campaign by the Cook Group, Indiana Basketball is able to call Cook Hall home for day-to-day operations. The late Bill Cook and his wife, Gayle, have been instrumental in a number of different projects at Indiana University and Cook Hall is no exception.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS (HOME)

Please email your requests to Charlie Duffy (csduffy@iu.edu) at least seven days prior to the contest you want to cover. Media may pick up credentials at will call on the south side of Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall.

CREDENTIALS (ROAD/NEUTRAL)

Generally, Charlie Duffy will send a link or the email of the host media relations contact to help you arrange your coverage on the road.

MEDIA GUIDELINES

Interviews with all basketball staff members and players (and families) should be scheduled through Charlie Duffy (csduffy@iu.edu).

SCOUT CREDENTIALS

All scouting credentials, parking passes, and information is handled by David Salatin (dsalatin@iu.edu) in the IU Ticket Office.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

There are a limited number of floor spots for photographers and videographers at Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall. Spaces will be assigned by the Strategic Communications staff prior to each home contest.

SATELLITE TRUCKS

All local television station satellite trucks should park along the drive near the west entrance of Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall.

MEDIA PARKING

Media members will be given Lot 2, Lot 11, or Yellow Lot parking passes will be distributed upon request. All credentials will be issued prior to each home game, if requested and granted, and is necessary to enter any of the three lots.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Head coach Darian DeVries and selected player(s) will be made available following each game in the Press Room.

Visiting teams are responsible for their own post game setup.

The Press Room at Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall will be open two hours prior to tip-off. Game-related materials will be available at that time.

WIRELESS ACCESS

There is free wireless internet access available in your press seat. Contact a member of the IU Strategic Communications office if you have trouble connecting.

RECEIVING INFORMATION

Media members may receive IU Basketball press releases in a number of different manners. The Strategic Communications office provides press releases via e-mail. If members of the media choose to receive press releases via e-mail, they should subscribe to the Big Ten Media Email service.

The service can be accessed at: office.bigten.org/media/.

Generally, a transcript of all post game press conferences and media availabilities are provided.

Personal phone numbers for players and coaches will not be provided to the media. Players and coaches have been advised to not accept phone calls for basketball-related inquiries without clearance from the media relations staff. Any interviews with player's family members also needs to be arranged through the IU Strategic Communications office.

WEEKLY AVAILABILITY

Coach DeVries is made available once a week with a press conference conducted over Zoom. Please check with Charlie Duffy for dates and times during the season. This will likely take place in the morning.

Prior to each game, generally two players will be made available for comments prior to practice via Zoom in the afternoon.

IU RADIO NETWORK

IU RADIO NETWORK

Indiana University's basketball program receives some of the most extensive media coverage in the country. Learfield IMG College holds the exclusive rights as IU's official radio outlet.

DON FISCHER

Don Fischer begins his 53rd year as the "Radio Voice" of Indiana University football and basketball games. The past 38 years, Fischer has worked as an independent contractor, and is currently serving the I.U. Radio Network owned by Learfield. In addition to broadcasting the games, Fischer hosts the weekly coaches talk shows for both football and basketball. Fischer also offers stations a weekly talk show about IU football and basketball that airs in several markets around the state during the school year.

During his 53 years of work at IU, Fischer has been named the state's Sportscenter of the Year 31 times. He was given the first "Woody Durham Voice of College Sports" award by the National Sports Media Association in 2018. Fischer was inducted into the Indiana Sportscenter & Sportswriters Association Hall of Fame in 2004 and inducted into the Indiana Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame in 2010. Don was inducted into the Indiana University Athletics Hall of Fame, received the prestigious Chris Schenkel Award from the National Football Foundation, and College Hall of Fame. He received the Indiana Sportscenter and Sportswriters Association Lifetime Achievement Award in 2022. Among his many other honors, Indiana University had previously decorated Fischer with the J.W. Bill Orwig medal that goes to a non-alumnus for distinguished service, the Bicentennial Medal for distinctive service, and named him an honorary "I" man in 1991.

Fischer has broadcast over 2200 Indiana University games that include 12 Bowl games, five NCAA basketball Final Fours including four NCAA Championship games, and two NIT Championship games.

From 1973 through 1987, he worked for ABC Radio, Canada's CBC, and several other major market radio stations including WIRE in Indianapolis as their source for reports during the month of May coverage of the Indianapolis 500. During that 14 year period, he also served Indianapolis radio station WIRE and Network Indiana, a statewide news network, as their Sports Director.

As an independent contractor, Fischer served the Indianapolis Colts as their pre-season television anchor for 23 years from 1995 through 2017.

In addition, the City of Indianapolis, and the State of Indiana have each honored Fischer with a special "Recognition Day" for his service and abilities as a play by play broadcaster.

A native of Rochelle, Ill., Fischer has been in the radio business for 57 years with stops in Butte, Montana; Ottawa, Ill.; Springfield, Ill.; and Terre Haute, Ind.

Fischer has four sons, 13 grandchildren, and two great grandchildren. He and his wife, Susy, reside in Greenwood, Ind.
